(b) Special requirements for millers. The Secretary shall not permit the registration of any person under this section as a person required to pay the tax imposed by section 3230 (a) (6), unless in the opinion of the Secretary such person (or if a corporation, each officer thereof) is a person of good moral character and unless in the opinion of the Secretary such person is a person of suitable financial standing, intends to engage in good faith in the business of manufacturing or producing fiber or fiber products from the plant Cannabis sativa L. on a commercial basis, and is not seeking registration under this section for the purpose of facilitating the unlawful diversion of marihuana. Any person who is registered under this section and has paid the tax imposed by section 3230 (a) (6) shall afford agents of the Bureau of Narcotics ready access at all times to any part of the premises of the mill or other premises of such person and the right to inspect any and all books, papers, records, or documents connected with the activities of such person in dealing in, manufacturing, and processing Cannabis sativa L. and fiber or fiber products thereof, and the handling of marihuana. The Secretary may cancel or may refuse to renew, after notice and opportunity for hearing, the registration of any such person if he finds that such person has not complied or is not complying with the requirements of this subsection, or if he finds that grounds exist which would justify the refusal to permit the original registration of such person under this section. [As added by sec. 10 (c), 60 Stat. 40; 26 U. S. C. 3231 (b)]

PAR. 3. The first sentence of Article 3 (§ 152.3) is amended by substituting a comma for the period after the word "marihuana" at the end thereof, and adding "or who manufactures or produces any fiber or fiber products from the plant Cannabis sativa L."

PAR. 4. Immediately after Article 4 (§ 152.4), there is inserted the following:

§ 152.4a Investigation of millers' application. (a) All applications filed by millers on Form 678c shall be referred by the collector to the appropriate narcotic district supervisor for investigation, report, and recommendation. Applications on Form 678c for reregistration shall also be referred by the collector to the appropriate narcotic district supervisor for investigation, report, and recommendation, if the collector is in doubt as to the applicant's being lawfully entitled to engage in the activity for which he seeks registration.

(b) In the case of applications which have been so referred, the collector shall not issue a special tax stamp in connection with any registration until information has been submitted to him by the narcotic district supervisor, that the applicant is lawfully entitled to engage in the activity in the district in which he seeks registration.

(c) Upon receipt of such application for registration or reregistration, the narcotic district supervisor shall immediately cause an investigation to be made of the applicant to determine whether he meets the qualifications set forth in section 3231 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code. In the case of a new applicant particularly, the investigation shall include a comprehensive inquiry to determine whether the applicant is equipped with technical facilities and technical skill adequate to establish and maintain the proposed milling operation with reasonable degree of efficiency; whether the applicant has a market for the prospective fiber products; and whether there are or will be appropriate safeguards against diversion of marihuana while en route to, or at, the mill premises. The narcotic district supervisor shall make a complete report of the result of the investigation, with a statement of his findings and his recommendation, to the Commissioner of Narcotics who will notify the district supervisor of his approval or disapproval of the application, or direct that more information be furnished or that additional investigation be made before decision of approval or disapproval is made.

(d) Upon receipt of said notification, the narcotic district supervisor shall return the application to the collector with a statement that it has been approved or disapproved by the Commissioner of Narcotics including, in case of disapproval, representation of the points wherein the applicant lacks statutory qualification. The application together with the statement shall be returned to the collector within twenty days from date of receipt of the application by the district supervisor, unless a longer time shall be required within which to complete an investigation and report. In the latter event the district supervisor shall, upon or before the expiration of the said twenty days, notify the collector stating the estimated additional time required.

(e) If the application is returned disapproved, the collector shall so notify the applicant with a statement of the points wherein he lacks the necessary qualifications, and shall deny him registration.

(f) If the narcotic district supervisor shall find, after investigation, that a miller already registered has not complied or is not complying with the requirements of section 3231 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code, or that grounds exist which would justify the refusal to permit the original registration of such person under said section, he shall report the result of his investigation, with a statement of his findings and his recommendation, to the Commissioner of Narcotics whether or not an application by the miller for reregistration (renewal) has been submitted or is pending. The Commissioner of Narcotics may direct that more information be furnished or that additional investigation be made before decision is made in the case. The final decision of the Commissioner of Narcotics shall be communicated to the narcotic district supervisor and if adverse to the registrant, will include a statement showing wherein said registrant is deemed to be disqualified.

The collector shall immediately notify the registrant of an adverse decision with the included statement of disqualification, and that his current registration is canceled and that reregistration will be, or if application is pending is, denied. As the public health, interest and safety require otherwise, the registrant shall not be accorded opportunity to demonstrate or achieve compliance with the lawful requirements before cancellation of registration or denial of reregistration.

Within fifteen days from the date of the collector's notification of cancellation of existing registration or denial of reregistration, the registrant so notified may request a hearing by letter addressed and mailed to the Commissioner of Narcotics, Washington 25, D. C. Upon receipt of timely application, the Commissioner of Narcotics shall arrange a hearing at a time and place convenient to the parties, but effort will be made to hold such hearing within thirty days, before a hearing officer to be designated by said Commissioner and pursuant to rules to be hereafter promulgated and published.

PAR. 5. There is inserted immediately preceding Article 10 (§ 152.10) the following:

SEC. 3230. TAX (INTERNAL REVENUE CODE)

(a) Liability and time for payment of tax. Every person who imports, manufacturers, produces, compounds, sells, deals in, dispenses, prescribes, administers, or gives away marihuana shall (1) before engaging in any of the above-mentioned activities, and (2) thereafter, on or before July 1 of each year, pay the following special taxes respectively:

(1) Importers, manufacturers, and compounders. Importers, manufacturers, and compounders of marihuana, $24 per year.

(2) Producers. Producers of marihuana (except those included within subdivision (4) of this subsection), $1 per year, or fraction thereof, during which they engage in such activity.

(3) Physicians, dentists, veterinary surgeons, and other practitioners. Physicians, dentists, veterinary surgeons, and other practitioners who distribute, dispense, give away, administer, or prescribe marihuana to patients upon whom they in the course of their professional practice are in attendance, $1 per year or fraction thereof during which they engage in any of such activities.

(4) Persons engaged in research, instruction, or analysis. Any person not registered as an importer, manufacturer, producer, or compounder who obtains and uses marihuana in a laboratory for the purpose of research, instruction, or analysis, or who produces marihuana for any such purpose, $1 per year, or fraction thereof, during which he engages in such activities.

(5) Persons not otherwise taxed. Any person who is not a physician, dentist, veterinary surgeon, or other practitioner and who deals in, dispenses, or gives away marihuana, $3 per year: Provided, That any person who has registered and paid the special tax as an importer, manufacturer, compounder, or producer, as required by subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, may deal in, dispense, or give away marihuana imported, manufactured, compounded, or produced by him without further payment of the tax imposed by this section.

(6) Millers. Any person who at a mill manufactures or produces from the plant Cannabis sativa L. any fiber or fiber products, $1 per year or fraction thereof during which he engaged in such activities. [Subpar. (6) added by sec. 10 (b), 60 Stat. 40; 26 U. S. C. 3230 (a) (6)]

PAR. 6. Article 10 (§ 152.10) is amended as follows:

a. There is inserted in the table under the heading "Class" the numeral "VI"; under the heading "Annual tax rate" the numeral "1"; and under the heading "Persons liable" the word "Millers."

b. The last sentence in paragraph two is amended to read as follows: "Persons registering in classes II, IV, V, or VI, shall pay the tax of $1 a year or for any fractional part thereof, regardless of when business is commenced."

PAR. 7. Immediately after Article 16 (§ 152.16), there is inserted the following:

§ 152.16a Millers. Every person who at a mill manufactures or produces from the marihuana plant any fiber or fiber products is subject to tax as a miller at the rate of $1 per annum or fraction thereof in class VI.

PAR 8. The last sentence in the first paragraph of Article 38 (§ 152.38) is amended to read as follows: "The coupon stamps are issued to registrants in classes I and III, and the stamps without coupons to registrants in classes II, IV, V, and VI."

PAR. 9. There is inserted immediately preceding Article 52 (§ 152.52), the following:

SEC. 2591. ORDER FORMS (INTERNAL REVENUE CODE)

(a) General Requirement. It shall be unlawful for any person, whether or not required to pay a special tax and register under sections 3230 and 3231, to transfer marihuana, except in pursuance of a written order of the person to whom such marihuana is transferred, on a form to be issued in blank for that purpose by the Secretary.

(b) Exceptions. Subject to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, nothing contained in this section shall apply:

(1) Professional practice. To a transfer of marihuana to a patient by a physician, dentist, veterinary surgeon, or other practitioner registered under section 3231, in the course of his professional practice only: Provided, That such physician, dentist, veterinary surgeon, or other practitioner shall keep a record of all such marihuana transferred, showing the amount transferred and the name and address of the patient to whom such marihuana is transferred, and such record shall be kept for a period of two years from the date of the transfer of such marihuana, and subject to inspection as provided in section 2595.

(2) Prescriptions. To a transfer of marihuana, made in good faith by a dealer to a consumer under and in pursuance of a written prescription issued by a physician, dentist, veterinary surgeon, or other practitioner registered under section 3231: Provided, That such prescription shall be dated as of the day on which signed and shall be signed by the physician, dentist, veterinary surgeon, or other practitioner who issues the same: Provided further, That such dealer shall preserve such prescription for a period of two years from the day on which such prescription is filled so as to be readily accessible for inspection by the officers, agents, employees, and officials mentioned in section 2595.

(3) Exportation. To the sale, exportation, shipment, or delivery of marihuana by any person within the United States, any Territory, the District of Columbia, or any of the insular possessions of the United States, to any person in any foreign country regulating the entry of marihuana, if such sale, shipment, or delivery of marihuana is made in accordance with such regulations for importation into such foreign country as are prescribed by such foreign country, such regulations to be promulgated from time to time by the Secretary of State of the United States.

(4) Government and State officials. To a transfer of marihuana to any officer or employee of the United States Government or of any State, Territorial, District, county, or municipal or insular government lawfully engaged in making purchases thereof for the various departments of the Army and Navy, the Public Health Service, and for Government, State, Territorial, District, county, or municipal or insular hospitals or prisons.

(5) Certain seeds. To a transfer of any seeds of the plant Cannabis sativa L. to any person registered under section 3231.

(c) Supply. The Secretary shall cause suitable forms to be prepared for the purposes before mentioned and shall cause them to be distributed to collectors for sale. The price at which such forms shall be sold by said collectors shall be fixed by the Secretary, but shall not exceed 2 cents each. Whenever any collector shall sell any of such forms he shall cause the date of sale, the name and address of the proposed vendor, the name and address of the purchaser, and the amount of marihuana ordered to be plainly written or stamped thereon before delivering the same.

(d) Preservation. Each such order form sold by a collector shall be prepared by him and shall include an original and two copies, any one of which shall be admissible in evidence as an original. The original and one copy shall be given by the collector to the purchaser thereof. The original shall in turn be given by the purchaser thereof to any person who shall, in pursuance thereof, transfer marihuana to him and shall be preserved by such person for a period of two years so as to be readily accessible for inspection by any officer, agent, or employee mentioned in section 2595. The copy given to the purchaser by the collector shall be retained by the purchaser and preserved for a period of two years so as to be readily accessible to inspection by any officer, agent, or employee mentioned in section 2595. The second copy shall be preserved in the records of the collector.

(e) Exemption for certain transfers to Millers. Nothing in this section shall apply to a transfer of the plant Cannabis sativa L. or any parts thereof from any person registered under section 3231 to a person who is also registered under section 3231 as a taxpayer required to pay the tax imposed by section 3230 (a) (6). [Subsec. (e) added by sec. 10 (a), 60 Stat. 40; 26 USC 2591 (e)].

PAR. 10. Article 52 (§ 152.52) is amended by adding the following new subparagraph (6) (§ 152.52 (f)) at the end thereof:

§ 152.52 When order forms not required. * * *

(f) For transfers of the plant Cannabis sativa L. or any parts thereof (including seeds of the plant), from any person registered under section 3231 of the Internal Revenue Code to a person who is also registered under section 3231 of said Code as a taxpayer required to pay the tax imposed by section 3230 (a) (6), of said Code.

PAR. 11. There is inserted immediately after Article 68 (§ 152.68) the following:

§ 152.68a Transfer of the plant Cannabis sativa L. Before making transfers of the plant Cannabis sativa L., the transferor must receive from the transferee a certificate of registration showing such person to be qualified under the act to acquire such plant. Certificates of registration will be issued by the collector for the district in which the transferee is registered, upon request of the transferee. Records covering receipt and disposition of such plant must be kept in the same manner as records of other transactions in marihuana (see article 74½ (§ 152.74a)).

PAR. 12. There is inserted immediately after Article 74 (§ 152.74) the following:

§ 152.74a Returns required of millers. Every person registered as a miller who receives Cannabis sativa L. plants or parts thereof for the purpose of manufacturing or producing any fiber or fiber products, shall render a quarterly return on Form 961, and its supplement, Form 961a. The return shall be submitted to the collector of internal revenue for the district on or before the 15th day of April, July, October, and January, for the quarterly periods ending March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31, respectively. Each such return shall account for all Cannabis sativa L. plants or parts thereof on hand, purchased, or otherwise acquired, all manufacture or producing of fiber or fiber products, and all sales, exports, or other dispositions of such plants or parts thereof, or their products.

All marihuana yield of such Cannabis sativa L. plants or parts thereof (green or dried flowering tops, foliage and seed) shall be destroyed on the miller's premises, and each return shall bear a written statement of the approximate weight of marihuana, or the approximate weight of marihuana and other commingled plant waste material, destroyed during the quarterly period and the method of destruction.

PAR. 13. Immediately after Article 77 (§ 152.77), there is inserted the following:

§ 152.77a Processing by millers. Persons who have registered and paid the tax to process the Cannabis sativa L. plants and parts thereof, for the purpose of extracting any fiber or fiber products therefrom, are required to keep complete records relating to the receipt, disposal, and stock on hand, of all such plants and parts thereof and products therefrom. The Government does not furnish blanks for the keeping of this record, but it should be in a form substantially as follows:

Date	Cannabis sativa L. plants and parts		Disposed of—		On hand			Remarks
	Received (pounds)	Processed (pounds)	Fiber (pounds)	Fiber products (pounds)	Plants (pounds)	Fiber (pounds)	Products (pounds)

EXTENSION TO TENNESSEE OF QUARANTINE ON ACCOUNT OF WHITE-FRINGED BEETLES AND EXTENSION TO REGULATED AREAS IN CERTAIN OTHER STATES NOW UNDER SAID QUARANTINE

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING AND OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given as required by section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1946 ed. 161), and section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1946 ed. 1003 (a)) as follows:

The Secretary of Agriculture has information that white-fringed beetles (Graphognathus spp.), introduced insect pests destructive to agriculture and not heretofore known to be widely prevalent or generally distributed within the United States except in parts of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, and South Carolina, have now been found to be present also in the State of Tennessee.

It is necessary, therefore, to consider amending Quarantine No. 72 on account of white-fringed beetles (7 CFR 301.72 et seq.; 13 F. R. 2811) to quarantine the State of Tennessee and to restrict or prohibit the movement from that State, or regulated portions thereof, into any other State, Territory or District, of any carriers of white-fringed beetles, including but not limited to the following articles:

Soil, sand, gravel, clay, compost, manure, peat, or muck, whether moved independently of or in connection with or attached to nursery stock, plants, products, articles, or things.
Nursery stock.
Grass sod.
Plant crowns or roots for propagation.
Uncleaned grass, grain, and legume seed.
Potatoes (Irish), when freshly harvested.
True bulbs, corms, tubers, and rhizomes of ornamental plants, when freshly harvested or uncured.
Hay and straw.
Peanuts in shells and peanut shells.
Seed cotton and cottonseed.
Scrap metal, junk, and cinders.

Consideration is also being given to extension of the presently regulated area designated in regulations supplemental to Quarantine No. 72 on account of white-fringed beetles (7 CFR 301.72–2; 13 F. R. 2811) to include parts of Clarke and Houston counties in Alabama, Jackson county in Florida, Crawford county in Georgia, East Baton Rouge and Washington parishes in Louisiana, Greene county in Mississippi, and Jones and Lenoir counties in North Carolina, where initial or additional infestations of white-fringed beetles were discovered during the last season; and to include additional parts of counties which are now under regulation in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, and North Carolina, where extensions of infestations of white-fringed beetles were found during the last season.

A public hearing will be held before the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine in the conference room, Patton Hotel, Chattanooga, Tennessee, at 10:00 a. m., December 1, 1948, in order that any person interested in the proposed quarantine or quarantine extension may appear and be heard, either in person or by attorney. Any interested person who desires to do so may also submit written views, data or arguments on these subjects by filing them with the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., on or before November 30, 1948.

[SEAL] A. J. LOVELAND,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

RULES AND AERONAUTICAL SERVICES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. It is proposed to amend § 9.172 of the rules governing aeronautical services to permit the continued use under certain conditions of currently licensed ground station equipment operating on frequencies above 500 kc even though that equipment cannot meet the frequency stability of 0.01% as provided for in this section. The proposed amended rule would read as follows:

§ 9.172 Frequency stability.[1] The carrier frequency of stations in the aeronautical service shall be maintained within the following percentage of the assigned frequency:

	Before Jan. 1 1950	After Jan. 1 1950
	Per-cent	Per-cent
All aircraft stations on frequencies above 500 kc	.02	.01
All ground stations on frequencies above 500 kc	.01	.01
All stations on frequencies of 500 kc or below	.02	.02

[1] All new equipment shall meet this requirement. All existing equipment operating on frequencies below 30,000 kilocycles shall meet this requirement if this tolerance can be met by crystal change alone; otherwise the tolerance shall be 0.02%.

3. The proposed amendment is issued under the authority of section 303 (e), (f) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

[1] These tolerance requirements are obviously not applicable to certain devices such as altimeters and various radar equipments which are now operating on an experimental basis to determine their value, design and frequency requirements. Pending decision on the final status of such equipment and the modification of the Commission's rules to meet their needs, tolerance requirements will be specified on the licenses under which such devices operate.

4. Any interested person who is of the opinion that the proposed amendment should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth, may file with the Commission on or before November 19, 1948, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Persons desiring to support the amendment may also file comments by the same date. The Commission will consider all comments, briefs and arguments presented before taking final action with respect to the proposed amendment.

COMMERCIAL RADIO OPERATORS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The proposed amendment of the Commission's rules governing commercial radio operators, by the establishment of a new § 13.5, is designed to prevent persons whose commercial radio operator licenses are suspended, persons involved in license suspension proceedings, or persons involved in pending litigation based on an alleged violation of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, from escaping the penalty imposed (or that may be imposed) by declaring such persons temporarily ineligible to apply for commercial radio operator licenses of any class. Also, in view of the numerous letters received by the Commission from aliens requesting Commercial radio operator licenses, it is proposed to include in the new § 13.5 the provision of section 303 (l) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that radio operator licenses be issued only to such citizens of the United States that the Commission finds qualified.

3. The proposed amendment, authority for which is contained in sections 4 (i), 303 (l) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, is set forth below:

4. Any interested person who is of the opinion that the proposed amendment should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the manner set forth below, may file with the Commission on or before November 19, 1948, a statement or brief setting forth his comments. At the same time, persons favoring the amendment as proposed may file statements in support thereof. The Commission will consider such comments that are presented before taking action in the matter, and if any comments are submitted which appear to warrant the holding of a hearing or oral argument, notice of the time and place of such hearing or oral argument will be given.

5. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and fourteen copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] T. J. SLOWIE,
Secretary.

It is proposed to amend Part 13 of the Commission's rules and regulations by adding a new § 13.5 as follows:

§ 13.5 Eligibility for new license. (a) Under the provisions of section 303 (l) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, United States citizens who are found qualified by the Commission are the only persons to whom radio operator licenses may be issued.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Commission's rules, no person otherwise eligible shall be deemed to be eligible to be examined for or to receive a commercial radio operator license of any class, (1) whose commercial radio operator license is under suspension or is involved in a suspension proceeding, or (2) who is involved in any pending litigation based on an alleged violation of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[18 CFR, Parts 03, 157]

[Docket No. R-110]

FILING OF APPLICATIONS FOR CERTIFICATES OF PUBLIC CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

OCTOBER 12, 1948.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. It is proposed to adopt three general rules: The first to clarify the interpretation to be given generally to certain words and phrases of section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended; the second to permit natural-gas companies subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under such act, as amended, without further authorization from the Commission; (a) to construct or install and operate certain auxiliary and replacement facilities, and facilities for the establishment of new delivery points for presently served communities; and (b) to construct and/or operate facilities for temporary periods when necessary to assure maintenance of adequate natural-gas service where interruption of service exists or is threatened; and the third to amend the present regulations respecting applications for temporary certificates under section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, so as to limit the filing of such applications to cases of emergency involving minor extensions of existing facilities and interconnections of pipe line systems.

3. Section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, provides among other things, that a certificate of public convenience and necessity must be obtained before any person may construct, acquire, or operate "facilities" for the purpose of engaging in the transportation or sale of natural gas, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. Since the word "facilities" as used in this section of the act has not been defined, it has been given varying interpretations by those within the purview of section 7 (c). Clarification of the administrative interpretation to be given to section 7 (c) of the act, and specifically the word "facilities" as used therein, is desirable, in order to obtain greater uniformity in matters arising under this section of the statute and to avoid the filing and consideration of unnecessary applications for certificates.

4. Section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, also provides, among other things, that the Commission "may by regulation exempt from the requirements of this section temporary acts or operations for which the issuance of a certificate will not be required in the public interest." The Commission has not heretofore found it necessary to issue a regulation of the nature contemplated by this provision of the act. However, because of greatly increased demands being made on natural-gas companies and the inability of such companies immediately to expand or improve their facilities sufficiently to meet such demands, there has been an increasing number of applications for temporary authority to construct and/or operate facilities for short periods of emergency. In order to relieve the administrative burden and to enable natural-gas companies to act immediately to assure maintenance of adequate natural-gas service where interruption of service exists or is threatened because of failure of facilities or failure of natural gas supply or because of unusual and unexpected demand on such facilities or supply, the Commission proposes by regulation to permit the performance of such temporary emergency acts without the necessity of first obtaining specific authorization therefor.

5. Section 157.9 of the general rules and regulations presently permits the filing of applications for temporary certificates under section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, but requires that application for a permanent certificate shall be filed within 10 days thereafter if the emergency may continue for more than 30 days. The issuance of the regulation referred to in the paragraph next above will make it unnecessary for natural-gas companies to obtain specific authorization for emergency acts of less than 60 days' duration. Accordingly, it is appropriate and desirable that the present § 157.9 be amended. The proposed amendment is intended to restrict applications for temporary certificates to actual cases of emergency where it is necessary to construct and/or operate facilities in order to assure maintenance of adequate service or to serve particular customers and the emergency does not permit a final determination with respect to a pending application for a permanent certificate.

6. The proposed amendments to the Commission's general rules and regulations set forth below are proposed to be issued under the authority granted the Federal Power Commission by the Natural Gas Act, as amended, particularly sections 7 and 16 thereof (52 Stat. 824, 830; 56 Stat. 83; 15 U. S. C. Supp 717f, 15 U. S. C. 717o).

PART 03—SUBSTANTIVE RULES, GENERAL POLICY AND INTERPRETATIONS

§ 03.80 Definition of term used in section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended. For the purposes of section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, the word "facilities" as used therein shall be interpreted to exclude:

(a) Auxiliary facilities. Facilities which are merely auxiliary or appurtenant to an existing transmission pipe line system such as: Valves; yard and station piping; cathodic protection equipment; metering and regulating equipment; gas cleaning, cooling and dehydration equipment; residual refining equipment; water pumping, treating and cooling equipment; electrical and communication equipment; and buildings: Provided, That such facilities do not change the daily delivery capacity of such existing transmission pipe line system.

(b) Replacement facilities. Facilities which constitute the replacement of existing facilities which have or will become unserviceable: Provided, That such replacement will not result in a reduction or abandonment of service rendered by means of such facilities: And, provided, further, That such replacement does not change the daily delivery capacity of the existing transmission pipe line system.

(c) New delivery points. Facilities for metering, regulating and for branch lines necessary to the establishment of new delivery points required for the delivery of gas to an existing customer for resale in a local community presently served from the same pipe line system by such customer.

PART 157—APPLICATIONS FOR CERTIFICATES OF PUBLIC CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY UNDER SECTION 7 OF THE NATURAL GAS ACT, AS AMENDED

§ 157.9 Applications. Pending the determination of an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, application may be made in cases of emergency for a temporary certificate authorizing the construction and operation of such minor extensions of existing facilities and such interconnections of pipe line systems as may be required to assure maintenance of adequate service, or to serve particular customers. Such application for temporary certificate may be formal or informal and shall state clearly and specifically the exact character of the emergency, the proposed method of meeting it, and the facts warranting the issuance of a temporary certificate.

§ 157.14 Exemption from requirements of section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, of certain temporary acts or operations. Public interest does not require the issuance of a certificate for the construction and operation of facilities or the undertaking of operations necessary to assure maintenance of adequate natural-gas service where interruption of service exists or is threatened because of failure of facilities supplying natural gas or failure of natural gas supply or unusual and unexpected demand on such facilities or natural-gas supply, and where such acts and operations are limited to a period aggregating not more than sixty (60) days.

All facilities used in connection with such temporary acts or operations shall be removed immediately upon discontinuance of the use thereof, unless appropriate application is made pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation thereof.

Any company which shall engage in such temporary acts or operations pursuant to this section shall, within ten (10) days after commencement thereof, file with this Commission a statement in writing setting forth the purpose and character of such temporary acts or operations and giving a description of any facilities specifically constructed therefor, and likewise shall file with the Commission a statement in writing of the fact and date of discontinuance of such temporary acts or operations within ten (10) days after such discontinuance. Such company shall also file a statement in writing of the fact and date of removal of any facilities specifically constructed for the purpose of enabling such temporary acts or operations within five (5) days of the completion of removal thereof.

7. Any interested person may submit to the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than November 30, 1948, data, views and comments in writing concerning the proposed amendments. The Commission will consider these written submittals before acting upon the proposed amendments.

WTVJ AND SOUTHERN RADIO AND TELEVISION EQUIPMENT CO.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In the matter of revocation of construction permit of television station WTVJ, Miami, Florida, Docket No. 9149, and application for consent to transfer of control of Southern Radio and Television Equipment Company, permittee of television station WTVJ, Miami, Florida, File No. BTC-636, Docket No. 9114.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on October 15, 1948;

The Commission having under consideration the above application for transfer of control of station WTVJ, Miami, Florida from Robert G. Venn, Edward N. Claughton and E. J. Nelson to Wolfson-Meyer Theater Enterprises, Inc., Mitchell Wolfson, Sidney Meyer, Frances Wolfson, Zenia Meyer and Robert Venn, together with a request by the parties thereto that the aforesaid application be designated in a consolidated proceeding with the hearing on the above revocation matter; and

It appearing, that the Commission on July 29, 1948, revoked the construction permit of the aforesaid station WTVJ, held by Southern Radio and Television Equipment Company as permittee; on September 8, 1948, granted the request of Southern Radio and Television Equipment Company for hearing in the matter; and, on October 4, 1948, ordered that such hearing be held in Miami, Florida on October 25, 1948; and

It further appearing, that a grant of the instant request would conduce to the efficient dispatch of the Commission's business and would serve the public interest,

It is ordered, That the aforesaid application for transfer of control of station WTVJ be, and it is hereby, designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding with the hearing to be held on the above revocation matter, the said application for consent to transfer to be heard on the following issues:

1. To determine whether the proposed transferee is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to own or control and to operate station WTVJ, Miami, Florida:

2. To determine the full contract arrangements or agreement of sale either presently made or to be made by the proposed transferor with the transferee, including the price and the manner of payment and the properties to be received therefor.

3. To secure full information as to the plans of the proposed transferee for staffing the station, its plans with respect to the station's programming, and all other plans or arrangements for the operation of the station.

4. To determine whether the construction permit for station WTVJ, granted to Southern Radio and Television Equipment Company, or the rights and responsibilities incident thereto, have been transferred, assigned, or disposed of, directly or indirectly, without the consent of the Commission to the proposed transferee herein, and in contravention of the provisions of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and more particularly sections 319 (b) thereof.

5. To determine whether all contracts, obligations, undertakings and agreements which have been entered into by the proposed transferor and by the proposed transferor with proposed transferee relative to the ownership, operation, financing and control of Southern

Radio and Television Equipment Company have been reported to the Commission as is required by its rules and regulations.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-999]

MISSISSIPPI RIVER FUEL CORP.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

OCTOBER 19, 1948.

Upon consideration of the application filed February 11, 1948, by Mississippi River Fuel Corporation (Applicant) a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at St. Louis, Missouri, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural-gas facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as fully described in such application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection;

It appears to the Commission that:

This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, Applicant having requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by the aforesaid rule for non-contested proceedings, and no request to be heard, protest or petition having been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 27, 1948 (13 F. R. 1068).

The Commission, therefore, orders that:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on November 9, 1948, at 9:45 a. m. (e. s. t.) in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application: provided, however, that the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: October 19, 1948.

HARTNETT-MORROW MFG. CO. ET AL.

ORDER APPOINTING TRIAL EXAMINER AND FIXING TIME AND PLACE FOR TAKING TESTIMONY

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of October A. D. 1948.

In the matter of John F. Hartnett and George Morrow, individually and trading as Hartnett-Morrow Manufacturing Company; John Henry Vaughn, individually and trading as John Henry & Company; Cramer Products, Inc., a corporation; General Commodities, Inc., a corporation; Harold W. Cramer, Carl Schiffke, and Roy A. Cramer, individually, and as officers of Cramer Products, Inc., a corporation; and John D. Armstrong, Ernest R. Beverly, and John W. Browers, individually and as officers of Cramer Products, Inc., a corporation, and General Commodities, Inc., a corporation.

This matter being at issue and ready for the taking of testimony and the receipt of evidence, and pursuant to authority vested in the Federal Trade Commission,

It is ordered, That Randolph Preston, a Trial Examiner of this Commission, be and he hereby is designated and appointed to take testimony and receive evidence in this proceeding and to perform all other duties authorized by law;

It is further ordered, That the taking of testimony and the receipt of evidence begin on Wednesday, October 27, 1948, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon of that day (central standard time), in Rettt Jury Room 527, United States Court House, 811 Grand Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri.

Upon completion of the taking of testimony and receipt of evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint, the Trial Examiner is directed to proceed immediately to take testimony and evidence on behalf of the respondents. The Trial Examiner will then close the taking of testimony and evidence and, after all intervening procedure as required by law, will close the case and make and serve on the parties at issue a recommended decision which shall include recommended findings and conclusions, as well as the reasons or basis therefor, upon all the material issues of fact, law, or discretion presented on the record, and an appropriate recommended order; all of which shall become a part of the record in said proceeding.

UNLOADING OF LOGS ON ALAMEDA BELT LINE

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of October A. D. 1948.

It appearing that 2 cars of logs at San Francisco, Calif., on the Alameda Belt Line, have been on hand for an unreasonable length of time and that the delay in unloading said cars is impeding their use; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action. It is ordered, That:

(a) Logs at San Francisco, Calif., be unloaded. The Alameda Belt Line, its agents or employees, shall unload immediately SP 95444 and SP 56630, containing logs, now on hand at San Francisco, Calif., consigned Berry & McCarthy.

(b) Demurrage. No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall charge or demand or collect or receive any demurrage or storage charges for the detention under load of any car specified in paragraph (a) of this order for the detention period commencing at 7:00 a. m., October 20, 1948, and continuing until the actual unloading of said car or cars is completed.

(c) Provisions suspended. The operation of any or all rules, regulations, or practices, insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order, is hereby suspended.

(d) Notice and expiration. Said carrier shall notify the Director, Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., when it has completed the unloading required by paragraph (a) hereof, and such notice shall specify when, where, and by whom such unloading was performed. Upon receipt of that notice this order shall expire.

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective immediately; that a copy of this order and direction be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File Nos. 70-1250, 59-85]

PENNSYLVANIA EDISON CO. ET AL.

ORDER APPROVING PLAN AND RESERVING JURISDICTION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of October A. D. 1948.

Associated Electric Company, a registered holding company, and two of its public-utility subsidiaries, Pennsylvania Electric Company and Pennsylvania Edison Company, having jointly filed an application pursuant to section 11(e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for approval of a plan of liquidation of Pennsylvania Edison Company and applications-declarations, as amended, for the issuance of certain securities by Pennsylvania Electric Company and the acquisition of certain securities by Associated Electric Company; and

Said proceedings having been consolidated with proceedings instituted under section 11 (b) (2);

The Commission having approved on June 19, 1946, certain portions of said plan, including the payment to the two series of preferred stock of Pennsylvania Edison Company of cash payments in the amount of their respective liquidation preferences, and having reserved jurisdiction with respect to what additional amounts, if any, should be paid to holders of said preferred stock and "to entertain such further proceedings, to make such supplemental findings, and to take such further action as it may deem appropriate in connection with the plan";

An escrow fund having been established to provide the amount in dispute and other portions of said plan having been duly consummated;

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice on the reserved issue, the Commission having considered the record in the matter and having made and filed its supplemental findings and opinion herein;

On the basis of the findings set forth in said supplemental findings and opinion:

It is hereby ordered, That the said plan be and the same is hereby approved as providing for the payment to the holders of the $5.00 series of preferred stock of $5.00 per share plus compensation for delay in payment calculated at a rate equal to 6¼% per annum on $5.00 from July 2, 1948, to the date payment is made available to such holders by the paying agent, and payment to the holders of the $2.80 series of preferred stock of $2.50 per share plus compensation for delay in payment calculated at a rate equal to 5⅓% per annum on $2.50 from July 2, 1946, to the date payment is made available to such holders by the paying agent, and payment of said sums is hereby ordered; and

It is further ordered, That approval of said plan is subject to the conditions specified in Rule U-24; and

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and hereby is reserved to the Commission to entertain such further proceedings, to make such supplemental findings, and to take such further action as it may deem appropriate in connection with the plan, the transactions incident thereto and the consummation thereof and, in the event the plan be not consummated, to enter such further orders as it may deem appropriate under section 11 (b) (2) and the other applicable sections of the act.

SOUTHWESTERN GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of October A. D. 1948.

In the matter of Southwestern Gas and Electric Company, Arkansas Power & Light Company, the Arklahoma Corporation, File No. 70-1924.

Notice is hereby given that Southwestern Gas and Electric Company ("Southwestern") and Arkansas Power & Light Company ("Arkansas"), each a subsidiary of a registered holding company, and the Arklahoma Corporation ("Arklahoma"), an affiliate of Southwestern and Arkansas, have jointly filed an application-declaration and amendments thereto, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, ("act"), designating section 9 (a) (1) and Rule U-43 promulgated under the act as being applicable to the proposed transactions:

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than October 28, 1948 at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application-declaration, as amended, which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after October 28, 1948, said application-declaration, as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under said act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration, as amended, which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

Arklahoma proposes to sell certain utility equipment, designated as nine capacitors, for a cash consideration of $17,000 each or a total of $153,000; and Arkansas proposes to acquire six of the said capacitors at an aggregate purchase price of $102,000, and Southwestern proposes to acquire three of the said capacitors at a total price of $51,000. The gross proceeds of $153,000 to be derived from the proposed sale will be applied by Arklahoma to retirement of a like principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, pursuant to the Mortgage and Deed of Trust securing said bonds.

The application-declaration represents that no State commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Applicants-declarants have requested that the Commission's order granting and permitting said application-declaration to become effective, be effective forthwith upon issuance.

By the Commission.

UNITED LIGHT AND RAILWAYS CO. AND AMERICAN LIGHT AND TRACTION CO.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER AUTHORIZING AND APPROVING DISTRIBUTION AND TRANSFER OF COMMON STOCK

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of October A. D. 1948.

The Commission by order dated December 30, 1947, having approved the plan, designated as Application No. 31, as amended, filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), by the United Light and Railways Company ("Railways") and American Light & Traction Company ("American"), registered holding companies, which provided, inter alia, for the distribution and transfer by Railways, quarterly during 1948, to its common stockholders, as dividends in kind, of shares of the common stock of American Light of the par value of $25 per share at the rate of one share of such common stock of American Light for each 50 shares of common stock of Railways owned (together with cash in lieu of fractional shares); and said order of December 30, 1947, having recited, among other things, that the distribution and transfer by Railways to its common-stockholders, as dividends in kind of such common stock of American Light at the aforesaid rate are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act; and the Commission having in said order reserved jurisdiction, inter alia, to take such further action and to enter such further orders as may be deemed appropriate in connection with the plan, the transactions incident thereto and the consummation thereof, and as may be necessary to secure full compliance with the act; and

The Board of Directors of Railways having declared a dividend on the outstanding common stock of the company, payable October 21, 1948 to stockholders of record at the close of business on September 28, 1948 in shares of common stock of the par value of $25 per share of American Light, at the rate of one share of such common stock of American Light, for each 50 shares of the common stock of Railways outstanding on the record date (together with cash in lieu of fractional shares), such dividend having been declared pursuant to said section 11 (e) plan and the Commission's order entered December 30, 1947 approving the same; and

Railways having requested the Commission to issue a supplemental order with respect to the said dividend distribution, conforming to the requirements of section 1808 (f) and Supplement R of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended; and the Commission deeming it appropriate to grant such request:

It is hereby ordered and recited, That the distribution and transfer by Railways on October 21, 1948 to its common stockholders, as a dividend in kind, of 61,216 shares of common stock of American Light of the par value of $25 per share (out of Certificate No. NX 1480), all as contemplated by the amended plan and the Commission's order of December 30, 1947 approving said plan, are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and are hereby authorized and approved.

By the Commission.

GEORGIA POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C. on the 19th day of October 1948.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1933 (the "act") by Georgia Power Company ("Georgia"), a public utility subsidiary of the Southern Company, a registered holding company and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Commonwealth & Southern Corporation, also a registered holding company. Applicant has designated section 6 (b) of the act and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 1, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest, and the issues of fact or law raised by said application which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed as follows: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., on November 1, 1948, said application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized as follows:

Georgia proposes to issue and sell $12,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, ------ % series, due 1978, to be issued under and secured by Georgia's present indenture dated as of March 1, 1941, as supplemented by indentures dated as of March 1, 1941, and December 1, 1947 and to be dated as of December 1, 1948. The bonds will be sold pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50.

The filing states that Georgia has made and contemplates making expenditures of approximately $83,600,000 during the years 1948, 1949 and 1950 for the construction or acquisition of property additions to its utility plant. In order to finance such construction program, the company will, to the extent available, use its cash on hand (including the proceeds of the new bonds) in excess of working capital and cash generated from operations. The company estimates that, based upon the present level of earnings and current expectations of the probable progress of its construction program, approximately $20,000,000 of additional funds will have to be provided by other means before the end of 1950 in order to finance such construction program. To the extent necessary, it is proposed to issue additional securities of a type and in an amount not yet determined.

The filing indicates that Georgia has filed an application with the Georgia Public Service Commission, the State commission of the State in which Georgia is organized and doing business, for approval of the proposed transaction.

The applicant has requested that the Commission's order be issued as soon as possible and that it become effective forthwith upon issuance.

By the Commission.

UNITED STATES TARIFF COMMISSION

ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

Sec.
1. Creation and authority.
2. Offices.
3. Organization.
4. Functions.
5. Availability of information.

SECTION 1. Creation and authority. The United States Tariff Commission was created by act of Congress approved September 8, 1916 (39 Stat. 795) for the purpose of supplying the Congress and the President with information regarding the position of United States industries in competition with imports, regarding the administration and operation of United States customs laws, and regarding commercial policies of foreign countries. The Tariff Act of 1922 (42 Stat. 858) increased its functions by providing for investigation and report by the Tariff Commission before action by the President under the authority given him by that act to change duties when found necessary to equalize differences in costs of production in the United States and foreign countries and also before action by him embargoing imports pursuant to the provision declaring unfair methods of competition in the import trade to be unlawful. Title III, Part II, of the Tariff Act of 1930 (46 Stat. 696; 19 U. S. C. 1330-41) provided for a reorganization of the Tariff Commission and reenacted substantially all the previous provisions regarding its powers and duties. The Agricultural Adjustment Act (of 1933), as amended by section 3 of the Agricultural Act of 1948 (Pub. Law 897, 80th Cong.), designates the Tariff Commission as the agency to conduct investigations to determine whether imports are interfering with agricultural programs undertaken by the Department of Agriculture. The Philippine Trade Act of 1946 (Pub. Law 371, 79th Cong.) imposes upon the Tariff Commission the function of conducting investigations and reporting to the President in connection with the administration of the provisions of that act respecting quotas on imports of Philippine articles. Section 3 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1948 (Pub. Law 792, 80th Cong.) requires the Tariff Commission to conduct investigations regarding products on which the granting of tariff concessions will be considered in trade agreement negotiations, to determine the extent to which duties and other import restrictions may be modified without causing or threatening serious injury to domestic producers. Section 4 of the same act directs the Commission to furnish facts, statistics, and other information at its command to the trade-agreement-negotiation authorities. Part III of Executive Order 10004 (13 F. R. 5851) provides for investigation and report to the President by the Tariff Commission regarding injury to domestic producers resulting from trade-agreement concessions.

SEC. 2. Offices. The main offices of the United States Tariff Commission are located in the Tariff Commission Building, E Street between 7th and 8th Streets, N. W., Washington 25, D. C. SEC. 3. Organization—(a) The Commission. The full Commission consists of six members, appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate for terms of 6 years each, one term expiring each year. The law provides that not more than three commissioners may be of the same political party. The Chairman and Vice Chairman are designated by the President annually from the membership of the Commission.

(b) The Planning and Reviewing Committee. The Planning and Reviewing Committee, composed of senior officers of the Commission's staff, under the active direction of the Commission, plans, supervises, and coordinates the work of the staff of the Commission. The permanent members of the Planning and Reviewing Committee are the Director of Investigation, who is Chairman of the Committee; the Chief of the Economics Division; the Chief Economist; the Chief of the Technical Service, who has general supervision over the work of the seven commodity divisions; the General Counsel; and the Special Industrial Adviser. In connection with special subjects in which they are particularly concerned, the Secretary or the Executive Officer and the chiefs of the commodity and other divisions participate in the meetings of the Planning and Reviewing Committee.

(c) Senior staff officers and subsidiary organizational units. The senior officers of the Commission's staff, together with the subsidiary organizational units under their general supervision, are as follows:

Secretary:
  Executive Officer.
  Docket and Public Information Service.
  Finance Section.
  Personnel Section.
  Stenographic Section.
  Mails and Files Section.
  Graphic Section.
  Messengers.
Director of Investigation (also Chairman, Planning and Reviewing Committee).
Chief Economist.
Chief Economics Division:
  Economics Division.
  Statistical Division.
  Library.
  Editorial Section.
Chief Technical Service:
  Agricultural Division.
  Ceramics Division.
  Chemical Division.
  Lumber-Paper Division.
  Metals Division.
  Sundries Division.
  Textile Division.
  Accounting Division.
  New York Office.
General Counsel:
  Legal Division.
Special Industrial Adviser.

SEC. 4. Functions—(a) Investigations and reports under general powers. Under its general powers (section 332, Tariff Act of 1930; 46 Stat. 698; 19 U. S. C. 1332) the Commission, on its own initiative, investigates and makes reports on the following matters:

(1) The administration and operation of the customs laws of the United States and the fiscal and industrial effects of those laws.

(2) The forms of duty (ad valorem, specific, and compound) and the relations between the rates of duty on raw materials and on finished or partly finished products.

(3) Competition between United States and foreign industries in the United States markets, including such matters as the ratio of imports to domestic production and consumption, the comparability of imported and domestic products, and the differences in prices and in costs of production here and abroad.

(4) The trade and trade policies of foreign countries, the organization of the economies of foreign countries, their commercial treaties and agreements, and foreign trade controls.

(b) Investigations requested by the President and Congress. The Commission makes special investigations when requested by the President, by either or both Houses of Congress, or by Congressional Committees, particularly by the Committee on Finance of the Senate and the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives. These investigations are conducted under the Commission's general powers.

(c) Investigations under the flexible tariff provision. Under section 336 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (46 Stat. 701; 19 U. S. C. 1336), the Commission investigates the differences in costs of production of foreign articles and of like or similar articles produced in the United States; it reports its findings to the President, who is authorized by law to increase or decrease statutory rates of duty in accordance with the Commission's findings by not more than 50 per centum.

NOTE: The provisions of section 336 of the Tariff Act of 1930 may not be applied to any article with respect to the importation of which into the United States a foreign trade agreement has been concluded under the Trade Agreements Act of 1934, as amended. (Sec. 2 (a), 48 Stat. 944; 19 U. S. C. 1352 (a))

(d) Unfair practices in import trade. Under section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (46 Stat. 703, 54 Stat. 724; 19 U.S.C. 1337, 1337a) the Commission investigates allegations of unfair methods of competition and unfair acts in the importation into or in the sale of imported articles in the United States, and reports its findings to the President, who may order the exclusion of the articles from entry into the United States if the existence of unfair practices is established.

(e) Discrimination by foreign countries against American commerce. It is the duty of the Commission to ascertain, and at all times to be informed regarding discriminations by foreign countries against the commerce of the United States, and to bring such practices to the attention of the President, who may take specified actions in such cases (46 Stat. 704; 19 U. S. C. 1338).

(f) Foreign trade agreements—(1) Technical assistance to trade-agreement-negotiation authorities. Under section 4 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1948 (Pub. Law 792, 80th Cong.) and Part II of Executive Order 10004 (13 F. R. 5851), the Commission furnishes facts, statistics, and other information at its command to officers and employees of the United States preparing for or participating in the negotiation of any foreign trade agreement. With respect to each import article which is under consideration for possible modification of duties and other import restrictions, imposition of additional import restrictions, or specific continuance of existing customs or excise treatment in a trade agreement, the Commission makes an analysis of the facts relative to production, trade, consumption, or other competitive factors affecting the article involved, or bearing on the probable effect of granting a concession thereon. These analyses are submitted in digest form to the Trade Agreements Committee.

(2) Investigations preceding trade agreements. Under section 3 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1948, the Tariff Commission investigates and reports to the President findings with respect to products on which the granting of tariff concessions by the United States will be considered in a particular trade-agreement negotiation. The purpose of these investigations is to determine the limits to which tariff concessions may be granted without causing or threatening serious injury to the domestic industry, and, in cases where increases in duties or additional import restrictions are required to avoid serious injury to the domestic industry, the minimum increases in duties or additional import restrictions so required.

(3) Investigations subsequent to trade agreements. Under Part III of Executive Order 10004 (13 F. R. 5851), the Commission investigates to determine whether the domestic industry producing any given article is being seriously injured or is threatened with serious injury as a result of the granting of a trade-agreement concession on the article. It reports its findings to the President for his consideration in connection with the right reserved in trade agreements to withdraw or modify any concession in cases where serious injury or threat of injury to a domestic industry is found to result from it.

(4) Annual report on operation of trade-agreements program. Part III of Executive Order 10004 (13 F. R. 5851) requires the Tariff Commission to keep informed concerning the operation and effect of trade-agreement provisions, and, at least once a year, to submit to the President and to the Congress a factual report on the operation of the trade-agreements program.

(g) Action to safeguard agricultural programs. When directed by the President, the Commission investigates whether articles are being or are practically certain to be imported into the United States under such conditions and in such quantities as to render ineffective or to interfere materially with Government agricultural programs. If, on the basis of the Commission's investigation and report, the President finds the existence of such facts, he may impose, within certain restrictions, fees or quantitative limitations on the importation of articles under consideration (Agricultural Act of 1948, sec. 3, Pub. Law 897, 80th Cong.)

(h) Import quotas on Philippine articles. Section 504 of the Philippine Trade Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 156) designates the Tariff Commission as the agency to investigate the effect of competition between imports of Philippine articles (not subject to quota restriction under Part 2 of Title II of the Act) and like domestic articles; the Commission reports to the President regarding the necessity under the Act for the imposition by him of import quotas on such Philippine articles.

(i) Cooperation with other Government agencies. Under section 334 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (46 Stat. 700; 19 U. S. C. 1334), the Commission is required to cooperate with other Government agencies. Under this provision assistance is rendered insofar as practicable, to those Government agencies requesting it.

(j) Analysis of import invoices. To carry on properly its work of acquiring basic factual information on the import trade, the Commission makes extensive studies of invoices and other import records, and primarily in connection with this work maintains an office at the Customhouse in New York City.

SEC. 5. Availability of information— (a) In general. Information concerning the activities, reports, and publications of the Tariff Commission is available to the public upon application, in writing or in person, to the Secretary of the Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Similar information of current nature is available to the public at the Commission's New York office on application to the Officer in Charge, Customhouse, New York City.

Printed reports, surveys, studies, and other publications of the Tariff Commission are available to the public on application to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., or to the Secretary of the Commission.

Mimeographed, multilithed, and other publications produced within the office of the Tariff Commission are available to the public by application to the Secretary.

(b) Mailing lists. Mailing lists by various categories are maintained by the Commission for the purpose of sending notices to interested parties when new publications are ready for issue. Interested parties may apply to the Secretary for inclusion in such lists by a statement showing their interest and desire to receive such notices.

(c) Public announcements. Through the medium of statements to the public press the Commission announces new activities, formal investigations, the issuance of reports, and other matters of official character of interest to the public. These appear generally in the various trade journals. Mailing lists are also maintained for such notices and interested persons may apply for inclusion in these lists by showing their interest and desire to receive such notices.

(d) Formal notices. In connection with various activities of the Commission, it issues formal notices. Copies of these notices are sent to persons known to the Commission to have an interest in the subject matter, and to individuals and organizations who have requested notification in connection with the subject matter of such notices. Formal notices are also posted on the bulletin boards of the Tariff Commission at its main office in Washington, D. C., and on those of its field office at the Customhouse, New York City. All formal notices of the Commission are printed in the FEDERAL REGISTER and in Treasury Decisions. Formal notices are likewise made available to the public press and to trade publications.

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 13 NUMBER 209

Washington, Tuesday, October 26, 1948

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10011

AUTHORIZING THE SECRETARY OF STATE TO EXERCISE CERTAIN POWERS OF THE PRESIDENT WITH RESPECT TO THE GRANTING OF ALLOWANCES AND ALLOTMENTS TO GOVERNMENT PERSONNEL ON FOREIGN DUTY

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Foreign Service Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 999), section 20 of the Revised Statutes (5 U. S. C. 156), the act of June 26, 1930, 46 Stat. 818 (5 U. S. C. 118a), section 204 of the Independent Offices Appropriation Act, 1949 (Public Law 491, 80th Cong.), and section 302 of the United States Information and Educational Exchange Act of 1948 (Public Law 402, 80th Cong.), and as President of the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. The Secretary of State is authorized and directed to exercise the following-described statutory powers of the President:

(a) The authority vested in the President by section 901 of the Foreign Service Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1025) to prescribe regulations governing the granting of (1) allowances, wherever Government-owned or rented quarters are not available, for living quarters, heat, light, fuel, gas, and electricity, including allowances for the cost of lodging at temporary quarters, authorized by paragraph (1) of the said section; (2) cost-of-living allowances authorized by paragraph (2) of the said section; and (3) allowances in order to provide for the proper representation of the United States by officers and employees of the Foreign Service, authorized by paragraph (3) of the said section.

(b) The authority vested in the President by section 903 of the Foreign Service Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1026) to prescribe rules and regulations governing the manner in which the allowances and allotments authorized by sections 901 and 902 of the said act shall be accounted for to the Secretary of State.

(c) The authority vested in the President by the act of June 26, 1930, 46 Stat. 818 (5 U. S. C. 118a), to approve regulations prescribed by heads of departments with respect to (1) furnishing civilian officers and employees of the Government having permanent station in a foreign country, without cost to them, living quarters, including heat, fuel, and light, in Government-owned or rented buildings, and (2) allowances granted such officers and employees where such living quarters are not available: Provided, that with respect to regulations prescribed by the Secretary of State such authority of the President shall be exercised by the Director of the Bureau of the Budget.

(d) The authority vested in the President by section 204 of the Independent Offices Appropriation Act, 1949 (Public Law 491, 80th Cong.), and by section 302 of the United States Information and Educational Exchange Act of 1948 (Public Law 402, 80th Cong.) to prescribe, with respect to civilian officers and employees of the Government, regulations governing living-quarters allowances, cost-of-living allowances, and representation allowances in accordance with, or similar to such allowances authorized by the said act of June 26, 1930, or the said section 901 of the Foreign Service Act of 1946.

2. The Secretary of State and the Director of the Bureau of the Budget may exercise the authority herein delegated to them without the necessity of any signature, approval, ratification, or other act of the President; and all officers, officials, and employees of the United States, including disbursing, accounting, and auditing officers, shall give the same effect to any act of the Secretary or Director hereunder as if done by the President.

3. (a) Existing rules and regulations pertaining to the allowances and allotments referred to in this order shall remain in effect until superseded by action taken pursuant to this order.

(b) Executive Order No. 9870 of July 8, 1947, and Executive Order No. 9982 of July 29, 1948, are hereby revoked: Provided, that existing rules and regulations prescribed pursuant to such orders shall remain in effect until superseded as provided in paragraph 3 (a) hereof.

EXCLUDING FROM THE PROVISIONS OF THE CLASSIFICATION ACT OF 1923, AS AMENDED, POSITIONS FILLED BY PATIENTS IN GOVERNMENT HOSPITALS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 4, Title II of the act of November 26, 1940, 54 Stat. 1212, and as President of the United States, after suitable investigation by the Civil Service Commission, including consultation with representatives of the heads of executive departments and independent establishments concerned, and finding that such action is necessary to the more efficient operation of the Government, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. There are hereby excluded from the provisions of the Classification Act of 1923, as amended and extended, positions filled by patients in hospitals operated by the Federal Government or the municipal government of the District of Columbia.

2. Unless otherwise provided by law, the rates of compensation for such positions shall be determined by the heads of the respective departments and independent establishments or by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. No such rate of compensation shall exceed the rate which would be applicable to the position if it had remained under the provisions of the Classification Act of 1923, as amended.

3. This order shall take effect as to the several positions as of the first pay period commencing after the date hereof.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter III—Farmers Home Administration, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter I—Account Servicing

PART 381—ROUTINE

SERVICING FARM OWNERSHIP LOANS; COUNTY OFFICE ROUTINE

Section 381.2, Servicing Farm Ownership loans; except insured loans; County Office routine, in Chapter III of Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations, (13 F. R. 1113), is amended to read as follows:

§ 381.2 Servicing Farm Ownership loans; County Office Routine—(a) General. This section describes the payment plans for the repayment of direct and insured Farm Ownership loans; provides procedures for the application of payments on direct and insured Farm Ownership accounts; for maintaining direct and insured Farm Ownership accounts in the County Office; for reamortizing direct Farm Ownership loans; and for processing fully paid direct Farm Ownership loans.

(b) Definitions—(1) Classification of payments. Payments on direct and insured Farm Ownership accounts will be classified as follows:

(i) Regular payments. All payments other than extra payments and refunds will be regular payments. Usually, they will be derived from farm income, but they will include also payments from off-farm income, inheritances, life insurance, and so forth. Most payments on Farm Ownership accounts will be regular payments.

(ii) Extra payments. Payments derived from the sale of mortgaged property, or from mineral royalties from leases which depreciate the value of the security, or from the cash proceeds of real property insurance, will be extra payments.

(iii) Refunds. Payments derived from unexpended Farm Ownership loan balances will be refunds. Usually, such payments will be made but once in the life of a Farm Ownership loan.

(2) Installment on note and other charges—(i) Direct loans. For a direct loan borrower, the term, "installment on note and other charges," as used in this section, will be the sum of the following:

(a) The amount of the annual installment for the year as provided in his promissory note(s).

(b) The amount of any recoverable cost charges paid by the Government during the year. These are payments for taxes, property insurance, special assessments, and other payments necessary for the protection of the security.

(ii) Insured loans. For an insured loan borrower, the term, "installment on note and other charges," as used in this Section, will be the sum of the following:

(a) The amount of the annual installment for the year as provided in his promissory note(s).

(b) The amount of the annual mortgage insurance charge.

(c) The amount of any recoverable cost charges paid by the lender or out of the mortgage insurance fund during the year. These are limited to advances incident to the loan for taxes, property insurance, special assessments, and like payments in discharge of liens prior to the mortgage.

(d) The amount of any accrued interest on advances made out of the mortgage insurance fund.

(3) Schedule status. A direct or insured loan borrower will be "on schedule" when his cumulative regular payments through the last preceding March 31, not including the amount he has prepaid on that date, are equal to the accumulated installments on his note and other charges which are due through the same date as shown on Form FHA–677 or Form FHA–514. A direct or insured loan borrower will be "ahead of schedule" or "behind schedule," respectively, when such regular payments are greater or less than such accumulated installments on his note and other charges.

(4) Maturity status. A direct or insured loan borrower will be "current" when his cumulative regular payments through the last preceding March 31 are equal to the accumulated amounts matured, as determined on Form FHA–528, "Annual Income Return," (see § 368.71 of this chapter). A direct or insured loan borrower will be "prepaid" or "delinquent," respectively, when such regular payments are greater or less than such accumulated amounts matured.

(5) Mortgage Insurance Account; insured loans. The term "Mortgage Insurance Account" applies only to insured loan borrowers. The mortgage insurance account for a borrower is a combination of the following items:

(i) The annual mortgage insurance charge.

(ii) The amount of any advances made out of the mortgage insurance fund to meet defaulted payments of principal and interest, to pay taxes, special assessments, water rates, and other amounts which may become liens prior to the mortgage, or to pay property insurance.

(iii) The accrued interest on any such advances made out of the mortgage insurance fund.

(c) Application of payments—(1) Regular payments on direct loan accounts. All regular payments on direct loan accounts will be applied first to any unpaid balance of interest on the note. Any remainder will be applied to the principal balance on the note.

(2) Regular payments on insured loan accounts. All regular payments on insured loan accounts will be applied first to any unpaid balance of the mortgage insurance account, and second to any unpaid balance of interest on the note. Any remainder will be applied to the principal balance on the note.

(3) Extra payments on direct and insured loan accounts. All extra payments on direct or insured loan accounts will be applied first to any unpaid balance of interest on the note. Any remainder will be applied to the principal balance on the note. Extra payments will not relieve an insured loan borrower from paying the amount due the mortgage insurance account each year.

(4) Refunds on direct and insured loan accounts. All refunds on direct or insured loan accounts will be applied entirely to the principal balance on the note. Refunds will not relieve an insured loan borrower from paying the amount due the mortgage insurance account each year.

(5) Area Finance Office handling. The application of collections on direct and insured loan accounts will be reflected in the record of accounts maintained by the Area Finance Office as indicated by the County Supervisor on Form FHA–37, "Receipt for Payment."

(i) Amounts paid on a direct loan borrower's account will be credited as of the date of Form FHA–37.

(ii) Amounts paid on the mortgage insurance account will be credited to an insured loan borrower's account as of the date of Form FHA–37.

(iii) Amounts paid for the account of the lender will be credited to an insured loan borrower's account as of the date the United States Treasury check is issued to the lender.

(d) Farm Ownership payment plans. Direct and insured Farm Ownership loans will be repaid in accordance with Payment Plan I or Payment Plan II, as described below, except that direct or insured fixed payment loan borrowers whose loans were approved after October 31, 1946 will not be included in Payment Plan I or Payment Plan II.

(1) Payment Plan I. Payment Plan I applies to each direct Farm Ownership borrower whose loan was approved prior to November 1, 1946, and who signed Form FSA–LE 228, "Variable Payment Agreement," or Form FSA–550, "Promissory Note (Variable Payment Plan)", if he has not transferred to Payment Plan II. Payment Plan I applies also to a transferee who assumed the obligation of a variable payment transferor whose loan was approved prior to November 1, 1946, unless the transferor or transferee has signed Form FHA–165, "Variable-Payment Agreement." Under Payment Plan I, the amount to be matured each year will be determined on Form FHA–528 by the County Supervisor on the basis of the borrower's ability to pay.

(2) Payment Plan II. (i) Payment Plan II applies (a) to all fixed payment direct loan borrowers whose loans were approved prior to November 1, 1946; (b) to all variable payment borrowers whose direct or insured loans were approved subsequent to October 31, 1946; and (c) to all direct loan borrowers who have signed Form FHA–165. The provisions of Payment Plan II are contained in Form FHA–190, "Promissory Note," in Form FHA–360, "Promissory Note (Insured Loan)," and in Form FHA–165. Under Payment Plan II:

(a) The County Supervisor will determine on Form FHA–528 each year whether the borrower's income for the year was (1) "normal or above normal"; or (2) "below normal."

(b) A borrower may make payments ahead of schedule at any time. He may later, in a year of "below normal" income, employ such ahead of schedule payments to supplement the amount available from that year's operations for application on the annual installment payable on his note. Ahead of schedule payments, however, will not relieve an insured loan borrower from paying the amount due the mortgage insurance account each year.

(c) At least one scheduled annual installment on his note and other charges will be due from the borrower each year of "normal or above normal" income, and for each year of "below normal" income when the borrower is not ahead of schedule.

(ii) A fixed payment borrower whose direct loan was approved prior to November 1, 1946, may continue to make fixed payments. However, he also may make payments ahead of schedule and later may employ such payments to supplement the amount available from that year's operations for application on the annual installment payable on his note in a year of "below normal" income. The County Supervisor, therefore, will maintain the account of such fixed payment borrower in the same manner as he does for other borrowers under Payment Plan II. Payments made in excess of the fixed amount by such fixed payment borrower prior to April 1, 1947, do not affect his schedule status.

(3) Transfer from Payment Plan I to Payment Plan II. (i) A borrower operating under Payment Plan I may transfer voluntarily to Payment Plan II by signing Form FHA–165 although it ordinarily will not be to his advantage to do so. However, a borrower operating under Payment Plan II will not be permitted to transfer to Payment Plan I.

(ii) The State Director is authorized to transfer a borrower under Payment Plan I who has signed Form FSA–LE 228 to Payment Plan II. Written notice of a compulsory transfer from Payment Plan I to Payment Plan II will be sent to the borrower by the State Director.

(e) Processing fully paid direct Farm Ownership Loans—(1) Authorization. The State Director is authorized to accept final payment on a direct Farm Ownership loan and to execute the necessary releases and satisfactions.

(2) Loans repaid in less than five years. In the case of a loan to be repaid in less than five years from the date of the initial note, the County Supervisor will advise the State Office of the circumstances. In justifiable cases, the State Director is authorized to approve the acceptance of final payment before such five years have elapsed, except that the approval of the National Office is required when payment is to be made from sale of the farm outside the program where profit making is the only significant motive. If the State Director approves the acceptance of final payment, he will so advise the County Supervisor.

(3) Preparation of receipt. Final payment of the account will be indicated on Form FHA–37, "Receipt for Payment," by marking it "paid-in-full". Proceeds from the sale of a farm will be shown as an extra payment and other payments will be shown as a regular payment or a refund. The County Supervisor will advise the borrower as to the manner in which property insurance will be canceled, or release of mortgage interest executed. (60 Stat. 1062; Pub. TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter II—National Guard and State Guard, Department of the Army

PART 201—NATIONAL GUARD REGULATIONS

BURIAL EXPENSES

Rescind § 201.41 and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

§ 201.41 Burial—(a) For whom authorized. Burial is authorized by the act of June 15, 1936 and the act of October 14, 1940 for officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the National Guard:

(1) Who die while en route to or from or during attendance at encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, or at service schools authorized under the provisions of sections 94, 97, and 99 of the National Defense Act, or while on active duty in time of peace as authorized by section 38, National Defense Act, as amended.

(2) Who die after the period of authorized attendance at encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, or at service schools, or after relief from active duty, while undergoing hospitalization for a disease or injury contracted or incurred in line of duty while en route to or during attendance at encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, or at service schools authorized under the provisions of sections 94, 97, and 99, National Defense Act, or while on active duty in time of peace as authorized by section 38, National Defense Act, as amended.

(3) Who die as a result of personal injury (as distinguished from disease) in line of duty, while participating in aerial flights in Government-owned aircraft prescribed under provisions of section 92 of the National Defense Act, or who die while undergoing hospitalization for such injury.

(b) Burial expenses—(1) General. Burial expenses are payable from appropriated National Guard funds and will be restricted to:

(i) Recovery of body.

(ii) Preparation for burial. (Burial expenses proper):

(a) Undertaker's services including embalming and other preventive methods.

(b) Cost of casket.

(c) Cost of outside box, when required.

(d) Hire of hearse.

(iii) Clothing.

(iv) Cremation, in lieu of interment, including a suitable urn, at a reasonable cost.

(v) Interment expenses not to exceed $50.

(vi) Transportation of remains, including round-trip transportation and subsistence of an escort, to decedent's home or the place where he received orders for the period of training upon which engaged at the time of death, or to such other place as his relatives may designate provided the distance to such other place is not greater than the distance to his home. In connection with interment in a national cemetery, only those members of the National Guard who have had active Federal service and whose last service therein terminated honorably would be eligible for burial in a national cemetery. For the method of shipment and by whom determined, see paragraph 152, TM 55–590, "Transportation of National Guard Troops, Matériel and Supplies."

(2) Flag. An interment flag is authorized to be furnished to drape the casket containing the remains of each officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man. The flag may be retained by the legal next of kin after the funeral.

(3) Clothing. The clothing issued to the deceased will be used to clothe the remains, if available, and in a clean and good condition; otherwise new clothing may be issued for this purpose. In these circumstances, the following articles of clothing are authorized to be dropped from the accountability of the State upon certificate of the responsible officer:

1 coat, or jacket, field, cotton or wool.
1 pair slacks, cotton or wool.
1 shirt, cotton or wool.
1 pair stockings, cotton or wool.
1 cravat.
2 collar insignia.

In the case of officers and warrant officers who are not entitled to issue clothing and in any case of an enlisted man where neither his own clothing nor issue clothing is available, necessary clothing may be purchased chargeable to funds available for the disposition of remains.

(4) Interment expenses. (i) Expenses not to exceed $50 incident to interment.

(ii) When the remains are shipped to the home of the deceased, the next of kin may engage the services of an undertaker to receive the remains and inter them. Such next of kin or other persons will be reimbursed for interment expenses actually incurred up to, but not exceeding the $50 maximum; any expenses over and above this amount must be borne by the next of kin or other persons who incurred the expenses. A certificate executed by the person incurring the interment expenses as to amount incurred, should be submitted by such person to the United States Property and Disbursing Officer, of the State of which the deceased was a member of the National Guard, who arranged for preparation and shipment of the remains. The certificate must be accompanied or supported by a receipted bill (or bills) for services rendered. The United States Property and Disbursing Officer, upon receiving the certificate, will prepare reimbursement voucher and submit it to a disbursing officer for payment.

(iii) When remains are shipped to a national cemetery for interment, in the absence of instructions from relatives, the United States Property and Disbursing Officer will arrange by direct negotiation with an undertaker at destination, or will direct the escort accompanying the remains to destination, to make necessary arrangements to have the remains met at the railroad station and transported to the cemetery. In such cases, the undertaker rendering the services will submit his invoice to the United States Property and Disbursing Officer who will prepare a receiving report and voucher covering the services rendered and forward them to a disbursing officer for settlement.

(5) Cremation. Remains may be cremated upon written request of legal next of kin only, either at place of death, or after arrival at destination. In addition to the cost of cremation, a reasonable amount for a suitable urn for the ashes is authorized.

(6) Limitation on burial expense proper. This expense will not exceed the average price of contracts in the army area for such services for the fiscal year. [NGR 63, Jan. 31, 47] (49 Stat. 1507; 32 U. S. C. 164a–164c)

PART 1—GENERAL ORGANIZATION AND JURISDICTION

ABOLISHMENT OF NEW HAVEN MARINE INSPECTION OFFICE

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by section 101 of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875, the following amendment to the regulations is prescribed and shall become effective on and after November 1, 1948:

Section 1.10–20 Marine inspection districts and offices (13 F. R. 1815) is amended by deleting in paragraph (a) the name "New Haven—311 Federal Building, New Haven 10, Connecticut" from the listing of marine inspection offices in the 3d Coast Guard District (sec. 3, 60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1002).

The Marine Inspection Office at New Haven, Connecticut, will be abolished and its functions, files, and equipment will be transferred to the Marine Inspection Office at New London, Connecticut, effective on and after November 1, 1948.

Dated: October 19, 1948.

PART 73—BIOLOGIC PRODUCTS

PRODUCTS IN SHORT SUPPLY; INITIAL PROCEEDINGS AT OTHER THAN LICENSED ESTABLISHMENT

The following amendment is prescribed to the regulations relating to biologic products.

1. The table of contents of Part 73 is amended by adding under the heading "Licenses; Procedure" the following:

73.15 Products in short supply; initial processing at other than the licensed establishment.

2. A new section is added immediately following § 73.14 and reading as follows:

§ 73.15 Products in short supply; initial processing at other than licensed establishment. Licenses issued to a manufacturer for an establishment shall authorize persons other than such manufacturer to conduct at places other than such establishment the initial and partial processing of a product for shipment solely to such manufacturer only to the extent that the names of such persons and places are registered with the Surgeon General and he finds, upon application of such manufacturer, that (a) the product is in short supply due either to the peculiar growth requirements of the organism involved or to the scarcity of the animal required for production purposes, and (b) such manufacturer has established with respect to such persons and places such procedures, inspections, tests or other arrangements as will assure full compliance with the applicable regulations of this part related to continued safety, purity and potency. Such persons and places shall be subject to all regulations of this part except §§ 73.2 to 73.14, 73.20 to 73.24, and 73.50 to 73.55. Failure of such manufacturer to maintain such procedures, inspections, tests or other arrangements, or failure of any person conducting such processing to comply with applicable regulations shall constitute a ground for summary suspension or revocation of the authority conferred pursuant to this section on the same basis as provided in §§ 73.10, 73.12 and 73.13 with respect to the summary suspension and the revocation of licenses. (58 Stat. 702; 42 U. S. C. 262)

3. This amendment is prescribed under authority of section 351 of the Public Health Service Act (58 Stat. 702; 42 U. S. C. 262) and shall become effective on the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Compliance with the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) with respect to notice of proposed rule making and delayed effective date is found to be unnecessary and contrary to the public interest because this amendment is necessary to assure a supply of scarce biologics important to the public health and constitutes relief from existing restrictions.

[SEAL] W. P. DEARING,
Acting Surgeon General.

Approved: October 14, 1948.

C. secs. 279–283), subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications by such veterans shall be subject to claims of the classes described in subdivision (2).

(b) Twenty-day advance period for simultaneous preference-right filings. For a period of 20 days from November 25, 1948, to December 14, 1948, inclusive, such veterans and persons claiming preference right superior to those of such veterans, may present their applications, and all such applications, together with those presented at 10:00 a. m. on December 15, 1948, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

(c) Date for non-preference-right filings authorized by the public-land laws. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on March 17, 1949, any of the lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, or selection by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws.

(d) Twenty-day advance period for simultaneous non-preference-right filings. Applications by the general public may be presented during the 20-day period from February 25, 1949, to March 16, 1949, inclusive, and all such applications, together with those presented at 10:00 a. m. on March 17, 1949, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

Veterans shall accompany their applications with certified copies of their certificates of discharge, or other satisfactory evidence of their military or naval service. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duty corroborated affidavits in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the District Land Office at Phoenix, Arizona, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations (Circular No. 324, May 22, 1914, 43 L. D. 254), and Part 296 of that title, to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 166 to 170, inclusive, of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and applications under the desert land laws and the small tract act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 232 and 257, respectively, of that title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the District Land Office at Phoenix, Arizona.

ROSCOE E. BELL,
Acting Director.

PRESIDENT'S ADVISORY COMMISSION ON RELATION OF FEDERAL LAWS TO PUERTO RICO

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO SUBMIT RECOMMENDATIONS

By Executive Order No. 10005, dated October 5, 1948, 13 F. R. 5854, the President has established an Advisory Commission on the Relation of Federal Laws to Puerto Rico, to assist him in exercising his power, under a recent amendment to Puerto Rico's Organic Act, to exempt Puerto Rico from the application of Federal statutes on the ground that the statutes are inapplicable by reason of local conditions, subject to the qualification noted below. It will be the task of the Commission to review Federal laws in the light of Puerto Rico's economic and social conditions and the nature of Puerto Rico's governmental structure, to determine whether it will recommend to the President that he exempt Puerto Rico from the application of any of these laws. The Commission will hold public hearings before making its recommendations to the President. Ample notice will be given of the time and place of the hearings and the laws to be considered at each, so that interested persons may appear and present their views.

The Commission will welcome any expression of opinion which members of the public may care to submit to it as to the Federal laws which they consider should be declared inapplicable to Puerto Rico and from which they would like to see Puerto Rico exempted by the President. The Commission will also welcome views as to those laws from which it is believed Puerto Rico should not be exempted. In either case, a brief statement of reasons for the position taken should be made. Attention is called to the fact that the amendment to the Organic Act above referred to does not authorize the President to exempt Puerto Rico from any law which has already been made expressly applicable to Puerto Rico by the Congress. The Commission, therefore, cannot recommend to the President that he exempt Puerto Rico from the application of any such law.

Recommendations should be submitted within 30 days from the date of this notice, and should be addressed either to the Governor of Puerto Rico, at La Fortaleza, San Juan, Puerto Rico, or to Irwin W. Silverman, Counsel, President's Advisory Commission on the Relation of Federal Laws to Puerto Rico, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

IRWIN W. SILVERMAN,
President's Advisory Commission on the Relation of Federal Laws to Puerto Rico.

[Docket Nos. 6916, 6917]

SCRIPPS-HOWARD RADIO, INC. AND CLEVELAND BROADCASTING, INC.

ORDER CONTINUING ORAL ARGUMENT

In re applications of Scripps-Howard Radio, Inc., Cleveland, Ohio, Docket No. 6916, File No. BP–4118; Cleveland Broadcasting, Incorporated, Cleveland, Ohio, Docket No. 6917, File No. BP–4058; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of October 1948;

The Commission having under consideration a request by Scripps-Howard Radio, Inc., that it be granted one hour's time within which to present oral argument on its exceptions filed in this proceeding, which oral argument is now scheduled for October 18, 1948; and

It appearing, that the Commission has scheduled oral arguments on exceptions filed in five other proceedings for October 18, 1948; that the request of Scripps-Howard Radio, Inc., should be granted; that affording the applicants in this proceeding one hour each for the presentation of oral argument on October 18, 1948, would not leave sufficient time within which to complete the oral arguments in the other proceedings scheduled on that date; and that oral argument in this proceeding should be continued to another date;

It is therefore ordered, That oral argument on the exceptions filed in this proceeding, now scheduled for October 18, 1948, be, and it is hereby, continued until 10:30 a. m. November 5, 1948, and that the applicants in this proceeding be, and they are hereby, each granted one hour's time within which to present oral argument in this proceeding.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-1133]

COLORADO-WYOMING GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

OCTOBER 20, 1948.

Notice is hereby given that on September 30, 1948, Colorado-Wyoming Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal office at Denver, Colorado, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of the following described natural-gas pipeline facilities:

(1) Approximately 3 miles of 2-inch pipeline from a point on Applicant's 8-inch Mesa-Cheyenne transmission pipeline extending easterly to a point near the western city limits of La Salle, Colorado, together with a meter station, for the sale and delivery of natural gas to Greeley Gas Company, for resale in the city of La Salle, Colorado.

(2) Approximately 5¼ miles of 2½-inch pipeline from a point on Applicant's Greeley-Loveland lateral pipeline extending northerly to a point near the southern city limits of Windsor, Colorado, together with a meter station, for the sale and delivery of natural gas to Public Service Company of Colorado, for resale in the city of Windsor, Colorado.

(3) Approximately 2 miles of 2½-inch pipeline from a point on Applicant's 8-inch Mesa-Cheyenne main transmission pipeline extending easterly to a point near the western city limits of Ault, Colorado, together with a meter station, for the sale and delivery of natural gas to Greeley Gas Company, for resale in the city of Ault, Colorado.

(4) Approximately 3 miles of 2½-inch pipeline from a point on Applicant's 8-inch Mesa-Cheyenne main transmission pipeline extending easterly to a point near the western city limits of Eaton, Colorado, together with a meter station, for the sale and delivery of natural gas to Greeley Gas Company for resale in the city of Eaton, Colorado.

(5) 600 H. P. Ingersoll-Rand compressor unit to be installed at Applicant's Mesa Compressor Station, located in Adams County, Colorado.

(6) Approximately 28 miles of 10¾-inch pipeline from Applicant's Mesa Compressor Station extending northwesterly to a junction point with the Boulder lateral on Applicant's Arvada-Cheyenne main transmission pipeline.

Additionally, Applicant seeks permission pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to abandon the following described natural-gas facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission:

(1) Applicant's Sullivan Compressor Station, in Arapahoe County, Colorado, consisting of 1,200 H. P. compressor units and appurtenant equipment to be moved to Applicant's Mesa Compressor Station.

(2) Approximately 17 miles of 2½-inch and 3-inch pipeline extending eastwardly from a point on Applicant's Arvada-Cheyenne main transmission pipeline to Applicant's Fort Lupton-Brighton lateral pipeline.

Applicant recites that the communities proposed to be served do not have natural-gas service at present. Applicant estimates that for 1950, the peak day sales for the proposed new service will total 740 Mcf and the annual volume will total 123,000 Mcf. Applicant states that its load growth in the area west of Denver does not permit the most economical operation of its Sullivan Compressor Station. Applicant recites that the proposed 28 miles of 10-inch pipeline from Mesa to Boulder will require increased compressor units at Mesa Compressor Station, and that the compressor units at Sullivan can be more economically used at Mesa.

Applicant states that no customers are served from the pipeline proposed to be abandoned. Applicant proposes to serve Brighton and Fort Lupton from its existing 6-inch lateral extending from Applicant's Mesa-Cheyenne main transmission pipeline.

Applicant states that the proposed construction will increase Applicant's system capacity to 50,000 Mcf per day which is less than the contract peak day requirements Colorado Interstate Gas Company is obligated to serve Applicant. Applicant further states that no change in rates is contemplated for any of these projects.

Applicant estimates the total over-all cost of the facilities to be installed will be $690,100. Applicant proposes no additional financing at this time.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of § 1.37 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with reasons for such request.

The application of Colorado-Wyoming Gas Company is on file with the Commission and is open to public inspection. Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 15 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.8 and 1.10, whichever is applicable, of the rules of practice and procedure.

TRANS-CONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.

OCTOBER 22, 1948.

Notice is hereby given that on October 19, 1948, Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Applicant), a Delaware corporation having its principal office in Dallas, Texas, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing Applicant to acquire, construct and operate certain natural-gas facilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission described as follows:

(1) Natural-gas facilities authorized to be constructed which were the subject of proceedings "In the Matter of Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc." Docket No. G-704, wherein a certificate of public convenience and necessity was issued to Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc., a Texas corporation, on May 29, 1948, (Opinion No. 165 and accompanying order) for a natural-gas transmission pipeline system originating in Texas, extending through the States of Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, North and South Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and terminating at a point on the east bank of the Hudson River at 132nd Street, New York City, New York, consisting of 1760 miles of 26-inch pipe, 71 miles of 20-inch pipe, 9 miles of various sizes of pipe for 76 submerged river crossings, 15 compressor stations, laterals, and necessary appurtenant facilities, by means of which natural gas, to be purchased in the Texas-Louisiana Gulf Coast area, would be transported and sold to Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc., The Brooklyn Union Gas Company, Public Service Electric and Gas Company, Philadelphia Electric Company, Long Island Lighting System, inclusive of Long Island Lighting Company, Queens Borough Gas and Electric Company, and Nassau & Suffolk Lighting Company, King's County Lighting Company, Brooklyn Borough Gas Company, New York & Richmond Gas Company, and Elizabethtown Consolidated Gas Company, for resale in the distribution areas of those Companies; and by means of which a transportation would be made of natural gas from the fields and areas in Texas and Louisiana, controlled and owned by Sun Oil Company to that Company's Marcus Hook Refinery, near Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

(2) Natural gas facilities as may be authorized by the Commission to be constructed and operated pursuant to a Petition to Amend Order Issuing Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity, filed on September 23, 1948, by Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc.

(3) To succeed to all other rights and obligations of the Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc.

Applicant states it is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Delaware, (all capital stock owned by Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc., a Texas corporation) without physical properties, and with assets consisting of $1,400 representing the subscription price of 2,100 shares of capital stock; that it proposes to engage in the transportation and sale of natural gas in interstate commerce and conduct its operations in all respects, if it is granted the certificate of public convenience and necessity applied for herein, as Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc., has been heretofore authorized by the Commission's order of May 29, 1948, In the Matter of Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc., Docket No. G-704, and as the said Company may hereafter be authorized pursuant to its petition filed on September 23, 1948.

Applicant further states (1) directors and officers will be the same as those of Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc., (2) a transfer and sale has been executed by the two corporations, and under said agreement a stock surrender and cancellation plan will be effected and the ownership of Applicant will initially be identical with that of Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc., (3) upon effectuation of the transfer and sale Applicant will own all the assets of Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc., (4) it will be substituted for Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc., under contracts for delivery of steel plate and fabrication thereof, and under gas purchase and gas sales contracts, (5) assets will be taken over and liabilities assumed at the amounts recorded on the books of Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc., (6) the directors and stockholders of the two companies have approved the agreement of transfer and sale, (7) there will be no increase in operating expenses, cost of service, and no change in management.

Applicant further proposes in the event of authorization as applied for herein, to finance the construction and operation of facilities so authorized, through (1) the sale of $143,000,000 of First Mortgage Pipe Line Bonds, (2) the sale of 265,000 shares of Preferred Stock and 265,000 shares of Common Stock of 50 cents par value per share, as units consisting of one share of Preferred Stock and one share of Common Stock, (3) and the sale of 2,250,000 shares of Common Stock to be offered to its Common stockholders.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of § 1.37 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with reasons for such request.

The application of Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Corporation is on file with the Commission and is open to public inspection. Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 10 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of § 1.8 or § 1.10, whichever is applicable, of the rules of practice and procedure (as amended on June 16, 1947).

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL CORP.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of October A. D. 1948.

The New York Stock Exchange, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to strike from listing and registration the Non-Cumulative Preferred Stock, $50 Par Value, of Lehigh Valley Coal Corporation.

The reasons for striking this security from registration and listing on this exchange that are stated in the application are: (1) Only 5,434 shares of the above security remain outstanding; (2) no transactions in this security have been effected on the applicant exchange since October 1946; (3) the bid price for this security on June 30, 1948 was $33 per share; (4) the indicated aggregate market value on this date of the 5,434 shares outstanding would be $179,322; (5) under a plan of reorganization effective March 30, 1946, these shares could be converted into other securities having an indicated market value as of June 30, 1948, of $205,812.75; and (6) the small amount of stock outstanding and the small indicated aggregate market value of this security present a condition which makes the stock unsuitable for continued listing on applicant exchange.

Appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing have been given to interested persons and the public generally. No request has been received from any interested person for a hearing in this matter. The rules of the New York Stock Exchange with respect to striking a security from registration and listing have been complied with.

The Commission having considered the facts stated in the application, and having due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors;

It is ordered, That the application of the New York Stock Exchange to strike the Non-Cumulative Preferred Stock, $50 Par Value, of Lehigh Valley Coal Corporation from registration and listing be, and the same is, hereby granted, effective at the close of the trading session on November 18, 1948.

LOGANSPORT DISTILLING CO., INC.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of October A. D. 1948.

The New York Curb Exchange, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to strike from listing and registration the Common Stock, $1.00 Par Value, of Logansport Distilling Company, Inc.

The reasons for striking this security from registration and listing on this exchange that are stated in the application are: (1) Schenley Distillers Corporation on November 14, 1947 offered to purchase from stockholders of Logansport Distilling Company, Inc. all of their common stock at $16.50 per share less cost of transfer stamps; (2) on February 3, 1948 as a result of said offer there remained outstanding only 13,743 shares in the hands of 102 public shareholders; (3) the security which is the subject of this application was suspended from trading on the applicant exchange at the close of business on December 31, 1947; (4) the amount of shares remaining outstanding in the hands of the public has become so reduced as to make further dealings in this security on the applicant exchange inadvisable.

Appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing have been given to interested persons and the public generally. No request has been received from any interested person for a hearing in this matter. The rules of the New York Curb Exchange with respect to striking a security from registration and listing have been complied with.

The Commission having considered the facts stated in the application, and having due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors;

It is ordered, That the application of the New York Curb Exchange to strike the Common Stock, $1.00 Par Value, of Logansport Distilling Company, Inc. from registration and listing be, and the same is, hereby granted, effective at the close of the trading session on November 17, 1948.

PHILIP BLUM AND CO., INC.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of October A. D. 1948.

The New York Curb Exchange, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to strike from listing and registration the Common Stock, $1.00 Par Value, of Philip Blum and Company, Inc.

The reasons for striking this security from registration and listing on this exchange that are stated in the application are: (1) Of the 900,000 shares outstanding of this corporation on February 28, 1948, 791,727 shares were owned by one L. A. Weiss, 94,600 shares were owned by a corporation named Salkeld & Co., and 13,673 shares remained outstanding in the hands of 151 public holders; (2) on March 16, 1948, the annual meeting of stockholders of this corporation authorized and directed the voluntary dissolution of the corporation; (3) on March 16, 1948, the Board of Directors of this Company directed and declared the first of a series of distributions to its shareholders in complete liquidation of the Company consisting of substantially all of the bulk whiskies owned by the Company and represented by warehouse receipts; (4) on April 9, 1948, it was estimated that the assets that would remain for distribution would be approximately $1.11 per share; (5) the applicant exchange suspended dealings in this security on May 1, 1948; (6) immediate reason for the suspension and striking of registration and listing is the extent to which the liquidation of the Company has progressed; and (7) a contributing reason for suspension and for striking from registration and listing is the limited number of 13,673 shares outstanding in the hands of 151 public stockholders.

Appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing have been given to interested persons and the public generally. No request has been received from any interested person for a hearing in this matter. The rules of the New York Curb Exchange with respect to striking a security from registration and listing have been complied with.

The Commission having considered the facts stated in the application, and having due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors;

It is ordered, That the application of the New York Curb Exchange to strike the Common Stock, $1.00 Par Value, of Philip Blum and Company, Inc. from registration and listing be, and the same is, hereby granted, effective at the close of the trading session on November 16, 1948.

PEABODY COAL CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of October A. D. 1948.

The Chicago Stock Exchange, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to strike from listing and registration the 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock, $100.00 Par Value, of Peabody Coal Company.

The reasons for striking this security from registration and listing on this exchange that are stated in the application are: (1) By reason of the operation of an offer to exchange the above security for another security under a plan of recapitalization, the number of shares of the above security that remain outstanding in the hands of the public has been reduced to 5,988 shares; (2) this amount is inadequate to justify the continuation of a public market for the security; and (3) the applicant exchange suspended this security from trading on April 9, 1948.

Appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing have been given to interested persons and the public generally. No request has been received from any interested person for a hearing in this matter. The rules of the Chicago Stock Exchange with respect to striking a security from registration and listing have been complied with.

The Commission having considered the facts stated in the application, and having due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors;

It is ordered, That the application of the Chicago Stock Exchange to strike the 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock, $100.00 Par Value, of Peabody Coal Company from registration and listing be, and the same is, hereby granted, effective at the close of the trading session on November 16, 1948.

By the Commission.

TRI-CONTINENTAL CORP. AND GENERAL SHAREHOLDINGS CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of October A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that Tri-Continental Corporation ("applicant") has filed an application under clause (ii) of section 310 (b) (1) of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939 for a finding by the Commission that the trusteeship by Guaranty Trust Company of New York under an indenture dated as of March 1, 1946, executed by applicant with Guaranty Trust Company of New York as trustee, and an indenture dated as of December 1, 1945, executed by General Shareholdings Corporation ("General") with Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as trustee, as supplemented by a supplemental indenture dated October 1, 1948, executed by applicant with Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as trustee, is not so likely to involve a material conflict of interest as to make it necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors to disqualify Guaranty Trust Company of New York from acting as trustee under one of said indentures.

Applicant has outstanding $7,360,000, principal amount of 2⅞% debentures, due March 1, 1961, which were issued under an indenture dated as of March 1, 1946, executed by applicant with Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as trustee. General had outstanding $2,650,000, principal amount of 3% debentures, due December 1, 1960, which were issued under an indenture dated as of December 1, 1945, executed by General with the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as trustee. Both indentures were qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939. On October 1, 1948, General was merged into Tri-Continental pursuant to an agreement of merger dated August 3, 1948. The agreement of merger provided, among other things, that on the effective date of merger applicant would thenceforth be responsible for all debts, liabilities, obligations and duties of General in respect of its 3% debentures due December 1, 1960. Thereupon in accordance with the terms of the indenture executed by General, applicant executed and delivered to Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as trustee under said indenture, a supplemental indenture dated October 1, 1948, pursuant to which applicant assumed the payment of the principal, premium, if any, and interest on all outstanding debentures of General issued under the indenture, and the due and punctual performance of all covenants and conditions of the indenture to be performed by General. The indenture of General as so supplemented has not been qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939.

The application alleges (1) that the indenture of applicant, dated March 1, 1947, and the indenture of General, the obligations of which have been assumed by applicant, contain language similar to that of section 310 (b) (1) of the Trust Indenture Act, including clause (ii) of the section; (2) that the indentures are substantially identical except for inherent differences as to the amount of the issue, date, maturity, interest date and rates, and optional redemption prices; (3) that differences existing between the two indentures are not likely to involve a conflict of interest in the trusteeship of Guaranty Trust Company of New York under both indentures.

For a more detailed statement of the matters of fact and law asserted, all persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of the Commission at 425 Second Street, N. W., Washington 25, D. C.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application may be issued by the Commission at any time after October 29, 1948, unless prior thereto a hearing upon the application is ordered by the Commission, as provided in clause (ii) of section 310 (b) (1) of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939. Any interested person may, not later than October 27, 1948 at 5:30 p. m., eastern standard time, in writing submit to the Commission his views or any additional facts bearing upon this application or the desirability of a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street, N. W., Washington 25, D. C., and should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert.

By the Commission.

STANDARD GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of October 1948.

Standard Gas and Electric Company ("Standard"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of Standard Power and Light Corporation, also a registered holding company, having filed a declaration and amendments thereto, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), regarding the sale at competitive bidding of 250,000 shares of Common Stock of its subsidiary, Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company; and

The Commission, by order dated October 8, 1948, having permitted said declaration, as amended, to become effective subject to the condition that the proposed sale of said stock not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50 shall have been made a matter of record herein and a further order shall have been entered by the Commission in the light of the record so completed; and

Standard having filed a further amendment setting forth the action taken to comply with the requirements of Rule U-50 and stating that pursuant to its invitation for competitive bids, the following bids were received:

Name of bidder or representatives:	Price per share
The First Boston Corporation and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane	$32.63
Otis & Co	32.35
Lehman Brothers and Blyth & Co., Inc	32.13
Smith, Barney & Co. and Harriman Ripley & Co., Inc	31.66

It being further stated in said amendment that Standard has accepted the bid of The First Boston Corporation and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane and that the purchasers propose to offer said stock for sale to the public at $34.25 per share, resulting in an underwriting spread of $1.62 per share; and

The Commission having considered the record as so completed by said amendment and finding that the applicable standards of said act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder have been satisfied, and finding no basis for imposing terms and conditions with respect to the price to be paid for said stock or the underwriters' spread and the the allocation thereof:

It is ordered, Subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by Rule U-24 that the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to the matters to be determined as a result of competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50 be, and it hereby is, released and that said declaration, as further amended, be, and it hereby is, permitted to become effective, forthwith.

By the Commission.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION AND GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of October A. D. 1948.

Public Service Company of New Hampshire ("New Hampshire"), a public utility subsidiary of New England Public Service Company, a registered holding company, having filed an application, and amendments thereto, pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder, regarding the issuance and sale, at competitive bidding, of $7,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, Series D, ----% due 1978; and

The Commission, by order dated October 11, 1948, having granted said application, as amended, subject to the condition, inter alia, that the proposed sale of the bonds should not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50 shall have been made a matter of record herein and a further order shall have been entered by the Commission in the light of the record so completed; and

New Hampshire having, on October 19, 1948, filed a further amendment to its application setting forth the action taken to comply with the requirements of Rule U-50 and stating that, pursuant to the invitation for competitive bids, the following bids were received:

Name of bidder	Interest rate	Price to company [1]	Annual cost to company
	Percent	Percent	Percent
Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc.	3¼	101.83999	3.1547
The First Boston Corp. and Coffin & Burr, Inc.	3¼	101.389	3.1778
Kidder, Peabody & Co.	3¼	100.5526	3.2211

[1] Plus accrued interest to the date of delivery.

The amendment further stating that New Hampshire has accepted the bid of Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc., for the First Mortgage Bonds, as set forth above, and that said bonds will be offered for sale to the public at a price of 102.375% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest, resulting in an underwriter's spread of 0.53501% of the principal amount of the bonds; and

Said amendment having also set forth the nature and extent of the legal services rendered for which requests for payment have been made in the aggregate amount of $18,000 classified as follows:

To be paid by New Hampshire:
Ropes, Gray, Best, Coolidge & Rugg	$8,500
Sullaway Piper Jones Hollis & Godfrey	1,500
E. H. Maxcy et al	1,500
Palmer, Dodge, Chase & Davis for Trustee	1,500
To be paid by Underwriter:
Choate, Hall & Stewart	5,000

Applicant having obtained a supplemental order from the New Hampshire Public Service Commission authorizing the issuance of the bonds after competitive bidding; and

The Commission having considered the record herein as so completed by said amendment and finding no basis for imposing terms and conditions with respect to the price to be paid for said bonds, the interest rate thereon and the underwriter's spread; and

It appearing to the Commission that the legal fees incurred in connection with the bond financing are not unreasonable and that jurisdiction with respect thereto should be released:

It is ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to the matters to be determined as a result of competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50 and with respect to the legal fees be, and the same hereby is, released, and that said application, as further amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted forthwith, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

NORTHERN VIRGINIA POWER CO. AND POTOMAC EDISON CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION-DECLARATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C. on the 20th day of October A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application-declaration has been filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and certain rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, by the Potomac Edison Company ("Potomac"), a registered holding company, and its direct and wholly owned subsidiary, Northern Virginia Power Company ("Northern").

Notice is further given that any interested persons may, not later than November 4, 1948 at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest and the reasons for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street, N. W., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 4, 1948 said joint application-declaration may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said joint application-declaration which is on file in the offices of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Potomac owns all of the outstanding securities of Northern, consisting of 82,000 shares of common stock and 1,500 shares of 7% preferred stock (par value $100 a share). All of this capital stock is now pledged under the indenture of Potomac securing its First Mortgage and Collateral Trust Bonds.

From time to time as funds are needed by Northern but prior to December 31, 1949, Northern proposes to issue and sell to Potomac up to 75,000 shares of common stock at the par value of $100 per share. Northern proposes to issue and sell and Potomac proposes to acquire the first installment of approximately 13,000 shares ($1,300,000) about November 15, 1948. Upon acquisition by Potomac, these new shares will be pledged under its indenture.

It is represented in the filing that Northern will use the proceeds from the sale of all of the shares of new common stock for needed construction in the form of property improvements and additions. It is further represented in the filing that the proposed transactions, in whole or in part, are subject to the jurisdiction of the State Corporation Commission of Virginia, the Public Service Commission of Maryland, and the Public Service Commission of West Virginia. Applicants-declarants have estimated the expenses involved in the proposed transactions, consisting chiefly of documentary tax stamps, will approximate $8,650.

The filing designates sections 6, 7, 9, 10, 12 (d), and 12 (f) of the act and Rules U-43 and U-44 promulgated thereunder as being applicable to the proposed transactions, and requests that the final order to issue herein become effective upon the date of issuance.

By the Commission.

UNITED LIGHT AND RAILWAYS CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of October A. D. 1948.

In the matter of the United Light and Railways Company, American Light & Traction Company, et al., File Nos. 59-11, 59-17 and 54-25.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") by American Light & Traction Company ("American"), a registered holding company subsidiary of the United Light and Railways Company, also a registered holding company, with respect to the proposed issuance and sale of $15,000,000 principal amount of collateral trust notes and the use of the proceeds in connection with the purchase and retirement of its outstanding preferred stock in accordance with the terms of a Plan heretofore approved by order of the Commission entered December 30, 1947.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than October 29, 1948 at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held with respect to said application, stating in detail the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues of fact or law raised by said application which he desires to controvert or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street, N. W., Washington 25, D. C.

At any time after November 1, 1948, said application may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

By order dated December 30, 1947, the Commission approved a Plan filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act by American Light and the United Light and Railways Company which Plan, among other things, provided for an offer by American Light to purchase at $33 per share, within a 30-day period from a date to be fixed by American Light, all shares of its outstanding preferred stock tendered pursuant to such offer and for a bank loan by American Light not to exceed $15,000,000 to obtain the funds with which to purchase such stock. According to the provisions of the Plan, the specific terms and conditions of said bank loan were to be subject to later approval by the Commission upon further application with respect thereto.

American Light has entered into credit agreements with certain banks and insurance companies under which, prior to November 17, 1948, American Light proposes to issue and sell $15,000,000 aggregate principal amount of serial collateral trust notes to the banks and insurance companies in the amounts shown below:

Name of purchaser	Principal amount of notes to be purchased
Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co	$1,500,000.00
Mellon National Bank & Trust Co	1,500,000.00
The National City Bank of New York	1,500,000.00
New England Mutual Life Insurance Co	2,500,000.00
Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co	3,000,000.00
John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co	5,000,000.00
	15,000,000.00

The notes will be in registered form and issued under and entitled to benefits of an indenture between American Light and The National City Bank of New York as Trustee, and are to be dated as of the date they are certified to the Trustee. The notes are to mature in aggregate principal amounts of $500,000 annually during the first five years, $1,000,000 annually during the next four years, and $8,500,000 at the end of the tenth year. The notes are to bear interest at the following rates per annum: Those maturing in the years 1949-1953, both inclusive, 2¾%; those maturing in 1954-1955, 3%; those maturing in 1956, 3½%; those maturing in 1957, 3¾%; those maturing in 1958, 4%. The notes are to be subject to prepayment in whole or in part at any time at the option of the company on 30 days' notice at the principal amounts, plus accrued interest and plus a premium of certain specified amounts. All prepayments are to be applied to the reduction of the principal amount of the notes maturing in 1958 until the aggregate principal amount of such notes outstanding has been reduced to $1,000,000 after which the company may choose whether to prepay the notes in the inverse order of maturity or to reduce proportionately the principal amount of all notes maturing after the date of such prepayment. Each prepayment is to be applied ratably to all notes of the designated maturity.

If the amount paid by American Light to purchase shares of its outstanding preferred stock pursuant to the proposed offer shall be less than $15,000,000, the difference between $15,000,000 and the amount so paid is to be applied to the ratable prepayment of the notes maturing in 1958. In such case the prepayment price is to be the principal amount plus accrued interest from the date of prepayment, plus a premium of ½ of 1% of the amount prepaid.

The notes are to be secured by a collateral pledge of (a) 100% (3,330,569 shares, $14 par value) of the outstanding common stock of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company; (b) 100% (220,000 shares, $100 par value) of the outstanding common stock of Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Company; and (c) 99.77% (1,110,232½ shares, $12 par value) of the outstanding common stock of Milwaukee Gas Company. The application states that these securities have been made available for this pledge by consent of the banks who are parties to the existing loan agreement of the United Light and Railways Company dated November 24, 1945.

The indenture contains certain covenants including one with respect to maintenance of net current assets, the payment of dividends or the making of other distributions in respect of the common stock and limiting the company's right to incur indebtedness either directly or as guarantor or surety.

Applicant requests the Commission to enter an order at the earliest practicable date granting the application and requests the recitals and findings required by Supplement R and section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code showing that the issuance and sale of the proposed notes are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11(b) of the act.

The company states that no finder's fee or underwriter's compensation will be payable in connection with the issuance of the proposed notes. Other fees and expenses have been estimated by the company at $32,950, including legal fees of $20,000, of which $10,000 is payable to counsel for the company and $10,000 is payable to counsel for the purchasers of the notes. All such fees and expenses will be paid by American.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 13 NUMBER 210

Washington, Wednesday, October 27, 1948

TITLE 24—HOUSING CREDIT

Chapter VIII—Office of the Housing Expediter

[Controlled Housing Rent Reg.,[1] Amdt. 46]

PART 825—RENT REGULATIONS UNDER THE HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947, AS AMENDED

CONTROLLED HOUSING RENT REGULATION

The Controlled Housing Rent Regulation (§§ 825.1 to 825.12) is amended in the following respects:

1. Schedule A, item 238, is amended to describe the counties in the Defense-Rental Area as follows: "Erie, Huron, Ottawa and Sandusky, except those islands in Lake Erie which are part of Ottawa and Erie Counties."

This decontrols all the islands in Lake Erie which are part of Ottawa and Erie Counties, State of Ohio, a portion of the Sandusky-Port Clinton Defense-Rental Area.

2. Schedule A, item 203b, is amended to describe the counties in the Defense-Rental Area as follows: "Clinton and that portion of Keesville Village in Essex County, except that portion of Clinton County which is within the Town of Clinton."

This decontrols the Town of Clinton, New York, a portion of the Plattsburg Defense-Rental Area, State of New York.

(Sec. 204 (d), 61 Stat. 197, as amended by 62 Stat. 37 and by 62 Stat. 94; 50 U. S. C. App. 1894 (d). Applies sec. 204 (c), 61 Stat. 197, as amended by 62 Stat. 37 and by 62 Stat. 94; 50 U. S. C. App. 1894 (c))

This amendment shall become effective October 27, 1948.

Issued this 22d day of October 1948.

TIGHE E. WOODS,
Housing Expediter.

Statement To Accompany Amendment 46 to the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation

It is the judgment of the Housing Expediter that the need for continuing maximum rents in those islands in Lake Erie which are part of Ottawa and Erie Counties, State of Ohio, a portion of the Sandusky-Port Clinton Defense-Rental Area, no longer exists due to the fact that the demand for rental housing accommodations has been reasonably met. This does not apply to the peninsula known as Catawba Island which is part of the mainland of Ottawa County.

It is likewise the judgment of the Housing Expediter that the need for continuing maximum rents in the Town of Clinton, New York, a portion of the Plattsburg Defense-Rental Area, State of New York, no longer exists due to the fact that the demand for rental housing accommodations has been reasonably met.

This amendment is therefore being issued to decontrol said islands in Lake Erie and said Town of Clinton, New York, in accordance with section 204 (c) of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, as amended.

PART 825—RENT REGULATIONS UNDER THE HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947, AS AMENDED

RENT REGULATION FOR CONTROLLED ROOMS IN ROOMING HOUSES AND OTHER ESTABLISHMENTS

The Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments (§§ 825.81 to 825.92) is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. Schedule A, item 238, is amended to describe the counties in the Defense-Rental Area as follows: "Erie, Huron, Ottawa and Sandusky, except those islands in Lake Erie which are part of Ottawa and Erie Counties."

This decontrols all the islands in Lake Erie which are part of Ottawa and Erie Counties, State of Ohio, a portion of the Sandusky-Port Clinton Defense-Rental Area.

2. Schedule A, item 203b, is amended to describe the counties in the Defense-Rental Area as follows: "Clinton and that portion of Keesville Village in Essex

(2) Upon the death of a veteran, to the surviving spouse, or if there be no surviving spouse, to the child or children, dependent mother or father, in the order named: Provided, That where at the date of death of a veteran an apportioned share is being paid to or has been withheld on behalf of another person, the apportioned amount remaining unpaid for periods prior to the date of the veteran's death shall be payable to the apportionee: Provided further, That where it is determined subsequent to the veteran's death that an increased amount is payable pursuant to the provisions of section 12, Public Law 144, 78th Congress, the apportionee shall be entitled to receive his proportionate share in his own right, subject to the limitation that the increased benefit shall not be payable for more than one year prior to the date of the veteran's death: Provided further, That the amount payable to or on behalf of an apportionee shall not be subject to any time limitation as to the date of filing of a claim by the apportionee.

* * * * *

(b) Asset checks. A check received by a payee in payment of pension, compensation, or retirement pay shall, in the event of the death of the payee on or after the last day of the period covered by such check, become an asset of the estate of the deceased payee. (Sec. 12, Pub. Law 144, 78th Cong.)

(c) Definitions. For the purpose of paying accrued benefits under this section, the following definitions are for application:

(1) The term "spouse" shall mean the legal widow or widower of the veteran irrespective of the date of marriage. Continuous cohabitation is not a factor.

(2) The term "child" is as defined in § 5.2514 (c) and includes an unmarried child who became helpless prior to attaining 18 years of age as well as an unmarried child over the age of eighteen but not over 21 years of age, who was pursuing a course of instruction within the meaning of § 5.2598 (a) at the time of the payee's death, provided only that upon the death of a child in receipt of pension or compensation, any accrued shall be payable to the surviving child or children of the veteran entitled to death pension or compensation.

(3) The term "dependent mother or father" is as defined in § 5.2514 (d): Provided, That the mother or father is dependent within the meaning of § 2.1057 of this chapter at the date of the veteran's death.

* * * * *

(d) Claims under prior laws. (1) Where claim for the accrued amount due under the laws in effect on or after March 20, 1933, was not filed prior to July 13 or where claim was filed prior to that date and disallowed either in whole or in part because of prior regulatory restrictions, a claim received prior to July 14, 1944, will be adjudicated under the provisions of this section.

(2) A claim pending on July 13, 1943, will be considered a claim under this section.

(e) Readjustment allowance and subsistence allowance. Readjustment allowance and subsistence allowance under the provisions of Public Law 346, 78th Congress, as amended, and subsistence allowance under the provisions of Public Law 16, 78th Congress, as amended by Public Law 268, 79th Congress, remaining due and unpaid at the date of the veteran's death, shall be payable under the provisions of this section: Provided, That readjustment allowance shall be payable only under the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (c) of this section.

3. In § 5.2662 the introductory paragraph and paragraph (a) are amended, headnotes are added to paragraphs (b), (c), and (d).

§ 5.2662 Lump sums payable at death of veteran where award was reduced by reason of hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care by the Veterans' Administration. The provisions of this section shall apply only to the payment of amounts actually withheld on a running award pursuant to the provisions of section (1) (A) (1), Public Law 662, 79th Congress, and to the payment of amounts deposited in funds due incompetent beneficiaries for periods on and after August 8, 1946, which are payable in a lump sum after the veteran's death. Accrued benefits, including any amounts in funds due incompetent beneficiaries for periods prior to August 8, 1946 but excluding such lump sums actually withheld for periods on and after that date, are payable in accordance with the provisions of § 5.2660.

(a) Basic entitlement. In the event the death of any veteran whose award of disability pension, compensation or retirement pay was reduced pursuant to the provisions of section (1) (A) (1), Public Law 662, 79th Congress, occurs while the veteran is receiving hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary

CODIFICATION GUIDE—Con.

Compensation, or Retirement Pay Shall, in the Event of the Death of the Payee on or After the Last Day of the Period Covered by Such Check, Become an Asset of the Estate of the Deceased Payee. (Sec. 12, Pub. Law 144, 78th Cong.)

(c) Definitions. For the Purpose of Paying Accrued Benefits Under This Section, the Following Definitions Are for Application:

(1) The Term "Spouse" Shall Mean the Legal Widow or Widower of the Veteran Irrespective of the Date of Marriage. Continuous Cohabitation Is Not a Factor.

(2) The Term "Child" Is as Defined in § 5.2514 (c) and Includes an Unmarried Child Who Became Helpless Prior to Attaining 18 Years of Age as Well as an Unmarried Child Over the Age of Eighteen but Not Over 21 Years of Age, Who Was Pursuing a Course of Instruction Within the Meaning of § 5.2598 (a) at the Time of the Payee's Death, Provided Only That Upon the Death of a Child in Receipt of Pension or Compensation, Any Accrued Shall Be Payable to the Surviving Child or Children of the Veteran Entitled to Death Pension or Compensation.

(3) The Term "Dependent Mother or Father" Is as Defined in § 5.2514 (d): Provided, That the Mother or Father Is Dependent Within the Meaning of § 2.1057 of This Chapter at the Date of the Veteran's Death.

* * * * *

(d) Claims Under Prior Laws. (1) Where Claim for the Accrued Amount Due Under the Laws in Effect on or After March 20, 1933, Was Not Filed Prior to July 13 or Where Claim Was Filed Prior to That Date and Disallowed Either in Whole or in Part Because of Prior Regulatory Restrictions, a Claim Received Prior to July 14, 1944, Will Be Adjudicated Under the Provisions of This Section.

(2) A Claim Pending on July 13, 1943, Will Be Considered a Claim Under This Section.

(e) Readjustment Allowance and Subsistence Allowance. Readjustment Allowance and Subsistence Allowance Under the Provisions of Public Law 346, 78th Congress, as Amended, and Subsistence Allowance Under the Provisions of Public Law 16, 78th Congress, as Amended by Public Law 268, 79th Congress, Remaining Due and Unpaid at the Date of the Veteran's Death, Shall Be Payable Under the Provisions of This Section: Provided, That Readjustment Allowance Shall Be Payable Only Under the Provisions of Paragraphs (a) and (c) of This Section.

3. In § 5.2662 the Introductory Paragraph and Paragraph (a) Are Amended, Headnotes Are Added to Paragraphs (b), (c), and (d).

§ 5.2662 Lump Sums Payable at Death of Veteran Where Award Was Reduced by Reason of Hospital Treatment, Institutional or Domiciliary Care by the Veterans' Administration. The Provisions of This Section Shall Apply Only to the Payment of Amounts Actually Withheld on a Running Award Pursuant to the Provisions of Section (1) (A) (1), Public Law 662, 79th Congress, and to the Payment of Amounts Deposited in Funds Due Incompetent Beneficiaries for Periods on and After August 8, 1946, Which Are Payable in a Lump Sum After the Veteran's Death. care, or prior to payment of any lump sum authorized by that section, such lump sum, as well as amounts deposited in funds due incompetent beneficiaries for periods on and after August 8, 1946, shall be paid in the following order of preference:

(b) Claim. No payment shall be made under this section unless claim therefor shall be filed with the Veterans' Administration within 5 years after the death of the veteran: Provided, That if any person so entitled be under legal disability at the time of the veteran's death, the 5-year period shall run from the date of termination or removal of the legal disability.

(c) Lump sum withheld after discharge from institution. The provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall apply in the event of the death of:

(1) Any veteran prior to receiving a lump sum which was withheld because treatment or care was terminated by him against medical advice or as the result of disciplinary action (sec. (1) (A) (1), Pub. Law 662, 79th Cong.).

(2) Any veteran who was formerly rated incompetent and a lump sum was withheld because a period of 6 months had not expired following a finding of competency (sec. 1 (B), Pub. Law 662, 79th Cong.).

(d) Asset checks. The provisions of § 5.2660 (b) shall apply in any case in which a check for a lump sum, as described herein, is received by the payee.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchaper B—National Wildlife Refuge; General Regulations

PART 13—ADMINISTRATION OF WILDLIFE REFUGES ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO THE ACT OF AUGUST 14, 1946

CRAB ORCHARD NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, ILLINOIS

Basis and purposes. Pursuant to the provisions of the act of August 5, 1947 (61 Stat. 770) and in cooperation with Federal, State, and public or private agencies and organizations, the Secretary of the Interior has determined that the most beneficial use which may be made of the lands transferred to the Department of the Interior by said act is the establishment of a national wildlife refuge, designated as the Crab Orchard National Wildlife Refuge, to be administered in accordance with the provisions of the act of August 14, 1946 (60 Stat. 1080) so as to permit the multiple uses outlined in the said act of August 5, 1947. To provide for the proper and orderly administration of the said lands for the purposes aforesaid, the following is hereby added to Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 13, to become effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

§ 13.193 Crab Orchard National Wildlife Refuge, Illinois—(a) Classification of lands. (1) The hereinafter described lands within the refuge are designated as Area I, and are classified for use and administration as a public use area within which all the various forms of recreational uses, including public hunting and fishing in accordance with state laws, picnicking, boating, swimming and similar activities, shall be permitted in accordance with regulations to be issued by the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service.

Area I: All Federally owned lands within the following described subdivisions:

T. 9 S., R. 1 E., 3d P. M.
Sec. 5, SE¼SW¼, and W½SE¼;
Sec. 7, E½;
Sec. 8, all;
Sec. 9, W½NW¼, W½NE¼SW¼, W½SW¼, SE¼SW¼, and S½SE¼;
Sec. 10, NE¼SW¼, S½SW¼, NW¼SE¼, and S½SE¼;
Secs. 15 to 22 incl., all;
Secs. 28 to 33 incl., all.
T. 10 S., R. 1 E., 3d P. M.
Secs. 4 and 5, all;
Sec. 7, E½SE¼;
Secs. 8 and 9, all;
T. 9 S., R. 1 W., 3d P. M.
Secs. 13, 24, and 25, all.

(2) The hereinafter described lands within the refuge are designated as Area II, and are classified as a closed refuge on which all types of hunting will be prohibited, to be used and administered upon such terms and conditions and pursuant to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service.

The various buildings and related facilities of the former Illinois Ordnance Plant and the utilities accommodating both governmental and private operations are located within a relatively small segment of Area II. These buildings, facilities, and utilities, excepting those presently utilized by the Department of the Army, are hereby classified as industrial units and, to the extent not required for use by the Government, shall be made available by the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, for rental under lease to reputable industrial enterprises.

Such uplands within Area II as shall be determined by the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, to be suitable for development as a quail management demonstration project are hereby so classified, and may be made available by the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, to the Conservation Department of the State of Illinois, or to any other public agency engaged in wildlife management, under an appropriate cooperative agreement.

Such buildings and facilities of the former administrative site for this area as are not required by the Fish and Wildlife Service for administrative purposes, and are desired by the University of Southern Illinois for educational purposes, are so classified and shall be made available to that institution by the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, under a nominal rental lease. A maximum of 320 acres of land, within Area II, suitable for an agricultural experimental project, are classified for that purpose, and upon request are to be made available by the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, under permit to the University of Southern Illinois.

So far as is consistent with the above classifications and uses, the various forms of recreational uses allowed on Area I, other than hunting, shall be permitted on Area II.

Area II: All Federally owned lands within the following described subdivisions:

T. 9 S., R. 1 E., 3d P. M.
Sec. 13, that part lying south of the south right-of-way boundary of State Highway No. 13;
Sec. 14, that part lying south of the south right-of-way boundary of State Highway No. 13;
Secs. 23 to 27, incl., all;
Secs. 34 to 36, incl., all.
T. 10 S., R. 1 E., 3d P. M.
Secs. 1 to 3, incl., all.
Secs. 10 to 12, incl., all.
T. 9 S., R. 2 E., 3d P. M.
Sec. 18, that part lying south and west of the south right-of-way boundary of State Highway No. 13;
Sec. 19, that part lying south of the south right-of-way boundary of State Highway No. 13;
Sec. 20, that part lying south of the south right-of-way boundary of State Highway No. 13;
Sec. 21, that part lying south of the south right-of-way boundary of State Highway No. 13;
Sec. 22, that part lying south of the south right-of-way boundary of State Highway No. 13 and west of the west right-of-way boundary of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad;
Sec. 26, that part of the W½SW¼ lying west of the west right-of-way boundary of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad;

Sec. 27, that part lying west of the west right-of-way boundary of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad;
Secs. 28 to 34 incl., all;
Sec. 35, W½NW¼ and N½NW¼SW¼.
T. 10 S., R. 2 E., 3d P. M.
Secs. 3 to 10 incl., all except the lands utilized by the Department of the Army within the S½NE¼, SE¼NW¼, NE¼SW¼ and NE¼SE¼ of sec. 7.

(3) The hereinafter described lands within the refuge are designated as Area III, and are classified for use and administration as a public use area upon which all of the various forms of public recreation allowed on Area I will be permitted, except that public use of Area III shall be subordinated to group recreation, group camps and private cabin or cottage site development, on lands zoned for those purposes. The area shall be administered in accordance with regulations to be issued by the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service.

Area III. All Federally owned lands within the following described subdivisions:

T. 10 S., R. 1 E., 3d P. M.
Sec. 13, S½SW¼ and SW¼SE¼;
Sec. 14, W½NW¼, NW¼SW¼ and S½S½;

Subchapter C—National Wildlife Refuges; Individual Regulations

PART 21—PACIFIC REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

DESERT GAME RANGE, NEVADA; DEER HUNTING

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observations and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service, the Bureau of Land Management, and the Nevada Fish and Game Commission it has been determined that the population of deer on the Desert Game Range is in excess of the available habitat for such animals and that it is necessary to expand the area open to hunting to accomplish the necessary reduction.

Section 21.227 is amended to read:

§ 21.227 Desert Game Range, Nevada; deer hunting. Deer may be taken on certain lands of the United States, hereinafter described within the Desert Game Range, during the open season and in such numbers and sex as may be prescribed by the Nevada Fish and Game Commission, after a joint annual examination of the Range by the Fish and Wildlife Service and the Nevada Fish and Game Commission, subject to the following special provisions, conditions, restrictions, and requirements:

(a) Area open to hunting. The following described lands of the United States within the Desert Game Range shall be open to the hunting of deer:

Beginning at a point where U. S. Highway No. 95 intersects the west boundary of the Desert Game Range, thence southeasterly along said Highway No. 95 to the east boundary of the Desert Game Range, thence south along such boundary to the Red Rock Road, thence westerly along said Red Rock Road to the west boundary of the Desert Game Range, thence north along the said west boundary to the place of beginning.

(b) Entry. Entry on and use of the Range for any purpose are governed by the provisions of Parts 12 and 16 of this title, and strict compliance therewith is required.

(c) State hunting laws. Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required, and any person who hunts on the Range must have in his possession, and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer, a valid State hunting license and a special permit issued by the State authorizing him to hunt on the area. Such State license and permit will serve as a Federal permit for entry on the Range for the purpose of hunting.

(d) State cooperation. State cooperation may be enlisted in the regulation, management, and operation of the public hunting areas, and the State may promulgate such special regulations as may be necessary for such regulation, management, and operation. In the event such State regulations are issued, compliance therewith shall be a requisite to lawful entry for the purpose of hunting.

Dated: October 21, 1948.

PART 21—PACIFIC REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

HUNTING IN MALHEUR NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, OREGON

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observations and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service and of conservation agents of the State of Oregon it has been determined that habitat conditions have improved to the extent that a part of the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge can be opened to public waterfowl hunting without conflicting materially with the management of the major part of the Refuge for the protection and preservation of wildlife. Accordingly, to permit properly managed public hunting in the area to be opened, the following section is added to Part 21 of Title 50 Code of Federal Regulations, to become effective October 29, 1948.

§ 21.588a Malheur National Wildlife Refuge, Oregon; hunting. Migratory waterfowl, coots, and pheasants may be taken within the hereinafter described area of Malheur National Wildlife Refuge, Oregon, in accordance with the Migratory Bird Treaty Act Regulations (50 CFR 1.1–1.12), when, in manner, and to the extent not prohibited by State law or regulation: Provided, That the privileges herein granted shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the regulations dated December 19, 1940, for the administration of National Wildlife Refuges under the jurisdiction of the Fish and Wildlife Service and under the following special provisions, conditions, restrictions, and requirements:

(a) Area open to hunting. All that area of land and water owned by the United States in Harney County, Oregon, situated in and abutting on the west end of Malheur Lake, together with part of the Narrows connecting said Malheur Lake with Mud Lake, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning in the east boundary of T. 26 S., R. 31 E., (south of Malheur Lake), the east quarter corner of fractional sec. 25, approximately one-half mile south of and near the west end of Malheur Lake; thence with four courses within said township, west in said fractional sec. 25, 80.00 chs. to the quarter-section corner common to fractional secs. 25 and 26; south with part of the line common to said fractional secs. 25 and 26, 20.00 chs. to the southeast corner of lot four (4) of said fractional sec. 26; in fractional sec. 26, west 40.00 chs., north approximately 2.00 chs. to the corner in the record meander line (known as the Neal Survey Line) of T. 26 S., R. 30 E., (south of Malheur Lake), in the northwest boundary of fractional sec. 26, common to lots five (5) and seven (7) on the southeast side of the Narrows connecting Malheur and Mud Lakes; thence approximately S. 78°15' W. crossing said Narrows 8.50 chs. to the record meander line (known as the Neal Survey Line) of T. 26 S., R. 31 E. (north of Malheur Lake), the meander corner common to fractional secs. 26 and 35 on the northwest side of the said Narrows; thence with 17 courses in T. 26 S., R. 31 E. (north of Malheur Lake), in fractional sec. 3, south 40.00 chs., east 20.00 chs., south approximately 36.00 chs. to the record meander line (known as the Neal Survey Line) in the south boundary of said fractional sec. 3, at the corner common to lots ten (10) and eleven (11); thence within Malheur Lake, south approximately 107.60 chs. to a fence; with six courses along a fence S 86°30' W., 30.35 chs., N 59°15' W., 44.60 chs., S 47°25' W., 65.50 chs., S 28°20' E., 34.00 chs., S 56°25' W., 35.00 chs., S 64°40' W., approximately 5.00 chs., S 79°05' W., leaving fence, approximately 102.00 chs., to a fence; with three courses along a fence, S 16°00' E., approximately 28.00 chs., N 88°20' W., 1.90 chs., S 0°50' E., 49.00 chs., to the record meander line (known as the Neal Survey Line) of T. 26 S., R. 31 E. (south of Malheur Lake), in the north boundary of fractional sec. 30, at the corner common to lots fourteen (14) and fifteen (15) of said fractional sec. 30; thence with three courses in T. 26 S., R. 31 E. (south of Malheur Lake), in fractional sec. 30, south approximately 32.50 chs., to the southeast corner of lot eleven (11), N 56°00' W. approximately 5.50 chs., west approximately 34.00 chs., to the place of beginning.

(b) Entry. Entry on and use of the refuge for any purpose are governed by the regulations of the Secretary dated December 19, 1940, (5 F. R. 5284) and strict compliance therewith is required. Persons entering the refuge for the purpose of hunting shall use such routes of travel within the refuge as are designated by posting. The carrying or being in possession of firearms within the areas of the refuge not open to public hunting is prohibited, except that such firearms may be possessed or transported across such closed areas provided they are unloaded, and broken or properly encased. The carrying or being in possession of rifled firearms or the use of single-ball or slug-load shotgun shell on the refuge is prohibited.

(c) Permit. Any person who hunts within the refuge must have on his person and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer whatever license is required by the State law and, if over sixteen years of age, a properly validated migratory bird hunting stamp. The said license and stamp shall serve as a Federal permit for hunting on the refuge.

(d) Dogs. Each person hunting on the public shooting ground will be permitted to take his hunting dogs, not to exceed two in number, upon such area for the purpose of retrieving dead or wounded birds, but such dogs shall not be permitted to run at large on the public shooting grounds or elsewhere on the refuge.

(e) Boats. The use of boats, canoes, or floating devices of any description for the purpose of hunting is prohibited.

(f) State cooperation. The cooperation of the Oregon Game Commission may be enlisted in the regulation, management, and operation of the public hunting area, and the State may promulgate such special rules or regulations as may be necessary for such regulation, management, and operation. In the event such State rules or regulations are issued, compliance therewith shall be a requisite for lawful entry for the purpose of hunting.

Because this section grants certain privileges with respect to the use of the public property described herein which heretofore were not authorized, and because the privileges may be enjoyed only during the open season for hunting migratory waterfowl and coots, which commences in Oregon on October 29, it is found that it is necessary to issue this regulation subject to the effective date limitation of section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238, 5 U. S. C. 1003 (c).

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Internal Revenue

[26 CFR, Part 29]

INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DEC. 31, 1947

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority of sections 62 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32, 467; 26 U. S. C. 62, 3791) and pursuant to the provisions of Public Law 471, 80th Congress.

[SEAL] FRED S. MARTIN,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 111 (26 CFR, Part 29) to the amendments made to Chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code by the Revenue Act of 1948 (Public Law 471, 80th Congress), enacted April 2, 1948, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.11–1 the following:

TITLE I—INCOME TAX REDUCTION

(Revenue Act of 1948)

SEC. 101. REDUCTION OF NORMAL TAX AND SURTAX.

Section 12 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) Reduction of tentative normal tax and tentative surtax. (1) The combined normal tax and surtax under section 11 and subsection (b) of this section shall be the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax, reduced as follows:

If the aggregate is:	The reduction shall be:
Not over $400	17% of the aggregate.
Over $400 but not over $100,000.	$68 plus 12% of excess over $400.
Over $100,000	$12,020 plus 0.75% of excess over $100,000.

(2) In no event shall the combined normal tax and surtax exceed 77 per centum of the net income.

* * * * * *

SEC. 104. TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.

(a) Section 11 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to the normal tax on individuals) is hereby amended by striking out "by 5 per centum thereof" and inserting in lieu thereof "as provided in section 12 (c)".

(c) Subsections (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) of section 12 of the Internal Revenue Code are amended to read as follows:

(e) Computation of tax without regard to credits against tax. In the application of this section, the combined normal tax and surtax shall be computed without regard to the credits provided in sections 31, 32, and 35.

(f) Ascertainment of normal tax and surtax separately. Whenever it is necessary to ascertain the normal tax and the surtax separately, the surtax shall be an amount which is the same proportion of the combined normal tax and surtax as the tentative surtax is of the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax; and the normal tax shall be the remainder of such combined normal tax and surtax.

* * * * * *

SEC. 105. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE.

The amendments made by this title shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

SEC. 301. SPLITTING OF INCOME. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title III.)

Section 12 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to surtax of individuals) is hereby amended by adding after subsection (c) of such section the following new subsection:

(d) Tax in case of joint return. In the case of a joint return of husband and wife under section 51 (b), the combined normal tax and surtax under section 11 and subsection (b) of this section shall be twice the combined normal tax and surtax that would be determined if the net income and the applicable credits against net income provided by section 25 were reduced by one-half.

SEC. 305. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title III.)

The amendments made by sections 301, * * * shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. * * * For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

PAR. 2. Section 29.11–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5517, approved June 12, 1946, is further amended by striking out the last two sentences and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1945, and before January 1, 1948, the normal tax on individuals is determined by computing a tentative normal tax of 3 percent of the amount of the net income in excess of the credits against net income provided in section 25 for such years and by reducing such tentative normal tax by 5 percent thereof. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, the normal tax on individuals is determined by computing a tentative normal tax of 3 percent of the amount of the net income in excess of the credits against net income provided in section 25 and by reducing such tentative normal tax as provided in section 12 (c). See § 29.12–2. For computation of tax in the case of a joint return of husband and wife for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947, see § 29.12–4.

For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1945 and ending in 1946, see § 29.108–2. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see § 29.108–3."

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.12–1 the following:

TITLE I—INCOME TAX REDUCTION

(Revenue Act of 1948)

SEC. 101. REDUCTION OF NORMAL TAX AND SURTAX.

Section 12 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) Reduction of tentative normal tax and tentative surtax. (1) The combined normal tax and surtax under section 11 and subsection (b) of this section shall be the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax, reduced as follows:

If the aggregate is:	The reduction shall be:
Not over $400	17% of the aggregate.
Over $400 but not over $100,000.	$68 plus 12% of excess over $400.
Over $100,000	$12,020 plus 9.75% of excess over $100,000.

(2) In no event shall the combined normal tax and surtax exceed 77 per centum of the net income.

SEC. 102. REDUCTION IN SUPPLEMENT T TAX.

For reduction in the tax under Supplement T of Chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code (tax table which may be used by taxpayer at his election if his adjusted gross income is less than $5,000), see section 401.

SEC. 103. INCOME OF HUSBAND AND WIFE.

For tax in case of joint return of husband and wife (the so-called "splitting of income"), see section 301.

SEC. 104. TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.

* * * * * *

(b) Section 12 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to the rate of surtax on individuals) is hereby amended by striking out "by 5 per centum thereof" and inserting in lieu thereof "as provided in subsection (c) of this section".

(c) Subsections (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) of section 12 of the Internal Revenue Code are amended to read as follows:

(e) Computation of tax without regard to credits against tax. In the application of this section, the combined normal tax and surtax shall be computed without regard to the credits provided in sections 31, 32, and 35.

(f) Ascertainment of normal tax and surtax separately. Whenever it is necessary to ascertain the normal tax and the surtax separately, the surtax shall be an amount which is the same proportion of the combined normal tax and surtax as the tentative surtax is of the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax; and the normal tax shall be the remainder of such combined normal tax and surtax.

(g) Cross references—(1) Alternative tax. For alternative tax which may be elected if adjusted gross income is less than $5,000, see Supplement T.

(2) Tax in case of capital gains. For rate and computation of alternative tax in lieu of normal tax and surtax in the case of capital gain from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for more than 6 months, see section 117 (c).

(3) Tax on personal holding companies. For surtax on personal holding companies, see section 500.

(4) Avoidance of surtaxes by incorporation. For surtax on corporations which accumulate surplus to avoid surtax on shareholders, see section 102.

(5) Sale of oil or gas properties. For limitation of surtax attributable to the sale of oil or gas properties, see section 105.

SEC. 105. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE.

The amendments made by this title shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

SEC. 301. SPLITTING OF INCOME. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title III.)

Section 12 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to surtax of individuals) is hereby amended by adding after subsection (c) of such section the following new subsection:

(d) Tax in case of joint return. In the case of a joint return of husband and wife under section 51 (b), the combined normal tax and surtax under section 11 and subsection (b) of this section shall be twice the combined normal tax and surtax that would be determined if the net income and the applicable credits against net income provided by section 25 where reduced by one-half.

SEC. 305. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title III.)

The amendments made by sections 301, • • • shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. • • • For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

PAR. 4. Section 29.12–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5517, is further amended by striking out paragraph (c) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

§ 29.12–1 Surtax. • • •

(c) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1945, and before January 1, 1948. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1945, and before January 1, 1948, there is imposed, in addition to the normal tax, a surtax determined as specified in section 12 upon the surtax net income of every individual, resident or nonresident, except nonresident alien individuals subject to the tax imposed by section 211 (a). The surtax net income for such years is the net income minus the credits provided in section 25 (b) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1948. Section 12 provides with respect to such taxable years that the surtax shall be 5 percent less than the amount of the tentative surtax computed in accordance with the tentative surtax table contained therein. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1945 and ending in 1946, see § 29.108–2.

(d) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, there is imposed, in addition to the normal tax, a surtax determined as specified in section 12, upon the surtax net income of every individual, resident or nonresident, except nonresident alien individuals subject to the tax imposed by section 211 (a). The surtax net income is the net income minus the credits provided in section 25 (b). Section 12 specifies that the surtax shall be determined by computing a tentative surtax in accordance with the tentative surtax table contained therein and by reducing such tentative surtax as provided in section 12 (c). For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see § 29.108–3.

PAR. 5. Section 29.12–2, as amended by Treasury Decision 5517, is further amended by striking out the last sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

§ 29.12–2 Computation of surtax. • • • For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1945, and prior to January 1, 1948, section 12 provides that the surtax shall be 5 percent less than the tentative surtax. Accordingly, the surtax for any of such taxable years upon a surtax net income of $63,128 would be $33,122.70, computed as follows:

Tentative surtax on $63,128	$34,866.00
Less: 5 percent of $34,866	1,743.30
Surtax	33,122.70

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, section 12 provides that the combined normal tax and surtax shall be determined by reducing the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax as provided in the following table:

If the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and the tentative surtax is:	The reduction shall be:
Not over $400	17% of the aggregate.
Over $400 but not over $100,000.	$68 plus 12% of the excess over $400.
Over $100,000	$12,020 plus 9.75% of the excess over $100,000.

Accordingly, if the normal tax net income and the surtax net income each amounts to $150,000 the combined normal tax and surtax will be $93,647.55, computed as follows:

Tentative normal tax: 3 percent of $150,000	$4,500.00
Tentative surtax on $150,000 from table	107,320.00
Aggregate of tentative normal tax and tentative surtax	111,820.00
Reduction of tentative tax: $12,020 plus 9.75 percent of $11,820 (excess of the aggregate tentative tax over $100,000)	13,172.45
Combined normal tax and surtax	98,647.55

Section 12 (f), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1948, provides that, whenever it is necessary to ascertain the normal tax and the surtax separately for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947, the surtax shall be an amount which is the same proportion of the combined normal tax and surtax as the tentative surtax is of the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax and the normal tax shall be the remainder of such combined normal tax and surtax. Such computation, for example, is necessary for the purpose of section 105, relating to tax on the gain from the sale of oil or gas properties and for the purpose of section 106, relating to tax on amounts received with respect to claims against the United States involving acquisition of property. The surtax on the net income of $150,000 involved in the above example would under section 12 (f) be $98,647.55 (combined normal tax and surtax) multiplied by or $94,677.65, and the normal tax would be $98,647.55 minus $94,677.65, or $3,969.90.

For computation of tax in the case of a joint return of husband and wife for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947, see § 29.12–4.

PAR. 6. Section 29.12–3, as amended by Treasury Decision 5517, is hereby further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting immediately after "December 31, 1945," in the second sentence "and before January 1, 1948,".

(B) By inserting at the end thereof the following: "For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, the combined normal tax and surtax, computed before the application thereto of the credit provided in section 31 (relating to the credit for foreign income tax), section 32 (relating to the credit for tax withheld at the source under section 143 or section 144), and section 35 (relating to the credit for tax withheld on wages), cannot exceed an amount equal to 77 percent of the taxpayer's net income for the taxable year. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see § 29.108–3."

PAR. 7. There is inserted immediately after § 29.12–3 the following section:

§ 29.12–4 Combined normal tax and surtax in case of joint return of husband and wife for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. In the case of a joint return of husband and wife (see section 51 (b)) for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947, the combined normal tax and surtax under section 11 and section 12 (b) shall be twice the combined normal tax and surtax that would be determined if the net income and the applicable credits against net income provided by section 25 were reduced by one-half. (Section 12 (d).) For method of computing gross income and adjusted gross income on a joint return, see § 29.51–1.

The method of computing, under section 12 (d), the tax of husband and wife, in the case of a joint return, is as follows:

First, the net income and applicable credits against net income are reduced by one-half. Second, the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax are determined as provided in section 11 and section 12 (b), by using the net income and applicable credits so reduced. Third, the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax so determined are aggregated and this aggregate tentative tax is then reduced as provided in section 12 (c). Fourth, this reduced aggregate, which is the combined normal tax and surtax that would be determined if the net income and the applicable credits against net income provided by section 25 were reduced by one-half, is then multiplied by two, to produce the tax imposed in the case of the joint return.

The limitation under section 12 (c) of the combined normal tax and surtax to an amount not in excess of 77 percent of the net income is to be applied before the fourth step above, that is, the limitation is to be applied upon the combined normal tax and surtax determined under section 12 (c) as 77 percent of one-half of the net income (such one-half of the net income being the actual aggregate net income of the spouses reduced by one-half). After such limitation is applied, then the combined normal tax and surtax so limited are multiplied by two as provided in section 12 (d).

The following computation illustrates the method of application of section 12 (d) in the determination of the tax of a husband and wife filing a joint return for the calendar year 1948. If the joint net income is $8,200 and the only allowable credits under section 25 are the two exemptions of the taxpayers under section 25 (b) (1) (A), the tax on the joint return for 1948 is $1,244.80, determined as follows:

1. Net income	$8,200.00
2. Net income reduced by one-half	4,100.00
3. Credits against net income under sec. 25 (2 exemptions under sec. 25 (b) (1) (A))	1,200.00
4. Credits in item 3 reduced by one-half	600.00
5. Net income reduced by one-half (item 2) minus credits reduced by one-half (item 4)	3,500.00
6. Tentative normal tax computed under sec. 11 on amount in item 5 (3 percent of $3,500)	105.00
7. Tentative surtax computed under sec. 12 (b) on amount in item 5 ($340 plus 19 percent of excess of $3,500 over $2,000)	625.00
8. Aggregate of the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax	730.00
9. Combined normal tax and surtax determined under sec. 12 (c) ($730 reduced by $68 plus 12 percent of the excess of $730 over $400)	622.40
10. Twice the combined normal tax and surtax determined in item 9	1,244.80

If the alternative tax is computed under section 117 (c) (2), relating to the alternative tax where a taxpayer (other than a corporation) has a net long-term capital gain in excess of a net short-term capital loss, the partial tax shall be computed under sections 11 and 12 as stated above but without inclusion of such excess in net income, and the total tax shall be such partial tax plus 50 percent of such excess as provided in section 117 (c) (2).

For computation of tax under Supplement T in the case of a joint return, see §§ 29.400–1 and 29.401–1.

For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see § 29.108–3.

PAR. 8. Section 29.22 (m)–1, as added by Treasury Decision 5425, approved December 29, 1944, is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Such compensation, therefore, shall be included in the gross income of the child and reflected in the return rendered by or for such child if the gross income for the taxable year amounts to $500 or more in the case of a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1943 and before January 1, 1948, or to $600 or more in the case of a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947. See § 29.51–3."

(B) By striking from the third sentence ", whether more or less than $500,".

PAR. 9. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.23 (x)–1 the following:

SEC. 304. DEDUCTION FOR MEDICAL EXPENSES. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title III.)

Section 23 (x) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to deduction of medical, etc., expenses) is hereby amended by striking out the second and third sentences thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "The deduction shall not be in excess of $1,250 multiplied by the number of exemptions allowed under section 25 (b) (1) (B) or (C)), with a maximum deduction of $2,500, except that the maximum deduction shall be $5,000 in the case of a joint return of husband and wife under section 51 (b)."

SEC. 305. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title III.)

The amendments made by sections • • • 304 shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. • • • For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

PAR. 10. Section 29.23 (x)–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5517 is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting immediately preceding "29.25–6" in the first sentence of the second paragraph "89.25–3 and".

(B) By striking out the fifth sentence of the second paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "If the deduction for the prior year would have been greater but for the limitations on the maximum amount of such deduction provided by section 23 (x), then, for purposes of the two preceding sentences, the amount of the compensation received in a subsequent year or years shall be reduced by an amount equal to the amount by which the deduction for the prior year would, but for the applicable maximum limitations, have been increased. For the computations illustrating this rule, see examples (3) and (4) at the end of this section.

(C) By striking out the third sentence of the fifth paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "The maximum deduction allowable for medical expenses paid in any one taxable year beginning after December 31, 1943, and before January 1, 1948, is $1,250 in the case of a taxpayer having only one exemption under section 25 (b) (prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1948), and $2,500 in the case of a taxpayer entitled to more than one exemption under section 25 (b) (prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1948). The maximum deduction allowable for medical expenses paid in any one taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947, is $1,250 multiplied by the number of exemptions allowed under section 25 (b) (exclusive of exemptions allowed under section 25 (b) (1) (B) for taxpayer or spouse attaining the age of 65 years or section 25 (b) (1) (C) for blind taxpayer or blind spouse) but not in excess of $2,500 in the case of a single individual or a married individual making a separate return and not in excess of $5,000 in the case of a joint return of husband and wife."

(D) By adding at the end of such section after example (4) the following new example:

Example (5). H and W make a joint return for the calendar year 1948, on which five exemptions are allowed (exclusive of exemptions under section 25 (b) (1) (B) or (C)), one for each taxpayer and three for their dependent minor children. The adjusted gross income of H and W in 1948 is $40,000. They pay during that year $9,000 for medical care, no part of which is compensated for by insurance or otherwise. The deduction allowable under section 23 (x) for the calendar year 1948 is $5,000, computed as follows:

Payment for medical care in 1948	$9,000
Less: 5 percent of $40,000 (adjusted gross income)	2,000
Excess of medical expenses in 1948 over 5 percent of adjusted gross income	7,000
Allowable deduction for 1948 ($1,250 multiplied by 5 exemptions allowed under section 25 (b) (1) (A) and (D) but not in excess of $5,000)	5,000

PAR. 11. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.23 (y)–1 the following:

SEC. 202. TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS. (Revenue Act of 1948.)

• • • • •

(e) Repeal of deduction for blind individuals. Effective with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, section 23 (y) of such Code (relating to special deduction for blind individuals) is repealed.

PAR. 12. Section 29.23 (y)–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5451, approved April 17, 1945, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting immediately after "December 31, 1943," in the first sentence the words "and before January 1, 1948,".

(B) By adding at the end of such section the following: "For additional exemptions allowed for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, for blind taxpayer or blind spouse, see section 25 (b) (1), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1948, and § 29.25–3 (d)."

PAR. 13. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.23 (aa)–1 the following:

SEC. 302. STANDARD DEDUCTION. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title III.)

(a) Increase of standard deduction in case of joint return or return by unmarried person. Section 23 (aa) (1) (A) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to the standard deduction) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(A) Adjusted Gross Income $5,000 or More. If his adjusted gross income is $5,000 or more, the standard deduction shall be $1,000 or an amount equal to 10 per centum of the adjusted gross income, whichever is the lesser, except that in the case of a separate return by a married individual, the standard deduction shall be $500.

(b) Election by husband and wife. Section 23 (aa) (4) of such Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

(4) Husband and wife. In the case of husband and wife, the standard deduction shall not be allowed to either if the net income of one of the spouses is determined without regard to the standard deduction.

(c) Determination of status. Section 23 (aa) of such Code is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(6) Determination of status. For the purposes of this subsection:

(A) The determination of whether an individual is married shall be made as of the close of his taxable year, unless his spouse dies during his taxable year, in which case such determination shall be made as of the time of such death; and

(B) An individual legally separated from his spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance shall not be considered as married.

SEC. 305. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title III.)

The amendments made by sections • • • 302, • • • shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. • • • For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

PAR. 14. Section 29.23 (aa)–1, as added by Treasury Decision 5425, is amended as follows: (A) By striking out the third and fourth sentences of paragraph (a) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

§ 29.23 (aa)–1 Standard deduction—(a) General. • • • In the case of taxpayers whose adjusted gross income is $5,000 or more, the standard deduction for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1943, and before January 1, 1948, is $500. In the case of such taxpayers, the standard deduction for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, is $1,000 or 10 percent of adjusted gross income, whichever is the lesser, except that in the case of a separate return by a married individual, the standard deduction is $500. For the purpose of the preceding sentence, the determination of whether an individual is married shall be made as of the close of his taxable year unless his spouse dies during his taxable year, in which case such determination shall be made as of the time of such death; and an individual shall be considered as married even though living apart from his spouse unless legally separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance. In the case of taxpayers whose adjusted gross income is less than $5,000, the standard deduction is about 10 percent of the adjusted gross income upon which the tax is determined in the table provided in section 400. A taxpayer having adjusted gross income of less than $5,000, who does not elect to pay the tax imposed by Supplement T, may not take the standard deduction.

In the case of a joint return, there is only one adjusted gross income and only one standard deduction. For example, if a husband has an income of $15,000 and his spouse has an income of $12,000 for the taxable year for which they file a joint return, and they have no deductions allowable for the purposes of computing adjusted gross income, the adjusted gross income is $27,000, and the standard deduction, if the joint return is for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1948, is $500 (and not $1,000) and if the joint return is for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947, is $1,000 (and not $2,000).

(B) By striking out the second sentence of subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Such taxpayer shall so signify on his return by claiming thereon the deduction in the amount provided for in section 23 (aa) instead of itemizing the deductions allowable under section 23 other than those specified in section 22 (n). The amount to be claimed on the return by such taxpayer for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1943, and before January 1, 1948, is $500 and for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, is $1,000 or 10 percent of the adjusted gross income, whichever is lesser (except that in the case of a separate return by a married individual, the amount is $500)."

(C) By striking from the first sentence of paragraph (c) the expression "living together" and inserting in lieu thereof the following "(except as qualified below)".

(D) By striking out the last two sentences of the third paragraph of (c) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "For taxable years beginning before January 1, 1948, the restriction applies only in the case of a husband and wife living together and for such purpose the spouses are considered as living together unless they are permanently separated. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, the restriction applies unless the spouses are legally separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance. The determination of whether an individual is married and living with his spouse for the purpose of the standard deduction for taxable years beginning before December 31, 1947, shall be made as of the last day of such individual's taxable year unless his spouse dies during such taxable year, in which event the determination shall be made as of the date of death of such spouse. Similarly, the determination of whether an individual is married (whether or not living with his spouse unless legally separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance) for the purpose of the allowance of the standard deduction for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, shall be made as of the last day of such individual's taxable year unless his spouse dies during such taxable year, in which event the determination shall be made as of the date of death of such spouse."

(E) By adding at the end of such section the following:

Example (3). Taxpayer A and his wife B both make their returns on a calendar year basis. In July 1948 they enter into a separation agreement and thereafter live apart but no decree of divorce or separate maintenance is issued until March 1949. If A itemizes and claims his actual deductions on his return for the calendar year 1948 B may not elect the standard deduction on her return for such year since B is considered as married to A (although permanently separated by agreement) on the last day of 1948.

PAR. 15. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.25–1 the following:

SEC. 201. ADDITIONAL CREDITS AGAINST NET INCOME FOR NORMAL TAX AND SURTAX. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title II.)

Paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 25 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code are hereby amended to read as follows:

(1) Credits. There shall be allowed for the purposes of both the normal tax and the surtax, the following credits against net income:

(A) An exemption of $600 for the taxpayer; and an additional exemption of $600 for the spouse of the taxpayer if a separate return is made by the taxpayer, and if the spouse, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer;

(B) (i) An additional exemption of $600 for the taxpayer if he has attained the age of 65 before the close of his taxable year; and

(ii) An additional exemption of $600 for the spouse of the taxpayer if a separate return is made by the taxpayer, and if the spouse has attained the age of 65 before the close of such taxable year, and, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer;

(C) (i) An additional exemption of $600 for the taxpayer if he is blind at the close of his taxable year; and

(ii) An additional exemption of $600 for the spouse of the taxpayer if a separate return is made by the taxpayer, and if the spouse is blind and, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer. For the purposes of this clause the determination of whether the spouse is blind shall be made as of the close of the taxable year of the taxpayer, unless the spouse dies during such taxable year, in which case such determination shall be made as of the time of such death;

(iii) For the purposes of this subparagraph an individual is blind only if either: his central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses, or his visual acuity is greater than 20/200 but is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees;

(D) An exemption of $600 for each dependent whose gross income for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins is less than $500, except that the exemption shall not be allowed in respect of a dependent who has made a joint return with his spouse under section 51 for the taxable year beginning in such calendar year.

(2) Determination of status. For the purposes of this subsection:

(A) The determination of whether an individual is married shall be made as of the close of his taxable year, unless his spouse dies during his taxable year, in which case such determination shall be made as of the time of such death; and

(B) An individual legally separated from his spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance shall not be considered as married.

SEC. 203. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title II.)

The amendments made by this title shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

PAR. 16. Section 29.25–3, as amended by Treasury Decision 5517, is hereby amended by striking out that portion designated as "(c)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

§ 29.25–3 Personal exemption, surtax exemptions, and exemptions for both normal tax and surtax. • • •

(c) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1945, and before January 1, 1948. For the purpose of the normal tax and surtax on individuals for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1945, and before January 1, 1948, there are allowed as credits against net income the exemptions allowed by section 25 (b) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1948. Except that such exemptions are not designated "surtax exemptions" for such years and that they are allowable for the purpose of the normal tax as well as the surtax for such years, the provisions of paragraph (b) above are applicable thereto.

(d) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947—(1) In general. For the purposes of the normal tax and the surtax on individuals for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, there are allowed as credits against net income the exemptions specified in section 25 (b) as amended by the Revenue Act of 1948. Such credits include (i) the exemptions for an individual taxpayer and spouse (the so-called personal exemptions), (ii) the additional exemptions for a taxpayer attaining the age of 65 years and spouse attaining the age of 65 years (the so-called old-age exemptions), (iii) the additional exemptions for a blind taxpayer and a blind spouse, and (iv) the exemptions for dependents of the taxpayer.

(2) Exemptions for individual taxpayer and spouse (so-called personal exemptions). There are allowed by section 25 (b) (1) (A) an exemption of $600 for the taxpayer and an additional exemption of $600 for the spouse of the taxpayer if a separate return is made by the taxpayer, and if the spouse, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer. Since, in the case of a joint return, there are two taxpayers (although under section 51 (b) there is only one income for the two taxpayers on such return—i. e., their aggregate income), two exemptions of $600 are allowed on such return, one for each taxpayer spouse. If in any case a joint return is made by the taxpayer and his spouse, no exemption is allowed any other person for such spouse even though such other person would have been entitled to claim an exemption for such spouse as a dependent if such joint return had not been made.

(3) Exemptions for taxpayer attaining the age of 65 and spouse attaining the age of 65 (so-called old-age exemptions). Section 25 (b) (1) (B) provides an additional exemption of $600 for the taxpayer if he has attained the age of 65 before the close of his taxable year. An additional exemption of $600 is also allowed to the taxpayer for his spouse if a separate return is made by the taxpayer and if the spouse has attained the age of 65 before the close of the taxable year of the taxpayer and, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, the spouse has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer. If a husband and wife make a joint return, an old-age exemption of $600 will be allowed as to each taxpayer spouse who has attained the age of 65 before the close of the taxable year for which the joint return is made. The exemptions under section 25 (b) (1) (B) are in addition to the exemptions for the taxpayer and spouse under section 25 (b) (1) (A).

In determining the age of an individual for the purposes of the exemption for old age, the last day of the taxable year of the taxpayer is the controlling date. Thus, in the event of a separate return by a husband, no additional exemption for old age may be claimed for his spouse unless such spouse has attained the age of 65 on or before the close of the taxable year of the husband. In no event shall the additional exemption for old age be allowed on a separate return of the taxpayer with respect to a spouse who dies before attaining the age of 65 even though such spouse would have attained the age of 65 before the close of the taxable year of the taxpayer. For the purposes of the old-age exemption, an individual attains the age of 65 on the first moment of the day preceding his sixty-fifth birthday. Accordingly, an individual whose sixty-fifth birthday falls on January 1 in a given year attains the age of 65 on the last day of the calendar year immediately preceding.

(4) Exemptions for the blind. Section 25 (b) (1) (C) provides an additional exemption of $600 for the taxpayer if he is blind at the close of his taxable year. An additional exemption is also allowed to the taxpayer for his spouse if the spouse is blind and, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer. The determination of whether the spouse is blind shall be made as of the close of the taxable year of the taxpayer, unless the spouse dies during such taxable year, in which case such determination shall be made as of the time of such death.

The exemptions for the blind, applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, replace the special deduction for the blind provided in section 23 (y) prior to its repeal by the Revenue Act of 1948. The exemptions are in addition to the exemptions for the taxpayer and spouse under section 25 (b) (1) (A) and are also in addition to the exemptions under section 25 (b) (1) (B) for taxpayers and spouses attaining the age of 65 years. Thus, a single individual who has, before the close of his taxable year, attained the age of 65 years and who is blind at the close of his taxable year is entitled, in addition to the so-called personal exemption of $600, to two further exemptions, each of $600, one by reason of his age and the other by reason of his blindness. If a husband and wife make a joint return, an exemption of $600 for the blind will be allowed as to each taxpayer spouse who is blind at the close of the taxable year for which the joint return is made.

A taxpayer claiming an exemption allowed by section 25 (b) (1) (C) for a blind taxpayer or a blind spouse shall, if the individual for whom the exemption is claimed is not totally blind as of the last day of the taxable year of the taxpayer (or in the case of a spouse who dies during such taxable year as of the time of such death), attach to his return a certificate from a physician skilled in the diseases of the eye or a registered optometrist stating that as of the applicable status determination date in the opinion of such physician or optometrist (i) the central visual acuity of the individual for whom the exemption is claimed did not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses or (ii) such individual's visual acuity was accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees. If such individual is totally blind as of the status determination date there shall be attached to the return a statement by the person or persons making the return setting forth such fact.

(5) Exemptions for dependents. Section 25 (b) (1) (D) allows to a taxpayer an exemption of $600 for each dependent whose gross income for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins is less than $500, who receives more than one-half of his support from the taxpayer for such calendar year and who does not file a joint return with his spouse. For the purposes of this credit a dependent is a person who is related to the taxpayer within one of the following relationships: child; the descendants of such child; stepchild; brother; sister; brother or sister by the half blood; stepbrother or stepsister; parent; the ancestors of such parent; stepfather or stepmother; son or daughter of the taxpayer's brother or sister; brother or sister of the taxpayer's father or mother; son-in-law; daughter-in-law; father-in-law; mother-in-law; brother-in-law; or sister-in-law. In the case of a joint return it is not necessary that the prescribed relationship exist between the person claimed as a dependent and the spouse who furnishes the support; it is sufficient if the prescribed relationship exists with respect to either spouse. Thus, a husband and wife making a joint return may claim as a dependent a daughter of the wife's brother (wife's niece) even though the husband is the one who furnishes the chief support. The relationship of affinity once existing will not terminate by divorce or the death of a spouse. A legally adopted child of a person shall be considered a child of such person by blood. A citizen or subject of a foreign country may not be claimed as a dependent, unless he is a resident of the United States, Canada, or Mexico at some time during the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins. Whether or not over half of a person's support, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, was received from the taxpayer shall be determined by reference to the amount of expense incurred by the taxpayer for such support. A payment to a wife which is includible under section 22 (k) or section 171 in the gross income of such wife shall not be considered a payment by her husband for the support of any dependent.

The only exemption allowed for a dependent of the taxpayer is that provided by section 25 (b) (1) (D). The exemptions provided by section 25 (b) (1) (B) (old-age exemptions) and section 25 (b) (1) (C) (exemptions for the blind) are allowed only for the taxpayer or his spouse. Thus, if a taxpayer provides the entire support of his father, who meets all the requirements of a dependent under section 25 (b) (3) and who is over the age of 65 years, the taxpayer is entitled only to the one exemption under section 25 (b) (1) (D) of $600 for his father as a dependent, and is not entitled to any additional exemption because of his father's age.

(6) Determination of husband and wife status. For the purpose of determining the right of an individual to claim an exemption for his spouse under section 25 (b) the determination of whether such individual is married shall be made as of the close of his taxable year, unless his spouse dies during such year, in which case such determination shall be made as of the time of such death. An individual legally separated from his spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance shall not be considered as married.

PAR. 17. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.51–1 the following:

SEC. 202. TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title II.)

* * * * *

(c) Requirement of returns—(1) Individual returns. Section 51 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to the requirement of individual returns) is hereby amended by striking out "$500" and inserting in lieu thereof "$600".

* * * * *

SEC. 203. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title II.)

The amendments made by this title shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

SEC. 303. JOINT RETURNS OF HUSBAND AND WIFE. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title III.)

Section 51 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to joint returns) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(b) Husband and wife—(1) In general. A husband and wife may make a single return jointly. Such a return may be made even though one of the spouses has neither gross income nor deductions. If a joint return is made the tax shall be computed on the aggregate income and the liability with respect to the tax shall be joint and several.

(2) Nonresident alien. No joint return may be made if either the husband or wife at any time during the taxable year is a nonresident alien.

(3) Different taxable years. No joint return shall be made if the husband and wife have different taxable years; except that if such taxable years begin on the same day and end on different days because of the death of either or of both, then the joint return may be made with respect to the taxable year of each. The above exception shall not apply if the surviving spouse remarries before the close of his taxable year, nor if the taxable year of either spouse is a fractional part of a year under section 47 (a).

(4) Joint return after death. In the case of the death of one spouse or both spouses the joint return with respect to the decedent may be made only by his executor or administrator; except that in the case of the death of one spouse the joint return may be made by the surviving spouse with respect to both himself and the decedent if (A) no return for the taxable year has been made by the decedent, (B) no executor or administrator has been appointed, and (C) no executor or administrator is appointed before the last day prescribed by law for filing the return of the surviving spouse. If an executor or administrator of the decedent is appointed after the making of the joint return by the surviving spouse, the executor or administrator may disaffirm such joint return by making, within one year after the last day prescribed by law for filing the return of the surviving spouse, a separate return for the taxable year of the decedent with respect to which the joint return was made, in which case the return made by the survivor shall constitute his separate return.

(5) Determination of status. For the purposes of this section:

(A) The status as husband and wife of two individuals having taxable years beginning on the same day shall be determined:

(i) If both have the same taxable year—as of the close of such year; and

(ii) If one dies before the close of the taxable year of the other—as of the time of such death; and

(B) An individual who is legally separated from his spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance shall not be considered as married.

(6) Tax in case of joint return. For determination of combined normal tax and surtax under section 11 and section 12 (b) in case of joint return under this subsection, see section 12 (d). For tax in case of joint return of husband and wife electing to pay the tax under Supplement T, see section 400.

SEC. 305. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title III.)

The amendments made by sections * * * 303, * * * shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. The amendment made by section 303 shall also be applicable to taxable years of both husband and wife beginning on the same day in 1947 if at least one of such taxable years ends in 1948. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

PAR. 18. Section 29.51–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5600, approved February 2, 1948, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting before the period in the heading of subparagraph (3) of paragraph (a) the following: ", and before January 1, 1948".

(B) By inserting in subparagraph (3) of paragraph (a) after "December 31, 1945," the following: "and before January 1, 1948,".

(C) By inserting after subparagraph (3) of paragraph (a) a new subparagraph (4) to read as follows:

(4) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For each taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947, a return of income shall be made by each citizen of the United States, whether residing at home or abroad, and every individual residing within the United States though not a citizen thereof, regardless of family or marital status, if such citizen or resident has for such taxable year a gross income of $600 or more, or a gross income in excess of the credit allowed by section 25 (b) prorated as provided in section 47 (e).

(D) By striking out paragraph (b) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(b) Joint returns—(1) In general. For taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1944, a husband and wife, if living together at the close of the taxable year, may elect to make a joint return (see section 51 (b)) even though one has no gross income. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1943, a husband and wife occupying the marital status as of the last day of the taxable year may elect to make a joint return even though one of the spouses has no gross income or deductions, and even though the spouses are not living together at any time during the taxable year. However, for the purpose of filing a joint return for taxable years with respect to which the amendments made to section 51 (b) by section 303 of the Revenue Act of 1948 are applicable (taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, and taxable years of both husband and wife beginning on the same day in 1947 if at least one of such taxable years ends in 1948), an individual legally separated from his spouse under a decree of separate maintenance shall not be considered as married.

A joint return may not be made by a husband and wife for a taxable year if a separate return has been filed by one of the spouses and the time for filing the return of such spouse has expired. Similarly, if a joint return is filed, separate returns may not be made by the spouses after the time for filing the return of either has expired. See, however, subparagraph (2) of this paragraph for the right of an executor to file a late separate return for a deceased spouse and thereby disaffirm a timely joint return made by the surviving spouse.

If a joint return is made, the gross income and adjusted gross income of husband and wife on the joint return are computed in an aggregate amount and the deductions allowed and the net income are likewise computed on an aggregate basis. Deductions limited to a percentage of the adjusted gross income, such as the deduction for charitable contributions under section 23 (o), will be allowed with reference to such aggregate adjusted gross income. Similarly, in the case of a joint return, losses of husband and wife from sales or exchanges of capital assets are combined and such combined losses are allowed under section 117 (d) (2) only to the extent of the combined gains of the spouses from such sales or exchanges, plus the net income or $1,000 whichever is smaller. The "net income" referred to in section 117 (d) (2) is the net income computed before reduction by one-half for the purposes of income splitting under section 12 (c) and is such net income computed without regard to gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets. Although there are two taxpayers on a joint return, there is only one net income. The tax on the joint return shall be computed on the aggregate income and the liability with respect to the tax shall be joint and several. A joint return may not be made if either the husband or wife at any time during the taxable year is a nonresident alien. For computation of tax on the basis of the splitting of income in the case of a joint return for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, see § 29.12–4. For tax in the case of a joint return of husband and wife electing to pay the tax under Supplement T, see §§ 29.400–1 and 29.401–1.

A joint return of a husband and wife (if not made by an agent) shall be signed by both spouses. An oath is not necessary, but both spouses shall verify the return as provided in section 51. If signed by one spouse as agent for the other, authorization for such action must accompany the return. The spouse acting as agent for the other shall, with the principal, assume the responsibility for making the return and incur liability for the penalties provided for erroneous, false, or fraudulent returns. See § 29.51–2.

(2) Joint return after death. Since in general a joint return may not be made if husband and wife have different taxable years, and since the taxable year of an individual closes as of the date of his death (see § 29.47–1), no joint return may be made for any taxable year, except as provided by section 51 (b), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1948, if one spouse dies prior to the last day of such taxable year. Section 51 (b), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1948, provides with respect to taxable years of spouses beginning after December 31, 1947 (and with respect to taxable years of spouses beginning on the same day in 1947 if at least one of such taxable years ends in 1948), that a joint return may be made for the survivor and the deceased spouse if the taxable years of such spouses begin on the same day and end on different days only because of the death of either or both. Thus, if a husband and wife make their returns on a calendar year basis, and the wife dies on August 1, 1948, a joint return may be made with respect to the calendar year 1948 of the husband and the taxable year of the wife beginning on January 1, 1948, and ending with her death on August 1, 1948. Similarly, if husband and wife both make their returns on the basis of a fiscal year beginning on July 1 and the wife dies on October 1, 1947, a joint return may be made with respect to the fiscal year of the husband beginning on July 1, 1947, and ending on June 30, 1948, and with respect to the taxable year of the wife beginning on July 1, 1947, and ending with her death on October 1, 1947. For the purposes of this subparagraph the status of two individuals as husband and wife, if one dies prior to the close of the taxable year of the other, shall be determined as of the time of such death.

The provision allowing a joint return to be made for the taxable year in which the death of either or both spouses occurs is subject to two exceptions. The first exception is that if the surviving spouse remarries before the close of his taxable year, he may not make a joint return with the first spouse who died during the taxable year. In such a case, however, the surviving spouse may make a joint return with his new spouse provided that the other requirements of section 51 (b) are met. The second exception is that the surviving spouse may not make a joint return with the deceased spouse if the taxable year of either spouse is a fractional part of a year under section 47 (a) resulting from a change of accounting period. For example, if a husband and wife make their returns on the calendar year basis and the wife dies on March 1, 1948, and thereafter the husband receives permission to change his accounting period to a fiscal year beginning July 1, 1948, no joint return may be made for the short taxable year ending June 30, 1948. Similarly, if a husband and wife who make their returns on a calendar year basis receive permission to change to a fiscal year beginning July 1, 1948, and the wife dies on June 1, 1948, no joint return may be made for the short taxable year ending June 30, 1948.

Section 51 (b) (4), as added by the Revenue Act of 1948, provides for the method of making a joint return in the case of the death of one spouse or both spouses where the return is for taxable years beginning on the same day after December 31, 1947, or for the taxable years beginning on the same day in 1947 if at least one of such taxable years ends in 1948. The general rule is that, in the case of the death of one spouse, or of both spouses, the joint return with respect to the decedent may be made only by his executor or administrator. By the term executor or administrator is meant the person who is actually appointed to such office and not merely a person who may be in charge of the property of the decedent. An exception is made from this general rule whereby, in the case of the death of one spouse, the joint return may be made by the surviving spouse with respect to both him and the decedent if all the following conditions exist:

(i) No return has been made by the decedent for the taxable year in respect to which the joint return is made.

(ii) No executor or administrator has been appointed at or before the time of making such joint return.

(iii) No executor or administrator is appointed before the last day prescribed by law for filing the return of the surviving spouse.

These conditions are to be applied with respect to the return for each of the taxable years of the decedent for which a joint return may be made if more than one such taxable year is involved. Thus, in the case of husband and wife on the calendar year basis, if the wife dies in February 1949, a joint return for the husband and wife for 1948 may be made if the conditions set forth above are satisfied with respect to such return. A joint return may also be made by the survivor for both himself and the deceased spouse for the calendar year 1949 if it is separately determined that the conditions set forth above are satisfied with respect to the return for such year. If, however, the deceased spouse should, prior to her death, make a return for 1948, the surviving spouse may not thereafter make a joint return for himself and the deceased spouse for 1948.

If an executor or administrator is appointed at or before the time of making the joint return or before the last day prescribed by law for filing the return of the surviving spouse, the surviving spouse cannot make a joint return for himself and the deceased spouse whether or not a separate return for the deceased spouse is made by such executor or administrator. In such a case the joint return, if one is to be made, must be made by both the surviving spouse and the executor or administrator. In determining whether an executor or administrator is appointed before the last day prescribed by law for filing the return of the surviving spouse, an extension of time for making the return is included.

If the surviving spouse makes the joint return provided for above, and thereafter an executor or administrator of the decedent is appointed, the executor or administrator may disaffirm such joint return. This disaffirmance, in order to be effective, must be made within one year after the last day prescribed by law for filing the return of the surviving spouse (including any extension of time for filing such return) and must be made in the form of a separate return for the taxable year of the decedent with respect to which the joint return was made. In the event of such proper disaffirmance the return made by the survivor shall constitute his separate return, that is, the joint return made by him shall be treated as his return and the tax thereon shall be computed by excluding all items properly includible in the return of the deceased spouse. The separate return made by the executor or administrator shall constitute the return of the deceased spouse for the taxable year.

The time allowed the executor or administrator to disaffirm the joint return by the making of a separate return does not establish a new due date for the return of the deceased spouse. Accordingly, the provisions of sections 291 and 294, relating to delinquent returns and delinquency in payment of tax, are applicable to such return made by the executor in disaffirmance of the joint return.

PAR. 19. Section 29.51–3, as amended by Treasury Decision 5425, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting before the period in the heading of paragraph (b) the following: ", and before January 1, 1948".

(B) By inserting in paragraph (b) after "December 31, 1943," the following: "and before January 1, 1948,".

(C) By inserting after paragraph (b) a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, an individual, although a minor, who is single, is required to render a return of income if he has gross income (including compensation for personal services includible in his gross income under section 22 (m) (1)) of $600 or over for the taxable year regardless of the amount of his net income. If the aggregate of the gross income of such a minor from any property which he possesses and from any funds held in trust for him by a trustee or guardian and from his earnings is at least $600, regardless of the amount of his net income, a return, as in the case of any other individual, must be made by him or for him by his guardian or other person charged with the care of his person or property. See § 29.142–2. If he is married, see § 29.51–1.

PAR. 20. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.58–1 the following:

SEC. 202. TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS (Revenue Act of 1948, Title II.)

(a) Declaration of estimated tax. Section 58 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to requirement of declaration of estimated tax) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) Requirement of declaration. Every individual (other than an estate or trust and other than a nonresident alien with respect to whose wages, as defined in section 1621 (a), withholding under Subchapter D of Chapter 9 is not made applicable) shall, at the time prescribed in subsection (d), make a declaration of his estimated tax for the taxable year if:

(1) His gross income from wages (as defined in section 1621) can reasonably be expected to exceed the sum of $4,500 plus $600 with respect to each exemption provided in section 25 (b); or

(2) His gross income from sources other than wages (as defined in section 1621) can reasonably be expected to exceed $100 for the taxable year and his gross income to be $600 or more.

. . . . .

SEC. 203. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title II.)

The amendments made by this title shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

PAR. 21. Section 29.58–2, as amended by Treasury Decision 5517, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the headings "Declarations of estimated tax—taxable years beginning after December 31, 1944—(a) General." and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Declarations of estimated tax—(a) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1944, and before January 1, 1948—(1) General."

(B) By inserting after "December 31, 1944," in the first sentence thereof "and before January 1, 1948,".

(C) By striking out the designations (1), (2) and (3) where first appearing in the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof (i), (ii) and (iii).

(D) By striking out the designations (1) and (2) where last appearing in the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof (a) and (b).

(E) By striking out the designation "(b)" preceding the heading "Short taxable years." and inserting in lieu thereof "(2)".

(F) By adding at the end of such section the following paragraph:

(b) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947—(1) General. A declaration of estimated tax shall, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, be made by (i) every citizen of the United States, whether residing at home or abroad, (ii) every individual residing in the United States though not a citizen thereof, and (iii) every nonresident alien who is a resident of Canada or Mexico and who has wages subject to withholding at the source under section 1622, if such citizen or resident or alien can reasonably be expected to have for such taxable year:

(a) Gross income from wages subject to withholding under section 1622 in excess of the sum of $4,500 plus $600 for each exemption allowable as a credit under section 25 (b); or

(b) Gross income of more than $100 from sources other than wages subject to withholding under section 1622 and total gross income of $600 or more.

In the case of a husband and wife, whether or not they are living together, a joint declaration of estimated tax may be made if the gross income of either spouse meets the requirements of section 58 (a). If the gross income of each spouse meets the requirements of section 58 (a), either a joint declaration must be made or a separate declaration must be made by each. For the purpose of determining whether a declaration of estimated tax is required under the provisions of section 58 (a), a married person may not take into account the exemption of his spouse, if his spouse has, or is reasonably expected to have, gross income.

In estimating his gross income for the taxable year a parent should not take into account the income of his minor child. Such income is not includible in the gross income of the parent. See section 22 (m).

A nonresident alien who is a resident of Canada or Mexico, who enters into and leaves the United States at frequent intervals, and who has wages subject to withholding under the provisions of section 1622 is required to file a declaration of estimated tax if his gross income meets the requirements of section 58 (a). In the case of a nonresident alien gross income means only gross income from sources within the United States. (Section 212 (a)). As to what constitutes gross income from sources within the United States, see section 119 and the regulations thereunder. Thus, for example, a nonresident alien over the age of 65 years, living in Mexico with his wife and one dependent child throughout 1948, makes his return on a calendar year basis. His wife and child are also nonresident aliens. He is employed as an executive in El Paso, Texas, at a salary of $8,000 per annum and enters and leaves the United States at frequent intervals in pursuit of such employment. Neither husband nor wife has any reasonable expectation of any other income from United States sources. Since his wages derived from sources within the United States in 1948 can reasonably be expected to amount to more than $4,500 plus $2,400 (the aggregate of 4 exemptions, including one exemption for old age), or $6,900, a declaration of estimated tax must be filed for such resident of Mexico for 1948.

An estate or trust, though generally taxed as an individual, is not within the scope of the system of current payment of the tax, and hence is not required to file a declaration.

The application of these provisions may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). H, a taxpayer making his return on the calendar year basis, is married and has two dependent children. Neither his wife nor children have any source of income. H's wife has been blind for several years and it is reasonable to assume that she will not regain her sight in 1948. H's salary from January 1, to June 30, 1948, is at the annual rate of $7,000. However, effective July 1, 1948, his annual salary is increased to $9,000 and under the facts then existing it is reasonable to assume that his salary for the remaining portion of 1948 will remain unchanged and that his total salary for the year will, therefore, be $8,000. Since such amount is in excess of $4,500 plus $3,000 (the aggregate of 5 exemptions, including the two exemptions for the blind spouse), or $7,500, H is required to file a declaration of estimated tax for 1948. As to when such declaration is required to be filed, see § 29.58–7 (b).

Example (2). P, a professional man engaged in the practice of his profession on his own account, has gross income of $400 from such profession for the two months of January and February 1948. It can reasonably be expected that he will have no income during 1948 from any other source. Since P has gross income which can for 1948 reasonably be expected to exceed $600 and such income does not constitute wages subject to withholding, he is required to file a declaration of estimated tax regardless of his marital status and regardless of the number of exemptions to which he may be entitled for that year.

Example (3). S has been regularly employed for many years prior to January 1, 1948, at which date his weekly wage is $50. S also owns stock in a corporation from which he has derived regularly for many years prior to 1948 annual dividends ranging from $120 to $160. In view of the fact that for 1948 S can reasonably be expected to receive gross income of $600 or more, which includes more than $100 of income from sources other than wages as defined in section 1621 (a), he is required to make a declaration of estimated tax for such year regardless of his marital status or the number of exemptions to which he may be entitled.

Example (4). T, a married taxpayer, who makes his return on the calendar year basis, is employed at the beginning of 1948 at an annual salary of $7,500, which, on the basis of facts then existing, will, it is expected, not undergo any change throughout 1948. His wife owns stock upon which dividends ranging from $75 to $100 have been paid regularly during years prior to 1948. T has two dependent children, one of whom has no source of income in 1948; the other child, however, is employed on a part-time basis and may reasonably be expected to receive compensation of $600 in 1948. T also contributes the major portion of the support of his mother whose only source of income is approximately $100 per year from a trust fund. Under these facts for the purpose of determining whether he is required to file a declaration, T may take into account only three exemptions, one for himself, one for his mother, and one for the child expected to receive less than $500 gross income in 1948. Since his expected salary of $7,500 exceeds the sum of $4,500 plus $1,800 (3 exemptions), or $6,300, T is required to file a declaration of estimated tax for 1948. In computing his estimated tax on a separate declaration, T may not take into account any exemption for his wife since she is reasonably expected to have gross income in 1948. If, however, a joint declaration is made and the tax is estimated on the basis of the aggregate net income, account may be taken of an exemption for the wife.

(2) Short taxable years. For the purpose of determining whether the anticipated income for a short taxable year necessitates the filing of a declaration, such income shall be placed on an annual basis in the manner prescribed in section 47 (c) (1). Thus, for example, a taxpayer who changes from a calendar year basis to a fiscal year basis beginning July 1, 1948, will have a short taxable year beginning January 1, 1948, and ending June 30, 1948. If his anticipated gross income for such short taxable year consists solely of wages (as defined in section 1621 (a)) in the amount of $3,000, his total gross income and his gross income from such wages for the purpose of determining whether a declaration is required is $6,000, the amount obtained by placing anticipated income of $3,000 upon an annual basis. Hence, assuming such taxpayer is single and has no dependents, he is required to file a declaration of estimated tax for the short taxable year since his anticipated gross income from wages when placed upon an annual basis is in excess of $5,100 ($4,500 plus $600).

PAR. 22. Section 29.58–4, as amended by Treasury Decision 5419, is further amended by adding at the end of the first paragraph thereof, the following sentence: "However, if it is reasonable for a surviving spouse to assume that there will be filed a joint return for himself and the deceased spouse for taxable years which include the last taxable year of the deceased spouse, he may, in making a separate declaration for his taxable year which includes the period comprising such last taxable year of his spouse, estimate net income on an aggregate basis and compute his estimated tax in the same manner as though a joint declaration had been filed. For computation of tax in case of a joint return for taxable years to which splitting of income is applicable, see § 29.12–4."

PAR. 23. Section 29.58–7, as added by Treasury Decision 5419, is amended by striking out the third sentence of paragraph (f) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "An amended declaration may also be made based upon a change in the number of exemptions (or, for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1946, a change in the number of surtax exemptions) to which the taxpayer may be entitled for the then current taxable year. An amended declaration may be filed jointly by husband and wife even though separate declarations have previously been filed."

PAR. 24. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.108–1 the following:

SEC. 601. FISCAL YEAR TAXPAYERS. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title VI.)

Section 108 of the Internal Revenue Code is hereby amended by striking out "(d)" at the beginning of subsection (d) and inserting in lieu thereof "(e)", and by inserting after subsection (c) the following:

(d) Taxable years of individuals beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948. In the case of a taxable year of an individual beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, the tax imposed by sections 11, 12, and 400 shall be an amount equal to the sum of:

(1) That portion of a tax, computed as if the law applicable to taxable years beginning on January 1, 1947, were applicable to such taxable years, which the number of days in such taxable year prior to January 1, 1948, bears to the total number of days in such taxable year, plus

(2) That portion of a tax, computed as if the law applicable to taxable years beginning on January 1, 1948, were applicable to such taxable year, which the number of days in such taxable year after December 31, 1947, bears to the total number of days in such taxable year.

PAR. 25. There is added immediately after § 29.108–2 the following section:

§ 29.108–3 Computation of tax of individuals for taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948. For a taxable year beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, the normal tax, surtax, and optional tax imposed by sections 11, 12, and 400 upon taxpayers other than corporations shall be computed under section 108 (d), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1948, as follows:

(a) That portion of a tentative tax computed under the law applicable to taxable years beginning on January 1, 1947, which the number of days prior to January 1, 1948, in the taxable year of the taxpayer bears to the total number of days in such taxable year and

(b) That portion of a tentative tax computed under the law applicable to taxable years beginning on January 1, 1948, which the number of days after December 31, 1947, in the taxable year of the taxpayer bears to the total number of days in such taxable year.

The provisions of section 108 (d) apply to estates, trusts, and nonresident alien individuals whose tax is computed under sections 11 and 12.

The provisions of section 108 (d) apply to a taxable year beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, whether or not such taxable year is one of less than 12 months. In the case of a taxpayer who is subject to the provisions of section 108 (d) and who because of a change in accounting period has a taxable year of less than 12 months, the net income shall be placed on an annual basis under the provisions of section 47 (c) (1) for the purpose of both tentative tax computation under section 108 (d), or shall be computed under the exception in section 47 (c) (2) for the purpose of both such tentative tax computations. Regardless of the method adopted, the amounts of the tentative normal tax and surtax so computed upon the basis of 12 months' income shall be properly reduced under section 47 (c) in order to determine the tentative taxes under section 108 (d). However, in the case of a taxpayer who is subject to the provisions of section 108 (d) and who because of any reason other than a change in accounting period has a taxable year of less than 12 months, the net income shall not be placed on an annual basis under section 47 (c) (1) and shall not be computed under the exception in section 47 (c) (2).

In any case in which a taxpayer subject to the provisions of section 108 (d) has an excess of net long-term capital gains over net short-term capital losses, the alternative tax under section 117 (c) shall be an amount equal to the sum of the proper portions of the tentative taxes determined under section 108 (d), by computing each such tentative tax pursuant to the alternative tax computation provided in section 117 (c), regardless of whether either tentative tax so computed on the alternative basis is larger or smaller than the tentative tax computed without regard to section 117 (c).

In the case of a joint return of husband and wife for taxable years beginning on the same day in 1947 and ending on different days because of the death of either spouse or both spouses (where at least one of such taxable years ends in 1948), the number of days to be taken into account for the purpose of computing the portions of the tax under section 108 (d) (1) and (2) shall be the number of days prior to January 1, 1948, in the taxable year of the surviving spouse, the number of days after December 31, 1947, in the taxable year of the surviving spouse and the total number of days in the taxable year of the surviving spouse.

PAR. 26. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.113 (a) (5)–1 the following:

SEC. 366. BASIS OF SURVIVING SPOUSE'S INTEREST IN COMMUNITY PROPERTY. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title III.)

(a) Section 113 (a) (5) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to basis of property transmitted at death) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentences: "For the purposes of this paragraph the surviving spouse's one-half share of community property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse under the community property laws of any State, Territory or possession of the United States or any foreign country shall be considered to be property 'acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance' from the decedent, if the death of the decedent was after December 31, 1947, and if at least one-half of the whole of the community interest in such property was includible in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate under section 811. In the case of property held by a decedent and his surviving spouse under the community property laws of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States or any foreign country, if the value of any part of the surviving spouse's one-half share of such property was included in determining the value of the gross estate of the decedent and a tax under chapter 3 was payable upon the transfer of the net estate of the decedent, then for the purposes of this paragraph such part of such one-half share of the surviving spouse shall be considered to be property 'acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance' from the decedent, if the death of the decedent was after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1942 and on or before December 31, 1947; but nothing in this sentence shall reduce basis below that which would exist if the Revenue Act of 1948 had not been enacted."

(b) If the allowance of a credit or refund of any overpayment of tax resulting from the application of this section is prevented on the date of the enactment of this act, or within one year from such date, by the operation of any law or rule of law (other than section 3761 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to compromises), credit or refund of such overpayment may, nevertheless, be allowed or made if claim therefor is filed within one year from the date of the enactment of this act. No interest shall be paid on any overpayment resulting from the application of the last sentence of section 113 (a) (5) of such code, as amended by this section, if such overpayment is for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1948.

PAR. 27. Section 29.113 (a) (5)–1 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the word "and" at the end of subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a).

(B) By striking out the period at the end of subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) and inserting in lieu thereof ", and".

(C) By adding at the end thereof the following subparagraph:

(3) To (i) the surviving spouse's one-half share of community property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse under the community property law of any State, Territory or possession of the United States or any foreign country if the death of the decedent is after December 31, 1947, and if at least one-half of the whole of the community interest in such property is includible in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate under section 811 and (ii) such part of the surviving spouse's one-half share of property held by the decedent and surviving spouse as community property as was included in computing the value of the decedent's gross estate if the death of the decedent was after October 21, 1942, and before January 1, 1948, and if a tax under chapter 3, relating to the estate tax, was payable upon the net estate of the decedent. Section 113 (a) 5) shall not, however, be applied in cases described in this subdivision so as to reduce the basis of any property below that which would exist without the application of such section.

(D) By adding at the end of such section the following new paragraph:

(g) Credit or refund to surviving spouse in community property States. If on April 2, 1948, or within one year from such date, the allowance of credit or refund of any overpayment of tax to a surviving spouse resulting from the application of the last sentence of section 113 (a) (5) to any part of the surviving spouse's one-half share of community property is prevented by the operation of any law or rule of law (other than section 3761, relating to compromises), credit or refund of such overpayment may nevertheless be allowed or made if claim therefor is filed within one year after April 2, 1948.

No interest shall be paid on any overpayment resulting from the application of the last sentence of section 113 (a) (5) to any part of the surviving spouse's one-half share of community property if such overpayment is for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1948.

PAR. 28. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.142–1 the following:

* * * * *

(c) Requirement of returns. (2) Fiduciary returns. Section 142 (a) of such Code (relating to the requirement of fiduciary returns) is hereby amended by striking out "$500" wherever appearing therein and inserting in lieu thereof "$600".

* * * * *

SEC. 203. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title II.)

The amendments made by this title shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

PAR. 29. Section 29.142–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5425, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting before the period in the heading of paragraph (b) the following: ", and before January 1, 1948".

(B) By inserting in paragraph (b) after "December 31, 1943," the following: "and before January 1, 1948,".

(C) By changing the designation of paragraph (c) from "(c)" to "(d)".

(D) By inserting after paragraph (b) a new paragraph to read as follows:

(c) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. Every fiduciary, or at least one of joint fiduciaries, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, must make a return of income:

(1) Returns for individuals. For the individual whose income is in his charge, if the gross income of such individual is $600 or over.

(2) Returns for estates and trusts. For the estate for which he acts if the gross income of such estate is $600 or over, and for the trust for which he acts if the gross income of such trust is $600 or over, or the net income of such trust, as computed under section 162, is $100 or over, or if any beneficiary of such estate or trust is a nonresident alien.

The return in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be on Form 1040.

In subparagraph (2) of this paragraph a return is required on Form 1041.

PAR. 30. Section 29.142–2, as amended by Treasury Decision 5425, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting before the period in the heading of paragraph (b) the following: ", and before January 1, 1948".

(B) By inserting in paragraph (b) after "December 31, 1943," the following: ", and before January 1, 1948".

(C) By adding after paragraph (b) the following new paragraph:

(c) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, a fiduciary acting as the guardian of a minor, or as the guardian or committee of an insane person, having a gross income of $600 or more for the taxable year, must make a return for such person on Form 1040, and pay the tax unless in the case of a minor the minor himself makes a return or causes it to be made. As to the use of the optional return, see § 29.51–2 (b).

PAR. 31. Section 29.143–3, as amended by Treasury Decision 5607, approved March 12, 1948, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the second sentence of the next to the last paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "A nonresident alien individual who is engaged in trade or business within the United States at any time during the taxable year is entitled to the personal exemption for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1944, and to the normal-tax exemption and the surtax exemption allowed by section 25 (b) (1) (A) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1943, and before January 1, 1946, and to the exemption allowed for himself by section 25 (b) (1) (A) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1945.

(B) By adding before the period at the end of the third sentence of the next to the last paragraph the following: ", and before January 1, 1948, and to the exemptions allowed by section 25 (b) (1) (B), (C), and (D) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947".

(C) By striking out the fifth and sixth sentences of the next to the last paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "However, in the determination of the tax to be withheld at the source under section 143 (b) with respect to remuneration paid on or after July 1, 1943, for labor or personal services performed within the United States by a nonresident alien, the benefit of the personal exemption for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1944, or the normal-tax and surtax exemptions or exemption for both normal tax and surtax for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1943, shall be allowed, prorated upon a daily basis for the period of employment during any portion of which labor or personal services are performed within the United States by such alien. Such proration is on a basis of $1.40 per day for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1948, and on a basis of $1.70 per day for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. Thus, if A, a nonresident alien seaman employed by X Shipping Corporation, is paid in 1948 upon the termination of the voyage and such voyage covers 100 days, and A performs personal services within the United States during, or incident to, such voyage, the amount of $170 will be allocated as the portion of the exemption to be allowed as a credit against the remuneration of A for personal services performed within the United States during such voyage, and withholding shall be applied against the balance, if any, of such remuneration.

PAR. 32. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.147–1 the following:

* * * * *

(c) Requirement of returns. * * *

(3) Information returns. Section 147 (a) of such Code (relating to returns of information) is hereby amended by striking out "$500" wherever appearing therein and inserting in lieu thereof "$600".

* * * * *

SEC. 203. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title II.)

The amendments made by this title shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

PAR. 33. Section 29.147–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5313, approved December 21, 1943, is further amended as follows:

(A) By amending the heading thereof to read as follows: "Return of information as to payment of $600 ($500 for years prior to 1948)."

(B) By striking out the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "All persons making payment to another person of fixed or determinable income of $500 or more in any calendar year prior to 1948, and all persons making payment to another person of such income of $600 or more in any calendar year after 1947 must render a return thereof for such year on or before February 15 of the following year except as specified in §§ 29.147–3 to 29.147–5.

(C) By striking from the third sentence "260 East 161st Street, New York 51, N. Y." and inserting in lieu thereof "C. C. Station, Kansas City 2, Missouri".

PAR. 34. Section 29.147–2, as amended by Treasury Decision 5480, approved September 26, 1945, is amended so that such section shall read as follows:

§ 29.147–2 Return of information as to payments to employees. The names of all employees to whom payments are made of $500 or more in any calendar year prior to 1948, or of $600 or more in any calendar year after 1947, whether such total sum is made up of wages, salaries, annuities, commissions, or compensation in any other form, must be reported. In the case of any such payments of $500 or more paid during the calendar year 1945 or during any subsequent calendar year prior to 1948, and in the case of any such payments of $600 or more made during any calendar year after 1947, if a portion thereof constitutes wages subject to withholding under section 1622 and such portion is reported on Form W–2, the remainder of such payments must be reported on Form 1099. For example, if such payments made to an employee by his employer in 1948 amount to $700 and $400 thereof represents wages subject to withholding under section 1622, and the remaining $300 represents compensation not subject to withholding, for instance, advances or reimbursements for traveling or other expenses, or insurance premiums which in accordance with § 29.165–6 are income to the employee for the year in which the insurance is purchased, the $400 must be reported on Form W–2 and the $300 must be reported on Form 1099. Heads of branch offices and subcontractors employing labor, who keep the only complete record of payments therefor, should file returns of information in regard to such payments with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Processing Division, C. C. Station, Kansas City 2, Missouri. When both main office and branch office have adequate records, the return should be filed by the main office.

For years prior to 1945, amounts distributed or made available under an employees' trust governed by the provisions of section 165 to any beneficiary in excess of the sum of his personal exemption and the amounts paid into the fund by him must be reported by the trustee. For the calendar year 1945 and subsequent calendar years amounts distributed or made available under an employees' trust governed by the provisions of section 165, or under an annuity plan to which § 29.22 (b) (2)–5 relates, to a beneficiary shall be reported to the extent such amounts are includible in the gross income of such beneficiary where the amounts so includible are $500 or more if distributed or made available in a calendar year prior to 1948 or $600 or more if distributed or made available in a calendar year after 1947.

In the case of payments made by the United States to persons in its service (civil, military, or naval) of wages, salaries, or compensation in any other form, the returns of information shall be made by heads of the executive departments and other United States establishments.

For cases where no returns of information are required, see § 29.147–3. (See also § 29.22 (a)–3.)

PAR. 35. Section 29.147–3, as amended by Treasury Decision 5425, is further amended by striking from the first sentence "$500" and inserting in lieu thereof "$600".

PAR. 36. Section 29.147–7, as amended by Treasury Decision 5313, is further amended by striking therefrom "260 East 161st Street, New York 51, N. Y." and inserting in lieu thereof "C. C. Station, Kansas City 2, Missouri".

PAR. 37. Section 29.147–8, as amended by Treasury Decision 5313, is further amended by striking therefrom "260 East 161st Street, New York 51, N. Y." and inserting in lieu thereof "C. C. Station, Kansas City 2, Missouri."

PAR. 38. Section 29.148–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5313, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking from the last sentence of the first paragraph of paragraph (a) "260 East 161st Street, New York 51, N. Y." and inserting in lieu thereof "C. C. Station, Kansas City 2, Missouri."

(B) By striking from the first sentence of paragraph (b) "260 East 161st Street, New York 51, N. C." and inserting in lieu thereof "C. C. Station, Kansas City 2, Missouri."

PAR. 39. Section 29.148–3, as amended by Treasury Decision 5356, approved April 19, 1944, is further amended by striking from the second paragraph "260 East 161st Street, New York 51, N. Y." and inserting in lieu thereof "C. C. Station, Kansas City 2, Missouri."

PAR. 40. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.163–1 the following:

* * * * *

(d) Credit of estate against net income. Section 163 (a) (1) of such Code (relating to credits against net income of an estate) is hereby amended by striking out "$500" and inserting in lieu thereof "$600".

* * * * *

SEC. 203. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICAELE. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title II.)

The amendments made by this title shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

PAR. 41. Section 29.163–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5517, is further amended by striking out the second sentence of paragraph (b) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1945, and before January 1, 1948, an estate is allowed a credit of $500 against net income for both normal tax and surtax purposes. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, an estate is allowed a credit of $600 against net income for both normal tax and surtax purposes."

PAR. 42. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.400–1 the following:

SEC. 401. INDIVIDUALS WITH ADJUSTED GROSS INCOMES OF LESS THAN $5,000. (Revenue Act of 1948, Title IV.)

(a) In general. Section 400 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to optional tax on individuals with adjusted gross incomes of less than $5,000) is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 400. IMPOSITION OF TAX.

In lieu of the taxes imposed by sections 11 and 12, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of each individual whose adjusted gross income for such year is less than $5,000, and who has elected to pay the tax imposed by this supplement for such year, a tax as follows:

(b) Taxable years to which applicable. The amendment made by this section shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see section 601.

PAR. 43. Section 29.400–1, Scope and application of Supplement T, as amended by Treasury Decision 5517, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking from the first sentence of the third paragraph of paragraph (b) beginning with the words "In the case of husband and wife" the words "living together".

(B) By striking out the fourth paragraph of paragraph (b) beginning with the words "These restrictions" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(b) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1948. * * *

These restrictions upon the right of a married person to elect to pay the tax under Supplement T are applicable with respect to taxable years beginning before January 1, 1948, only if such person is married and living with his spouse on the last day of his taxable year or, in the event of the death of his spouse during the taxable year, upon the date of such death. For the purpose of the preceding sentence, husband and wife are considered as living together unless they are permanently separated. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, the restrictions upon the right of a married person to elect to pay the tax under Supplement T are applicable unless such person is legally separated from his spouse under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance on the last day of his taxable year or, in the event of the death of his spouse during the taxable year, upon the date of such death. For rules relative to the application of these restrictions, see § 29.23 (aa)–1 (c).

(C) By inserting immediately before the last paragraph of paragraph (b) the following:

The tax table in section 400, as amended by the Revenue Act of 1948 and applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, contains, in certain areas, double columns, in one of which is computed the tax if a separate return is filed, and in the other of which is computed the tax if a joint return is filed. Since the computations of tax in the case of a joint return reflect the income-splitting method provided in section 12 (d), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1948, the tax set forth in the joint return column may be lower than in the separate return column even though the amounts of adjusted gross income and the exemptions are the same. Thus, if H, a married man, has adjusted gross income of $4,925 and his wife has no gross income and his only exemptions under section 25 (b) are the exemptions for himself and spouse under section 25 (b) (1) (A), the tax on a joint return under Supplement T, as set forth in the second column applicable to a person with two exemptions, is $537. If H should file a separate return, his tax, as set forth in the first column applicable to a person with two exemptions, would be $571. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see § 29.108–3.

PAR. 44. Section 29.401–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5517, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting in the first paragraph of (b) immediately before "See § 29.25–3" the following: "For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, additional exemptions are allowed under section 25 (b) (1) (B) and (C) for a taxpayer or spouse who has attained the age of 65 years and for a blind taxpayer or blind spouse."

(B) By adding after Example (2) in paragraph (b) the following example:

Example (3). D, a married man with no dependents, attains the age of 65 years on September 1, 1948. The aggregate adjusted gross income of D and his wife for 1948 is $4,840. D and his wife file a joint return for 1948 and are entitled to three exemptions, one for each taxpayer and one additional exemption for D because of his age. Since the adjusted gross income of D and his wife falls within the tax bracket $4,800–$4,850, the tax on a joint return is $422.

PAR. 45. Section 29.402–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5425, is further amended as follows:

(A) By adding after "December 31, 1943," in paragraph (b) "and before January 1, 1948,".

(B) By adding at the end of paragraph (b) the following: "The provisions of this paragraph are also applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, except that wherever the prescribed manner of making the election involves the filing of a return on Form W–2 (Rev.) the election shall be made by the filing of Form 1040A instead of Form W–2 (Rev.). See § 29.512 (b)–2."

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[14 CFR, Part 43]

AIRCRAFT IDENTIFICATION MARKS AND AIRCRAFT AIRWORTHINESS CLASSIFICATION MARKS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Under section 601 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, the Civil Aeronautics Board is empowered to delegate to the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics the authority to prescribe rules, regulations, and standards which promote safety of flight in air commerce. Under § 43.102 of the Civil Air Regulations, the Civil Aeronautics Board has authorized the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics to prescribe the manner in which identification marks and airworthiness classification designations shall be displayed on aircraft.

Acting pursuant to the foregoing statute and regulation, and in accordance with sections 3 and 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act, notice is hereby given that adoption of the followng rules is contemplated. All interested persons who desire to submit comments and suggestions for consideration by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics in connection with the proposed rules shall send them to the Civil Aeronautics Administration, Office of Aviation Safety, Non-Scheduled Aircraft Maintenance Division, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 43.102 Identification marks. * * *

(CAA RULES)

IDENTIFICATION MARKS AND AIRWORTHINESS CLASSIFICATION MARKS

1. Identification marks—(a) Composition. On each aircraft, identification marks shall be displayed. They shall consist of the roman capital letter "N" denoting United States registry, followed by Arabic registration numbers, followed in some instances by an additional roman capital letter.

(b) Location. (1) On each fixed-wing aircraft, identification marks shall be displayed on the right half of the upper surface and the left half of the lower surface of the wing structure. So far as possible, the marks shall be located equal distance from the leading and trailing edges of the wing. The top of the marks shall be toward the leading edge of the wing.

On each fixed-wing aircraft, identification marks shall be displayed on the upper half of the vertical tail surface. They shall be displayed on both sides of a single-tail surface, and on the outer sides of a multi-tail surface. They may be placed either horizontally or vertically.

On each fixed-wing aircraft, identification marks shall be displayed on the fuselage when the aircraft, as a result of design, does not have a vertical tail surface. The marks shall be located on each side of the top half of the fuselage, just forward of the leading edge of the horizontal tail surface. They may be placed either horizontally or vertically.

(2) On each rotorcraft, identification marks shall be displayed on the bottom surface of the fuselage or cabin. The top of the marks shall be toward the left side of the fuselage.

On each rotorcraft, identification marks shall be displayed below the window lines and as near the cockpit as possible.

(3) On each airship, identification marks shall be displayed on the upper surface of the right horizontal stabilizer and on the under surface of the left horizontal stabilizer. The top of the marks shall be toward the leading edge of the stabilizer. The marks shall be placed horizontally.

On each airship, identification marks shall be displayed on each side of the bottom half of the vertical stabilizer. The marks shall be placed horizontally.

(4) On each spherical balloon, identification marks shall be displayed on two places diametrically opposite, and shall be located near the maximum horizontal circumference of the balloon.

(5) On each non-spherical balloon, identification marks shall be displayed on each side. They shall be located near the maximum cross-section of the balloon, immediately above either the rigging band, or the points of attachment of the basket or cabin suspension cables.

(c) Height. (1) On each fixed-wing aircraft, wing identification marks shall be at least 20 inches high.

On each fixed-wing aircraft, vertical tail surface or fuselage identifiction marks shall be at least 2 inches high, but need not be more than 6 inches high.

(2) On each rotorcraft, fuselage bottom surface or cabin bottom surface identification marks shall be at least 4½ as high as the fuselage is wide, but need not be more than 20 inches high.

On each rotorcraft, fuselage side identification marks shall be not less than 2 inches high, but need not be more than 6 inches high.

(3) On each airship, spherical balloon, or non-spherical balloon, identification marks shall be at least 20 inches high.

(d) Width. On each aircraft, identification marks, with the following exception, shall be at least ⅔ as wide as they are high. Number "1" shall be ⅙ as wide as it is high.

On each aircraft, lines forming the identification marks shall be ⅙ as wide as they are high.

(e) Spacing. On each aircraft, the space between identification marks shall be not less than ⅙ as wide as the marks are high.

(f) Color. On each aircraft, identification marks shall contrast in color with the background.

(g) Affixation. On each aircraft, identification marks shall be painted or shall be affixed by any other means insuring a similar degree of permanence.

(h) Formation. On each aircraft, identification marks shall be formed by solid lines.

(i) Design. On each aircraft, identification marks shall have no ornamentation.

(j) Maintenance. On each aircraft, identification marks shall be kept clean and legible at all times.

2. Airworthiness classification marks—(a) Composition. (1) On each aircraft for which a limited certificate of airworthiness has been issued, the mark "Limited" shall be displayed.

(2) On each aircraft for which a restricted airworthiness certificate has been issued, the mark "Restricted" shall be displayed.

(3) On each aircraft for which an experimental airworthiness certificate has been issued, the mark "Experimental" shall be displayed.

On each aircraft for which a standard certificate of airworthiness has been issued, and which has been altered by the installation of components for temporary experimental purposes so as not to adversely affect the aircraft design or flight characteristics, the mark "Experimental" shall be displayed.

(b) Location. On each aircraft, required airworthiness classification marks shall be placed on the fuselage at each cabin entrance and cockpit entrance so as to be readily visible to passengers and crew entering the aircraft. In cases where only one entrance for passengers and crew is used, and persons may enter the aircraft from either side of the fuselage, such as an aircraft with a sliding canopy, the marks shall be displayed on both sides of the fuselage.

(c) Height. On each aircraft, required airworthiness classification marks shall be at least 2 inches high, but need not be more than 6 inches high.

(d) Width. On each aircraft, required airworthiness classification marks shall be ⅔ as wide as they are high.

On each aircraft, lines forming required airworthiness classification marks shall be ⅙ as wide as they are high.

(e) Spacing. On each aircraft, the space between required airworthiness classification marks shall be not less than ⅙ as wide as the marks are high.

(f) Color. On each aircraft, required airworthiness classification marks shall contrast in color with the background.

(g) Affixation. On each aircraft, required airworthiness classification marks shall be painted or shall be affixed by any other means insuring a similar degree of permanence.

On each aircraft for which a standard airworthiness certificate has been issued, and for which an experimental certificate of airworthiness has been subsequently issued to permit temporary experiments, the "Experimental" marks may be applied free-hand with water paint or masking tape, or by any other method which will allow the marks to be removed easily at the termination of the experiments.

(h) Formation. On each aircraft, required airworthiness classification marks shall be formed by solid lines.

(i) Design. On each aircraft, required airworthiness classification marks shall have no ornamentation.

(j) Maintenance. On each aircraft, required airworthiness classification marks shall be kept clean and legible.

These rules shall become effective on January 1, 1949, with respect to aircraft thereafter registered for the first time, and on January 1, 1951, with respect to all aircraft.

NOTICES

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Customs

[T. D. 52073]

WILD ANIMALS FROM JAPAN

OCTOBER 21, 1948.

T. D. 49475, dated March 25, 1938, requiring consular certificates covering the entry of certain wild animals from Japan, amended.

Ordinance No. 72, dated September 9, 1947, issued by the Japanese Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry, amends the previous regulations prohibiting the taking or killing of certain wild animals referred to in T. D. 49475, dated March 25, 1938. The female weasel or mink (me-itachi) and the rabbit (amami-no kurousagi) are omitted from the list of prohibited animals, the rabbit being omitted since it is found only in the Ryukyu Islands which are not at present under the jurisdiction of the Japanese Government. The ordinance prohibits the taking or killing of the goat antelope (kamoshika), the otter (kawauso), the wild cat (yamaneko), the monkey (saru), and the female deer or hind (me-shika),

In view of the provisions of the above-mentioned ordinance consular certificates shall continue to be required under section 527, Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U. S. C. 1527), covering the entry of goat antelopes and otters or parts or products thereof exported from Japan but no such certificates shall be required in connection with the entry of female weasels (minks) or parts or products thereof exported from Japan on and after September 9, 1947. Such certificates shall be required in connection with the entry of wild cats, monkeys, and female deer (hind) or parts or products thereof imported directly or indirectly from Japan after 30 days after the publication of this decision in the weekly Treasury Decisions.

Since the Bureau has not been informed of any prohibition or restriction now in effect in the Ryukyu Islands with respect to the taking, killing, or exportation of rabbits or parts or products thereof, consular certificates shall no longer be required under section 527, in connection with the entry of such articles from those islands.

T. D. 49475 is hereby amended accordingly.

The number of this decision shall be added as a marginal reference to § 12.28, Customs Regulations of 1943.

[SEAL] FRANK DOW,
Acting Commissioner of Customs.

q. Act of June 5, 1942, c. 340, sec. 3, 5 (56 Stat. 314, 316; 50 App. U. S. C., Supp. V, 763, 765).

r. Act of June 5, 1942, c. 340, sec. 4 (56 Stat. 315), as amended by the act of February 12, 1946, c. 6, sec. 4 (60 Stat. 5; 50 App. U. S. C., Supp. V, 764).

s. Act of June 16, 1942, c. 413, sec. 12 (56 Stat. 364), as amended by the Act of September 7, 1944, c. 407, sec. 9 (58 Stat. 730), and the Act of August 2, 1946, c. 756, Title II, sec. 202–205 (60 Stat. 858; 37 U. S. C. 112).

t. Act of April 27, 1946, c. 240, sec. 3, 4 (60 Stat. 126, 127; 37 U. S. C. 112f, 112g).

u. All other laws, parts of laws, including applicable provisions of Appropriations Acts, and Executive Orders which vest in the Secretary of the Army or the Department of the Army or any officer of that Department, functions, powers and duties relating to transportation of personnel or property, and services incident thereto, insofar as they pertain to the Department of the Air Force or the United States Air Force or their property or personnel.

2. The Department of the Air Force will utilize the services of the Department of the Army and the Department of the Army will utilize the services of the Department of the Air Force for such types of services in the field of transportation as are presently performed by one for the other, subject to such adjustments as from time to time are jointly determined to be necessary by the Secretaries of the two Departments.

3. The Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of the Air Force or their representatives are hereby authorized to issue such orders as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this order. In this respect, the transfer of such related personnel, property, records, installations, agencies, activities, and projects as the Secretaries of the Army and the Air Force shall from time to time jointly determine to be necessary, is authorized.

4. It is expressly determined that the functions herein transferred are necessary and desirable for the operations of the Department of the Air Force and the United States Air Force.

5. Nothing contained in this order shall operate as a transfer of funds.

6. This order shall be effective at 12:00 noon October 15, 1948.

JAMES FORRESTAL,
Secretary of Defense.

Under authority and pursuant to the provisions of the act of April 23, 1932 (47 Stat. 136, 43 U. S. C. sec. 154) and the regulations thereunder, and subject to (1) valid existing rights, and (2) the terms of the following quoted stipulation, it is hereby ordered that lot 8, sec. 2, T. 8 N., R. 10 E., M. D. M., California, be and the same is hereby opened to location, entry and patenting under the general mining laws, the quoted stipulation to be executed and acknowledged in favor of the United States by the locator, for his heirs, successors and assigns, and recorded in the county records and in the United States District Land Office at Sacramento, California, before location is made:

There is reserved to the United States, its successors and assigns, the prior right to use any of the lands herein described to construct, operate, and maintain dams, dikes, reservoirs, canals, wasteways, laterals, ditches, telephone and telegraph lines, electric transmission lines, roadways, and appurtenant irrigation structures, and also the right to remove construction materials therefrom, without any payment made by the United States or its successors for such right, with the agreement on the part of the locator that if the construction of any or all of such dams, dikes, reservoirs, canals, wasteways, laterals, ditches, telephone and telegraph lines, electric transmission lines, roadways, or appurtenant irrigation structures across, over, or upon said lands or the removal of construction materials therefrom, should be made more expensive by reason of the existence of improvements or workings of the locator thereon, such additional expense is to be estimated by the Secretary of the Interior, whose estimate is to be final and binding upon the parties hereto, and that within thirty days after demand is made upon the locator for payment of any such sums, the locator will make payment thereof to the United States or its successors constructing such dams, dikes, reservoirs, canals, wasteways, laterals, ditches, telephone and telegraph lines, electric transmission lines, roadways, or appurtenant irrigation structures across, over, or upon said lands or removing construction materials therefrom. The locator further agrees that the United States, its officers, agents, and employees and its successors and assigns shall not be held liable for any damage to the improvements or workings of the locator resulting from the construction, operation and maintenance of any of the works hereinabove enumerated.

Any location or entry made and any patent issued for the above-described land will be subject to section 24 of the Federal Power Act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 1075, as amended, 49 Stat. 846; 16 U. S. C. 818).

This order shall not become effective to change the status of the lands until 10:00 a. m. on December 22, 1948, at which time the lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals and of this order, become subject to disposition under the United States mining laws only, as above provided.

WILLIAM E. WARNE,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

WELM

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR PROPOSED ASSIGNMENT OF LICENSE [1]

The Commission hereby gives notice that on October 4, 1948 there was filed with it an application (BAL-780) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act to the proposed assignment of license for standard broadcast station WELM, Elmira, New York from J. Robert Meachem to Corning Leader, Inc. The proposal to assign the license arises out of a contract of September 9, 1948 pursuant to which all the physical assets of station WELM will be transferred to Corning Leader, Inc. for a cash consideration of $110,000. In addition, the assignee has agreed to retain the assignor in an advisory capacity for 5 years at an annual salary of $6,000.00. Further information as to the arrangements may be found with the application and associated papers which are on file at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

Pursuant to § 1.321 which sets out the procedure to be followed in such cases including the requirement for public notice concerning the filing of the application, the Commission was advised by applicant on October 4, 1948 that starting on October 6, 1948 notice of the filing of the application would be inserted in the Elmira Star-Gazette a newspaper of general circulation at Elmira, New York in conformity with the above section.

In accordance with the procedure set out in said section, no action will be had upon the application for a period of 60 days from October 6, 1948 within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above described contract.

CHARGES FOR COMMUNICATIONS SERVICE BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND OVERSEAS AND FOREIGN POINTS

ORDER FOR FURTHER HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of October 1948;

The Commission, having under consideration a joint petition filed on September 15, 1948, by All America Cables and Radio, Inc., the Commercial Cable Company, and Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, requesting, among other things, that the Commission reconsider its order of August 25, 1948, herein, denying a prior joint petition of said carriers for reconsideration of its order of April 22, 1948, herein; that the Commission reopen the record of the proceeding to receive, without further hearing, certain additional data relating to the petitioning carriers purporting to bring the record up to date and to show the present revenue requirements of the petitioners, and that certain rate increases additional to those already authorized herein be authorized, upon the basis of the record as so supplemented; also having under consideration a petition filed on September 15, 1948, by RCA Communications, Inc., requesting, among other things, that the Commission reopen the record of the proceeding herein to incorporate therein, without further hearing, certain additional data purporting to bring the record up to date as to all the respondent carriers and to show the present revenue requirements of the petitioner; that the Commission, upon the basis of such data and the entire record, forthwith authorize certain rate increases additional to those already authorized herein, and that thereafter the Commission proceed to issue its proposed report herein, in which consideration should be given to the entire record, including the data tendered in the petition; and also having under consideration the record herein;

It appearing, that the record of the proceeding herein should not be supplemented by the data referred to in said petitions without a further hearing, in which their significance to the rate increases sought may properly be the subject of inquiry and investigation, and the relation of the facts purported to be established thereby to the rate proposals of the petitioners be properly determined;

It further appearing, that rate increases as substantial as those sought by the above petitioners should not be permitted unless found by the Commission, after a public hearing, to be justified;

It further appearing, that of the carriers respondent herein, only the above petitioners and the Commercial Pacific Cable Company have, subsequent to the Commission's order of April 22, 1948, requested rate increases additional to those already authorized herein, and that the Commission cannot reasonably consider rate increases to points served by competing carriers, at the request of certain of the carriers only, without consideration of the revenue requirements of their competitors and of the possibility that the latter may not need or desire further rate increase authorizations;

It further appearing, that although the record of the proceeding herein should not be reopened to receive without further hearing the data referred to in the petitions under consideration, the record should be brought up to date, in view of the time that has elapsed since the close of the record, and that a public hearing should be held at which the respondent carriers herein would be enabled to show their current earning conditions, and the relation thereof to any additional rate increases which may be indicated thereby;

It is ordered, That the above petition of RCA Communications, Inc., and the above joint petition of All American Cables and Radio, Inc., the Commercial Cable Company, and Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, filed September 15, 1948, insofar as the carriers thereby request further rate increases without a further hearing, are denied, and in all other respects, they shall be given consideration on the basis of a further hearing herein;

It is further ordered, That a further public hearing be held herein at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C., commencing on November 15, 1948, which hearing shall be directed to the following matters:

(1) The receipt of evidence bringing up to date the revenue requirements of the respondents herein;

(2) Whether any further immediate rate increases for any of the respondent carriers are justified, pending determination of the issues herein through the usual proposed report procedures; and

(3) If immediate additional rate increases are warranted, the extent and nature of such increases.

It is further ordered, That Commissioner Robert F. Jones is authorized to preside at said hearing and otherwise to conduct the proceedings herein.

Notice is hereby given that § 1.857 of the Commission's rules and regulations is not applicable to this proceeding.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

NOTICE OF REQUEST FOR APPROVAL OF RATES AND CHARGES FOR SALE OF POWER FROM ALLATOONA PROJECT

OCTOBER 22, 1948.

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of the Department of the Interior has filed with the Federal Power Commission for confirmation and approval, pursuant to the provisions of the Flood Control Act of 1944 (58 Stat. 887), the rates and charges embodied in a proposed agreement dated August 3, 1948, providing for the sale of power and energy generated at the Allatoona project to Georgia Power Company. The project is being constructed by the Government on the Etowah River near Cartersville, Georgia. It will have an initial installation of two units rated at 36,000 kw each and one unit rated at 2000 kw, and is expected to be completed in the latter part of 1949.

The rates and charges provided for in the proposed agreement are to be effective for a ten-year period after date of initial delivery, unless cancelled by either party on three years' notice. Delivery and metering of such power to the Georgia Power Company will be at 115 kv, with the company to schedule operations of the power plant in such a way as to make the most effective use of the available equipment and reservoir storage capacity. Release of water from the project reservoir will be subject to regulation by the Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army.

The proposed agreement further provides that the company will supply, either from project generation or from its other system sources, up to 2,500,000 kwh (designated as "Government energy") in any calendar week to the Government for sale to other customers, with the portion of such energy supplied from other system sources being considered as energy exchanged for peak project energy supplied to the company, except that the energy supplied by the company from its other sources in the off-peak period is to be compensated for by the Government at the rate of 1.0 peak kwh for each 1.2 kwh supplied in the off-peak period.

The rates and charges to be paid by Georgia Power Company for power and net energy delivered under the proposed agreement are as follows:

$32,500 per month when one 36,000 kw unit is available.

$42,500 per month when two 36,000 kw units are available. (A unit is considered available for the first thirty days of any period of outage).

3.5 mills per kwh for on-peak energy.

2.0 mills per kwh for off-peak energy.

2.0 mills per kwh for energy equivalent of water wasted.

Less: (1) $1.00 per month per kw of Government power. (2) 3.5 mills per kwh for on-peak Government energy not compensated for by exchange. (3) 3.5 mills for each 1.2 kwh of off-peak Government energy not compensated for by exchange.

The proposed contract makes no provision for compensating the Government for benefits accruing to downstream plants of the Georgia Power Company or its affiliates as a result of storage or release of water in or from the Allatoona project.

Any person desiring to make comments or suggestions for consideration with respect to the foregoing rates and charges embodied in the proposed agreement, which agreement is on file with the Commission and available for inspection, should submit the same on or before November 10, 1948, to the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

ALLIED RADIO CORP.

ORDER APPOINTING TRIAL EXAMINER AND FIXING TIME AND PLACE FOR TAKING TESTIMONY

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of October A. D. 1948.

This matter being at issue and ready for the taking of testimony and the receipt of evidence, and pursuant to authority vested in the Federal Trade Commission,

It is ordered, That Frank Hier, a Trial Examiner of this Commission, be and he hereby is designated and appointed to take testimony and receive evidence in this proceeding and to perform all other duties authorized by law;

It is further ordered, That the taking of testimony and the receipt of evidence begin on Friday, November 5, 1948, at two o'clock in the afternoon of that day (central standard time), in Room 1103, New Post Office Building, Chicago, Illinois.

Upon completion of the taking of testimony and receipt of evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint, the trial examiner is directed to proceed immediately to take testimony and evidence on behalf of the respondent. The trial examiner will then close the taking of testimony and evidence and, after all intervening procedure as required by law, will close the case and make and serve on the parties at issue a recommended decision which shall include recommended findings and conclusions, as well as the reasons or basis therefor, upon all the material issues of fact, law, or discretion presented on the record, and an appropriate recommended order; all of which shall become a part of the record in said proceeding.

UNITED LIGHT AND RAILWAYS CO. ET AL.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER AUTHORIZING AND APPROVING DISTRIBUTION AND TRANSFER OF STOCK

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of October A. D. 1948.

In the matter of the United Light and Railways Company, and American Light & Traction Company, et al. File Nos. 59-11, 59-17 and 54-25.

The Commission by order dated December 30, 1947, having approved the plan, designated Application No. 31, as amended, filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), by The United Light and Railways Company and American Light & Traction Company ("American Light"), registered holding companies, which provided, inter alia, for the distribution and transfer by American Light quarterly, during 1948, to its common stockholders, as dividends in kind in lieu of cash dividends, of shares of the common stock of The Detroit Edison Company ("Detroit Edison") of the par value of $20 per share, at the rate of one share of such Detroit Edison stock for each 75 shares of common stock of American Light owned (together with cash in lieu of fractional shares); and said order of December 30, 1947 having recited, among other things, that the distribution and transfer by American Light to its common stockholders, as dividends in kind, of such common stock of Detroit Edison as the aforesaid rate are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act; and the Commission having in said order reserved jurisdiction, inter alia, to take such further action and to enter such further orders as may be deemed appropriate in connection with the Plan, the transactions incident thereto and the consummation thereof, and as may be necessary to secure full compliance with the Act; and

The Board of Directors of American Light having declared a dividend on the outstanding common stock of the company, payable November 1, 1948, to stockholders of record at the close of business September 30, 1948, in shares of common capital stock of the par value of $20 per share of Detroit Edison, at the rate of one share of such stock of Detroit Edison for each 75 shares of the common stock of American Light outstanding on the record date (together with cash in lieu of fractional shares), such dividend having been declared pursuant to section 11 (e) plan and the Commission's order of December 30, 1947, approving the same; and

American Light having requested the Commission to issue a supplemental order with respect to said dividend distribution, conforming to the requirements of section 1808 (f) and Supplement R of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended; and the Commission deeming it appropriate to grant such request;

It is hereby ordered and recited, That the distribution and transfer by American Light on November 1, 1948 to its common stockholders, as a dividend in kind of 33,779 shares of common capital stock of Detroit Edison of the par value of $20 per share (out of Certificate No. K-147), all as contemplated by the amended plan and the Commission's order of December 30, 1947, approving said plan, are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and are hereby authorized and approved.

By the Commission.

NORTH AMERICAN CO.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER PERMITTING SALE AND TRANSFER OF STOCK

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of October 1948.

The Commission having issued an order on April 14, 1942, pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), in proceedings concerning The North American Company ("North American"), a registered holding company and its subsidiary companies, File No. 59-10, which requires, among other things, that North American sever its relationship with Pacific Gas and Electric Company ("Pacific"), in any appropriate manner not in contravention of the provisions of the act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, by disposing or causing the disposition of its direct or indirect ownership, control and holdings of securities issued and properties owned, controlled or operated by Pacific; and

North American having, commencing July 1, 1943, and continuing through April 1, 1947, distributed to its stockholders an aggregate of 1,166,428 shares of Pacific Common Stock; and having, in 1945, and on October 15, 1948, sold, respectively, 700,000 and 75,000 shares of such stock; and proposing to make, on November 1, 1948, a further disposition to its stockholders of 89,104 shares of such stock pursuant to an order of this Commission dated September 3, 1948 (File No. 70-1915); and

North American having, in File No. 70-1915, notified the Commission, pursuant to Rule U-44 (c) promulgated under said act, that in compliance with the aforementioned order, dated April 14, 1942, it proposes, as soon as practicable, to sell for cash, on the New York Stock Exchange, 2,563 shares of Pacific Common Stock, said shares being the balance of such stock which will remain after the aforesaid distribution to be made on November 1, 1948, and no filing having been required by the Commission with respect to said sale; and

North American having requested that the Commission issue an order conforming to the requirements of Supplement R and section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code; and

It appearing appropriate to the Commission that an order, as requested, should issue:

It is ordered and recited and the Commission finds, That the proposed sale and transfer by The North American Company of 2,563 shares of Pacific Gas and Electric Company Common Stock (represented by Certificates Nos. NC-155805 to NC-155829, inclusive, and NF-365278), as heretofore authorized or permitted by the Commission, is necessary or appropriate to the integration or simplification of the holding company system of which The North American Company is a member and is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

By the Commission.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its offices in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of October 1948.

In the matter of Sioux City Gas and Electric Company, Iowa Public Service Company, File 70-1956; Sioux City Gas and Electric Company, File 70-1953.

Sioux City Gas and Electric Company ("Sioux City"), a registered holding company and a public utility company, having filed a declaration and amendments thereto pursuant to sections 6 (a) and 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the "Act"), and Sioux City and its subsidiary, Iowa Public Service Company ("Iowa"), also a public utility company and a registered holding company, having filed a joint application and declaration and amendments thereto pursuant to sections 6 (a), 7, 9, 10 and 12 (f) of the act and Rules U-43 and U-50 thereunder regarding the following proposed transactions:

Iowa proposes to issue and sell, in accordance with the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, $3,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds to be dated as of November 1, 1948 and to mature in 1978.

Iowa also proposes to issue and sell, at a price subsequently to be determined but to be not less than $15.00 per share, 109,866 additional shares of its authorized but unissued $15 par value common stock by means of the issuance of transferable subscription warrants to its common stockholders. Sioux City proposes to subscribe for and purchase the 67,257 shares to which it will be entitled to subscribe by reason of its ownership of 403,545 shares of the issued and outstanding stock of Iowa. Sioux City further proposes to purchase any of the remaining 42,609 shares which are not subscribed for by the public holders of Iowa's common stock.

Sioux City proposes to issue and sell $1,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage and Collateral Trust Bonds, 3% series, to be dated as of October 1, 1948, and to mature in 1978, at private sale to the New York Life Insurance Company at 99½% of the principal amount and accrued interest to the date of delivery.

Sioux City also proposes to issue and sell 71,362 shares of its authorized but unissued $12.50 par value common stock for a price of $25 per share by means of the issuance of transferable subscription warrants to its common stockholders.

The said application and declarations having been duly filed and the last amendment thereto having been filed on October 19, 1948, and notice of said filings having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to the said application and declarations within the period specified, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to the said application and declarations, as amended, that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the said application and declarations, as amended, be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act that the said application and declarations be and the same hereby are granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, and to the following further terms and conditions:

(1) That the proposed issuance and sale of bonds and common stock of Iowa shall not be consummated until the results of the competitive bidding for the bonds and the subscription price of the common stock of Iowa have been made a matter of record in this proceeding and a further order shall have been entered by this Commission in the light of the record so completed, which order shall contain such further terms and conditions, if any, as may then be deemed appropriate, jurisdiction being hereby reserved for the imposition thereof.

(2) That jurisdiction is reserved with respect to the payment of any and all fees and expenses incurred, or to be incurred, by Sioux City or Iowa in connection with the proposed issuance and sale of the securities of Iowa.

By the Commission.

ENGINEERS PUBLIC SERVICE CO., INC.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of October A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that Engineers Public Service Company (Incorporated), a registered holding company now in process of liquidation pursuant to a plan approved under section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, has filed an application pursuant to sections 9 (a) (1) and 10 of said act, with respect to the following transaction:

Applicant owns 162,612 shares (approximately 5.5%) of the common stock of Virginia Electric and Power Company. The latter company has proposed to issue to the holders of record of its common stock on November 12, 1948 rights to subscribe to additional common stock on the basis of one additional share for each four shares then held, at a price to be determined on or about said date. Such rights must be exercised on or before 3:30 p. m. on December 1, 1948.

The instant application relates to the acquisition by applicant of its ratable share of such rights on or about November 15, 1948. Thereafter, applicant proposes to sell said rights through or to various members of the New York Stock Exchange during the subscription period. Applicant considers that the sale of said rights is exempt from section 12 (d) of the act by virtue of Rule U-44 (b) of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

It is stated that no State commission and no other Federal commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 4, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application which he proposes to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 4, 1948, said application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of said rules and regulations, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

By the Commission.

c. That certain debt or other obligation owing to Elise Mitsch, by Monsignor Martin B. Hellriegel, 8115 Church Road, St. Louis, Missouri, in the amount of $577.50, as of August 26, 1948, together with any and all accruals thereto, and any and all rights to demand, enforce and collect the same, is property within the United States owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, held on behalf of or on account of, or owing to, which is evidence of ownership or control by, the aforesaid national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

and it is hereby determined:

3. That to the extent that the person named in subparagraph 1 hereof is not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country (Germany).

All determinations and all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, having been made and taken, and, it being deemed necessary in the national interest,

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order 9193, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on October 15, 1948.

For the Attorney General.

[SEAL] DAVID L. BAZELON,
Assistant Attorney General,
Director, Office of Alien Property.

[1] The Cooperative Associations through which the loans are made for Burley, Type 31, are authorized to deduct from the amount paid to growers 12 cents per hundred pounds to apply against the overhead costs to the associations of the loan operations. Tobacco can be placed under loan only by the original producer and at these rates only if produced on a cooperating farm. Tobacco graded "W" (wet), "U" (unsound), DAM (damaged), N2L, N2R, or N2G will not be accepted.

PART 802—SUGAR DETERMINATIONS

FAIR AND REASONABLE PRICES FOR 1948 CROP OF FLORIDA SUGARCANE

Pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (c) (2) of the Sugar Act of 1948, after investigation, and due consideration of the evidence obtained at the public hearing in Clewiston, Florida, on May 15, 1948, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 802.20 Fair and reasonable prices for the 1948 crop of Florida sugarcane—(a) Basic price. When the price of 96° raw sugar is 3.50 cents per pound, the basic price for 1948 crop of Florida sugarcane shall be not less than $1.00 per ton of standard sugarcane for each 1 cent of the average price per pound of raw sugar determined in accordance with whichever of the following options is agreed upon: (1) The average price per pound of 96° raw sugar, less the sum of 0.23 cent plus the transportation tax payable on such amount under Section 3475 of the Internal Revenue Code, for the week in which such sugarcane is delivered; or (2) the average price per pound of 96° raw sugar, less the sum of 0.23 cent plus the transportation tax payable on such amount under Section 3475 of the Internal Revenue Code, for the period beginning October 15, 1948, and ending May 31, 1949; except that if the Director of the Sugar Branch determines that for any week or weeks such weekly averages do not reflect the true market value of sugar, because of inadequate volume or other factors, the Director may designate the weekly and seasonal prices to be effective under this determination: Provided however:

(i) That for each decline of ¼ cent in the price of 1 pound of 96° raw sugar below 3.50 cents per pound, the price of standard sugarcane shall be reduced by not more than 3 percent, with intervening prices in proportion, unless the price of sugar falls below 2.75 cents per pound, in which case no further reduction shall be made; and

(ii) That for an advance of ¼ cent in the price of 1 pound of 96° raw sugar above 3.50 cents per pound, the price of standard sugarcane shall be increased by not less than 3 percent, with intervening prices in proportion, unless the price of raw sugar exceeds 3.75 cents per pound, in which case settlement shall be made on the basis of $1.03 for each 1 cent of the price.

(b) Standard sugarcane. Standard sugarcane shall be sugarcane containing 11.0 percent of sucrose in the normal juice: Provided however:

(1) That premiums and discounts (except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) shall be applied in accordance with the following table:

Percent sucrose in normal juice:	Standard sugarcane factor [1]
9.0	0.80
9.5	0.85
10.0	0.90
10.5	0.95
11.0	1.00
11.5	1.05
12.0	1.10
12.5	1.15
13.5	1.25

[1] To be applied to tons of actual sugarcane delivered at stated sucrose levels. Intermediate points within the scale are to be interpolated. Points above 13.5 percent sucrose in normal juice are to be in proportion to the immediately preceding bracket.

(2) That discounts applicable to sugarcane containing less than 9.0 percent of sucrose in normal juice shall be as agreed upon between the producer and the processor.

(c) Molasses bonus. On each ton of Florida sugarcane there shall be paid a molasses bonus equal to 2.75 times the amount, if any, by which the average net liquidation from disposal of blackstrap or final molasses exceeds 6.75 cents per gallon, f. o. b. sugarhouse tanks at Clewiston, Florida, during the twelve months ended May 31, 1949.

(d) General. (1) The established customs and practices with respect to methods of sucrose analysis, deductions for frozen sugarcane based upon decreased boiling house efficiency, fiber content determinations and deductions, definitions of delivery points, delivery schedules, and similar terms, as employed in connection with the purchase of the 1947 crop shall be employed in connection with the purchase of 1948 crop sugarcane.

(2) The processor shall not reduce returns to the producer below those contemplated by this determination through any subterfuge or device whatsoever, but nothing in this subparagraph shall be construed as prohibiting modifications of practices which may be necessary because of unusual circumstances, any such modifications to be subject to review by the Director of the Sugar Branch in the event of changes alleged to be unfair to either the producer or the processor.

(3) All references to the price of 96° raw sugar in this determination shall mean the price of 96° raw sugar, New York, duty paid basis, delivered.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

(a) General. The foregoing determination establishes the level of prices which must be paid for 1948 crop sugarcane purchased by producer-processors (i. e., producers who are also directly or indirectly processors of sugarcane) as one of the conditions for payment under the Sugar Act of 1948. In this Statement the foregoing determination, as well as determinations for prior years, will be referred to as "price determination" identified by the crop year for which effective.

(b) Requirements of the Sugar Act. The Sugar Act requires that in determining fair and reasonable prices public hearings be held and investigations be made. Accordingly, on May 15, 1948, a public hearing was held at Clewiston, Florida, at which time interested parties presented testimony with respect to fair and reasonable prices for sugarcane of the 1948 crop. In determining fair and reasonable prices consideration has been given to the information obtained at the hearing and to data resulting from investigations of pertinent economic factors.

(c) Background. In the Florida sugarcane area only one producer-processor purchases sugarcane from other producers. Prior to enactment of the Sugar Act of 1937, sugarcane was purchased according to terms of contracts negotiated annually by the parties. These contracts provided a scale of payments per ton of sugarcane based on the seasonal average price of raw sugar at New York and the quality of sugarcane measured by percent of sucrose in "crusher" juice. In 1938 a five-year purchase contract was negotiated, but since its expiration in 1942 formal contracts have not been used in this area.

Determinations of fair and reasonable prices for Florida sugarcane have been issued for each crop beginning with the 1937 crop. Determinations for the 1937 through 1941 crops generally approved the contracts between the producer-processor and producers. In 1941 the determination included a clause providing for producer participation in molasses net returns in excess of 6¾ cents per gallon. This action was taken after the price of molasses had risen to a point where it became a significant factor in the total income to the Florida sugar industry. The 1942 price determination established prices per ton of sugarcane to be paid by the producer-processor which were based on the scale of payments used in the cane purchase contract effective in western Louisiana. This action was taken to provide for a higher degree of uniformity in purchase contracts in use in the mainland cane sugar area and resulted in higher returns to Florida producers than they would have received under the purchase agreement negotiated between the parties in 1938. When the western Louisiana purchase contract was adopted for Florida the cost of shipping raw sugar from the principal raw sugar mill to the nearest refiner was 0.33 cent per pound of raw sugar as compared with 0.16 cent per pound from western Louisiana raw sugar mills to refiners. In both areas the freight was paid by the producer-processor. Therefore, in order to equalize the freight differential between the two areas, the price determination provided for a deduction of 0.17 cent plus transportation tax of 3 percent payable on such amount under the Revenue Act of 1942 from the New York price of raw sugar in arriving at the f. o. b. mill value of sugar.

Price determinations for the crops of 1943 through 1947 continued the 1942 crop price scale. At public hearings the producer-processor and producers have recommended continued use of this scale.

(d) 1948 price determination. The 1948 price determination is changed in two respects from the 1947 determination:

(1) The freight rate differential of 0.17 cent per pound plus transportation tax on such amount payable under section 3475 of the Internal Revenue Code has been replaced by a differential of 0.23 cent per pound plus the applicable transportation tax. The differential has been increased because interstate freight rates applicable to raw sugar shipments in Florida have increased more than have intrastate freight rates applicable to western Louisiana processors shipping raw sugar to New Orleans.

(2) The definition of standard sugarcane has been revised to provide for the determination of the quality of the juice in sugarcane on the basis of normal juice. In addition a fixed par in normal juice has replaced the par range in crusher juice. Under this determination standard sugarcane is defined as sugarcane containing 11.0 percent sucrose in the normal juice. Premiums and discounts of 1 percent are provided for each 1/10 point change in the normal juice above or below 11.0 percent. When sugarcane contains less than 9.0 percent sucrose in normal juice, the determination provides that the applicable discount shall be as agreed between the producer and producer-processor.

Historically the quality of sugarcane delivered by producers to the producer-processor in Florida has been determined by the percentage of sucrose in "crusher" juice rather than in "normal" juice. Recently, however, the commercially recoverable sugar calculation used in determining Sugar Act payments to Florida producers was revised to provide for such calculation on the basis of the percentage of sucrose in normal juice rather than on the sucrose content of crusher juice. This revision was made to reflect more accurately current sugar recovery from Florida sugarcane.

Under former fair price and commercially recoverable sugar determinations the par sucrose range of 11.5 to 12.5 percent of sucrose in normal juice was determined to be equivalent to 10.354 to 11.432 percent of sucrose in crusher juice. Under the revised determination of commercially recoverable sugar 11.0 percent of sucrose in normal juice which has been adopted as the fixed par in this determination is equal to 11.53 percent of sucrose in crusher juice. The adoption of a fixed par in normal juice ties producer returns directly to each degree of quality of sugarcane delivered and eliminates the inequity of a par bracket whereby producer returns were the same for sugarcane of varying quality within the par bracket. Because of the shift from a par range in crusher juice to a fixed par in normal juice it has been necessary to adjust the scale of standard sugarcane conversion factors. Except at extremely low levels of sucrose, producers will receive approximately the same returns under the new scale as they received under the old scale. Adoption of the new scale also corrects inequities whereby at lower levels of sucrose producer-processors were required to pay a disproportionately high share of returns from sugar to producers.

In view of the foregoing, I hereby find and conclude that the determination made herein for the 1948 crop of Florida sugarcane is fair and reasonable and that compliance therewith will effectuate the purposes of section 301 (c) (2) of the Sugar Act of 1948.

TITLE 15—COMMERCE

Chapter III—Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce

[Allocations Reg. 2, Amdt. 2 to Dir. 4A]

PART 336—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE ALLOCATIONS AND EXPORT PRIORITIES SYSTEM

USE AND EFFECT OF CERTIFIED EXPORT ORDERS FOR NITROGENOUS FERTILIZER MATERIALS (1948–1949 EXPORT PROGRAM)

Purpose of Amendment 2. Due to delay in completing fiscal arrangements between this Government and certain foreign governments it has not been possible to complete issuance of export licenses in time to place prior to November 1, 1948 all orders certified under this Direction 4A. This Amendment 2 permits authorization by the Office of International Trade to exporters, after October 31, 1948, to use the symbol CXN on purchase orders subject to the limitations described, and provides that such certified orders may be placed up to November 30, 1948. It also permits the placing up to December 15, 1948 of certified orders authorized by the ODC for anhydrous ammonia required by converters to fill certified orders. The amendment, however, will not result in any increase in tonnage which commercial producers of fertilizer materials will be required to ship during the first half of 1949 above that originally planned in the program, and the Office of International Trade will limit accordingly the issuance of export licenses under the new paragraph (h). In respect to OIT authorizations issued before November 1, 1948, the provisions of paragraph (g) of Direction 4A to AR 2 continue to apply.

Direction 4A to Allocations Regulation 2, as amended August 17, 1948, is hereby further amended by adding a new paragraph (h) as set forth below, and relettering present paragraphs (h), (i), (j), (k) and (l) as (i), (j), (k), (l) and (m) respectively.

(h) Limitations on certified orders placed after October 31, 1948—(1) Time limit on placing orders—(i) Purchase orders for nitrogenous fertilizer materials for export. Purchase orders for nitrogenous fertilizer materials for the export program for which the Office of International Trade after October 31, 1948 issues an export license and authorizes the use of the symbol CXN, must be placed not later than November 30, 1948. When OIT authorizes a certified order under this paragraph (h), it will identify the authorization with a number preceded by the abbreviation "Nov.". Any CXN–Nov– certified order for nitrogenous fertilizer materials placed after November 30, 1948 need not be treated as a certified order. Certified orders for nitrogenous fertilizer materials and orders for anhydrous ammonia placed with primary producers need not call for delivery prior to January 1, 1949, although if shipment can be made in whole or in part before January 1, 1949 such earlier shipment will help meet the objectives of the export program.

(ii) Purchase orders for anhydrous ammonia. Where a converter requests the ODC to assist him in securing anhydrous ammonia needed to manufacture the nitrogenous fertilizer materials covered by a CXN certified export order, authorized under this paragraph (h), and receives from ODC an authorization to place a certified order for an aproved quantity of anhydrous ammonia pursuant to paragraphs (d) and (e) of this Direction 4A, such orders must be placed with a primary producer not later than December 15, 1948. A certified order for anhydrous ammonia placed with a primary producer after December 15, 1948 need not be treated as a certified order.

(2) Delivery dates. No commercial supplier need deliver in any month against certified orders accepted by him more than 30% of his total production of the type of material covered by the orders in that month.

(3) Ceilings on orders against producers. The provisions of paragraph (g) (3) of the Direction 4A apply to certified orders for nitrogenous compounds (including anhydrous ammonia) or nitrogenous fertilizer materials placed after October 31, 1948, as well as to certified orders which have been placed prior to November 1, 1948.

Issuance Officer.

Interpretation 1 to Direction 4A to Allocations Regulation 2, as Amended October 26, 1948

Paragraphs (g) (2) and (h) (2) of Direction 4A, as amended, provide that no commercial supplier need deliver against certified orders in any month more than 30% of his total production of the particular type of material in that month. A certified purchase order calling for more than 30% of such supplier's total production of the particular product may not be totally rejected by the supplier for that reason. It must be accepted and filled up to an amount which, either alone or added to certified orders already accepted by him, totals the 30% limit. Any balance over and above such amount need not be treated as part of the certified order.

Paragraph (g) (3) of Direction 4A, as amended, provides that, except in the case of a converter, no producer of nitrogenous compounds (including anhydrous ammonia) or nitrogenous fertilizer materials need accept purchase orders certified under this Direction 4A calling for more nitrogen than 3.25% of his total production of nitrogen (in all forms) during the fertilizer year July 1, 1947–June 30, 1948, if he was in production during the whole of that year. A certified purchase order for anhydrous ammonia which calls for more than 3.25% of the producer's total production of nitrogen (in all forms) during the fertilizer year July 1, 1947–June 30, 1948, may not be totally rejected by the producer for that reason. It must be accepted and filled by him up to an amount which, either alone or added to certified orders previously accepted, totals the 3.25% limit. Any balance over and above such amount need not be treated as part of the certified order.

TITLE 18—CONSERVATION OF POWER

Chapter I—Federal Power Commission

[Order 142; Docket R-109]

PART 101—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS PRESCRIBED FOR CLASS A AND CLASS B PUBLIC UTILITIES AND LICENSEES

PART 141—STATEMENTS AND REPORTS (SCHEDULES), FEDERAL POWER ACT

AMENDMENTS OF RULES PRESCRIBING FORM AND FILING OF ANNUAL REPORTS, AND UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS

OCTOBER 6, 1948.

In the matter of amendment of rules prescribing the form and filing of annual reports, FPC Form No. 1, for Electric Utilities and Licensees (Classes A and B), and amendment of General Instruction 2 of Uniform System of Accounts prescribed for public utilities and licensees subject to the provisions of the Federal Power Act; Docket No. R-109.

The Commission having under consideration an amendment to § 141.1 entitled "Annual Report, Form No. 1, Electric Utilities and Licensees (Classes A and B)" of Part 141—Statements and Reports, Subchapter D—Approved Forms, Federal Power Act, Chapter I of Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations, to prescribe the accompanying revised Annual Report Form for Electric Utilities and Licensees (Classes A and B), including the revised instructions and schedules therein contained, to be prepared and filed annually with the Commission, and an amendment to § 101.03–2 entitled "Records" of Part 101—Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed for Class A and Class B Public Utilities and Licensees, Subchapter C—Accounts, Federal Power Act, Chapter I of Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations,[1]

It appears to the Commission that: (a) General public notice of the proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter was given by publication of notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 10, 1948 (13 F. R. 3135), and by mailing notices to interested persons and State and Federal regulatory agencies, together with copies of the proposed amendments. Interested persons were given to and including July 15, 1948, later extended to and including August 16, 1948, to submit data, views and comments in writing concerning the proposed amendments in the above-entitled matter.

(b) In response to the general public notice of June 10, 1948, comments were filed by regulatory agencies and representatives of the utility industry.

(c) The proposed revisions to the aforesaid Form its schedules and instructions are designed primarily to simplify and clarify schedules previously prescribed, to eliminate some schedules previously prescribed, and to secure additional information required in the administration of the Federal Power Act.

(d) The proposed revisions to the aforesaid Form, its schedules and instructions, were developed in cooperation with the Committee on Statistics and Accounts of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners, which had conferred on numerous occasions with committees representing the electric utility industry regarding revisions to said Form, schedules and instructions.

The Commission finds that: Upon consideration of the proposed amendments, comments and suggestions, adoption and promulgation of the proposed amendments, modified in accordance with certain of the suggestions filed in this proceeding, are necessary and appropriate for the purposes of administration of the Federal Power Act.

The Commission, acting pursuant to authority granted by the Federal Power Act, particularly sections 3 (13), 4 (a) through (c), 301 (a), 304 (a), 309 and 311 thereof (49 Stat. 838, 839, 854, 855, 858, 859; 16 U. S. C. 796 (13), 797 (a) through (c), 825 (a), 825c (a), 825h, 825j) orders that:

(A) Section 141.1 entitled "Annual Report, Form No. 1, Electric Utilities and Licensees (Classes A and B)" of Part 141—Statements and Reports, Subchapter D—Approved Forms, Federal Power Act, Chapter I of Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations, be and the same is hereby amended to prescribe the accompanying revised Annual Report Form for Electric Utilities and Licensees (Classes A and B), including the revised instructions and schedules therein contained, to be prepared and filed annually with the Commission, in accordance with the instructions set forth in said revised Annual Report Form. The revised Form here adopted will supersede FPC Form No. 1, heretofore adopted and prescribed by the Commission's order dated August 6, 1937, as amended by its orders dated October 12, 1937, October 22, 1938, and October 17, 1939, and Order No. 75, dated September 24, 1940.

NOTE: The revised Annual Report Form, referred to herein, was filed with the original document. Copies may be obtained from the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

(B) Section 101.03–2 entitled "Records" of Part 101—Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed for Class A and Class B Public Utilities and Licensees, Subchapter C—Accounts, Federal Power Act, Chapter I of Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations, be and the same is hereby amended by adding a new paragraph to read as follows:

(h) The arrangement and order in which the accounts are presented in this system of accounts are not to be interpreted as determinative of the arrangement and order in which they will be scheduled in the report forms prescribed by the Commission.

(C) This order, the Form herein prescribed, and the amendment to the Uniform System of Accounts shall become effective December 31, 1948, and shall as of that date supersede the form prescribed by the orders referred to in Paragraph (A) hereof.

(D) The Secretary of the Commission shall cause prompt publication of this order to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(49 Stat. 838, 839, 854, 855, 858, 1859; 16 U. S. C. 796 (13), 797 (a), (b), (c), 825 (a), c (a), h, j)

NOTE: The reporting requirements of the revised Annual Report Form, FPC Form No. 1, prescribed by FPC Order No. 142, dated October 6, 1948, have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Date of issuance: October 19, 1948.

By the Commission.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 52074]

PART 16—LIQUIDATION OF DUTIES

COUNTERVAILING DUTIES; SHELLED ALMONDS FROM SPAIN

The net amount of bounty or grant on shelled almonds from Spain declared pursuant to the provisions of section 303, Tariff Act of 1930, and collectors of customs instructed to collect additional duties equal to such net amount of bounty or grant. Section 16.24 (a), Customs Regulations of 1943, amended.

The Bureau is in receipt of official information that a bounty or grant, within the meaning of section 303, Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U. S. C. 1303), is paid or bestowed upon the export of shelled almonds to the United States from Spain.

I have estimated and determined and hereby declare the net amount of such bounty or grant paid or bestowed with respect to such almonds to be 6 pesetas per kilogram.

Collectors of customs, therefore, shall collect on the above-described shelled almonds, imported directly or indirectly, additional duties under section 303 of the tariff act at the rate set forth above, when such shelled almonds are entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption after the expiration of 30 days after the publication of this decision in the weekly Treasury Decisions.

Section 16.24 (a), Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR, Cum. Supp., 16.24 (a)), is hereby amended by inserting in line below the present entry opposite the word "Spain" the words "Shelled almonds" in the column headed "Commodity", the number of this decision in the column headed "Treasury Decision", and the words "Assessed duty declared" in the column headed "Action."

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Federal Security Agency

PART 3—STATEMENTS OF GENERAL POLICY OR INTERPRETATION

PERUVIAN CANNED BONITO AND TUNA

Pursuant to section 3 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237, 238), the following statement of policy and interpretation is issued.

§ 3.6 Notice to importers of Peruvian canned fish. In collaboration with the United States Department of State and officials of the Government of Peru, the Food and Drug Administration of the Federal Security Agency has made a study in Peru of the canning of bonito and tuna packed for exportation to the United States. The fish known in Peru as bonito constitutes a major portion of the pack. Representative specimens of Peruvian bonito have been identified as the species Sarda chilensis. This confirms previous information that the species of fish constituting the commercial bonito fishery in Peru is the same species of bonito that has been packed in this country in small quantities and sold as bonito for many years. Minor quantities of another bonito, Sarda velox, are apparently caught in Peruvian waters but do not enter the commercial pack to any significant degree. The bonitos, Sarda chilensis and Sarda velox, are not classified as tuna and under the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act have never been legally labeled as tuna, but must be labeled as "bonito" or "bonito fish."

Two species of tuna, "skipjack" (Katsuwonus pelamis) and "yellowfin" (Thunnus macropterus), are commercially canned in Peru but constitute a relatively small proportion of the Peruvian pack of canned fish exported to the United States.

Information developed during the investigation in Peru shows that the bonito (Sarda chilensis) can be readily distinguished from the tunas. Consequently no difficulty should be encountered by packers in keeping separate the fish in the two classifications and in properly labeling the canned product before shipment.

The provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act require that importations of canned bonito and canned tuna, when offered for entry into the United States, must bear labels designating the product as "bonito" or as "tuna", as the case may be. Shipments that are unlabeled or mislabeled when offered for entry must be detained and are subject to refusal of admission, with consequent exportation or destruction.

Dated: October 20, 1948.

Acting Administrator.

PART 141—TESTS AND METHODS OF ASSAY FOR ANTIBIOTIC DRUGS

PART 146—CERTIFICATION OF BATCHES OF PENICILLIN- OR STREPTOMYCIN-CONTAINING DRUGS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of section 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1040, 1055, as amended by 59 Stat. 463 and 61 Stat. 11; 21 U. S. C., Supp. 357) the regulations for tests and methods of assay of antibiotic drugs (12 F. R. 2215, 5586) and certification of batches of penicillin- or streptomycin-containing drugs (12 F. R. 2231; 13 F. R. 436, 1087, 2291) are amended as indicated below:

1. In § 141.101 the first sentence of paragraph (j) Turbidimetric assay, is amended to read: "In lieu of the plate assay method described above, the sample may be assayed for potency by the following turbidimetric method: (1) Employ the agar described in paragraph (b) of this section (adjusted to a final pH 7.0) for maintaining the test organism, which is Klebsiella pneumoniae (P. C. I. 602) noncapsulated."

2. In § 146.24, the second sentence of paragraph (b) Packaging, is amended by inserting "300,000 units," between "200,000 units" and "500,000 units."

3. In § 146.45 the second sentence of paragraph (b) Packaging, is amended to read: "The quantity of procaine penicillin in oil in each such container shall be not less than 1 ml. and not more than 20 ml., unless it is packaged for repacking or is packaged and labeled solely for veterinary use."

This order, which provides for an alternative assay method for streptomycin; for the packaging of sodium, potassium, or calcium penicillin in 300,000-unit containers; and for the packaging of procaine penicillin in oil in larger containers than 20 milliliters if it is packaged for repacking or is labeled solely for veterinary use, shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, since both the public and the penicillin industry will benefit by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and would be contrary to public interest, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry, and since it would be against public interest to delay providing for an alternative assay method for streptomycin; for the packaging of sodium, potassium, or calcium penicillin in 300,000-unit containers; and for packaging procaine penicillin in oil in larger than 20-milliliter containers if packaged for repacking or packaged and labeled solely for veterinary use.

Chapter VI—Public Housing Administration

PART 602—FIELD ORGANIZATION AND FINAL DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY TO REGIONAL PROPERTY AND SERVICES OFFICERS

Section 602.2 (c) (1) is amended by adding a subdivision (ii) as follows:

§ 602.2 Delegations to regional office officials. • • •

(c) Delegations of authority to regional property and services officers. (1) • • •

(ii) To sign Certificates of Release (Standard Form 97) for transfer of motor vehicles from the Public Housing Administration to a private purchaser.

Chapter VIII—Office of the Housing Expediter

PART 825—RENT REGULATIONS UNDER THE HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947, AS AMENDED

EVICTIONS FROM HOUSING ACCOMMODATIONS FOR PURPOSE OF WITHDRAWAL FROM RENTAL MARKET

The following is an interpretation of section 209(a)(5) of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, as amended (61 Stat. 200 as amended by 62 Stat. 37 and by 62 Stat. 98; 50 U. S. C. App. 1899(a)(5)):

Section 206(b) of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, as amended, authorizes the Housing Expediter to apply for an injunction whenever in his judgment any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice which constitutes or will constitute a violation of any provision of Title II of that act, including section 209 thereof which relates to evictions.

Section 209(a)(5) of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, as amended, provides as follows:

SEC. 209. (a) No action or proceeding to recover possession of any controlled housing accommodations with respect to which a maximum rent is in effect under this title shall be maintainable by any landlord against any tenant in any court, notwithstanding the fact that the tenant has no lease or that his lease has expired, so long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled unless:

• • • • •

(5) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of such housing accommodations for the immediate purpose of withdrawing such housing accommodations from the rental market, and such housing accommodations shall not thereafter be offered for rent as such; • • •

A landlord may not, under section 209 (a) (5), evict a tenant from housing accommodations for the purpose of obtaining vacant possession in order to sell the housing accommodations. Since section 209 (a) (5) is only one of several grounds for eviction under the act, it is clear that it was not intended that this section should broaden or defeat the purpose of limitations placed in the other grounds. It follows, therefore, that since section 209 (a) (3) provides for eviction where "the landlord has in good faith contracted in writing to sell the housing accommodations to a purchaser for the immediate and personal use and occupancy as housing accommodations by such purchaser;" section 209 (a) (5) may not be used in cases where sales are involved.

That is to say, since a tenant may be evicted for occupancy by a purchaser under section 209 (a) (3), a landlord may not evict under section 209 (a) (5) for the purpose of obtaining vacant possession in order to sell.

Issued this 25th day of October 1948.

ED DUPREE,
General Counsel.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter A—Income and Excess Profits Taxes

[T. D. 5662]

PART 29—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1941

TIME FOR FILING FINAL RETURNS OF DECEDENTS

On August 14, 1948, notice of proposed rule making regarding the time for filing the final income tax return of a decedent for a fractional part of the year was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 4712). No objection to the rules proposed having been received, the following amendments to Regulations 111 (26 CFR, Part 29) are hereby adopted. The amendments are designed to provide a uniform rule so that the time for filing the final income tax return of a decedent is the time the return would have been due had death not occurred, regardless of whether prior to his death the decedent made his returns on the fiscal year basis or the calendar year basis.

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 29.53-1 of Regulations 111, as amended by Treasury Decision 5616, approved May 20, 1948 is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting in paragraph (d) thereof after "fractional part of a year" the following: "ending prior to January 1, 1949".

(B) By inserting in paragraph (e) thereof after "fractional part of a year" the following: "ending in 1947 or 1948".

(C) By redesignating paragraph (f) thereof as paragraph (g).

(D) By inserting immediately after paragraph (e) thereof the following new paragraph:

(f) In the case of a final return of a decedent for a fractional part of a year ending in 1949 or thereafter, on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the twelve-month period which began with the first day of such fractional part of the year.

PAR. 2. This Treasury decision shall be effective on the thirty-first day after the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Subchapter C—Miscellaneous Excise Taxes

[T. D. 5663]

PART 183—PRODUCTION OF DISTILLED SPIRITS

ESTABLISHMENT AND OPERATION OF DISTILLERIES

1. On July 27, 1948, notice of proposed rule-making, regarding the production of distilled spirits, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 4283).

2. After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the proposal, the following amendments of §§ 183.5, 183.6, 183.9, 183.13, 183.14, 183.15, 183.35, 183.41, 183.44, 183.45, 183.46, 183.51, 83.52, 183.56, 183.62, 183.70, 183.74, 183.75, 183.78, 183.79, 183.81, 183.94, 183.121, 183.122, 183.125, 183.127, 183.128, 183.132, 183. 133, 183.134, 183.138 (a) (2), 183.143 to 183.146, 183.148, 183.149, 183.152 (a) (3), 183.156 (a) (b), 183.157 (b), 183.158, 183.160, 183.169, 183.172, 183.176, 183.256, 183.370, 183.437, 183.438, 183.439, 183.441, 183.445, and 183.446 of Regulations 4 (26 CFR, Part 183), approved February 28, 1940, are hereby adopted, and §§ 183.7, 183.8, 183.126, 183.155 (a) (2), 183.155 (b) (3), 183.174, and 183.175 of such regulations are hereby revoked.

3. These amendments are designed to simplify certain requirements relating to construction, and the preparation, filing, and approval of documents in connection with the establishment and operation of distilleries. It is not intended by these amendments to require distillers to file additional plats and plans, or to repaint pipe lines or change equipment immediately, in cases where the existing documents, pipe lines, and equipment conform essentially to the regulations prior to these amendments. Upon filing new plats and plans, repainting pipe lines, and installing equipment, these new requirements must be observed.

§ 183.5 Within 600 feet of rectifying plant. No distiller shall carry on the business of distilling spirits at a distance of less than 600 feet in a direct line from a rectifying plant, except when he has been so authorized by the district supervisor. The district supervisor may grant such authority when he is of the opinion that the revenue will not be endangered thereby. (Secs. 2819, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.9 Changes requiring approval. Where there is to be a change in the distance between a distillery and a rectifying plant located within 600 feet of each other as a result of the extension or curtailment, or other change of either premises, a new special application, in triplicate, must be filed with the district supervisor by the proprietor of the premises which is to be extended or curtailed. Where a change occurs in the proprietorship of a distillery or rectifying plant located within 600 feet of each other, the new proprietor shall file with the district supervisor a new special application, in triplicate. Unless the distillery premises are extended or curtailed as the result of such change, the change may be reflected in the next amended or annual notice, Form 27–A, and plat, filed by the distiller. Such new special application shall be considered and disposed of in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 183.158. (Secs. 2819, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.13 Walls. The outside walls of distillery buildings must be securely and substantially constructed. If wood, corrugated iron, or tin is used, the same must be applied over solid sheathing for the first 12 feet of height, and over solid sheathing, or sheathing spaced not greater than 12 inches from board to board, for the remaining height. Where substantial sheet metal is used, and the sheets are welded together in such manner as to constitute a solid wall, sheathing may be applied in any manner desired. The ceiling and walls inside of the cistern room must be cased with matched tongue and groove boards, unless the use of other material affording equal protection from access without detection is approved by the Commissioner. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.15 Doors. The outside doors of the distillery buildings must be securely and substantially constructed and equipped so that they may be securely locked. In addition, the doors of cistern rooms, rectifying rooms, and other rooms required to be locked by § 183.418 must comply with the following requirements: The outside doors, and those on which Government locks are required, as hereinafter provided, must be securely constructed of heavy timber or iron, or other equally substantial material. The hinges must be secured by roundheaded or carriage bolts, nutted and riveted or battered on the inside. Hinges that cannot be thus secured must be inaccessible from the outside, and so attached that they cannot be removed when the doors are closed. The outside doors, and those on which Government locks are required, must be equipped with hasp and staple securely fastened on the inside so that they may be securely locked. The doors secured from the inside must be provided with a cross bar in the middle of the door, and strong and suitable attachments for the reception of locks. Where there are double doors, one of them, at least, must be provided with substantial bolts at both the top and the bottom. These bolts must be so arranged as to plunge into substantial fastenings or holes in the middle of the upper and lower ends of the frame when the door is closed. Folding doors of wood or metal, vertical or horizontal sliding doors of wood or metal, and metal doors of the roller blind type, must be provided with substantial cross bars, or bolts that plunge into the upper and lower ends, or the sides of the door frame, so placed as to make the door rigid and secure, unless the doors operate in grooves or tracks that make them secure. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.35 Scales. The distiller must provide in the cistern room suitable and accurate scales for weighing packages of distilled spirits. The distiller must also provide on the distillery premises suitable and accurate scales for the weighing of grain and other nonliquid distilling materials received and used: Provided, That where the distiller receives shipments of materials by rail or motor carrier, the shipper's weights appearing on the bill of lading or invoice may be recorded as the amount received, and, in such cases track or truck scales for weighing the materials received need not be furnished. Beams or dials of scales used to weight packages must indicate weight in half pound graduations. Beams or dials of weighing tank scales must indicate weight in five pound graduations or scales up to, and including, 25 tons capacity; in 10-pound graduations for scales exceeding 25 tons capacity, but not exceeding 60 tons capacity; and in 20-pound graduations for scales having a capacity of more than 60 tons. (Secs. 2808, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.45 Stills. The stills must be of substantial construction and must have a clear space of not less than one foot around them. The steam or fuel line to each still shall be equipped with a valve so constructed that it may be locked with a Government lock when the distillery is suspended, as required by § 183.363. The drain and wash-out pipes of stills must also, wherever practicable, be equipped with valves so constructed that they may be locked with Government locks. If there is a furnace under the stills or doublers, the door thereto must, as provided in § 183.39, be so constructed that it may be secured with a Government lock. There must be a clear space of not less than two feet around every doubler and condenser or worm tank. The doubler and worm tanks must be elevated not less than one foot from the floor. Every still must be numbered, commencing with number 1, and have painted thereon its designated use, such as "Beer Still," "Doubler," etc., and its number and spirit producing capacity in proof gallons in 24 hours, computed in accordance with the rules set forth in the Appendix to the regulations in this part. Where the still is insulated, or the manufacturer's serial number is otherwise obscured, such number will likewise be painted on the covering of the still. (Secs. 2822, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.46 General requirements for tanks. All tanks used as receptacles for spirits between the outlet of the first condenser or worm and the receiving cisterns shall be constructed of metal, and shall be of uniform dimensions from top to bottom, and shall be equipped with a suitable measuring device whereby the actual contents will be correctly indicated. All tanks must be so constructed as to permit examination of every part thereof, and so arranged as to leave an open space of not less than three feet between the top and the roof or floor above. All tanks, such as low-wine tanks, high-wine tanks, heads and tails tanks, fusel oil tanks, distilled water tanks, and similar equipment, shall each have plainly and legibly painted thereon its designated use, serial number, and capacity in wine gallons. Manheads, inlets, and outlets of the tanks and all necessary openings in the distilling apparatus and equipment, except column stills, whereby access may be had to the spirits, must be provided with facilities for locking with Government locks: Provided, That distilled water storage tanks need not be so equipped unless a pipe line is connected therewith for the conveyance of distilled water to contiguous establishments, as provided in § 183.49. All openings in tanks and other distilling apparatus and equipment, which are not absolutely necessary, and which can be permanently closed without interference with plant operations, shall be closed by brazing, welding, or otherwise securely fastening and sealing. Tanks used as receptacles for spirits may be permanently connected with pipe lines for the conveyance thereto of air and also distilled water, but the distilled water pipe line must be affixed to the top of the tank, and may not extend into the tank. Such pipe lines must be equipped with a control valve which may be locked with a Government lock. Pipe lines used for the conveyance of air must also be equipped with a check valve located near the point of entry to the tank in order to effectively prevent any abstraction of spirits from the tank. Other pipe lines, except those used for the conveyance of spirits, may not be permanently connected with such tanks. (Secs. 2823, 2829, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.51 Rectifying equipment. Where spirits are rectified, purified, or refined in a rectifying room or building, as provided in § 183.24, suitable tanks for the reception of the spirits to be so treated must be provided in such room or building. The pipes, percolators, vessels, and other apparatus used in purifying or refining spirits must be so constructed that the spirits will pass through the purifying process in their passage from the beer still to the receiving cisterns. The pipes, vessels, and other apparatus must be closed and continuous. All necessary openings must be so constructed that they may be closed and locked with Government locks. Except as provided by § 183.46, no permanent water pipe line shall be connected with the high-wine tanks, percolators, or other rectifying apparatus. (Secs. 2820, 2829, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.52 Receiving cisterns. The distiller must provide in the cistern room receiving cisterns having sufficient capacity to permit the efficient deposit, withdrawal and supervision of each type of distilled spirits produced daily in accordance with the regulations in this part. The adequacy of the capacity of the receiving cisterns shall be determined by the district supervisor. Receiving cisterns must be constructed and arranged in conformity with the requirements of § 183.46, and, in addition thereto, such cisterns must be elevated not less than 18 inches from the floor and so separated that Government officers may pass completely around each. Each receiving cistern must be equipped with a suitable measuring device whereby the actual contents will be correctly indicated, and shall have plainly and legibly painted thereon the words, "Receiving Cistern," followed by its serial number and capacity in wine gallons. The cisterns must not be connected with each other, except that a connecting pipe line will be permitted between them in order to prevent loss of spirits by overflow. Such connecting pipe line must be located as close to the top of each cistern as the construction thereof will permit, and it must be closed and all connections therein brazed or welded to prevent abstraction of spirits without showing evidence of tampering. A valve equipped for locking with a Government lock must be provided in such pipe line. Pipe lines connected with receiving cisterns must be brazed, welded, or otherwise secured and sealed, to the cisterns in such a manner that they cannot be detached or altered without showing evidence of tampering. Except as provided by § 183.46, pipe lines for the conveyance of water, air, or other substance than spirits may not be permanently connected with receiving cisterns. (Secs. 2817 (b), 2820, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.56 Colors for pipe lines. The pipe lines in the distillery used for conveying the following substances shall be kept painted in the colors indicated:

Black	Whisky, gin, rum, or other finished spirits.
Blue	Vapor, singlings, high-wines and low-wines, or other unfinished spirits.
Red	Fermented mash or beer.
Gray	Molasses or other unfermented material.
Brown	Spent beer or slop.
Yellow	Fusel oil.
White	Water.
Aluminum	Steam.
Orange	Air.
Olive green	Carbon dioxide.

These colors are intended for such pipe lines only, and are prescribed for the purpose of distinguishing such pipe lines from each other and from all other pipe lines on the premises which are painted but for which colors are not prescribed. The painting in one of the prescribed colors, or a color similar thereto, of a pipe line for which a color is not prescribed is prohibited. Pipe lines for which colors are not prescribed may be painted in sections of contrasting colors. (Secs. 2822, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.62 Description of premises. The lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated must be described on Form 27–A by courses and distances, in feet and inches, with the particularity required in conveyances of real estate. If the distillery premises consist of two or more lots or parcels, the condition of the title to which is not the same, the entire distillery premises shall be first described, followed by a separate description by courses and distances, in feet and inches, of each such lot or parcel. The continuity of the distillery premises must be unbroken, except that the premises may be divided by a public street or highway, if parts of the premises so divided abut on such street or highway opposite each other. The premises may be similarly divided by a railroad right-of-way, if the railroad is a common carrier. In such cases, each tract of land constituting the distillery premises shall be described separately on the form. (Secs. 2812, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.70 Distance from rectifying plant or vinegar factory. If the distillery premises are situated more than 600 feet in a direct line from any premises authorized to be used for rectifying spirits, or from a vinegar factory using the vaporizing process, such fact shall be stated on Form 27–A. If the distance between the distillery premises and the premises of a rectifying plant is less than 600 feet in a direct line, there must be stated in the notice, Form 27–A, the name of the proprietor of the rectifying plant, the exact distance in feet and inches between the distillery and the rectifying plant, and whether the location of the distillery within such distance of the rectifying plant has been approved by the district supervisor. If such location of the distillery has been approved by the district supervisor, the date of such approval shall be given. If the distance between the distillery premises and a vinegar factory using the vaporizing process is less than 600 feet in a direct line, such fact and the date of the establishment of the vinegar factory shall be stated on the form. (Secs. 2812, 2819, 2834, 2835, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.74 Application. The application shall contain (a) an accurate description of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated and of the distillery, the buildings, and the distilling apparatus thereon; (b) a full and clear statement of the condition of the title to the distillery premises and apparatus and equipment, including the name and address of the owner and of all mortgagees, judgment-creditors, conditional sales vendors, prior lessees, and other persons having liens thereon, the kind, date, and amount of each encumbrance, and the balance due thereon, and, in the case of apparatus or equipment purchased under a conditional sales contract, or other form of title retaining contract, the purchase price and the balance due; and (c) a full and clear statement of the reasons why the applicant cannot obtain the prescribed written consent. The district supervisor will take action on such application in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 183.160. (Secs. 2815, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.75 Bond, Form 3–A. If the application is approved, the distiller shall execute bond on Form 3–A, "Bond of Indemnity in Favor of the United States," in triplicate, in conformity with the applicable provisions of §§ 183.98 to 183.119, and file the same with the district supervisor. The penal sum of the bond shall be equal to the appraised value of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, the distillery, the buildings, and the distilling apparatus. If, after such bond is filed, the value of the distillery premises, buildings, or distilling apparatus is increased by additional land, buildings or distilling apparatus, an additional bond on such form to cover the increase in value will be required: Provided, That if such increase in value is less than $1,000, no additional bond will be required. In the event of a failure of bond on Form 3–A the distiller will be no longer qualified, unless a new and satisfactory bond is filed. (Secs. 2815, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.78 Application. Any distiller desiring to avail himself of the privilege of filing bond on Form 3 in lieu of the prescribed consent, must file application, in triplicate, with the district supervisor. The application must show that the distillery was erected prior to July 20, 1868, and contain a full and clear statement of the condition of the title or the nature of the incapacity of the holder of the fee, as the case may be. The district supervisor will take action on such application in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 183.160. (Secs. 3176, 3180, I. R. C.)

§ 183.79 Bond, Form 3. If the application is approved, the distiller shall execute bond on Form 3, in triplicate, in conformity with the applicable provisions of §§ 183.98 to 183.119, and file the same with the district supervisor. The penal sum of the bond shall be equal to the appraised value of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is located, together with the buildings and distilling apparatus. If, after such bond is filed, the value of the distillery premises, buildings, or distilling apparatus is increased by additional land, buildings, or distilling apparatus, an additional bond on such form to cover the increase in value will be required: Provided, That if such increase in value is less than $1,000, no additional bond will be required. The appraisal shall be made in accordance with the provisions of § 183.76. In the event of failure of bond on Form 3, the distiller will be no longer qualified, unless a new and satisfactory bond is filed. (Secs. 3176, 3180, I. R. C.)

§ 183.81 Bond in lieu of consent where distillery is sold for United States. Where a distillery is sold at a judicial or other sale in favor of the United States, the distiller may give bond on Form 3–A, in lieu of the consent of the person possessing the right of redemption and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, or other lienor, and be allowed, upon complying with all other provisions of law and these regulations, to operate such distillery during the existence of the right of redemption from such sale. A distiller desiring to give bond in such case shall file application, in triplicate, with the district supervisor for permission so to do. The application shall contain a full and clear statement of the condition of the title, including the name and address of the person having the right of redemption and of all encumbrancers, the kind, date, and amount of each encumbrance, the date of the sale, and the date of expiration of the right of redemption. The penal sum of the bond shall be equal to the appraised value of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, together with the buildings and distillery apparatus. If, after such bond is filed, the value of the distillery premises, buildings, or distilling apparatus is increased by additional land, buildings, or distilling apparatus, an additional bond on such form to cover the increase in value will be required: Provided, That if such increase in value is less than $1,000, no additional bond will be required. The appraisal shall be made in accordance with the provisions of § 183.76. (Secs. 2815, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.94 Statement of process. There must be submitted to the district supervisor with the distiller's original notice, Form 27–A, a statement of process, in triplicate. Upon any change in the process, a new statement, in triplicate, must be filed with the district supervisor who will forward all copies to the Commissioner in accordance with § 183.167. Reference by date to the current statement of process must be incorporated in each annual notice, Form 27–A. The statement of process should present a step by step description of the mashing, fermenting, distilling, purifying and refining processes used in the production of each type of distilled spirits. It must show specifically the kind and approximate quantity, or proportion of all nonalcohol producing materials or substances added to the yeast mash or beer for the purpose of providing yeast food, or for inhibiting the action of wild yeast, or for any other purpose, and all materials used for purifying, refining, or otherwise treating the spirits. Samples of any such material or substance will be prepared and furnished to the district supervisor, upon request, for analysis by Government chemists. Materials or chemicals which are volatile, and would remain incorporated with the finished spirits after final distillation, may not be used, except that juniper berries and other aromatics may be used in the production of gin. (Secs. 3176, 3254 (g), I. R. C.)

§ 183.121 Preparation. Every plat and plan shall be drawn to scale and each sheet thereof shall bear a distinctive title, enabling ready identification. The cardinal points of the compass must appear on each sheet, except the elevational plans. The minimum scale of any plat will not be less than 1/50 inch per foot. Each sheet of the original plat and plans shall be numbered, the first sheet being designated number 1 and the other sheets numbered in consecutive order. Plats and plans shall be submitted on sheets of tracing cloth, opaque cloth or sensitized linen. The dimensions of plats and plans shall be 15 by 20 inches, outside measurement, with a clear margin of at least 1 inch on each side of the drawing, lettering, and writing. Plats and plans may be original drawings, or reproductions made by the "ditto process," or by blue or brown line lithoprint, if such reproductions are clear and distinct. (Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.122 Depiction of distillery premises. Plats must show the outer boundaries of the distillery premises by courses and distances, in feet and inches, in a color contrasting with those used for other drawings on the plat, and the point of beginning, with respect to its distance and bearings, from some near and well-known landmark, and must contain an accurate depiction of the building or buildings comprising the premises and any driveway, public highway or railroad right-of-way adjacent thereto or connecting therewith. The depiction of the premises shall agree with the description in the notice, Form 27–A. If the distillery premises consists of two or more lots or parcels of land, the condition of the title to which is not the same, each such lot or tract shall be separately depicted by courses and distances, in feet and inches, and such lots or parcels shall be delineated or cross-hatched in contrasting colors. If two or more buildings are to be used, the designated name of each shall be indicated, and all pipe lines or other connections, if any, between the same, depicted. Where two or more buildings are used for the same purpose, the name of each such building shall include an alphabetical designation, beginning with "A," and they shall be so shown on the plat. All first floor exterior doors of each building on the premises will be shown on the plat. Except as provided in § 183.131, all pipe lines leading to or from the premises, the purpose for which used, and the points of origin and termination will be indicated on the plat. (Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.125 Floor plans. The plans shall include a floor plan of each floor of each building, showing the general dimensions of the rooms and floors, and the location of all doors, windows, and other openings, and how such openings are protected. All apparatus and equipment, except pipe lines, must be shown in their exact location on the floor plans, and their designated use indicated. Pipe lines may also be shown, if desired. In the case of stills, tanks, and similar equipment, the serial number and capacity shall also be shown. (Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.127 Elevational plans of buildings. The plans shall also include an exterior, elevational view of each exposure of each building, showing the type of security afforded the openings. The number of stories and the height of each story will be indicated on the elevational plans. In lieu of drawings, the distiller may submit a photograph of each exposure of each building in a size not smaller than 7 by 9 inches. The photographs must be in sufficient detail to clearly depict the buildings from the ground to the roof, and must be properly identified. Where photographs are submitted, drawings must be furnished to show the security afforded openings in all rooms required to be locked, such as cistern rooms, rectifying rooms, etc.: Provided, That in lieu of such drawings, the photographs may be noted to show the type of security afforded the openings in such rooms by reference to the appropriate sheet of plans on file, whereon such information is shown. (Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.128 Pipe lines in colors. The pipe lines must be shown on the plans in the colors in which they are required to be painted, as follows:

Black	Whisky, gin, rum, or other finished spirits.
Blue	Vapor, singlings, high-wines, low-wines, or other unfinished spirits.
Red	Fermented mash or beer.
Gray	Molasses or other unfermented material.
Brown	Spent beer or slop.
Yellow	Fusel oil.
White	Water.
Aluminum	Steam.
Orange	Air.
Olive green	Carbon dioxide.

(Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.132 Elevational flow diagrams. Elevational flow diagrams (plans) shall be submitted covering: (a) Distilling material system, (b) mashing and fermenting systems, (c) distilling system, and (d) the cistern room system. Such diagrams or plans shall clearly depict all equipment in its relative operating sequence, and elevation by floors with all connecting pipe lines, valves, flanges (except as provided in § 183.129), Government locks, measuring devices, etc. The elevation by floors on the diagrams may be indicated by horizontal lines representing floor levels. All the flow diagrams as a unit must show the flow of the distilling material, and the resulting products, through the mills, mash tubs, fermenters, stills, doublers, try boxes, and other equipment, and the deposit and removal of the finished spirits from the cistern room. All major equipment, fermenters, stills, etc., must be identified on these plans as to number and use. The elevational flow diagrams must be so drawn that all fixed pipe lines, except those indicated by § 183.131 may be readily traced from beginning to end. Other types of drawings that clearly depict the information required herein may be submitted in compliance with this section. (Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.133 Certificate of accuracy. The plat and plans shall bear a certificate of accuracy in the lower right-hand corner of each sheet signed by the distiller, the draftsman, and the district supervisor, substantially in the following form:

(Name of distiller)

(Address)

Approved ---
(Date)

(District Supervisor)

Accuracy certified by

(Name and capacity—for the distiller)

(Draftsman)

--- 19---. Sheet No. ---

(Secs. 2816, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.134 Revised plats and plans. The sheets of revised plats and plans shall bear the same number as the sheets superseded but will be given a new date. Any additional plats and plans shall be given a new number in consecutive order or will be otherwise numbered and lettered in such manner as will permit the filing of the plats and plans in proper sequence. (Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.138 Change in proprietorship—(a) Suspension. • • •

(2) Registry of stills. If the business is to be permanently discontinued, file Form 26, registry of stills, in triplicate, in accordance with § 183.370.

• • • • •

§ 183.143 Changes in premises. Where the distillery premises are to be extended or curtailed, the distiller must file with the district supervisor an amended notice, Form 27–A, and an amended plat of the premises as extended or curtailed, except as herein specifically authorized in the case of alternate operations of the bottling department. If the plans are affected by the extension or curtailment, they must also be amended. If the distillery is within 600 feet of a rectifying plant, the distiller must also file a special application in accordance with §§ 183.6 and 183.9. The additional premises covered by an extension may not be used for distillery purposes, and the portion of the distillery premises to be excluded by a curtailment may not be used for other than distillery purposes, prior to approval of the notice, Form 27–A. Where an internal revenue bonded warehouse containing a bottling-in-bond department is located on the distillery premises, and the documents required by Part 188 (Regulations 6), governing the alternate operation of the bottling house as a bottling-in-bond department and a tax-paid bottling house, are filed, and no change in proprietorship is involved, the filing of additional notices, Form 27–A, covering changes in the temporary status thereof from time to time will not be required. (Secs. 2812, 2816, 2819, 2873, 2904, 3176, 4041, I. R. C.)

§ 183.144 Changes in construction and use. Where a change is to be made in the construction of a room or building not involving an extension or curtailment of the distillery premises, or where a change is to be made in the use of any portion of such premises, the distiller shall first secure approval thereof by the district supervisor pursuant to application, in triplicate, setting forth specifically the proposed changes. Upon approval of the application, the changes will be made under the supervision of a Government officer, unless they are of such a nature as, in the opinion of the district supervisor, do not require such supervision. The completed changes will be reflected in the next amended or annual notice, Form 27–A, and amended plans filed by the distiller, unless the district supervisor requires the immediate filing of an amended notice and amended plans. (Secs. 2812, 2816, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.145 Indemnity bond covering changes in buildings. If buildings on the distillery premises, or on premises which have been eliminated from the distillery premises, are to be demolished or altered in such a manner as to decrease the value of the property, and a lien for taxes exists on such property under section 2800 (e), I. R. C., the distiller, if (a) the owner of the fee unencumbered, or (b) consents, in accordance with § 183.72, are necessary and have been obtained, must file with the district supervisor an indemnity bond, Form 1617, in triplicate, in a penal sum equal to the decrease in the value of the property: Provided, That, if such decrease in value is less than $1,000, no indemnity bond will be required. (Secs. 2800 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.146 Appraisal. The amount of the decrease in the value of the property subject to the Government's lien, which will be caused by the demolition or alteration of buildings, shall be determined by appraisal by two or more competent persons designated by the district supervisor. The appraisers shall render to the district supervisor a report, in duplicate, of their appraisal, which shall include information as to the methods employed by them in determining their valuations. The appraisal shall be at the expense of the distiller, unless made by Government officers. The district supervisor may dispense with the formal appraisal when he has reason to believe that the value of the property concerned is less than $1,000. (Secs. 2800 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.148 Indemnity bond covering removal of equipment. If distilling apparatus or equipment on which a lien has attached under section 2800 (e), I. R. C., for taxes on spirits produced which have not been tax-paid or withdrawn for a tax-free purpose, is to be removed from the distillery premises without adding property that will become a fixture in law of an equal or greater value than the apparatus or equipment to be removed, the distiller must file with the district supervisor an indemnity bond on Form 1617, in triplicate. Such bond must be in a penal sum equal to the value of the apparatus or equipment to be removed or equal to the excess in value of the apparatus or equipment to be removed over the value of the property to be substituted therefore: Provided, That if such value or difference in value, as the case may be, is less than $1,000, no indemnity bond will be required. The value of the distilling apparatus or equipment to be removed, or the difference between the value of such old apparatus or equipment and the value of the new property to be added will be determined in the manner prescribed in § 183.146. (Secs. 2800 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.149 Amended notice and plans covering changes in equipment. Upon completion of changes in equipment which materially affect the accuracy of the Form 27–A or plans, the distiller must file an amended notice and amended plans. Where an amended notice and amended plans are not filed immediately upon completion of minor changes in equipment, such as general repairs, changes in pipe lines, or the addition or removal of a tank, the distiller must include such changes in the next amended or annual notice, and amended plans to be filed by him. The Commissioner or the district supervisor may, at any time, in his discretion, require the immediate filing of an amended notice and plans covering any change in equipment. (Secs. 2812, 2816, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.152 Qualification—(a) Where no bonded warehouse on premises. • • •

(3) Registry of stills. Register the stills on Form 26, in triplicate, in accordance with § 183.370, if not previously registered.

• • • • •

§ 183.156 Where operation of warehouse on premises is continued—(a) Suspension. Where an internal revenue bonded warehouse is located on the registered distillery premises and the registered distiller desires to continue to operate the warehouse on such premises while the distillery is operated alternately as a registered distillery and as a fruit distillery or industrial alcohol plant, he must, upon suspension of the registered distillery, comply with the provisions of § 183.155 (a) (3) and (4), and, in addition thereto, the following requirements:

• • • • •

(b) Resumption. Where operation of the plant as a fruit distillery or industrial alcohol plant has been suspended, and operation thereof as a registered distillery is to be resumed, the registered distiller must comply with the provisions of § 183.155 (b) (5), (6), and (7), and, in addition thereto, the following requirements:

• • • • •

§ 183.157 Where bonded warehouse is discontinued or eliminated from registered distillery premises—(a) Suspension. • • •

(b) Resumption. Where operation of the plant as a fruit distillery or industrial alcohol plant has been suspended, and operation thereof as a registered distillery is to be resumed, the registered distiller must comply with the provisions of § 183.155 (b) (5), (6), and (7), and, in addition thereto, the following requirements:

* * * * * *

§ 183.158 Special application. Where a special application for permission to operate a distillery within 600 feet of a rectifying plant is submitted by the distiller, and such special application conforms to the requirements of these regulations, the district supervisor will cause an inspection to be made to determine whether the proposed operation of the distillery within 600 feet of the rectifying plant may be permitted without jeopardy to the revenue. The inspector will ascertain whether the application accurately describes the relative location of the two premises and all pipe lines and other connections, if any, between such premises. The inspector will also observe the surroundings, including all streets, roads and driveways connecting the two premises, and any condition which might endanger the revenue, and will describe the same in his report. If the district supervisor finds, upon consideration of the inspection report, that the distillery may be operated at the designated location without danger to the revenue, he will note his approval on all copies of the special application. He will then return one copy of the approved application to the applicant, retain the original for his files, and forward the remaining copy, together with a copy of the inspection report, to the Commissioner. Approval of the special application pertains to the location of the distillery only, and does not authorize the operation thereof. The distillery may not be operated until the distiller's bond and other qualifying documents required by law and these regulations have been filed and approved by the Commissioner. If the special application is disapproved, the district supervisor will note his disapproval thereon and will return all copies of such application to the applicant, with advice as to the reasons for disapproval. (Secs. 2819, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.160 Indemnity bond application. When an application for permission to file an indemnity bond in lieu of the written consent of the owner of the distillery premises or apparatus or equipment, or of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, conditional sales vendor, or other person having a lien thereon, is submitted by the distiller and such application conforms to the requirements of the regulations in this part, the district supervisor will cause an investigaton to be made of the facts upon which the application is based, and will designate two or more competent persons to make an appraisal of the value of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, the distillery, the buildings, and the distilling apparatus. The appraisal shall be made as provided in § 183.146. If the district supervisor finds, upon consideration of the appraisal and reports of investigation, that under the law and regulations an indemnity bond may properly be accepted in lieu of the consent of the owner or lienor, and if he is satisfied that the valuation placed upon the distillery property by the appraisers is fair, he will note his approval on all copies of the application. He will then return one copy of the approved application to the applicant and retain the original for his files. He will forward the remaining copy of the application and copies of the reports of investigation and appraisal to the Commissioner at the time of forwarding the indemnity bond. If the application is disapproved, the district supervisor will note his disapproval thereon and will return all copies of such application to the applicant with a statement of the reasons for disapproval. (Secs. 2815 (b), 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.169 Disposition of qualifying documents. Where the distiller's bond (Form 30), consent (Form 1602), if any, or indemnity bond filed in lieu thereof, and notice (Form 27–A), are approved by the Commissioner, the district supervisor will, upon receipt of approved copies of such documents from the Commissioner, as provided in § 183.176, forward one copy of the distiller's bond, consent or indemnity bond, notice, plat, plans, and other qualifying documents, and the original copy of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act permit to the distiller, and will retain one copy of such qualifying documents for the file of the distiller. If the distiller's bond, consent, or indemnity bond is disapproved, the district supervisor will, upon receipt from the Commissioner of the disapproved copies of such documents and other qualifying documents submitted therewith, return all copies of the qualifying documents to the proprietor, with advice as to the reason for disapproval. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.172 Applications and reports covering changes. Where an application covering changes in the distillery apparatus or equipment, or in the construction or use of a room or building, is approved by the district supervisor, he will retain one copy of the application and forward one copy to the distiller and one copy to the Commissioner; and when reports covering changes in apparatus and equipment are received from Government officers in accordance with § 183.147, he will retain one copy and promptly forward one copy to the Commissioner. Similar disposition will be made of reports received from the distiller covering emergency repairs of distilling apparatus and equipment. Where changes in buildings, apparatus, or equipment are such as to require the filing of an indemnity bond, the district supervisor may approve the application, if he has recommended approval of the bond, and permit the changes in buildings, apparatus or equipment to proceed pending approval of the bond by the Commissioner. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.176 Qualifying documents. The Commissioner will review the notice, plat, plans, distiller's bond (Form 30), consent (Form 1602), if any, or indemnity bond filed in lieu thereof, and other qualifying documents, including application for Federal Alcohol Administration Act permit, upon their receipt from the district supervisor. If the Commissioner approves the distillery construction and equipment, and the notice, plat, plans, distiller's bond, consent or indemnity bond, if any, and other qualifying documents, he will assign a registry number to the distillery in accordance with § 183.177, note his approval on all copies of the distiller's bond, consent or indemnity bond, and notice, retain one copy of the distiller's bond, consent or indemnity bond, and notice, and all copies of the other qualifying documents and will return two copies of the approved distiller's bond, consent or indemnity bond, and notice, to the district supervisor with advice as to his action on the qualifying documents. If the Commissioner disapproves the distiller's bond, he will note his disapproval thereon and will return all copies thereof to the district supervisor, accompanied by the other qualifying documents submitted therewith, and a statement of the reasons for disapproval of the bond. (Secs. 2814, 2815 (b), 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.370 Registry on Form 26. Every person having in his possession or custody, or under his control, any still or distilling apparatus that is set up, must register the same on Form 26, in triplicate, with the district supervisor for the district in which it is located. Stills to be used for the production of various types of distilled spirits may be registered for "distilled spirits," and the specific type need not be shown. Thereafter, when the plant is changed from the production of one type of spirits to another, reregistration by the same distiller will not be required. The temporary suspension of a distillery does not necessitate reregistration of the stills. The operation of a distillery by alternating proprietors, where no permanent change in ownership occurs, does not require reregistration of the stills by the proprietors. When there is a change in location or use, or a bona fide change in ownership of a still, the still must be registered to reflect the change. The district supervisor will, upon approving the registration of a still on Form 26, retain one copy, forward one copy to the Commissioner, and return the remaining copy to the distiller. The distiller will retain his copy at the distillery available for inspection by Government officers. (Secs. 2810, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.439 Action on application. Upon receipt of the application, the district supervisor will make such inquiry as he may deem necessary to determine the propriety of granting the permission sought and will then forward all copies of the application to the Commissioner with his recommendation thereon. The Commissioner will indicate his approval or disapproval on all copies of the application and will return two copies to the district supervisor who will forward one copy to the applicant. Where the application is approved, the distiller will, after installation of the pipe line, file amended notice, plat and plans, describing the pipe line and the flow of spirits in accordance with the regulations in this part. (Secs. 2883, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.441 Application, Form 179. Where a pipe line has been installed for the transfer of distilled spirits direct from the weighing tank in the distillery to a rectifying plant or tax-paid bottling house, contiguous to or in the immediate vicinity of the distillery, under the provisions of these regulations, and the distiller desires to transfer such spirits, he shall execute application for the tax payment of such spirits on Form 179, in quadruplicate. The distiller and the storekeeper-gauger shall then proceed in accordance with the provisions of §§ 183.281, 183.282, and 183.297, respecting the gauging and withdrawal of spirits for tax payment in railroad tank cars, insofar as the provisions thereof are applicable. (Secs. 2883, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.445 Release of spirits for transfer. When the certificate of tax payment has been affixed to the weighing tank and cancelled, the storekeeper-gauger will unlock the outlet valve and permit the distiller to transfer the spirits by pipe line to the rectifying plant or tax-paid bottling house named in the certificate. The spirits shall be transferred only under the immediate supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. After the spirits have been transferred, the storekeeper-gauger will forward one copy of Form 179 and Form 1520 and the cancelled Form 1595 to the district supervisor, retain one copy of Form 179 and Form 1520, and deliver one copy of Form 179 and two copies of Form 1520 to the distiller, who will immediately deliver one copy of Form 1520 to the rectifier or proprietor of the tax-paid bottling house. (Secs. 2883, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 183.446 Attachment of Form 1520 to storage tank. The report of gauge, Form 1520, delivered to the rectifier or proprietor of the tax-paid bottling house by the distiller shall be attached to the storage tank in the rectifying plant or to the storage tank or bottling tank in the tax-paid bottling house, as the case may be. The rectifier or proprietor shall enter the date and quantity of removals from the tank in the blank space on such Form 1520. The report of gauge shall be kept on the tank until such time as the quantity covered by such report has been withdrawn from the tank. The report shall then be filed by the rectifier or proprietor of the tax-paid bottling house, available for inspection by Government officers. The spirits transferred by pipe line may not be used at the rectifying plant or tax-paid bottling house prior to attachment of Form 1520 to the storage tank or bottling tank, as the case may be. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

4. This Treasury decision shall be effective on the 31st day after the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 184—PRODUCTION OF BRANDY

ESTABLISHMENT AND OPERATION OF FRUIT DISTILLERIES

1. On August 12, 1948, notice of proposed rule-making, regarding the production of brandy, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 4672).

2. After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the proposal, the following amendments of §§ 184.7, 184.8, 184.11, 184.15, 184.16, 184.17, 184.35, 184.40, 184.41, 184.42, 184.49, 184.54, 184.60, 184.64, 184.65, 184.66, 184.67c, 184.67d, 184.67e, 184.79, 184.106, 184.107, 184.110, 184.112, 184.113, 184.117, 184.118, 184.119, 184.123 (a) (2), 184.128, 184.129, 184.130, 184.131, 184.133, 184.134, 184.135 (a) (3), 184.139 (a) (b), 184.140 (b), 184.141, 184.141a, 184.148, 184.150, 184.153, 184.156, 184.246 and 184.391 of Regulations 5 (26 CFR, Part 184), approved February 28, 1940, are hereby adopted, and §§ 184.9, 184.10, 184.111, 184.138 (a) (2), 184.138 (b) (3), 184.155, 184.155a and 184.392 of such regulations are hereby revoked.

3. These amendments are designed to simplify certain requirements relating to construction, and the preparation, filing, and approval of documents in connection with the establishment and operation of fruit distilleries. It is not intended by these amendments to require distillers to file additional plats and plans, or to repaint pipe lines, or to change equipment immediately, in cases where the existing documents, pipe lines and equipment conform essentially to the regulations prior to these amendments. Upon filing new plats and plans, repainting pipe lines and installing equipment, these new requirements must be observed.

§ 184.8 Special application. A person desiring to operate a fruit distillery within 600 feet of a rectifying plant shall file a special application, in triplicate, for such privilege with the district supervisor. The application shall state the location of the fruit distillery and the rectifying plant, the distance between the premises, the name of the proprietor of the rectifying plant, a description of any connecting pipe lines, the reason for locating the distillery within 600 feet of the rectifying plant and any additional information which the district supervisor may require. The district supervisor will take action on such application in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 184.141. (Secs. 2819, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.11 Changes requiring approval. Where there is to be a change in the distance between a fruit distillery and a rectifying plant located within 600 feet of each other, as a result of the extension or curtailment or other change of either premises, a new special application, in triplicate, must be filed with the district supervisor by the proprietor of the premises which is to be extended or curtailed. Where a change occurs in the proprietorship of a fruit distillery or rectifying plant located within 600 feet of each other, the new proprietor shall file with the district supervisor a new special application, in triplicate. Unless the fruit distillery premises are extended or curtailed as the result of such change, the change may be reflected in the next amended or annual notice, Form 27½, and plat, filed by the distiller. Such new special application shall be considered and disposed of in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 184.141. (Secs. 2819, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.15 Walls. The outside walls of distillery buildings must be securely and substantially constructed. If wood, corrugated iron, or tin is used, the same must be applied over solid sheathing for the first 12 feet of height and over solid sheathing or sheathing spaced not greater than 12 inches from board to board for the remaining height. Where substantial sheet metal is used and the sheets are welded together in such manner as to constitute a solid wall, sheathing may be applied in any manner desired. The ceiling and walls inside of the receiving room and brandy deposit room must be cased with matched tongue and groove boards, unless the use of other material affording equal protection from access without detection is approved by the Commissioner. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.16 Roofs. The roofs of distillery buildings must be securely and substantially constructed. Where corrugated iron or tin is used, the same must be applied over sheathing spaced not greater than 12 inches from board to board. Where substantial sheet metal is used and the sheets are welded together in such a manner as to constitute a solid roof, sheathing may be applied in any manner desired. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.17 Doors. The outside doors of the distillery buildings must be securely and substantially constructed and equipped so that they may be securely locked. In addition, the doors of receiving rooms, brandy deposit rooms and other rooms required to be locked by § 184.435 must comply with the following requirements: The outside doors, and those on which Government locks are required, as hereinafter provided, must be securely constructed of heavy timber or iron, or other equally substantial material. The hinges must be secured by roundheaded or carriage bolts, nutted and riveted or battered on the inside. Hinges that cannot be thus secured must be inaccessible from the outside and so attached that they cannot be removed when the doors are closed. The outside doors, and those on which Government locks are required, must be equipped with hasp and staple securely fastened on the inside so that they may be securely locked. The doors secured from the inside must be provided with a cross bar in the middle of the door and, in addition thereto, with strong and suitable attachments for the reception of locks. Where there are double doors, one of them at least must be provided with substantial bolts at both the top and the bottom. These bolts must be so arranged as to plunge into substantial fastenings or holes in the middle of the upper and lower ends of the frame when the door is closed. Folding doors of wood or metal, vertical or horizontal sliding doors of wood or metal, and metal doors of the roller blind type, must be provided with substantial cross bars or bolts that plunge into the upper and lower ends or the sides of the door frame, so placed as to make the door rigid and secure, unless the doors operate in grooves or tracks that make them secure. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.35 Construction of weighing tanks. Weighing tanks shall be constructed of metal and shall be stationary and of uniform dimensions from top to bottom, and each such tank shall be equipped with a suitable measuring device whereby the contents will be correctly indicated. The inlet and outlet pipe connections of each weighing tank must be fitted with valves so constructed that they can be secured with Government locks, and any other openings in such tanks must also be so constructed that they can be closed and similarly locked. Each weighing tank shall be mounted on accurate scales and shall have plainly and legibly painted thereon the words "Weighing Tank," followed by its serial number and the capacity in wine gallons. The beams or dials of weighing tank scales must indicate weight in 5 pound graduations for scales up to and including 25 tons capacity, in 10 pound graduations for scales exceeding 25 tons capacity but not exceeding 60 tons capacity and in 20 pound graduations for scales having a capacity of more than 60 tons. The weighing tank may be located in the receiving room or brandy deposit room, or in some convenient location in the distillery building. Subject to the provisions of § 184.49, the weighing tank may also be used as a receiving tank. (Secs. 2808, 2823, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.40 Washwater receiving tanks. If carbon dioxide gas is recovered, and the washwater is to be utilized in the manufacture of brandy, there must be provided a sufficient number of washwater receiving tanks, which shall be constructed of metal and be of uniform dimensions from top to bottom. Each such tank shall be equipped with a suitable measuring device whereby the actual contents will be correctly indicated. There must be painted on each tank the words, "Washwater Receiving Tank," followed by its serial number and the capacity in wine gallons. The outlet valve must be equipped for locking with a Government lock. If the washwater is not used in the manufacture of brandy, as provided by § 184.240, washwater receiving tanks need not be installed. (Secs. 2829, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.41 Stills. The stills must be of substantial construction and must have a clear space of not less than 1 foot around them. The steam or fuel line to each still shall be equipped with a valve so constructed that it may be locked with a Government lock when the distillery is suspended, as required by § 184.384. The drain and washout pipes of stills must also, whenever practicable, be equipped with valves so constructed that they may be locked with Government locks. If there is a furnace under the stills or doublers, the door thereto must, as provided in such section, be so constructed that it may be secured with a Government lock. There must be a clear space of not less than 2 feet around every doubler and condenser or worm tank. The doubler and worm tank must be elevated not less than 1 foot from the floor. Every still must be numbered, commencing with number 1, and have painted thereon its designated use, such as "Beer still," "Doubler," etc., and its number and spirit producing capacity in proof gallons in 24 hours, computed in accordance with the rules set forth in the Appendix to the regulations in this part. Where the still is insulated or the manufacturer's serial number is otherwise obscured, such number will likewise be painted on the covering of the still. (Secs. 2822, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.42 General requirements for tanks. All tanks used as receptacles for spirits between the outlet of the first condenser or worm and the receiving tanks shall be constructed of metal, unless enclosed within a securely constructed room equipped for locking with a Government lock, in which case the tanks may be constructed of wood or concrete. Metal tanks shall be of uniform dimensions from top to bottom. All tanks shall be equipped with a suitable measuring device, conforming to the requirements of § 184.43, whereby the actual contents will be correctly indicated. All tanks must be so constructed as to permit examination of every part thereof, and so arranged as to leave an open space of not less than 3 feet between the top and the roof or floor above. All tanks, such as low-wine tanks, singlings tanks, other unfinished-spirits tanks, heads and tails tanks, fusel oil tanks, distilled water tanks, and similar equipment shall each have plainly and legibly painted thereon its designated use, serial number, and capacity in wine gallons. Manheads, inlets, and outlets of the tanks and all necessary openings in the distilling apparatus and equipment, except column stills, whereby access may be had to the spirits, must be provided with facilities for locking with Government locks: Provided, That distilled water storage tanks need not be so equipped unless a pipe line is connected therewith for the conveyance of distilled water to contiguous establishments, as provided in § 184.45. All openings in tanks and other distilling apparatus and equipment, which are not absolutely necessary, and which can be permanently closed without interference with plant operations, shall be closed by brazing, welding, or otherwise securely fastening and sealing. Tanks used as receptacles for spirits may be permanently connected with pipe lines, for the conveyance thereto of air, and also distilled water, but the distilled water pipe line must be affixed to the top of the tank, and may not extend into the tank. Such pipe lines must be equipped with a control valve which may be locked with a Government lock. Pipe lines used for the conveyance of air must also be equipped with a check valve located near the point of entry to the tank in order to effectively prevent any abstraction of spirits from the tank. Other pipe lines, except those used for the conveyance of spirits, may not be permanently connected with such tanks. (Secs. 2823, 2829, 3041, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.49 Receiving tanks. The distiller shall provide a sufficient number of receiving tanks of adequate capacity, into which shall be conveyed all the brandy produced in the distillery. Such tanks will be located in the receiving room, where such a room is provided. If no receiving room is provided, the distiller may, if he so desires, place receiving tanks in the brandy deposit room, or, if the tanks are constructed of metal, they may be located at some place in the distillery convenient for drawing off spirits. If the tanks are not constructed of metal they must be placed in the brandy deposit room, unless a receiving room is provided. At distilleries where operations are not such as to require the daily attendance of a storekeeper-gauger, the receiving and singlings tanks shall be of such capacity as will necessitate the visit by a Government officer not more than twice a month to gauge the spirits: Provided, That the district supervisor may approve tanks of less capacity where by reason of the location of the distillery, he can assign a storekeeper-gauger to visit the distillery more often than twice a month to gauge the brandy, or where the quantity of brandy produced is such as to make the retention of 15 days' production in the receiving tanks inadvisable. Receiving tanks must be constructed and arranged in conformity with the requirements of § 184.42, and, in addition thereto, such tanks must be elevated not less than 18 inches from the floor and so separated that the Government officer may pass completely around each. Each receiving tank shall be equipped with a suitable measuring device conforming to the requirements of § 184.43. Each such tank shall have plainly and legibly painted thereon the words "Receiving Tank," followed by its serial number and the capacity in wine gallons. Pipe lines connected with receiving tanks must be brazed, welded, or otherwise secured and sealed to the tanks in such a manner that they cannot be detached or altered without showing evidence of tampering. Pipe lines for the conveyance of distilled water, air, or other substances than spirits may not be permanently connected with receiving tanks, except as provided by § 184.42. (Secs. 2823, 2829, 3041, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.54 Colors for pipe lines. The pipe lines in the fruit distillery used for conveying the following substances shall be kept painted in the colors indicated:

Black	Brandy or other finished spirits.
Blue	Vapor, singlings, high-wines and low-wines, or other unfinished spirits.
Red	Fermented mash, wine, or other distilling material.
Gray	Must or other unfermented material.
Brown	Slop.
Yellow	Fusel oil.
White	Water.
Aluminum	Steam.
Orange	Air.
Olive green	Carbon dioxide gas.

These colors are intended for such pipe lines only and are prescribed for the purpose of distinguishing such pipe lines from each other and from all other pipe lines on the premises which are painted but for which colors are not prescribed. The painting in one of the prescribed colors, or a color similar thereto, of a pipe line for which a color is not prescribed is prohibited. Pipe lines for which colors are not prescribed may be painted in sections of contrasting colors. (Secs. 2822, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.60 Description of premises. The lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated must be described on Form 27½ by courses and distances, in feet and inches, with the particularity required in conveyances of real estate. If the distillery premises consists of two or more lots or parcels, the condition of the title to which is not the same, the entire distillery premises shall be first described, followed by a separate description by courses and distances, in feet and inches, of each such lot or parcel. The continuity of the distillery premises must be unbroken, except that the premises may be divided by a public street or highway, if parts of the premises so divided abut on such street or highway, opposite each other. The premises may be similarly divided by a railroad right of way, if the railroad is a common carrier. In such cases, each tract of land constituting the distillery premises shall be described separately on the form. (Secs. 2812, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.64 Condition of title to premises. The condition of title to the premises shall be shown on Form 27½. If the distiller is the owner of the premises in fee, unencumbered, it shall be so stated. If the distiller is not the owner in fee, unencumbered by any mortgage, judgment, lien, or other encumbrance of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, the name and address of the owner of the fee and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, and of any person having a lien or encumbrance, and of all prior lessees thereon, shall be stated. Where the written consent of the owner of the fee and of any mortgagees, judgment-creditors, lienors, encumbrancers, or lessees, is filed, as provided in § 184.67a, or where an indemnity bond is filed in lieu of such written consent, as provided in §§ 184.67d and 184.67e, such fact, together with information as to the kind, date, and amount of the encumbrance and the balance due thereon, shall be shown on the Form 27½ in connection with the statement of the present condition of the title. If the premises are occupied under a lease, the name of the owner, the name of the lessor, the length of the term, and the date of its expiration, shall be stated. (Secs. 2800 (e) (1), 2812, 2815 (b), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.65 Condition of title to apparatus and equipment. The distiller's title to, or interest in, the distilling apparatus and equipment shall be shown on Form 27½. If the distiller is not the owner of such apparatus and equipment, unencumbered by any mortgage, judgment, lien, or other encumbrance, the name and address of the owner thereof and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, lienor or encumbrancer, or conditional sales vendor, shall be stated. Where the written consent of the owner and of the mortgagees, judgment-creditors, lienors, or other encumbrancers, or conditional sales vendors, is filed, as provided in § 184.67a, or where an indemnity bond is filed in lieu of such written consent, as provided in §§ 184.67d and 184.67e, such fact, together with information as to the kind, date, and amount of the encumbrance and the balance due thereon, or, if the apparatus was purchased under a conditional sales contract, or other form of title retaining contract, the purchase price and the balance due shall be shown in connection with the statement of the distiller's title to, or interest in, the property. (Secs. 2800 (e) (1), 2812, 2815 (b), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.66 Distance from rectifying plant or vinegar factory. If the distillery premises are situated more than 600 feet in a direct line from any premises authorized to be used for rectifying spirits, or from a vinegar factory using the vaporizing process, such fact shall be stated on Form 27½. If the distance between the distillery premises and the premises of a rectifying plant is less than 600 feet in a direct line, there must be stated in the notice, Form 27½, the name of the proprietor of the rectifying plant, the exact distance in feet and inches between the distillery and the rectifying plant, and whether the location of the distillery within such distance of the rectifying plant has been approved by the district supervisor. If such location of the distillery has been approved by the district supervisor, the date of such approval shall be given. If the distance between the distillery premises and a vinegar factory using the vaporizing process is less than 600 feet in a direct line, such fact and the date of the establishment of the vinegar factory shall be stated on the form. (Secs. 2812, 2819, 2834, 2835, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.67c Application. The application shall contain (a) an accurate description of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, and of the distillery, the buildings, and the distilling apparatus and equipment thereon; (b) a full and clear statement of the condition of the title to the premises and apparatus and equipment, including the name and address of the owner and of all mortgagees, judgment-creditors, conditional sales vendors, prior lessees, and other persons having liens or encumbrances thereon, the kind, date, and amount of each encumbrance and the balance due thereon, and, in the case of apparatus and equipment purchased under a conditional sales contract, or other form of title retaining contract, the purchase price and the balance due; and (c) a full and clear statement of the reasons why the applicant cannot obtain the prescribed written consent. The district supervisor will take action on such application in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 184.141a. (Secs. 2815 (b), 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.67d Bond, Form 3–A. If the application is approved, the distiller shall execute bond on Form 3–A, "Bond of Indemnity in Favor of the United States," in triplicate, in conformity with the applicable provisions of §§ 184.83 to 184.103, and file the same with the district supervisor. The penal sum of the bond shall be equal to the appraised value of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, the distillery, the buildings, and the distilling apparatus. If, after such bond is filed, the value of the distillery premises, buildings or distilling apparatus is increased by additional land, buildings or distilling apparatus, an additional bond on such form to cover the increase in value will be required: Provided, That if such increase in value is less than $1,000 no additional bond will be required. In the event of a failure of bond on Form 3–A the distiller will be no longer qualified. The appraisal shall be made in accordance with the provisions of § 184.67f. (Secs. 2815 (b), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.67e Bond in lieu of consent where distillery is sold for United States. Where a distillery is sold at a judicial or other sale in favor of the United States, the distiller may give bond on Form 3–A in lieu of the consent of the person possessing the right of redemption and of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, lienor, prior lessee, or other encumbrancer, and be allowed, upon complying with all other provisions of law and the regulations, in this part to operate the distillery during the existence of the right of redemption from such sale. A distiller desiring to give bond in such case shall file application, in triplicate, with the district supervisor for permission so to do. The application shall contain a full and clear statement of the condition of the title, including the name and address of the person having the right of redemption and of all encumbrancers, the kind, date, and amount of each encumbrance, the date of the sale and the date of expiration of the right of redemption. The penal sum of the bond shall be equal to the appraised value of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, together with the buildings and distillery apparatus. If, after such bond is filed, the value of the distillery premises, buildings or distilling apparatus is increased by additional land, buildings or distilling apparatus, an additional bond on such form to cover the increase in value will be required: Provided, That, if such increase in value is less than $1,000, no additional bond will be required. The appraisal shall be made in accordance with the provisions of § 184.67f. (Secs. 2815 (b), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.79 Statement of process. There must be submitted to the district supervisor with the fruit distiller's original notice, Form 27½, a statement of process, in triplicate. Upon any change in the process, a new statement, in triplicate, must be filed with the district supervisor who will forward all copies to the Commissioner in accordance with § 184.148. Reference by date to the current statement of process must be incorporated in each annual notice, Form 27½. The statement of process should present a step by step description of the mashing, fermenting, distilling, purifying and refining processes used in the production of each type of brandy. It must show specifically the kind and approximate quantity or proportion of all nonalcohol producing materials or substances added to the distilling material for the purpose of providing yeast food or for inhibiting the action of wild yeast, or for any other purpose, and all materials used for purifying, refining or otherwise treating the spirits. Samples of any such material or substance will be prepared and furnished to the district supervisor, upon request, for analysis by Government chemists. Materials or chemicals which are volatile and would remain incorporated with the finished brandy after final distillation may not be used. (Secs. 3176, 3254 (g), I. R. C.)

§ 184.106 Preparation. Every plat and plan shall be drawn to scale and each sheet thereof shall bear a distinctive title, enabling ready identification. The cardinal points of the compass must appear on each sheet, except the elevational plans. The minimum scale of any plat will not be less than 1/50 inch per foot. Each sheet of the original plat and plans shall be numbered, the first sheet being designated number 1 and the other sheets numbered in consecutive order. Plats and plans shall be submitted on sheets of tracing cloth, opaque cloth, or sensitized linen. The dimensions of plats and plans shall be 15 by 20 inches, outside measurement, with a clear margin of at least 1 inch on each side of the drawing, lettering or writing. Plats and plans may be original drawings, or reproductions made by the "ditto process," or by blue or brown line lithoprint, if such reproductions are clear and distinct. (Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.107 Depiction of distillery premises. Plats must show the outer boundaries of the distillery premises by courses and distances, in feet and inches, in a color contrasting with those used for other drawings on the plat, and the point of beginning with respect to its distance and bearings from some near and well-known landmark, and must contain an accurate depiction of the building or buildings comprising the premises and any drive way, public highway or railroad right of way adjacent thereto or connecting therewith. The depiction of the premises shall agree with the description in the notice, Form 27½. If the distillery premises consists of two or more lots or parcels of land the condition of the title to which is not the same, each such lot or tract shall be separately described by courses and distances, in feet and inches, and such lots or parcels shall be delineated or cross-hatched in contrasting colors. If two or more buildings are to be used, the designated name of each shall be indicated, and all pipe lines or other connections, if any, between the same depicted. Where two or more buildings are used for the same purpose the name of each such building shall include an alphabetical designation, beginning with "A," and they shall be so shown on the plat. All first floor exterior doors of each building on the premises will be shown on the plat. Except as provided in § 184.116, all pipe lines leading to or from the premises, the purpose for which used and the points of origin and termination will be indicated on the plat. (Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.110 Floor plans. The plans shall include a floor plan of each floor of each building, showing the general dimensions of the rooms and floors and the location of all doors, windows and other openings and how such openings are protected. All apparatus and equipment, except pipe lines, must be shown in their exact location on the floor plans and their designated use indicated. In the case of stills, tanks and similar equipment, the serial number and capacity shall also be shown. (Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.112 Elevational plans of buildings. The plans shall also include an exterior, elevational view of each exposure of each building showing the type of security afforded the openings. The number of stories and the height of each story will be indicated on the elevational plans. In lieu of drawings, the distiller may submit a photograph of each exposure of each building in a size not smaller than 7 x 9 inches. The photographs must be in sufficient detail to clearly depict the buildings from the ground to the roof and must be properly identified. Where photographs are submitted, drawings must be furnished to show the security afforded the openings in all rooms required to be locked, such as receiving rooms, brandy deposit rooms, etc: Provided, That in lieu of such drawings, the photographs may be noted to show the type of security afforded the openings in such rooms by reference to the appropriate sheet of plans on file, whereon such information is shown. (Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.113 Colors for pipe lines. The pipe lines must be shown on the plans in the colors in which they are required to be painted, as follows:

Black	Brandy or other finished spirits.
Blue	Vapor, singlings, high-wines and low-wines, or other unfinished spirits.
Red	Fermented mash, wine, or other distilling material.
Gray	Must or other unfermented material.
Brown	Slop.
Yellow	Fusel oil.
White	Water.
Aluminum	Steam.
Orange	Air.
Olive green	Carbon dioxide gas.

(Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.117 Elevational flow diagrams. Elevational flow diagrams (plans) shall be submitted covering (a) distilling material system, (b) mashing and fermenting systems, (c) distilling system, and (d) the receiving tank system. Such diagrams or plans shall clearly depict all equipment in its relative operating sequence and elevation by floors with all connecting pipe lines, valves, flanges (except as provided in § 184.114), Government locks, measuring devices, etc. The elevation by floors on the diagrams may be indicated by horizontal lines representing floor levels. All the flow diagrams as a unit must show the flow of the distilling material and the resulting products, through the distilling material tanks, fermenters, sumps, stills, doublers, try boxes and other equipment and the deposit and removal of the finished spirits from the receiving tanks and the brandy deposit room, if any. All major equipment, fermenters, stills, etc., must be identified on these plans as to number and use. The elevational flow diagrams must be so drawn that all fixed pipe lines, except those indicated by § 184.116 may be readily traced from beginning to end. Other types of drawings that clearly depict the information required herein may be submitted in compliance with this section. (Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.118 Certificate of accuracy. The plat and plans shall bear a certificate of accuracy in the lower right hand corner of each sheet signed by the distiller, the draftsman and the district supervisor substantially in the following form:

(Name of distiller)

(Address)

Approved ---
(Date)

(District Supervisor)

Accuracy certified by

(Name and capacity—for the distiller)

(Draftsman)

Fruit Distillery No. ---, 19---. Sheet No. ---.

(Secs. 2816, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.119 Revised plats and plans. The sheets of revised plats and plans shall bear the same number as the sheets superseded but will be given a new date. Any additional plats and plans shall be given a new number in consecutive order or will be otherwise numbered and lettered in such manner as will permit the filing of the plats and plans in proper sequence. (Secs. 2816, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.123 Change in proprietorship—(a) Suspension. • • •

(2) Registry of stills. If the business is to be permanently discontinued, file, Form 26, Registry of Stills, in triplicate, in accordance with § 184.391.

• • • • •

§ 184.128 Changes in premises—(a) Procedure. Where the premises of a fruit distiller are to be extended or curtailed, the distiller must file with the district supervisor an amended notice, Form 27½, and an amended plat of the premises as extended or curtailed, except as herein specifically authorized in the case of alternate operations of the bottling department. If the plans are affected by the extension or curtailment, they must also be amended. If the distillery is within 600 feet of a rectifying plant the distiller must also file a special application in accordance with §§ 184.8 and 184.11. The additional premises covered by an extension may not be used for distillery purposes, and the portion of the distillery premises to be excluded by a curtailment may not be used for other than distillery purposes, prior to approval of the notice, Form 27½. Where an internal revenue bonded warehouse containing a bottling-in-bond department is located on the distillery premises, and the documents required by Part 188 (Regulations 6), governing the alternate operation of the bottling house as a bottling-in-bond department and a tax-paid bottling house are filed, and no change in proprietorship is involved, the filing of additional notices, Form 27½, covering changes in the temporary status thereof from time to time will not be required.

(b) Bond, Form 3–A. In the case of an extension of the distillery premises, if the value of such premises is increased by the addition of land, buildings, equipment, etc., where an indemnity bond has been filed in lieu of consent of the owner or of any encumbrancer, a new or additional indemnity bond on Form 3–A must be filed in accordance with § 184.67d.

(c) Consent, Form 1602. Where the distiller is the owner in fee unencumbered, or has procured the consent of the owner or any encumbrancer, of the premises, and such premises are extended to include additional land, buildings, etc., the distiller, if he is not the owner in fee unencumbered of the extended premises (including buildings, etc.), must procure the consent of the owner or of any encumbrancer of such extended premises, and the buildings, apparatus and equipment thereon, in accordance with § 184.67a, or in lieu thereof, file an indemnity bond on Form 3–A, in accordance with § 184.67d. (Secs. 2812, 2815 (b), 2816, 2819, 2873, 2904, 3170, 3176, 4041, I. R. C.)

§ 184.129 Changes in construction and use. Where a change is to be made in the construction of a room or building not involving an extension or curtailment of the distillery premises, or where a change is to be made in the use of any portion of such premises, the distiller shall first secure approval thereof by the district supervisor pursuant to application, in triplicate, setting forth specifically the proposed changes. Upon approval of the application, the changes will be made under the supervision of a Government officer, unless they are of such a nature as, in the opinion of the district supervisor, do not require such supervision. The completed changes will be reflected in the next amended or annual notice, Form 27½, and amended plans filed by the distiller, unless the district supervisor requires the immediate filing of an amended notice and amended plans. (Secs. 2812, 2816, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.130 Indemnity bond covering changes in buildings. If buildings on the distillery premises, or on premises which have been eliminated from the distillery premises, are to be demolished or altered in such a manner as to decrease the value of the property, and a lien for taxes exists on such property under section 2800 (e), I. R. C., the distiller, if (a) the owner of the fee unencumbered, or (b) consents in accordance with § 184.67a are necessary and have been obtained, must file with the district supervisor an indemnity bond, Form 1617, in triplicate, in a penal sum equal to the decrease in the value of the property: Provided, That, if such decrease in value is less than $1,000, no indemnity bond will be required. (Secs. 2800 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.131 Appraisal. The amount of the decrease in the value of the property subject to the Government's lien which will be caused by the demolition or alteration of buildings shall be determined by appraisal by two or more competent persons designated by the district supervisor. The appraisers shall render to the district supervisor a report, in duplicate, of their appraisal, which shall include information as to the methods employed by them in determining their valuations. The appraisal shall be at the expense of the distiller, unless made by Government officers. The district supervisor may dispense with the formal appraisal when he has reason to believe that the value of the property concerned is less than $1,000. (Secs. 2800 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.133 Indemnity bond covering removal of equipment. If distilling apparatus or equipment on which a lien has attached under section 2800 (e), I. R. C., for taxes on spirits produced which have not been tax-paid or withdrawn for a tax-free purpose, is to be removed from the distillery premises without adding property that will become a fixture in law of an equal or greater value than the apparatus or equipment to be removed, (a) where the distiller is the owner of the premises in fee unencumbered, whether the property is realty or personalty, or (b) where consents in accordance with § 184.67a are necessary and have been obtained, whether the property is realty or personalty, the distiller must file with the district supervisor an indemnity bond on Form 1617, in triplicate. Such bond must be in a penal sum equal to the value of the apparatus or equipment to be removed or equal to the excess in value of the apparatus or equipment to be removed over the value of the property to be substituted therefor: Provided, That if such value or difference in value, as the case may be, is less than $1,000, no indemnity bond will be required. The value of the distilling apparatus or equipment to be removed, or the difference between the value of such old apparatus or equipment and the value of the new property to be added will be determined in the manner prescribed in § 184.131. (Secs. 2800 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.134 Amended notice and plans covering changes in equipment. Upon completion of changes in equipment which materially affect the accuracy of the Form 27½ or plans, the distiller must file an amended notice and amended plans. Where an amended notice and amended plans are not filed immediately upon completion of minor changes in equipment, such as general repairs, changes in pipe lines, or the addition or removal of a tank, the distiller must include such changes in the next amended or annual notice and amended plans to be filed by him: Provided, That, the Commissioner or the district supervisor may, at any time, in his discretion, require the immediate filing of an amended notice and plans covering any change in equipment. (Secs. 2812, 2816, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

(3) Registry of stills. Register the stills on Form 26, in triplicate, in accordance with § 184.391, if not previously registered.

• • • • •

§ 184.139 Where operation of warehouse on premises is continued—(a) Suspension. Where an internal revenue bonded warehouse is located on the fruit distillery premises and the fruit distiller desires to continue to operate the warehouse on such premises while the distillery is operated alternately as a fruit distillery and as a registered distillery or industrial alcohol plant, he must, upon suspension of the fruit distillery, comply with the provisions of § 184.138 (a) (3) and (4), and, in addition thereto, the following requirements:

* * * * *

(b) Resumption. Where operation of the plant as a registered distillery or industrial alcohol plant has been suspended and operation thereof as a fruit distillery is to be resumed, the fruit distiller must comply with the provisions of § 184.138 (b) (4a), (5) and (6), and, in addition thereto, the following requirements:

* * * * *

§ 184.140 Where bonded warehouse is discontinued or eliminated from fruit distillery premises— (a) Suspension. * * *

(b) Resumption. Where operation of the plant as a registered distillery or industrial alcohol plant has been suspended, and operation thereof is to be resumed as a fruit distillery, the fruit distiller must comply with the provisions of § 184.138 (b) (4a), (5) and (6), and, in addition thereto, the following requirements:

* * * * *

§ 184.141 Special application. Where a special application for permission to operate a fruit distillery within 600 feet of a rectifying plant is submitted by the distiller, and such special application conforms to the requirements of these regulations, the district supervisor will cause an inspection to be made to determine whether the proposed operation of the distillery within 600 feet of the rectifying plant may be permitted without jeopardy to the revenue. The inspector will ascertain whether the application accurately describes the relative location of the two premises and all pipe lines and other connections, if any, between such premises. The inspector will also observe the surroundings, including all streets, roads and driveways connecting the two premises, and any condition which might endanger the revenue, and will describe the same in his report. If the district supervisor finds, upon consideration of the inspection report, that the distillery may be operated at the designated location without danger to the revenue, he will note his approval on all copies of the special application. He will then return one copy of the approved application to the applicant, retain the original for his files, and forward the remaining copy, together with a copy of the inspection report, to the Commissioner. Approval of the special application pertains to the location of the distillery only, and does not authorize the operation thereof. The distillery may not be operated until the distiller's bond and other qualifying documents required by law and these regulations have been filed and approved by the Commissioner. If the special application is disapproved, the district supervisor will note his disapproval thereon and will return all copies of such application to the applicant, with advice as to the reason for disapproval. (Secs. 2819, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.141a Indemnity bond application. When an application for permission to file an indemnity bond, Form 3–A, in lieu of the written consent of the owner of the distillery premises or apparatus or equipment, or of any mortgagee, judgment-creditor, lienor, or other person having an encumbrance thereon, or conditional sales vendor, is submitted by the applicant and such application conforms to the requirements of these regulations, the district supervisor will cause an investigation to be made of the facts upon which the application is based, and will designate two or more competent persons to make an appraisal of the value of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, the distillery, the buildings, and the distilling apparatus. The appraisal shall be made as provided in § 184.67f. If the district supervisor finds upon consideration of the appraisal and reports of investigation that under the law and regulations an indemnity bond may properly be accepted in lieu of the consent of the owner or lienor and if he is satisfied that the valuation placed upon the distillery property by the appraisers is fair, he will note his approval on all copies of the application. He will then return one copy of the approved application to the applicant and retain the original for his files. He will forward the remaining copy of the application and copies of the reports of investigation and appraisal to the Commissioner at the time of forwarding the indemnity bond. If the application is disapproved, the district supervisor will note his disapproval thereon and will return all copies of such application to the applicant with a statement of the reasons for disapproval. (Secs. 2815 (b), 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.148 Approval of qualifying documents. If the district supervisor finds, upon completion of his investigation and examination of the inspection report, that the person seeking to qualify as a fruit distiller is qualified to hold a permit and has complied in all respects with the requirements of law and these regulations, and if the notice, Form 27½, bond, Form 30½, and consent, Form 1602, or indemnity bond, Form 3–A, if any, filed in lieu thereof, may properly be approved, he will note his recommendation for approval on all copies of the notice, distiller's bond and consent or indemnity bond (if any), and his approval on all copies of the plat, plans and other qualifying documents, and will forward all copies of the notice, bond, consent or indemnity bond (if any) and the original copy of the plat, plans and other qualifying documents, together with a copy of all inspection reports, to the Commissioner for final action. The original copy of the application for permit will be forwarded to the Commissioner with such qualifying documents. The issuance of a permit should be withheld pending approval by the Commissioner of the notice, bond and other qualifying documents required under the internal revenue laws. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.150 Disposition of qualifying documents. Where notice, Form 27½, bond, Form 30½, and consent, Form 1602 (if any), or indemnity bond, Form 3–A, filed in lieu thereof, are approved by the Commissioner, the district supervisor will, upon receipt of approved copies of such documents from the Commissioner, as provided in § 184.156, forward one copy of the notice, bond, consent or indemnity bond, plat, plans and other qualifying documents and the original copy of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act permit to the distiller and will retain one copy of such qualifying documents for the file of the applicant in his office. If the distiller's bond, consent or indemnity bond is disapproved, the district supervisor will, upon receipt from the Commissioner of the disapproved copies of such documents and other qualifying documents submitted therewith, return all copies of the qualifying documents to the proprietor, with advice as to the reason for disapproval. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.153 Applications and reports covering changes. Where an application covering changes in the distillery apparatus or equipment, or in the construction or use of a room or building, is approved by the district supervisor, he will retain one copy of the application and forward one copy to the distiller and one copy to the Commissioner, and, when reports covering changes in apparatus and equipment are received from Government officers in accordance with § 184.132, he will retain one copy and promptly forward one copy to the Commissioner. Similar disposition will be made of reports received from the distiller covering emergency repairs of distilling apparatus and equipment. Where changes in buildings, apparatus, or equipment are such as to require the filing of an indemnity bond, the district supervisor may approve the application, if he has recommended approval of the bond, and permit the changes in buildings, apparatus or equipment to proceed pending approval of the bond by the Commissioner. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.156 Qualifying documents. The Commissioner will review the notice, Form 27½, plat, plans, bond, Form 30½, consent, Form 1602, if any, or indemnity bond, Form 3–A, filed in lieu thereof, and, other qualifying documents, including application for Federal Alcohol Administration Act permit, upon their receipt from the district supervisor. If the Commissioner approves the construction and equipment of the distillery and the notice, plat, plans, distiller's bond, consent or indemnity bond, if any, and other qualifying documents, he will assign a registry number to the fruit distillery in accordance with the provisions of § 184.157, note his approval on all copies of the distiller's bond, consent or indemnity bond, and notice, retain one copy of the distiller's bond, consent or indemnity bond, and notice and all copies of the other qualifying documents, and will return two copies of the approved distiller's bond, consent or indemnity bond, and notice, to the district supervisor with advice as to his action on the qualifying documents. If the Commissioner disapproves the distiller's bond, he will note his disapproval thereon and will return all copies thereof to the district supervisor, accompanied by the other qualifying documents submitted therewith, and a statement of the reasons for disapproval of the bond. (Secs. 2814, 2815 (b), 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.246 Rate of tax. The law imposes a tax on distilled spirits produced in or imported into the United States at the rate prescribed therein on each proof gallon or wine gallon when below proof and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon, to be paid when withdrawn from bond. (Secs. 2800 (a), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 184.391 Registry on Form 26. Every person having in his possession or custody or under his control any still or distilling apparatus that is set up, must register the same on Form 26, in triplicate, with the district supervisor for the district in which it is located. Stills to be used for the production of various types of distilled spirits may be registered for "distilled spirits" and the specific type need not be shown. Thereafter, when the plant is changed from the production of one type of spirits to another, reregistration by the same distiller will not be required. The temporary suspension of a distillery does not necessitate reregistration of the stills. The operation of a distillery by alternating proprietors, where no permanent change in ownership occurs, does not require reregistration of the stills by the proprietors. When there is a change in location or use or a bona fide change in ownership of a still, the still must be registered to reflect the change. The district supervisor will, upon approving the registration of a still on Form 26, retain one copy, forward one copy to the Commissioner and return the remaining copy to the distiller. The distiller will retain his copy at the distillery available for inspection by Government officers. (Secs. 2810, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

Chapter VII—Sugar Rationing Administration, Department of Agriculture

[Gen. Order 9, Amdt. 1]

PART 705—ADMINISTRATION

PRESERVATION OF RECORDS WITH RESPECT TO PRICE CONTROL OF SUGAR

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by the Sugar Control Extension Act of 1947, General Order 9, issued by the Acting Secretary of Agriculture on July 30, 1947 (12 F. R. 5279) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 705.109 Preservation of records with respect to price control of sugar. (a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) hereof, all persons shall preserve for examination by the Department of Agriculture, until October 31, 1950, all records, documents, reports, books, accounts, invoices, sales lists, sales slips, orders, vouchers, contracts, receipts, bills of lading, correspondence, memoranda, and other papers, and drafts and copies thereof, which were required to be made or kept on March 31, 1947, with respect to price control of sugar by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, the Sugar Control Extension Act of 1947, or by any regulation, order or other document issued thereunder by the Price Administrator, Office of Price Administration, the Temporary Controls Administrator, Office of Temporary Controls, or by the Secretary of Agriculture.

(b) The requirements of this general order shall apply only to those persons falling within the following categories:

(1) All persons who are parties to pending civil or criminal litigation under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, the Sugar Control Extension Act of 1947, or any regulation, order, or other document issued thereunder by the Price Administrator, Office of Price Administration, the Temporary Controls Administrator, Office of Temporary Controls, or the Secretary of Agriculture.

(2) All persons who have received any subsidy payment, premium payment, or other payment from any agency or instrumentality of the United States pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, the Sugar Control Extension Act of 1947, or any regulation, order, or other document issued thereunder, or who have a pending claim or intend to file a claim for any such payment from any agency or instrumentality of the United States pursuant to such laws or regulations.

(3) All persons who have engaged in the sale of sugar or service in connection therewith to the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, under a price adjustment provision pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(c) Definitions. When used in this section, the term:

(1) "Person" shall have the same meaning as in the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) "Sugar" shall have the same meaning as in the Sugar Control Extension Act of 1947. (Pub. Law 30, 80th Cong.)

This order shall become effective 12:01 a. m. e. s. t., November 1, 1948.

NOTE: The record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 22d day of October 1948.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter C—National Wildlife Refuges; Individual Regulations

PART 22—MOUNTAIN REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

FORT PECK GAME RANGE, MONTANA; DEER HUNTING

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observations and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service, the Bureau of Land Management, and the Montana Fish and Game Commission it has been determined that the population of deer on the Fort Peck Game Range is in excess of the available habitat for such animals and that, compatible with good wildlife management, the removal of the excess of the herd can best be accomplished by public hunting in accordance with the State laws.

A new section is added as follows:

§ 22.311 Fort Peck Game Range, Montana; deer hunting. Deer may be taken in accordance with the laws and regulations of the State of Montana on such lands of the United States within the Fort Peck Game Range as may be mutually determined after a joint annual examination of the Range by representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service and of the Montana Fish and Game Commission, subject to the following special provisions, conditions, restrictions, and requirements:

(a) Area open to hunting. The part or parts of the Fort Peck Game Range that are are open to the hunting of deer each year shall be designated by suitable posting by the officer in charge of the Range.

(b) Entry. Entry on and use of the Range for any purpose are governed by the provisions of Parts 12 and 16 of this chapter, and strict compliance therewith is required.

(c) State hunting laws. Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required, and any person who hunts on the Range must have in his possession, and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer, a valid State hunting license and a special permit issued by the State authorizing him to hunt on the area. Such State license and permit will serve as a Federal permit for entry on the Range for the purpose of hunting.

(d) State cooperation. State cooperation may be enlisted in the regulation, management, and operation of the public hunting area, and the State may promulgate such special regulations as may be necessary for such regulation, management, and operation. In the event such State regulations are issued, compliance therewith shall be a requisite to lawful entry for the purpose of hunting. PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 935]

HANDLING OF MILK IN OMAHA-COUNCIL BLUFFS MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et sec.), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Omaha-Council Bluffs marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1844, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 10th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, was formulated was conducted at Omaha, Nebraska, on June 29, 1948, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued on June 22, 1948 (13 F. R. 3485).

The material issues on the record related to (1) increasing the Class I and Class II differentials, (2) basing the Class I and Class II prices on manufacturing values during the preceding month, (3) eliminating the condensery paying price as a basis for pricing Class I milk and Class II milk, (4) revising the list of condenseries whose prices are used in determining Class I and Class II prices, (5) separate pricing and pooling of milk according to grade, (6) special pricing for milk and cream sold outside the marketing area, and (7) changing the basis of pricing from 3.8 percent butterfat to 3.5 percent butterfat.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on these issues are based upon the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record pertaining thereto.

(1) The Class I differential for milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat should remain at 75 cents during the months of January, February, and March, but should be changed to 60 cents during April, May, and June, and to $1.00 per hundredweight during the remaining months of each year. The price per hundredweight of butterfat in Class I should remain at $15.00 over the value of butterfat in Class III during the months of January, February, and March, but should be changed to $12.00 over the Class III butterfat value during April, May, and June, and to $20.00 over the Class III butterfat value during the remaining months of each year.

The Class II differential for milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat should be increased from 40 cents to 75 cents during the months of January, February, and March, to 60 cents during April, May, and June, and to $1.00 during the remaining months of each year. The price per hundredweight of butterfat in Class II should remain at $15.00 over the value of the butterfat in Class III during the months of January, February, and March, but should be changed to $12.00 over the Class III butterfat value in April, May, and June, and to $20.00 over the Class III butterfat value during the remaining months of each year.

It is necessary that action be taken to arrest the decline in the number of producers and to encourage greater production in the fall months. The proposed differentials will provide an average yearly increase in price sufficient to maintain the present producers on the market, while the seasonality provided will tend to shift production from spring to fall months.

A review of the market statistics shows that there has been a substantial decline in the number of producers on the market during the past year, the number dropping from a high of 2,764 in May 1947 to a low of 2,168 in April 1948. The number of producers in May 1948 shows some increase over April 1948. The differentials must be fixed at a level which will prevent any further decline in the number of producers.

The Omaha-Council Bluffs market lies in a diversified farm area and producers can shift readily from dairying to other farm enterprises as they become more profitable. In recent months the production of beef, hogs, and cash grains has been relatively more favorable than milk production. The price of cows for slaughter has been at an all time high. These factors, together with a tightening up of the local health regulations, have been responsible for the decline in producer numbers. The increase in differentials is necessary to bring the price of milk into a more favorable relationship with competing agricultural enterprises and to prevent any further loss in producers.

The market statistics also show a need for levelling out production. In 1947 producer receipts in May were 16,531,614 pounds, nearly twice as great as November receipts of only 8,616,737 pounds. May production was approximately 8,000,000 pounds of the market needs for Class I milk and Class II milk, November production falled by about 20,000 pounds of meeting the Class I and Class II requirements on a volume basis. While the record does not contain figures on receipts and disposition of butterfat, it is apparent from the figures on volume that the market was short of enough butterfat to meet its requirements during the months of October, November, and December, and had far more butterfat than was needed during the spring months of flush production.

Even with the decrease in producer numbers that has taken place within the past year, production in May 1948 was far in excess of the market's requirements, more than 35 percent of the receipts being utilized in Class III.

Market stability requires that part of the milk causing the burdensome spring surplus be shifted to the fall months when it is needed in the market. If producers are to be induced to take the measures necessary to increase fall production, such as fall freshening of cows, better fall pasture, better feeding, etc., the spread between spring and fall prices must be widened. To provide the necessary seasonality in prices, the Class I differential should be reduced to 60 cents during April, May, and June, and to $1.00 during the months of July through December. No change should be made in the differential for the months of January, February, and March.

In order to maintain the established ratio between the prices of skim milk and butterfat, the differential on butterfat in Class I should be decreased from $15.00 to $12.00 per hundredweight during April, May, and June, and increased to $20.00 during the months of July through December. No change should be made for the months of January, February, and March.

The price of skim milk in Class II should be raised to the same level as that for skim milk in Class I by increasing the differential for Class II milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat from 40 cents to the levels proposed for Class I milk. Butterfat in Class II milk is priced the same as butterfat in Class I under the present order. The only product in Class II is cream. Under the local health ordinance milk for use in cream must be of the same quality and meet the same requirements as milk for consumption as whole milk. Therefore the skim milk as well as the butterfat in cream should be priced the same as skim milk and butterfat disposed of for consumption as whole milk.

The differentials for Class II milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat and for butterfat in Class II should follow exactly the same seasonal pattern as the Class I differentials and for the same reason.

The producers' association proposed that the Class I and Class II differentials be increased to $1.00 during the months of March through August and to $1.45 during all other months for all delivery periods prior to March 1, 1950, and that on that date they be reduced 25 cents. In support of its proposal, the witness for the proponent dwelt upon the fact that the market was short of milk and had lost a substantial number of producers during the year. While the decline in producers has been very substantial it appears that if the present number of producers is maintained, it is sufficient to supply the market with ample milk at all times if the production pattern can be altered seasonally. Increases in the amount requested by the association are not necessary to furnish the market a sufficient supply of milk.

That part of the association proposal providing for a decrease in the differentials on March 1, 1950, was intended to apply only in the event the requested differentials for the intervening delivery periods were granted. It would be difficult to produce evidence currently available which would justify a change in the differential at such a future date. The evidence fails to justify a change in differentials at any specific period in the future.

(2) The Class I and Class II prices should be based on manufacturing values during the preceding month.

Under the present order the Class I and Class II prices are based on the higher of either (1) the average paid by a specified group of condenseries during the preceding delivery period or (2) the Class III price (based on market values of butter and nonfat dry milk solids) during the current delivery period. Condensery prices specified in the order are not available in time to permit pricing on the current delivery period. A system of alterative basic prices should be comparable in terms of the period of time covered.

(3) The condensery paying price should be retained as an alternative for pricing Class I and Class II milk.

The weight of the evidence does not justify eliminating the condensery paying price as an alternative to butter and nonfat dry milk solids as a basis for pricing Class I and Class II milk. It was contended by the proponents of the proposal to delete the condensery paying price that butter and nonfat dry milk solids were the principal outlets for surplus milk in the Omaha market, and that the condensery paying price was subject to wide fluctuations which would in turn result in wide variations in the Class I and Class II prices. A comparison of the butter nonfat dry milk solids price with the condensery price for milk of 3.8 percent butterfat for the period January 1947 to May 1948 reveals that during that period the average fluctuation in the butter nonfat dry milk solids price was greater than the average change in the condensery price. For the 17 month period the average monthly change in the butter nonfat dry milk solids price amounted to approximately 20 cents while the average monthly change in the condensery price was approximately 16 cents. The greatest change noted in the butter nonfat dry milk solids price was from October 1947 to November 1947 when the price changed from $3.69 to $4.27, a fluctuation of 58 cents. The widest variation in the condensery paying price occurred from November 1947 to December 1947, when the price increased from $4.08 to $4.43, a variation of 35 cents.

While it is true that butter and nonfat dry milk solids are the principal manufacturing outlets for surplus milk in the market, that fact alone does not constitute sufficient reason for making them the sole basis for pricing Class I and Class II milk in the market.

(4) The list of condenseries whose prices are used in determining Class I and Class II prices should not be revised.

It was proposed that the plants at Morrison, Illinois, and Shullsburg, Wisconsin, be stricken from the list and plants at Rochester, Minnesota, and Coffeyville, Kansas, be substituted for them. It was contended that the latter plants were more nearly competitive with the Omaha market, and that paying prices at these plants were closer to the prices paid in the vicinity of Omaha. The record does not indicate that the prices determined on the basis of the present list of plants did not reflect the value of milk used for manufacture.

(5) Separate pooling by grade should not be established.

It was proposed that standard milk and the milk of the highest quality defined in the ordinances of the local health authorities be priced and pooled separately. The testimony with respect to the grades of milk defined in the ordinances is confusing and provides no basis on which action might be taken.

(6) A special price should not be fixed for milk and cream sold outside the marketing area.

Proponents of this proposal requested that the price of milk and cream sold outside the marketing area be fixed at 25 cents over the Class III price (50 cents lower than the present Class I price). It was the contention of their witness that this price concession was necessary if they were to compete in these outside markets. Market figures show that this type of sale has continued to expand even though milk sold outside is priced the same as milk sold within the marketing area.

It would be economically unsound to fix a lower price on such sales. As pointed out above Omaha is a relatively short market except during the flush months. The testimony clearly shows that the proposal has not been advanced as a means of disposing of seasonal surplus, but that handlers hope to expand their sales permanently over a large area through a reduction in price. It does not appear that sufficient milk will be produced during the fall months to warrant an expansion of this type of business and if such sales are made producers should receive the marketing area price. To grant a price reduction on such sales would in effect result in the consumers in the marketing area subsidizing those consumers outside the area. Any sizable volume of such sales would reduce the uniform price substantially and producers would undoubtedly request a further increase in Class I and Class II prices to maintain adequate returns to producers. It is concluded that milk sold outside the marketing area must be priced the same as milk sold within the marketing area.

(7) Class prices should continue to be computed on the basis of milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat.

Apparently the sole purpose of the proposal to change the basic butterfat test from 3.8 percent to 3.5 percent was to reduce the price of Class I and Class II milk whenever the condensery paying price was used as the basic price for Class I and Class II milk. Converting the condensery paying price from 3.5 percent to 3.8 percent butterfat by the direct ratio method results in a slightly higher price than would result from adding the value of 3 points of butterfat at the butterfat differential to the value of milk of 3.5 percent butterfat. The direct ratio method is the method of conversion generally used by the plants on which the price is based. The fact that the change would result in a slight reduction in price during those delivery periods in which the condensery paying price was higher than the butter non fat dry milk solids formula does not constitute sufficient grounds for changing the basic test.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs were filed on behalf of Roberts Dairy Company and the Nebraska-Iowa Non-Stock Cooperative Milk Association. The briefs contain statements of fact, conclusions and arguments with respect to the provisions of the proposed amendments. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered along with the evidence in the record in making the findings and reaching the conclusions hereinbefore set forth. To the extent that the findings and conclusions proposed in the briefs are inconsistent with the proposed findings and conclusions contained herein, the request to make such findings or to reach such conclusions is denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions in this decision.

Recommended marketing agreement and amendment to the order. The following amendment to the order, as amended, is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be identical with those contained in the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended.

1. Delete paragraph (a) of § 935.5 and substitute therefor the following:

(a) Basic price to be used in computing Class I and Class II prices. The basic price to be used in computing the minimum prices per hundredweight for Class I milk and Class II milk for each delivery period shall be the higher of the prices computed pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) The average of the basic or field prices reported to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the preceding delivery period at the following plants for which prices are reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture, divided by 3.5, and multiplied by 3.8 and adjusted to the nearest cent:

Present Operator of Plant and Location of Plant

Amboy Milk Products Co., Amboy, Ill.
Borden Co., Dixon, Ill.
Borden Co., Sterling, Ill.
Carnation Co., Morrison, Ill.
Carnation Co., Northfield, Minn.

Dean Milk Co., Pearl City, Ill.
Dean Milk Co., Pecatonica, Ill.
Fort Dodge Creamery Co., Fort Dodge, Ia.
Pet Milk Co., Shullsburg, Wis.
United Milk Products Co., Argo Fay, Ill.

(2) The price computed pursuant to paragraph (b) (3) of this section for the preceding delivery period for Class III milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat.

2. Delete paragraph (b) of § 935.5 and substitute therefor the following:

(b) Class prices. Each handler shall pay at the time and in the manner set forth in § 935.7 not less than the prices set forth in this paragraph for skim milk and butterfat in producer milk received during the delivery period at such handler's plant.

(1) Class I. The price per hundredweight of Class I milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat shall be the basic price computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section plus 75 cents during the months of January, February, and March; plus 60 cents during the months of April, May, and June; and plus $1.00 during all other months of each year.

(i) The price per hundredweight of butterfat in Class I milk shall be computed by adding to the price computed pursuant to subparagraph (3) (i) of this paragraph $15.00 during January, February, and March; $12.00 during April, May, and June; and $20.00 during all other months of each year.

(ii) The price per hundredweight of skim milk in Class I milk shall be computed by (a) multiplying by 0.038 the price computed pursuant to subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, (b) subtracting the result from the price computed pursuant to this subparagraph for Class I milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat, (c) dividing the result by 0.962, and (d) adjusting to the nearest cent.

(2) Class II. The price per hundredweight of Class II milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat shall be the basic price computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section plus 75 cents during the months of January, February, and March; plus 60 cents during the months of April, May, and June; and plus $1.00 during all other months of each year.

(i) The price per hundredweight of butterfat in Class II milk shall be computed by adding to the price computed pursuant to subparagraph (3) (i) of this paragraph $15.00 during January, February, and March; $12.00 during April, May, and June; and $20.00 during all other months of each year.

(ii) The price per hundredweight of skim milk in Class II milk shall be computed by (a) multiplying by 0.038 the price computed pursuant to subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, (b) subtracting the result from the price computed pursuant to this subparagraph for Class II milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat, (c) dividing the result by 0.962, and (d) adjusting to the nearest cent.

(3) Class III. The price per hundredweight of Class III milk containing 3.8 percent butterfat shall be that computed by multiplying by 3.8 the price computed pursuant to subdivision (i) (c) of this subparagraph and adding thereto the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (ii) (a) of this subparagraph.

(i) The price per hundredweight of butterfat in Class III milk shall be computed by (a) multiplying by 1.25 the average of the prices per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period in which such milk was received, (b) subtracting 5 cents, (c) adjusting to the nearest cent, and (d) multiplying the result by 100.

(ii) The price per hundredweight of skim milk in Class III milk shall be computed by (a) adding to 21 cents, 3 cents for each full one-half cent that the price of non fat dry milk solids for human consumption is above 7 cents per pound, (b) dividing the resulting sum by 0.962, and (c) adjusting to the nearest cent. The price per pound of non fat dry milk solids to be used shall be the arithmetical average of the carlot prices, both spray and roller process, for human consumption delivered at Chicago, as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period, including in such average the quotations for any part of the preceding delivery period which were not published and available for the determination of the price of such non fat dry milk solids for the previous delivery period. In the event the Department of Agriculture does not publish carlot prices for non fat dry milk solids for human consumption delivered at Chicago, the average of the carlot prices for non fat dry milk solids for human consumption f. o. b. manufacturing plants as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the Chicago area shall be used, and 3 cents shall be added for each full one-half cent that the latter price is above 6 cents per pound.

HANDLING OF MILK IN SIOUX CITY, IOWA, MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq.), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Sioux City, Iowa, marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1844, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 10th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, was formulated was conducted at Sioux City, Iowa, on July 1, 1948, after the issuance of notice on June 23, 1948 (13 F. R. 3544).

The material issues on the record related to (1) increasing the Class I and Class II differentials, (2) revising the classes of utilization by including the skim milk and butterfat disposed of as skim milk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, and buttermilk in Class I milk and the skim milk and butterfat disposed of in aerated cream and eggnog in Class II milk, (3) using the manufacturing value of milk during the current delivery period as a basis for pricing Class I milk and Class II milk, (4) eliminating the condensery paying price as a basis for pricing Class I milk and Class II milk, (5) revising the list of condenseries whose paying prices are used as a basis for pricing Class I milk and Class II milk, and (6) separate classification and pricing for milk and cream sold outside the marketing area.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on these issues are based upon the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record pertaining thereto.

(1) The Class I differential should remain at 80 cents during the months of April, May, June, and July and should be changed to $1.00 per hundredweight during all other months of each year. The price per hundredweight for butterfat in Class I milk should remain at $16.00 over the Class III butterfat value during the months of April, May, June, and July and should be changed to $20.00 over the Class III value during all other months of each year.

The Class II differential should be changed from 50 cents to 80 cents during the months of April, May, June, and July and to $1.00 per hundredweight during all other months of each year. The price per hundredweight for butterfat in Class II milk should remain at $16.00 over the Class III butterfat value during the months of April, May, June, and July and should be changed to $20.00 over the Class III value during all other months of each year.

The market statistics show that since June 1947 there has been a decrease each month from the corresponding month of the previous year in the number of producers. Since July 1947 there has been a decrease each month from the corresponding month of the previous year in the total amount of milk delivered by producers and with the exception of October and November 1947 and April 1948 in the average daily delivery per producer.

There is need for more even production of milk. June 1947 deliveries were 132,815 pounds above June 1946 deliveries while November 1947 deliveries were 57,745 pounds below November 1946 deliveries. November 1946 deliveries were 63.72 percent of June 1946 deliveries while November 1947 deliveries were 59.47 percent of June 1947 deliveries. Producer receipts were insufficient to meet the Class I and Class II requirements of the market during the fall and winter months while more milk than was needed was delivered by producers during the flush months.

In order to induce producers to take the necessary steps to even out production, such as better fall pasture, more fall freshening of cows, better feeding in the fall and winter, the Class I and Class II differentials should be increased during the months of short production.

The Sioux City milk shed is in an area of diversified farming and farmers can and do shift readily from dairying to other types of farming when the returns appear to justify such shifting.

Recently the returns from grain farming and livestock production seem to have become more attractive to milk producers. The increase in the differentials will bring the returns from milk more into line with those of other farm enterprises and will prevent further decrease in the milk supply.

In order to maintain the established ratio between the prices of skim milk and butterfat, the differential on butterfat in Class I should be increased from $16.00 to $20.00 during the months of August to March, inclusive.

The price of skim milk in Class II should be raised to the same level as that for skim milk in Class I by increasing the differential for Class II milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat from 50 cents to the levels proposed for the differential for Class I milk.

The principal item in Class II is cream. Skim milk and butterfat used to produce cream must meet the same sanitary requirements of the health authorities as that used for consumption as whole milk. Butterfat in Class II milk is priced under the present order the same as that in Class I milk and skim milk in Class II milk also should be priced the same as that in Class I milk.

The differentials for Class II milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat and for butterfat in Class II should follow the same seasonal pattern as the Class I differentials and for the same reason.

The proposal of the producers' association was to increase the Class I and Class II differentials to $1.00 during the months of April to July, inclusive, and to $1.40 per hundredweight during all other months of each year, except beginning on April 1 of each year following that in which the total milk delivered by producers during the delivery periods of September, October, and November exceeded 115 percent of the combined Class I and Class II utilization such differentials should be lowered to 80 cents and $1.00 during the respective periods mentioned heretofore. The proposal included a proviso that the price of skim milk and of butterfat during any of the delivery periods of September, October, November, or December should not be lower than the respective price for the immediately preceding delivery period and during any of the delivery periods of March, April, May, or June should not be higher than the respective price for the immediately preceding delivery period.

Definite showing of the need for the amount of increase requested was not made. The differentials set forth herein should check the decrease in the amount of milk delivered by producers and should result in a levelling off of production. The evidence with respect to the percentage of producer milk in Class III before the differentials were to be changed was vague and there was no showing as to when such conditions might be expected to be met. It appears more appropriate to permit the differentials herein set forth to be subject to change when economic factors other than those mentioned by the proponents would seem to warrant it.

The purpose of the proviso as stated by the witness for the proponent was to provide the proper seasonal trend. Testimony on this proviso was meager. In view of the time lag resulting from the use of the preceding delivery period for computing the manufacturing value represented in Class I and Class II prices, it seems inadvisable to apply an additional stricture upon the influence of manufacturing values on such prices.

(2) Skim milk and butterfat disposed of for consumption in the form of skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, and flavored milk drinks should be classified in Class I and eggnog and aerated cream should be classified in Class II.

Skim milk and butterfat disposed of for consumption in the form of skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, and flavored milk drinks must be produced under the same conditions as skim milk and butterfat disposed of for consumption as whole milk. This skim milk and butterfat is classified in Class III under the present order. Other products in Class III may be made from milk which does not meet the same health requirements as that used for consumption as whole milk.

Eggnog and aerated cream are not mentioned in the present order. So far as known there has been no problem arising from this fact and it is believed no aerated cream is sold in the market.

Both products are made from cream. The consumer may buy the cream and make the product or buy the product ready made. The skim milk and butterfat in cream are appropriately included in Class II milk and the skim milk and butterfat in aerated cream and eggnog should also be included in Class II milk.

(3) The Class I and Class II prices should be based on manufacturing values during the preceding month.

The present order provides for Class I and Class II prices to be based upon the higher of (i) the average price paid by a selected list of condenseries during the preceding delivery period, or (ii) the value of butter and non-fat dry milk solids during the current delivery period.

Basing prices on the manufacturing values of the current month is impractical because of the improbability of securing a report of the prices paid by the listed condenseries by the time the market administrator must announce the class prices. Since the price periods for which alternative basic prices are provided should be comparable, butter and non-fat dry milk solid values for the preceding delivery period should be used.

(4) The average of the prices paid by the specified condenseries should be retained as an alternative basis for pricing Class I and Class II milk.

The proponents of the proposal to delete the condensery paying price alleged that such price does not reflect competitive conditions in the Sioux City area and frequently results in too high a price. They contended that butter and non-fat dry milk solids are the products principally made in manufacturing plants in the general midwestern markets and should be the sole basis for determining prices in the Sioux City market. Use of the butter nonfat dry milk solids price only, would result in a slight decrease in the yearly average of the basic price. A lowering of the basic price would necessitate an increase in the differential as the present prices have not brought enough milk to the market.

(5) The list of condenseries whose prices are used in the determination of the Class I and Class II prices should not be revised.

It was proposed that the plants of the Pet Milk Company at Shullsburg, Wisconsin, and of Libby, McNeill and Libby at Morrison, Illinois, be deleted from the list of condenseries and the plants of the Rochester Dairy Company at Rochester, Minnesota, and of the Page Milk Company at Coffeyville, Kansas, be substituted for them.

The reason advanced for the change was that the plants to be substituted were more competitive with plants in the Sioux City area than those now listed. It was also stated that the prices paid by the two plants now listed were somewhat higher than those paid by the plants proposed to be substituted. This substitution of plants would lower the basic price and require an increase in the differential in order to assure enough milk coming to the market and thus would not give the proponent the desired lower cost of Class I and Class II milk.

(6) Separate classification and pricing for milk and cream sold outside the marketing area should not be included in the order.

The proposal was to classify milk and cream sold outside the area in a separate class and to price it 25 cents per hundredweight over the present Class III price. The purpose was to purchase milk and cream for outside sales at less than the present prices. No purpose would be served in supplying milk or cream to outlying areas at a price lower than that of milk and cream sold within the marketing area at a time when there is a shortage of milk.

General findings. (a). The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs were filed on behalf of Roberts Dairy Company and the Sioux City Milk Producers' Association. The briefs contain statements of fact, conclusions and arguments with respect to the provisions of the proposed amendments. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered along with the evidence in the record in making the findings and reaching the conclusions hereinbefore set forth. To the extent that the findings and conclusions proposed in the briefs are inconsistent with the proposed findings and conclusions contained herein, the request to make such findings or to reach such conclusions is denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions in this decision.

Recommended marketing agreement and amendment to the order. The following amendment to the order, as amended, is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement is not repeated in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be identical with the following:

1. Delete § 948.4 (b) (1) (i) and substitute therefor the following:

(i) Disposed of in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk and flavored milk drinks; and

2. Delete § 948.4 (b) (2) and substitute therefor the following:

(2) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat disposed of as cream, either sweet or sour, including any mixture of skim milk and butterfat containing more than 6 percent butterfat, for consumption in fluid form, aerated cream, and eggnog.

3. Delete § 948.4 (b) (3) and substitute therefor the following:

(3) Class III milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat specifically accounted for as:

(i) Used for animal feed;

(ii) Used to produce any milk product other than those specified in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph; and

(iii) Actual plant shrinkage up to, but not in excess of 2 percent, respectively, of the total receipts of skim milk or butterfat in producer milk and other source milk not including receipts from other handlers.

4. Delete § 948.5 (a) and (b) and substitute therefor the following:

(a) Basic price to be used in computing class prices. The basic price to be used in computing the minimum prices per hundredweight for Class I milk, and Class II milk, for each delivery period shall be the higher of the prices calculated by the market administrator pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph for the preceding delivery period.

(1) The average, adjusted to the nearest cent, of the basic (or field) prices reported to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the delivery period at the following plants for which prices are reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture:

Present Operator of Plant	Location of Plant
Amboy Milk Products Co.	Amboy, Ill.
Borden Co.	Dixon, Ill.
Borden Co.	Sterling, Ill.
Carnation Co.	Morrison, Ill.
Carnation Co.	Northfield, Minn.
Carnation Co.	Oregon, Ill.
Carnation Co.	Waverly, Iowa.
Dean Milk Co.	Pearl City, Ill.
Dean Milk Co.	Pecatonica, Ill.
Fort Dodge Creamery Co.	Fort Dodge, Iowa.
Pet Milk Co.	Shullsburg, Wis.
United Milk Products Co.	Argo Fay, Ill.

(2) The price, adjusted to the nearest cent, calculated by the market administrator as follows: (i) Multiply by 1.25 the average of the prices per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period in which such milk was received, (ii) subtract 5 cents, (iii) multiply by 3.5, (iv) add 21 cents, and (v) add 3 cents for each full one-half cent that the price of non fat dry milk solids is above 7 cents per pound. The price per pound of non fat dry milk solids to be used shall be the arithmetical average of the carlot prices, both spray and roller process, for human consumption delivered at Chicago, as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period, including in such average the quotations for any part of the preceding delivery period which were not published and available for the determination of the price of such non fat dry milk solids for the previous delivery period. In the event the Department of Agriculture does not publish carlot prices for non fat dry milk solids for human consumption delivered at Chicago, the average of carlot prices for non fat dry milk solids for human consumption f. o. b. manufacturing plant as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the Chicago area, shall be used, and 3 cents shall be added for each full one-half cent that the latter price is above 6 cents per pound.

(b) Class prices. Each handler shall pay at the time and in the manner set forth in § 948.7 not less than the prices set forth in this paragraph for skim milk and butterfat in producer milk received during the delivery period at such handler's plant.

(1) Class I. The price per hundredweight for Class I milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat shall be the basic price computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section plus 80 cents during the months of April, May, June, and July and plus $1.00 during all other months of each year:

(i) The price per hundredweight for butterfat in Class I milk shall be computed by adding to the price computed pursuant to subparagraph (3) (i) of this paragraph for the preceding delivery period $16.00 during the months of April, May, June, and July and $20.00 during all other months of each year; and

(ii) The price per hundredweight for skim milk in Class I milk shall be computed by (a) multiplying by 0.035 the price computed pursuant to subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, (b) subtracting the result from the price computed pursuant to this subparagraph for Class I milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat, (c) dividing the result by 0.965, and (d) adjusting to the nearest cent.

(2) Class II. The price per hundredweight for Class II milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat shall be the basic price computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section plus 80 cents during the months of April, May, June, and July and plus $1.00 during all other months of each year:

(i) The price per hundredweight for butterfat in Class II milk shall be computed by adding to the price computed pursuant to subparagraph (3) (i) of this paragraph for the preceding delivery period $16.00 during the months of April, May, June, and July and $20.00 during all other months of each year; and

(ii) The price per hundredweight for skim milk in Class II milk shall be computed by (a) multiplying by 0.035 the price computed pursuant to subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, (b) subtracting the result from the price computed pursuant to this subparagraph for Class II milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat, (c) dividing the result by 0.965, and (d) adjusting to the nearest cent.

(3) Class III. The price per hundredweight for Class III milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat shall be the price computed pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of this section for the preceding delivery period or the price computed pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) of this section for the current delivery period, whichever is higher:

(i) The price per hundredweight for butterfat in Class III milk shall be computed by (a) multiplying by 1.25 the average of the prices per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the delivery period in which such milk was received, (b) subtracting 5 cents, (c) adjusting to the nearest cent and (d) multiplying the result by 100, and

(ii) The price per hundredweight for skim milk in Class III milk shall be computed by (a) multiplying by 0.035 the price computed pursuant to subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, (b) subtracting the result from the price computed pursuant to this paragraph for Class III milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat, (c) dividing the result by 0.965, and (d) adjusting to the nearest cent.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. G-854, G-962]

ATLANTIC SEABOARD CORP. ET AL.

ORDER FIXING NEW DATE OF HEARING IN REOPENED PROCEEDINGS

OCTOBER 22, 1948.

In the matters of Atlantic Seaboard Corporation and Virginia Gas Transmission Corporation Docket No. G-854; Tennessee Gas Transmission Company, Docket No. G-962.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) On August 27, 1948, the Commission found due and timely execution of its functions imperatively and unavoidably required it to omit the intermediate decision procedure and render final decision in the above-entitled proceedings, and ordered the omission of such intermediate decision procedure in accordance with the provisions of § 1.30 (c) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(b) On September 29, 1948, in an order reopening proceedings for the purpose of taking additional evidence, the Commission upon consideration of the entire record refused to grant, at that time, a certificate of public convenience and necessity under section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended; concluded that the Applicant, Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Tennessee Company) should be afforded further opportunity to submit, in further hearings in these proceedings, additional evidence with respect to gas supply, transportation from the Southwest to the Appalachian areas of the Chicago-Manufacturers contract gas and such other evidence as will meet minimum requirements which the Commission held an Applicant must meet to entitle it to a certificate; and expressed the intention that if the further showing by the Tennessee Company was satisfactory, to issue "forthwith" a certificate. In its order of September 29, 1948, the Commission provided that further hearings in the above-entitled consolidated proceedings be held commencing on January 5, 1949, for the specific purpose of receiving additional evidence:

(i) Showing that Applicant Tennessee Company has commitments for a supply of natural gas reasonably adequate to meet its contractual obligations to its customers and the demands that it is reasonable to assume will be made upon it upon completion of the proposed enlarged system;

(ii) Showing satisfactory arrangements for the transportation of the Chicago-Manufacturers contract gas to the Appalachian area compatible with the public interest; and

(iii) With respect to any other matters pertinent to the issues presented in these proceedings.

The said order provided that the date for hearing might be advanced by the Commission upon 10 days' notice if the Tennessee Company requested earlier opportunity to go forward with the presentation of further evidence upon the pertinent issues.

(c) On October 21, 1948, the Tennessee Company filed its motion requesting that the Commission advance the date for hearing herein for the purpose of receiving additional evidence with respect to the matters referred to in paragraph (b) (ii) above and with respect to the issuance forthwith of a certificate for a portion of the facilities applied for in Docket No. G-962, namely: approximately 338.3 miles of 30-inch, 329.7 miles of 26-inch and 86.4 miles of 24-inch main natural gas transmission pipe-line loops along the Tennessee Company's existing system, approximately 27,200 H. P. of compression in its existing or authorized compressor stations, and its so-called Chesterville and Bay City lateral (approximately 71 miles of 16-inch, 5.5 miles of 8⅝-inch and 9 miles of 6⅝-inch) transmission pipe lines, at a total estimated cost of approximately $65,462,013, which facilities may hereinafter be referred to as "G-962—A facilities," and the other facilities subject of the amended application by the Tennessee Company, as "G-962-B facilities." In said motion the Tennessee Company requests that after such further hearing the Commission forthwith issue a certificate for the G-962-A facilities, deferring until a later hearing the matter of a certificate for the G-962-B facilities.

(d) In the said motion of October 21, 1948, the Tennessee Company requests that it be afforded an opportunity to go forward at the earliest possible date with a presentation of additional evidence on the matter of issuance of a certificate to construct and operate the G-962—A facilities referred to in paragraph (c) above, stating that the Company has at the present time a substantial construction force engaged in the completion of facilities previously authorized by the Commission, which force can be utilized without interruption and a continuous construction program carried forward if the Tennessee Company is permitted to commence the construction of the facilities herein involved at an early date. It also states it has commitments for steel pipe calling for delivery in November 1948 and continuously thereafter of which it will be able to take delivery if early authorization for the G-962—A facilities is obtained. The Company further states in the motion that it is its intention and purpose to go forward with the presentation of further evidence in the hearing now scheduled to be held commencing on January 5, 1949.

(e) There is a public need, demand and market for the increased volume of 340,000 Mcf per day of natural gas proposed to be supplied by the Tennessee Company in Docket No. G-962. Early and expeditious action is required so that final decision may be rendered at the earliest possible time permitted by the applicable statutes and law. In the circumstances here, it is imperative that the intermediate decision procedure be omitted and that the Commission forthwith consider and dispose of these proceedings. The due and timely discharge of its functions under the Natural Gas Act so requires. Failure so to act may adversely affect gas consumers and the public generally in the several states affected by these proceedings.

Upon consideration of the foregoing, the aforesaid motion of October 21, 1948, and the record herein, and taking notice of the Commission's findings and orders heretofore entered herein, the Commission finds that:

(1) It is in the public interest and appropriate for carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, that further hearings in the above-entitled consolidated proceedings be held as hereinafter ordered.

(2) Due and timely execution of its functions imperatively and unavoidably requires that the Commission omit the intermediate decision procedure and forthwith render final decision in the above-entitled proceedings, particularly with respect to the matters involved and the issues presented by the motion filed October 21, 1948, by the Tennessee Company.

(3) Good cause exists for providing opportunity for the filing of supplemental briefs and/or proposed findings and conclusions with supporting reasons therefor, as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission, therefore, orders that:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by the Natural Gas Act, as amended, particularly sections 7, 15 and 16 thereof, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, further hearings in the above-entitled consolidated proceedings be held commencing on November 3, 1948, at 10:00 a. m. (e. s. t.) in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., for the specific purpose of receiving additional evidence with respect to:

(i) Satisfactory arrangements for the transportation of the Chicago-Manufacturers contract gas to the Appalachian area compatible with the public interest.

(ii) The issuance of a certificate of public convenience and necessity to authorize the construction and operation of a part of the facilities subject to the pending amended application in Docket No. G-962, as requested by the aforesaid motion of October 21, 1948, which facilities have been referred to hereinbefore as the "G-962-A facilities."

(iii) Any other matters pertinent to the issues presented in the above-entitled consolidated proceedings.

(B) The intermediate decision procedure in these proceedings be omitted, as has heretofore been ordered.

(C) Upon completion of the receipt of such additional evidence, the record thereof shall forthwith be certified to the Commission and supplemental briefs and/or proposed findings and conclusions with supporting reasons therefor may be filed within 10 days thereafter for Commission consideration unless otherwise ordered.

(D) Interested State commissions and interveners may participate in such further hearing in these proceedings, as provided by the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and in accordance with leave as granted by the Commission.

Date of issuance: October 22, 1948.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[Docket No. G-1058]

PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE CO.

ORDER POSTPONING DATE OF HEARING

OCTOBER 22, 1948.

By order issued on October 6, 1948, the date for hearing of the application on the above-designated docket was set for October 26, 1948, and on October 21, 1948, the Applicant requested that postponement be made in the hearing to a date 15 days after October 26, 1948.

It appears to the Commission that: Good cause exists for a postponement of the hearing of the application in the aforesaid docket.

The Commission, therefore, orders that:

(A) The hearing of the application in the above-designated docket ordered for October 26, 1948, be postponed and the hearing in this matter be held on November 15, 1948, at 10:00 a. m., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: October 22, 1948.

BRAZOS RIVER CONSERVATION AND RECLAMATION DISTRICT AND BRAZOS RIVER TRANSMISSION ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, INC.

ORDER FIXING DATE FOR FURTHER HEARING

OCTOBER 22, 1948.

In the matter of Brazos River Conservation and Reclamation District and Brazos River Transmission Electric Cooperative, Inc., Complainant, v. Brazos River Conservation and Reclamation District, Defendant, Project No. 1490, Docket No. E-6118.

Upon consideration of the request filed October 21, 1948, by Brazos River Transmission Electric Cooperative, Inc., that the reopened proceedings in this matter, postponed by order dated October 13, 1948, be set for further hearing, upon the grounds that no agreement has been reached between the parties as contemplated by the order of October 13, 1948;

The Commission orders that: A further hearing be held in the above-entitled proceedings commencing November 4, 1948 at 10:00 a. m. (e. s. t.) in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., for the purpose of enabling the staff of the Commission to present further evidence and to permit the submission of evidence in rebuttal thereto.

Date of issuance: October 22, 1948.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[S. O. 833]

UNLOADING OF LUMBER AT PORTLAND, OREG.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of October A. D. 1948.

It appearing, that 4 cars of lumber at Portland, Oreg., are on hand on Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway Company, for an unreasonable length of time and that this delay in unloading such cars impedes their use; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action: It is ordered, that:

(a) Lumber at Portland, Oreg., be unloaded. The Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway Company, its agents or employees, shall unload immediately the following cars now on hand at Portland, Oreg., consigned for export:

Wab	47420
CB&Q	12735
B&O	274269
NP	20440

(b) Demurrage. No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall charge or demand or collect or receive any demurrage or storage charges for the detention under load of any car specified in paragraph (a) of this order, for the detention period commencing at 7:00 a. m., October 25, 1948, and continuing until the actual unloading of said car or cars is completed.

(c) Provisions suspended. The operation of any or all rules, regulations or practices, insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order, is hereby suspended.

(d) Notice and expiration. Said carrier shall notify the Director, Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., when it has completed the unloading required by paragraph (a) hereof, and such notice shall specify when, where, and by whom such unloading was performed. Upon receipt of that notice this order shall expire.

It is further ordered, that this order shall become effective immediately; that a copy of this order and direction be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

ROOT PETROLEUM CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of October A. D. 1948.

NOV 2 '48

The New York Curb Exchange, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1(b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to strike from listing and registration the common stock, $1.00 par value, of Root Petroleum Company.

The reasons for striking this security from registration and listing on this exchange that are stated in the application are: (1) Prior to December 17, 1947 Pan American Petroleum Corporation purchased from the largest single stockholder of Root Petroleum Company and from his family approximately 132,000 shares of the $1.00 par value common stock at $25.00 per share, and it also purchased from other stockholders additional shares until it had become the owner of a majority of the outstanding shares of Root Petroleum Company; (2) Pan American Petroleum Corporation extended offers to all the remaining stockholders of Root Petroleum Company to purchase their shares at $25.00 per share, which offers were extended or renewed until June 30, 1948; (3) as of July 2, 1948 the number of shares of common stock of Root Petroleum Company held by stockholders other than Pan American Petroleum Corporation was reduced to 6,508, distributed among 83 stockholders; and (4) the number of shares remaining outstanding in the hands of the public has become so reduced as to make inadvisable further dealings in this security on the applicant exchange.

Appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing have been given to interested persons and the public generally. No request has been received from any interested person for a hearing in this matter. The rules of the New York Curb Exchange with respect to striking a security from registration and listing have been complied with.

The Commission having considered the facts stated in the application, and having due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors;

It is ordered, That the application of the New York Curb Exchange to strike the common stock, $1.00 par value, of Root Petroleum Company from registration and listing be, and the same is, hereby granted, effective at the close of the trading session on November 16, 1948.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of October A. D. 1948.

The Board of Trade of the City of Chicago, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to strike from listing and registration the common stock, $1.00 par value, of Root Petroleum Company.

The reasons for striking this security from registration and listing on this exchange that are stated in the application are: (1) Prior to December 17, 1947 Pan American Petroleum Corporation purchased from the largest single stockholder of Root Petroleum Company and from his family approximately 132,000 shares of the $1.00 par value common stock at $25.00 per share, and it also purchased from other stockholders additional shares until it had become the owner of a majority of the outstanding shares of Root Petroleum Company; (2) Pan American Petroleum Corporation extended offers to all the remaining stockholders of Root Petroleum Company to purchase their shares at $25.00 per share, which offers were extended or renewed until June 30, 1948; (3) as of July 2, 1948 the number of shares of common stock of Root Petroleum Company held by stockholders other than Pan American Petroleum Corporation was reduced to approximately 6,000, distributed among 83 stockholders; (4) the number of shares remaining outstanding in the hands of the public has become so reduced as to make inadvisable further dealings in this security on the applicant exchange; and (5) the Board of Trade of the City of Chicago suspended the common stock, par value $1.00, of Root Petroleum Company from dealings on the Board of Trade of the City of Chicago at the close of business on June 30, 1948.

Appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing have been given to interested persons and the public generally. No request has been received from any interested person for a hearing in this matter. The rules of the Board of Trade of the City of Chicago with respect to striking a security from registration and listing have been complied with.

The Commission having considered the facts stated in the application, and having due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors;

It is ordered, That the application of the Board of Trade of the City of Chicago to strike the common stock, $1.00 par value, of Root Petroleum Company from registration and listing be, and the same is, hereby granted, effective at the close of the trading session on November 16, 1948.

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of October A. D. 1948.

The New York Stock Exchange, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to strike from listing and registration the First and Refunding Mortgage Sinking Fund Bonds 5% Series of 1924 due February 1, 1954, 1964, and 1974, issued by The Lehigh Valley Coal Company, and assumed by its successor, Lehigh Valley Coal Company.

The reasons for striking this security from registration and listing on this exchange that are stated in the application are: (1) The Lehigh Valley Coal Company presented to holders of the above security a plan providing for their consent to the postponement of 75% of interest maturing February 1 and August 1, 1939, until February 1, 1944, to the modification of sinking fund provisions and certain other matters; (2) as bondholders consented to this proposal of issuer, their bonds were deposited and stamped to indicate their assent to the plan, and thereupon returned to depositors; (3) the latest report of the Company to the Exchange indicates that $335,000 face amount of the above security had not been stamped to show the acceptance of the plan; (4) the amount of unstamped bonds remaining outstanding has been so reduced as to make further dealings in this security on the Exchange inadvisable; and (5) dealing in the unstamped bonds on the Exchange was suspended at the opening of the trading session on May 25, 1948.

Appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing have been given to interested persons and the public generally. No request has been received from any interested person for a hearing in this matter. The rules of the New York Stock Exchange with respect to striking a security from registration and listing have been complied with.

The Commission having considered the facts stated in the application, and having due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors;

It is ordered, That the application of the New York Stock Exchange to strike the unstamped First and Refunding Mortgage Sinking Fund Bonds 5% Series of 1924 due February 1, 1954, 1964, and 1974, issued by The Lehigh Valley Coal Company, and assumed by its successor, Lehigh Valley Coal Company, from registration and listing be, and the same is, hereby granted, effective at the close of the trading session on November 17, 1948.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10013

ESTABLISHING THE PRESIDENT'S COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS AND MORAL WELFARE AND CHARACTER GUIDANCE IN THE ARMED FORCES

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the statutes, and as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the armed forces, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Government to encourage and promote the religious, moral, and recreational welfare and character guidance of persons in the armed forces and thereby to enhance the military preparedness and security of the Nation.

2. There is hereby established the President's Committee on Religious and Moral Welfare and Character Guidance in the Armed Forces, which shall be composed of one representative of the National Military Establishment designated by the Secretary of Defense, one representative of the Federal Security Agency designated by the Federal Security Administrator, and not less than seven other members who shall be appointed by the President. The President shall designate one of the members of the Committee as Chairman thereof.

3. The Committee shall consider means of effectuating the policy set forth in paragraph 1 hereof through maximum feasible reliance upon facilities and services now existing in the fields of work concerned, confer and advise with the Secretary of Defense and the Secretaries of the Army, Navy, and Air Force with respect to such means, appraise the work being done toward the effectuation of the said policy, and make such recommendations to the President and the said Secretaries as it shall deem appropriate.

4. Agencies of the Government are requested to cooperate with the Committee and to furnish it such available information as it may require for the performance of its duties.

5. The National Military Establishment and the Federal Security Agency shall defray such necessary expenses of the Committee as may be authorized by law, including section 214 of the Independent Offices Appropriation Act, 1946 (59 Stat. 134, 31 U. S. C. 691).

TITLE 4—ACCOUNTS

Chapter I—General Accounting Office

PART 4—ACCOUNTS AND CLAIMS

OCTOBER 27, 1948.

Part 4 is revised to read as follows:

Sec.
4.1 Accounts and claims; transmission to the General Accounting Office; notification to claimants.
4.2 Filing of claims.
4.3 Information relating to claims.
4.4 Settlement of claims.

AUTHORITY: §§ 4.1 to 4.4 issued under secs. 309, 311 (f), 42 Stat. 25; 31 U. S. C. 49, 52 (f).

§ 4.1 Accounts and claims; transmission to the General Accounting Office; notification to claimants. No payments involving a doubtful question of law or fact shall be hereafter made by any disbursing officer or agent of the United States except pursuant to specific statutory authority or by direction given in accordance with the provisions of the Budget and Accounting Act, 1921 (42 Stat. 20), to which reference must appear on the voucher covering such payment, and all such doubtful accounts or claims should be promptly transmitted or returned to the General Accounting Office complete with all material papers, administrative report in detail with recommendations, and quoting official title of available appropriation or fund, for direct settlement. Claimants should be briefly informed of such transmittal to the General Accounting Office, where jurisdiction is exclusive unless and until presented to a court of competent jurisdiction or to the Congress, and there should be no further administrative action other than such supplemental reports to the General Accounting Office as conditions may warrant as it may tend to complicate matters rather than aid the expediting of final action. § 4.2 Filing of claims. Claims may be filed with the Claims Division, General Accounting Office, Washington 25, D. C., or if the claims pertain to postal matters with the Postal Accounts Division, General Accounting Office, Asheville, N. C. No particular form for filing claims, except that prescribed in connection with claims for amounts due deceased persons, is required.

§ 4.3 Information relating to claims. Information relating to claims may be obtained by claimants or their authorized representatives by addressing the General Accounting Office, 5th and F Streets NW., Washington 25, D. C. Interviews will be accorded claimants or their authorized representatives at Room 201, at the same address.

§ 4.4 Settlement of claims. The settlement of claims is based upon the written record only and oral presentation of fact or law is not acceptable as a substitute. Claims are settled on the basis of the facts as established by reports of the Government office concerned and by evidence submitted by the claimant. The settlement of claims is founded on a determination of the legal liability of the United States under the factual situation involved as established by such reports. The burden is on claimants to prove their claims and matters incident thereto requisite to establishing the clear liability of the United States and claimants' rights to payment.

PART 6—CHECKS AND WARRANTS

Part 6 is revised to read as follows:

Sec.
6.1 Checks and warrants which should be forwarded to the Comptroller General of the United States.
6.2 Evidence required; warrants and checks containing error in name or designation of original payee.
6.3 Evidence required; deceased and incompetent payees.

AUTHORITY: §§ 6.1 to 6.3, inclusive, issued under secs. 309, 311 (f), 42 Stat. 25; 31 U. S. C. 49, 52 (f).

§ 6.1 Checks and warrants which should be forwarded to the Comptroller General of the United States. Warrants, checks drawn by the Treasurer of the United States upon warrants, and checks drawn by disbursing officers or agents of the United States, which cannot be paid because of death of original payee, disqualification, or error in name or designation of, should be forwarded to the Comptroller General of the United States, General Accounting Office, Washington 25, D. C., without alteration or correction, for authorization for payment to the party ascertained to be entitled to the proceeds of the warrant or check upon its indorsement by such party in the usual manner.

§ 6.2 Evidence required; warrants and checks containing error in name or designation of original payee. Such evidence as will satisfactorily establish the correct name or designation of the payee for the purposes of the payment as differentiated from the alleged erroneous one appearing on the face of the warrant or check shall be furnished.

§ 6.3 Evidence required; deceased and incompetent payees.

NOTE: Provisions covering evidence required; deceased and incompetent payees, are contained in Part 5 of this chapter.

PART 24—FORMAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FOR APPOINTMENT TO CERTAIN SCIENTIFIC, TECHNICAL, AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. The following sections are hereby revoked: § 24.4 Consultant in education, all grades; § 24.18 Office of Education; § 24.25 Educational Consultant, Grades P–7 and P–8, Army Air Forces; § 24.58 Educational Specialist, Air University, Army Air Forces, Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Alabama, P–210–0 (all grades); § 24.59 Educational Consultant, Civil Aeronautics Administration, P–210–4 and 5.

2. The following section is hereby added:

§ 24.95 Educational Specialist, P–210–0, all grades—(a) Educational requirement. Applicants must have completed a full four-year course in an accredited college or university, which must have included or been supplemented by major study in education or in the particular field in which the duties as a specialist are to be performed.

(b) Duties. Educational specialists advise officials of school systems and community groups concerning technical phases of educational programs; conduct research and provide assistance in planning curriculum content and methods of teaching; and advise local officials in the application of approved educational methods for their individual school and community. These duties vary in nature and responsibility with the field and grade of the position.

(c) Knowledge and training requisite for performance of duties. The duties to be performed require knowledge or training in research, teaching, or administration of educational programs and a thorough knowledge of one or more specialized fields of vocational, general, or cultural subjects; comprehensive grasp of the written materials related to the specialized field; ability to impart this knowledge both formally and informally; and an understanding of the relationship of special fields of knowledge to the needs of the school and community as a whole. This knowledge can be gained only through directed training in an accredited college or university. By such training the student, under competent instructors, is guided in his reading and evaluation of the literature, which is so voluminous that an individual cannot master it on his own initiative or by random study. The student has access to libraries and laboratories; is given opportunity to observe materials and methods of devising and implementing educational programs; and, in a controlled and supervised setting, can experiment for himself under professional guidance.

PART 256—COTTON LOANS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The 1948 Cotton Loan Instructions (1948 C. C. C. Cotton Form 1) (13 F. R. 4338), as amended, are hereby further amended as follows:

1. Paragraph (b) (8) and paragraph (c) of § 256.221 are amended to read as follows:

§ 256.221 Definitions. • • •
(b) Eligible cotton. • • •
(8) The person tendering such cotton for a loan must not have previously executed and delivered, with respect to such cotton, a Form A Cotton Producer's Note (C. C. C. Cotton Form E), or Producer's Warranty and Agreement (1948 C. C. C. Cotton Form G–2) and must not have previously sold and repurchased such cotton.

• • • • •

(c) Approved lending agency. An approved lending agency shall be any bank, corporation, partnership, association, or person, with which CCC has entered into a Cotton Lending Agency Agreement (C. C. C. Cotton Form DW) in the States of California and Arizona or a Lending Agency Agreement (C. C. C. Cotton Form D) in any State, covering loans on 1948 crop cotton. Organizations desiring to enter into such agreements should communicate with the PMA Commodity Office, Production and Marketing Administration, Masonic Temple Building, New Orleans 12, Louisiana (hereinafter referred to as the New Orleans Office).

2. Paragraph (a) of § 256.235 is amended by striking the title and inserting in lieu thereof "Form D", and paragraph (b) of § 256.235 is amended by striking the title and inserting in lieu thereof "Form DW".

3. The last sentence of § 256.236 is amended to read as follows:

§ 256.236 Custodial offices. • • • Federal Reserve Bank, Los Angeles, California, in the case of lending agencies which have entered into lending Agency Agreements (C. C. C. Cotton Form D) with CCC; the lending agency which made the loan or, if the note is purchased by CCC, the New Orleans Office, in the case of lending agencies which have entered into Cotton Lending Agency Agreements (C. C. C. Cotton Form DW): California and Arizona.

4. Section 256.237 is amended by striking the title of paragraphs (a) and (b) thereof and by revising the second sentence thereof to read as follows:

§ 256.237 Repayments. • • • Repayments of loans shall be made under paragraph (a) if the lending agency which made the loan entered into a Lending Agency Agreement (C. C. C. Cotton Form D) with CCC or shall be made under paragraph (b) if the lending agency which made the loan entered into a Cotton Lending Agency Agreement (C. C. C. Cotton Form DW) with CCC.

5. Section 256.241 is added to read as follows:

§ 256.241 Farm storage loans. Loans will also be made available to eligible producers on eligible cotton stored in approved farm structures and off-the-farm structures. Producers desiring to obtain such loans should communicate directly with the county committee in the county where the cotton is to be stored. The provisions of §§ 256.221 to 256.237, inclusive, and § 256.240, applicable to loans on warehouse stored cotton, will also be applicable to loans made under this section, except as follows:

(a) Instead of being represented by warehouse receipts as provided in paragraph (b) (2) of § 256.221, eligible cotton must be covered by a Cotton Chattel Mortgage (C. C. C. Cotton Form F) and a 1948 Cotton Mortgage Supplement (1948 C. C. C. Cotton Form FF) which will give the payee of the Cotton Producer's Note (C. C. C. Cotton Form E) secured by such mortgage a first lien on such cotton.

(b) Producers must deliver in connection with every loan:

(1) A Cotton Producer's Note meeting the requirements specified for Form A in paragraph (a) of § 256.222.

(2) A Cotton Chattel Mortgage covering the cotton tendered for the loan.

The words "American-Egyptian cotton" must be conspicuously stamped or typed at the top of each such form representing American-Egyptian cotton.

(c) The base loan rate for each county is shown in the Schedule of Base Loan Rates by Counties for Farm-Stored Cotton at the end of these Instructions.

(d) The county committees will administer the program in the counties. Producers desiring to obtain loans should communicate with the county committee in the county in which the cotton is to be stored. The county committee will inspect the storage structure and approve it if it determines that it is of such construction as to afford adequate storage for the cotton. The county committee will collect a service fee of $1.00 per bale, with a minimum of $3.00 per loan, from the producer to cover the cost of services rendered under the program.

(e) Producers may obtain the necessary loan forms from the county committees. The county committees will assist producers in the preparation of the loan documents and will collect fees at the rates shown in the schedule in § 256.227 for such services. Each Cotton Producer's Note must be approved by the county committee and the member signing such form in the space provided certifies that the producer is, to the best of the committee's knowledge and belief, eligible for a loan on the cotton.

(f) A deposit of $1.00 per bale will be collected from the producer to guarantee delivery of the cotton in the event the loan is not repaid by the producer. This deposit will be refunded to the producer if the loan is repaid or the cotton is delivered in accordance with the provisions of the Cotton Mortgage Supplement.

(g) The List of Lienholders and Lienholders' Waiver on the Cotton Mortgage Supplement shall be completed in the manner specified in § 256.228.

(h) The cotton must be classified by a Board of Cotton Examiners as provided in § 256.230, except that samples will be drawn by the county committee and forwarded to the Board for classification where the producer does not have a Form 1 Classification Memorandum. A charge of 20 cents per bale will be collected from the producer on all such cotton from which samples are submitted for classification except cotton from which samples are submitted for Form 1 classification.

(i) Where the producer does not own the premises where the cotton is stored and his lease on such premises expires prior to September 30, 1949, the owner must execute the Consent for Storage on the Cotton Mortgage Supplement. Any other tenant who has a right or interest in the premises must also execute the Consent for Storage.

(j) If the producer is listed on the county debt register as indebted to the United States or any agency or corporation thereof, he shall designate such agency or corporation as the payee of the proceeds of the loan to the extent of such indebtedness, but not to exceed that portion of the proceeds remaining after deduction of fees and amounts due prior lienholders. Indebtedness owing to CCC shall be given first consideration after claims of prior lienholders.

(k) Loans may be obtained from approved lending agencies, which may sell the notes to CCC, or directly from CCC. Where a loan is obtained from a lending agency, the lending agency shall execute the Payee's Certificate and Endorsement on the Cotton Producer's Note. The lending agency may carry its investment in the loan and receive interest at the rate of 1½ percent per annum. Where the producer desires to obtain a loan directly from CCC, the county committee will forward the loan documents for the producer.

(l) The producer will be responsible for any loss or damage occurring as a result of his fault or negligence or as a result of any cause other than fire, flood, lightning, explosion, windstorm, cyclone, or tornado, except that he will not be responsible for loss in weight of not to exceed 10 pounds which is due to natural shrinkage. The conversion or unlawful disposition of any bale of the cotton will render the producer personally liable for the payment of the mortgage indebtedness.

(m) If the producer does not repay his loan on maturity, he is required to deliver the cotton in accordance with the provisions of the Cotton Mortgage Supplement. If the cotton is not delivered by the producer, the holder of the note may enter on the premises where the cotton is stored and remove the cotton. Upon such delivery or removal, the holder may dispose of the cotton in accordance with the provisions of § 256.226.

(n) In the event CCC becomes the holder of the note, it will, upon delivery of the cotton in accordance with the Cotton Mortgage Supplement, make a storage payment to the producer at the rate of 10 cents a bale for each month or fraction thereof between the date of disbursement of the proceeds of the note and the maturity of the note, provided the producer has not made a misrepresentation or converted any bale of the cotton.

(o) Cotton Producer's Notes evidencing loans under this section shall be tendered to CCC by the lending agencies in the manner specified in § 256.235 for tender of Form A notes, except that the Cotton Chattel Mortgages securing the notes shall be attached instead of warehouse receipts.

(p) The custodian office for all farm stored cotton shall be the New Orleans Office.

(q) If a producer desires to repay his loan and obtain the release of the cotton, he may obtain complete instructions from the county committee for the county in which the cotton is stored. Partial releases will be allowed.

[1948 Cotton Loan Instructions, Supp. 3]

PART 256—COTTON LOANS

LOANS ON BILLS OF LADING

The 1948 Cotton Loan Instructions (1948 C. C. C. Cotton Form 1) (13 F. R. 4338), as amended, are hereby further amended by adding § 256.242 to read as follows:

§ 256.242 Loans on bills of lading. Loans will also be made available to eligible producers on eligible cotton represented by bills of lading evidencing shipment of the cotton by the producers to warehouses where storage space is available. Such loans will be available only in areas specified by CCC where there is a shortage of storage space and where necessary arrangments may be made with the railroads. The provisions of §§ 256.221 to 256.237, inclusive, and 256.240, applicable to loans on warehouse stored cotton will also be applicable to loans under this section, except as follows:

(a) Instead of being represented by warehouse receipts as provided in paragraph (b) (2) of § 256.221, eligible cotton must be represented by bills of lading complying with the provisions of this section, and such bills of lading shall be delivered by producers in connection with every loan, instead of warehouse receipts as provided in paragraph (b) of § 256.222.

(b) Cotton will be eligible for a loan under this section at the full loan rate at the shipping point only when it is shipped by an approved receiving agency as agent for the producer. Warehousemen, ginners, and other responsible parties in areas where such loans are available may be approved to act as receiving agencies by the New Orleans Office. Receiving agencies will enter into Receiving Agency Agreements with CCC. When receiving agencies are approved, notification will be given by letter or published lists.

(c) A producer who is unable to find storage space in his local area and who wishes to obtain a loan under this section should deliver his cotton to a receiving agency with the request that it ship the cotton as agent for the producer to a warehouse where storage space is available. The receiving agency will complete the Schedule of Pledged Cotton on a Form A and, if it is a warehouseman, will execute the Warehouseman's Certificate and Storage Agreement thereon. If the receiving agency is not a warehouseman, it will have the cotton weighed by a public or licensed weigher and will secure a Weight and Condition Certificate in the form prescribed by CCC. The receiving agency will ship the cotton, secure order notify bills of lading in a form acceptable to CCC, and deliver the bills of lading, Forms A, and Weight and Condition Certificates (if any) to the producer. Transportation costs will be charged against the cotton. If the receiving agency is a warehouseman, it will be permitted to collect fees in accordance with the Warehouseman's Certificate and Storage Agreement and a fee of not to exceed 10 cents a bale to cover the cost of preparation of shipping documents. If the receiving agency is not a warehouseman, it will be permitted to collect a fee not to exceed the fee set forth in the Receiving Agency Agreement executed by the receiving agency and shall post, in a conspicuous place, the fee to be charged producers.

(d) CCC will pay warehouse storage charges on cotton tendered by the producer for a loan under this section, where the receiving agency is a warehouseman.

(e) The cotton must be classified by a Board of Cotton Examiners as provided in § 256.230, except that samples will be drawn by the receiving agency and submitted to the Board for classification where the producer does not have a Form 1 Classification Memorandum. A charge of 20 cents per bale shall be collected from the producer and paid to the Board of Cotton Examiners for all cotton from which samples are submitted for classification, except cotton from which samples are submitted for Form 1 classification.

(f) The receiving agency shall type or stamp at the top of each Form A which it prepares the following: "Wherever the term 'warehouse receipts' occurs in the Producer's Note or in the Loan Agreement, it shall be read and construed as 'bills of lading'."

(g) Forms A evidencing loans under this section shall be tendered to CCC by the lending agencies in the manner specified in § 256.235, except that the bills of lading representing the cotton (and Weight and Condition Certificates if the receiving agency was not a warehouseman) shall be attached instead of warehouse receipts, and notes secured by bills of lading and notes secured by warehouse receipts shall be listed on separate Forms C.

(h) Repayment of loans and release of the loan documents shall be made in accordance with the provisions of § 256.237. (Sec. 302, 52 Stat. 43, as amended, sec. 8, 56 Stat. 767, as amended, sec. 4 (a), 55 Stat. 498, as amended, sec. 1 (b), 62 Stat. 1247, 62 Stat. 1070; 7 U. S. C. 1302, 50 U. S. C. App. 968, 15 U. S. C. 713a–8 (a))

[1948 C. C. C. Dry Edible Bean Bulletin 1, Amdt. 1]

PART 276—DRY BEAN LOAN AND PURCHASE AGREEMENTS

1948 DRY EDIBLE BEAN PRICE SUPPORT PROGRAM

The bulletin issued by Commodity Credit Corporation and the Production and Marketing Administration, published in 13 F. R. 5256, containing the requirements of the 1948 dry edible bean price support program, is amended as follows:

1. Under § 276.202 Availability of loans and purchases, paragraph (a) Area is amended to include the state of Kansas in the area in which loans and purchase agreements will be available to producers.

2. Under § 276.208 Determination of quantity under loan, the first sentence is revised to read as follows: "Loans shall be made on the basis of sound beans except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section."

3. Paragraph (b) Warehouse—stored, is amended by substituting a comma for the period at the end of the paragraph and adding the following: "except that the quantity shall be the net weight of beans when the warehouse receipt or supplemental certificate shows a grade of U. S. No. 2 or better, and the warehouseman guarantees both grade and quantity."

4. Under § 276.212 Loan and settlement rates, paragraph (a) Loan rate, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Loan rate. (1) On beans stored in approved warehouses which are evidenced by warehouse receipt(s) under which the warehouseman guarantees both grade and quantity, loans will be made at rates equal to the settlement rates specified in paragraph (b) of this section, provided the beans grade U. S. No. 2 or better and the producer has paid all charges against the beans through April 30, 1949, including processing, bags, bagging, storage, freight, and loading-out charges, or directs the payment of such charges from the proceeds of the loan.

(2) The loan rate for all other eligible beans shall be $5.00 per 100 pounds of sound beans.

5. Paragraph (b) Settlement rate, is amended by adding the following paragraph at the end of the paragraph:

If beans are stored in transit in an approved warehouse, the producer shall be credited at the time of settlement with the value to CCC of the transit billing as determined by CCC.

(Sec. 4 (a), 55 Stat. 498, as amended, sec. 1 (b), Pub. Law 897, 80th Cong., sec. 5 (a), Pub. Law 806, 80th Cong.; 15 U. S. C. 713 a–8 (a))

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter I—Production and Marketing Administration (Standards, Inspections, Marketing Practices)

PART 29—TOBACCO INSPECTION

DESIGNATION OF WEST JEFFERSON, N. C., TOBACCO MARKET

Upon a referendum conducted, pursuant to prior notice (13 F. R. 5495), during the period October 5 through October 7, 1948, among tobacco growers who, during the 1947 marketing season, sold tobacco at auction on the market at West Jefferson, North Carolina, it is found that more than two-thirds of the growers voting in such referendum favor the designation of such market under section 5 of the Tobacco Inspection Act (49 Stat. 731; 7 U. S. C. 511 et seq.) for the mandatory inspection and certification of tobacco sold on such market. Therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture, and for the purposes of said act, the orders of designation of tobacco markets (7 CFR Cum. Supp., 29.301; 9 F. R. 11571; 10 F. R. 11104; 11 F. R. 7967; 11 F. R. 8712; 11 F. R. 13099; 12 F. R. 4015; 13 F. R. 2579; 13 F. R. 2963; and 13 F. R. 4498) are amended by adding thereto at the end thereof the following paragraph (ff):

§ 29.301 Designation of tobacco markets. * * *

(ff) The tobacco market at West Jefferson, North Carolina. Effective 30 days after October 29, 1948, no tobacco of any type shall be offered for sale at auction on the market at West Jefferson, North Carolina, until such tobacco shall have been inspected and certified by an authorized representative of the U. S. Department of Agriculture according to standards established under the Tobacco Inspection Act (49 Stat. 731; 7 U. S. C. 511 et seq.): Provided, however, That such requirement of inspection and certification may be suspended at any time when it is found impracticable to provide inspection or when the quantity of tobacco available for inspection is not sufficient to justify the cost of such service. No fee or charge shall be imposed or collected for the inspection and certification of tobacco sold or offered for sale at auction on the market designated above.

Issued this 25th day of October 1948.

[1] Present §§ 63.51–63.53, are in process of rescission by the Secretary of State.

New Parts 1–100 will comprise Subchapter A of Chapter I: The Department.

New Parts 101 et seq. will comprise Subchapter B of Chapter I: The Foreign Service.

The codification of old Parts 1 and 3, entitled respectively "Functions and Organization" and "Procedure", has been discontinued. Future amendments of such material will appear in the notice section of the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The part numbers of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations issued hereafter by the Secreary of State, will conform with the new numbers assigned herein.

This regulation will become effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Approved: October 25, 1948.

For the Acting Secretary of State.

[SEAL] JOHN E. PEURIFOY,
Assistant Secretary.

DISCONTINUANCE OF CODIFICATION OF CERTAIN PARTS

EDITORIAL NOTE: Codification of the following parts or sections is discontinued:

1. Part 59—Visas, Diplomatic: Reentry into the United States.

2. Sections 63.1–63.6 of Part 63—Visas: Documentation of Aliens Entering the United States as Seamen or Airmen.

3. Part 67—Visas: Documents Required of Aliens Entering the Philippine Islands.

4. Part 70—Trade Agreements; Public Notice and Presentation of Views (formerly Part 55).

[Departmental Reg. 108.78]

PART 5—BOOKS, MAPS, NEWSPAPERS, ETC.

Under authority contained in R. S. 161 (5 U. S. C. 22), present Part 5 (old Part 11) of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended to read as follows.

§ 5.1 Purchase. The purchase by the Department of State of books, maps, newspapers, periodicals, and other publications shall be made without regard to the provisions of the act approved March 3, 1933 (sec. 2, 47 Stat. 1520; 41 U. S. C. 10a), since determination has been made by the Secretary, as permitted by the provisions of the act, that such purchase is inconsistent with the public interest. (R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22)

This part shall become effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Approved: October 25, 1948.

For the Acting Secretary of State.

[Departmental Reg. 108.79]

PART 7—COMPLAINT AGAINST AN EMPLOYEE BY AN ALLEGED CREDITOR

Under authority contained in R. S. 161 (5 U. S. C. 22), present Part 7 (old Part 16) of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec.
7.1 No cognizance taken of complaint.
7.2 Claimants denied access to employees.

§ 7.1 No cognizance taken of complaint. The Department of State will take no cognizance of a complaint against an employee by an alleged creditor, so far as the complainant is concerned, beyond acknowledging receipt of his communication. (R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22)

§ 7.2 Claimants denied access to employees. Persons claiming to be creditors or collectors of debts or claims will be denied access to employees for the purpose of presenting or collecting claims during the hours set apart for the transaction of public business or while the employees concerned are on duty. (R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22)

Approved: October 25, 1948.

For the Acting Secretary of State.

[Departmental Reg. 108.80]

PART 9—DEPOSIT OF FUNDS

Under authority contained in R. S. 161 (5 U. S. C. 22), and pursuant to Order of the Secretary of the Treasury, approved by the President February 21, 1934, and Executive Orders 6166 of June 10, 1933, 6224 of July 27, 1933, and 6540 of December 28, 1933 (5 U. S. C. 132 note), Part 9 (old Part 25) of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 9.1 Checks made payable to the Secretary of State. In all cases where the Department of State requests that funds be deposited with it in connection with letters rogatory, taking of testimony, payment for cables sent and received, passport fees, or for any other purpose, the depositor is to be requested to make the checks, drafts, or money orders remitted therefor payable to the Secretary of State of the United States and to send them to the Department of State for action and deposit. The Chief or Acting Chief of the Division of Finance, or his designee, is hereby authorized to endorse to the Treasurer of the United States, by appropriate stamp, such official checks, drafts, or money orders, except those covering passport fees, as are received in accordance with the provisions of this section. The Chief or Acting Chief of the Passport Division, or his designee, is hereby authorized to endorse to the Treasurer of the United States, by appropriate stamp, official checks, drafts, or money orders covering passport fees, which, in accordance with the provisions of this section, are hereafter to be made payable to the Secretary of State. (R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22)

This regulation shall become effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Approved: October 25, 1948.

For the Acting Secretary of State.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[Docket No. 3666]

PARTS 71–85—TRANSPORTATION OF EXPLOSIVES[1] AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of October A. D. 1948.

It appearing, that pursuant to sections 831–835, Title 18, U. S. Code, approved June 25, 1948 (which repealed the Transportation of Explosives Act of March 4, 1921 (41 Stat. 1444–1445) (18 U. S. C. 382–386); and Part II of the Interstate Commerce Act, the Commission has formulated and published certain regulations for the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles.

It further appearing, that in applications received we are asked to amend the aforesaid regulations as set forth in provisions made part thereof:

It is ordered, That the aforesaid regulations for transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles be, and are hereby, amended as follows:

Part 2—List of Explosives and Other Dangerous Articles (CFR 73)

Superseding and amending commodity list section 4, orders August 16, 1940, and July 22, 1948, to read as follows:

Article	Classed as—	Exemptions and packing (see sec.)	Label required if not exempt	Maximum quantity in 1 outside container by rail express
(Add) Amyl trichlorosilane	Cor. L	No exemption 249B	White	10 gallons.
(Add) Butyl trichlorosilane	do	do	do	Do.
(Add) Carbon dioxide-nitrous oxide mixture.	Noninf. G	302, 301	Green	300 pounds.
(Add) Chemical kits*	See sec. 253B
(Add) Cumene hydroperoxide	Oxy. M	153 (b), 186D	Yellow	1 quart.
(Add) Cyanogen chloride containing less than 0.9 percent water.	Pois. A	No exemption 334	Poison Gas	Not accepted.
(Add) Diethyl dichlorosilane	Cor. L	No exemption 249B	White	10 gallons.
(Add) Diphenyl dichlorosilane	do	do	do	Do.
(Add) Ethyl phenyl dichlorosilane.	do	do	do	Do.
(Change) Hexaethyl tetraphosphate and compressed gas mixture.	Pois. A	No exemption 331A	Poison gas	Not accepted.
(Add) Hexyl trichlorosilane	Cor. L	No exemption 249B	White	10 gallons.
(Add) High explosives, liquid	Expl. A	No exemption 61 (j)		Not accepted.
(Add) Hypochlorite solutions containing more than 7 percent available chlorine by weight.	Cor. L	No exemption 277	White	4 gallons.
(Change) Nitroglycerin liquid, desensitized.	See sec. 50 (d) and 61 (a) (5).
(Add) Octyl trichlorosilane	Cor. L	No exemption 249B	White	10 gallons.
(Add) Parathion and compressed gas mixture.	Pois. A	No exemption 331A	Poison Gas	Not accepted.
(Add) Phenyl trichlorosilane	Cor. L	No exemption 249B	White	10 gallons.
(Add) Propyl trichlorosilane	do	do	do	Do.
(Change) Tetraethyl pyrophosphate and compressed gas mixture.	Pois. A	No exemption 331A	Poison gas	Not accepted.
(Change) Trichlorosilane	Inf. L	No exemption 109B	Red	10 gallons.

Part 3—Regulations Applying to Shippers (CFR 75)

Amending table paragraph (c), section 22, Specified containers prescribed, order August 16, 1940, as follows:

When these regulations call for specification Nos.		These specifications containers may also be used—
(Add) 4BA	26, 38	Cylinder.

Superseding and amending section 23, Closures for containers, order August 16, 1940, to read as follows:

23. Closures for containers. Containers must be closed for shipment as prescribed in the specifications for the container unless otherwise authorized for the particular article being shipped. Gasketed closures must be fitted with gaskets of efficient material which will not be deteriorated by the contents of the container.

Superseding and amending paragraph (d), section 50, Forbidden explosives, order August 19, 1946, to read as follows:

(d) Liquid nitroglycerin, diethylene glycol dinitrate or other liquid explosives not authorized by section 61 (a) (5). (For shipment by carrier by motor vehicle other than common carriers, see section 822 (b).)

Superseding and amending section 109A, Ethyl trichlorosilane, order July 22, 1948, to read as follows:

109A (a) Ethyl trichlorosilane must be packed in specification containers as follows:

(b) Spec. 15A or 16B. Wooden boxes with glass inside containers not over 1 gallon capacity each securely closed and cushioned with incombustible absorbent material.

(c) Spec. 17H or 37D. Metal drums (single-trip) with glass inside containers not over 1 gallon capacity each securely closed and cushioned with incombustible absorbent material.

(d) Spec. 5A. Metal drums not over 55 gallons capacity.

(e) Spec. 5F. Metal drums not over 11 gallons capacity.

(f) Spec. 5, 5B, 5C and 17E (single-trip). Metal drums. These containers not authorized for shipments by rail express.

(g) Specification cylinders as prescribed for any compressed gas, except acetylene.

Amending order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

109B (a) Trichlorosilane must be packed in specification containers as follows:

(b) Spec. 15A or 16B. Wooden boxes with glass inside containers not over 1 quart capacity each securely closed and cushioned with incombustible absorbent material.

(c) Spec. 17H or 37D. Metal drums (single-trip) with glass inside containers not over 1 quart capacity each securely closed and cushioned with incombustible absorbent material.

(d) Spec. 5A. Metal drums not over 55 gallons capacity. This container not authorized for shipment by rail express.

(e) Spec. 5F. Metal drums not over 11 gallons capacity. This container not authorized for shipment by rail express.

(f) Specification cylinders as prescribed for any compressed gas, except acetylene.

Amending section 163, Chlorate of soda, chlorate of potash, etc., order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

(h) Chlorate of soda is authorized for shipment in tank cars, spec. 103. Cars must be thoroughly cleaned before loading.

Superseding and amending paragraph (c), section 176, Matches, order August 16, 1940, to read as follows:

(c) Packing. Matches, strike-anywhere, must not be packed in the same outside package with any other article, except that book, card and "strike-on-box" matches may be included when packed in separate inside containers.

Superseding and amending paragraph (a), section 186A, Liquid peroxides, order November 4, 1946, to read as follows:

186A (a) Liquid peroxides other than acetyl peroxide solution, hydrogen peroxide, peracetic acid and cumene hydroperoxide must be packed in specification containers as follows:

Amending section 186A, Liquid peroxides, order November 4, 1946, as follows (add):

(f) Spec. 17C or 17E. Metal drums (single-trip) not over 15 gallons capacity. Authorized only for material which will not react dangerously with the drum metal, or be decomposed by contact with it.

Amending order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

186D (a) Cumene hydroperoxide of strength not exceeding 75 percent in a non-volatile solvent must be packed in specification containers as follows:

(b) Spec. 15A, 15B, 15C, 16A or 19A. Wooden boxes with inside containers which must be: Glass or earthenware, not over 1 gallon each, cushioned with incombustible packing material in sufficient quantity to absorb the contents of the inner container.

(c) Spec. 17E. Metal drums (single-trip), with interiors so treated that they will be resistant to the contents.

Amending section 245, Not exempted articles, order August 16, 1940 as follows (add):

(cc) Butyl trichlorosilane.
(dd) Diethyl dichlorosilane.
(ee) Diphenyl dichlorosilane.
(ff) Ethyl phenyl dichlorosilane.
(gg) Hexyl trichlorosilane.
(hh) Octyl trichlorosilane.
(ii) Phenyl trichlorosilane.
(jj) Propyl trichlorosilane.
(kk) Hypochlorite solutions containing more than 7 percent available chlorine by weight.

Amending order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

249B (a) Amyl trichlorosilane, butyl trichlorosilane, diethyl dichlorosilane, diphenyl dichlorosilane, ethyl phenyl dichlorosilane, hexyl trichlorosilane, octyl trichlorosilane, phenyl trichlorosilane, and propyl trichlorosilane must be packed in specification containers as follows:

(b) Spec. 15A or 16B. Wooden boxes with glass inside containers not over 1 gallon capacity each securely closed and cushioned with incombustible absorbent material.

(c) Spec. 17H or 37D. Metal drums (single trip) with glass inside containers not over 1 gallon capacity each securely closed and cushioned with incombustible absorbent material.

(d) Spec. 5A. Metal drums not over 55 gallons capacity.

(e) Spec. 5F. Metal drums not over 11 gallons capacity.

(f) Spec. 5, 5B, 5C and 17E (single-trip). Metal drums. These containers not authorized for shipments by rail express.

(g) Specification cylinders as prescribed for any compressed gas, except acetylene.

Amending section 250, Automobiles or other self-propelled vehicles, order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

(a) (4) When batteries are installed in the vehicle they must be completely protected so that short circuits will be prevented under conditions normal to transportation.

Superseding and amending paragraph (e), section 253, Chloracetyl chloride, order October 28, 1942, to read as follows:

(e) Spec. 1A, 1C, or 1D. Carboys in boxes or kegs. Use of these containers will be permitted because of the present emergency and until further order of the Commission.

Amending order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

253B (a) Chemical kits, except as otherwise provided herein, must be packed, marked and labeled as prescribed by these regulations for the specific acids or corrosive liquids contained therein.

(b) (1) Chemical kits containing acids in inside containers not exceeding 6 fluid ounces capacity each and complying with all of the following requirements, are exempt from specification packing, marking, other than name of contents, and labeling requirements for transportation by rail freight, rail express, or highway: When for transportation by carrier by water they are exempt from specification packaging, marking other than name of contents and labeling requirements.

(b) (2) The kit must not contain any of the items named in section 245.

(b) (3) The kit must be a strong wooden or metal container, or must be packed in a strong wooden or metal container.

(b) (4) The acids or corrosive liquids must be cushioned with sufficient absorbent cushioning material to completely absorb the contents of the individual containers, and must be protected from injury by other materials in the kit.

(b) (5) The contents of the kit must be of such nature and/or so packed that there will be no possibility of the mixture of contents causing dangerous evolution of heat or gas.

Superseding and amending paragraph (g) (1), section 272, Sulfuric acid, order January 23, 1946, to read as follows:

(g) (1) Spec. 17F. Metal barrels or drums (single-trip) only for acid of 1.7059 specific gravity (60° Baume tolerance plus 0.2° Baume); or acid of greater strength with or without inhibitor, provided such acid has a corrosive effect on steel measured at 100° F. no greater than 66° Baume commercial sulfuric acid. Drums equipped with vented closures of an experimental type approved by the Bureau of Explosives are also authorized for export shipments.

Amending order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

277 (a) Hypochlorite solutions containing more than 7 per cent available chlorine by weight must be packed in specification containers as follows:

(b) Spec. 15A, 15B, 15C, or 12B. Wooden or fiberboard boxes with glass or earthenware inside containers of not more than 1 gallon capacity each. Packages must not weigh over 65 pounds gross nor contain more than 4 such inside containers if their capacity is greater than 5 pints each.

(c) Spec. 1A, 1C, or 1D. Carboys in boxes or kegs.

(d) Closures for inside containers and carboys must be vented and must be of a material resistant to the lading and capable of preventing leakage of liquid contents.

(e) Containers of 5 gallons capacity and over in service for transportation of this material prior to September 1, 1948, of a design and venting arrangement approved by the Bureau of Explosives, may be continued in use until further order of the Commission.

(f) Glass or earthenware containers of not more than 4 fluid ounces capacity each, packed in strong outside containers, and cushioned with absorbent material in sufficient quantity to completely absorb liquid contents in the event of breakage, are exempt from specification packaging, marking, and labeling requirements for transportation by rail freight, rail express, or highway. When for transportation by carrier by water they are exempt from specification packaging, marking other than name of contents and labeling requirements.

Superseding and amending paragraph (i) (2), section 303, Weight and pressure check, order April 19, 1948, to read as follows:

(i) (2) Cylinders with a water capacity of 200 pounds or more and for use with a liquefied petroleum gas with a specific gravity at 60° F. of 0.504 or greater may have their contents determined by using a fixed length dip tube gauging device. The length of the dip tube shall be such that when a liquefied petroleum gas with a specific volume of 0.03051 cu. ft./lb. at a temperature of 40° F. is charged into the cylinder it just reaches the bottom of the tube. The weight of this liquid shall not exceed 42 percent of the stamped water capacity of the cylinder. The length of the dip tube, expressed in inches carried out to one decimal place and prefixed with the letters DT, shall be stamped on the cylinder and on the exterior of removable type dip tube. The length of each dip tube shall be checked when installed by weighing each cylinder after filling except when installed in groups of substantially identical cylinders in which case one of each 25 cylinders shall be weighed. The quantity of liquefied gas in each container must be checked by means of the dip tube after disconnecting from the charging line. The outlet from the dip tube shall not be larger than a No. 54 drill size orifice. A container representative of each day's filling at each charging plant shall have its contents checked by weighing after disconnecting from the charging line.

Superseding and amending paragraph (k), table, section 303, Restrictions for gases named in table, orders August 16, 1940, and April 19, 1948, to read as follows:

Kind of gas	Maximum permitted filling density (see sec. 303 (h))	Cylinders* marked as shown in this column must be used except as provided in Note 1 and sec. 303 (p) (2) to 303 (p) (6)
(Add) Carbon dioxide-nitrous oxide mixture (see note 3).	Percent 68	ICC-3A1800; ICC-3.
(Change) Vinyl methyl ether, inhibited (see note 7).	68	ICC-4B300, without brazed seams; ICC-4BA, without brazed seams; ICC-3A300; ICC-3B300; ICC-25.

Superseding and amending paragraph (k), section 303, note 3 to table, Restrictions for gases named in table, order April 19, 1948, to read as follows:

NOTE 3: The maximum amount of liquefied carbon dioxide, nitrous oxide, or carbon dioxide-nitrous oxide mixture, with 1 pound allowable variation in each cylinder, must not be over 20 pounds for standard cylinders 5½ inches in diameter by 51 inches long, nor over 50 pounds for standard cylinders 8½ inches in diameter by 51 inches long and larger: Provided, That cylinders having interior diameter not over 10 inches, walls not less than 3/8 inch thick, and capacity not less than 4,200 cubic inches, may be shipped by or for the United States Government when charged with not over 102 pounds of gas.

Provided, further, That foregoing provisions of this note do not apply to cylinders of size not over 9 1/16 inches by 51 inches (approximately) when charged with mixtures of carbon dioxide or nitrous oxide containing at least 6 percent by weight of gas or liquid other than carbon dioxide or nitrous oxide.

Provided, further, That cylinders marked ICC-3A2300 or for higher pressures are authorized to be shipped when charged with 75 or 100 pounds of gas with not over 1 pound variation plus or minus; filling density must not exceed 68 percent.

Superseding and amending paragraph (n) (2), section 303, Liquefied petroleum gas, order April 19, 1948, to read as follows:

(n) (2) Spec. 3, 3A, 3B, 3E, 4, 4B, 4BA, 4B240X, 4B240FLW, 9, 25, 26, or 38. Cylinders authorized under section 303 (p) (2) to 303 (p) (6) may be used. (Notes 1 and 2 not cancelled.)

Amending section 303, order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

(p) (16) (a) Repairs on ICC–4 series, and ICC–8, welded or brazed cylinders are authorized to be made by welding or brazing. Such repairs must be made by a manufacturer of this type of ICC cylinder and by a process similar to that used in its manufacture and under the following specific requirements:

(p) (16) (b) Cylinders with injurious defects in welded joints in or on pressure parts must be repaired by completely removing the defect prior to rewelding.

(p) (16) (c) Cylinders with injurious defects in brazed joints in or on pressure parts must be repaired by rebrazing.

(p) (16) (d) Cylinders during welding must be free of materials in contact with the welded joint that may impair the serviceability of the metal in or adjacent to the weld. (Precautions must be taken to prevent acetylene cylinder steels from picking up carbon during repair.)

(p) (16) (e) Neckrings, footrings, or other nonpressure attachments authorized by the specification may be replaced or repaired.

(p) (16) (f) After removal, and before replacement of attachments, cylinders must be inspected and defective ones rejected, repaired or rebuilt.

(p) (16) (g) After repair, cylinders must be reheat treated, tested, inspected and reported when and as prescribed by the specification covering their original manufacture in the following circumstances:

(p) (16) (h) When welding or brazing seams in a pressure part of a cylinder.

(p) (16) (i) When welding or brazing on pressure parts of cylinders of plain carbon steels with carbon over 0.25 percent or manganese over 1.00 percent or of alloy steels.

NOTE: The physical and flattening tests may be omitted when the cylinders are not reheat-treated.

(p) (16) (j) Repair of cylinders must be followed by a proof pressure leakage test at prescribed test pressure and visual examination for weld quality in the following circumstances:

(p) (16) (k) When welding or brazing on pressure parts of cylinders of plain carbon steel with carbon 0.25 percent or less and manganese 1.00 percent or less.

(p) (16) (l) Repair of nonpressure attachments by welding or brazing without affecting a pressure part of the cylinder must be followed by visual examination for weld quality.

(p) (16) (m) Walls, heads or bottoms of cylinders with injurious defects or leaks in base metal shall not be repaired, but may be replaced as provided for in section 303 (p) (17) (a).

(p) (17) (a) Rebuilding of ICC–4 series, and ICC–8, welded or brazed cylinders is authorized. Such rebuilding must be done by a manufacturer of this type of ICC cylinder and by a process similar to that used in its original manufacture and under the following specific requirements:

(p) (17) (b) The replacement of a pressure part such as wall, heads, or bottoms of cylinders or the replacement of the porous filling material, shall be considered as rebuilding.

(p) (17) (c) Rebuilt cylinders shall be considered as new cylinders and shall conform to all the requirements of the specifications applying, including verification of material, examination, inspection, etc., and the rendering of the proper reports to the purchaser, cylinders rebuilder, and the Bureau of Explosives.

(p) (17) (d) Information in sufficient detail regarding previous serial numbers and identification symbols must be filed with the Bureau of Explosives.

Superseding and amending paragraph (q) (1), table, section 303, Compressed gases in tank cars and motor vehicles, order April 19, 1948, to read as follows:

Name of gas	Maximum permitted filling density, note 1	Required type of tank car, note 2
Liquefied petroleum gas (pressure not exceeding 75 pounds per square inch at 105° F.)	Note 3...	Note 9, ICC–104A. Note 13.

(Add):

NOTE 13. Fusion welded portable tanks manufactured prior to April 19, 1948 in complete compliance with specifications included in ICC authority No. 3666 dated December 28, 1939 (235 I. C. C. 595), are authorized for the transportation of commercial butane: Provided, That (1) certificate of manufacture for each tank and record of each required five year retest is filed with the Bureau of Explosives, and (2), in addition to the markings prescribed by the aforementioned authority each tank is permanently marked ICC–50X.

Superseding and amending section 326, orders August 16, 1940, and August 19, 1946, to read as follows:

326. Extremely dangerous poisons; Class A—Poison gas label. (a) Poisonous gases or liquids of such nature that a very small amount of the gas, or vapor of the liquid, mixed with air is dangerous to life. This class includes the following:

Chlorpicrin.
Cyanogen.
Cyanogen chloride containing less than 0.9 percent water.
Diphosgene.
Ethyldichlorarsine.
Hydrocyanic acid.
Lewisite.
Methyldichlorarsine.
Mustard gas.
Nitrogen peroxide (tetroxide).
Phenylcarbylamine chloride.
Phosgene (diphosgene).

NOTE: Dilute solutions of hydrocyanic acid of not exceeding 5 percent strength are classed as poisonous articles, class B, (see section 836 and section 350).

Superseding and amending paragraph (a) (1), sec. 331A, Hexaethyl tetraphosphate etc., order July 22, 1948, to read as follows:

(a) (1) Hexaethyl tetraphosphate, parathion, and tetraethyl pyrophosphate mixtures with compressed gas, containing not more than 10 percent by weight of hexaethyl tetraphosphate, parathion or tetraethyl pyrophosphate must be packed in specification containers as follows:

Superseding and amending paragraph (c), section 339, Aniline oil, orders August 16, 1940 and August 13, 1943, to read as follows:

(c) Spec. 5, 5A, or 5B metal barrels or drums; Spec. 17C single-trip metal drums; Spec. 17E single-trip metal drums not over 5 gallons capacity each. Net weight in 110-gallon drums should not exceed 915 pounds; gaskets not less than one-eighth inch thick must be used at bung and filling holes and must be made of hard fiber impregnated with glycerin, or of metal-covered cork, or of impregnated asbestos sheets, or metal-covered asbestos; filled drums must be so placed that bungs will be subjected to hydrostatic head of oil contained therein for a period of not less than 12 hours; the exterior of filled drums must be carefully examined for evidence of aniline oil, any traces of which must be removed by washing off with water or, preferably, weak acetic acid; the space between rolling hoops immediately around the bung should be painted, to aid in the detection of leaks at this point; drums showing no signs of leakage only may be shipped; all returnable drums must bear the following returnable container notice, shellacked to head of drum near consignee's name and address:

Prevent damage to foodstuffs, or other freight. Drain this drum thoroughly, tightening bungs securely in place with gaskets, before returning. If necessary, use new gaskets. Aniline oil stains on the outside of drums should be washed off with water or, preferably, weak acetic acid.

Metal barrels or drums under this paragraph must not have openings exceeding 2.3 inches in diameter.

Superseding and amending paragraph (c), section 367, Radioactive material such as ores, residues etc., order October 24, 1947, to read as follows:

(c) Radioactive materials such as ores, residues, etc., of low activity packed in strong tight containers are exempt from specification packing and labeling requirements for shipment in carload lots by rail freight provided the gamma radiation or equivalent will not exceed 10 milliroentgens per hour at a distance of 12 feet from any surface of the car and that the gamma radiation or equivalent will not exceed 10 milliroentgens per hour at a distance of 5 feet from either end surface of the car. There must be no loose radioactive material in the car, and the shipment must be braced so as to prevent leakage or shift of lading under conditions normally incident to transportation. The car must be placarded by the shipper as provided in section 541A and 552 of these regulations. Shipments must be loaded by consignor and unloaded by consignee.

Superseding and amending paragraph (p) (1), section 402, Labels and markings, order July 22, 1948, to read as follows:

(p) (1) Labels and marking name of contents are not required on carload or truckload quantities of dangerous articles, except class A, class C or class D poisons, by rail freight, rail express or highway, when such shipments are unloaded by the consignee or his duly authorized agent from the car or motor vehicle in which originally loaded.

Appendix to Part 3—Shipping Container Specifications (CFR 72)

Superseding and amending paragraph 8A, specification 3A, Welding or brazing, order April 19, 1948, to read as follows:

8A. Welding or brazing for any purpose whatsoever is prohibited except as follows: (1) Welding or brazing is authorized for the attachment of neckrings and footrings which are non-pressure parts, and only to the tops and bottoms of cylinders having a service pressure of 500 pounds per square inch or less. Cylinders, neckrings, and footrings must be made of weldable steel, carbon content of which must not exceed 0.25 percent except in the case of 4130X steel which may be used with proper welding procedure. (2) As permitted in paragraph 8.

NOTE: Cylinders used solely in anhydrous ammonia service may have a ½ inch diameter bar welded within their concave bottoms in accordance with the foregoing requirements.

Superseding and amending (a) of paragraph 10, specification 3AA, Heat treatment, order August 19, 1946, to read as follows:

(a) All cylinders must be oil-quenched except as noted in paragraphs (e) and (g).

Amending paragraph 10, specification 3AA, Heat treatment, order August 19, 1946, as follows (add):

(g) Steels coming under this specification may be quenched in molten salt bath maintained at a temperature not less than 375° F.

Amending specification 3BN, order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

8A. Welding or brazing for any purpose whatsoever is prohibited except as follows: (1) Welding is authorized for the attachment of neckrings and footrings which are nonpressure parts, and only to the tops and bottoms of cylinders. Neckrings and footrings must be of weldable material, carbon content of which must not exceed 0.25 percent. Nickel welding rod must be used.

Amending specification 3E, order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

8A. This paragraph does not apply.

Superseding and amending paragraph 13 (a), specification 3E, Hydrostatic test, order August 16, 1940, to read as follows:

13. (a) Hydrostatic test. Cylinders must be tested as follows:

(1) One cylinder out of each lot of 500 or less to be subjected to hydrostatic pressure of 6,000 pounds per square inch or higher.

(2) The cylinder referred to in (1) above shall burst at a pressure higher than 6,000 pounds per square inch, or shall hold a pressure of 12,000 pounds per square inch for 30 seconds without bursting, in which case it shall be subjected to a crush test of six times wall thickness.

NOTE: Inspector's report shall be suitably changed to show results of latter alternate and crush test.

(3) Other cylinders must be examined under pressure of 3,000 pounds per square inch and show no defect.

Amending specification 4, order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

8A. The attachment to the tops and bottoms only of cylinders by welding or brazing of neckrings, footrings, handles, bosses, pads, and valve protection rings is authorized provided that such attachments and the portion of the container to which they are attached are made of weldable steel, the carbon content of which must not exceed 0.25 percent except in the case of 4130X steel which may be used with proper welding procedure.

Amending specification 4A, order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

8A. The attachment to the tops and bottoms only of cylinders by welding or brazing of neckrings, footrings, handles, bosses, pads, and valve protection rings is authorized provided that such attachments and the portion of the container to which they are attached are made of weldable steel, the carbon content of which must not exceed 0.25 percent except in the case of 4130X steel which may be used with proper welding procedure.

Amending specification 4B, order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

8A. The attachment to the tops and bottoms only of cylinders by welding or brazing of neckrings, footrings, handles, bosses, pads, and valve protection rings is authorized provided that such attachments and the portion of the container to which they are attached are made of weldable steel, the carbon content of which must not exceed 0.25 percent except in the case of 4130X steel which may be used with proper welding procedure.

Superseding and amending paragraph 11, specification 4B, order February 13, 1946, to read as follows:

11. Openings in cylinders. (a) Each opening in cylinders, except those for safety devices, must be provided with a fitting, boss, or pad, securely attached to cylinder by brazing or by welding or by threads. Fitting, boss, or pad must be of steel suitable for the method of attachment employed, and which need not be identified or verified as to analysis, except that if attachment is by welding, carbon content must not exceed 0.25 percent. If threads are used, they must comply with the following:

(1) Threads must be clean cut, even, without checks, and tapped to gauge.

(2) Taper threads to be of length not less than as specified for American Standard taper pipe threads.

(3) Straight threads, having at least 4 engaged threads, to have tight fit and calculated shear strength at least 10 times the test pressure of the cylinder; gaskets required, adequate to prevent leakage.

(b) Closure of fitting, boss, or pad must be adequate to prevent leakage.

Amending specification 4BA, order April 19, 1948, as follows (add):

8A. The attachment to the tops and bottoms only of cylinders by welding or brazing of neckrings, footrings, handles, bosses, pads, and valve protection rings is authorized provided that such attachments and the portion of the container to which they are attached are made of weldable steel, the carbon content of which must not exceed 0.25 percent except in the case of 4130X steel which may be used with proper welding procedure.

Superseding and amending paragraph 19, table I, specification 4BA, Type of material, order April 19, 1948, to read as follows:

19. Table I.

[2] Any suitable heat treatment in excess of 1100° F.

Amending specification 4C, order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

8A. The attachment to the tops and bottoms only of cylinders by welding or brazing of neckrings, footrings, handles, bosses, pads, and valve protection rings is authorized provided that such attachments and the portion of the container to which they are attached are made of weldable steel, the carbon content of which must not exceed 0.25 percent except in the case of 4130X steel which may be used with proper welding procedure.

Superseding and amending paragraph 7 (d), specification 10B, order December 30, 1942, to read as follows:

7. (d) Hoops, number and size.

Capacity of container (inches/gallons)	Minimum number of hoops	Minimum size of hoops (inches in width and Birmingham gage)
		Head		First quarter		Second quarter		Bilge
		Inch	Gage	Inch	Gage	Inch	Gage	Inch	Gage

5	[3] 6	1	19	1	19	.....	.....	1	19

[1] Because of the present emergency and until further order of the Commission, the minimum number of hoops is authorized to be reduced to 6 by eliminating second quarter hoops.
[2] Because of the present emergency and until further order of the Commission, the minimum number of hoops is authorized to be reduced to 4 by eliminating first quarter hoops if head and bilge hoops of 1¾ inch by 17 gage are used.
[3] 2 inch by 18 gage hoops are also authorized.

Superseding and amending specification 13, paragraph 8, Type test, order August 16, 1940, to read as follows:

8. Type test. Keg filled with fine, dry sand in weight equal to that of shipment must be capable of withstanding, without leakage, 4 successive drops of 4 feet on the head onto solid concrete. Tests to be made of each type and size by each company manufacturing this type of container and to be repeated every six months while in production. If production is discontinued and is resumed, this requirement will also apply if prescribed tests have not been made within the previous six-month period. Samples last tested to be retained until further tests are made.

Amending specification 13A, paragraph 8, Type test, order April 19, 1948, as follows (add):

(c) Tests to be made of each type and size by each company manufacturing this type of container and to be repeated every six months while in production. If production is discontinued and is resumed, this requirement will also apply if prescribed tests have not been made within the previous six-month period. Samples last tested to be retained until further tests are made.

Superseding and amending specification 23F, paragraph 19 (a), Flap closures, order April 19, 1948, to read as follows:

19. (a) Flap closures. Flaps must butt or have full overlap excepting that inner flaps overlapping ¼ inch are permitted.

Superseding and amending specification 23G, paragraph 13 (c), Completed containers, order January 23, 1946, to read as follows:

(c) Three loaded samples to be tested. Each must withstand side to side pressure of at least 500 pounds without deflection of over ½ inch; except that for boxes with fluted crimped ends the deflection shall not exceed ¾ inch; speed of compression tester to be ½ inch per minute plus ¼ inch minus ¼ inch per minute.

Superseding and amending paragraph (1), specification MC200, order August 19, 1946, to read as follows:

1. Every motor vehicle used for the transportation of liquid nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate, other than desensitized liquid explosives as defined in section 61 (a) (5), shall have a body constructed as set forth below, which body shall have component parts as specified hereinafter:

Part 4—Regulations Applying Particularly to Carriers by Rail Freight (CFR 80)

Amending section 567, order August 16, 1940, as follows (add):

(d) Any car which has contained radioactive material must be thoroughly cleaned by the consignee in such a manner as to remove all radioactive material from the car, and a certificate to this effect must be furnished the local agent of the railway company before the car is released to the carrier.

Superseding and amending section 589, Handling cars, definitions, orders February 12, 1947, and May 8, 1947, to read as follows:

589. Handling cars, definitions. As used in this section, the term:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, joint stock company, business trust or other organized group of persons, or any trustee, receiver, assignee, or personal representative, and includes any department or agency of the United States, any State, the District of Columbia, or any other political, governmental or legal entity;

(2) "Railroad" means any person engaged in transportation as a common carrier by rail and includes its agents or employees;

(3) "Engine" means any locomotive, propelled by any form of energy, used by a railroad;

(4) "Freight car" means any vehicle used for the transportation of property by rail;

(5) "Passenger car" means any vehicle used for the transportation of passengers by rail;

(6) "Combination car" means any vehicle used for the transportation of both property and passengers by rail;

(7) "Occupied caboose" means any vehicle used by railroad employees, caretakers, or others authorized to ride therein;

(Change) (8) "A train" is one or more engines coupled together with or without cars displaying markers.

(Add) (9) "Freight train" means one or more engines coupled with one or more freight cars, displaying markers.

(Change) (10) "Passenger train" means one or more engines coupled with one or more passenger cars carrying passengers, displaying markers.

(Change) (11) "Mixed train" means one or more engines coupled with one or more freight cars and passenger cars carrying passengers, displaying markers.

(Change) (12) "Placarded car" shall be construed to embrace also any car which under these regulations is required to be placarded.

(Add) (13) (a) "Pickup and/or setoff service" shall be construed to mean trains in service that pick up and/or set off one or more cars at three or more stations enroute; (b) trains having cars from which less-than-carload freight is loaded or unloaded enroute; or (c) trains regularly scheduled to perform pickup and/or setoff service which on some days make less than three stops.

Superseding and amending paragraph (e) (1), section 589, Notice to crews, order July 28, 1947, to read as follows:

Notice to crews of cars containing explosives in freight trains or mixed trains. (e) (1) At all terminals or other places where trains are made up by crews other than road crew accompanying the outbound movement of cars, the railroad shall execute a consecutively numbered notice showing the location in the freight train or mixed train of every car placarded "Explosives". A copy of such notice shall be delivered to the train and engine crew and a copy thereof showing delivery to the train and engine crew shall be kept on file by the railroad at each point where such notice is given. At points other than terminals where train or engine crews are changed, the notice shall be transferred from crew to crew.

Superseding and amending paragraph (f) (1), section 589, Position in trains, order October 27, 1947, to read as follows:

Position in freight train or mixed train of cars containing explosives. (f) (1) In a freight train or a mixed train either standing or during transportation thereof, a car placarded "Explosives" shall, when length of train permits, be placed not nearer than the sixteenth car from both the engine or occupied caboose, except:

(a) When the length of freight train or mixed train will not permit it to be so placed, it shall be placed near the middle of the train;

(b) When transported in a freight train made up in "blocks" or classifications, a car placarded "Explosives" shall be placed near the middle of the "block" or classification in which moving, but not nearer than the sixth car from both the engine or occupied caboose;

(c) When transported in a freight train or a mixed train performing pickup and/or setoff service, it shall be placed not nearer than the second car from both the engine or occupied caboose, except as provided in section 589 (i) (1).

Superseding and amending paragraph (f) (2), section 589, order July 22, 1948, to read as follows:

(f) (2) In a freight train or a mixed train either standing or during transportation thereof, a car placarded "Explosives" must not be handled next to:

1. Occupied passenger car, other than gas handlers accompanying shipment.
2. Occupied combination car, other than gas handlers accompanying shipment.
3. Any car placarded "Dangerous."
4. Engine.
5. Any car placarded "Poison Gas."
6. Wooden underframe car (except on narrow gauge railroads).
7. Loaded flat car.
8. Open-top car when any of the lading extends or protrudes above or beyond the ends of sides thereof.
9. Car equipped with automatic refrigeration of the gas-burning type.
10. Car containing lighted heaters, stoves, or lanterns.
11. Car loaded with live animals or fowl, occupied by an attendant.
12. Occupied caboose (except as permitted in section 589 (i) (1)).

Superseding and amending paragraph (g) (1), section 589, order October 27, 1947, to read as follows:

Position in train of loaded placarded tank car. (g) (1) (a) In a freight train or a mixed train, except a train consisting entirely of placarded loaded tank cars and as provided in sec. 589 (g) (2), a placarded loaded tank car shall when the length of the train permits, be not nearer than the sixth car from the engine, occupied caboose or passenger car.

(g) (1) (b) When the length of the freight train or mixed train will not permit it to be so placed, it shall be not nearer than the second car from the engine, occupied caboose or passenger car.

(g) (1) (c) When transported in a freight train engaged in "pickup" or "setoff" service, a placarded loaded tank car shall be not nearer than the second car from both engine or occupied caboose.

Superseding and amending paragraph (h) (1) and heading, section 589, order February 12, 1947, to read as follows:

Position in freight train or mixed train or cars placarded "Poison Gas" or containing poison liquids Class A. (h) (1) In a freight train or mixed train either standing or during transportation thereof, a car placarded "Poison Gas" or containing poison liquids, Class A, shall not be next to other freight cars placarded "Explosives" or cars placarded "Dangerous".

Superseding and amending paragraph (i) (1) and heading, section 589, orders July 28, 1947, and February 12, 1947, to read as follows:

Position in freight train or mixed train of cars placarded "explosives" and "poison gas" or containing poison liquids when accompanied by cars carrying gas handling crews. (i) (1) A car placarded "Poison Gas" or containing poison liquids Class A in drums, tanks or bombs, or a car placarded both "Explosives" and "Poison Gas" shall at all times be next to and ahead of the car occupied by the gas handling crews, when accompanying such car.

Part 7—Regulations Applying to Shipments Made by Way of Common, Contract or Private Carriers by Public Highway (CFR 85)

Superseding and amending paragraph (b) (1), section 815, Labels etc., order July 22, 1948, to read as follows:

(b) (1) Labels and marking name of contents are not required on truckload quantities of dangerous articles, except Class A, class C or class D poisons, when such shipments are unloaded by the consignee or his duly authorized agent from the motor vehicle in which originally loaded.

Superseding and amending paragraph (a), section 821, Nitroglycerin etc., order August 19, 1946, to read as follows:

821. (a) Nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate, forbidden to common carriers. Liquid nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate, except as defined in sec. 61 (a) (5), may not be accepted for transportation or be transported by any common carrier by motor vehicle.

Superseding and amending paragraphs (a) and (b), section 822, Acceptable packages, order August 19, 1946, to read as follows:

822. (a) Acceptable packages. Any motor carrier may accept for transportation or transport any acceptable explosive or other dangerous articles listed in the Commodity List, Part 2, of the regulations in this part: Provided, however, That no provision of this section shall be so construed as to permit the acceptance or transportation of liquid nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate, other than as defined in section 61 (a) (5), by any common carrier.

(b) Liquid nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate. Liquid nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate, other than as defined in section 61 (a) (5), may be transported only by motor carriers other than common carriers in containers complying with specification MC200. No form of trailer may be attached.

Superseding and amending paragraph (b) (3), section 824, Explosives on trucks or semitrailers, order August 19, 1946, to read as follows:

824. (b) (3) Explosives on trucks or semitrailers; no other trailer. Any explosive other than liquid nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate, except as defined in section 61 (a) (5), and forbidden explosives may be loaded into and transported on any truck or any semitrailer attached to a tractor, to which no form of trailer may be attached when so loaded.

Superseding and amending paragraph (b) (8), section 824, Lading within body or covered, tailgate closed, order August 19, 1946, to read as follows:

(b) (8) Lading within body or covered, tailgate closed. Except as provided in section 824 (b) (7), (b) (11) and (b) (13), dealing with the transportation of liquid nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate, other than as defined in section 61 (a) (5), all of that portion of the lading of any motor vehicle which consists of explosives shall be contained entirely within the body of the motor vehicle, and if such motor vehicle has a tailboard or tailgate, it shall be closed and secured in place during such transportation. Every motor vehicle transporting explosives must either have a closed body or have the body thereof covered with a tarpaulin, and in either event care must be taken to protect the load from moisture and sparks.

Superseding and amending paragraph (b) (11), section 824, Loading requirements for liquid nitroglycerin etc., order August 19, 1946, to read as follows:

(b) (11) Loading requirements for liquid nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate. Liquid nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate, other than as defined in section 61 (a) (5), may be accepted for transportation and transported only by motor carriers other than common carriers if it be loaded into or on a truck having the type of body specified in specification MC200. No liquid nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate may be loaded directly above any other explosive, or in any quantity in excess of 900 quarts on one motor vehicle or 10 quarts in any one individual container. Additional quantities of explosives, other than nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate, excepting any type of blasting or percussion cap or other detonating device, may be carried on such motor vehicle in a closed or covered bed or body which shall be firmly bolted or fastened above the lid of the compartment containing the nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate. In no case shall the net load be more than 7,500 pounds. (See section 824 (b) (13) and specification MC201.)

Superseding and amending paragraph (b) (13), section 824, Caps or other explosives, order August 19, 1946, to read as follows:

(b) (13) Caps or other explosives. Any explosives, including desensitized liquid explosives as defined in section 61 (a) (5), other than liquid nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate, transported on any motor vehicle transporting liquid nitroglycerin, desensitized liquid nitroglycerin or diethylene glycol dinitrate, shall be segregated; each kind from every other kind, and from tools or other supplies. Any percussion caps, detonators, blasting caps, or electric blasting caps, shall be carried either in a cloth container having individual pockets for each such cap, or by a least equally safe means. No greater number of any such caps shall be carried in the manner described than is necessary for use on any particular trip.

It is further ordered, That the aforesaid regulations as further amended herein shall be and remain in full force and effect on and after January 17, 1949, and shall be observed until further order of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That compliance with the aforesaid regulations, as amended, made effective by this order, is hereby authorized on and after day of service hereof;

And it is further ordered, That copies of this order be served upon all parties of record herein, and that notice shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of Federal Register.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Internal Revenue

[26 CFR, Part 191]

IMPORTATION OF DISTILLED SPIRITS AND WINES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue (and concurred in by the Commissioner of Customs), with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted, in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority of Sections 2800 as amended, 3030 as amended, and 3176 of the Internal Revenue Code (U. S. C., Title 26, Sections 2800, 3030, and 3176).

[SEAL] FRED S. MARTIN, Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

1. In order to correct the regulations to conform to the intendment of section 3030 (a) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, §§ 191.8 and 191.9 of Regulations 21 (26 CFR, 191.8 and 191.9) are amended to read as follows:

§ 191.8 Liqueurs, cordials, and similar compounds. Liqueurs, cordials, and similar compounds, containing distilled spirits, in customs bonded warehouse or imported into the United States are subject to an internal revenue tax, when withdrawn, at the rate of $9 per proof gallon, or wine gallon when below proof, and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon. Wines containing not over 24 per centum of alcohol by volume to which sweetening or flavoring materials, but no distilled spirits, have been added are not classified as liqueurs, cordials, or similar compounds, but are considered to be flavored wines only and are subject to internal revenue tax at the rates applicable to wines. (Secs. 2800 as amended, 3030 as amended, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 191.9 Rate of tax on other compounds and preparations. Compounds and preparations, other than those specified in § 191.8, containing distilled spirits, which are fit for beverage purposes, in customs bonded warehouse or imported into the United States are subject to internal revenue tax at the rate of $9 per proof gallon, or wine gallon when below proof, and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon. Compounds and preparations containing wine, but no distilled spirits, which are fit for beverage purposes and which are sold as wine, are subject to internal revenue tax at the rates applicable to wines. (Secs. 2800 as amended, 3030 as amended, 3176, I. R. C.)

2. The effect of these amendments is that, on imported liqueurs, cordials, and similar compounds and preparations, internal revenue tax will be collected, (1) at the basic rate applicable to distilled spirits (namely, $9 per proof gallon, or wine gallon when below proof), if the products contain distilled spirits, or (2) at the basic rates applicable to wines (namely, 15 cents per wine gallon when containing not more than 14 per centum of alcohol by volume, 60 cents per wine gallon when containing more than 14 per centum and not exceeding 21 per centum of alcohol, $2 per wine gallon when containing more than 21 per centum and not exceeding 24 per centum of alcohol, and $9 per wine gallon, or proof gallon if over 100 proof, when containing more than 24 per centum of alcohol) if the products contain wine, but no distilled spirits, and are sold as wine. Such taxes will be collected, instead of the taxes levied by Section 3030 (a) (2), for the reasons hereinafter stated.

3. Taxes were collected on such products at the regular (basic) rates applicable to distilled spirits and wines during the entire period intervening between the original act of September 8, 1916, which imposed basic taxes on wines and an additional tax, in lieu of rectification tax, on liqueurs, cordials, and similar compounds made with domestic fortified wines, and December 15, 1940, the effective date of Regulations 21, which contain erroneous instructions for collection of the additional tax (now levied by section 3030 (a) (2)), instead of the basic taxes, on such products. Tax at the distilled spirits rate was likewise collected on such products, which contained distilled spirits, prior to the act of September 8, 1916.

4. It is evident from the original act of September 8, 1916, the Legislative History of that Act, the subsequent superseding and amendatory acts (from which section 3030 (a) (2) was derived and codified), and the various related statutes, that the tax levied by section 3030 (a) (2) is an additional tax, in lieu of the rectification tax, applicable only to products made with domestic fortified wine, and is intended as an equalizing tax to compensate to some extent for the difference between the wine tax and the regular distilled spirits tax, when wines containing tax-free brandy are used by a rectifier to make liqueurs. The present instructions in § 191.8 of Regulations 21 (26 CFR, 191.8) for collection of the tax levied by section 3030 (a) (2), I. R. C., on imported liqueurs, cordials, and similar compounds, instead of the regular (basic) taxes applicable to distilled spirits and wines, go beyond the intent and purpose of the law and are, therefore, erroneous. The distilled spirits and fortified wines used to make domestic liqueurs, cordials, and similar compounds are subject to tax at the regular distilled spirits and wine rates, and, in addition, the products are subject to the additional tax levied by section 3030 (a) (2).

5. This Treasury Decision shall be effective on the 31st day after the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

HANDLING OF MILK IN CHICAGO, ILL., MILK MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, MILK MARKETING AREA

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing procedures to formulate marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps. 900.1 et seq.), a public hearing was held at Chicago, Illinois, June 30, 1948, after the issuance of notice on June 17, 1948 (13 F. R. 3342).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on August 30, 1948, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of filing of such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 3, 1948 (13 F. R. 5158).

The sole material issue of record was the extent, if any, to which handlers who produce certified milk, and whose sole distribution in the marketing area is certified milk, should be relieved of obligations as handlers under the order with respect to milk not of their own production.

Rulings on exceptions. Exceptions to the recommended decision were filed on behalf of Wern Farms.

In arriving at the findings and conclusions decided upon in this decision, each of the exceptions was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that the findings and conclusions decided upon herein are at variance with the exceptions pertaining thereto, such exceptions are overruled.

Exception was taken to failure of the decision recommended by the Assistant Administrator to find numerous facts, principally concerned with details of the proponent's operations, and with the distinctive characteristics of certified milk. This proceeding is concerned with amendment to an order and for this purpose the operations of the proponent are recognized in the decision in sufficient detail. It does not appear that any finding with respect to characteristics of certified milk as distinct from those of regular milk would form a basis for providing amendments releasing the handling of regular milk from regulation under the order, which the exceptions clearly recognize as the main issue by stating that "the real issue is the pooling of producer milk, particularly the uncertified producer milk, purchased by Wern Farms." The exceptions, while conceding the milk in question to be approved for consumption in Chicago, claim it to be no part of the Chicago supply. The basis for making a distinction susceptible of general application under the order between Chicago approved milk which is part of the Chicago supply and that which is not is not apparent in the record.

Exception also was taken to the recommended decision on the ground that the Chicago approved milk sought by the proponent to be released from regulation was not within the regulatory jurisdiction of the Federal Government, in that, allegedly, it was not in interstate commerce or affected interstate commerce in milk and its products. The conclusion was not supported by the record and the exception is without merit.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions set forth in the FEDERAL REGISTER (F. R. Doc. 48-7891, 13 F. R. 5158) with respect to this issue are approved and adopted as the findings and conclusions of this decision as if set forth in full herein. Such findings and conclusions provide for no change in the order currently in effect or in the marketing agreement heretofore tentatively approved by the Secretary of Agriculture.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of October 1948.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR, Parts 8, 13]

[Docket No. 8913]

SHIP SERVICE AND COMMERCIAL RADIO OPERATORS

FURTHER NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING AND NOTICE OF DESIGNATION FOR GENERAL PUBLIC HEARING AND ORAL ARGUMENT

1. Notice is hereby given of further proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter. Notice is also given that the above-entitled matter is hereby designated for general public hearing and oral argument to be held in Washington, D. C., commencing at 10:00 a. m. on November 22, 1948.

2. On April 5, 1948, the Commission released a notice of proposed rule making in this matter. This proposal is in three parts, as follows:

a. The first part proposes that if the radar is capable of being normally operated, in accordance with law and the rules and regulations of the Commission, by exclusively external controls, the master of the radar equipped ship, or a person responsible to him and authorized by him, may, even though not holding a radio operator license issued by this Commission, conduct the normal operation of the radar aboard ship.

b. The second part proposes that all adjustments or tests during or coincident with the installation, servicing, or maintenance of the radar while it is radiating energy must be performed by or under the immediate supervision and responsibility of individuals holding valid first or second class radio operator licenses, either radiotelephone or radiotelegraph.

c. The third part proposes that the issuance of a ship radar station license shall be subject to the condition that the station licensee, in relation to the proper operation of the station in accordance with the radio law and the rules and regulations of the Commission, will be represented on board the radar-equipped vessel by the person who at any given time occupies the position of master.

3. Comments on the above proposal were received from a number of manufacturers and a number of radar user groups. No comment for or against the third part was received. General agreement was expressed with the first part. Some comment of approval was received on the second part, but on this part the general nature of the comment was adverse.

4. After consideration of all the available comments, some of which specifically requested a hearing on the pending proposal, and after consideration of all other information available to it, including especially that based upon observations and experience in connection with examinations of radar equipment looking to type approval, the Commission has concluded that it would be in the public interest to modify the original proposal in this matter and to designate the matter of the proposal as so modified for general public hearing and oral argument.

5. The modified proposal is set forth below. Authority to issue this proposal is contained in sections 303 (f) (g) (l) (r) and 318 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. As above indicated the date for the hearing and oral argument in this matter is November 22, 1948. Interested parties may submit comments or briefs in writing until November 15, 1948. An original and 14 copies of all such statements, briefs or comments shall be furnished the Commission. All interested parties who wish to appear and participate fully in the hearing shall notify the Commission in writing to that effect not later than November 17, 1948. The notification should refer to Docket 8913, should set forth the names of all witnesses to be called, and should estimate the amount of time required for the presentation of testimony, exhibits and oral argument.

Adopted: October 21, 1948.

Released: October 22, 1948.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,

[SEAL] T. J. SLOWIE,
Secretary.

The text or substance of the proposed amendments to Part 8 of the Commission's rules governing Ship Service and to Part 13 governing Commercial Radio Operators are as follows:

1. Section 8.195 of Part 8 would be amended by adding thereto a new paragraph "o" reading as follows:

(o) Radio operator requirements. (1) No radio operator license is required for the normal operation on board ship of ship radar stations licensed in the Ship Service: Provided, That the following conditions are met or provided for by the licensee of the station.

(i) The radar equipment shall be capable of being normally operated in accordance with the radio law and the rules and regulations of the Commission by means of exclusively external controls, and

(ii) Normal operations in accordance with subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, must be performed exclusively by the master of the radar-equipped ship or by one or more other persons responsible to him and authorized by him to do so.

(2) All adjustments or tests during or coincident with the installation, servicing, or maintenance of the equipment while it is radiating energy must be performed by or under the immediate supervision and responsibility of persons holding a first or second class radio operator license, radiotelephone or radiotelegraph, containing a ship radar operator endorsement, who shall be responsible for the proper functioning of the equipment in accordance with the radio law and the Commission's rules and regulations and for the avoidance and prevention of harmful interference from improper transmitter external effects, provided, however, that nothing in this sub-paragraph shall be construed to prevent persons not holding such licenses so endorsed from making replacements of fuses or of receiving-type tubes.

(3) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to change or diminish in any respect the responsibility of any ship radar station licensee for having and maintaining control over the station licensed to him, or for the proper functioning and operation of such station in accordance with the terms of the station license.

2. Section 8.195 of Part 8 would be further amended by adding thereto a further new paragraph "p" reading as follows:

(p) Installation and maintenance record. (1) The station licensee of each ship radar station shall provide and require to be kept at the station a permanent installation and maintenance record. Entries in this record shall be made by or under the personal direction of the responsible installation, service, or maintenance operator concerned in each particular instance, but the station licensee shall have joint responsibility with the responsible operator concerned for the faithful and accurate making of such entries as are required by this paragraph.

(2) Each entry in this record shall be personally signed by the responsible operator concerned.

(3) The following entries shall be made in this record:

(i) The date and place of initial installation.

(ii) Any necessary steps taken to remedy any interference found to exist at the time of such installation.

(iii) The nature of any complaint (including interference to radio communication) arising subsequent to initial installation, and the date thereof.

(iv) The reason for the trouble leading to the complaint, including the name of any component or component part which failed or was misadjusted.

(v) Remedial measures taken, and the date thereof.

(vi) The name, license number, and date of the ship radar operator endorsement on the first or second class radio operator license of the responsible operator performing or immediately supervising the installation, servicing, or maintenance.

3. Section 8.195 (b) of Part 8 would be amended to read as follows:

(b) Application for license and condition of issuing license. (1) Applications for ship radar station licenses shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Part 1 of the Commission's rules and regulations.

(2) Any license issued shall be subject to the condition that the station licensee, in relation to the proper operation of the station in accordance with the radio law and rules and regulations of the Commission, will be represented on board the radar-equipped vessel by the person who at any given time occupies the position of master.

4. Section 13.1 of Part 13 would be amended by substituting the following text of Footnote 4 thereof to read as follows:

'By § 8.195 (o) of the rules governing Ship Service the Commission has provided that no radio operator license is required for the normal operation on board ship of ship radar stations licensed in the Ship Service, Provided, That certain conditions therein specified are met or provided for by the licensee of the station. See § 8.195 (o).

5. Section 13.61 of Part 13 would be amended to define the operating authority of holders of first or second class radio operator licenses, radiotelephone or radiotelegraph, containing ship radar operator endorsements.

6. Part 13 would be otherwise amended wherever appropriate so as to provide for a "ship radar operator endorsement" to be added to first or second class radio operator licenses, radiotelephone or radiotelegraph, such endorsement to be based upon the general radio qualifications of not less than a radiotelephone second class operator license; to provide for an examination for such endorsement in matters exclusively relating to radar; and to include references to such endorsement wherever appropriate in this part.

SHOSHONE PROJECT, WYOMING

COMMUNITY CENTER RESERVATION

JULY 16, 1948.

The act of October 5, 1914 (38 Stat. 727) authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to withdraw from other disposition and reserve for county parks, public playgrounds and community centers for the use of the residents, tracts of lands not exceeding 20 acres in one project or the several units of the projects undertaken under the provisions of the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388).

A recent field investigation has disclosed that the following described tract of land is required for community center purposes by a group of settlers on the Willwood Division of the Shoshone Project who reside in an isolated section of the division and in a different county than the majority of settlers in the division. These settlers are at the present time required to travel from 10 to 14 miles to attend community meetings.

In view of the above it is recommended that the following described land, now withdrawn under the first form as provided by section 3 of the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388), by Departmental Order of April 2, 1929, be withdrawn from other disposition and reserved as a community center under the provisions of the act of October 5, 1914 (38 Stat. 727):

SHOSHONE PROJECT, WYOMING

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 54 N., R. 97 W.,
Sec. 7 SW¼SE¼NE¼.

The above area aggregates 10 acres.

G. E. TOMLINSON,
Acting Commissioner.

I concur: August 17, 1948.

MARION CLAWSON,
Bureau of Land Management.

The above described lands are hereby reserved as recommended and the Director of the Bureau of Land Management will cause the records of his office and the District Land Office to be noted accordingly.

WILLIAM E. WARNE,
Assistant Secretary.

FIRST FORM RECLAMATION WITHDRAWAL

JULY 2, 1948.

Pursuant to the authority delegated by Departmental Order No. 2238 of August 16, 1946 (43 CFR 4.410), I hereby withdraw the following-described lands from public entry, under the first form of withdrawal, as provided by section 3 of the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388):

MISSOURI BASIN PROJECT; CANYON FERRY UNIT

PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, MONTANA

T. 10 N., R. 1 W.,
Sec. 4, Lot 9;
Sec. 5, Lots 7 and 8.

The above areas aggregate 81.46 acres.

WESLEY R. NELSON,
Assistant Commissioner,
Bureau of Reclamation.

I concur. The records of the Bureau of Land Management and the District Land Office will be noted accordingly.

OCTOBER 7, 1948.

ROSCOE R. BELL,
Assistant Director,
Bureau of Land Management.

Notice for filing objections. Notice is hereby given that for a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause to object to the terms of the above order, withdrawing certain public lands in the State of Montana for use in connection with the Canyon Ferry Unit, Missouri Basin project, Montana, may present their objections to the Secretary of the Interior. Such objections should be in writing, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, and should be filed in duplicate in the Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

In case any objection is filed and the nature of the opposition is such as to warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced, where opponents to the order may state their views and where the proponents of the order can explain its purpose, intent and extent. Should any objection be filed, notice of the determination by the Secretary as to whether the order should be rescinded, modified or let stand will be given to all interested parties of record and the general public.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

[Tangerine Reg. 75]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.406 Tangerine Regulation 75—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR and Supps. Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of tangerines, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective date.

(b) Order. (1) Tangerine Regulation 74 (13 F. R. 6076) is hereby terminated as of the effective time of this section.

(2) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., October 30, 1948, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., November 15, 1948, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any tangerines, grown in the State of Florida, which grade U. S. No. 2, U. S. No. 2 Russet, U. S. No. 3, or lower than U. S. No. 3 grade (as such grades are defined in the United States Standards for Tangerines (13 F. R. 4790)); or

(ii) Any tangerines, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than the size that will pack 210 tangerines, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack (as such pack is defined in the aforesaid United States Standards), in a half-standard box (inside dimensions 9½ x 9½ x 19⅛ inches; capacity 1,726 cubic inches).

(3) As used in this section, "handler" and "ship" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in said amended marketing agreement and order. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

(Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U. S. C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Retonga Medicine Company, Docket 5519, October 6, 1948]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of October A. D. 1948.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of the respondent, in which answer the respondent admitted all of the material allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and waived all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts; and the Commission, having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

It is ordered, That the respondent, Retonga Medicine Company, a corporation, and its officers, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of the medicinal preparation "Retonga", or any other preparation of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement represents, directly or by implication:

(a) That said preparation is compounded entirely from the extracts of roots, herbs and barks, combined with Vitamin B_1;

(b) That said preparation contain liberal quantities of Vitamin B_1, or that it is a Vitamin B_1 medicine;

(c) That the use of said preparation will be effective in relieving or substantially improving a Vitamin B_1 deficiency or any of the symptoms or conditions which may arise from a Vitamin B_1 deficiency;

(d) That said preparation is not a laxative;

(e) That said preparation is a cure or remedy for constipation or any of the symptoms of constipation, or that it has any therapeutic value in the treatment of constipation or any of the symptoms thereof in excess of the temporary relief afforded by its laxative action;

(f) That said preparation constitutes a competent or effective treatment for heartburn, indigestion, stomach gas, nervousness, muscular pains, a run-down condition, weakness or a toxic feeling, or that it will have any therapeutic effect on the causes of loss of weight, loss of sleep, sour stomach, or any of the conditions which may prevent an individual from working;

(g) That said preparation will increase the appetite of an individual to such an extent as to aid him in gaining weight or strength.

(2) Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of said preparation in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement contains any representation prohibited in paragraph 1 hereof.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

TITLE 18—CONSERVATION OF POWER

Chapter I—Federal Power Commission

[Order 144; Docket No. R-107]

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

OCTOBER 28, 1948.

In the matter of the amendment of regulations and approved forms under the Natural Gas Act, to prescribe revised rules governing the form, composition, filings and posting of rate schedules and tariffs for transportation or sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission.

This proceeding was initiated by the Commission under sections 4 and 16 of the Natural Gas Act to amend its regulations governing the form, composition and filing of schedules of rates and charges for the transportation and sale for resale of natural gas in interstate commerce so as to achieve uniformity and simplicity. A brief review of the situation will show the desirability of the amendments.

Before the Natural Gas Act became law, natural-gas companies had no rate schedules generally applicable to stated classifications of service. It was the prevailing practice to sell natural gas under individual contracts frequently arrived at after extensive negotiations between the parties. As a result the contracts varied greatly in form as well as content. This situation still existed when the Commission, on July 5, 1938, promulgated its "Provisional Regulations Under the Natural Gas Act" which, among other things, prescribed rules for filing of rate schedules.

To expedite the establishment of legal rates, the Commission, in its Provisional Regulations, permitted natural-gas companies to file their contracts as rate schedules in compliance with section 4 of the act. The supplementation of filed contracts by additional agreements and the filing of new contracts in time multiplied the complexity of already complicated rate schedules.

Early in its administration of the Natural Gas Act the Commission recognized the difficulties inherent in the existing system. Accordingly, in August 1940, the Commission distributed a draft of "Tentative Instructions for Preparing and Filing FPC Gas Schedules" to all natural-gas companies and invited their comments, criticisms and suggestions. The purpose of the instructions, as in the instant proceeding, was to assure uniformity and simplification of rate schedules. However, before the instructions could be worked into final form, the defense mobilization program which preceded World War II resulted in a situation where manpower was unavailable for this work. The Commission, therefore, postponed undertaking the necessary work incident to simplification of rate schedules.

During the period when action on these rules was held in abeyance, however, a number of natural-gas companies, voluntarily and in cooperation with the Commission's staff, revised their complicated rate schedules by filing new tariffs similar to those which are provided for in the amended regulations herein ordered. The sales of natural gas under such tariffs now represent about 50% of the total volume of sales of all natural-gas companies reporting to the Commission and account for well over 50% of the total revenue derived from sales subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission.

Prior to converting their sales contracts to tariff form, these natural-gas companies had on file with the Commission 398 separate schedules consisting of almost 7,000 pages. The substituted tariffs comprise only 388 pages. This illustrates the simplification which can be achieved. The Commission has recognized that these changes are beneficial not only to consumers, but to the natural gas industry as well.

The Commission in April of this year again proposed amendments of its regulations relating to rate schedules with a view to extending simplification through the entire industry. A copy of the proposed amendments to the regulations was mailed to each natural-gas company, and they were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 16, 1948 (13 F. R. 2045–2050). The comments and suggestions of every natural-gas company were invited. A number of companies submitted their views, which have been carefully considered by the Commission.

Many industry suggestions were constructive and were incorporated in a further revision which likewise was submitted to all natural-gas companies. General public notice of the proposed amendments as thus revised was also given by mailing a copy thereof to each natural-gas company, and by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 8, 1948 (13 F. R. 5214). On September 20, 1948, the Commission heard oral argument by representatives of those companies which had expressed a desire to be heard with respect to certain legal issues asserted to be involved in the proposed amendments.

The principal attack on the proposed rules was directed at provisions relating to restatement in cents and dollars and cents of contract rates which provide for "sharing" or "percentage" arrangements, and those thought to affect automatic "adjustment" clauses of presently filed contracts. Industry representatives contended that the proposed rules would affect substantive rights of natural-gas companies which could not be modified in a general rule making proceeding.

In order to expedite these revised regulations, the Commission, without passing upon the validity of the industry contentions, has made additional modifications which are believed to meet the objections to the extent that they have substance. Of particular moment are the modifications of §§ 154.38 (d) and 154.82.

As revised, the regulations permit natural-gas companies to retain in effect, without change, price provisions of presently effective rate schedules which cannot be restated in cents or dollars and cents without effecting a change in rates or charges.

Further modification permits the inclusion in filed service agreements and certain rate schedules of statements of policy by natural-gas companies concerning changes in rates through the application of "adjustment" provisions. However, no provision of this type, whether now on file or which may be filed in the future, may operate, of itself, to change an effective rate or charge. Such changes must be accomplished by the filing of new rate schedules in the manner provided in section 4 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and these regulations.

Section 154.85 has been reworded so as to clarify the Commission's intention to permit contracts now on file as effective rate schedules to continue in effect as executed service agreements until they expire or are superseded.

All interested parties have been given a full opportunity to express themselves with respect to the proposed amendments both in writing and orally, except as to the changes made as a result of the oral argument.

In view of the foregoing, we are of the opinion that further proceedings in this matter are unnecessary. Accordingly, the Commission considers it appropriate and in the public interest to promulgate immediately these amendments to the regulations. Upon consideration of the entire record in this proceeding, the Commission further finds that:

(1) Adoption and promulgation of the proposed amendments, as modified, are necessary and appropriate for the purposes of administration of the Natural Gas Act.

(2) It is appropriate that such proposed amendments be made effective as of December 1, 1948.

The Commission, therefore, acting pursuant to authority granted by the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 16 thereof (52 Stat. 822, 830; 15 U. S. C. 717c, 717o), orders that:

(A) Its general rules and regulations be and the same are hereby amended to the extent of adding certain new sections and amending certain existing sections of Part 153, Part 154 and Part 155 of Subchapter E, and Part 250 of Subchapter G, of Chapter I, Title 18, of the Code of Federal Regulations, so that such sections read as provided in the accompanying and attached statement, which is made a part hereof by reference.

(B) The new and amended regulations and forms herein prescribed be and they are hereby made effective as of December 1, 1948.

(C) The Secretary of the Commission shall cause prompt publication of this order to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Date of issuance: October 30, 1948.

By the Commission.

LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

Subchapter E—Regulations Under the Natural Gas Act

PART 153—APPLICATION FOR AUTHORIZATION TO EXPORT OR IMPORT NATURAL GAS

AUTHORITY: §§ 154.1 to 154.86 issued under 52 Stat. 822, 830; 15 U. S. C. 717c, o.

APPLICATION

§ 154.1 Application; obligation to file. On and after December 1, 1948 every natural-gas company shall file with the Commission and post in conformity with the requirements of this part, schedules showing all rates, and charges for any transportation or sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission and the classifications, practices, rules and regulations affecting such rates, charges and services, together with all contracts in any manner affecting or relating thereto: Provided, however, That all such presently effective schedules filed with the Commission before the aforesaid date shall be restated as set forth in § 154.82 to conform with the following rules and regulations, and filed and posted on or before the dates specified in § 154.83.

DEFINITIONS

§ 154.11 Rate schedule. The term "rate schedule" means a statement of a rate or charge for a particular classification of transportation or sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and all terms, conditions, classifications, practices, rules and regulations affecting such rate or charge. This term also includes any contract for which special permission has been obtained in accordance with § 154.52.

§ 154.12 Contract. The term "contract" means any agreement which in any manner affects or relates to rates, charges, classifications, practices, rules, regulations or services for any transportation or sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. This term includes an executed service agreement.

§ 154.13 Service agreement. The term "service agreement" means an unexecuted form of agreement for service under a natural-gas company's tariff.

§ 154.14 Tariff or FPC gas tariff. The term "tariff" or "FPC gas tariff" means a compilation, in book form, of all of the effective rate schedules of a particular natural-gas company, and a copy of each form of service agreement.

§ 154.15 Filing date. The term "filing date" means the day on which a tariff or part thereof or a contract is received in the office of the Secretary of the Commission for filing in compliance with the requirements of this part.

§ 154.16 Posting. The term "posting" means (a) making a copy of a natural-gas company's tariff and contracts available during regular business hours for public inspection in a convenient form and place at the natural-gas company's offices where business is conducted with affected customers and (b) mailing to each customer affected a copy of such tariff or part thereof at the time it is sent to the Commission for filing.

IN GENERAL

§ 154.21 Effective tariff. The effective tariff of a natural-gas company shall be the tariff filed pursuant to the requirements of this part, and permitted by the Commission to become effective. No natural-gas company shall directly or indirectly, demand, charge or collect any rate or charge for or in connection with the transportation or sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, or impose any classifications, practices, rules or regulations, different from those prescribed in its effective tariff and executed service agreements on file with the Commission, unless otherwise specifically provided by order of the Commission.

§ 154.22 Notice requirements. All tariffs, and contracts or any parts thereof shall be filed with the Commission and posted not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days prior to the proposed effective date thereof, unless a different period of time is permitted by the Commission in accordance with § 154.51. Provided, however, That no natural-gas company shall file under this part any new rate schedule or contract for the performance of any service for which a certificate of public convenience and necessity must be obtained pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, until such certificate has been issued. Nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the natural-gas company from entering into any such agreement prior to the granting of such a certificate.

§ 154.23 Acceptance for filing not approval. The acceptance for filing of any tariff, contract or part thereof is not to be considered as approval by the Commission.

§ 154.24 Rejection of material submitted for filing. The Commission reserves the right to reject any material submitted for filing which fails to comply with the requirements set forth in this part.

§ 154.25 Informal submission for staff suggestions. Any natural-gas company may informally submit a tariff or any part thereof or material relating thereto for the suggestions of the staff of the Commission prior to filing.

§ 154.26 Number of copies to be supplied. Two copies of any tariff, contract, or part thereof, and material relating thereto, Certificates of Adoption, and Notices of Cancellation or Termination submitted for filing must be supplied to the Commission: Provided, however, That restatements filed pursuant to §§ 154.81 through 154.86 shall be furnished in quintuplicate. All copies are to be included in one package, together with a letter of transmittal and other material and information required by these rules, and addressed to the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C. The Commission reserves the right to request additional copies.

§ 154.27 Comments by interested parties. Comments of any purchaser or other interested party concerning any filing made pursuant to this part should be submitted within 15 days after the date of filing. This section shall not limit any right to file protests and complaints.

FORM AND COMPOSITION OF TARIFF

§ 154.31 Application. Sections 154.32 through 154.41 after December 1, 1948 are applicable to all rate schedules thereafter filed or restated, except that such sections are only partially applicable, to rate schedules filed under § 154.52. (A form of an assembled tariff is available upon request.)

§ 154.32 Form, type, and size. The tariff shall be printed, typewritten or otherwise reproduced on 8½ by 11 inch sheets of a durable paper so as to result in a clear and permanent record. The sheets of the tariff shall be ruled to set off borders of 1¼ inches on top, bottom and left sides and ½ inch on the right side, punched on the left side and assembled in a binder.

§ 154.33 Binder, title page and arrangements. The binder shall show on the front cover:

FPC Gas Tariff
Original Volume No. 1 of
(Name of Natural-Gas Company)
Filed with
Federal Power Commission

If it is advisable to submit the tariff in two or more volumes, the volumes shall be identified by "Original Volume No. 1", "Original Volume No. 2", etc., directly below the words "FPC Gas Tariff." Rate schedules for which special exception has been obtained under § 154.52 may be filed in a separate volume as part of the tariff.

When any volume of a tariff is to be superseded or replaced in its entirety, the replacing volume shall show prominently on the binder and the title page the volume number being superseded or replaced, as for example:

FPC Gas Tariff
First Revised Volume No. 1
(Supersedes Original Volume No. 1)

The first page shall be a title page which shall carry the information shown on the cover and, in addition, the name, title, and address of the person to whom communications concerning the tariff should be sent.

All sheets except the title page shall have the following information placed in the margins:

(a) Identification. At the left above the top marginal ruling, the exact name of the company shall be shown, under which shall be set forth the words "FPC Gas Tariff," together with volume identification where applicable.

(b) Numbering of sheets. At the right above the top marginal ruling, the sheet number shall appear after the words "Original Sheet No. ------." All sheets in the originally filed tariff shall be numbered consecutively beginning with the table of contents as "Original Sheet No. 1".

Revised or superseding sheets shall be numbered "------ Revised Sheet No. ------" below which shall appear "Superseding ------ Sheet No. ------." The first blank above shall show the number of the revision (i. e., First, Second, etc.) and the sheet number shall be the same as the sheet replaced. The third and fourth blanks shall be filled according to the numbering of the sheet replaced.

Sheets which are to be inserted between two consecutively numbered sheets shall be designated "Original Sheet No. ------," with the blank space filled with the appropriate number and a letter to indicate an insertion. Illustration: Three sheets which would come between original sheets 8 and 9 would be designated "Original Sheet No. 8A," "Original Sheet No. 8B," and "Original Sheet No. 8C."

(c) Issuing officer and issued date. On the left below the lower marginal ruling, shall be placed "Issued by:" followed by the name and title of the person authorized to issue the sheet. Immediately below shall be placed "Issued on" followed by the date of issue.

(d) Effective date. On the right below the lower marginal ruling shall be placed "Effective:" followed by the specific effective date desired by the company.

(e) Sheets filed to comply with Commission orders. Sheets which are filed to make effective rate schedules or provisions ordered by the Commission shall carry the following notation in the bottom margin: "Issued to comply with order of the Federal Power Commission, Docket No. ----, dated ----------."

§ 154.34 Composition of tariff. The tariff shall contain, in the order named, sections setting forth a table of contents, a preliminary statement, a map of the system, the rate schedules, general terms and conditions, form of service agreement and an index of purchasers: Provided, however, That rate schedules for which special exception has been obtained under § 154.52 may be filed in a separate volume as permitted by § 154.33.

Rate schedules shall be grouped according to class and numbered serially within each group, using a letter before the serial number to indicate the class of service. For example, G–1, G–2 may be used for general service; CD–1, CD–2 for contract demand service; I–1, I–2 for interruptible service; T–1, T–2 for transmission service; X–1, X–2 for schedules for which special exception has been obtained.

§ 154.35 Table of contents. The table of contents shall contain a list of the rate schedules and other sections in the order in which they appear, showing the sheet number of the first page of each section. The list of rate schedules shall consist of (a) the symbol designation of each rate schedule, (b) a very brief description of the service, and (c) the sheet number of the first page of each rate schedule.

§ 154.36 Preliminary statement. The preliminary statement shall contain a brief general description of the company's operations and may also contain a general explanation of its policies and practices. No general rules and regulations shall be included in the preliminary statement, nor any material necessary for the interpretation or application of the rate schedules.

§ 154.37 Map. The map shall show on a single sheet, if practicable, the general geographic location of the company's principal pipe line facilities and of the points at which service is rendered under the Tariff. Where the company's rate schedules are generally available by area, the boundary lines of the rate zones or rate areas should be shown and the areas or zones identified. The map shall be revised annually to reflect major changes if any.

§ 154.38 Composition of rate schedule. The sheets of a rate schedule shall contain a statement of a rate or charge and all terms and conditions governing its application, arranged as follows:

(a) Title. Each rate schedule shall have a title consisting of a designation (see § 154.34), and a statement of the type or classification of service to which it is applicable.

(b) Availability. This paragraph shall describe the conditions under which the rate is available, and, if necessary, the geographic zone in which available.

(c) Applicability and character of service. This paragraph shall fully describe the kind or classification of service to be rendered.

(d) Statement of rate. Except as permitted in §§ 154.52 and 154.82, all rates shall be clearly stated in cents or in dollars and cents per unit. Only the rates and charges to be used in current billing shall be included in the rate schedules.

A rate having more than one part shall have each part set out separately under appropriate headings such as: Demand Charge, Commodity Charge, etc. The minimum bill and other provisions affecting charges shall not be included in this paragraph, but shall be included in subsequent paragraphs.

No rule, regulation, exception or condition such as tax, commodity price index, wholesale price index, purchased gas cost adjustment clauses or other similar price adjustments or periodic changes shall be included in the rate schedule or any other part of the tariff which in any way purports to effect the modification or change of any rate or charge specified in the rate schedule, or the substitution therefor of any other rate or charge: Provided, however, a natural-gas company may state in the service agreement or in rate schedules filed pursuant to § 154.52 that it is or will be its privilege, under certain specified conditions, to propose to the Commission a modification, change or substitution of the then effective rate or charge: Provided further, That no such clause may effectuate a change in an effective rate or charge except in the manner provided in section 4 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the regulations in this part.

(e) Minimum bill. The minimum bill heading shall appear on every rate schedule followed by the word "none" if no minimum bill is provided.

(f) Other provisions. All other major provisions governing the application of the rate schedule, such as determination of billing demand, contract demand, heat content, measurement base, shall be set forth similarly with appropriate headings, or if appropriate, they may be incorporated by reference to the applicable general terms and conditions.

(g) Applicable general terms and conditions. This paragraph shall list by reference the general terms and conditions set forth in the following section which apply to the particular rate schedule.

§ 154.39 General terms and conditions. This section shall contain provisions which apply to all or any of the rate schedules and which may more conveniently be arranged in a separate section of the tariff. Subsections and paragraphs shall be numbered for convenient reference.

§ 154.40 Composition of service agreement. There shall be submitted as part of the tariff an unexecuted copy of each form of service agreement. The service agreement forms should provide for insertion of such items as the name of the purchaser, service to be rendered, area to be served, maximum obligation to deliver, delivery points, delivery pressure, applicable rate schedules by reference to the tariff, effective date and term, and identification of any prior agreements being superseded.

§ 154.41 Index of purchasers. The index of purchasers shall contain an alphabetical list of all purchasers under the tariff, showing for each the rate schedule or schedules under which service is rendered, and the following information concerning the contract: (a) the date of execution, (b) the effective date and (c) the term.

The index of purchasers shall be kept current by filing new or revised sheets within 60 days of any change.

SPECIAL PERMISSIONS

§ 154.51 Waiver of notice requirements. Upon application and for good cause shown, the Commission may by order provide that a tariff, contract, or part thereof shall be effective on less than 30 days notice. The Commission, upon request and for good cause shown, may permit a tariff, contract, or part thereof to be filed prior to sixty days before the proposed effective date.

§ 154.52 Exception to form and composition of tariff. Upon application and for good cause shown, the Commission may permit special rate schedules to be filed in the form of an agreement in the case of special operating arrangements such as for exchange or transportation of natural gas; or for the sale of gas at charges computed on a cost-formula basis, which charges need not be stated in cents or in dollars and cents per unit. Such rate schedules shall conform to the form, type and size specified in § 154.32 and shall contain on each sheet the marginal notations specified in § 154.33. In addition each such rate schedule shall contain a title page which shall show its designation, the parties to the agreement, the date of agreement and a brief generalized description of services to be rendered. Such rate schedules shall not contain any supplements. Any modifications shall be by revised or insert sheets.

Such rate schedules may be included in a separate volume of the tariff, which shall contain a table of its contents. This table of contents shall also be incorporated with the table of contents of other volumes.

METHOD OF SUBMISSION FOR FILING

§ 154.61 Application. Sections 154.62 through 154.65, except as hereinafter otherwise specifically provided, apply to all tariffs, executed service agreements, or parts thereof which are filed after December 1, 1948.

§ 154.62 Material submitted with initial rate schedule or executed service agreement. With the filing of any initial rate schedule or executed service agreement not superseding or making any change in a rate schedule, executed service agreement, or part thereof already on file, there shall be included a letter of transmittal containing a list of the material inclosed, the date on which such filing is proposed to become effective, and a list of the purchasers to whom it has been mailed: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to filings made pursuant to §§ 154.81 through 154.86.

In addition, the following material shall be submitted where applicable:

(a) Statement of the reasons for initial rate schedule. A statement of the nature, and the reason for such proposed initial rate schedule. Data submitted in response to subsequent items may be included by reference as a part of the response to this item.

(b) Estimate of sales and revenues under an initial rate schedule or executed service agreement. An estimate of sales or transportation performed and revenues thereunder, by months, for the 12 months immediately succeeding the proposed effective date. The estimate shall be subdivided by rate schedules, classes of service, customers and delivery points, when more than one is involved. Such data shall include estimates of actual and billing quantities, that are to be used to compute the charges, such as actual demands, billing demands, volumes, heat content, and other determinants.

(c) Basis of the rate or charge proposed in initial rate schedule. A statement shall be submitted explaining the basis used in arriving at the proposed rate or charge. Such statement shall clearly show whether such rate or charge results from negotiation, cost of service determination, competitive factors, or others, and shall give the nature of any studies which have been made in connection therewith. If all or any portion of such information has already been submitted to the Commission, specific reference thereto should be made.

§ 154.63 Material submitted with changes in a tariff, executed service agreement or part thereof. With the filing of any tariff, executed service agreement or part thereof which changes or supersedes any tariff, contract or part thereof on file with the Commission, there shall be included a letter of transmittal containing a list of the material enclosed, the date on which such filing is proposed to become effective, and a list of the purchasers to whom it has been mailed: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to filings made pursuant to §§ 154.81 through 154.86, unless such filing results in a change in rate, charge, classification or service.

In addition, the following material is to be submitted where applicable:

(a) Statement of reasons for change in tariff contract, or part thereof. A statement of the nature, the reasons and the basis for the proposed change. Data submitted in response to subsequent items may be included by reference as part of the response to this item.

(b) Comparison of sales and revenues if change in rate or charge involved. A comparative statement of sales made or transportation performed and revenues therefrom, by months, under the present and proposed tariff, contract, or part thereof, each applied to the transactions for the twelve months immediately preceding and for the twelve months immediately succeeding the proposed effective date of the change in tariff, contract or part thereof. Actual data shall be used as far as possible, and any estimated data should be designated as such. The statement shall be subdivided by rate schedules, classes of service, customers, and delivery points when more than one is involved. Such data shall include actual and billing quantities that are used to compute the charges, such as actual demands, billing demands, volumes, heat content and other determinants.

(c) Rate increase applications. If the proposed change in tariff, contract or part thereof will result in an increase in rates or charges, there shall be submitted in support of the proposed increased rate or charge a statement showing the cost of service for the entire system, and also the cost allocated to the particular service or classification for which the increase in rates or charges is proposed, together with an explanation of the allocation methods.

The information submitted in the statement shall show for the most recent 12-month period or calendar year:

(1) The original cost of facilities and the depreciation reserve, segregated functionally by major account classifications.

(2) Working capital including materials and supplies, with an explanation of the method of derivation thereof.

(3) Any other items claimed as part of the rate base. Such other items should be identified by major account classifications.

(4) Gas operating expenses segregated functionally by major account classifications.

(5) Annual charges for depreciation segregated according to each major account classification shown in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; the annual depreciation rates used in computing such charges; and the method of determining such depreciation rates.

(6) Taxes charged to gas operations, classified under appropriate headings of Federal, State and local, with appropriate subclassification. There should be shown herein any increases in taxes estimated to result from the proposed rate increase, together with the method of derivation of the estimated amount of such tax increase.

(7) Rate of return claimed as reasonable, and the resulting amount of return.

(8) Cost of service as developed from above items.

(9) Relationship between the proposed tariff or part thereof which results in an increase in rates or charges, and the costs allocated to the particular service or classification.

(10) Gas operating revenues segregated functionally by major account classifications.

The statement shall show, by major account classifications, any significant changes in costs experienced during the period for which the above information is submitted, or which are anticipated in the future, with an explanation of the reasons therefor.

(d) Submission of material by reference. If all or any portion of the information called for by paragraph (a) through (d) of this section has already been submitted to the Commission, specific reference thereto may be made in lieu of resubmission in response to these requirements.

(e) Change in executed service agreement. Agreements intended to effect a change or revision of an executed service agreement shall be in the form of a superseding executed service agreement only. Service agreements shall not contain any supplements.

§ 154.64 Cancellation or termination. When a filed tariff, contract or part thereof is proposed to be canceled or is to terminate by its own terms and no new tariff, executed service agreement or part thereof is to be filed in its place, the natural-gas company shall notify the Commission of the proposed cancellation or termination on the form indicated in § 250.2 or § 250.3, whichever is applicable, at least thirty days prior to the proposed effective date of such cancellation or termination. A copy of such notice to the Commission shall be duly posted. With such notice, the company shall submit a statement showing the reasons for the cancellation or termination, a list of the affected purchasers to whom the notice has been mailed, the sales made or transportation performed and revenues therefrom, by months, for the twelve months immediately preceding the proposed effective date of the cancellation or termination. Actual data shall be used as far as possible, and any estimated data should be designated as such. Such statement shall be subdivided by rate schedules, classes of service, customers and delivery points when more than one is involved: Provided, however, That the filing of such notice shall not be construed as compliance with the requirements of section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act.

§ 154.65 Adoption of tariff by successor. Whenever the tariff or contracts of a natural-gas company are to be adopted by another company or person as a result of an acquisition, or merger, authorized by appropriate certificate of public convenience and necessity, or for any other reason, the succeeding company shall file with the Commission and post within thirty days after such succession a certificate of adoption on the form prescribed in § 250.4. Within ninety days after such notice is filed, the succeeding company shall file a tariff with the sheets bearing the correct name of the successor company, to replace the tariff previously adopted.

RESTATEMENT OF SCHEDULES FILED PRIOR TO DECEMBER 1, 1948

§ 154.81 Application. Sections 154.82 through 154.86 apply to effective schedules of rates, charges, classifications, practices, regulations and contracts for the transportation or sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission filed prior to December 1, 1948 which have not been prepared in accordance with §§ 154.31 through 154.41, and for which special exception has not been obtained under § 154.52.

§ 154.82 Requirement for restatement. All effective schedules of rates, charges, classifications, practices, regulations, and contracts not prepared in accordance with §§ 154.31 through 154.41 shall be restated and filed as parts of a Tariff in accordance with said sections on or before the dates specified in § 154.83 and duly posted at the time of filing: Provided, however, That price provisions which cannot be restated in cents or in dollars and cents per unit, as required by § 154.38 (d), without effecting a change in rates or charges may be retained in effect without change. Provided, further, That when necessary, pending completion of restatement within the time provided for by § 154.83, schedules may be filed in accordance with Part 154 as in effect prior to December 1, 1948.

Companies Making Their Major Sales in and Date

Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, Utah, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming: On or before March 1, 1949.

Alabama, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, New York, New Jersey, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Virginia: On or before April 1, 1949.

Arizona, Arkansas, California, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico, Oklahoma; Texas: On or before May 2, 1949.

With the filing of such restatement there shall be included a letter of transmittal containing a list of the material inclosed and a list of the purchasers to whom it has been mailed.

§ 154.84 Plan of restatement. The restatement shall contain the provisions of schedules of rates, charges, classifications, practices, regulations and contracts effective on the date the tariff is filed. However, concurrent with the restatement, a natural-gas company may propose changes in rates, charges, classifications, services, practices, rules and regulations in accordance with § 154.63 of this part. Differences in the phraseology of schedules should be reconciled whenever possible. The effective date to be shown on the tariff sheets shall be that desired by the company, but not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days after filing pursuant to § 154.83.

§ 154.85 Status of contracts filed as rate schedules and restated. Each contract, which is now filed as an effective rate schedule, may be continued in effect and shall be considered as an executed service agreement to the extent that the provisions thereof are not superseded by or in conflict with other applicable provisions of the rate schedules and general terms and conditions of the tariff, until such contract expires by its presently provided terms or is replaced by an executed service agreement in a form contained in the tariff: Provided, however, That the natural-gas company, concurrent with the filing of the tariff, shall submit, for insertion in front of each such contract, a statement identifying the provisions thereof which are not superseded by or in conflict with other applicable provisions of the rate schedules and general terms and conditions of the tariff and which are to remain in effect.

Provided further, however, That agreements intended to effect a change or amendment in such contract may be made only by the execution of a form of service agreement contained in the tariff.

§ 154.86 Availability of Commission staff for advice prior to formal filing. Any natural-gas company restating its schedules in accordance with § 154.82 may informally submit a tariff or any part thereof for the suggestions of the staff of the Commission, or may confer with the staff of the Commission to obtain advice on any problem of restatement, prior to submission of the tariff to the Commission for filing and posting.

PART 155—CONTRACTS AND RATE SCHEDULES FOR DIRECT INDUSTRIAL SALES

Part 155 is added as follows:

§ 155.1 Contracts and rate schedules for direct industrial sales. Every natural-gas company shall currently furnish to the Commission two full and complete copies of every contract and the amendments thereto, presently or hereafter effective, for the direct sale of natural gas to industrial consumers for consumption where such contract involves the sale of 100,000 Mcf per year or more, together with all rate schedules, agreements, leases or other writings, tariffs, classifications, services, rules and regulations relative to such sale: Provided, however, That when such a presently filed contract is renewed or extended on identical terms except as to the period during which it is to be in effect, the natural-gas company may notify the Commission of such renewal or extension by letter, in duplicate, stating the date of the renewal or extension agreement and the period during which it is to be in effect, instead of furnishing to the Commission two copies of such renewal or extension agreement. In addition, every natural-gas company shall furnish to the Commission in October of each year, two full and complete lists of all direct industrial consumers using 3,000 Mcf or more during any month of the 12 months ended with the preceding August, but less than 100,000 Mcf per year, showing name, location, type of service such as firm or interruptible, and maximum monthly use during the 12-month period. TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Federal Security Agency

DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS FOR FOOD

All currently effective definitions and standards for food (Parts 14 to 53, inclusive) promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act of June 25, 1938 (secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371), are reissued as set forth below. This republication is for the purpose of compiling the regulations and amendments, without change. In this republication, where the text contains references to the 1935 and 1940 editions of the Official and Tentative Methods of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists, editorial notes have been inserted to furnish readers with page references of these methods set forth in the 1945 edition which are substantially the same as those in the 1935 and 1940 editions.

AUTHORITY: §§ 14.1 to 14.12 issued under secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371.

NOTE: For findings of fact with respect to Part 14, see 9 F. R. 14329.

§ 14.1 Cacao nibs, cocoa nibs, cracked cocoa; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Cacao nibs, cocoa nibs, cracked cocoa is the food prepared by heating and cracking dried or cured and cleaned cacao beans and removing shell therefrom. Cacao nibs or the cacao beans from which they are prepared may be processed by heating with one or more of the following optional alkali ingredients, added as such or in aqueous solution: Bicarbonate, carbonate, or hydroxide of sodium, ammonium, or potassium; or carbonate or oxide of magnesium; but for each 100 parts by weight of cacao nibs used, as such or before shelling from the cacao beans, the total quantity of such alkalis used is not greater in neutralizing value (calculated from the respective combining weights of such alkalis used) than the neutralizing value of 3 parts by weight of anhydrous potassium carbonate. The cacao shell content of cacao nibs is not more than 1.75 percent by weight (calculated to an alkali-free basis if they or the cacao beans from which they were prepared have been processed with alkali), as determined by the method prescribed under "Shell in Cacao Nibs—Tentative" beginning on page 208 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 223] of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", 5th Ed., 1940.

(b) When cacao nibs or the cacao beans from which they are prepared are processed, in whole or in part, with any optional alkali ingredient specified in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the statement "Processed with Alkali"; but in lieu of the word "Alkali" in such statement the specific common name of the optional alkali ingredient may be used. Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, such statement shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

§ 14.2 Chocolate liquor, chocolate, baking chocolate, bitter chocolate, cooking chocolate, chocolate coating, bitter chocolate coating; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Chocolate liquor, chocolate, baking chocolate, bitter chocolate, cooking chocolate, chocolate coating, bitter chocolate coating is the solid or semiplastic food prepared by finely grinding cacao nibs. To such ground cacao nibs, cacao fat or a cocoa or both may be added in quantities needed to adjust the cacao fat content of the finished chocolate liquor. (For the purposes of this section the term "cocoa" means breakfast cocoa, cocoa, low-fat cocoa, or any mixture of two or more of these.) Chocolate liquor may be spiced, flavored, or otherwise seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients, other than any such ingredient or combination of ingredients specified in subparagraphs (1), (2), or (3) of this paragraph which imparts a flavor that imitates the flavor of chocolate, milk, or butter:

(1) Ground spice.

(2) Ground vanilla beans; any natural food flavoring oil, oleoresin, or extract.

(3) Vanillin, ethyl vanillin, coumarin, or other artificial food flavoring.

(4) Butter, milk fat, dried malted cereal extract, ground coffee, ground nut meats.

(5) Salt.

Any optional ingredient used with the cacao beans or cacao nibs from which such chocolate liquor is prepared, or used with any cocoa added in preparing such chocolate liquor, shall be considered to be an optional ingredient used with such chocolate liquor. The optional alkali ingredients specified for use with cacao nibs in § 14.1 (a) may be used as optional ingredients with chocolate liquor; but for each 100 parts by weight of cacao nibs used in preparing the chocolate liquor, the total quantity of such alkalis used is not greater in neutralizing value (calculated from the respective combining weights of such alkalis used) than 3 parts by weight of anhydrous potassium carbonate. The finished chocolate liquor contains not less than 50 percent and not more than 58 percent by weight of cacao fat. Unless the chocolate liquor is seasoned with butter, milk fat, or ground nut meats, the percentage of cacao fat is determined by the method prescribed under "Fat Method I—Official" beginning on page 202 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 229] of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", 5th Ed., 1940.

(b) Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statements hereinafter prescribed showing the optional ingredients used shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

(1) When the food is seasoned with an optional ingredient specified in subparagraph (a) (1) of this section the label shall bear the statement "Spiced", "Spice Added", "With Added Spice", "Spiced With ____", or "With Added ____", the blank being filled in with the specific common name of the spice used.

(2) When the food is flavored with an optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (2) of this section, the label shall bear the statement "Flavored", "Flavoring Added", "With Added Flavoring", "Flavored With _____", "_____ Added", or "With Added _____", the blank being filled in with the specific common name of the flavoring used.

(3) When the food is flavored with an optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (3) of this section, the label shall bear the statement "Artificially Flavored", "Artificial Flavoring Added", "With Artificial Flavoring", "Artificially Flavored With ____", or "With ____. An Artificial Flavoring", the blank being filled in with the specific common name of the artificial flavoring used.

(4) When the food is seasoned with an optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (4) of this section, the label shall bear the statement "Seasoned With ____", the blank being filled in with the specific common name of the substance used as seasoning.

(5) When any optional alkali ingredient specified in § 14.1 (a) is used, the label shall bear the statement "Processed with Alkali"; but in lieu of the word "Alkali" in such statement the specific common name of the optional alkali ingredient may be used.

Label statements prescribed in subparagraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of this paragraph may be combined, as for example, "With Added Cinnamon, Vanilla, and Coumarin, An Artificial Flavoring."

§ 14.3 Breakfast cocoa, high fat cocoa; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Breakfast cocoa, high fat cocoa is the food prepared by pulverizing the residual material remaining after part of the cacao fat has been removed from ground cacao nibs. It may be spiced, flavored, or otherwise seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients, other than any such ingredient or combination of ingredients which imparts a flavor that imitates the flavor of chocolate, milk, or butter:

(1) Ground spice.

(2) Ground vanilla beans; any natural food flavoring oil, oleoresin, or extract.

(3) Vanillin, ethyl vanillin, coumarin, or other artificial food flavoring.

(4) Salt.

Any optional ingredient used with the cacao beans, cacao nibs, or ground cacao nibs from which such breakfast cocoa is prepared shall be considered to be an optional ingredient used with such breakfast cocoa. The optional alkali ingredients specified for use with cacao nibs in § 14.1 (a) may be used as optional ingredients with breakfast cocoa; but for each 100 parts by weight of cacao nibs used in preparing the breakfast cocoa, the total quantity of such alkalis used is not greater in neutralizing value (calculated from the respective combining weights of such alkalis used) than 3 parts by weight of anhydrous potassium carbonate. The finished breakfast cocoa contains not less than 22 percent of cacao fat, as determined by the method prescribed under "Fat Method I—Official" beginning on page 202 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 229] of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," 5th Ed., 1940.

(b) Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statements hereinafter prescribed showing the optional ingredients used shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter:

(1) When the food is seasoned with an optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (1) of this section, the label shall bear the statement "Spiced", "Spice Added", "With Added Spice", "Spiced With ____", or "With Added ____", the blank being filled in with the specific common name of the spice used.

(2) When the food is flavored with an optional ingredient specified in subparagraph (a) (2) of this section, the label shall bear the statement "Flavored", "Flavoring Added", "With Added Flavoring", "Flavored With _____", "_____ Added", or "With Added ____", the blank being filled in with the specific common name of the flavoring used.

(3) When the food is flavored with an optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (3) of this section, the label shall bear the statement "Artificially Flavored", "Artificial Flavoring Added", "With Artificial Flavoring", "Artificially Flavored With ____", or "With ____, An Artificial Flavoring", the blank being filled in with the specific common name of the artificial flavoring used.

(4) When any optional alkali ingredient specified in § 14.1 (a) is used, the label shall bear the statement "Processed With Alkali" but in lieu of the word "Alkali" in such statement the specific common name of the optional alkali ingredient may be used.

Label statements prescribed by subparagraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of this paragraph may be combined, as for example, "With Added Cinnamon, Vanilla, and Coumarin, An Artificial Flavoring."

§ 14.4 Cocoa, medium fat cocoa; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Cocoa, medium fat cocoa conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for breakfast cocoa by § 14.3, except that it contains less than 22 percent but not less than 10 percent of cacao fat, as determined by the method referred to in § 14.3 (a).

§ 14.5 Low-fat cocoa; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Low-fat cocoa conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for breakfast cocoa by § 14.3, except that it contains less than 10 percent of cacao fat as determined by the method referred to in § 14.3 (a).

§ 14.6 Sweet chocolate, sweet chocolate coating; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Sweet chocolate, sweet chocolate coating is the solid or semiplastic food the ingredients of which are intimately mixed and ground, prepared from chocolate liquor (with or without the addition of cacao fat) sweetened with one of the optional saccharine ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section. It may be spiced, flavored, or otherwise seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients, other than any such ingredient or combination of ingredients which imparts a flavor that imitates the flavor of chocolate, milk, or butter:

(1) Ground spice, ground vanilla beans, any natural food flavoring oil or oleoresin or extract, ground coffee, ground nut meats, honey, molasses, brown sugar, maple sugar, dried malted cereal extract, salt.

(2) Vanillin, ethyl vanillin, coumarin, or other artificial food flavoring.

One or a mixture of both of the following optional emulsifying ingredients may be added in a total quantity not more than 0.5 percent of the weight of the finished food (such ingredient or mixture may be added in combination with a vegetable food fat carrier, such combination containing not less than 60 percent by weight of the emulsifying ingredient or mixture):

(3) Lecithin, with or without related natural phosphatides.

(4) Monoglycerides and diglycerides of fat-forming fatty acids in combination with monosodium phosphate derivatives thereof.

One or any mixture of two or more of the following optional dairy ingredients may be used in such quantity that the finished sweet chocolate contains less than 12 percent by weight of milk constituent solids:

(5) Butter, milk fat, cream, milk, concentrated milk, evaporated milk, sweetened condensed milk, dried milk, skim milk, concentrated skim milk, evaporated skim milk, sweetened condensed skim milk, nonfat dry milk solids, concentrated buttermilk, dried buttermilk, malted milk.

If chocolate liquor with any optional ingredient specified in § 14.2 (a) is used, such ingredient shall be considered to be an optional ingredient used with the sweet chocolate. The finished sweet chocolate contains not less than 15 percent by weight of chocolate liquor, calculated by subtracting from the weight of chocolate liquor used the weight of cacao fat therein and the weights therein of alkali and seasoning ingredients, if any, multiplying the remainder by 2.2, dividing the result by the weight of the finished sweet chocolate, and multiplying the quotient by 100. Bittersweet chocolate is sweet chocolate which contains not less than 35 percent by weight of chocolate liquor, calculated in the same manner.

(b) The optional saccharine ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) Sugar, or partly refined cane sugar, or both.

(2) Any mixture of dextrose and sugar or partly refined cane sugar or both in which the weight of the solids of the dextrose used is not more than one-third of the total weight of the solids of all the saccharine ingredients used.

(3) Any mixture of dried corn sirup and sugar or partly refined cane sugar or both in which the weight of the solids of the dried corn sirup used is not more than one-fourth of the total weight of the solids of all the saccharine ingredients used.

(4) Any mixture of dextrose, dried corn sirup, and sugar or partly refined cane sugar or both, in which three times the weight of the solids of the dextrose used plus four times the weight of the solids of the dried corn sirup used is not more than the total weight of the solids of all the saccharine ingredients used.

(c) For the purpose of this section:

(1) The term "dextrose" means the anhydrous refined monosaccharide obtained from hydrolyzed starch.

(2) The term "dried corn sirup" means the product obtained by drying incompletely hydrolyzed cornstarch; its solids contain not less than 58 percent by weight of reducing sugars.

(d) "Semisweet chocolate," "bittersweet chocolate," "semisweet chocolate coating," and "bittersweet chocolate coating" are alternate names for sweet chocolate which contains not less than the minimum quantity of chocolate liquor prescribed for bittersweet chocolate by paragraph (a) of this section.

(e) Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statements hereinafter prescribed showing the optional ingredients used shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter:

(1) When the food is flavored with an optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (2) of this section, the label shall bear the statement "Artificially Flavored," "Artificial Flavoring Added," "With Artificial Flavoring," "Artificially Flavored With ____," or "With ____, An Artificial Flavoring," the blank being filled in with the specific common name of the artificial flavoring used.

(2) When an optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (3) or (4) of this section is used, the label shall bear the statement "Emulsifier Added" or "With Added Emulsifier."

(3) When any optional alkali ingredient specified in § 14.1 (a) is used the label shall bear the statement "Processed with Alkali," but in lieu of the word "Alkali" in such statement the specific common name of the optional alkali ingredient may be used.

Label statements prescribed by subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph may be combined, as for example, "With Added Emulsifier and Coumarin, An Artificial Flavoring."

§ 14.7 Milk chocolate, sweet milk chocolate, milk chocolate coating, sweet milk chocolate coating; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Milk chocolate, sweet milk chocolate, milk chocolate coating, sweet milk chocolate coating is the solid or semiplastic food the ingredients of which are intimately mixed and ground, prepared from chocolate liquor (with or without the addition of cacao fat) and one or more of the optional dairy ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section, sweetened with one of the optional saccharine ingredients specified in § 14.6 (b) and (c). It may be spiced, flavored, or otherwise seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients, other than any such ingredient or combination of ingredients which imparts a flavor that imitates the flavor of chocolate, milk, or butter:

(1) Ground spice, ground vanilla beans, any natural food flavoring oil or oleoresin or extract, ground coffee, ground nut meats, honey, molasses, brown sugar, maple sugar, dried malted cereal extract, salt.

(2) Vanillin, ethyl vanillin, coumarin, or other artificial food flavoring.

One or a mixture of both of the following optional emulsifying ingredients may be added in a total quantity not more than 0.5 percent of the weight of the finished food (such ingredient or mixture may be added in combination with a vegetable food fat carrier, such combination containing not less than 60 percent by weight of the emulsifying ingredient or mixture):

(3) Lecithin, with or without related natural phosphatides.

(4) Monoglycerides and diglycerides of fat-forming fatty acids in combination with monosodium phosphate derivatives thereof.

If chocolate liquor with any optional ingredient specified in § 14.2 (a) is used, such ingredient shall be considered to be an optional ingredient used with the milk chocolate. The finished milk chocolate contains not less than 3.66 percent by weight of milk fat, not less than 12 percent by weight of milk solids, and not less than 10 percent by weight of chocolate liquor as calculated by subtracting from the weight of chocolate liquor used the weight of cacao fat therein and the weights therein of alkali and seasoning ingredients, if any, multiplying the remainder by 2.2, dividing the result by the weight of the finished milk chocolate, and multiplying the quotient by 100.

(b) The optional dairy ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are milk, concentrated milk, evaporated milk, sweetened condensed milk, dried milk, butter, milk fat, cream, skim milk, concentrated skim milk, evaporated skim milk, sweetened condensed skim milk, and nonfat dry milk solids; but in any such ingredient or combination of two or more of such ingredients used, the weight of nonfat milk solids is not more than 2.43 times and not less than 1.20 times the weight of milk fat therein.

(c) Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statements hereinafter prescribed showing the optional ingredients used shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter:

(1) When the food is flavored with an optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (2) of this section, the label shall bear the statement "Artificially Flavored", "Artificial Flavoring Added", "With Artificial Flavoring", "Artificially Flavored With _____", or "With _____, An Artificial Flavoring", the blank being filled in with the specific common name of the artificial flavoring used.

(2) When an optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (3) or (4) of this section is used, the label shall bear the statement "Emulsifier Added" or "With Added Emulsifier."

(3) When any optional alkali ingredient specified in § 14.1 (a) is used the label shall bear the statement "Processed With Alkali", but in lieu of the word "Alkali" in such statement the specific common name of the optional alkali ingredient may be used.

Label statements prescribed by subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph may be combined, as for example, "With Added Emulsifier and Coumarin, An Artificial Flavoring."

§ 14.8 Skim milk chocolate, sweet skim milk chocolate, skim milk chocolate coating, sweet skim milk chocolate coating; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Skim milk chocolate, sweet skim milk chocolate, skim milk chocolate coating, sweet skim milk chocolate coating conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for milk chocolate by § 14.7, except that:

(1) The dairy ingredients used are limited to skim milk, concentrated skim milk, evaporated skim milk, sweetened condensed skim milk, nonfat dry milk solids, and any combination of two or more of these.

(2) The finished skim milk chocolate contains less than 3.66 percent by weight of milk fat and, instead of milk solids, it contains not less than 12 percent by weight of skim milk solids.

§ 14.9 Buttermilk chocolate, buttermilk chocolate coating; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Buttermilk chocolate, buttermilk chocolate coating conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for milk chocolate by § 14.7, except that:

(1) The dairy ingredients used are limited to sweet cream buttermilk, concentrated sweet cream buttermilk, dried sweet cream buttermilk, or any combination of two or all of these.

(2) The finished buttermilk chocolate contains less than 3.66 percent by weight of milk fat and, instead of milk solids, it contains not less than 12 percent by weight of sweet cream buttermilk solids.

§ 14.10 Mixed dairy product chocolates, mixed dairy product chocolate coatings; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) The articles for which definitions and standards of identity are prescribed by this section are the foods each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for milk chocolate by § 14.7, except that:

(1) The dairy ingredient used in each such article is a mixture of two or more of the following four components:

(i) Any dairy ingredient or combination of such ingredients specified in § 14.7 (b) which is within the limits of the ratios specified therein for nonfat milk solids to milk fat.

(ii) One or more of the five skim milk ingredients specified in § 14.8.

(iii) One or more of the three sweet cream buttermilk ingredients specified in § 14.9.

(iv) Malted milk.

(2) Each of the finished articles may contain less than 3.66 percent by weight of milk fat and, instead of milk solids, it contains not less than 12 percent by weight of milk constituent solids of the components used. The quantity of each component used in any such mixture is such that no component contributes less than one-third of the weight of milk constituent solids contributed by that component used in largest proportion. When any such mixture is of components (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (1), the quantity of nonfat milk solids in such mixture is more than 2.43 times the quantity of milk fat therein. For the purposes of paragraph (b) of this section, the designation of each of the components listed above is respectively "Milk," "Skim Milk," "Buttermilk," and "Malted Milk."

(b) The name of each such article is "chocolate" or "chocolate coating" preceded by the designations prescribed by paragraph (a) of this section for each component of the dairy ingredients used, such designations appearing in the order of predominance, if any, of the weight of milk constitutent solids in each such component. (For example, "Milk and Skim Milk Chocolate".)

§ 14.11 Sweet chocolate and vegetable fat (other than cacao fat) coating; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Sweet chocolate and vegetable fat (other than cacao fat) coating conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for sweet chocolate by § 14.6, except that:

(1) In its preparation is added one or any combination of two or more vegetable food oils or vegetable food fats, other than cacao fat, which oil, fat, or combination may be hydrogenated and which has a melting point lower than that of cacao fat.

(2) The requirement of § 14.6 (a) that the milk constituent solids be less than 12 percent by weight does not apply.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not be construed as applicable to any article by reason of the addition thereto of a vegetable food fat other than cacao fat as a carrier of emulsifying ingredients, as authorized and within the limit prescribed by § 14.6 (a).

§ 14.12 Sweet cocoa and vegetable fat (other than cacao fat) coating; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Sweet cocoa and vegetable fat (other than cacao fat) coating conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for sweet chocolate by § 14.6, except that:

(1) In its preparation cocoa is used, instead of chocolate liquor, in such quantity that the finished food contains not less than 6.8 percent by weight of the nonfat cacao portion of such cocoa, calculated by subtracting from the weight of cocoa used the weight of cacao fat therein and the weight therein of alkali and seasoning ingredients, if any, dividing the remainder by the weight of the finished food, and multiplying the quotient by 100. (For the purposes of this section the term "cocoa" means breakfast cocoa, cocoa, low-fat cocoa, or any mixture of two or more of these.)

(2) In its preparation is added one or any combination of two or more vegetable food oils, vegetable food fats, or vegetable food stearins, other than cacao fat, which oil, fat, stearin, or combination has a melting point higher than that of cacao fat. Any such oil or fat may be hydrogenated.

(3) The requirement of § 14.6 (a) that the milk constituent solids be less than 12 percent by weight does not apply.

AUTHORITY: §§ 15.00 to 15.514 issued under secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371.

SUBPART A—WHEAT FLOUR AND RELATED PRODUCTS

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to §§ 15.00 to 15.150, inclusive, see 6 F. R. 2574.

§ 15.00 Flour, white flour, wheat flour, plain flour; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Flour, white flour, wheat flour, plain flour, is the food prepared by grinding and bolting cleaned wheat other than durum wheat and red durum wheat; to compensate for any natural deficiency of enzymes, malted wheat, malted wheat flour, malted barley flour, or any combination of two or more of these, may be used; but the quantity of malted barley flour so used is not more than 0.25 percent. One of the cloths through which the flour is bolted has openings not larger than those of woven wire cloth designated "149 micron (No. 100)" in table I of "Standard Specifications for Sieves", published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the U. S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards. The flour is freed from bran coat, or bran coat and germ, to such extent that the percent of ash therein, calculated to a moisture-free basis, is not more than the sum of one-twentieth of the percent of protein therein, calculated to a moisture-free basis, and 0.35. Its moisture content is not more than 15 percent. Unless such addition conceals damage or inferiority of the flour or makes it appear better or of greater value than it is, one or any combination of two or more of the following optional bleaching ingredients may be added in a quantity not more than sufficient for bleaching or, in case such ingredient has an artificial aging effect, in a quantity not more than sufficient for bleaching and such artificial aging effect:

(1) Oxides of nitrogen.
(2) Chlorine.
(3) Nitrosyl chloride.
(4) Nitrogen trichloride.
(5) One part by weight of benzoyl peroxide mixed with not more than six parts by weight of a mixture of either potassium alum or calcium sulfate and magnesium carbonate.

(b) When any optional bleaching ingredient is used, the label shall bear the word "Bleached." Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the word "Bleached" shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter; except that where such name is a part of a trade-mark or brand, other written, printed, or graphic matter, which is also a part of such trade-mark or brand, may so intervene if the word "Bleached" is in such juxtaposition with such trade-mark or brand as to be conspicuously related to such name.

(c) For the purposes of this section:

(1) Ash is determined by the method prescribed in the book "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", 5th edition, 1940, page 212 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 238], under "Method I—Official." Ash is calculated to a moisture-free basis by subtracting the percent of moisture in the flour from 100, dividing the remainder into the percent of ash, and multiplying the quotient by 100.

(2) Protein is 5.7 times the nitrogen as determined by the method prescribed in such book on page 26 [Ed. note, 6th edition, p. 27], under "Kjeldahl-Gunning-Arnold Method—Official." Protein is calculated to a moisture-free basis by subtracting the percent of moisture in the flour from 100, dividing the remainder into the percent of protein, and multiplying the quotient by 100.

(3) Moisture is determined by the method prescribed in such book on page 211 [Ed. note, 6th edition, p. 237], under "Vacuum Oven Method—Official."

§ 15.10 Enriched flour; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Enriched flour conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for flour by § 15.00, except that:

(a) It contains in each pound not less than 2.0 milligrams and not more than 2.5 milligrams of thiamine, not less than 1.2 milligrams and not more than 1.5 milligrams of riboflavin, not less than 16.0 milligrams and not more than 20.0 milligrams of niacin or niacinamide, not less than 13.0 milligrams and not more than 16.5 milligrams of iron (Fe);

(b) Vitamin D may be added in such quantity that each pound of the finished enriched flour contains not less than 250 U. S. P. units and not more than 1,000 U. S. P. units of vitamin D;

(c) Calcium may be added in such quantity that each pound of the finished enriched flour contains not less than 500 milligrams and not more than 625 milligrams of calcium (Ca), except that enriched flour may be acidified with monocalcium phosphate irrespective of the minimum limit for calcium (Ca) herein prescribed;

(d) It may contain not more than 5 percent by weight of wheat germ or partly defatted wheat germ; and

(e) In determining whether the ash content complies with the requirements of this section allowance is made for ash resulting from any added iron or salts of iron or calcium.

Iron and calcium may be added only in forms which are harmless and assimilable. The substances referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section may be added in a harmless carrier which does not impair the enriched flour; such carrier is used only in the quantity necessary to effect an intimate and uniform admixture of such substances with the flour.

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to § 15.10, see 8 F. R. 9115.

§ 15.20 Bromated flour; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Bromated flour conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for flour by § 15.00, except that potassium bromate is added in a quantity not exceeding 50 parts to each million parts of the finished bromated flour, and is added only to flours whose baking qualities are improved by such addition.

§ 15.30 Enriched bromated flour; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Enriched bromated flour conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for enriched flour by § 15.10, except that potassium bromate is added in a quantity not exceeding 50 parts to each million parts of the finished enriched bromated flour, and is added only to enriched flours whose baking qualities are improved by such addition.

NOTE: §§ 15.20 and 15.30 shall become effective on the ninetieth day following July 23, 1948 (13 F. R. 4232).

For findings of fact relating to §§ 15.20 and 15.30, see 13 F. R. 4231.

§ 15.40 Durum flour; identity. (a) Durum flour is the food prepared by grinding and bolting cleaned durum wheat. One of the cloths through which such flour is bolted has openings not larger than those of woven-wire cloth designated "149 micron (No. 100)" in table I of "Standard Specifications for Sieves", published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the U. S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards. It is freed from bran coat, or bran coat and germ, to such extent that the percent of ash therein, calculated to a moisture-free basis, is not more than 1.5 percent. Its moisture content is not more than 15 percent.

(b) For the purposes of this section, ash and moisture are determined by the methods therefor referred to in § 15.00 (c).

§ 15.50 Self-rising flour, self-rising white flour, self-rising wheat flour; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Self-rising flour, self-rising white flour, self-rising wheat flour, is an intimate mixture of flour, sodium bicarbonate, and the acid-reacting substance monocalcium phosphate or sodium acid pyrophosphate or both. It is seasoned with salt. When it is tested by the method prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section not less than 0.5 percent of carbon dioxide is evolved. The acid-reacting substance is added in sufficient quantity to neutralize the sodium bicarbonate. The combined weight of such acid-reacting substance and sodium bicarbonate is not more than 4.5 parts to each 100 parts of flour used. Subject to the conditions and restrictions prescribed by § 15.00 (a), the bleaching ingredients specified in such section may be added as optional ingredients. If the flour used in making the self-rising flour is bleached, the optional bleaching ingredient used therein (see § 15.00 (a)) is also an optional ingredient of the self-rising flour.

(b) When any optional bleaching ingredient is used, the label shall bear the word "Bleached." Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the word "Bleached" shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter; except that where such name is a part of a trade-mark or brand, other written, printed, or graphic matter, which is also a part of such trade-mark or brand, may so intervene if the word "Bleached" is in such juxtaposition with such trade-mark or brand as to be conspicuously related to such name.

(c) The method referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", 5th edition, 1940, beginning on page 186 [Ed. note, 6th edition, p. 208] under "Gasometric Method with Chittick's Apparatus—Official", except that the following procedure is substituted for the procedure specified therein under "6—Determination":

Weigh 17 grams of the official sample into flask A, add 15–20 glass beads (4–6 mm. diameter), and connect this flask with the apparatus (fig. 22). Open stopcock C and by means of the leveling bulb E bring the displacement solution to the 25 cc. graduation above the zero mark. (This 25 cc. is a partial allowance for the volume of acid to be used in the decomposition.) Allow the apparatus to stand 1–2 minutes to insure that the temperature and pressure within the apparatus are the same as those of the room. Close the stopcock, lower the leveling bulb somewhat to reduce the pressure within the apparatus, and slowly run into the decomposition flask from burette F 45 cc. of sulfuric acid (1+5). To prevent the liberated carbon dioxide from escaping through the acid burette into the air, keep the displacement solution in the leveling bulb at all times during the decomposition at a lower level than that in the gas-measuring tube. Rotate and then vigorously agitate the decomposition flask for three minutes to mix the contents intimately. Allow to stand for ten minutes to bring to equilibrium. Equalize the pressure in the measuring tube by means of the leveling bulb and read the volume of gas from the zero point on the tube. Deduct 20 cc. from this reading (this 20 cc. together with previous allowance of 25 cc. compensates for the 45 cc. acid used in the decomposition). Observe the temperature of the air surrounding the apparatus and also the barometric pressure and multiply the number of cc. of gas evolved by the factor given in Table 24—Chapter XLIII [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, 44.30] for the temperature and pressure observed. Divide the corrected reading by 100 to obtain the apparent percent by weight of carbon dioxide in the official sample.

Correct the apparent percent of carbon dioxide to compensate for varying atmospheric conditions by immediately assaying a synthetic sample by the same method in the same apparatus.

Prepare the synthetic sample with 16.2 grams of flour, 0.30 gram of monocalcium phosphate, 0.30 gram of salt, and a sufficient quantity of sodium bicarbonate U. S. P. (dried over sulfuric acid) to yield the amount of carbon dioxide recovered in assay of official sample. Determine this quantity by multiplying weight of carbon dioxide recovered in assay of official sample by 1.91.

Divide the weight of carbon dioxide recovered from synthetic sample by weight of carbon dioxide contained in sodium bicarbonate used.

Divide the quotient into the apparent percent of carbon dioxide in official sample to obtain percent of carbon dioxide evolved from the official sample.

§ 15.60 Enriched self-rising flour; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Enriched self-rising flour conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for self-rising flour by § 15.50, except that:

(a) It contains in each pound not less than 2.0 milligrams and not more than 2.5 milligrams of thiamine, not less than 1.2 milligrams and not more than 1.5 milligrams of riboflavin, not less than 16.0 milligrams and not more than 20.0 milligrams of niacin or niacinamide, not less than 13.0 milligrams and not more than 16.5 milligrams of iron (Fe), not less than 500 milligrams and not more than 1,500 milligrams of calcium (Ca);

(b) Vitamin D may be added in such quantity that each pound of the finished enriched self-rising flour contains not less than 250 U. S. P. units and not more than 1,000 U. S. P. units of vitamin D;

15.40 Durum flour; identity.

(c) It may contain not more than 5 percent by weight of wheat germ or partly defatted wheat germ;

(d) When calcium is added as dicalcium phosphate, such dicalcium phosphate is also considered to be an acid-reacting substance; and

(e) When calcium is added as carbonate, the method set forth in § 15.50 (c) does not apply as a test for carbon dioxide evolved; but in such case the quantity of carbon dioxide evolved under ordinary conditions of use of the enriched self-rising flour is not less than 0.5 percent of the weight thereof.

Iron and calcium may be added only in forms which are harmless and assimilable. The substances referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section may be added in a harmless carrier which does not impair the enriched self-rising flour; such carrier is used only in the quantity necessary to effect an intimate and uniform admixture of such substances with the flour.

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to § 15.60, see 8 F. R. 9115.

§ 15.70 Phosphated flour, phosphated white flour, phosphated wheat flour; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Phosphated flour, phosphated white flour, phosphated wheat flour, conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label declaration of optional ingredients, prescribed for flour by § 15.00, except that:

(a) Monocalcium phosphate is added in a quantity not less than 0.25 percent and not more than 0.75 percent of the weight of the finished phosphated flour; and

(b) In determining whether the ash content complies with the requirements of this section allowance is made for the added monocalcium phosphate.

§ 15.80 Whole wheat flour, graham flour, entire wheat flour; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Whole wheat flour, graham flour, entire wheat flour, is the food prepared by so grinding cleaned wheat other than durum wheat and red durum wheat that, when tested by the method prescribed in paragraph (c) (2) of this section, not less than 90 percent passes through a No. 8 sieve and not less than 50 percent passes through a No. 20 sieve. The proportions of the natural constituents of such wheat, other than moisture, remain unaltered. To compensate for any natural deficiency of enzymes, malted wheat, malted wheat flour, malted barley flour, or any combination of two or more of these, may be used; but the quantity of malted wheat flour so used is not more than 0.5 percent, and the quantity of malted barley flour so used is not more than 0.25 percent. The moisture content of whole wheat flour is not more than 15 percent. Unless such addition conceals damage or inferiority of the whole wheat flour or makes it appear better or of greater value than it is, the optional bleaching ingredient nitrogen trichloride, chlorine, or a mixture of nitrosyl chloride and chlorine, may be added in a quantity not more than sufficient for bleaching and artificial aging effects.

(b) When any optional bleaching ingredient is used, the label shall bear the word "Bleached." Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the word "Bleached" shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter; except that where such name is a part of a trade-mark or brand, other written, printed, or graphic matter, which is also a part of such trade-mark or brand, may so intervene if the word "Bleached" is in such juxtaposition with such trade-mark or brand as to be conspicuously related to such name.

(c) For the purpose of this section:

(1) Moisture is determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", 5th edition, 1940, page 211 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 237] under "Vacuum Oven Method—Official."

(2) The method referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is as follows: Use No. 8 and No. 20 sieves, having standard 8-inch full height frames, complying with the specifications for wire cloth and sieve frames in "Standard Specifications for Sieves", published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the U. S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards. Fit a No. 8 sieve into a No. 20 sieve. Attach bottom pan to the No. 20 sieve. Pour 100 grams of the sample into the No. 8 sieve. Attach cover and hold the assembly in a slightly inclined position with one hand. Shake the sieves by striking the sides against the other hand with an upward stroke, at the rate of about 150 times per minute. Turn the sieves about one-sixth of a revolution, each time in the same direction, after each 25 strokes. Continue shaking for two minutes. Weigh the material which fails to pass through the No. 8 sieve and the material which passes through the No. 20 sieve.

§ 15.90 Bromated whole wheat flour; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Bromated whole wheat flour conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for whole wheat flour by § 15.80, except that potassium bromate is added in a quantity not exceeding 75 parts to each million parts of finished bromated whole wheat flour.

§ 15.100 Whole durum wheat flour; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Whole durum wheat flour conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for whole wheat flour by § 15.80, except that cleaned durum wheat, instead of cleaned wheat other than durum wheat and red durum wheat, is used in its preparation.

§ 15.110 Crushed wheat, coarse ground wheat; identity. Crushed wheat, coarse ground wheat, is the food prepared by so crushing cleaned wheat other than durum wheat and red durum wheat that, when tested by the method prescribed in § 15.80 (c) (2), 40 percent or more passes through a No. 8 sieve and less than 50 percent passes through a No. 20 sieve. The proportions of the natural constituents of such wheat, other than moisture, remain unaltered. Crushed wheat contains not more than 15 percent of moisture as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", 5th edition, 1940, page 353 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 404], under "Preparation of Sample—Official" and "Moisture I. Drying with Heat—Official."

§ 15.120 Cracked wheat; identity. Cracked wheat is the food prepared by so cracking or cutting into angular fragments cleaned wheat other than durum wheat and red durum wheat that, when tested by the method prescribed in § 15.80 (c) (2), not less than 90 percent passes through a No. 8 sieve and not more than 20 percent passes through a No. 20 sieve. The proportions of the natural constituents of such wheat, other than moisture, remain unaltered. Cracked wheat contains not more than 15 percent of moisture as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", 5th edition, 1940, page 353 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 404], under "Preparation of Sample—Official" and "Moisture I. Drying with Heat—Official."

§ 15.130 Farina; identity. (a) Farina is the food prepared by grinding and bolting cleaned wheat, other than durum wheat and red durum wheat, to such fineness that, when tested by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) (2) of this section, it passes through a No. 20 sieve, but not more than 3 percent passes through a No. 100 sieve. It is freed from bran coat, or bran coat and germ, to such extent that the percent of ash therein, calculated to a moisture-free basis, is not more than 0.6 percent. Its moisture content is not more than 15 percent.

(b) For the purposes of this section:

(1) Ash and moisture are determined by the methods therefor referred to in § 15.00 (c).

(2) The method referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is as follows: Use No. 20 and No. 100 sieves, having standard 8-inch full-height frames, complying with the specifications for wire cloth and sieve frames in "Standard Specifications for Sieves," published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the U. S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards. Fit a No. 20 sieve into a No. 100 sieve. Attach bottom pan to the No. 100 sieve. Pour 100 grams of the sample into the No. 20 sieve. Attach cover and hold the assembly in a slightly inclined position with one hand. Shake the sieves by striking the sides against the other hand with an upward stroke, at the rate of about 150 times per minute. Turn the sieves about one-sixth of a revolution, each time in the same direction, after each 25 strokes. Continue shaking for two minutes. Weigh the material which fails to pass through the No. 20 sieve and the material which passes through the No. 100 sieve.

§ 15.140 Enriched farina; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Enriched farina conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for farina by § 15.130, except that:

(1) It contains in each pound not less than 1.66 milligrams of vitamin B_1, not less than 1.2 milligrams of riboflavin, not less than 6 milligrams of niacin or niacin amide, and not less than 6 milligrams of iron (Fe);

NOTE: The effective date of the requirement that each pound of enriched farina contain not less than 1.2 milligrams of riboflavin was postponed until further announcement, 8 F. R. 3358, 9115.

(2) Vitamin D may be added in such quantity that each pound of the finished enriched farina contains not less than 250 U. S. P. units of the optional ingredient vitamin D;

(3) Calcium may be added in such quantity that each pound of the finished enriched farina contains not less than 500 milligrams of the optional ingredient calcium (Ca).

(4) It may contain not more than 8 percent by weight of the optional ingredient wheat germ or partly defatted wheat germ.

(5) It may contain not less than 0.5 percent and not more than 1 percent by weight of the optional ingredient disodium phosphate.

(6) In determining whether the ash content complies with the requirements of this section allowance is made for ash resulting from any added iron or salts of iron or calcium, or from any added disodium phosphate, or from any added wheat germ or partly defatted wheat germ.

Iron and calcium may be added only in forms which are harmless and assimilable. Dried irradiated yeast may be used as a source of vitamin D. The substances referred to in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph may be added in a harmless carrier which does not impair the enriched farina; such carrier is used only in the quantity necessary to effect an intimate and uniform admixture of such substances with the farina.

(b) When the optional ingredient disodium phosphate is used, the label shall bear the statement "Disodium phosphate added for quick cooking." Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, such statement shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter; except that where such name is a part of a trade-mark or brand, other written, printed, or graphic matter, which is also a part of such trade-mark or brand, may so intervene if such statement is in such juxtaposition with such trade-mark or brand as to be conspicuously related to such name.

§ 15.150 Semolina; identity. (a) Semolina is the food prepared by grinding and bolting cleaned durum wheat to such fineness that, when tested by the method prescribed in § 15.130 (b) (2), it passes through a No. 20 sieve, but not more than 3 percent passes through a No. 100 sieve. It is freed from bran coat, or bran coat and germ, to such extent that the percent of ash therein, calculated to a moisture-free basis, is not more than 0.92 percent. Its moisture content is not more than 15 percent.

(b) For the purpose of this section:

Ash and moisture are determined by the methods therefor referred to in § 15.00 (c).

SUBPART B—CORN FLOUR AND RELATED PRODUCTS

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to §§ 15.500 to 15.514, see 12 F. R. 3107.

§ 15.500 White corn meal; identity. (a) White corn meal is the food prepared by so grinding cleaned white corn that when tested by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) (2) of this section not less than 95 percent passes through a No. 12 sieve, not less than 45 percent through a No. 25 sieve, but not more than 35 percent through a No. 72 grits gauze. Its moisture content is not more than 15 percent. In its preparation coarse particles of the ground corn may be separated and discarded, or reground and recombined with all or part of the material from which they were separated, but in any such case the crude fiber content of the finished corn meal is not less than 1.2 percent and not more than that of the cleaned corn from which it was ground, and its fat content does not differ more than 0.3 percent from that of such corn. The contents of crude fiber and fat in all the foregoing provisions relating thereto are on a moisture-free basis.

(b) (1) For the purposes of this section moisture is determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," 6th edition, page 259, §§ 20.70 and 20.71; fat is determined by the method prescribed on pages 259 and 260, §§ 20.70 and 20.73; and crude fiber determined by the method prescribed on pages 259 and 260, §§ 20.70 and 20.74.

(2) The method referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is as follows:

Use No. 12 and No. 25 sieves, having standard 8-inch diameter, full-height frames, complying with the specifications for wire cloth and sieve frames in "Standard Specifications for Sieves," published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the Bureau of Standards, U. S. Department of Commerce. A sieve with frame of the same dimensions as the Nos. 12 and 25 and fitted with 72 XXX grits gauze is used as the third sieve. It is referred to hereafter as the No. 72 sieve. The 72 XXX grits gauze has openings equivalent in size with those of No. 70 woven-wire cloth, complying with specifications for such cloth contained in such "Standard Specifications for Sieves." Attach bottom pan to No. 72 sieve. Fit the No. 25 sieve into the No. 72 sieve and the No. 12 sieve into the No. 25 sieve. Pour 100 grams of sample into the No. 12 sieve, attach cover and hold the assembly in a slightly inclined position and shake the assembly of sieves by striking the sides against one hand with an upward stroke, at the rate of about 150 times per minute. Turn the assembly of sieves about ⅙ of a revolution, each time in the same direction, after each 25 strokes. Continue shaking for 2 minutes. Weigh separately the material remaining on each sieve and in the pan, and calculate each weight as percent of sample. Sometimes when meals are tested, fine particles clog the sieve openings. If any sieve is clogged by fine material smaller than its openings, empty the contents onto a piece of paper. Remove the entrapped material on the bottom of the sieve by a hair brush and add to the sieve below. In like manner, clean the adhering material from inside the sieve and add to the material on the paper. Return mixture on the paper to the sieve, reassemble the sieves, and shake in the same manner as before for 1 minute. Repeat cleaning procedure if necessary until a 5-gram or les loss in weight occurs in any sieve during a 1-minute shaking. The percent of sample passing through No. 12 sieve shall be determined by subtracting from 100 percent, the percent of material remaining on the No. 12 sieve. The percent passing through a No. 25 sieve shall be determined by adding the percents remaining on the No. 72 sieve and the percent in pan. The percent in the pan shall be considered as the percent passing through a No. 72 XXX grits gauze.

§ 15.501 Yellow corn meal; identity. Yellow corn meal conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed by § 15.500 for white corn meal except that cleaned yellow corn is used instead of cleaned white corn.

§ 15.502 Bolted white corn meal; identity. (a) Bolted white corn meal is the food prepared by so grinding and sifting cleaned white corn that:

(1) Its crude fiber content is less than 1.2 percent but its fat content is not less than 2.25 percent, and

(2) When tested by the method prescribed in § 15.500 (b) (2), except that a No. 20 standard sieve is used instead of the No. 12 sieve, not less than 95 percent passes through a No. 20 sieve, not less than 45 percent through a No. 25 sieve, but not more than 25 percent through No. 72 XXX grits gauze. Its moisture content is not more than 15 percent. In its preparation particles of ground corn which contain germ may be separated, reground, and recombined with all or part of the material from which it was separated, but in any such case the fat content of the finished bolted white corn meal does not exceed by more than 0.3 percent the fat content of the cleaned corn from which it was ground. The contents of crude fiber and fat in all the foregoing provisions relating thereto are on a moisture-free basis.

(b) For the purposes of this section, moisture, fat and crude fiber are determined by the methods therefor referred to in § 15.500 (b) (1).

§ 15.503 Bolted yellow corn meal; identity. Bolted yellow corn meal conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed by § 15.502 for bolted white corn meal except that cleaned yellow corn is used instead of cleaned white corn.

§ 15.504 Degerminated white corn meal, degermed white corn meal; identity. (a) Degerminated white corn meal, degermed white corn meal, is the food prepared by grinding cleaned white corn and removing bran and germ so that:

(1) On a moisture-free basis, its crude fiber content is less than 1.2 percent and its fat content is less than 2.25 percent; and

(2) When tested by the method prescribed in § 15.500 (b) (2), except that a No. 20 standard sieve is used instead of a No. 12 sieve, not less than 95 percent passes through a No. 20 sieve, not less than 45 percent through a No. 25 sieve, but not more than 25 percent through No. 72 XXX grits gauze. Its moisture content is not more than 15 percent.

(b) For the purpose of this section, moisture, fat and crude fiber are determined by methods therefor referred to in § 15.500 (b) (1).

§ 15.505 Degerminated yellow corn meal, degermed yellow corn meal; identity. Degerminated yellow corn meal, degermed yellow corn meal, conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed by § 15.504 for degerminated white corn meal except that cleaned yellow corn is used instead of cleaned white corn.

§ 15.506 Self-rising white corn meal; identity. (a) Self-rising white corn meal is an intimate mixture of white corn meal, sodium bicarbonate, and the acid-reacting substance monocalcium phosphate. It is seasoned with salt. When it is tested by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section, not less than 0.5 percent of carbon dioxide is evolved. The acid-reacting substance is added in sufficient quantity to neutralize the sodium bicarbonate. The combined weight of such acid-reacting substance and sodium bicarbonate is not more than 4.5 parts to each 100 parts of white corn meal used.

(b) The method referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," 6th Edition, beginning on page 208 under "Gasometric Method (2) with Chittick's Apparatus—Official", except that the following procedure is substituted for the procedure specified therein under "17.6—Determination":

Weigh 17 grams of the official sample into flask A, add 15–20 glass beads (4–6 mm. diameter), and connect this flask with the apparatus (fig. 25). Open stopcock C and by means of the leveling bulb E bring the displacement solution to the 25 cc. graduation above the zero mark. (This 25 cc. is a partial allowance for the volume of acid to be used in the decomposition.) Allow the apparatus to stand 1–2 minutes to insure that the temperature and pressure within the apparatus are the same as those of the room. Close the stopcock, lower the leveling bulb somewhat to reduce the pressure within the apparatus, and slowly run into the decomposition flask from burette F 45 cc. of sulfuric acid (1+5). To prevent the liberated carbon dioxide from escaping through the acid burette into the air, keep the displacement solution in the leveling bulb at all times during the decomposition at a lower level than that in the gas-measuring tube. Rotate and then vigorously agitate the decomposition flask for three minutes to mix the contents intimately. Allow to stand for 10 minutes to bring to equilibrium. Equalize the pressure in the measuring tube by means of the leveling bulb and read the volume of gas from the zero point on the tube. Deduct 20 cc. from this reading (this 20 cc. together with previous allowance of 25 cc. compensates for the 45 cc. acid used in the decomposition). Observe the temperature of the air surrounding the apparatus and also the barometric pressure and multiply the number of cc. of gas evolved by the factor given in Table 44.30 — Reference Tables for the temperature and pressure observed. Divide the corrected reading by 100 to obtain the apparent percent by weight of carbon dioxide in the official sample.

Correct the apparent percent of carbon dioxide to compensate for varying atmospheric conditions by immediately assaying a synthetic sample by the same method in the same apparatus.

Prepare the synthetic sample with 16.2 grams of corn meal, 0.30 gram of monocalcium phosphate, 0.30 gram of salt, and a sufficient quantity of sodium bicarbonate U. S. P. (dried over sulfuric acid) to yield the amount of carbon dioxide recovered in assay of official sample. Determine this quantity by multiplying weight of carbon dioxide recovered in assay of official sample by 1.91.

Divide the weight of carbon dioxide recovered from synthetic sample by weight of carbon dioxide contained in sodium bicarbonate used.

Divide the quotient into the apparent percent of carbon dioxide in official sample to obtain percent of carbon dioxide evolved from the official sample.

§ 15.507 Self-rising yellow corn meal; identity. Self-rising yellow corn meal conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed by § 15.506 for self-rising white corn meal except that yellow corn meal is used instead of white corn meal.

§ 15.508 White corn flour; identity. (a) White corn flour is the food prepared by so grinding and bolting cleaned white corn that when tested by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) (2) of this section, not less than 98 percent passes through a No. 50 sieve and not less than 50 percent passes through No. 70 woven-wire cloth. Its moisture content is not more than 15 percent. In its preparation part of the ground corn may be removed, but in any such case, the content (on a moisture-free basis) of neither the crude fiber nor fat in the finished white corn flour exceeds the content (on a moisture-free basis) of such substance in the cleaned corn from which it was ground.

(b) (1) For the purpose of this section, moisture, fat, and crude fiber are determined by methods therefor referred to in § 15.500 (b) (1).

(2) The method referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is as follows:

Weigh 5 grams of sample into a tared truncated metal cone (top diameter 5 centimeters, bottom diameter 2 centimeters, height 4 centimeters), fitted at bottom with 70-mesh wire cloth complying with the specifications for No. 70 wire cloth in "Standard Specifications for Sieves", published March 1, 1940 in L. C. 584 of the Bureau of Standards, U. S. Department of Commerce. Attach cone to a suction flask. Wash with 150 ml. of petroleum ether applied in a small stream without suction, while gently stirring the sample with a small glass rod. Apply suction for 2 minutes after washing is completed, then shake the cone for 2 minutes with a vigorous horizontal motion, striking the side against the hand, and then weigh. The decrease in weight of sample, calculated as percent by weight of sample shall be considered the percent passing through No. 70 wire cloth. Transfer the residue from cone to a No. 50 sieve having a standard 8-inch diameter full height frame, complying with the specifications for wire cloth and sieve frame in said "Standard Specifications for Sieves." Shake for 2 minutes with a vigorous horizontal motion, striking the side against the hand; remove and weigh the residue; calculate the weight of residue as percent by weight of sample, and subtract from 100 percent to obtain the percent of sample passing through the No. 50 sieve.

§ 15.509 Yellow corn flour; identity. Yellow corn flour conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed by § 15.508 for white corn flour except that cleaned yellow corn is used instead of cleaned white corn.

§ 15.510 Grits, corn grits, hominy grits; identity. (a) Grits, corn grits, hominy grits, is the food prepared by so grinding and sifting cleaned white corn, with removal of corn bran and germ, that:

(1) On a moisture-free basis its crude fiber content is not more than 1.2 percent and its fat content is not more than 2.25 percent; and

(2) When tested by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) (2) of this section not less than 95 percent passes through a No. 10 sieve but not more than 20 percent through a No. 25 sieve.

(b) (1) For the purposes of this section moisture, fat, and crude fiber are determined by methods therefor referred to in § 15.500 (b) (1).

(2) The method referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is as follows:

Use No. 10 and No. 25 sieves, having standard 8-inch diameter full-height frames, complying with the specifications for wire cloth and sieve frames in "Standard Specifications for Sieves", published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the Bureau of Standards, U. S. Department of Commerce. Attach bottom pan to No. 25 sieve. Fit the No. 10 sieve into the No. 25 sieve. Pour 100 grams of sample into the No. 10 sieve, attach cover and hold assembly in a slightly inclined position, shake the sieves by striking the sides against one hand with an upward stroke, at the rate of about 150 times per minute. Turn the sieves about ⅙ of a revolution each time in the same direction after each 25 strokes. Continue shaking for 2 minutes. Weigh separately the material remaining on the No. 10 sieve and in the pan, and calculate each weight as percent of sample. The percent of sample passing through a No. 10 sieve shall be determined by subtracting from 100 percent, the percent remaining on the No. 10 sieve. The percent of material in the pan shall be considered as the percent passing through a No. 25 sieve.

§ 15.511 Yellow grits, yellow corn grits, yellow hominy grits; identity. Yellow grits, yellow corn grits, yellow hominy grits, conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed by § 15.510 for grits except that cleaned yellow corn is used instead of cleaned white corn.

§ 15.512 Quick grits, quick cooking grits; identity. (a) Quick grits, quick cooking grits are the foods, each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for a kind of grits by §§ 15.510 or 15.511, except that in process of preparation the grits are lightly steamed and slightly compressed so as to fracture the particles.

(b) The name of each kind of grits is "Quick" or "Quick cooking" followed by the name of the kind of grits used which is prescribed in the definition and standard of identity therefor.

§ 15.513 Enriched corn meals; identity. (a) Enriched corn meals are the foods, each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for a kind of corn meal by §§ 15.500 to 15.507, inclusive, except that:

(1) It contains in each pound not less than 2.0 mg. and not more than 3.0 mg. of thiamine, not less than 1.2 mg. and not more than 1.8 mg. of riboflavin, not less than 16 mg. and not more than 24 mg. of niacin or niacinamide, and not less than 13 mg. and not more than 26 mg. of iron (Fe);

(2) It may contain in each pound not less than 250 U. S. P. units and not more than 1,000 U. S. P. units of vitamin D; and

(3) It may contain in each pound not less than 500 mg. and not more than 750 mg. of calcium (Ca). Iron and calcium may be added only in forms which are harmless and assimilable. The vitamins referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph may be combined with harmless substances to render them insoluble in water if the water-insoluble products are assimilable. The substances referred to in subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph may be added in a harmless carrier; such carrier is used only in the quantity necessary to effect an intimate and uniform admixture of such substances with the kind of corn grits used. Dried yeast in quantities not exceeding 1.5 percent by weight of the finished food may be used. When the finished food is tested by the method prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section it complies with the requirements set forth therein.

(b) The name of each kind of enriched corn grits is the word "Enriched" followed by the name of the kind of corn grits used which is prescribed in the definition and standard of identity therefor.

(c) The method referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is as follows:

Transfer 100 grams of enriched grits to a 2-liter Erlenmeyer flask containing 1 liter of water at 25° C. Stopper the flask and rotate it for exactly ½ minute so that the grits are kept in motion. Allow the grits to settle for ½ minute, then pour off 850 cc. of the water along with any floating or suspended matter. Determine thiamine, riboflavin, niacin, and iron in the wet grits and water remaining in the flask. Calculate as mg. per pound of the grits before rinsing. The amounts found by this procedure are not less than 85 percent of the minimum amounts of thiamine, riboflavin, niacin and iron prescribed by the standard for enriched grits.

16.6 Noodle products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
16.7 Wheat and soy noodle products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
16.8 Vegetable noodle products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
16.9 Enriched macaroni products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
16.10 Enriched noodle products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.

AUTHORITY: §§ 16.1 to 16.10 issued under secs. 401, 701; 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371.

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to §§ 16.1 to 16.10, inclusive, see 9 F. R. 14881, 11 F. R. 7503, 7521.

§ 16.1 Macaroni products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Macaroni products are the class of food each of which is prepared by drying formed units of dough made from semolina, durum flour, farina, flour, or any combination of two or more of these, with water and with or without one or more of the optional ingredients specified in subparagraphs (1) to (5), inclusive:

(1) Egg white, frozen egg white, dried egg white, or any two or all of these, in such quantity that the solids thereof is not less than 0.5 percent and not more than 2.0 percent of the weight of the finished food.

(2) Disodium phosphate, in a quantity not less than 0.5 percent and not more than 1.0 percent of the weight of the finished food.

(3) Onions, celery, garlic, bay leaf, or any two or more of these, in a quantity which seasons the food.

(4) Salt, in a quantity which seasons the food.

(5) Gum gluten, in such quantity that the protein content of the finished food is not more than 13 percent by weight.

The finished macaroni product contains not less than 87 percent of total solids as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fifth Edition, 1940, page 235 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 265], under "Vacuum Oven Method—Official."

(b) Macaroni is the macaroni product the units of which are tube-shaped and more than 0.11 inch but not more than 0.27 inch in diameter.

(c) Spaghetti is the macaroni product the units of which are tube-shaped or cord-shaped (not tubular) and more than 0.06 inch but not more than 0.11 inch in diameter.

(d) Vermicelli is the macaroni product the units of which are cord-shaped (not tubular) and not more than 0.06 inch in diameter.

(e) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "Macaroni Product;" or alternately, the name is "Macaroni," "Spaghetti," or "Vermicelli," as the case may be, when the units of the food are of the shapes and sizes specified in paragraph (b), (c), or (d), respectively, of this section.

(f) (1) When disodium phosphate is used the label shall bear the statement "Disodium phosphate added for quick cooking."

(2) When any ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (3) of this section is used the label shall bear the statement "Seasoned with ------," the blank being filled in with the common name of the ingredient; or in the case of bay leaves the statement "Spiced," "Spice added," or "Spiced with bay leaves."

(3) Wherever the name of the food appears on such label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words and statements herein prescribed showing the optional ingredients used shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow, or in part precede and in part follow, such name without intervening written, printed, or other graphic matter.

§ 16.2 Milk macaroni products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Milk macaroni products are the class of food each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for macaroni products by § 16.1 (a) and (f) (2) and (3), except that:

(1) Milk is used as the sole moistening ingredient in preparing the dough; or in lieu of milk one or more of the milk ingredients specified in paragraph (f) of this section is used, with or without water, in such quantity that the weight of milk solids therein is not less than 3.8 percent of the weight of the finished milk macaroni product; and

(2) None of the optional ingredients permitted by § 16.1 (a) (1) and (2) is used. When the optional ingredient gum gluten [§ 16.1 (a) (5)] is added, the quantity is such that the protein derived therefrom, together with the protein derived from semolina, durum flour, farina, flour, or any combination of these used, does not exceed 13 percent of the weight of the finished food.

(b) Milk macaroni is the milk macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for macaroni by § 16.1 (b).

(c) Milk spaghetti is the milk macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for spaghetti by § 16.1 (c).

(d) Milk vermicelli is the milk macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for vermicelli by § 16.1 (d).

(e) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "Milk Macaroni Product"; or alternately, the name is "Milk Macaroni," "Milk Spaghetti," or "Milk Vermicelli," as the case may be, when the units of the food comply with the requirements of paragraph (b), (c), or (d), respectively, of this section.

(f) The milk ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) (1) of this section are concentrated milk, evaporated milk, dried milk, and a mixture of butter with skim milk, concentrated skim milk, evaporated skim milk, defatted milk solids (dried skim milk), or any two or more of these, in such proportion that the weight of nonfat milk solids in such mixture is not more than 2.275 times the weight of milk fat therein.

§ 16.3 Whole wheat macaroni products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Whole wheat macaroni products are the class of food each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for macaroni products by § 16.1 (a) and (f) (2) and (3), except that:

(1) Whole wheat flour or whole durum wheat flour or both are used as the sole wheat ingredient; and

(2) None of the optional ingredients permitted by § 16.1 (a) (1), (2), and (5) is used.

(b) Whole wheat macaroni is the whole wheat macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for macaroni by § 16.1 (b).

(c) Whole wheat spaghetti is the whole wheat macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for spaghetti by § 16.1 (c).

(d) Whole wheat vermicelli is the whole wheat macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for vermicelli by § 16.1 (d).

(e) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "Whole Wheat Macaroni Product;" or alternately, the name is "Whole Wheat Macaroni," "Whole Wheat Spaghetti," or "Whole Wheat Vermicelli," as the case may be, when the units of the food comply with the requirements of paragraph (b), (c), or (d), respectively, of this section.

§ 16.4 Wheat and soy macaroni products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Wheat and soy macaroni products are the class of food each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for macaroni products by § 16.1 (a) and (f) (2) and (3), except that:

(1) Soy flour is added in a quantity not less than 12.5 percent of the combined weight of the wheat and soy ingredients used (the soy flour used is made from heat-processed, dehulled soybeans, with or without the removal of fat therefrom); and

(2) None of the optional ingredients permitted by § 16.1 (a) (1) and (2) is used. When the optional ingredient gum gluten (§ 16.1 (a) (5)) is added, the quantity is such that the protein derived therefrom, together with the protein derived from semolina, durum flour, farina, flour or any combination of these used, does not exceed 13 percent of the weight of the finished food.

(b) Wheat and soy macaroni is the wheat and soy macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for macaroni by § 16.1 (b).

(c) Wheat and soy spaghetti is the wheat and soy macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for spaghetti by § 16.1 (c).

(d) Wheat and soy vermicelli is the wheat and soy macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for vermicelli by § 16.1 (d)

(e) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "Wheat and Soy Macaroni Product," "Wheat and Soybean Macaroni Product," "-------- and Soy Macaroni Product," or "------ and Soybean Macaroni Product," the blank in each instance being filled in with the name whereby the wheat ingredient used is designated in § 16.1 (a); or alternately, the name is "Wheat and Soy Macaroni," "Wheat and Soybean Macaroni," "---- and Soy Macaroni," or "---- and Soybean Macaroni" when the units of the food comply with the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section; or "Wheat and Soy Spaghetti," "Wheat and Soybean Spaghetti," "------ and Soy Spaghetti," or "------- and Soybean Spaghetti" when such units comply with the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section; or "Wheat and Soy Vermicelli," "Wheat and Soybean Vermicelli," "------ and Soy Vermicelli," or "------ and Soybean Vermicelli" when such units comply with the requirements of paragraph (d) of this section, the blank in each instance being filled in with the name whereby the wheat ingredient used is designated in § 16.1 (a).

§ 16.5 Vegetable macaroni products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Vegetable macaroni products are the class of food each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for macaroni products by § 16.1 (a) and (f) (2) and (3), except that:

(1) Tomato (of any red variety), artichoke, beet, carrot, parsley, or spinach is added in such quantity that the solids thereof is not less than 3 percent by weight of the finished vegetable macaroni product (the vegetable used may be fresh, canned, dried, or in the form of puree or paste); and

(2) None of the optional ingredients permitted by § 16.1 (a) (1) and (2) is used. When the optional ingredient gum gluten [§ 16.1 (a) (5)] is added, the quantity is such that the protein derived therefrom, together with the protein derived from the semolina, durum flour, farina, flour or any combination of these used, does not exceed 13 percent of the weight of the finished food.

(b) Vegetable macaroni is the vegetable macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for macaroni by § 16.1 (b).

(c) Vegetable spaghetti is the vegetable macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for spaghetti by § 16.1 (c).

(d) Vegetable vermicelli is the vegetable macaroni product, the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for vermicelli by § 16.1 (d).

(e) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "------ Macaroni Product," the blank being filled in with the name whereby the vegetable used is designated in paragraph (a) of this section; or alternately, the name is "------ Macaroni," "------ Spaghetti," or "------ Vermicelli," as the case may be, when the units of the food comply with the requirements of paragraph (b), (c), or (d), respectively, the blank in each instance being filled in with the name whereby the vegetable used is designated in paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 16.6 Noodle products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Noodle products are the class of food each of which is prepared by drying formed units of dough made from semolina, durum flour, farina, flour, or any combination of two or more of these, with liquid eggs, frozen eggs, dried eggs, egg yolks, frozen yolks, dried yolks, or any combination of two or more of these, with or without water and with or without one or more of the optional ingredients specified in subparagraphs (1) to (3), inclusive:

(1) Onions, celery, garlic, bay leaf, or any two or more of these, in a quantity which seasons the food.

(2) Salt, in a quantity which seasons the food.

(3) Gum gluten, in such quantity that the protein derived therefrom, together with the protein derived from semolina, durum flour, farina, flour or any combination of these used, does not exceed 13 percent of the weight of the finished food.

The finished noodle product contains not less than 87 percent of total solids as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fifth Edition, 1940, page 235 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 237], under "Vacuum Oven Method—Official." The total solids of noodle products contains not less than 5.5 percent by weight of the solids of egg, or egg yolk.

(b) Noodles, egg noodles, is the noodle product the units of which are ribbon-shaped.

(c) Egg macaroni is the noodle product the units of which are tube-shaped and more than 0.11 inch but not more than 0.27 inch in diameter.

(d) Egg spaghetti is the noodle product the units of which are tube-shaped or cord-shaped (not tubular) and more than 0.06 inch but not more than 0.11 inch in diameter.

(e) Egg vermicelli is the noodle product the units of which are cord-shaped (not tubular) and not more than 0.06 inch in diameter.

(f) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "Noodle Product" or "Egg Noodle Product"; or alternately, the name is "Noodles" or "Egg Noodles," "Egg Macaroni," "Egg Spaghetti," or "Egg Vermicelli," as the case may be, when the units of the food are of the shapes and sizes specified in paragraph (b), (c), (d), or (e), respectively, of this section.

(g) When any ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (1) of this section is used the label of the noodle product shall bear the statement "Seasoned with ------," the blank being filled in with the common name of the ingredient; or in the case of bay leaves the statement "Spiced," "Spice added," or "Spiced with bay leaves." Wherever the name of the food appears on such label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words and statements herein prescribed showing the ingredients used shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow, or in part precede and in part follow, such name without intervening written, printed, or other graphic matter.

§ 16.7 Wheat and soy noodle products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Wheat and soy noodle products are the class of food each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for noodle products by § 16.6 (a) and (g), except that soy flour is added in a quantity not less than 12.5 percent of the combined weight of the wheat and soy ingredients used (the soy flour used is made from heat-processed, dehulled soybeans, with or without the removal of fat therefrom).

(b) Wheat and soy noodles, wheat and soy egg noodles, is the wheat and soy noodle product the units of which are ribbon-shaped.

(c) Wheat and soy egg macaroni is the wheat and soy noodle product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for egg macaroni by § 16.6 (c).

(d) Wheat and soy egg spaghetti is the wheat and soy noodle product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for egg spaghetti by § 16.6 (d).

(e) Wheat and soy egg vermicelli is the wheat and soy noodle product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for egg vermicelli by § 16.6 (e).

(f) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "Wheat and Soy Noodle Product," "Wheat and Soy Egg Noodle Product," "Wheat and Soybean Noodle Product," "Wheat and Soybean Egg Noodle Product," "------ and Soy Noodle Product," "------ and Soy Egg Noodle Product," "------ and Soybean Noodle Product," or "------ and Soybean Egg Noodle Product," the blank in each instance being filled in with the name whereby the wheat ingredient used is designated in § 16.6 (a); or alternately, the name is "Wheat and Soy Noodles," "Wheat and Soy Egg Noodles," "Wheat and Soybean Noodles," "Wheat and Soybean Egg Noodles," "------ and Soy Noodles," "------ and Soy Egg Noodles," "------ and Soybean Noodles," or "------ and Soybean Egg Noodles" when the units of the food comply with the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section; or "Wheat and Soy Egg Macaroni," "Wheat and Soybean Egg Macaroni," "------ and Soy Egg Macaroni," or "------ and Soybean Egg Macaroni" when such units comply with the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section; or "Wheat and Soy Egg Spaghetti," "Wheat and Soybean Egg Spaghetti," "------ and Soy Egg Spaghetti," or "---- and Soybean Egg Spaghetti" when such units comply with the requirements of paragraph (d) of this section; or "Wheat and Soy Egg Vermicelli," "Wheat and Soybean Egg Vermicelli," "------ and Soy Egg Vermicelli," or "------ and Soybean Egg Vermicelli," when such units comply with the requirements of paragraph (e) of this section, the blank in each instance being filled in with the name whereby the wheat ingredient used is designated in § 16.6 (a).

§ 16.8 Vegetable noodle products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Vegetable noodle products are the class of food each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for noodle products by § 16.6 (a) and (g), except that tomato (of any red variety), artichoke, beet, carrot, parsley, or spinach is added in such quantity that the solids thereof is not less than 3 percent by weight of the finished vegetable noodle product (the vegetable used may be fresh, canned, dried, or in the form of puree or paste).

(b) Vegetable noodles, vegetable egg noodles, is the vegetable noodle product the units of which are ribbon-shaped.

(c) Vegetable egg macaroni is the vegetable noodle product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for egg macaroni by § 16.6 (c).

(d) Vegetable egg spaghetti is the vegetable noodle product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for egg spaghetti by § 16.6 (d).

(e) Vegetable egg vermicelli is the vegetable noodle product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for egg vermicelli by § 16.6 (e).

(f) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "---------- Noodle Product" or "------ Egg Noodle Product," the blank being filled in with the name whereby the vegetable used is designated in paragraph (a) of this section; or alternately, the name is "------ Noodles" or "------ Egg Noodles," "------- Egg Macaroni," "------- Egg Spaghetti," or "------ Egg Vermicelli," as the case may be, when the units of the food comply with the requirements of paragraph (b), (c), (d), or (e), respectively, the blank in each instance being filled in with the name whereby the vegetable is designated in paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 16.9 Enriched macaroni products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Enriched macaroni products are the class of food each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for macaroni products by § 16.1 (a) and (f), except that:

(1) Each such food contains in each pound not less than 4 mg. and not more than 5 mg. of thiamine, not less than 1.7 mg. and not more than 2.2 mg. of riboflavin, not less than 27 mg. and not more than 34 mg. of niacin or niacinamide, and not less than 13 mg. and not more than 16.5 mg. of iron (Fe);

(2) Each such food may also contain as an optional ingredient added vitamin D in such quantity that each pound of the finished food contains not less than 250 U. S. P. units and not more than 1000 U. S. P. units of vitamin D;

(3) Each such food may also contain as an optional ingredient added calcium in such quantity that each pound of the finished food contains not less than 500 mg. and not more than 625 mg. of calcium (Ca);

(4) Each such food may also contain as an optional ingredient partly defatted wheat germ but the amount thereof does not exceed 5% of the weight of the finished food;

(5) Each such food may be supplied, wholly or in part, with the prescribed quantity of any substance referred to in subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph through the use of dried yeast, partly defatted wheat germ, enriched farina or enriched flour, or through the direct additions of any of the substances prescribed in subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3).

Iron and calcium may be added only in forms which are harmless and assimilable. The substances referred to in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph may be added in a harmless carrier which does not impair the enriched macaroni product, such carrier being used only in the quantity reasonably necessary to effect an intimate and uniform distribution of such substances in the finished enriched macaroni product.

(b) Enriched macaroni is the enriched macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for macaroni by § 16.1 (b).

(c) Enriched spaghetti is the enriched macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for spaghetti by § 16.1 (c).

(d) Enriched vermicelli is the enriched macaroni product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for vermicelli by § 16.1 (d).

(e) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "Enriched Macaroni Product;" or alternately, the name is "Enriched Macaroni", "Enriched Spaghetti," or "Enriched Vermicelli", as the case may be, when the units of the food comply with the requirements of paragraphs (b), (c), or (d) respectively of this section.

§ 16.10 Enriched noodle products; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Enriched noodle products are the class of food each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for noodle products by § 16.6 (a) and (g), except that:

(1) Each such food contains in each pound not less than 4 mg. and not more than 5 mg. of thiamine, not less than 1.7 mg. and not more than 2.2 mg. of riboflavin, not less than 27 mg. and not more than 34 mg. of niacin or niacinamide, and not less than 13 mg. and not more than 16.5 mg. of iron (Fe);

(2) Each such food may also contain as an optional ingredient added vitamin D in such quantity that each pound of the finished food contains not less than 250 U. S. P. units and not more than 1000 U. S. P. units of vitamin D;

(3) Each such food may also contain as an optional ingredient added calcium in such quantity that each pound of the finished food contains not less than 500 mg. and not more than 625 mg. of calcium (Ca);

(4) Each such food may also contain as an optional ingredient partly defatted wheat germ but the amount thereof does not exceed 5% of the weight of the finished food;

(5) Each such food may be supplied, wholly or in part, with the prescribed quantity of any substance referred to in subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3), of this paragraph through the use of dried yeast, partly defatted wheat germ, enriched farina or enriched flour, or through the direct additions of any of the substances prescribed in subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3).

Iron and calcium may be added only in forms which are harmless and assimilable. The substances referred to in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph may be added in a harmless carrier which does not impair the enriched noodle product, such carrier being used only in the quantity reasonably necessary to effect an intimate and uniform distribution of such substances in the finished enriched noodle product.

(b) Enriched noodles, enriched egg noodles, are the enriched noodle products the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for noodles in § 16.6 (b).

(c) Enriched egg macaroni is the enriched noodle product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for egg macaroni in § 16.6 (c).

(d) Enriched egg spaghetti is the enriched noodle product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for egg spaghetti in § 16.6 (d).

(e) Enriched egg vermicelli is the enriched noodle product the units of which conform to the specifications of shape and size prescribed for egg vermicelli in § 16.6 (e).

(f) The name of each food for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is "Enriched Noodle Product" or "Enriched Egg Noodle Product"; or alternately, the name is "Enriched Noodles", or "Enriched Egg Noodles", "Enriched Egg Macaroni", "Enriched Egg Spaghetti", or "Enriched Egg Vermicelli", as the case may be, when the units of the food comply with the requirements of paragraphs (b), (c), (d), or (e) respectively of this section.

PART 18—MILK AND CREAM; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

Sec.

18.500 Cream class of food; identity.
18.501 Light cream, coffee cream, table cream; identity.
18.510 Whipping cream class of food; identity.
18.511 Light whipping cream; identity.
18.515 Heavy cream, heavy whipping cream; identity.
18.520 Evaporated milk; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
18.525 Concentrated milk, plain condensed milk; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
18.530 Sweetened condensed milk; identity.
18.535 Condensed milks which contain corn sirup; identity.
18.540 Dried skim milk, powdered skim milk, skim milk powder; identity.

AUTHORITY: §§ 18.500 to 18.540 issued under 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371.

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to §§ 18.500 to 18.540 see 5 F. R. 2443, 2445, 2543, 6 F. R. 4933, 8 F. R. 14277.

§ 18.500 Cream class of food; identity. Cream is the class of food which is the sweet, fatty liquid or semi-liquid separated from milk, with or without the addition thereto and intimate admixture therewith of sweet milk or sweet skim milk. It may be pasteurized and if it contains less than 30 percent of milk fat as determined by the method hereinafter referred to, it may be homogenized. It contains not less than 18 percent of milk fat, as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, 1935, page 277 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 323] under "Fat, Roese-Gottlieb Method—Official". The word "milk" as used herein means cow's milk.

§ 18.501 Light cream, coffee cream, table cream; identity. Light cream, coffee cream, table cream, conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for the cream class of food by § 18.500, except that it contains less than 30 percent of milk fat, as determined by the method referred to in such section.

§ 18.510 Whipping cream class of food; identity. Whipping cream is the class of food which conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for the cream class of food by § 18.500, except that it contains not less than 30 percent of milk fat, as determined by the method referred to in such section.

§ 18.511 Light whipping cream; identity. Light whipping cream conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for the whipping cream class of food by § 18.510, except that it contains less than 36 percent of milk fat, as determined by the method referred to in § 18.500.

§ 18.515 Heavy cream, heavy whipping cream; identity. Heavy cream, heavy whipping cream, conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for the whipping cream class of food by § 18.510, except that it contains not less than 36 percent of milk fat, as determined by the method referred to in § 18.500.

§ 18.520 Evaporated milk; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Evaporated milk is the liquid food made by evaporating sweet milk to such point that it contains not less than 7.9 percent of milk fat and not less than 25.9 percent of total milk solids. It may contain one or both of the following optional ingredients:

(1) Disodium phosphate or sodium citrate or both, or calcium chloride, added in a total quantity of not more than 0.1 percent by weight of the finished evaporated milk.

(2) Vitamin D in such quantity as increases the total vitamin D content to not less than 7.5 U. S. P. units per avoirdupois ounce of finished evaporated milk.

It may be homogenized. It is sealed in a container and so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) When optional ingredient (a) (2) is present, the label shall bear the statement, "With Increased Vitamin D Content" or "Vitamin D Content Increased". Such statement shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow the name "Evaporated Milk", without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, wherever such name appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase.

(c) For the purpose of this section:

(1) The word "milk" means cow's milk.

(2) Such milk may be adjusted, before or after evaporation, by the addition or abstraction of cream or sweet skim milk, or by the addition of concentrated sweet skim milk.

(3) The quantity of milk fat is determined by the method prescribed under "Fat—Official" on page 280 [Ed. note, 6th edition, p. 325] and the quantity of total milk solids is determined by the method prescribed under "Total Solids—Official" on page 279 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 325] of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, 1935.

(4) Vitamin D content may be increased by the application of radiant energy or by the addition of a concentrate of vitamin D (with any accompanying vitamin A when such vitamin D in such concentrate is obtained from natural sources) dissolved in a food oil; but if such oil is not milk fat the quantity thereof added is not more than 0.01 percent of the weight of the finished evaporated milk.

(5) The quantity of vitamin D is determined by the method prescribed in the "The Second Supplement to the Pharmacopeia of the United States of America Eleventh Decennial Revision", pages 132–134 inclusive, and pages 136–138 inclusive, with such modification of the method of feeding as is necessary for evaporated milk instead of an oil.

§ 18.525 Concentrated milk, plain condensed milk; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Concentrated milk, plain condensed milk, conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for evaporated milk by § 18.520, except that:

(a) It is not processed by heat;

(b) Its container may be unsealed; and

(c) Optional ingredient § 18.520 (a) (1) is not used.

§ 18.530 Sweetened condensed milk; identity. (a) Sweetened condensed milk is the liquid or semi-liquid food made by evaporating a mixture of sweet milk and refined sugar (sucrose) or any combination of refined sugar (sucrose), and refined corn sugar (dextrose) to such point that the finished sweetened condensed milk contains not less than 28.0 percent of total milk solids and not less than 8.5 percent of milk fat. The quantity of refined sugar (sucrose) or combination of such sugar and refined corn sugar (dextrose) used is sufficient to prevent spoilage.

(b) For the purpose of this section:

(1) The word "milk" means cow's milk.

(2) Such milk may be adjusted, before or after evaporation, by the addition or abstraction of cream or sweet skim milk, or the addition of concentrated sweet skim milk.

(3) Milk fat is determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, 1935, page 281 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 326], under "Fat—Official".

§ 18.535 Condensed milks which contain corn sirup; identity: (a) Condensed milks which contain corn sirup are the foods each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for sweetened condensed milk by § 18.530 except that corn sirup or a mixture of corn sirup and sugar is used instead of sugar or a mixture of sugar and dextrose. For the purpose of this section the term "corn sirup" means a clarified and concentrated aqueous solution of the products obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of cornstarch, and includes dried corn sirup; the solids of such corn sirup contain not less than 40 percent by weight of reducing sugars, calculated as anhydrous dextrose.

(b) The name of each such food is:

(1) "Corn sirup condensed milk," "condensed milk with corn sirup," or "condensed milk prepared with corn sirup," if corn sirup alone is used; or

(2) "____% Corn sirup solids ____% sugar condensed milk", "condensed milk with ____% corn sirup solids ____% sugar," or "condensed milk prepared with ____% corn sirup solids ____% sugar," if a mixture of corn sirup and sugar is used, the blanks being filled in with the whole numbers nearest the actual percentages of corn sirup solids and sugar in such food; alternately "____% sugar" may precede "____% corn sirup solids" in such names.

§ 18.540 Dried skim milk, powdered skim milk, skim milk powder; identity. Dried skim milk, powdered skim milk, skim milk powder, is the food made by drying sweet skim milk. It contains not more than 5 percent of moisture, as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, 1935, page 282 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 328], under the caption "Moisture—Tentative". The term "skim milk" as used herein means cow's milk from which the milk fat has been separated.

NOTE: Public Law 244, 78th Congress, approved March 2, 1944, provides a statutory definition for this food under the names: "Non-fat dry milk solids" and "defatted milk solids."

PART 19—CHEESES; PROCESSED CHEESES; CHEESE FOODS; CHEESE SPREADS, AND RELATED FOODS; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

Sec.

19.500 Cheddar cheese, cheese; identity.
19.505 Washed curd cheese, soaked curd cheese; identity.
19.510 Colby cheese; identity.
19.515 Cream cheese; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
19.520 Neufchatel cheese; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
19.525 Cottage cheese; identity.
19.530 Creamed cottage cheese; identity.

AUTHORITY: §§ 19.500 to 19.530 issued under 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371 (e).

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to §§ 19.500 to 19.530, see 6 F. R. 195, 7 F. R. 10755, and 13 F. R. 5422.

§ 19.500 Cheddar cheese, cheese; identity. (a) Cheddar cheese, cheese, is the food prepared from milk by the procedure set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. It contains not more than 39 percent of moisture, and its solids contain not less than 50 percent of milk fat, as determined by the methods prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) Milk, which may be pasteurized and which may be warmed, is subjected to the action of harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, present in such milk or added thereto. Harmless artificial coloring may be added. Sufficient rennet is added to set the milk to a semisolid mass. The mass is so cut, stirred, and heated with continued stirring, as to promote the separation of whey and curd. The whey is drained off and the curd is matted into a cohesive mass. The mass is cut into slabs which are so piled and handled as to promote the drainage of whey and the development of acidity. The slabs are then cut into pieces, which may be rinsed by sprinkling or pouring water over them, with free and continuous drainage; but the duration of such rinsing is so limited that only the whey on the surface of such pieces is removed. The curd is salted, stirred, further drained, and pressed into forms.

(d) For the purposes of this section:
(1) The word "milk" means cow's milk.
(2) Such milk may be adjusted by the separation of part of the fat therefrom or the addition thereto of cream or skim milk.

§ 19.505 Washed curd cheese, soaked curd cheese; identity. (a) Washed curd cheese, soaked curd cheese, is the food prepared from milk by the procedure set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. It contains not more than 42 percent of moisture, and its solids contain not less than 50 percent of milk fat, as determined by the methods prescribed in paragraph (c) of § 19.500.

(b) Milk, which may be pasteurized and which may be warmed, is subjected to the action of harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, present in such milk or added thereto. Harmless artificial coloring may be added. Sufficient rennet is added to set the milk to a semisolid mass. The mass is so cut, stirred, and heated with continued stirring, as to promote the separation of whey and curd. The whey is drained off and the curd is matted into a cohesive mass. The mass is cut into slabs which are so piled and handled as to promote the drainage of whey and the development of acidity. The slabs are then cut into pieces, cooled in water, and soaked therein until the whey is partly extracted and water is absorbed. The curd is drained, salted, stirred, and pressed into forms.

(c) For the purposes of this section:
(1) The word "milk" means cow's milk.
(2) Such milk may be adjusted by the separation of part of the fat therefrom or the addition thereto of cream or skim milk.

§ 19.510 Colby cheese; identity. (a) Colby cheese is the food prepared from milk by the procedure set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. It contains not more than 40 percent of moisture, and its solids contain not less than 50 percent of milk fat, as determined by the methods prescribed in paragraph (c) of § 19.500.

(b) Milk, which may be pasteurized and which may be warmed, is subjected to the action of harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, present in such milk or added thereto. Harmless artificial coloring may be added. Sufficient rennet is added to set the milk to a semisolid mass. The mass is so cut, stirred, and heated with continued stirring, as to promote the separation of whey and curd. A part of the whey is drained off and the curd is cooled by adding water, the stirring being continued so as to prevent the pieces of curd from matting. The curd is drained, salted, stirred, further drained, and pressed into forms.

(c) For the purposes of this section:
(1) The word "milk" means cow's milk.
(2) Such milk may be adjusted by the separation of part of the fat therefrom or the addition thereto of cream or skim milk.

§ 19.515 Cream cheese; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Cream cheese is the soft uncured cheese prepared by the procedure set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. The finished cream cheese contains not less than 33 percent of milk fat and not more than 55 percent of moisture, as determined, respectively, by the methods prescribed under "Fat—Official" on page 302 and under "Moisture—Official" on page 301 of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fifth Edition, 1940. (These methods appear in the Sixth Edition, 1945, at pages 337 and 336.)

(b) (1) Cream or a mixture of cream with one or more of the dairy ingredients specified in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph is pasteurized and may be homogenized. To such cream or mixture harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, with or without rennet, are added, and it is held until it becomes coagulated. The coagulated mass may be warmed; it may be stirred; it is then drained. The curd may be pressed, chilled, worked, seasoned with salt; it may be heated, with or without added cream or one or more of the dairy ingredients specified in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph or both, until it becomes fluid, and it may then be homogenized or otherwise mixed.

(2) In the preparation of cream cheese one or any mixture of two or more of the optional ingredients gum karaya, gum tragacanth, carob bean gum, gelatin, or algin may be used; but the quantity of any such ingredient or mixture is such that the total weight of the solids contained therein is not more than 0.5 percent of the weight of the finished cream cheese.

(3) The dairy ingredients referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph are milk, skim milk, concentrated milk, concentrated skim milk, and nonfat dry milk solids. If concentrated milk, concentrated skim milk, or nonfat dry milk solids is used, water may be added in a quantity not in excess of that removed when the milk or skim milk was concentrated or dried.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the term "milk" means sweet milk of cows, "skim milk" means milk from which the milk fat has been separated, and "concentrated skim milk" means skim milk from which a portion of the water has been removed by evaporation.

(c) When an optional ingredient listed in paragraph (b) (2) of this section is present in cream cheese, the label shall bear the statement "---------- Added" or "With Added ----------," the blank being filled in with the word or words "Vegetable Gum" or "Gelatin" or "Algin" or any combination of two or all of these, as the case may be. Wherever the name "Cream Cheese" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement herein specified showing the optional ingredients present shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

§ 19.520 Neufchatel cheese; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Neufchatel cheese is the soft uncured cheese prepared by the procedure set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. The finished neufchatel cheese contains not less than 20 percent but less than 33 percent of milk fat and not more than 65 percent of moisture, as determined, respectively, by the methods prescribed under "Fat—Official" on page 302 and under "Moisture—Official" on page 301 of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fifth Edition, 1940. (These methods appear in the Sixth Edition, 1945, at pages 337 and 336.)

(b) (1) Milk or a mixture of cream with one or more of the dairy ingredients specified in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph or a mixture of concentrated milk with milk or with water not in excess of that removed when the milk was concentrated is pasteurized and may be homogenized. To such milk or mixture harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, with or without rennet, are added and it is held until it becomes coagulated. The coagulated mass may be warmed; it may be stirred; it is then drained. The curd may be pressed, chilled, worked, seasoned with salt; it may be heated, with or without added cream or one or more of the dairy ingredients specified in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph or both, until it becomes fluid, and it may then be homogenized or otherwise mixed.

(2) In the preparation of neufchatel cheese one or any mixture of two or more of the optional ingredients gum karaya, gum tragacanth, carob bean gum, gelatin, or algin may be used; but the quantity of any such ingredient or mixture is such that the total weight of the solids contained therein is not more than 0.5 percent of the weight of the finished neufchatel cheese.

(3) The dairy ingredients referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph are milk, skim milk, concentrated milk, concentrated skim milk, and nonfat dry milk solids. If concentrated milk, concentrated skim milk, or nonfat dry milk solids is used, water may be added in a quantity not in excess of that removed when the milk or skim milk was concentrated or dried.

(4) For the purposes of this section the term "milk" means sweet milk of cows; "skim milk" means milk from which the milk fat has been separated, and "concentrated skim milk" means skim milk from which a portion of the water has been removed by evaporation.

(c) When an optional ingredient listed in paragraph (b) (2) of this section is present in neufchatel cheese, the label shall bear the statement "---------- Added" or "With Added ----------", the blank being filled in with the word or words "Vegetable Gum" or "Gelatin" or "Algin" or any combination of two or all of these, as the case may be. Wherever the name "Neufchatel Cheese" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement herein specified showing the optional ingredients present shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

§ 19.525 Cottage cheese; identity. (a) Cottage cheese is the soft uncured cheese prepared by the procedure set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. The finished cottage cheese contains not more than 80 percent of moisture, as determined by the method prescribed under "Moisture—Official" on page 301 of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fifth Edition, 1940. (This method appears in the Sixth Edition, 1945, at page 336.)

(b) (1) One or more of the dairy ingredients specified in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph is pasteurized; calcium chloride may be added in a quantity of not more than 0.02 percent (calculated as anhydrous calcium chloride) of the weight of the mix; harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, with or without rennet, are added and it is held until it becomes coagulated. The coagulated mass may be cut; it may be warmed; it may be stirred; it is then drained. The curd may be washed with water and further drained; it may be pressed, chilled, worked, seasoned with salt.

(2) The dairy ingredients referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph are sweet skim milk, concentrated skim milk, and nonfat dry milk solids. If concentrated skim milk or nonfat dry milk solids is used, water may be added in a quantity not in excess of that removed when the skim milk was concentrated or dried.

(3) For the purposes of this section the term "skim milk" means the milk of cows from which the milk fat has been separated, and "concentrated skim milk" means skim milk from which a portion of the water has been removed by evaporation.

§ 19.530 Creamed cottage cheese, identity. (a) Creamed cottage cheese is the soft uncured cheese prepared by mixing cottage cheese with pasteurized cream or a pasteurized mixture of cream with milk or skim milk or both. Such cream or mixture is used in such quantity that the milk fat added thereby is not less than 4 percent by weight of the finished creamed cottage cheese. The finished creamed cottage cheese contains not more than 80 percent of moisture as determined by the method prescribed under "Moisture—Official" on page 301 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 336] of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fifth Edition, 1940.

(b) For the purposes of this section "milk" means sweet milk of cows and "skim milk" means milk from which the milk fat has been separated.

27.42 Canned fruit cocktail, canned cocktail fruits, canned fruits for cocktail; fill of container; label statement of substandard fill.

AUTHORITY: §§ 27.0 to 27.42 issued under 52 Stat. 1046, 1055, 53 Stat. 1428, 54 Stat. 1234; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371 (e), 5 U. S. C. 133–133*t*.

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to §§ 27.0 to 27.42 see 4 F. R. 4922; 5 F. R. 95, 97, 100, 102, 105, 2400; 7 F. R. 1612, 5542, 6458, 10517; 12 F. R. 6907.

§ 27.0 Canned peaches; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned peaches is the food prepared from one of the optional peach ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section and one of the optional packing media specified in paragraph (c) of this section. Such food may be seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(1) Spice;
(2) Flavoring, other than artificial flavoring;
(3) A vinegar;
(4) Peach pits, except in the cases of peeled whole peaches and unpeeled whole peaches, in a quantity not more than 1 peach pit to each 8 ounces of finished canned peaches; and
(5) Peach kernels, except in the cases of peeled whole peaches and unpeeled whole peaches, and except when optional ingredient (4) is used.

Such food is sealed in a container and is so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) The optional peach ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are prepared from mature peaches of the yellow clingstone, yellow freestone, white clingstone, or white freestone varietal group, and are in the following forms of units: peeled whole, unpeeled whole, peeled halves, unpeeled halves, peeled quarters, peeled slices, peeled dice, peeled mixed pieces of irregular sizes and shapes. Each such form of units prepared from each such varietal group is an optional peach ingredient. Each such ingredient, except in the case of peeled whole peaches and unpeeled whole peaches, is pitted. For the purpose of paragraph (e) of this section, the names of such optional peach ingredients are the words "Yellow Cling" or "Yellow Clingstone", "White Cling" or "White Clingstone", "Yellow Free" or "Yellow Freestone" or "White Free" or "White Freestone", as the case may be, preceded or followed by the word or words "Whole", "Unpeeled Whole", "Halves" or "Halved", "Unpeeled Halves", or "Unpeeled Halved", "Quarters" or "Quartered", "Slices" or "Sliced", "Dice" or "Diced", or "Mixed Pieces of Irregular Sizes and Shapes", as the case may be.

(c) The optional packing media referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) Water.
(2) Peach juice.
(3) Slightly sweetened water.
(4) Light sirup.
(5) Heavy sirup.
(6) Extra heavy sirup.
(7) Slightly sweetened peach juice.
(8) Light peach juice sirup.
(9) Heavy peach juice sirup.
(10) Extra heavy peach juice sirup.

As used in this paragraph the term "water" means, in addition to water, any mixture of water and peach juice; and the term "peach juice" means the fresh or canned expressed juice of mature peaches, of any varietal group specified in paragraph (b) of this section, to which no water is added, directly or indirectly.

Each of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, is prepared with a liquid ingredient and a saccharine ingredient. Water is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (3) to (6), inclusive, are prepared, and peach juice is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are prepared. The saccharine ingredient from which packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, are prepared is one of the following: Sugar; or any combination of sugar and dextrose in which the weight of the solids of the dextrose used is not more than one-half the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar and corn sirup in which the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than one-third the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar, dextrose, and corn sirup in which twice the weight of the solids of the dextrose used added to three times the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than the weight of the solids of the sugar used; except that packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are not prepared with any invert sugar sirup or with any corn sirup other than dried corn sirup. A packing medium prepared with peach juice and any invert sugar sirup or corn sirup other than dried corn sirup, is considered to be prepared with water as the liquid ingredient.

The respective densities of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, as measured on the Brix hydrometer fifteen days or more after the peaches are canned, are within the range prescribed for each in the following list:

Number of packing medium:	Brix measurement
(3) and (7)---	Less than 14°.
(4) and (8)---	14° or more but less than 19°.
(5) and (9)---	19° or more but less than 24°.
(6) and (10)--	24° or more but not more than 35°.

(d) For the purposes of this section:

(1) The term "sugar" means refined sucrose or invert sugar sirup. The term "invert sugar sirup" means an aqueous solution of inverted or partly inverted, refined or partly refined sucrose, the solids of which contain not more than 0.3 percent by weight of ash, and which is colorless, odorless, and flavorless except for sweetness.

(2) The term "dextrose" means the hydrated or anhydrous, refined monosaccharide obtained from hydrolized starch.

(3) The term "corn sirup" means an aqueous solution obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of cornstarch, and includes dried corn sirup; the solids of corn sirup and of dried corn sirup contain not less than 58 percent by weight of reducing sugars.

(e) The label shall bear the name of the optional peach ingredient used, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, and the name whereby the optional packing medium used is designated in paragraph (c) of this section, preceded by "In" or "Packed in". When any of the optional ingredients permitted by one of the following specified subparagraphs of paragraph (a) of this section is used, the label shall bear the words set forth below after the number of such subparagraph:

(1) "Spiced" or "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice", or, in lieu of the word "Spice", the common name of the spice;

(2) "Flavoring Added" or "With Added Flavoring", or, in lieu of the word "Flavoring," the common name of the flavoring;

(3) "Seasoned with Vinegar" or "Seasoned with _____ Vinegar", the blank being filled in with the word showing the kind of vinegar used;

(4) "Seasoned with Peach Pits";

(5) "Seasoned with Peach Kernels".

When two or more of the optional ingredients specified in paragraph (a) (1), (2), (3), and (4) or (5) of this section are used, such words may be combined, as for example, "Seasoned with Cider Vinegar, Cloves, Cinnamon Oil, and Peach Kernels".

Wherever the name "peaches" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under the customary conditions of purchase, the words herein specified, showing the optional ingredients used, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the specific varietal name of the peaches may so intervene.

§ 27.1 Canned peaches; quality; label statement of substandard quality. (a) The standard of quality for canned peaches is as follows:

(1) All units tested in accordance with the method prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section are pierced by a weight of not more than 300 grams;

(2) In the cases of halves and quarters, the weight of each unit is not less than ⅜ ounce and 3/10 ounce, respectively;

(3) In the cases of whole peaches, halves, and quarters, the weight of the largest unit in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest unit therein;

(4) Except in the case of unpeeled peaches, there is present in the finished canned peaches not more than 1 square inch of peel per each 1 pound of net contents;

(5) Not more than 20 percent of the units in the container are blemished with scab, hail injury, discoloration, or other abnormalities;

(6) In the cases of whole peaches, halves, quarters, and slices, all units are untrimmed, or are so trimmed as to preserve normal shape; and

(7) Except in the case of mixed pieces of irregular sizes and shapes, not more than 5 percent of the units in a container of 20 or more units, and not more than one unit in a container of less than 20 units, is crushed or broken. (A unit which has lost its normal shape because of ripeness and which bears no mark of crushing shall not be considered to be crushed or broken.)

(b) Canned peaches shall be tested by the following method to determine whether or not they meet the requirements of paragraph (a) (1) of this section:

So trim a test piece from the unit as to fit, with peel surface up, into a supporting receptacle. If the unit is of different firmness in different parts of its peel surface, trim the piece from the firmest part. If the piece is unpeeled, remove the peel. The top of the receptacle is circular in shape, of 1⅛ inches inside diameter, with vertical sides; or rectangular in shape, ¾ inch by 1 inch inside measurements, with ends vertical and sides sloping downward and joining at the center at a vertical depth of ¾ inch. Use the circular receptacle for testing units of such size that a test piece can be trimmed therefrom to fit it. Use the rectangular receptacle for testing other units. Test no unit from which a test piece with rectangular peel surface at least ½ inch by 1 inch cannot be trimmed. Test the piece by means of a round metal rod 5/32 inch in diameter. To the upper end of the rod is affixed a device to which weight can be added. The rod is held vertically by a support through which it can freely move upward or downward. The lower end of the rod is a plane surface to which the vertical axis of the rod is perpendicular. Adjust the combined weight of the rod and device to 100 grams. Set the receptacle so that the surface of the test piece is held horizontally. Lower the end of the rod to the approximate center of such surface, and add weight to the device at a uniform, continuous rate of 12 grams per second until the rod pierces the test piece. Weigh the rod and weighted device. Test all units in containers of 50 units or less, except those units too small for testing or too soft for trimming. Test at least 50 units, taken at random, in containers of more than 50 units; but if less than 50 units are of sufficient size and firmness for testing, test those which are of sufficient size and firmness.

(c) If the quality of canned peaches falls below the standard prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard quality specified in § 10.2 (a), in the manner and form therein specified; but in lieu of such general statement of substandard quality, the label may bear the alternative statement "Below Standard in Quality_____," the blank to be filled in with the words specified after the corresponding number of each clause of paragraph (a) of this section which such canned peaches fail to meet, as follows: (1) "Not Tender"; (2) "Small Halves," or "Small Quarters," as the case may be; (3) "Mixed Sizes"; (4) "Not Well Peeled"; (5) "Blemished"; (6) "Unevenly Trimmed"; (7) "Partly Crushed or Broken." Such alternative statement shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, the name "Peaches" and any words and statements required or authorized to appear with such name by § 27.0 (b).

§ 27.2 Canned peaches; fill of container; label statement of substandard fill. (a) The standard of fill of container for canned peaches is the maximum quantity of the optional peach ingredient which can be sealed in the container and processed by heat to prevent spoilage, without crushing or breaking such ingredient.

(b) If canned peaches fall below the standard of fill of container prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard fill specified in § 10.2 (b), in the manner and form therein specified.

§ 27.3 Canned peaches with rum; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Canned peaches with rum conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for canned peaches by § 27.0, except that it contains added rum in such amount that its alcohol content is more than 3 percent but less than 5 percent by weight.

§ 27.10 Canned apricots; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned apricots is the food prepared from one of the optional apricot ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section and one of the optional packing media specified in paragraph (c) of this section. Such food may be seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(1) Spice;

(2) Flavoring, other than artificial flavoring;

(3) A vinegar;

(4) Apricot pits, except in the cases of unpeeled whole apricots and peeled whole apricots, in a quantity not more than 1 apricot pit to each 8 ounces of finished canned apricots;

(5) Apricot kernels, except in the cases of unpeeled whole apricots and peeled whole apricots, and except when optional ingredient (4) is used.

Such food is sealed in a container and so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) The optional apricot ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are prepared from mature apricots and are in the following forms of units: unpeeled whole, peeled whole, unpeeled halves, peeled halves, unpeeled quarters, peeled quarters, unpeeled slices, peeled slices, unpeeled mixed pieces of irregular sizes and shapes, peeled mixed pieces of irregular sizes and shapes. Each such form of units is an optional apricot ingredient. Each such ingredient, except in the cases of unpeeled whole apricots and peeled whole apricots, is pitted. For the purposes of paragraph (e) of this section, the names of such optional apricot ingredients are "Whole", "Halves" or "Halved", "Quarters" or Quartered", "Slices" or "Sliced", "Mixed Pieces of Irregular Sizes and Shapes", as the case may be, preceded or followed by "Unpeeled" or "Peeled", as the case may be.

(c) The optional packing media referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) Water.
(2) Apricot juice.
(3) Slightly sweetened water.
(4) Light sirup.
(5) Heavy sirup.
(6) Extra heavy sirup.
(7) Slightly sweetened apricot juice.
(8) Light apricot juice sirup.
(9) Heavy apricot juice sirup.
(10) Extra heavy apricot juice sirup.

As used in this paragraph the term "water" means, in addition to water, any mixture of water and apricot juice; and the term "apricot juice" means the fresh or canned expressed juice of mature apricots to which no water is added, directly or indirectly.

Each of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, is prepared with a liquid ingredient and a saccharine ingredient. Water is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (3) to (6), inclusive, are prepared, and apricot juice is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are prepared. The saccharine ingredient from which packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, are prepared is one of the following: sugar; or any combination of sugar and dextrose in which the weight of the solids of the dextrose used is not more than one-half the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar and corn sirup in which the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than one-third the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar, dextrose, and corn sirup in which twice the weight of the solids of the dextrose used added to three times the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than the weight of the solids of the sugar used; except that packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are not prepared with any invert sugar sirup or with any corn sirup other than dried corn sirup. A packing medium prepared with apricot juice and any invert sugar sirup or corn sirup other than dried corn sirup, is considered to be prepared with water as the liquid ingredient.

The respective densities of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, as measured on the Brix hydrometer fifteen days or more after the apricots are canned, are within the range prescribed for each in the following list:

Number of packing medium:	Brix measurement
(3) and (7)--	Less than 16°.
(4) and (8)--	16° or more but less than 21°.
(5) and (9)--	21° or more but less than 25°.
(6) and (10)-	25° or more but not more than 40°.

(d) For the purposes of this section:

(1) The term "sugar" means refined sucrose or invert sugar sirup. The term "invert sugar sirup" means an aqueous solution of inverted or partly inverted, refined or partly refined sucrose, the solids of which contain not more than 0.3 percent by weight of ash, and which is colorless, odorless, and flavorless except for sweetness.

(2) The term "dextrose" means the hydrated or anhydrous, refined monosaccharide obtained from hydrolized starch.

(3) The term "corn sirup" means an aqueous solution obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of cornstarch, and includes dried corn sirup; the solids of corn sirup and of dried corn sirup contain not less than 58 percent by weight of reducing sugars.

(e) The label shall bear the name of the optional apricot ingredient used, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, and the name whereby the optional packing medium used is designated in paragraph (c) of this section, preceded by "In" or "Packed in". When any optional ingredient permitted by one of the following specified subparagraphs of paragraph (a) is used, the labels shall bear the words set forth below after the number of such subparagraph:

(1) "Spiced" or "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice", or, in lieu of the word "Spice", the common name of the spice;

(2) "Flavoring Added" or "With Added Flavoring", or, in lieu of the word "Flavoring", the common name of the flavoring;

(3) "Seasoned with Vinegar" or "Seasoned with _____ Vinegar", the blank being filled in with the word showing the kind of vinegar used;

(4) "Seasoned with Apricot Pits";

(5) "Seasoned with Apricot Kernels".

When two or more of the optional ingredients specified in paragraph (a) (1), (2), (3), and (4) or (5) of this section are used, such words may be combined, as for example, "Seasoned with Cider Vinegar, Cloves, Cinnamon Oil, and Apricot Kernels".

Wherever the name "apricots" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under the customary conditions of purchase, the words herein specified, showing the optional ingredients used, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the specific varietal name of the apricots may so intervene.

§ 27.11 Canned apricots; quality; label statement of substandard quality. (a) The standard of quality for canned apricots is as follows:

(1) All units tested in accordance with the method prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section are pierced by a weight of not more than 300 grams;

(2) In the cases of halves and quarters, the weight of each unit is not less than ⅔ ounce and ⅓ ounce, respectively;

(3) In the cases of whole apricots, halves, and quarters, the weight of the largest unit in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest unit therein;

(4) Not more than 20 percent of the units in the container are blemished with scab, hail injury, discoloration, or other abnormalities;

(5) In the cases of whole apricots, halves, and quarters, all units are untrimmed, or are so trimmed as to preserve normal shape; and

(6) Except in the case of mixed pieces of irregular sizes and shapes, not more than 5 percent of the units in a container of 20 or more units, and not more than 1 unit in a container of less than 20 units, is crushed or broken. (A unit which has lost its normal shape because of ripeness and which bears no mark of crushing shall not be considered to be crushed or broken.)

(b) Canned apricots shall be tested by the following method to determine whether or not they meet the requirements of paragraph (a) (1) of this section:

So trim a test piece from the unit as to fit, with peel surface up, into a supporting receptacle. If the unit is of different firmness in different parts of its peel surface, trim the piece from the firmest part. If the piece is unpeeled, remove the peel. The top of the receptacle is circular in shape, of 1⅛ inches inside diameter, with vertical sides; or rectangular in shape, ¾ inch by 1 inch inside measurements, with ends vertical and sides sloping downward and joining at the center at a vertical depth of ¾ inch. Use the circular receptacle for testing units of such size that a test piece can be trimmed therefrom to fit it. Use the rectangular receptacle for testing other units. Test no unit from which a test piece with rectangular peel surface at least ½ inch by 1 inch cannot be trimmed. Test the piece by means of a round metal rod 3/16 inch in diameter. To the upper end of the rod is affixed a device to which weight can be added. The rod is held vertically by a support through which it can freely move upward or downward. The lower end of the rod is a plane surface to which the vertical axis of the rod is perpendicular. Adjust the combined weight of the rod and device to 100 grams. Set the receptacle so that the surface of the test piece is held horizontally. Lower the end of the rod to the approximate center of such surface, and add weight to the device at a uniform, continuous rate of 12 grams per second until the rod pierces the test piece. Weigh the rod and weighted device. Test all units in containers of 50 units or less, except those units too small for testing or too soft for trimming. Test at least 50 units, taken at random, in containers of more than 50 units; but if less than 50 units are of sufficient size and firmness for testing, test those which are of sufficient size and firmness.

(c) If the quality of canned apricots falls below the standard prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard quality specified in § 10.2 (a) of this chapter, in the manner and form therein specified; but in lieu of such general statement of substandard quality, the label may bear the alternative statement "Below Standard in Quality _____", the blank to be filled in with the words specified after the corresponding number of each subparagraph of paragraph (a) of this section which such canned apricots fail to meet, as follows: (1) "Not Tender"; (2) "Small Halves," or "Small Quarters", as the case may be; (3) "Mixed Sizes"; (4) "Blemished"; (5) "Unevenly Trimmed"; (6) "Partly Crushed or Broken". Such alternative statement shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, the name "Apricots" and any words and statements required or authorized to appear with such name by § 27.10 (b).

§ 27.12 Canned apricots; fill of container; label statement of substandard fill. (a) The standard of fill of container for canned apricots is the maximum quantity of the optional apricot ingredient which can be sealed in the container and processed by heat to prevent spoilage, without crushing or breaking such ingredient.

(b) If canned apricots fall below the standard of fill of container prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard fill specified in § 10.2 (b) of this chapter, in the manner and form therein specified.

§ 27.13 Canned apricots with rum; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Canned apricots with rum conforms to the definition and standard of identity and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for canned apricots by § 27.10, except that it contains added rum in such amount that its alcohol content is more than 3 percent but less than 5 percent by weight.

§ 27.20 Canned pears; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned pears is the food prepared from one of the optional pear ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section and one of the optional packing media specified in paragraph (c) of this section. Such food may be seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(1) Spice;

(2) Flavoring, other than artificial flavoring; and

(3) A vinegar.

Such food is sealed in a container and so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) The optional pear ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are prepared from mature pears and are in the following forms of units: peeled whole, unpeeled whole, peeled halves, unpeeled halves, peeled quarters, peeled slices, peeled dice, peeled mixed pieces of irregular sizes and shapes. Each such form of units is an optional pear ingredient. Each such ingredient, except in the cases of peeled whole pears and unpeeled whole pears, is cored. For the purposes of paragraph (e) of this section, the respective names of such optional pear ingredients are "Whole", "Halves" or "Halved", "Quarters" or "Quartered", "Slices" or "Sliced", "Dice" or "Diced", "Mixed Pieces of Irregular Sizes and Shapes", preceded or followed in case the units are whole or halves and are unpeeled, by the word "Unpeeled".

(c) The optional packing media referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) Water.
(2) Pear juice.
(3) Slightly sweetened water.
(4) Light sirup.
(5) Heavy sirup.
(6) Extra heavy sirup.
(7) Slightly sweetened pear juice.
(8) Light pear juice sirup.
(9) Heavy pear juice sirup.
(10) Extra heavy pear juice sirup.

As used in this paragraph the term "water" means, in addition to water, any mixture of water and pear juice; and the term "pear juice" means the fresh or canned expressed juice of mature pears to which no water is added, directly or indirectly.

Each of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, is prepared with a liquid ingredient and a saccharine ingredient. Water is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (3) to (6), inclusive, are prepared, and pear juice is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are prepared. The saccharine ingredient from which packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, are prepared is one of the following: sugar; or any combination of sugar and dextrose in which the weight of the solids of the dextrose used is not more than one-half the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar and corn sirup in which the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than one-third the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar, dextrose, and corn sirup in which twice the weight of the solids of the dextrose used added to three times the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than the weight of the solids of the sugar used; except that packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are not prepared with any invert sugar sirup or with any corn sirup other than dried corn sirup. A packing medium prepared with pear juice and any invert sugar sirup or corn sirup other than dried corn sirup, is considered to be prepared with water as the liquid ingredient.

The respective densities of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, as measured on the Brix hydrometer fifteen days or more after the pears are canned, are within the range prescribed for each in the following list:

Number of packing medium:	Brix measurement
(3) and (7)	Less than 14°.
(4) and (8)	14° or more but less than 18°.
(5) and (9)	18° or more but less than 22°.
(6) and (10)	22° or more but not more than 35°.

(d) For the purposes of this section:

(1) The term "sugar" means refined sucrose or invert sugar sirup. The term "invert sugar sirup" means an aqueous solution of inverted or partly inverted, refined or partly refined sucrose, the solids of which contain not more than 0.3 percent by weight of ash, and which is colorless, odorless, and flavorless except for sweetness.

(2) The term "dextrose" means the hydrated or anhydrous, refined monosaccharide obtained from hydrolized starch.

(3) The term "corn sirup" means an aqueous solution obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of cornstarch, and includes dried corn sirup; the solids of corn sirup and of dried corn sirup contain not less than 58 percent by weight of reducing sugars.

(e) The label shall bear the name of the optional pear ingredient used, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, and the name whereby the optional packing medium used is designated in paragraph (c) of this section, preceded by "In" or "Packed in." When any optional ingredient permitted by one of the following specified subparagraphs of paragraph (a) of this section is used, the label shall bear the words set forth below after the number of such subparagraph:

(1) "Spiced" or "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice", or, in lieu of the word "Spice", the common name of the spice;

(2) "Flavoring Added" or "With Added Flavoring", or, in lieu of the word "Flavoring", the common name of the flavoring;

(3) "Seasoned with Vinegar" or Seasoned with _____ Vinegar", the blank being filled in with the word showing the kind of vinegar used.

When two or all of the optional ingredients specified in paragraph (a) (1), (2), and (3) of this section are used, such words may be combined, as for example, "Seasoned with Cider Vinegar, Cloves, and Cinnamon Oil."

Wherever the name "pears" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under the customary conditions of purchase, the words herein specified showing the optional ingredients used, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the specific varietal name of the pears may so intervene.

§ 27.21 Canned pears; quality; label statement of substandard quality. (a) The standard of quality for canned pears is as follows:

(1) All units tested in accordance with the method prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section are pierced by a weight of not more than 300 grams;

(2) In the cases of halves and quarters, the weight of each unit is not less than $\frac{3}{5}$ ounce and $\frac{3}{10}$ ounce, respectively;

(3) In the cases of whole pears, halves, and quarters, the weight of the largest unit in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest unit therein;

(4) Except in the case of unpeeled pears, there is present in the finished canned pears not more than 1 square inch of peel per each 1 pound of net contents;

(5) Not more than 20 percent of the units in the container are blemished with scab, hail injury, discoloration, or other abnormalities;

(6) In the cases of whole pears, halves, and quarters, all units are untrimmed, or are so trimmed as to preserve normal shape; and

(7) Except in the case of mixed pieces of irregular sizes and shapes, not more than 10 percent of the units in a container of 10 or more units, and not more than 1 unit in a container of less than 10 units, is crushed or broken. (A unit which has lost its normal shape because of ripeness and which bears no mark of crushing shall not be considered to be crushed or broken.)

(b) Canned pears shall be tested by the following method to determine whether or not they meet the requirements of paragraph (a) (1) of this section:

So trim a test piece from the unit as to fit, with peel surface up, into a supporting receptacle. If the unit is of different firmness in different parts of its peel surface, trim the piece from the firmest part. If the piece is unpeeled remove the peel. The top of the receptacle is circular in shape of $1\frac{1}{8}$ inches inside diameter, with vertical sides; or rectangular in shape, $\frac{3}{4}$ inch by 1 inch inside measurements, with ends vertical and sides sloping downward and joining at the center at a vertical depth of $\frac{3}{4}$ inch. Use the circular receptacle for testing units of such size that a test piece can be trimmed therefrom to fit it. Use the rectangular receptacle for testing other units. Test no unit from which a test piece with rectangular peel surface at least $\frac{1}{2}$ inch by 1 inch cannot be trimmed. Test the piece by means of a round metal rod $\frac{5}{32}$ inch in diameter. To the upper end of the rod is affixed a device to which weight can be added. The rod is held vertically by a support through which it can freely move upward or downward. The lower end of the rod is a plane surface to which the vertical axis of the rod is perpendicular. Adjust the combined weight of the rod and device to 100 grams. Set the receptacle so that the surface of the test piece is held horizontally. Lower the end of the rod to the approximate center of such surface, and add weight to the device at a uniform, continuous rate of 12 grams per second until the rod pierces the test piece. Weigh the rod and weighted device. Test all units in containers of 50 units or less, except those units too small for testing or too soft for trimming. Test at least 50 units, taken at random, in containers of more than 50 units; but if less than 50 units are of sufficient size and firmness for testing, test those which are of sufficient size and firmness.

(c) If the quality of canned pears falls below the standard prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard quality specified in § 10.2 (a) of this chapter in the manner and form therein specified; but in lieu of such general statement of substandard quality, the label may bear the alternative statement "Below Standard in Quality _____", the blank to be filled in with the words specified after the corresponding number of each subparagraph of paragraph (a) of this section which such canned pears fail to meet, as follows: (1) "Not Tender"; (2) "Small Halves", or "Small Quarters", as the case may be; (3) "Mixed Sizes"; (4) "Not Well Peeled"; (5) "Blemished"; (6) "Unevenly Trimmed"; (7) "Partly Crushed or Broken". Such alternative statement shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, the name "Pears" and any words and statements required or authorized to appear with such name by § 27.20 (b).

§ 27.22 Canned pears; fill of container; label statement of substandard fill. (a) The standard of fill of container for canned pears is the maximum quantity of the optional pear ingredient which can be sealed in the container and processed by heat to prevent spoilage, without crushing or breaking such ingredient.

(b) If canned pears fall below the standard of fill of container prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard fill specified in § 10.2 (b) of this chapter, in the manner and form therein specified.

§ 27.23 Canned pears with rum; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Canned pears with rum conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for canned pears by § 27.20, except that it contains added rum in such amount that its alcohol content is more than 3 percent but less than 5 percent by weight.

§ 27.30 Canned cherries; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned cherries is the food prepared from one of the optional cherry ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section and one of the optional packing media specified in paragraph (c) of this section. Such food may be seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(1) Spice;

(2) Flavoring, other than artificial flavoring;

(3) A vinegar.

Such food is sealed in a container and so processed by heat to prevent spoilage.

(b) The optional cherry ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are prepared from mature cherries of the red sour, light sweet, or dark sweet varietal group. Pitted cherries of each such group and unpitted cherries of each such group are an optional cherry ingredient. For the purposes of paragraph (e) of this section, the names of such optional cherry ingredients are the words "Red Sour" or "Red Tart", "Light Sweet" or "Dark Sweet", as the case may be, preceded or followed by the word "Pitted" in case such ingredients are pitted.

(c) The optional packing media referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) Water.
(2) Cherry juice.
(3) Slightly sweetened water.
(4) Light sirup.
(5) Heavy sirup.
(6) Extra heavy sirup.
(7) Slightly sweetened cherry juice.
(8) Light cherry juice sirup.
(9) Heavy cherry juice sirup.
(10) Extra heavy cherry juice sirup.

As used in this paragraph the term "water" means, in addition to water, any mixture of water and cherry juice; and the term "cherry juice" means the fresh or canned expressed juice of mature cherries, of any varietal group specified in paragraph (b) of this section, to which no water is added, directly or indirectly.

Each of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, is prepared with a liquid ingredient and a saccharine ingredient. Water is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (3) to (6), inclusive, are prepared, and cherry juice is the liquid ingredient from which packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are prepared. The saccharine ingredient from which packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, are prepared is one of the following: sugar; or any combination of sugar and dextrose in which the weight of the solids of the dextrose used is not more than one-half the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar and corn sirup in which the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than one-third the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar, dextrose, and corn sirup in which twice the weight of the solids of the dextrose used added to three times the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than the weight of the solids of the sugar used; except that packing media (7) to (10), inclusive, are not prepared with any invert sugar sirup or with any corn sirup other than dried corn sirup. A packing medium prepared with cherry juice and any invert sugar sirup or corn sirup other than dried corn sirup, is considered to be prepared with water as the liquid ingredient.

The respective densities of packing media (3) to (10), inclusive, as measured on the Brix hydrometer fifteen days or more after the cherries are canned, are within the range prescribed for each in the following list:

Number of packing medium: In case of sweet cherries:	Brix measurement
(3) and (7)	Less than 16°.
(4) and (8)	16° or more but less than 20°.
(5) and (9)	20° or more but less than 25°.
(6) and (10)	25° or more but not more than 35°.
In case of red sour cherries:
(3) and (7)	Less than 18°.
(4) and (8)	18° or more but less than 22°.
(5) and (9)	22° or more but less than 28°.
(6) and (10)	28° or more but not more than 45°.

(d) For the purposes of this section:

(1) The term "sugar" means refined sucrose or invert sugar sirup. The term "invert sugar sirup" means an aqueous solution of inverted or partly inverted, refined or partly refined sucrose, the solids of which contain not more than 0.3 percent by weight of ash, and which is colorless, odorless, and flavorless except for sweetness.

(2) The term "dextrose" means the hydrated or anhydrous, refined monosaccharide obtained from hydrolized starch.

(3) The term "corn sirup" means an aqueous solution obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of cornstarch, and includes dried corn sirup; the solids of corn sirup and of dried corn sirup contain not less than 58 percent by weight of reducing sugars.

(e) The label shall bear the name of the optional cherry ingredient used, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, and the name whereby the optional packing medium used is designated in paragraph (c) of this section, preceded by "In" or "Packed in." When any optional ingredient permitted by one of the following specified subparagraphs of paragraph (a) of this section is used, the label shall bear the words set forth below after the number of such subparagraph:

(1) "Spiced" or "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice", or, in lieu of the word "Spice", the common name of the spice;

(2) "Flavoring Added" or "With Added Flavoring", or, in lieu of the word "Flavoring", the common name of the flavoring;

(3) "Seasoned with Vinegar" or "Seasoned with ---------- Vinegar", the blank being filled in with the word showing the kind of vinegar used.

When two or all of the optional ingredients specified in paragraph (a) (1), (2), and (3) of this section are used, such words may be combined, as for example, "Seasoned with Cider Vinegar, Cloves, and Cinnamon Oil".

Wherever the name "cherries" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under the customary conditions of purchase, the words herein specified, showing the optional ingredients used, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the specific varietal name of the cherries may so intervene.

§ 27.31 Canned cherries; quality; label statement of substandard quality. (a) The standard of quality for canned cherries is as follows:

(1) In the case of pitted cherries, not more than 1 pit is present in each 20 ounces of canned cherries, as determined by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) (1) of this section;

(2) In the case of unpitted cherries, the weight of each cherry in the container is not less than 1/10 ounce;

(3) In the case of unpitted cherries, the weight of the largest cherry in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest cherry therein;

(4) In the case of unpitted cherries, the total weight of pits is not more than 12 percent of the weight of drained cherries, as determined by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) (2) of this section; and

(5) Not more than 15 percent by count of the cherries in the container are blemished with scab, hail injury, discoloration, scar tissue, or other abnormality. A unit showing skin discoloration having an aggregate area not exceeding that of a circle 3/16 inch in diameter and not extending into the fruit tissue shall not be considered as blemished.

(b) (1) Pitted canned cherries shall be tested by the following method to determine whether or not they comply with the requirements of paragraph (a) (1) of this section:

Take at random such number of containers as to have a total quantity of contents of at least 24 pounds. Open the containers and weigh the contents. Count the pits and pieces of pit shell in such total quantity. Count a piece of pit shell equal to or smaller than one-half pit shell as one-half pit, and a piece of pit shell larger than one-half pit shell as one pit; but when two or more pieces of pit shell are within or attached to a single cherry, count such pieces as one-half pit if their combined size is equivalent to that of one-half pit shell or less, and as one pit if their combined size is equivalent to that of more than one-half pit shell. From the total number of pits so counted and the combined weight of the contents of all the containers, calculate the number of pits present in each 20 ounces of canned cherries.

(2) Unpitted canned cherries shall be tested by the following method to determine whether or not they comply with the requirements of paragraph (a) (4) of this section:

Tilt the opened container so as to distribute the contents over the meshes of a circular sieve which has previously been weighed. The diameter of the sieve is 8 inches if the quantity of the contents of the container is less than 3 pounds, or 12 inches if such quantity is 3 pounds or more. The bottom of the sieve is No. 8 woven-wire cloth which complies with the specifications for such cloth set forth on page 3 of "Standard Specifications for Sieves", published October 25, 1938, by U. S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards. Without shifting the cherries, so incline the sieve as to facilitate drainage. Two minutes from the time drainage begins, weigh the sieve and drained cherries. The weight so found, less the weight of the sieve, shall be considered to be the weight of drained cherries. Pit the cherries and wash the pits free from adhering flesh. Drain and weigh the pits by the method prescribed above. Divide the weight of pits so found by the weight of drained cherries, and multiply by 100.

(c) If the quality of canned cherries falls below the standard prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard quality specified in § 10.2 (a) of this chapter, in the manner and form therein specified; but in lieu of such general statement of substandard quality, the label may bear the alternative statement "Below Standard in Quality ------", the blank to be filled in with the words specified after the corresponding number of each subparagraph of paragraph (a) of this section which such canned cherries fail to meet, as follows: (1) "Partially Pitted"; (2) "Small"; (3) "Mixed Sizes"; (4) "Thin Fleshed"; (5) "Blemished." Such alternative statement shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, the name "Cherries" and any words and statements required or authorized to appear with such name by § 27.30 (b).

§ 27.32 Canned cherries; fill of container; label statement of substandard fill. (a) The standard of fill of container for canned cherries is the maximum quantity of the optional cherry ingredient which can be sealed in the container and processed by heat to prevent spoilage, without crushing such ingredient.

(b) If canned cherries fall below the standard of fill of container prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard fill specified in § 10.2 (b), in the manner and form therein specified.

§ 27.33 Canned cherries with rum; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. Canned cherries with rum conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients, prescribed for canned cherries by § 27.30, except that it contains added rum in such amount that its alcohol content is more than 3 percent but less than 5 percent by weight.

§ 27.40 Canned fruit cocktail, canned cocktail fruits, canned fruits for cocktail; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned fruit cocktail, canned cocktail fruits, canned fruits for cocktail, is the food prepared from the mixture of fruit ingredients prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section, in the forms and proportions therein prescribed, and one of the optional packing media specified in paragraph (c) of this section. It is sealed in a container and is so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) The fruit ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section, the forms of each, and the percent by weight of each in the mixture of drained fruit from the finished canned fruit cocktail are as follows:

(1) Peaches of any yellow variety, which are pitted, peeled, and diced, not less than 30 percent and not more than 50 percent;

(2) Pears of any variety, which are peeled, cored, and diced, not less than 25 percent and not more than 45 percent;

(3) Whole grapes of any seedless variety, not less than 6 percent and not more than 20 percent;

(4) Pineapples of any variety, which are peeled, cored, and cut into sectors or into dice, not less than 6 percent and not more than 16 percent; and

(5) One of the following optional cherry ingredients, each of which is stemmed, pitted, and cut into approximate halves, not less than 2 percent and not more than 6 percent;

(i) Cherries of any light, sweet variety;

(ii) Cherries artificially colored red; or

(iii) Cherries artificially colored red and artificially flavored.

Each such fruit ingredient is prepared from mature fruit which is fresh or canned. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph, each 4½ ounces avoirdupois of the finished canned fruit cocktail and each fraction thereof greater than 2 ounces avoirdupois contain not less than 2 sectors or 3 dice of pineapple and not less than 1 approximate half of the optional cherry ingredient.

(c) The optional packing media referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are as follows:

(1) Water.
(2) Fruit juice.
(3) Light sirup.
(4) Heavy sirup.
(5) Extra heavy sirup.
(6) Light fruit juice sirup.
(7) Heavy fruit juice sirup.
(8) Extra heavy fruit juice sirup.

Each of packing media (3), (4), and (5) is prepared with water as its liquid ingredient, and each of packing media (6), (7), and (8) is prepared with fruit juice as its liquid ingredient. Except as provided in paragraph (d) (6) of this section, each of packing media (3) to (8), inclusive, is prepared with any one of the following saccharine ingredients: sugar; or any combination of sugar and dextrose in which the weight of the solids of the dextrose used is not more than one-half the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar and corn sirup in which the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used is not more than one-third the weight of the solids of the sugar used; or any combination of sugar, dextrose, and corn sirup in which the weight of the solids of the dextrose used multiplied by 2, added to the weight of the solids of the corn sirup used multiplied by 3, is not more than the weight of the solids of the sugar used. The respective densities of packing media (3) to (8), inclusive, as measured on the Brix hydrometer 15 days or more after the fruit cocktail is canned are within the range prescribed for each in the following list:

Number of packing medium:	Brix measurement
(3) and (6)	14° or more but less than 18°.
(4) and (7)	18° or more but less than 22°.
(5) and (8)	22° or more but not more than 35°.

(d) For the purposes of this section:

(1) The term "water" means, in addition to water, both the liquid drained from any fruit ingredient previously canned in water as its sole packing medium and any mixture of water and fruit juice, including the liquid drained from any fruit ingredient previously canned in such mixture.

(2) The term "fruit juice" means the fresh or canned, expressed juice or juices of one or more of the mature fruits named in paragraph (b) of this section including the liquid drained from any fruit ingredient previously canned in such juice or juices as its sole packing medium, to which no water has been added, directly or indirectly. Fruit juice may be strained or filtered.

(3) The term "sugar" means refined sucrose or invert sugar sirup. The term "invert sugar sirup" means an aqueous sirup of inverted or partly inverted, refined or partly refined sucrose, the solids of which contain not more than 0.3 percent by weight of ash and which is colorless, odorless and flavorless except for sweetness.

(4) The term "dextrose" means the hydrated or anhydrous, refined monosaccharide obtained from hydrolized starch.

(5) The term "corn sirup" means an aqueous solution obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of corn starch and includes dried corn sirup; the solids of corn sirup and dried corn sirup contain not less than 58 percent by weight of reducing sugars.

(6) When the optional packing medium is prepared with fruit juice and invert sugar sirup or corn sirup other than dried corn sirup, it shall be considered to be light sirup, heavy sirup, or an extra heavy sirup, as the case may be, and not a light fruit juice sirup, heavy fruit juice sirup, or an extra heavy fruit juice sirup.

(7) The term "light sirup", "heavy sirup", or "extra heavy sirup" includes a sirup which conforms in all other respects to the provisions of this section, in the preparation of which there is used the liquid drained from any fruit ingredient previously canned in a packing medium consisting wholly of the liquid and saccharine ingredients of a light sirup, heavy sirup, or extra heavy sirup.

(8) Except as provided in subparagraph (6) of this paragraph, the term "light fruit juice sirup", "heavy fruit juice sirup", or "extra heavy fruit juice sirup" includes a sirup which conforms in all other respects to the provisions of this section, in the preparation of which there is used the liquid drained from any fruit ingredients previously canned in a packing medium consisting wholly of the liquid and saccharine ingredients of light fruit juice sirup, heavy fruit juice sirup, or extra heavy fruit juice sirup.

(e) (1) The optional ingredients specified in paragraphs (b) (5) (ii) and (iii) and (c) (1) to (8) of this section, inclusive, are hereby designated as optional ingredients which, when used, shall be named on the label by the name whereby each is so specified.

(2) Such names shall immediately and conspicuously, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, precede or follow the name "fruit cocktail", "cocktail fruits", or "fruits for cocktail" wherever it appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase.

§ 27.41 Canned fruit cocktail, canned cocktail fruits, canned fruits for cocktail; quality; label statement of substandard quality. (a) The standard of quality for canned fruit cocktail is as follows:

(1) Not more than 20 percent by weight of the units in the container of peach or pear, or of pineapple if the units thereof are diced, are more than ¾ inch in greatest edge dimension, or pass through the meshes of a sieve designated as 5/16 inch in Table I of "Standard Specifications for Sieves", published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the National Bureau of Standards, U. S. Department of Commerce. If the units of pineapple are in the form of sectors, not more than 20 percent of such sectors in the container fail to conform to the following dimensions: The length of the outside arc is not more than ¾ inch but is more than ⅜ inch; the thickness is not more than ½ inch but is more than 5/16 inch; the length (measured along the radius from the inside arc to the ouside arc) is not more than 1¼ inches but is more than ¾ inch.

(2) Not more than 10 percent of the grapes in a container containing ten grapes or more, and not more than one grape in a container containing less than ten grapes, is cracked to the extent of being severed into two parts or is crushed to the extent that their normal shape is destroyed.

(3) Not more than 10 percent of the grapes in a container containing ten grapes or more, and not more than one grape in a container containing less than ten grapes, has the cap stem attached.

(4) There is present in the finished canned fruit cocktail not more than one square inch of pear peel per each one pound of drained weight of units of pear plus the weight of a proportion of the packing medium which is the same proportion as the drained weight of the units of pear bears to the drained weight of the entire contents of the can. Such drained weights shall be determined by the method prescribed in § 27.42.

(5) There is present in the finished canned fruit cocktail not more than one square inch of peach peel per each one pound of drained weight of units of peach plus the weight of a proportion of the packing medium which is the same proportion as the drained weight of units of peach bears to the drained weight of the entire contents of the can. Such drained weights shall be determined by the method prescribed in § 27.42.

(6) Not more than 15 percent of the units of cherry ingredient; and not more than 20 percent of the units of peach, pear, or grape, in the container is blemished with scab, hail injury, scar tissue or other abnormality.

(7) If the cherry ingredient is artificially colored, the color of not more than 15 percent of the units thereof in a container containing more than six units, and of not more than one unit in a container containing six units or less, is other than evenly distributed in the unit or other than uniform with the color of the other units of the cherry ingredient.

(b) If the quality of canned fruit cocktail falls below the standard prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard quality specified in § 10.2 (a), in the manner and form therein specified.

§ 27.42 Canned fruit cocktail, canned cocktail fruits, canned fruits for cocktail; fill of container; label statement of substandard fill. (a) The standard of fill of container for canned fruit cocktail is a fill such that the total weight of drained fruit is not less than 65 percent of the water capacity of the container, as determined by the general method for water capacity of containers prescribed in § 10.1 (a). Such total weight of drained fruit is determined by the following method:

Tilt the opened container so as to distribute the contents evenly over the meshes of a circular sieve which has been previously weighed. The diameter of the sieve is 8 inches if the quantity of contents of the container is less than 3 pounds, and 12 inches if such quantity is 3 pounds or more. The bottom of the sieve is woven-wire cloth which complies with the specifications for such cloth set forth under "2380 Micron (No. 8)" in Table I of "Standard Specifications for Sieves", published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the U. S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards. Without shifting the material on the sieve so incline the sieve as to facilitate drainage. Two minutes from the time drainage begins, weigh the sieve and drained fruit. The weight so found, less the weight of the sieve, shall be considered to be the total weight of drained fruit.

(b) If canned fruit cocktail falls below the standard of fill of container prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard fill specified in § 10.2 (b), in the manner and form therein prescribed.

PART 29—FRUIT PRESERVES AND JELLIES; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

Sec.

29.0 Preserves, jams; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.

29.5 Fruit jelly; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.

AUTHORITY: §§ 29.0 and 29.5 issued under 52 Stat. 1043, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371.

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to §§ 29.0 and 29.5, see 5 F. R. 3554, 3558.

§ 29.0 Preserves, jams; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) The preserves or jams for which definitions and standards of identity are prescribed by this section are the viscous or semi-solid foods each of which is made from a mixture composed of not less than 45 parts by weight (see paragraph (c) of this section) of one of the fruit ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section to each 55 parts by weight (see paragraph (e) (1) of this section) of one of the optional saccharine ingredients specified in paragraph (d) of this section. Such mixture may also contain one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(1) Spice.

(2) A vinegar, lemon juice, lime juice, citric acid, lactic acid, malic acid, tartaric acid, or any combination of two or more of these, in a quantity which reasonably compensates for deficiency, if any, of the natural acidity of the fruit ingredient.

(3) Pectin, in a quantity which reasonably compensates for deficiency, of any, of the natural pectin content of the fruit ingredient.

(4) Sodium citrate, sodium potassium tartrate, or any combination of these, in a quantity the proportion of which is not more than 3 ounces avoirdupois to each 100 pounds of the saccharine ingredient used.

(5) Sodium benzoate or benzoic acid or any combination of these, in a quantity reasonably necessary as a preservative.

Such mixture, with or without added water, is concentrated by heat to such point that the soluble solids content of the finished preserve is not less than 68 percent if the fruit ingredient is specified in Group I of paragraph (b) of this section, and not less than 65 percent if the fruit ingredient is specified in Group II of paragraph (b) of this section. The soluble solids content is determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, page 320 [Ed. note, 6th edition, p. 383], under "Soluble Solids in Fresh and Canned Fruits, Jams, Marmalades, and Preserves—Tentative", except that no correction is made for water-insoluble solids.

(b) The fruit ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are the following mature, properly prepared fruits which are fresh, frozen, and/or canned:

GROUP I

Blackberry (other than dewberry).
Black raspberry.
Blueberry.
Boysenberry.
Cherry.
Crabapple.
Dewberry (other than boysenberry, loganberry, and youngberry).
Elderberry.
Grape.
Grapefruit.
Huckleberry.
Loganberry.
Orange.
Pineapple.
Raspberry, red raspberry.
Rhubarb.
Strawberry.
Tangerine.
Tomato.
Yellow tomato.
Youngberry.

Any combination of two, three, four, or five of such fruits in which the weight of each is not less than one-fifth of the weight of the combination; except that the weight of pineapple may be not less than one-tenth of the weight of the combination.

GROUP II

Apricot.
Cranberry.
Damson, damson plum.
Fig.
Gooseberry.
Greengage, greengage plum.
Guava.
Nectarine.
Peach.
Pear.
Plum (other than greengage plum and damson plum).
Quince.
Red currant, currant (other than black currant).

Any combination of two, three, four, or five of such fruits, or one or more of such fruits with one or more of the individual fruits specified in Group I, in which the weight of each is not less than one-fifth of the weight of the combination; except that the weight of pineapple may be not less than one-tenth of the weight of the combination.

Any combination of two, three, four, two, three, or four of the individual fruits specified in this group or Group I in which the weight of each is not less than one-fifth, and the weight of apple is not more than one-half, of the weight of the combination; except that the weight of pineapple may be not less than one-tenth of the weight of the combination.

In any combination of two, three, four, or five fruits, each such fruit is an optional ingredient. For the purposes of this section, the word "fruit" includes the vegetables specified in this paragraph.

(c) Any requirement of this section with respect to the weight of any fruit, combination of fruits, or fruit ingredient means:

(1) The weight of fruit exclusive of the weight of any sugar, water, or other substance added for any processing or packing or canning, or otherwise added to such fruit;

(2) In the case of fruit prepared by the removal, in whole or in part, of pits, seeds, skins, cores, or other parts, the weight of such fruit exclusive of the weight of all such substances removed therefrom; and

(3) In the cases of apricots, cherries, grapes, nectarines, peaches, and all varieties of plums, whether or not pits and seeds are removed therefrom, the weight of such fruit exclusive of the weight of such pits and seeds.

(d) The optional saccharine ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) Sugar.

(2) Invert sugar sirup.

(3) Any combination composed of optional saccharine ingredients (1) and (2).

(4) Any combination composed of corn sugar or dextrose and optional saccharine ingredient (1), (2), or (3).

(5) Any combination composed of corn sirup and optional saccharine ingredient (1), (2), (3), or (4), in which the weight of the solids of each component is not less than one-tenth of the weight of the solids of each combination and the weight of corn sirup solids is not more than one-half of the weight of the solids of such combination.

(6) Honey.

(7) Any combination composed of honey and optional saccharine ingredient (1), (2), or (3), in which the weight of the solids of each component except honey is not less than one-tenth of the weight of the solids of such combination and the weight of honey solids is not less than two-fifths of the weight of the solids of such combination.

(e) For the purposes of this section:

(1) The weight of any optional saccharine ingredient means the weight of the solids of such ingredient.

(2) The term "sugar" means refined sugar (sucrose).

(3) The term "invert sugar sirup" means a sirup made by inverting or partly inverting sugar or partly refined sugar; its ash content is not more than 0.3 percent of its solids content, but if it is made from partly refined sugar, color and flavor other than sweetness are removed.

(4) The term "corn sugar" means refined anhydrous or hydrated dextrose made from cornstarch.

(5) The term "dextrose" means refined anhydrous or hydrated dextrose made from any starch.

(f) The name of each preserve or jam for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is as follows:

(1) If the fruit ingredient is a single fruit, the name is "Preserve" or "Jam," preceded or followed by the name or synonym whereby such fruit is designated in paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) If the fruit ingredient is a combination of two, three, four, or five fruits, the name is "Preserve" or "Jam," preceded or followed by the words "Mixed Fruit" or by the names or synonyms whereby such fruits are designated in paragraph (b) of this section, in the order of predominance, if any, of the weights of such fruits in the combination.

(g) (1) When optional ingredient (a) (1) is used, the label shall bear the word "Spiced" or the statement "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice"; but in lieu of the word "Spice" in such statements the common name of the spice may be used.

(2) When optional ingredient (a) (5) is used, the label shall bear the words "Sodium Benzoate" or "Benzoic Acid," or "Sodium Benzoate and Benzoic Acid," as the case may be, followed by the words "Added as Preservative."

(3) When optional saccharine ingredient (d) (5) or (d) (7) is present, the label shall bear the names of the components of the combination whereby such components are designated in paragraph (d) of this section, in the order of predominance, if any, of the weights of such components in the combination. Such names shall be preceded by the words "Prepared with".

(4) When optional saccharine ingredient (d) (6) is used, the label shall bear the statement "Prepared with Honey".

(5) When the fruit ingredient is a combination of two, three, four, or five fruits and the preserve is designated on its label by the name "Preserve" or "Jam" preceded or followed by the words "Mixed Fruit", the label shall bear the names or synonyms whereby such fruits are designated in paragraph (b) of this section, in the order of predominance, if any, of the weights of such fruits in the combination.

(6) Wherever the name specified in paragraph (f) of this section appears on the label of the preserve so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words and statements herein specified showing the optional ingredients used shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the varietal name of the fruit used in preparing such preserve may so intervene.

§ 29.5 Fruit jelly; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) The jellies for which definitions and standards of identity are prescribed by this section are the jelled foods each of which is made from a mixture composed of not less than 45 parts by weight (as determined by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section) of one or any combination of two, three, four, or five of the fruit juice ingredients specified in paragraph (c) of this section to each 55 parts by weight (see paragraph (e) (1) of this section) of one of the optional saccharine ingredients specified in paragraph (d) of this section. Such mixture may also contain one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(1) Spice.

(2) A vinegar, lemon juice, lime juice, citric acid, lactic acid, malic acid, tartaric acid, or any combination of two or more of these, in a quantity which reasonably compensates for deficiency, if any, of the natural acidity of the fruit juice ingredient.

(3) Pectin, in a quantity which reasonably compensates for deficiency, if any, of the natural pectin content of the fruit juice ingredient.

(4) Sodium citrate, sodium potassium tartrate, or any combination of these, in a quantity the proportion of which is not more than 3 ounces avoirdupois to each 100 pounds of the saccharine ingredient used.

(5) Sodium benzoate or benzoic acid, or any combination of these, in a quantity reasonably necessary as a preservative.

(6) Mint flavoring and harmless artificial green coloring, in case the fruit juice ingredient or combination of fruit juice ingredients is extracted from apple, crabapple, pineapple, or two or all of such fruits.

Such mixture is concentrated by heat to such point that the soluble solids content of the finished jelly is not less than 65 percent, as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, page 464 [Ed. note, 6th edition, p. 558], under "By means of a refractometer—Official".

(b) Any requirement of this section with respect to the weight of any fruit juice ingredient, whether concentrated, unconcentrated, or diluted, means the weight determined by the following method: Determine the percent of soluble solids in such fruit juice ingredient by the method for soluble solids referred to in paragraph (a) of this section; multiply the percent so found by the weight of such fruit juice ingredient; divide the result by 100; subtract from the quotient the weight of any added sugar or other added solids; and multiply the remainder by the factor for such fruit juice ingredient prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section. The result is the weight of the fruit juice ingredient.

(c) Each of the fruit juice ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is the filtered or strained liquid extracted with or without the application of heat and with or without the addition of water, from one of the following mature, properly prepared fruits which are fresh, frozen and/or canned:

Name of fruit:	Factor referred to in par. (b)
Apple	7.5
Apricot	7.0
Blackberry (other than dewberry)	10.0
Black raspberry	9.0
Cherry	7.0
Crabapple	6.5
Cranberry	9.5
Damson, damson plum	7.0
Dewberry (other than boysenberry, loganberry, and youngberry)	10.0
Fig	5.5
Gooseberry	12.0
Grape	7.0
Grapefruit	11.0
Greengage, greengage plum	7.0
Guava	13.0
Loganberry	9.5
Orange	8.0
Peach	8.5
Pineapple	7.0
Plum (other than damson, greengage, and prune)	7.0
Pomegranate	5.5
Quince	7.5
Raspberry, red raspberry	9.5
Red currant, currant (other than black currant)	9.5
Strawberry	12.5
Youngberry	10.0

In any combination of two, three, four, or five of such fruit juice ingredients the weight of each is not less than one-fifth of the weight of the combination. Each such fruit juice ingredient in any such combination is an optional ingredient.

(d) The optional saccharine ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) Sugar.

(2) Invert sugar sirup.

(3) Any combination composed of optional saccharine ingredients (1) and (2).

(4) Any combination composed of corn sugar or dextrose and optional saccharine ingredient (1), (2), or (3).

(5) Any combination composed of corn sirup and optional saccharine ingredient (1), (2), (3), or (4), in which the weight of the solids of each component is not less than one-tenth of the weight of the solids of such combination and the weight of corn sirup solids is not more than one-half of the weight of the solids of such combination.

(6) Honey.

(7) Any combination composed of honey and optional saccharine ingredient (1), (2), or (3), in which the weight of the solids of each component except honey is not less than one-tenth of the weight of the solids of such combination and the weight of honey solids is not less than two-fifths of the weight of the solids of such combination.

(e) for the purposes of this section:

(1) The weight of any optional saccharine ingredient means the weight of the solids of such ingredient.

(2) The term "sugar" means refined sugar (sucrose).

(3) The term "invert sugar sirup" means a sirup made by inverting or partly inverting sugar or partly refined sugar; its ash content is not more than 0.3 percent of its solids content, but if it is made from partly refined sugar, color and flavor other than sweetness are removed.

(4) The term "corn sugar" means refined anhydrous or hydrated dextrose made from corn starch.

(5) The term "dextrose" means refined anhydrous or hydrated dextrose made from any starch.

(f) The name of each jelly for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is as follows:

(1) In case the jelly is made with a single fruit juice ingredient, the name is "Jelly" preceded or followed by the name or synonym whereby the fruit from which such fruit juice ingredient was extracted is designated in paragraph (c) of this section.

(2) In case the jelly is made with a combination of two, three, four, or five fruit juice ingredients, the name is "Jelly" preceded or followed by the words "Mixed Fruit" or by the names or synonyms whereby the fruits from which the fruit juice ingredients were extracted are designated in paragraph (c) of this section, in the order of predominance, if any, of the weights of such fruit juice ingredients in the combination.

(g) (1) When optional ingredient (a) (1) is used, the label shall bear the word "Spiced" or the statement "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice"; but in lieu of the word "Spice" in such statements the common name of the spice may be used.

(2) When optional ingredient (a) (5) is used, the label shall bear the words "Sodium Benzoate" or "Benzoic Acid" or "Sodium Benzoate and Benzoic Acid", as the case may be, followed by the words "Added as Preservative".

(3) When optional ingredient (a) (6) is used, the label shall bear the statement "Flavoring and Artificial Coloring Added" or "With Added Flavoring and Artificial Coloring"; the word "Flavoring" in such statement may be preceded by the word "Mint".

(4) When optional saccharine ingredient (d) (5) or (7) is used, the label shall bear the names of the components of the combination whereby such components are designated in paragraph (d) of this section, in the order of predominance, if any, of the weight of such components in the combination. Such names shall be preceded by the words "Prepared with".

(5) When optional saccharine ingredient (d) (6) is used, the label shall bear the statement "Prepared with Honey".

(6) When a combination of two, three, four, or five fruit juice ingredients is used, and the jelly is designated on its label by the word "Jelly" preceded or followed by the words "Mixed Fruit", the label shall bear the names or synonyms whereby such fruits are designated in paragraph (c) of this section, in the order of the predominance, if any, of the weights of such fruit juice ingredients in the combination.

(7) Wherever the name specified in paragraph (f) of this section appears on the label of the jelly so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words and statements herein specified showing the optional ingredients used shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the varietal name of the fruit used in preparing such jelly may so intervene.

PART 30—FRUIT BUTTERS; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to § 30.0, see 5 F. R. 3561.

§ 30.0 Fruit butter; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) The fruit butters for which definitions and standards of identity are prescribed by this section are the smooth, semi-solid foods each of which is made from a mixture composed of not less than five parts by weight (as determined by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) (1) of this section) of one or any combination of two, three, four, or five of the optional fruit ingredients specified in paragraph (c) of this section to each two parts by weight (see paragraph (e) (1) of this section) of one of the optional saccharine ingredients specified in paragraph (d) of this section, except that the use of such saccharine ingredient is not required when optional ingredient (5) is used. Such mixture may be seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(1) Spice.

(2) Flavoring (other than artificial flavoring).

(3) Salt.

(4) A vinegar, lemon juice, lime juice, citric acid, lactic acid, malic acid, tartaric acid, or any combination of two or more of these.

Such mixture may also contain the optional ingredient:

(5) Fruit juice or diluted fruit juice or concentrated fruit juice in a quantity not less than one-half the weight of the optional fruit ingredient.

Such mixture is concentrated by heat to such point that the soluble solids content of the finished fruit butter is not less than 43 percent as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fourth Edition, page 320 [Ed. note, 6th edition, p. 383], under "Soluble Solids in Fresh and Canned Fruits, Jams, Marmalades, and Preserves—Tentative", except that no correction is made for water-insoluble solids.

(b) (1) Any requirement of this section with respect to the weight of any optional fruit ingredient, whether concentrated, unconcentrated, or diluted, means the weight determined by the following method:

Determine the percent of soluble solids in the optional fruit ingredient by the method prescribed for determining soluble solids in paragraph (a) of this section; multiply the percent so found by the weight of such ingredient; divide the result by 100; subtract from the quotient the weight of any added sugar or any other added solids; and multiply the remainder by the factor for such ingredient prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section. The result is the weight of the optional fruit ingredient.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the weight of fruit juice or diluted fruit juice or concentrated fruit juice (optional ingredient (a) (5)) from a fruit specified in paragraph (c) of this section is the weight of such juice as determined by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) (1) of this section, except that the percent of soluble solids is determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, page 464 [Ed. note, 6th edition, p. 558], under "By means of a refractometer—Official"; the weight of diluted or concentrated juice from any other fruit is the original weight of the juice before it was diluted or concentrated.

(c) Each of the optional fruit ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is prepared by cooking one of the following fresh, frozen, canned, and/or dried (evaporated) mature fruits, with or without added water, and screening out skins, seeds, pits, and cores:

Name of fruit:	Factor referred to in par. (b) (1)
Apple	7.5
Apricot	7.0
Grape	7.0
Peach	8.5
Pear	6.5
Plum (other than prune)	7.0
Prune	7.0
Quince	7.5

In any combination of two, three, four, or five fruit ingredients, the weight of each is not less than one-fifth of the weight of the combination.

(d) The optional saccharine ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) Sugar.

(2) Invert sugar sirup.

(3) Brown sugar.

(4) Invert brown sugar sirup.

(5) Honey.

(6) Corn sirup.

(7) Any combination composed of two or more of optional saccharine ingredients (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), and (6); but if honey is a component the weight of its solids is not less than two-fifths of the weight of the solids of such combination.

(8) Any combination composed of corn sugar or dextrose and optional saccharine ingredient (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), or (7); but if honey is a component the weight of its solids is not less than two-fifths of the weight of the solids of such combination.

If honey or corn sirup is a component of any combination used as optional saccharine ingredient (7) or (8), the weight of the solids of each component (other than honey) is not less than one-tenth of the weight of the solids of such combination.

(e) For the purposes of this section:

(1) The weight of any optional saccharine ingredient means the weight of the solids of such ingredient.

(2) The term "sugar" means refined sugar (sucrose).

(3) The term "invert sugar sirup" means a sirup made by inverting or partly inverting sugar or partly refined sugar; its ash content is not more than 0.3 percent of its solids content, but if it is made from partly refined sugar, color and flavor other than sweetness are removed.

(4) The term "invert brown sugar sirup" means a sirup made by inverting or partly inverting brown sugar.

(5) The term "corn sugar" means refined anhydrous or hydrated dextrose made from cornstarch.

(6) The term "dextrose" means refined anhydrous or hydrated dextrose made from any starch.

(f) The name of each fruit butter for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is as follows:

(1) In case the fruit butter is made from a single fruit ingredient the name is "Butter" preceded by the name whereby such fruit is designated in paragraph (c) of this section.

(2) In case the fruit butter is made from a combination of two, three, four, or five fruit ingredients, the name is "Butter" preceded by the words "Mixed Fruit" or by the names whereby such fruits are designated in paragraph (c) of this section in the order of predominance, if any, of the weight of such fruit ingredients in the combination.

(g) (1) When optional ingredient (a) (1) of this section is used, the label shall bear the word "Spiced" or the statement "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice"; but in lieu of the word "Spice" in such statements the common name of the spice may be used.

(2) When optional ingredient (a) (2) of this section is used, the label shall bear the statement "Flavoring Added" or "With Added Flavoring"; the word "Flavoring" in such statements may be preceded by the common name of the kind of flavoring used.

(3) When optional ingredient (a) (5) of this section is used, the label shall bear the words "Prepared With _____ Juice", the blank to be filled in with the name of the fruit from which the juice is obtained; but if apple juice is used the word "Cider" may be used in lieu of "Apple Juice".

(4) When optional saccharine ingredient (d) (5) or (6) of this section is used, the label shall bear the statement "Prepared With Honey" or "Prepared With Corn Sirup", as the case may be.

(5) When corn sirup or honey or both are components of any combination used as an optional saccharine ingredient, the label shall bear the statement "Prepared With _____", the blank to be filled in with the names whereby the components of such combination are designated in paragraph (d) of this section, in the order of predominance, if any, by weight of such components in the combination.

(6) When the optional fruit ingredient is prepared in whole or in part from dried fruit, the label shall bear the words "Prepared From" or "Prepared in Part From", as the case may be, followed by the word "Evaporated" or "Dried", followed by the name whereby such fruit is designated in paragraph (c) of this section. When two or more such optional fruit ingredients are used, such names, each preceded by the word "Evaporated" or "Dried", shall appear in the order of predominance, if any, of the weight of such ingredients in the combination.

(7) When a combination of two, three, four, or five optional fruit ingredients is used, and the fruit butter is designated on its label by the name "Mixed Fruit Butter", the label shall bear the names whereby the fruits from which such ingredients are prepared are designated in paragraph (c) of this section, in the order of predominance, if any, of the weights of such ingredients in the combination.

(8) The label statements required by subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph may be combined, as for example, "Cinnamon Oil and Cloves Added". The label statements required by two or more of subparagraphs (3), (4), (5), (6), and (7) of this paragraph may be combined, as for example, "Prepared with Cider, Apples, Dried Prunes, and Corn Sirup".

(9) Wherever the name specified in paragraph (f) of this section appears on the label of the fruit butter so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words and statements specified in this section showing the optional ingredients used shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the varietal name of the fruit used in preparing such fruit butter may so intervene. (52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371).

PART 36—SHELLFISH; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY; FILL OF CONTAINER

CANNED SHRIMP

Sec.

36.3 Canned wet pack shrimp and canned dry pack shrimp in nontransparent containers; fill of container; label statement of substandard fill.

CANNED OYSTERS

36.5 Canned oysters; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.

36.6 Canned oysters; fill of container; label statement of substandard fill.

RAW OYSTERS

36.10 Oysters, raw oysters, shucked oysters; identity.

36.11 Extra large oysters, oysters counts (or plants), extra large raw oysters, raw oysters counts (or plants), extra large shucked oysters, shucked oysters counts (or plants); identity.

36.12 Large oysters, oysters extra selects, large raw oysters, raw oysters extra selects, large shucked oysters, shucked oysters extra selects; identity.

36.13 Medium oysters, oysters selects, medium raw oysters, raw oysters selects, medium shucked oysters, shucked oysters selects; identity.

36.14 Small oysters, oysters standards, small raw oysters, raw oysters standards, small shucked oysters, shucked oysters standards; identity.

36.15 Very small oysters, very small raw oysters, very small shucked oysters; identity.

36.16 Olympia oysters, raw Olympia oysters, shucked Olympia oysters; identity.

36.17 Pacific oysters sizes 5 to 8 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 5 to 8 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 5 to 8 per pint; identity.

36.18 Pacific oysters size 8 to 10 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 8 to 10 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 8 to 10 per pint; identity.

36.19 Pacific oysters size 10 to 12 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 10 to 12 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 10 to 12 per pint; identity.

36.20 Pacific oysters size 12 to 15 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 12 to 15 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 12 to 15 per pint; identity.

36.21 Pacific oysters size 15 to 18 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 15 to 18 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 15 to 18 per pint; identity.

36.22 Pacific oysters size over 18 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size over 18 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size over 18 per pint; identity.

AUTHORITY: §§ 36.3 to 36.22 issued under 52 Stat. 1046, 1047, and 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341 and 371, except as noted following provision affected.

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to §§ 36.3 to 36.22 see 7 F. R. 4944; 9 F. R. 14008; 11 F. R. 9333; 13 F. R. 1337, 1338, 1506, 4663.

CANNED SHRIMP

§ 36.3 Canned wet pack shrimp and canned dry pack shrimp in nontransparent containers; fill of containers; label statement of substandard fill. (a) The standard of fill of nontransparent containers for canned wet pack shrimp is a fill such that the cut-out weight of shrimp taken from each can is not less than 64 percent of the water capacity of the container, and, for canned dry pack shrimp (except that packed in the nontransparent cylindrical container which is $2^{11}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and 4 inches in height), is a fill such that the cut-out weight of shrimp taken from each can is not less than 60 percent of the water capacity of the container. The standard of fill for canned dry pack shrimp packed in the nontransparent cylindrical container which is $2^{11}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and 4 inches in height is a cut-out weight of not less than $6\frac{1}{2}$ avoirdupois ounces of shrimp for each container. Water capacity of containers is determined by the general method provided in § 10.1 (a) of this chapter. Cut-out weight is determined by the following method:

Keep the unopened canned shrimp container at a temperature of not less than 68° nor more than 95° Fahrenheit for at least 12 hours immediately preceding the determination. After opening, tilt the container so as to distribute the shrimp evenly over the meshes of a circular sieve which has been previously weighed. The diameter of the sieve is 8 inches if the quantity of the contents of the container is less than 3 pounds, and 12 inches if such quantity is 3 pounds or more. The bottom of the sieve is woven-wire cloth which complies with the specifications for such cloth set forth under "2380 Micron (No. 8)" in Table I of "Standard Specifications for Sieves", published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the U. S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards. Without shifting the material on the sieve, so incline the sieve as to facilitate drainage. Two minutes from the time drainage begins, weigh the sieve and the drained shrimp. The weight so found, less the weight of the sieve, shall be considered to be the cut-out weight of the shrimp.

(b) If canned wet pack shrimp or canned dry pack shrimp, in nontransparent containers, falls below the applicable standard of fill of container prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard fill provided in § 10.2 (b), in the manner and form therein specified. (52 Stat. 1046, 1047, 53 Stat. 561; 21 U. S. C. 341, 345, 5 U. S. C. 133–133r)

CANNED OYSTERS

§ 36.5 Canned oysters; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned oysters is the food prepared from one or any mixture of two or all of the forms of oysters specified in paragraph (b) of this section, and a packing medium of water, or the watery liquid draining from oysters before or during processing, or a mixture of such liquid and water. The food may be seasoned with salt. It is sealed in containers and so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) The forms of oysters referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are prepared from oysters which have been removed from their shells and washed and which may be steamed while in the shell or steamed or blanched or both after removal therefrom, and are as follows:

(1) Whole oysters with such broken pieces of oysters as normally occur in removing oysters from their shells, washing, and packing.

(2) Pieces of oysters obtained by segregating pieces of oysters broken in shucking, washing, or packing whole oysters.

(3) Cut oysters obtained by cutting whole oysters.

(c) (1) When the form of oysters specified in paragraph (b) (1) is used, the name of the food is "Oysters" or "Cove Oysters," if of the species Ostrea virginica; "Pacific Oysters," if of the species Ostrea gigas; "Olympia Oysters," if of the species Ostrea lurida.

(2) When the form of oysters specified in paragraph (b) (2) is used, the name of the food is "Pieces of ------," the blank being filled in with the name "Oysters" or "Cove Oysters," if of the species Ostrea virginica; "Pacific Oysters," if of the species Ostrea gigas; "Olympia Oysters," if of the species Ostrea lurida.

(3) When the form of oysters specified in paragraph (b) (3) is used, the name of the food is "Cut ------," the blank being filled in with the name "Oysters" or "Cove Oysters," if of the species Ostrea virginica; "Pacific Oysters," if of the species Ostrea gigas; "Olympia Oysters," if of the species Ostrea lurida.

(4) In case a mixture of two or all such forms of oysters is used, the name is a combination of the names specified in this paragraph of the forms of oysters used, arranged in order of their predominance by weight.

§ 36.6 Canned oysters; fill of container; label statement of substandard fill. (a) The standard of fill of container for canned oysters is a fill such that the drained weight of oysters taken from each container is not less than 59 percent of the water capacity of the container.

(b) Water capacity of containers is determined by the general method provided in § 10.1 (a) of this chapter.

(c) Drained weight is determined by the following method:

Keep the unopened canned oyster container at a temperature of not less than 68° or more than 95° Fahrenheit for at least 12 hours immediately preceding the determination. After opening, tilt the container so as to distribute its contents evenly over the meshes of a circular sieve which has been previously weighed. The diameter of the sieve is 8 inches if the quantity of the contents of the container is less than 3 pounds, and 12 inches if such quantity is 3 pounds or more. The bottom of the sieve is woven-wire cloth which complies with the specifications for such cloth set forth under "2380 Micron (No. 8)," in Table I of "Standard Specifications for Sieves," published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the U. S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards. Without shifting the material on the sieve, so incline the sieve as to facilitate drainage. Two minutes from the time drainage begins, weigh the sieve and the drained oysters. The weight so found, less the weight of the sieve, shall be considered to be the drained weight of the oysters.

(d) If canned oysters fall below the standard of fill of container prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard fill specified in § 10.2 (b) of this chapter in the manner and form therein specified, followed by the statement, "A can of this size should contain ------ oz. of oysters. This can contains only ------ oz.," the blanks being filled in with the applicable figures.

RAW OYSTERS

§ 36.10 Oysters, raw oysters, shucked oysters; identity. (a) Oysters, raw oysters, shucked oysters, are the class of foods each of which is obtained by shucking shell oysters and preparing them in accordance with the procedure prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section. The name of each such food is the name specified in the applicable definition and standard of identity prescribed in §§ 36.11 to 36.22, inclusive.

(b) If water, or salt water containing less than 0.75 percent salt, is used in any vessel into which the oysters are shucked, the combined volume of oysters and liquid when such oysters are emptied from such vessel is not less than four times the volume of such water or salt water. Any liquid accumulated with the oysters is removed. The oysters are washed, by blowing or otherwise, in water or salt water, or both. The total time that the oysters are in contact with water or salt water after leaving the shucker, including the time of washing, rinsing, and any other contact with water or salt water is not more than thirty minutes. In computing the time of contact with water or salt water, the length of time that oysters are in contact with water or salt water that is agitated by blowing or otherwise, shall be calculated at twice its actual length. Any period of time that oysters are in contact with salt water containing not less than 0.75 percent salt before contact with oysters, shall not be included in computing the time that the oysters are in contact with water or salt water. Before packing into the containers for shipment or other delivery for consumption the oysters are thoroughly drained and are packed without any added substance.

(c) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Shell oysters" means live oysters of any of the species, Ostrea virginica, Ostrea gigas, Ostrea lurida, in the shell, which after removal from their beds, have not been floated or otherwise held under conditions which result in the addition of water.

(2) "Thoroughly drained" means one of the following:

(i) The oysters are drained on a strainer or skimmer which has an area of not less than 300 square inches per gallon of oysters, drained, and has perforations of at least ¼ of an inch in diameter and not more than 1¼ inches apart, or perforations of equivalent areas and distribution. The oysters are distributed evenly over the draining surface of the skimmer and drained for not less than five minutes; or

(ii) The oysters are drained by any method other than that prescribed by subdivision (i) of this subparagraph whereby liquid from the oysters is removed so that when the oysters are tested within 15 minutes after packing by draining a representative gallon of oysters on a skimmer of the dimensions and in the manner described in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph for two minutes, not more than 5 percent of liquid by weight is removed by such draining.

§ 36.11 Extra large oysters, oysters counts (or plants), extra large raw oysters, raw oysters count (or plants), extra large shucked oysters, shucked oysters counts (or plants); identity. Extra large oysters, oysters counts (or plants), extra large raw oysters, raw oysters counts (or plants), extra large shucked oysters, shucked oysters counts (or plants), are of the species Ostrea virginica and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that one gallon contains not more than 160 oysters and a quart of the smallest oysters selected therefrom contains not more than 44 oysters.

§ 36.12 Large oysters, oysters extra selects, large raw oysters, raw oysters extra selects, large shucked oysters, shucked oysters extra selects; identity. Large oysters, oysters extra selects, large raw oysters, raw oysters extra selects, large shucked oysters, shucked oysters extra selects, are of the species Ostrea virginica and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that one gallon contains more than 160 oysters but not more than 210 oysters; a quart of the smallest oysters selected therefrom contains not more than 58 oysters, and a quart of the largest oysters selected therefrom contains more than 36 oysters.

§ 36.13 Medium oysters, oysters selects, medium raw oysters, raw oysters selects, medium shucked oysters, shucked oysters selects; identity. Medium oysters, oysters selects, medium raw oysters, raw oysters selects, medium shucked oysters, shucked oysters selects, are of the species Ostrea virginica and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that one gallon contains more than 210 oysters, but not more than 300 oysters; a quart of the smallest oysters selected therefrom contains not more than 83 oysters, and a quart of the largest oysters selected therefrom contains more than 46 oysters.

§ 36.14 Small oysters, oysters standards, small raw oysters, raw oysters standards, small shucked oysters, shucked oysters standards; identity. Small oysters, oysters standards, small raw oysters, raw oysters standards, small shucked oysters, shucked oysters standards, are of the species Ostrea virginica and conform to the definition and standards of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that one gallon contains more than 300 oysters but not more than 500 oysters; a quart of the smallest oysters selected therefrom contains not more than 138 oysters and a quart of the largest oysters selected therefrom contains more than 68 oysters.

§ 36.15 Very small oysters, very small raw oysters, very small shucked oysters; identity. Very small oysters, very small raw oysters, very small shucked oysters, are of the species Ostrea virginica and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that one gallon contains more than 500 oysters, and a quart of the largest oysters selected therefrom contains more than 112 oysters.

§ 36.16 Olympia oysters, raw Olympia oysters, shucked Olympia oysters; identity. Olympia oysters, raw Olympia oysters, shucked Olympia oysters, are of the species Ostrea lurida and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters in § 36.10.

§ 36.17 Pacific oysters size 5 to 8 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 5 to 8 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 5 to 8 per pint; identity. Pacific oysters size 5 to 8 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 5 to 8 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 5 to 8 per pint, are of the species Ostrea gigas and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed by oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that one gallon contains less than 65 oysters and the largest oyster in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest oyster therein.

§ 36.18 Pacific oysters size 8 to 10 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 8 to 10 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 8 to 10 per pint; identity. Pacific oysters size 8 to 10 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 8 to 10 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 8 to 10 per pint, are of the species Ostrea gigas and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that one gallon contains more than 64 and not more than 80 oysters, and the largest oyster in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest oyster therein.

§ 36.19 Pacific oysters size 10 to 12 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 10 to 12 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 10 to 12 per pint; identity. Pacific oysters size 10 to 12 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 10 to 12 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 10 to 12 per pint, are of the species Ostrea gigas and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that one gallon contains more tl.an 80 and not more than 96 oysters, and the largest oyster in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest oyster therein.

§ 36.20 Pacific oysters size 12 to 15 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 12 to 15 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 12 to 15 per pint; identity. Pacific oysters size 12 to 15 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 12 to 15 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 12 to 15 per pint, are of the species Ostrea gigas and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that one gallon contains more than 96 and not more than 120 oysters, and the largest oyster in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest oyster therein.

§ 36.21 Pacific oysters size 15 to 18 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 15 to 18 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 15 to 18 per pint; identity. Pacific oysters size 15 to 18 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size 15 to 18 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size 15 to 18 per pint, are of the species Ostrea gigas and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that one gallon contains more than 120 and not more than 144 oysters, and the largest oyster in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest oyster therein.

§ 36.22 Pacific oysters size over 18 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size over 18 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size over 18 per pint; identity. Pacific oysters size over 18 per pint, raw Pacific oysters size over 18 per pint, shucked Pacific oysters size over 18 per pint, are of the species Ostrea gigas and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that one gallon contains more than 144 oysters and the largest oyster in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest oyster therein.

AUTHORITY: §§ 42.0 to 42.60 issued under 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371.

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to Part 42, see 4 F. R. 3375–3378.

§ 42.0 Eggs. No regulation shall be promulgated, fixing and establishing a reasonable definition and standard of identity for the food commonly known as eggs.

§ 42.10 Liquid eggs, mixed eggs, liquid whole eggs, mixed whole eggs; identity. Liquid eggs, mixed eggs, liquid whole eggs, mixed whole eggs, are eggs of the domestic hen, broken from the shells, and with yolks and whites in their natural proportions as so broken. They may be mixed, or mixed and strained.

§ 42.20 Frozen eggs, frozen whole eggs, frozen mixed eggs; identity. Frozen eggs, frozen whole eggs, frozen mixed eggs, are the food prepared by freezing liquid eggs.

§ 42.30 Dried eggs, dried whole eggs; identity. Dried eggs, dried whole eggs, are the food prepared by drying liquid eggs. They may be powdered. They contain not less than 92 percent total egg solids, as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fourth Edition, 1935, pages 297 and 298 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 345], under "Total Solids."

§ 42.40 Egg yolks, liquid egg yolks, yolks, liquid yolks; identity. Egg yolks, liquid egg yolks, yolks, liquid yolks, are yolks of eggs of the domestic hen so separated from the whites thereof as to contain not less than 43 percent total egg solids, as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fourth Edition, 1935, pages 297 and 298 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 345–346], under "Total Solids." They may be mixed, or mixed and strained.

§ 42.50 Frozen yolks, frozen egg yolks; identity. Frozen yolks, frozen egg yolks, are the food prepared by freezing egg yolks.

§ 42.60 Dried egg yolks, dried yolks; identity. Dried egg yolks, dried yolks, are the food prepared by drying egg yolks. They contain not less than 95 percent total egg solids, as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fourth Edition, 1935, pages 297 and 298 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 345–346], under "Total Solids."

PART 45—OLEOMARGARINE; DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to § 45.0, see 6 F. R. 2762.

§ 45.0 Oleomargarine; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Oleomargarine is the plastic food prepared with one or more of the optional fat ingredients named under one of the following subparagraphs (1), (2), (3), or (4) of this paragraph:

(1) The rendered fat, or oil, or stearin derived therefrom (any or all of which may be hydrogenated), of cattle, sheep, swine, or goats, or any combination of two or more of such articles.

(2) Any vegetable food fat or oil, or oil or stearin derived therefrom (any or all of which may be hydrogenated), or any combination of two or more of such articles.

(3) Any combination of ingredients named under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph in such proportion that the weight of the ingredients named under subparagraph (1) either equals the weight of the ingredients named under subparagraph (2), or exceeds such weight by a ratio not greater than 9 to 1.

(4) Any combination of ingredients named under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph in such proportion that the weight of the ingredients named under subparagraph (2) exceeds the weight of the ingredients named under subparagraph (1) by a ratio not greater than 9 to 1.

One of the five following articles is intimately mixed with the fat ingredient or ingredients, after such article has been pasteurized and subjected to the action of harmless bacterial starters: (i) cream, (ii) milk, (iii) skim milk, (iv) any combination of dried skim milk and water in which the weight of the dried skim milk is not less than 10 percent of the weight of the water, or (v) any mixture of two or more of these. (The term "milk" as used in this subparagraph means cow's milk.) Congealing is effected, either with or without contact with water, and the congealed mixture may be worked. In the preparation of oleomargarine one or more of the following optional ingredients may also be used:

(5) Artificial coloring.

(6) Sodium benzoate, or benzoic acid, or a combination of these, in a quantity not to exceed 0.1 percent of the weight of the finished product.

(7) Vitamin A, added as fish liver oil or as a concentrate of Vitamin A from fish liver oil (with any accompanying Vitamin D and with or without added Vitamin D concentrate), in such quantity that the finished oleomargarine contains not less than 9,000 United States Pharmacopoeia Units of Vitamin A per pound.

(8) The artificial flavoring diacetyl added as such, or as starter distillate, or produced during the preparation of the product as a result of the addition of citric acid or harmless citrates.

(9) (i) Lecithin, in an amount not exceeding 0.5 percent of the weight of the finished oleomargarine, or (ii) monoglycerides or diglycerides of fat-forming fatty acids, or a combination of these, in an amount not exceeding 0.5 percent of the weight of the finished oleomargarine, or (iii) such monoglycerides and diglycerides in combination with the sodium sulfo-acetate derivatives thereof in a total amount not exceeding 0.5 percent of the weight of the finished oleomargarine, or (iv) a combination of subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph in which the amount of neither exceeds that above stated, or (v) a combination of subdivisions (i) and (iii) in a total amount not exceeding 0.5 percent of the weight of the finished oleomargarine. (The weight of diglycerides in each of ingredients (ii), (iii), (iv), and (v) is calculated at one-half actual weight.)

(10) Butter.

(11) Salt.

The finished oleomargarine contains not less than 80 percent fat, as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", 4th Edition, 1935, page 289, or 5th Edition, 1940, page 298 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 334], under "Indirect Method—Official".

(b) When any ingredient named under one of the following specified subparagraphs of paragraph (a) of this section is used, the label shall, except as provided in this paragraph, bear the statement set forth below after the number of such subparagraph:

Subparagraph (1): "Prepared from Animal Fat", or "Made from Animal Fat".

Subparagraph (2): "Vegetable", or "Prepared from Vegetable Fat", or "Made from Vegetable Fat".

Subparagraph (3) "Prepared from Animal and Vegetable Fats", or "Made from Animal and Vegetable Fats".

Subparagraph (4): "Prepared from Vegetable and Animal Fats", or "Made from Vegetable and Animal Fats".

Subparagraph (5): "Artificially Colored", or "Artificial Coloring Added", or "With Added Artificial Coloring".

Subparagraph (6): "Sodium Benzoate (or, as the case may be, 'Benzoic Acid' or 'Sodium Benzoate and Benzoic Acid') Added as a Preservative", or "With Added Sodium Benzoate (or, as the case may be, 'Benzoic Acid' or 'Sodium Benzoate and Benzoic Acid') as a Preservative".

Subparagraph (7): "Vitamin A Added", or "With Added Vitamin A".

Subparagraph (8): "Artificially Flavored", or "Artificial Flavoring Added", or "With Added Artificial Flavoring".

Where oil is used, the word "oil" may be substituted for "fat" in the label statement. In lieu of the word "animal" or "vegetable" in any such statement, the common or usual name of the fat ingredient may be used. If two or more of the optional ingredients named in paragraph (a) (5), (6), (7), and (8) of this section are used, the words "added" or "with added" need appear only once, either at the beginning or end of the list of such ingredients declared. The declaration of vitamin A may include the number of United States Pharmacopoeia units which have been added.

Whenever the name "oleomargarine" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words and statements prescribed in this section showing ingredients used shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow, or in part precede and in part follow, such name, without intervening written, printed, or other graphic matter. AUTHORITY: §§ 51.0 to 51.16 issued under 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371.

CANNED PEAS

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to §§ 51.0 to 51.2, see 5 F. R. 739, 741 7 F. R. 9918; 12 F. R. 950.

§ 51.0 Identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned peas is the food prepared from one of the following optional pea ingredients:

(1) Shelled, succulent peas (Pisum sativum) of Alaska or other smooth skin varieties.

(2) Shelled, succulent peas (Pisum sativum) of sweet, wrinkled varieties.

(3) Shelled, dried peas (Pisum sativum) of Alaska or other smooth skin varieties.

(4) Shelled, dried peas (Pisum sativum) of sweet, wrinkled varities.

(b) To one such optional pea ingredient water is added.

(c) The following optional ingredients may be used:

(1) Salt.
(2) Sugar.
(3) Dextrose.
(4) Spice.
(5) Flavoring.
(6) Artificial coloring.

and in case optional pea ingredient (1) or (2) is used,

(7) Sodium carbonate, sodium bicarbonate, sodium hydroxide, calcium hydroxide, magnesium hydroxide, magnesium oxide, or magnesium carbonate or any mixture or combination of them in such quantity that the pH of the finished canned peas is not more than 8, as determined by the glass electrode method for the hydrogen ion concentration.

(d) The food may be seasoned with one or more of the following optional seasonings:

(1) Green peppers.
(2) Mint leaves.
(3) Onions.
(4) Garlic.
(5) Horseradish.

(e) The food is sealed in a container and so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(f) (1) The label shall name the optional pea ingredient present by the use of the word or words "Early" or "June" or "Early June", "Sweet" or "Sweet Wrinkled" or "Sugar", "Dried Early" or "Dried June" or "Dried Early June", "Dried Sweet" or "Dried Sweet Wrinkled" or "Dried Sugar".

(2) If spice is present, the label shall bear the word or words "Spiced" or "With Added Spice" or "Spice Added".

(3) If flavoring is present, the label shall bear the words "With Added Flavoring" or "Flavoring Added".

(4) If artificial coloring is present, the label shall state that fact in such manner and form as is provided in the regulation promulgating a standard of quality for canned peas.

(5) If an optional seasoning ingredient is used, the label shall bear the words "Seasoned with Green Peppers", "Seasoned with Mint Leaves", "Seasoned with Onions", "Seasoned with Garlic", or "Seasoned with Horseradish", as the case may be.

(6) If one or more of the optional ingredients named in paragraph (c) (7) of this section is used the label shall bear the statement "Traces of ------ Added", the blank to be filled in with the names of the ingredients used; but in lieu of such statement the label may bear the statement "Traces of Alkalis Added".

(7) Wherever the name "Peas" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words and statements herein specified, showing the optional ingredients present, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the specific varietal name of the peas may so intervene.

§ 51.1 Quality; label statement of substandard quality. (a) The standard of quality for canned peas is as follows:

(1) Not more than 4 percent by count of the peas in the container are spotted or otherwise discolored;

(2) Standard canned peas are normally colored, not artificially colored;

(3) The combined weight of pea pods and other harmless extraneous vegetable material is not more than one-half of 1 percent of the drained weight of peas in the container;

(4) The weight of pieces of peas is not more than 10 percent of the drained weight of peas in the container;

(5) The skins of not more than 25 percent by count of the peas in the container are ruptured to a width of 1/16 inch or more;

(6) Not less than 90 percent by count of the peas in the container are crushed by a weight of not more than 907.2 grams (2 pounds); and

(7) The alcohol-insoluble solids of Alaska or other smooth skin varieties of peas in the container, is not more than 23.5 percent, and of sweet, wrinkled varieties, not more than 21 percent.

(b) Canned peas shall be tested by the following methods to determine whether or not they meet the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section:

(1) After determining the fill of the container as prescribed in § 51.2 (a), distribute the contents of the container over the meshes of a circular sieve made with No. 8 woven-wire cloth which complies with the specifications for such cloth set forth on page 3 of "Standard Specifications for Sieves", published October 25, 1938, by U. S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards. The diameter of the sieve used is 8 inches if the quantity of the contents of the container is less than 3 pounds, or 12 inches if such quantity is 3 pounds or more. Without shifting the peas, so incline the sieve as to facilitate drainage. Two minutes from the time drainage begins, remove the peas from the sieve and weigh them. Such weight shall be considered to be the drained weight of the peas.

(2) From the drained peas obtained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, promptly segregate and weigh the pea pods and other harmless extraneous vegetable material, and the pieces of peas.

(3) From the drained peas obtained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, take at random a subdivision of 100 to 150 peas, and count them. Immediately cover these peas with a portion of the liquid obtained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, and add the remaining liquid to the drained peas from which the subdivision was taken. Count those peas in the subdivision which are spotted or otherwise discolored, and also those peas the skins of which are ruptured to a width of 1/16 inch or more.

(4) Immediately after each pea is examined by the method prescribed in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, test it by removing its skin, placing one of its cotyledons, with flat surface down, on the approximate center of the level, smooth surface of a rigid plate, lowering a horizontal disc to the highest point of the cotyledon, and measuring the height of the cotyledon. The disc is of rigid material and is affixed to a rod held vertically by a support through which the rod can freely move upward or downward. The lower face of the disc is a smooth, plane surface horizontal to the vertical axis of the rod. A device to which weight may be added is affixed to the upper end of the rod. Before lowering the disc to the cotyledon, adjust the combined weight of disc, rod, and device to 100 grams. After measuring the height of the cotyledon, and shifting the plate, if necessary, so that the cotyledon is under the approximate center of the disc, add weight to the device at a uniform, continuous rate of 12 grams per second until the cotyledon is pressed to one-fourth its previously measured height, or until the combined weight of disc, rod, and device is 907.2 grams (2 pounds). A pea so tested shall be considered to be crushed when its cotyledon is pressed to one-fourth its original height.

(5) Drain the liquid from the peas which remained after taking the subdivision as prescribed in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph. Transfer the peas to a pan, and rinse them with a volume of water equal to twice the capacity of the container from which such peas were drained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Immediately drain the peas again by the method prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. After the 2 minutes' draining, wipe the moisture from the bottom of the sieve. Comminute the peas thus drained, stir them to a uniform mixture, and weigh 20 grams of such mixture into a 600 cc. beaker. Add 300 cc. of 80 percent alcohol (by volume), stir, cover beaker, and bring to a boil. Simmer slowly for 30 minutes. Fit a Buchner funnel with a previously prepared filter paper of such size that its edges extend 1/2 inch or more up the vertical sides of the funnel. The previous preparation of the filter paper consists of drying it in a flat-bottomed dish for 2 hours at 100° Centigrade, covering the dish with a tight-fitting cover, cooling it in a desiccator, and promptly weighing. After the filter paper is fitted to the funnel, apply suction and transfer the contents of the beaker to the funnel. Do not allow any of the material to run over the edge of the paper. Wash the material on the filter with 80 percent alcohol (by volume) until the washings are clear and colorless. Transfer the filter paper with the material retained thereon to the dish used in preparing the filter paper. Dry the material in a ventilated oven, without covering the dish, for 2 hours at 100° Centigrade. Place the cover on the dish, cool it in a desiccator, and promptly weigh. From this weight, subtract the weight of the dish, cover, and paper, as previously found. The weight in grams thus obtained, multiplied by 5, shall be considered to be the percent of alcohol-insoluble solids.

(c) If the quality of canned peas falls below the standard prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard quality specified in § 10.2 (a) of this chapter, in the manner and form therein specified; but in lieu of such general statement of substandard quality when the quality of canned peas falls below the standard in only one respect, the label may bear the alternative statement "Below Standard in Quality ------ ------," the blank to be filled in with the words specified after the corresponding subparagraph number of paragraph (a) of this section which such canned peas fail to meet, as follows: (1) "Excessive Discolored Peas;" (2) "Artificially Colored;" (3) "Excessive Foreign Material;" (4) "Excessive Broken Peas;" (5) "Excessive Cracked Peas;" (6) "Not Tender;" (7) "Excessively Mealy." Such alternative statement shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, the name "Peas" and any words and statements required or authorized to appear with such name by § 51.0 (b).

§ 51.2 Fill of container; label statement of substandard fill. (a) The standard of fill of container for canned peas is a fill such that, when the peas and liquid are removed from the container and returned thereto, the leveled peas (irrespective of the quantity of the liquid), 15 seconds after they are so returned completely fill the container. A container with lid attached by double seam shall be considered to be completely filled when it is filled to the level 3/16 inch vertical distance below the top of the double seam; and a glass container shall be considered to be completely filled when it is filled to the level ½ inch vertical distance below the top of the container.

(b) If canned peas fall below the standard of fill of container prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard fill specified in § 10.2 (b) of this chapter, in the manner and form therein specified.

CANNED BEANS

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to §§ 51.10 to 51.16, see 13 F. R. 3724, 3725.

§ 51.10 Canned green beans; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned green beans is the food prepared from stemmed, succulent pods of the green-bean plant, and water. It may be seasoned with salt, sugar, or dextrose, or any two or all of these. The pods are prepared in one or more of the following forms:

(1) Whole pods, including pods which after removal of either or both ends are less than 2¾ inches in length, or transversely cut pods not less than 2¾ inches in length. There may be present such broken pieces of pods as normally occur in the commercial packing of such product.

(2) Pods sliced lengthwise.

(3) Pods cut transversely into pieces less than 2¾ inches in length but not less than ¾ inch in length, with or without shorter end pieces resulting therefrom.

(4) Pieces of pods of which not less than 75 percent by count are less than ¾ inch in length and not more than 1 percent by count are more than 1¼ inches in length.

Any such form is an optional ingredient. Mixtures of two or more optional ingredients may be used. The food is sealed in a container and so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) (1) When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (1) of this section is used the label shall bear the word "Whole." If the pods are packed parallel to the sides of the container the word "Whole" shall be preceded or followed by the words "Vertical Pack," except that when the pods are cut at both ends and are of substantially equal lengths, the words "Asparagus Style" may be used in lieu of the words "Vertical Pack."

(2) When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (2) of this section is used the label shall bear the words "Sliced Lengthwise" or "French Style."

(3) When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (3) of this section is used the label shall bear the word "Cut" or "Cuts."

(4) When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (4) of this section is used the label shall bear the words "Short Cut" or "Short Cuts" or "------ Inch Cut" or "------ Inch Cuts," the blank to be filled in with the fraction of an inch which denotes the approximate length of the pieces.

(5) When a mixture of two or more of the optional ingredients specified in paragraphs (a) (1) to (a) (4), inclusive, of this section, is used the label shall bear the statement "Mixture of ------," the blank to be filled in with the combination of the names "Whole," "Sliced Lengthwise," "Cut," or "Cuts," and "Short Cut" or "Short Cuts," designating the optional ingredients present, and arranged in the order of predominance, if any, by weight of such ingredients.

(c) Wherever the name "Green Beans" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under the customary conditions of purchase, the words and statements prescribed by paragraph (b) of this section shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that there may intervene (1) the designation of the length of cut, (2) the varietal name, which may include the word "Stringless," where the beans are in fact stringless, and (3) the description of the green beans as "Stringless," which may also be used between the words "Green" and "Beans," where the beans are in fact stringless.

§ 51.11 Canned green beans; quality; label statement of substandard quality. (a) The standard of quality of canned green beans is as follows:

When tested by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section:

(1) In the case of cut beans (§ 51.10 (a) (3)) and mixtures of two or more of the optional ingredients specified in § 51.10 (a) (1) to (a) (4), inclusive, not more than 60 units per 12 ounces drained weight are less than ½ inch long; Provided, That where the number of units per 12 ounces drained weight exceed 240, not more than 25 percent by count of the total units are less than ½ inch long.

(2) The trimmed pods contain not more than 25 percent by weight of seed and pieces of seed.

(3) In case there are present pods or pieces of pods $\frac{27}{64}$ inch or more in diameter, there are not more than 12 strings per 12 ounces of drained weight which will support ½ pound for 5 seconds or longer.

(4) The deseeded pods contain not more than 0.15 percent by weight of fibrous material.

(5) There are not more than 8 percent by count of blemished units. A unit is considered blemished when the aggregate blemished area exceeds the area of a circle ⅛ inch in diameter.

(6) There are not more than 6 unstemmed units per 12 ounces of drained weight.

(7) The combined weight of loose seed and pieces of seed is not more than 5 percent of the drained weight. This provision does not apply in case the green-bean ingredient is pods sliced lengthwise (§ 51.10 (a) (2)).

(8) The combined weight of leaves, detached stems, and other extraneous vegetable matter is not more than 0.6 ounce per 60 ounces drained weight.

(b) Canned green beans shall be tested by the following method to determine whether they meet the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section.

(1) Distribute the contents of the container over the meshes of a circular sieve which has been previously weighed. The diameter of the sieve is 8 inches if the quantity of the contents of the container is less than 3 pounds, and 12 inches if such quantity is 3 pounds or more. The bottom of the sieve is woven-wire cloth which complies with the specifications for such cloth set forth under "2380 Micron (No. 8)" in Table I of "Standard Specifications for Sieves," published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the U. S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards. Without shifting the material on the sieve, so incline the sieve as to facilitate drainage. Two minutes from the time drainage begins, weigh the sieve and the drained material. Record, in ounces, the weight so found, less the weight of the sieve, as the drained weight.

(2) Pour the drained material from the sieve into a flat tray and spread it in a layer of fairly uniform thickness. Count the total number of units. For the purpose of this count, loose seed, pieces of seed, loose stems, and extraneous material are not to be included. Divide the number of units by the drained weight recorded in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and multiply by 12 to obtain the number of units per 12 ounces drained weight.

(3) Examine the drained material in the tray, counting and recording the number of blemished units, number of unstemmed units, and, in case the material consists of the optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (3) of this section or a mixture of two or more of the optional ingredients specified in § 51.10 (a) (1) to (a) (4), inclusive, count and record the number of units which are less than ½ inch long. If the number of units per 12 ounces is 240 or less, divide the number of units which are less than ½ inch long by the drained weight recorded in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and multiply by 12 to obtain the number of such units per 12 ounces drained weight. If the number of units per 12 ounces exceeds 240, divide the number of units less than ½ inch long by the total number of units and multiply by 100 to determine the percentage by count of the total units which are less than ½ inch long.

Divide the number of blemished units by the total number of units in the container and multiply by 100 to obtain the percentage by count of blemished units in the container.

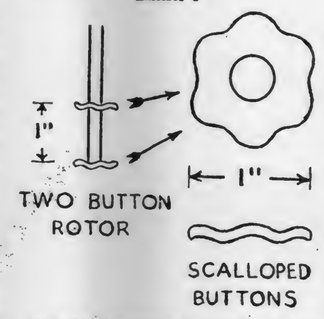
Divide the number of unstemmed units by the drained weight recorded in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and multiply by 12 to obtain the number of unstemmed units per 12 ounces of drained weight.

(4) Except in the case of pods sliced lengthwise, remove the loose seed and pieces of seed, weigh and record weight and return to tray. Divide the weight of loose seed and pieces of seed by the drained weight recorded in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and multiply by 100 to obtain the percentage by weight of loose seed and pieces of seed in the drained material.

(5) Remove from the tray the extraneous vegetable material, weigh, record weight, and return to tray.

(6) Remove from the tray one or more representative samples of 3½ to 4 ounces, covering each sample as taken to prevent evaporation. If the tray includes pods or pieces of pods $\frac{27}{64}$ inch or more in diameter, weigh and record weight in ounces of each representative sample.

(7) From each representative sample selected in subparagraph (6) of this paragraph discard any loose seed and extraneous vegetable material and detach and discard any attached stems. Except with optional ingredient specified in § 51.10 (a) (2), (pods sliced lengthwise), trim off, as far as the end of the space formerly occupied by the seed, any portion of pods from which seed have become separated. Remove and discard any portions of seed from the trimmings and reserve the trimmings for subparagraph (9) of this paragraph. Weigh and record the weight of the trimmed pods. Deseed the trimmed pods and reserve the deseeded pods for subparagraph (9) of this paragraph. If the original container contained pods $\frac{27}{64}$ inch or more in diameter, remove strings from the pods during the deseeding operation. Reserve these strings for testing as prescribed in subparagraph (8) of this paragraph. Collect the seed on a sieve of mesh fine enough to retain them, and so distribute them that any liquid drains away. Weigh the seed, divide by the weight of the trimmed pods, and multiply by 100 to obtain the percentage by weight of seed in the trimmed pods.



In the case of pods sliced lengthwise remove seed and pieces of seed and reserve the deseeded pods for use as prescribed in subparagraph (9) of this paragraph.

(8) If strings have been removed for testing, as prescribed in subparagraph (7) of this paragraph, test them as follows:

Fasten clamp, weighted to ½ pound, to one end of the string, grasp the other end with the fingers (a cloth may be used to aid in holding the string), and lift gently. Count the string as tough if it supports the ½-pound weight for at least 5 seconds. If the string breaks before 5 seconds, test such parts into which it breaks as are ½ inch or more in length and if any such part of the string supports the ½-pound weight for at least 5 seconds count the string as tough. Divide the number of tough strings by the weight of the sample recorded in subparagraph (6) of this paragraph and multiply by 12 to obtain the number of tough strings per 12 ounces drained weight.

(9) Combine the deseeded pods with the trimmings reserved in subparagraph (7) of this paragraph, and, if strings were tested as prescribed in subparagraph (8) of this paragraph, add such strings, broken or unbroken. Weigh and record weight of combined material. Transfer to the metal cup of a malted-milk stirrer and mash with a pestle. Wash material adhering to the pestle back into cup with 200 cc. of boiling water. Bring mixture nearly to a boil, add 25 cc. of 50 percent (by weight) sodium hydroxide solution and bring to a boil. (If foaming is excessive, 1 cc. of capryl alcohol may be added.) Boil for 5 minutes, then stir for 5 minutes with a malted-milk stirrer capable of a no-load speed of at least 7200 r. p. m. Use a rotor with two scalloped buttons shaped as shown in the diagram in Exhibit 1.

Transfer the material from the cup to a previously weighed 30-mesh monel metal screen having a diameter of about 3½ to 4 inches and side walls about 1 inch high, and wash fiber on the screen with a stream of water using a pressure not exceeding a head (vertical distance between upper level of water and outlet of glass tube) of 60 inches, delivered through a glass tube 3 inches long and ⅛ inch inside diameter inserted into a rubber tube of ¼ inch inside diameter. Wash the pulpy portion of the material through the screen and continue washing until the remaining fibrous material, moistened with phenolphthalein solution, does not show any red color after standing 5 minutes. Again wash to remove phenolphthalein. Dry the screen containing the fibrous material for 2 hours at 100° C., cool, weigh, and deduct weight of screen. Divide the weight of fibrous material by the weight of combined deseeded pods, trimmings, and strings and multiply by 100 to obtain the percentage of fibrous material.

(10) If the drained weight recorded in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph was less than 60 ounces, open and examine separately for extraneous material, as directed in subparagraph (5) of this paragraph, additional containers until a total of not less than 60 ounces of drained material is obtained. To determine the combined weight of extraneous vegetable material per 60 ounces of drained weight, total the weights of extraneous vegetable material found in all containers opened, divide this sum by the sum of the drained weights in these containers and multiply by 60.

(c) If the quality of the canned green beans falls below the standard of quality prescribed by paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard quality specified in § 10.2 (a) of this chapter, in the manner and form therein specified, but in lieu of the words prescribed for the second line inside the rectangle the following words may be used, when the quality of canned green beans falls below the standard in one only of the following respects:

(1) "Excessive Number Very Short Pieces," if the canned green beans fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (a) (1) of this section.

(2) "Excessive Number Blemished Units," if they fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (a) (5) of this section.

(3) "Excessive Number Unstemmed Units," if they fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (a) (6) of this section.

(4) "Excessive Foreign Material," if they fail to meet the requirement of paragraph (a) (8) of this section.

§ 51.15 Canned wax beans; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned wax beans conforms to the definition and standard of identity, and is subject to the requirements for label statement of optional ingredients prescribed for canned green beans by § 51.10 (a) and (b), except that it is prepared from stemmed, succulent pods of the wax-bean plant.

(b) Wherever the name "Wax Beans" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under the customary conditions of purchase, the words and statements prescribed by paragraph (a) of this section shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that there may intervene (1) the designation of the length of cut, (2) the varietal name, which may include the word "Stringless" where the beans are in fact stringless, and (3) the description of the wax beans as "Stringless," which may also be used between the words "Wax" and "Beans," where the beans are in fact stringless.

§ 51.16 Canned wax beans; quality; label statement of substandard quality. (a) The standard of quality for canned wax beans is that prescribed for canned green beans by § 51.11 (a) and (b).

(b) If the quality of canned wax beans falls below the standard of quality prescribed by paragraph (a) of this section the label shall bear the statement of substandard quality in the manner and form specified in § 51.11 (c) for canned green beans.

PART 52—CANNED VEGETABLES OTHER THAN THOSE SPECIFICALLY REGULATED; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

CROSS REFERENCE: For regulations relating to canned peas and canned green and wax beans, see Part 51 of this chapter.

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to § 52.990, see 5 F. R. 806, 2399.

§ 52.990 Canned vegetables; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) The canned vegetables for which definitions and standards of identity are prescribed by this section are those named in column I of the table set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. The vegetable ingredient in each such canned vegetable is obtained by proper preparation from the succulent vegetable prescribed in column II of such table. If two or more forms of such ingredient are designated in column III of such table, the vegetable in each such form is an optional ingredient.

(b) The table referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is as follows:

I Name or synonym of canned vegetable	II Source	III Optional forms of vegetable ingredient
Artichokes	Flower buds of the artichoke plant	Whole; half or halves or halved; whole hearts; halved hearts; quartered hearts.
Asparagus	Edible portions of sprouts of the asparagus plant, as follows:
	Three and three-quarter inches or more of upper end.	Stalks or spears.
	Three and three-quarter inches or more of peeled upper end.	Peeled stalks or peeled spears.
	Not less than two and three-quarter inches but less than three and three-quarter inches of upper end.	Tips.
	Less than two and three-quarter inches of upper end.	Points.
	Sprouts cut in pieces	Cut stalks or cut spears.
	Sprouts from which the tip has been removed, cut in pieces.	Bottom cuts or cuts—tips removed.
Bean sprouts	Sprouts of the Mung bean.
Shelled beans	Seed shelled from green or wax bean pods, with or without snaps (pieces of immature unshelled pods).
Lima beans or butter beans	Seed shelled from the pods of the lima bean plant.
Beets	Root of the beet plant	Whole; slices or sliced; quarters or quartered; dice or diced; cut; shoestring or French style or julienne.
Beet greens	Leaves, or leaves and immature root, of the beet plant.
Broccoli	Heads of the broccoli plant.
Brussels sprouts	Sprouts of the brussels sprouts plant.
Cabbage	Cut pieces of the heads of the cabbage plant.
Carrots	Root of the carrot plant	Do.
Cauliflower	Cut pieces of the head of the cauliflower plant.
Celery	Stalks of the celery plant	Cut; hearts.
Collards	Leaves of the collard plant.
White sweet corn or White corn or White sugar corn	Seed cut from ears of white sweet corn	Whole grain or whole kernel.
	Seed cut and scraped from ears of white sweet corn.	Cream style or crushed.
	Ears of white sweet corn	On cob.
Yellow sweet corn or Yellow corn or Yellow sugar corn or Golden corn or Golden sugar corn or Golden sweet corn	Seed cut from ears of yellow sweet corn.	Whole grain or whole kernel
	Seed cut and scraped from ears of yellow sweet corn.	Cream style or crushed.
	Ears of yellow sweet corn	On cob.
Field corn	Seed cut from ears of field corn	Whole grain or whole kernel.
	Seed cut and scraped from ears of field corn.	Cream style or crushed.
Dandelion greens	Leaves of the dandelion plant.
Kale	Leaves of the kale plant.
Mushrooms	Cap and stem of the mushroom	Buttons; whole; slices or sliced; pieces and stems.
Mustard greens	Leaves of the mustard plant.
Okra	Pods of the okra plant	Whole; cut.
Onions	Bulb of the onion plant	Do.
Parsnips	Root of the parsnip plant	Whole; quarters or quartered; slices or sliced; cut; shoestring or French style or julienne.
Black-eye peas or black-eyed peas	Seed shelled from pods of the black-eye pea plant, with or without snaps (pieces of immature unshelled pods).
Field peas	Seed shelled from pods of the field pea plant (other than the black-eye pea plant), with or without snaps (pieces of immature unshelled pods).
Green sweet peppers	Green pods of the sweet pepper plant	Whole; halves or halved; pieces.
Red sweet peppers	Red-ripe pods of the sweet pepper plant.	Do.
Pimientos or pimentos	Red-ripe pods of the pimiento, or pimento, pepper plant.	Whole; slices or sliced; dice or diced; pieces; shoestring or French style or julienne.
Potatoes	Tuber of the potato plant	Whole; pieces; mashed.
Sweetpotatoes	Tuber of the sweetpotato plant	Whole; quarters or quartered; slices or sliced; dice or diced; cut.
Rutabagas	Root of the rutabaga plant
Salsify	Root of the salsify plant.
Spinach	Leaves of the spinach plant.
Swiss chard	Leaves of the swiss chard plant.
Truffles	Fruit of the truffle.	Do.
Turnip greens	Leaves of the turnip plant.
Turnips	Root of the turnip plant

(c) To the vegetable ingredient water is added; except that pimientos may be canned with or without added water, and sweetpotatoes in mashed form are canned without added water, and asparagus may be canned with added water, asparagus juice, or a mixture of both. For the purpose of this section asparagus juice is the clear, unfermented liquid expressed from the washed and heated sprouts or parts of sprouts of the asparagus plant; mixtures of asparagus juice and water are considered to be water when such mixtures are used as a packing medium for canned asparagus. In the case of artichokes, citric acid or a vinegar is added in such quantity as to reduce the pH of the finished canned vegetable to 4.5 or below. The following optional ingredients, in the cases of the vegetables specified, may be added:

(1) Citric acid or a vinegar, in the cases of all vegetables (except artichokes in which such ingredient is necessary) in a quantity not more than sufficient to permit effective processing by heat without discoloration or other impairment of the article.

(2) An edible vegetable oil, in the cases of artichokes and pimientos.

(3) Starch, in the cases of white sweet corn (cream style or crushed form) and yellow sweet corn (cream style or crushed form), in a quantity not more than sufficient to insure smoothness.

(4) Snaps, in the cases of shelled beans, black-eye peas, and field peas.

In the cases of all vegetables one or more of the following optional seasoning ingredients may be added in a quantity sufficient to season the food:

(5) Salt.
(6) A vinegar.
(7) Spice.
(8) Refined sugar (sucrose).
(9) Refined corn sugar (dextrose).

The food is sealed in a container and so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(d) The name of each canned vegetable for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is the name or any synonym thereof whereby such vegetable is designated in Column I of the table in paragraph (b) of this section.

(e) If two or more forms of the vegetable are specified in Column III of the table in paragraph (b) of this section, the label shall bear the specified word or words, or in case synonyms are so specified, one of such synonyms, showing the form of the vegetable ingredient present.

(f) (1) If optional ingredient (c) (2) is present, the label shall bear the statement "---------- Oil Added" or "With Added ---------- Oil" (the blank to be filled in with the common or usual name of the oil). If optional ingredient (c) (3) is present, the label shall bear the statement "Starch Added to Insure Smoothness". If optional ingredient (c) (4) is present, the label shall bear the statement "With Snaps".

(2) If optional seasoning ingredient (c) (6) is present, the label shall bear the statement "Seasoned with Vinegar" or "Seasoned With ---------- Vinegar" (the blank to be filled in with the common or usual name of the vinegar). If optional seasoning ingredient (c) (7) is present, the label shall bear the statement "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice".

(3) If a vinegar, spice, and edible vegetable oil, or any two of these are present, the label may bear, in lieu of the statements herein prescribed showing the presence of such ingredients, a combination of such statements, as for example, "With Added Cider Vinegar, Spice, and Olive Oil".

(4) If asparagus juice is used as a packing medium in canned asparagus, the label shall bear the statement "Packed in Asparagus Juice".

(g) Wherever the name of the vegetable appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words and statements specified in paragraphs (e) and (f) of this section shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the varietal name of the vegetable may so intervene. PART 53—TOMATO PRODUCTS; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY; QUALITY; AND FILL OF CONTAINER

Sec.
53.0 Tomato juice; identity.
53.5 Yellow tomato juice; identity.
53.10 Catsup, ketchup, catchup; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
53.20 Tomato puree, tomato pulp; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
53.30 Tomato paste; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
53.40 Canned tomatoes; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.
53.41 Canned tomatoes; quality; label statement of substandard quality.
53.42 Canned tomatoes; fill of container; label statement of substandard fill.

AUTHORITY: §§ 53.0 to 53.42 issued under 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371.

NOTE: For findings of fact relating to §§ 53.0 to 53.42, see 4 F. R. 3321, 3454; 5 F. R. 2283.

§ 53.0 Tomato juice; identity. Tomato juice is the unconcentrated liquid extracted from mature tomatoes of red or reddish varieties, with or without scalding followed by draining. In the extraction of such liquid, heat may be applied by any method which does not add water thereto. Such liquid is strained free from skins, seeds, and other coarse or hard substances, but carries finely divided insoluble solids from the flesh of the tomato. Such liquid may be homogenized, and may be seasoned with salt. When sealed in a container it is so processed by heat, before or after sealing, as to prevent spoilage.

§ 53.5 Yellow tomato juice; identity. Yellow tomato juice is the unconcentrated liquid extracted from mature tomatoes of yellow varieties. It conforms, in all other respects, to the definition and standard of identity for tomato juice prescribed in § 53.0.

§ 53.10 Catsup, ketchup, catchup; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Catsup, ketchup, catchup, is the food prepared from one or any combination of two or all of the following optional ingredients:

(1) The liquid obtained from mature tomatoes of red or reddish varieties.

(2) The liquid obtained from the residue from preparing such tomatoes for canning, consisting of peelings and cores with or without such tomatoes or pieces thereof.

(3) The liquid obtained from the residue from partial extraction of juice from such tomatoes.

Such liquid is obtained by so straining such tomatoes or residue, with or without heating, as to exclude skins, seeds, and other coarse or hard substances. It is concentrated, and is seasoned with sugar or a mixture of sugar and dextrose (refined corn sugar), salt, a vinegar or vinegars, spices or flavoring or both, and onions or garlic or both. When sealed in a container it is so processed by heat, before or after sealing, as to prevent spoilage.

(b) When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (2) of this section, is present, in whole or in part, the label shall bear the statement "Made From ------" (or "Made in Part From ------," as the case may be) "Residual Tomato Material from Canning." When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (3) of this section is present, in whole or in part, the label shall bear the statement "Made From ------" (or "Made in Part From ------," as the case may be) "Residual Tomato Material from Partial Extraction of Juice." If both such ingredients are present, such statements may be combined in the statement "Made From ------" (or "Made in Part From ------," as the case may be) "Residual Tomato Material from Canning and from Partial Extraction of Juice." Wherever the name "Catsup," "Ketchup," or "Catchup" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement or statements specified in this paragraph showing the optional ingredients present shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

§ 53.20 Tomato puree, tomato pulp; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Tomato puree, tomato pulp, is the food prepared from one or any combination of two or all of the following optional ingredients:

(1) The liquid obtained from mature tomatoes of red or reddish varieties.

(2) The liquid obtained from the residue from preparing such tomatoes for canning, consisting of peelings and cores with or without such tomatoes or pieces thereof.

(3) The liquid obtained from the residue from partial extraction of juice from such tomatoes.

Such liquid is obtained by so straining such tomatoes or residue, with or without heating, as to exclude skins, seeds, and other coarse or hard substances. It is concentrated, and may be seasoned with salt. When sealed in a container it is so processed by heat, before or after sealing, as to prevent spoilage. It contains not less than 8.37 percent, but less than 25.00 percent, of salt-free tomato solids, as determined by the following method:

Determine total solids by the method prescribed on page 499 [Ed. note, 6th edition, p. 595] under "Total Solids—Tentative," and sodium chloride by the method prescribed on page 500 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 596. Title changed to "Sodium Chloride Method I—Official."] under "Sodium Chloride—Official," of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fourth Edition, 1935. Subtract the percent of sodium chloride found from the percent of total solids found; the difference shall be considered to be the percent of salt-free tomato solids.

(b) When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (2) of this section is present, in whole or in part, the label shall bear the statement "made from ------" (or "Made in Part From ------," as the case may be) "Residual Tomato Material from Canning." When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (3) of this section is present, in whole or in part, the label shall bear the statement "Made From ------" (or "Made in Part From ------," as the case may be) "Residual Tomato Material from Partial Extraction of Juice." If both such ingredients are present, such statements may be combined in the statement "Made From ------" (or "Made in Part From ------," as the case may be) "Residual Tomato Material from Canning and from Partial Extraction of Juice." Wherever the name "Tomato Puree" or "Tomato Pulp" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement or statements herein specified showing the optional ingredients present shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

§ 53.30 Tomato paste; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Tomato paste is the food prepared from one or any combination of two or all of the following optional ingredients:

(1) The liquid obtained from mature tomatoes of red or reddish varieties.

(2) The liquid obtained from the residue from preparing such tomatoes for canning, consisting of peelings and cores with or without such tomatoes or pieces thereof.

(3) The liquid obtained from the residue from partial extraction of juice from such tomatoes.

Such liquid is obtained by so straining such tomatoes or residue, with or without heating, as to exclude skins, seeds, and other coarse or hard substances. It is concentrated, and may be seasoned with one or more of the optional ingredients:

(4) Salt.
(5) Spice.
(6) Flavoring.

It may contain, in such quantity as neutralizes a part of the tomato acids, the optional ingredient:

(7) Baking soda.

When sealed in a container it is so processed by heat, before or after sealing, as to prevent spoilage. It contains not less than 25.00 percent of salt-free tomato solids, as determined by the following method:

Determine total solids by the method prescribed on page 499 [Ed. note, 6th edition, p. 595] under "Total Solids—Tentative," and sodium chloride by the method prescribed on page 500 [Ed. note, 6th edition, 1945, p. 596, Method I] under "Sodium Chloride—Official," of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fourth Edition, 1935. Subtract the percent of sodium chloride found from the percent of total solids found; the difference shall be considered to be the percent of salt-free tomato solids.

(b) When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (2) of this section is present, in whole or in part, the label shall bear the statement "Made From ------" (or "Made in Part From ------," as the case may be) "Residual Tomato Material from Canning." When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (3) of this section is present, in whole or in part, the label shall bear the statement "Made From ------" (or "Made in Part From ------," as the case may be) "Residual Tomato Material from Partial Extraction of Juice." If both such ingredients are present, such statements may be combined in the statement "Made From ------" (or "Made in Part From ------," as the case may be) "Residual Tomato Material from Canning and from Partial Extraction of Juice." When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (5) or (6) of this section is present the label shall bear the statement or statements, "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice," "Flavoring Added" or "With Added Flavoring," as the case may be. When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (7) of this section is present, the label shall bear the statement "Baking Soda Added." If two or all of the optional ingredients specified in paragraph (a) (5), (6), and (7), of this section are present, such statements may be combined, as for example, "Spice, Flavoring, and Baking Soda Added." In lieu of the word "Spice" or "Flavoring" in such statement or statements, the common or usual name of such spice or flavoring may be used. Wherever the name "Tomato Paste" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement or statements herein specified showing the optional ingredients present shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

§ 53.40 Canned tomatoes; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned tomatoes are mature tomatoes of red or reddish varieties which are peeled and cored and to which may be added one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(1) The liquid draining from such tomatoes during or after peeling and coring.

(2) The liquid strained from the residue from preparing such tomatoes for canning, consisting of peelings and cores with or without such tomatoes or pieces thereof.

(3) The liquid strained from mature tomatoes of such varieties.

(4) Purified calcium chloride, calcium sulfate, calcium citrate, monocalcium phosphate, or any two or more of these calcium salts, in a quantity reasonably necessary to firm the tomatoes, but in no case such that the amount of the calcium contained in such salts is more than 0.026 percent of the weight of the finished canned tomatoes.

It may be seasoned with one or more of the optional ingredients:

(5) Salt.

(6) Spices.

(7) Flavoring.

It is sealed in a container and so processed by heat as to prevent spoilage.

(b) When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (2) of this section is present, the label shall bear the statement "With Added Strained Residual Tomato Material from Preparation for Canning". When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (3) of this section is present, the label shall bear the statement "With Added Strained Tomatoes". When one or more of the optional ingredients specified in paragraph (a) (4) of this section is present the label shall bear the statement "Trace of ------ Added" or "With Added Trace of ------", the blank being filled in with the words "Calcium Salt" or "Calcium Salts" as the case may be or with the name or names of the particular calcium salt or salts added. When optional ingredient specified in paragraph (a) (6) or (7) of this section is present, the label shall bear the statement or statements "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice", "Flavoring Added" or "With Added Flavoring", as the case may be. If two or more of optional ingredients specified in paragraph (a) (2), (3), (6), and (7) of this section are present, such statements may be combined, as for example "With Added Strained Tomatoes, Residual Tomato Material from Preparation for Canning, Spice and Flavoring". In lieu of the word "Spice" or "Flavoring" in such statement or statements, the common or usual name of such spice or flavoring may be used. Wherever the name "Tomatoes" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement or statements herein specified showing the optional ingredients present shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

§ 53.41 Canned tomatoes; quality; label statement of substandard quality. (a) The standard of quality for canned tomatoes is as follows:

(1) The drained weight, as determined by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) (1) of this section, is not less than 50 percent of the weight of water required to fill the container, as determined by the general method for water capacity of containers prescribed in § 10.1 (a) of this chapter;

(2) The strength and redness of color as determined by the method prescribed in paragraph (b) (2) of this section, is not less than that of the blended color of any combination of the color discs described in such method, in which one-third the area of disc 1, and not more than one-third the area of disc 2, is exposed;

(3) Peel, per pound of canned tomatoes in the container, covers an area of not more than 1 square inch; and

(4) Blemishes, per pound of canned tomatoes in the container, cover an area of not more than one-fourth square inch.

(b) Canned tomatoes shall be tested by the following method to determine whether or not they meet the requirements of paragraph (a) (1) and (2) of this section:

(1) Remove lid from container, but in the case of a container with lid attached by double seam, do not remove or alter the height of the double seam. Tilt the opened container so as to distribute the contents over the meshes of a circular sieve which has previously been weighed. The diameter of the sieve used is 8 inches if the quantity of the contents of the container is less than 3 pounds, or 12 inches if such quantity is 3 pounds or more. The meshes of such sieve are made by so weaving wire of 0.054-inch diameter as to form square openings 0.446 inch by 0.446 inch. Without shifting the tomatoes, so incline the sieve as to facilitate drainage of the liquid. Two minutes from the time drainage begins, weigh the sieve and drained tomatoes. The weight so found, less the weight of the sieve, shall be considered to be the drained weight.

(2) Remove from the sieve the drained tomatoes obtained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Cut out and segregate successively those portions of least redness until 50 percent of the drained weight, as determined under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, has been so segregated. Comminute the segregated portions to a uniform mixture without removing or breaking the seeds. Fill the mixture into a black container to a depth of at least 1 inch. Free the mixture from air bubbles, and skim off or press below the surface all visible seeds. Compare the color of the mixture, in full diffused daylight or its equivalent, with the blended color of combinations of the following concentric Munsell color discs of equal diameter, or the color equivalents of such discs:

(i) Red—Munsell 5 R 2.6/13 (glossy finish).

(ii) Yellow—Munsell 2.5 YR 5/12 (glossy finish).

(iii) Black—Munsell N 1/ (glossy finish).

(iv) Grey—Munsell N 4 (mat finish).

(c) If the quality of canned tomatoes falls below the standard prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard quality specified in § 10.2 (a) of this chapter in the manner and form therein specified; but in lieu of such general statement of substandard quality, the label may bear the alternative statement "Below Standard in Quality ------"; the blank to be filled in with the words specified after the corresponding number of each subparagraph of paragraph (a) of this section which such canned tomatoes fail to meet, as follows: (1) "Excessively Broken Up"; (2) "Poor Color"; (3) "Excessive Peel"; (4) "Excessive Blemishes." If such canned tomatoes fail to meet both (3) and (4), the words "Excessive Peel and Blemishes" may be used instead of the words specified after the corresponding numbers of such clauses. Such alternative statement shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, the name "Tomatoes" and any statements required or authorized to appear with such name by § 53.40 (b).

§ 53.42 Canned tomatoes; fill of container; label statement of substandard fill. (a) The standard of fill of container for canned tomatoes is a fill of not less than 90 percent of the total capacity of the container, as determined by the general method for fill of containers prescribed in § 10.1 (b) of this chapter.

(b) If canned tomatoes fall below the standard of fill of container prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the label shall bear the general statement of substandard fill specified in § 10.2 (b) of this chapter, in the manner and form therein specified.

Subchapter D—Multifamily Rental Housing Insurance

PART 532—ADMINISTRATIVE RULES UNDER SECTION 207 OF THE NATIONAL HOUSING ACT

ELIGIBILITY FOR INSURANCE

In § 532.4 (b) as published in 13 F. R. 5041, the reference to § 532.16 appearing therein, is hereby corrected to read "§ 532.17".

Issued at Washington, D. C., October 26, 1948.

[Controlled Housing Rent Reg.,[1] Amdt. 47]

PART 825—RENT REGULATIONS UNDER THE HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947, AS AMENDED

CONTROLLED HOUSING RENT REGULATION

The Controlled Housing Rent Regulation (§§ 825.1 to 825.12) is amended in the following respects:

1. Schedule A, item 321, is amended to describe the Counties in the Defense-Rental Area as follows: "In Webb County, the City of Laredo and the surrounding area within a ten mile radius of the Webb County Court House in said City of Laredo."

This decontrols all of the Laredo Defense-Rental Area, State of Texas except the City of Laredo and the surrounding Area within a ten mile radius of the Webb County Court House in said City of Laredo.

2. Schedule A, item 129, is amended to describe the Counties in the Defense-Rental Area as follows: "Rapides Parish".

This decontrols Beauregard Parish in the Alexandria-Leesville Defense-Rental Area, State of Louisiana.

(Sec. 204 (d), 61 Stat. 197, as amended by 62 Stat. 37 and by 62 Stat. 94; 50 U. S. C. App. 1894 (d). Applies sec. 204 (c), 61 Stat. 197, as amended by 62 Stat. 37 and by 62 Stat. 94; 50 U. S. C. App. 1894 (c))

This amendment shall become effective October 30, 1948.

Issued this 27th day of October 1948.

TIGHE E. WOODS,
Housing Expediter.

Statement To Accompany Amendment 47 to the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation

It is the judgment of the Housing Expediter that the need for continuing maximum rents in that portion of the Laredo Defense-Rental Area, State of Texas, which is outside the City of Laredo and the surrounding area within a ten mile radius of the Webb County Court House in said City of Laredo, no longer exists due to the fact that the demand for rental housing accommodations has reasonably been met.

It is likewise the judgment of the Housing Expediter that the need for continuing maximum rents in Beauregard Parish, a portion of the Alexandria-Leesville Defense-Rental Area, State of Louisiana, no longer exists due to the fact that the demand for rental housing accommodations has been reasonably met.

This amendment is therefore being issued to decontrol said portions of said Defense-Rental Areas in accordance with section 204 (c) of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, as amended.

This amendment shall become effective October 30, 1948.

Issued this 27th day of October 1948.

TIGHE E. WOODS,

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter I—Coast Guard: Inspection and Navigation

[CGFR 48-53]

DISTRESS SIGNALS

The revised regulations for distress signals and specifications for distress signals were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated October 31, 1947, 12 F. R. 7072 et seq., and these regulations provided that distress signals not bearing the date of manufacture shall not be carried after January 1, 1949, and that distress signals meeting revised Coast Guard specifications be manufactured.

The purpose of these amendments to the regulations regarding distress signals is to allow an additional alternate to existing requirements and to publish the minimum standard specification for hand orange smoke distress signals.

The regulations shall become effective thirty days after the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER since these regulations allow the marine industry greater latitude in equipment required. These amendments to the regulations regarding distress signals are published without prior general notice of their proposed issuance for the reason that notice, public rule making procedure, and effective date requirements in connection therewith are hereby found to be impracticable and contrary to the public interest. This emergency is due to the fact that the effective date for furnishing distress signals under the new specifications in 46 CFR 160.022 as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER October 31, 1947, should not be further postponed since no floating smoke signals have been submitted by manufacturers, whereas hand orange smoke signals which would comply with the new specification in 46 CFR 160.037 below have been tested and found operationally satisfactory as suitable alternate signals. In order to have available to tank vessel operators an additional source from which to obtain distress signals meeting Coast Guard specifications on or before January 1, 1949, I find that it is not practicable to publish proposed regulations and hold hearings as required by R. S. 4417a, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 391a, prior to the promulgation of the regulations applicable to Tank Vessels in 46 CFR 33.3–1, and 160.037–1 to 160.037–7.

Any person who may feel aggrieved by the promulgation of these regulations may appeal therefrom to the Commandant (CMC), United States Coast Guard, Washington 25, D. C., in writing within fifteen days from date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The written appeal shall be presented in triplicate and shall include data and views as to why the regulations shall not be amended. All matters presented in writing within the prescribed time shall be given due consideration and action thereon will be taken before the effective date of the regulations.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by R. S. 4405, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 375, and section 101 of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875, as well as the statutes cited with the regulations below, the following amendments to the regulations are prescribed:

Subchapter D—Tank Vessels

PART 33—LIFESAVING APPLIANCES

EQUIPMENT; LIFEBOATS, LIFE RAFTS, AND BUOYANT APPARATUS

Section 33.3–1 (e) is amended to read as follows:

§ 33.3–1 Tank ship lifeboat equipment; ocean and coastwise—T/OC. • • •

(e) Distress signals. Twelve approved hand red flare distress signals in a watertight container, and 4 approved floating orange smoke distress signals; or 12 approved hand red flare distress signals in a watertight container, and 12 approved hand orange smoke distress signals in a watertight container; or 12 approved hand combination flare and smoke distress signals in a watertight container. Service use shall be limited to a period of 3 years from date of manufacture. Distress signals not bearing date of manufacture shall not be carried after January 1, 1949. (For specifications for the above signals, see subparts 160.021, 160.022, 160.023, and 160.037 in Subchapter Q of this chapter.)

(R. S. 4417a, sec. 5 (e), 55 Stat. 244, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 391a, 50 U. S. C. 1275)

Subchapter G—Ocean and Coastwise General Rules and Regulations

PART 59—BOATS, RAFTS, BULKHEADS, AND LIFESAVING APPLIANCES (OCEAN)

Section 59.11 (e) is amended to read as follows:

§ 59.11 Lifeboat equipment. • • •

(e) Distress signals. Twelve approved hand red flare distress signals in a watertight container, and 4 approved floating orange smoke distress signals; or 12 approved hand red flare distress signals in a watertight container, and 12 approved hand orange smoke distress signals in a watertight container; or 12 approved hand combination flare and smoke distress signals in a watertight container. Service use shall be limited to a period of 3 years from date of manufacture. Distress signals not bearing date of manufacture shall not be carried after January 1, 1949. (For specifications for the above signals, see subparts 160.021, 160.022, 160.023, and 160.037 in Subchapter Q of this chapter.)

(R. S. 4426, 4488, 4491, 49 Stat. 1544, 54 Stat. 346, sec. 5 (e), 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 367, 404, 481, 489, 1333, 50 U. S. C. 1275)

Section 59.52 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 59.52 Equipment for life rafts. • • •

(a) Distress signals. Twelve approved hand red flare distress signals in a watertight container, and 4 approved floating orange smoke distress signals; or 12 approved hand red flare distress; signals in a watertight container, and 12 approved hand orange smoke distress signals in a watertight container; or 12 approved hand combination flare and smoke distress signals in a watertight container. Service use shall be limited to a period of 3 years from date of manufacture. Distress signals not bearing date of manufacture shall not be carried after January 1, 1949. (For specifications for the above signals, see subparts 160.021, 160.022, 160.023, and 160.037 in Subchapter Q of this chapter.)

(R. S. 4426, 4488, 4491, 49 Stat. 1544, 54 Stat. 346, sec. 5 (e), 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 367, 404, 481, 489, 1333, 50 U. S. C. 1275)

PART 60—BOATS, RAFTS, BULKHEADS, AND LIFESAVING APPLIANCES (COASTWISE)

1. Section 60.9 (e) is amended to read as follows:

§ 60.9 Lifeboat equipment. (See § 59.11 of this chapter, as amended, which is identical with this section.)

2. Section 60.45 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 60.45 Equipment for life rafts. (See § 59.52 of this chapter, as amended, which is identical with this section.)

Subchapter Q—Specifications

PART 160—LIFESAVING EQUIPMENT

Part 160 is amended by a new subpart 160.037, reading as follows:

SUBPART 160.037—SIGNALS, DISTRESS, SMOKE, ORANGE, HAND, FOR MERCHANT VESSELS

Sec.

160.037–1 Applicable specifications and plans.
160.037–2 Type.
160.037–3 Materials, workmanship, construction, and performance requirements.
160.037–4 Sampling, inspections, conditioning, and tests.
160.037–5 Labeling and marking.
160.037–6 Container.
160.037–7 Procedure for approval.

AUTHORITY: §§ 160.037–1 to 160.037–7, issued under R. S. 4405, 4417a, 4426, 4488, 4491, 49 Stat. 1544, 54 Stat. 346, and sec. 5 (e), 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 367, 391a, 404, 481, 489, 1333, 50 U. S. C. 1275; sec. 101, Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875.

SUBPART 160.037 — SIGNALS, DISTRESS, SMOKE, ORANGE, HAND, FOR MERCHANT VESSELS

§ 160.037–1 Applicable specifications and plans—(a) Specifications. There are no other specifications applicable to this subpart.

(b) Plan. The following plan, of the issue in effect on the date hand orange smoke distress signals are manufactured, forms a part of this specification:

Drawing No. 160.021–6 (a)—Container for hand red flare distress signals.

§ 160.037–2 Type. (a) Hand orange smoke distress signals specified by this subpart shall be of one type which shall consist essentially of a wooden handle to which is attached a tubular casing having a sealing plug at the handle end, the casing being filled with a smoke producing composition and fuse with button of ignition material at the top, and a removable cap having a friction striking material on its top which may be exposed for use by pulling a tear strip. The signal is ignited by scraping the friction striker on top of the cap against the igniter button on top of the body of the signal. Alternate arrangements which conform to the performance requirements of this specification will be given special consideration.

§ 160.037–3 Materials, workmanship, construction, and performance requirements—(a) Materials. The materials shall conform strictly to the specifications and drawings submitted by the manufacturer and approved by the Commandant. The color of the tube shall be orange. The combustible materials shall be of such nature as will not deteriorate during long storage, nor when subjected to frigid or tropical climates, or both.

(b) Workmanship. Hand orange smoke distress signals shall be of first class workmanship and shall be free from imperfections of manufacture affecting their appearance or that may affect their serviceability. Moisture proof coatings shall be applied uniformly and shall be free from pinholes or other visible defects which would impair their usefulness.

(c) Construction. The casing shall be fitted and secured to the handle with not less than a one-inch overlap and shall be attached to the handle in such a manner that failure of the joint will not occur during tests, ignition, or operation. The plug shall be securely affixed in the casing to separate the smoke composition from the wooden handle. The smoke composition shall be thoroughly mixed and be uniformly compressed throughout to preclude variations of density which may adversely affect uniformity of its smoke emitting characteristics. The cap shall have a lap fit of not less than one inch over the end of the casing and smoke composition to entirely and securely protect the exposed surface of the igniter button and end of smoke composition and casing, and shall have an inner shoulder so constructed that it is mechanically impossible for the inner surface of the cap to come in contact with the igniter button. The cap shall be securely attached to the casing in such manner as to preclude its accidental detachment. The cap shall be provided on its top with a friction striking material which shall, by a pull of the tear strip, be entirely exposed for striking the friction igniter button. The igniter button shall be nonwater soluble or be protected from moisture by a coating of some waterproof substance, and shall be raised or exposed in such manner as to provide positive ignition by the friction striker. The igniter button shall be firmly secured in or on the top of the smoke composition; the arrangement shall be such that the ignition will be transmitted to the smoke producing composition. The assembled signal, consisting of tear strip, cap, casing, and upper portion of the handle, shall be sealed and treated to protect the signal from deterioration by moisture. The protective waterproof coating shall be applied so none adheres to the friction striking surface.

(d) Ignition and smoke emitting characteristics. Test specimens shall not ignite explosively in a manner that might be dangerous to the user or persons close by. Test specimens shall ignite and emit smoke satisfactorily at a uniform rate. The plug separating the smoke producing composition from the handle shall in no case allow flame or hot gases to pass through it or between it and the casing in such manner as might burn the hand while holding the signal by the handle.

(e) Water resistance. Test specimens shall function properly after having been subjected to the conditioning described in § 160.037–4 (d).

(f) Strength of joint. Test specimens shall not show noticeable distortion, nor shall the joint between the casing and handle fail, when subjected to either of the tests described in §§ 160.037–4 (h) or (i) immediately after having been subjected to the water-resistance conditioning.

(g) Chemical stability. Test specimens shall function properly after having been subjected to the elevated temperature conditioning experiment described in § 160.037–4 (e). No ignition shall occur during the conditioning experiment.

(h) Temperature of ignition of signal materials. When tested as described by § 160.037–4 (j), the temperature of ignition of the signal materials shall be not less than 338° F. (170° C.).

(i) Smoke emitting time. Test specimens shall emit smoke not less than 50 seconds when the time is measured as described in § 160.037–4 (k). Test specimens shall emit smoke under water not less than ten seconds when tested as described in § 160.037–4 (f).

(j) Color of smoke. The color of the smoke shall be orange as determined by § 160.037–4 (m).

(k) Susceptibility to explosion of smoke composition. The smoke producing composition shall not explode when subjected to the influence of a No. 6 commercial blasting cap as described in § 160.037–4 (l).

(l) Volume and density of smoke. Sufficient orange colored smoke shall be emitted during the 50 seconds to give a cloud of smoke that is readily visible to the naked eye of a person in an aircraft which is not less than five miles away and is flying at an elevation of 5,000 feet in clear weather. Alternate methods of determining the sufficiency of the volume of smoke produced and uniformity of discharge rate will be given special consideration.

§ 160.037–4 Sampling, inspections, conditioning, and tests—(a) Classification of tests. The methods of sampling, inspections and tests conducted upon hand orange smoke distress signals shall be considered as falling within the following general classifications:

(1) Qualification (type or brand approval) tests;

(2) Production check tests (at the place of manufacture); and

(3) Production check tests (at a Government laboratory).

(b) Qualification (type or brand approval) tests. Pre-approval samples, selected in accordance with § 160.037–7 (c), shall be tested in accordance with the following testing schedule to determine qualification for type or brand approval.

(1) Test 12 specimens for water resistance characteristics, § 160.037–3 (e); following which test 6 for strength of joint, § 160.037–3 (f) (3 bend and 3 tensile, §§ 160.037–4 (h) and (i), respectively), then test these 6 specimens for ignition and burning characteristics, § 160.037–3 (d); then test 3 specimens for under water burning, §§ 160.037–3 (i) and 160.037–4 (f); and finally test 3 specimens for waterproofing of igniter button, § 160.037–4 (g).

(2) Test 6 unconditioned specimens in air for smoke emitting time, volume of smoke, and color of smoke, §§ 160.037–3 (i), (j), and (l), respectively.

(3) Test 2 specimens for chemical stability of smoke composition, § 160.037–3 (g), following which test then for ignition and smoke emitting characteristics, § 160.037–3 (d).

(4) Test 2 specimens for temperature of ignition of signal materials, § 160.037–3 (h).

(5) Test 2 specimens for suspectibility to explosion of smoke composition, § 160.037–3 (k).

(c) Sampling, inspections, and tests of smoke signals from production lots. The production of hand orange smoke distress signals produced under an official type or brand approval shall be checked for compliance with this specification in the manner set forth below:

(1) Lot size and sampling procedure. For purposes of sampling the production of hand orange smoke distress signals, a lot shall consist of not more than 3,000 signals. A new lot shall be started with any change or modification in raw materials or manufacturing methods. Lots shall be numbered serially by the manufacturer, and the lot number shall be plainly and indelibly marked on the label of each signal in the lot. A marine inspector shall select at random from each lot the number of specimen smoke signals indicated in the following table for inspection, conditioning, and testing:

Lot size:	Minimum number of specimens of sample
Not more than 1,000	18
1,001 to 3,000	24

(2) Inspections (at the place of manufacture). The marine inspector shall be admitted to the place of manufacture and shall familiarize himself with the various operations involved in the manufacturing process and, from observation during manufacture, satisfy himself that hand orange smoke distress signals are being made in general accordance with this subpart and of materials and parts conforming strictly with the specifications and drawings submitted by the manufacturer and approved by the Commandant. Specimens or samplings of materials entering into construction may be taken at random, either in the raw material state or during manufacture, by the inspector and tests made for compliance with the applicable requirements. The test specimens comprising the sample, selected in accordance with § 160.037–4 (c) (1), shall be examined by the inspector for surface defects.

(3) Production check tests (at the place of manufacture). The manufacturer shall provide a suitable place and the necessary apparatus for the use of the inspector in conducting such production check tests as are done at the place of manufacture. Samples from production lots, selected in accordance with § 160.037–4 (c) (1), shall, except when tested at a government laboratory as prescribed below, be tested at the place of manufacture in accordance with the following testing schedule: 1st day; place all specimens in water-resistance conditioning, § 160.037–4 (d). 2d day: Remove all specimens from water-resistance conditioning. Test two specimens for effectiveness of waterproofing of igniter button, § 160.037–4 (g). Test two specimens for bending strength of joint, § 160.037–4 (h). Test two specimens for tensile strength of joint, § 160.037–4 (i). Test all unburned specimens for smoke emitting time, § 160.037–4 (k), and for ignition and smoke emitting characteristics, § 160.037–3 (d). Measurements of volume and density of smoke will not be made, but visual observations of smoke production, sufficiency, and color of smoke will be noted. Any unusual discrepancies shall be considered cause for obtaining a new sample from the lot for tests at a government laboratory as provided below.

(4) Production check tests (at a Government laboratory). Tests at a government laboratory shall be made on not less than one sample from each ten production lots of hand orange smoke distress signals, or not less than once in each year, whichever occurs more frequently. Sampling and inspection shall be made at the place of manufacture as provided in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph. The sample will be forwarded prepaid by the manufacturer to the Commandant. Tests at the government laboratory shall be conducted in accordance with the schedule given in paragraph (b) of this section, except that the number of specimens for the separate tests may be reduced in accordance with the size of the sample.

(d) Conditioning of test specimens; water resistance. Immerse specimen horizontally in water at not more than 30° C. with uppermost portion of the signal approximately one inch below the surface of the water for a period of 24 hours.

(e) Conditioning-elevated temperature, humidity, and storage. Place specimen in a thermostatically controlled even-temperature oven held at 90° C. with not less than 90% relative humidity for 72 hours. Remove specimen and store at room temperature (20° to 25° C.) with approximately 65% relative humidity for ten days.

(f) Test method, under water smoke emission. Ignite the signal and let it burn 15 seconds in air. Submerge burning signal in water in a vertical position with head down. Obtain under water smoke emission time by stop watch measurements from time of submersion until positive smoke emission ceases.

(g) Test method; waterproofing substance on igniter button. Remove the cap from the test specimen. Place head of specimen without cap about one inch under the surface of water about 20° C. for approximately 5 minutes. Remove specimen from water and wipe dry. Attempt to ignite signal according to directions.

(h) Test method; bending strength. Place the specimen on supports six inches apart. Attach a weight of 80 pounds to a length of wire. Hang the weight from the supported flare by looping the wire around the flare approximately equidistant from the two points of support. Let the weight hang approximately 5 minutes.

(i) Test method; tensile strength. Place the specimen in a chuck firmly holding it about one-half inch below the cap. Attach a weight of 80 pounds to a length of wire. Hang the weight from the supported flare by looping the wire through a hole bored perpendicular to and through the axis of the handle. Let the weight hang approximately 5 minutes.

(j) Test method; temperature of ignition of signal materials. The test shall be conducted in a uniformly heated gas or electric oven with a chamber of at least 6 inches by 6 inches by 9 inches inside measurement. If gas heated, the oven should be of jacketed type with the products of combustion of the heating gas excluded from the inner chamber. The oven should be provided with an opening or openings at the top of at least ¾ square inch in area to give air circulation within. A suitable 600° F. 3-inch immersion thermometer or thermocouple shall be inserted through a sleeve in the top of the oven. A shelf of perforated sheet metal shall be provided at the mid-height of the oven. A wire screen cup ½ inch in diameter by ¾ inch high shall be provided. The materials to be tested shall be placed to a depth of ½ inch in the wire screen cup. (Ordinarily, materials adjacent to each other in the assembled signal will be blended together for the test, materials nonadjacent ordinarily will not be blended together for the test.) The cup then shall be placed on the shelf so as to be within ½ inch to ¼ inch from the bulb of the thermometer or the junction of the thermocouple. The temperature of the oven is to be raised to about 284° F. (140° C.) at a convenient rate, after which the temperature is to be raised at a rate not to exceed 2° F. per minute until ignition occurs or 338° F. (170° C.) has been reached. Time and temperature readings at 30 second intervals and also time at which ignition, if such occurs, are to be recorded. If ignition occurs, the approximate ignition temperature, to be reported, can be obtained by extrapolation from the time-temperature data. Alternate test methods will be given special consideration by the Coast Guard.

(k) Test method; smoke emitting time. The smoke emitting time of a specimen shall be obtained by stop watch measurements from the time positive smoke emission begins until it ceases. The smoke emitting time for a sample (i. e. all the test specimens from a single lot) shall be the arithmetical average for all specimens in the sample.

(l) Test method; susceptibility to explosion. Remove smoke composition from signal and punch a small hole in the composition. Insert a No. 6 commercial blasting cap. Ignite the cap.

(m) Test method; color of smoke. Ignite specimen in the open air in daytime according to manufacturer's directions, and determine the Munsell notation of the smoke color by direct visual comparison of the unshadowed portions of the smoke with the charts of the Munsell book of color held so as to receive the same daylight illumination as the unshadowed portions of the smoke. The smoke shall be deemed orange if its Munsell notation has a hue between 8 R and 5 YR, a value greater than 4.5, and a chroma greater than 9.0.

(n) Lot acceptance or rejection. When the marine inspector has satisfied himself that the hand orange smoke distress signals in the lot are of a type officially approved in the name of the manufacturer, and that such signals meet the requirements set forth in this subpart, each of the smallest packing cartons or boxes (usually containing one dozen signals) in which the signals are sealed prior to shipment, shall be plainly marked with the words: "Inspected and Passed, (Date), (Port), (Inspector's Initials), U. S. C. G." When the sample of the lot does not meet the requirements of this subpart, or when one or more of the test specimens fails to ignite, the lot shall be rejected. Signals from rejected lots may, when permitted by the inspector, be reworked by the manufacturer to correct the deficiency for which they were rejected and be resubmitted for official inspection. Signals from rejected lots may not, unless subsequently accepted, be sold or offered for sale under representation as being in compliance with this specification or as being approved for use on merchant vessels.

§ 160.037–5 Labeling and marking—(a) Labeling. Each hand orange smoke distress signal shall bear a label securely affixed thereto, showing in clear, indelible black lettering on an orange background, the following wording and information:

(Company brand or style designation)

HAND ORANGE SMOKE DISTRESS SIGNAL

For daytime use—50 seconds burning time

USE ONLY WHEN AIR CRAFT OR VESSEL IS SIGHTED

DIRECTIONS—Pull tape over top of cap. Remove cap and ignite signal by rubbing scratch surface on top of cap sharply across igniter button on head of signal.

CAUTION—Stand with back to wind and point away from body when igniting or signal is burning.

(Month and year manufactured)

(Lot No. ------)

Manufactured by (Name and address of manufacturer)

U. S. Coast Guard Approval No. ------ for Merchant Vessels.

(b) Other marking. There shall be die-stamped, in the side of the wooden handle in figures not less than ⅛ inch high, numbers indicating the month and year of manufacture, thus: "6–48" indicating June 1948. In addition to any other marking placed on the smallest packing carton or box containing hand orange smoke distress signals, such cartons or boxes shall be plainly and permanently marked to show the date of manufacture and lot number.

§ 160.037–6 Container—(a) General. Containers for stowage of hand orange smoke distress signals are not required to have specific approval or to be of special design, but they shall meet the following test for watertightness when closed, and shall be capable of being opened and reclosed hand-tight to meet the same watertightness test. The material shall be copper, brass, bronze, or others equally corrosion-resistant to salt water and spray. The type container illustrated by Drawing No. 160.021–6 (a) is recommended for most purposes.

(b) Watertightness test for containers. Whenever question arises as to the watertightness of a container, the following test may be made to determine whether it is satisfactory in this respect. Open the container, remove the contents, insert colored blotting paper as a lining, reclose container as tightly as possible by hand (no wrenches or special tools permitted), submerge container with top about one foot below the surface of the water for two hours, remove container from water, wipe off excess moisture on outside, then open the container and examine the blotting paper and entire interior for evidence of moisture penetration. If any moisture or water is evidenced, the container is not satisfactory.

(c) Marking of container. Containers shall be embossed or bear a brass or equivalent corrosion-resistant name plate, or otherwise be suitably and permanently marked, to plainly show in letters not less than ½" high the following wording: "Hand Orange Smoke Distress Signals". No additional marking which might cause confusion as to the contents shall be permitted.

NOTE: The vessel's name is required to be painted or branded on equipment such as this container by other regulations, and nothing in this subpart shall be construed as prohibiting same.

§ 160.037–7 Procedure for approval—(a) General. Hand orange smoke distress signals for merchant vessels are approved only by the Commandant, U. S. Coast Guard, Washington, D. C. Correspondence pertaining to the subject matter of this specification shall be addressed to the Commander of the Coast Guard District in which the factory is located.

(b) Manufacturer's plans and specifications. In order to obtain approval, submit detailed plans and specifications, including a complete bill of material, assembly drawing, and parts drawings descriptive of the arrangement and construction of the signal, to the Commander of the Coast Guard District in which the factory is located. Each drawing shall have an identifying drawing number, date, and an identification of the signal; and the general arrangement or assembly drawing shall include a list of all drawings applicable, together with drawing numbers and alteration numbers. The alterations shall be noted with the date of alteration or new drawing numbers and dates shall be assigned. At the time of selection of the pre-approval sample, the manufacturer shall furnish to the inspector four copies of all plans and specifications, corrected as may be required, for forwarding to the Commandant.

(c) Pre-approval sample. After the first drawings and specifications have been examined and found to appear satisfactory, a marine inspector will be detailed to the factory to observe the production facilities and manufacturing methods and to select at random, from not less than 50 signals already manufactured, a sample of not less than 24 specimens which will be forwarded prepaid by the manufacturer to the Commandant for the necessary conditioning and tests in accordance with § 160.037–4 (b) to determine compliance with this subpart for qualification for type or brand approval for use on merchant vessels.

Dated: October 22, 1948.

[SEAL] J. F. FARLEY,
Admiral, U. S. Coast Guard,
Commandant.

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Notices regarding proposed changes in the inspection and navigation regulations were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated August 11 and September 15, 1948, 13 F. R. 4638, 5382, and public hearings were held by the Merchant Marine Council on September 28, 1948, at Washington, D. C.

The purpose of the miscellaneous amendments to the regulations is to clarify their intent, effect editorial changes, establish additional safety requirements, to permit certain practices to be employed by the industry in the construction, repair or operation of merchant vessels, and to provide for the licensing of radio operators in accordance with Public Law 525, 80th Congress, 2d Session, approved May 12, 1948. All the written or oral comments, data, and suggestions submitted were considered by the Merchant Marine Council and where practicable were incorporated into the miscellaneous amendments to the regulations.

The regulations in this document shall become effective on and after the 91st day after the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER, except for regulations in 46 CFR 146.27–100, regarding burlap bags, which shall become effective on and after the date of publication because this amendment removes a restriction on the shipment of cleaned bags, and except further for regulations in 46 CFR 10.13–1 to 10.13–33, inclusive, regarding licensing of radio officers, 46 CFR 12.25–15, regarding radio operators, and 46 CFR 131.2 and 131.4, regarding manning of vessels, which shall become effective on and after April 1, 1949, when Public Law 525, 80th Congress, 2d Session, becomes effective: Provided, however, That all the provisions necessary to receive applications and issue licenses as radio officers to qualified persons shall become effective on and after the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER, in order that merchant vessels will be enabled to operate with properly licensed radio officers on and after April 1, 1949.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by R. S. 4405, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 375, and section 101 of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875, as well as the statutes cited with the regulations below, the following amendments to the regulations are prescribed:

Subchapter B—Merchant Marine Officers and Seamen

PART 10—LICENSING OF OFFICERS AND MOTORBOAT OPERATORS AND REGISTRATION OF STAFF OFFICERS

1. The title for Part 10 is changed to read as set forth above.

SUBPART 10.01—GENERAL

2. Section 10.01–1 is amended to read as follows:

§ 10.01–1 Basis and purpose of regulations. By virtue of the authority vested in the Commandant of the Coast Guard under R. S. 4405, 4417a, 4426, 4427, 4438, 4438a, 4439, 4440, 4441, 4442, 4443, and 4447, as amended, sec. 2, 29 Stat. 188, sec. 1, 34 Stat. 1411, 49 Stat. 1544, 1935, 1992, 53 Stat. 1147, sec. 17, 54 Stat. 166, and sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 214, 224, 224a, 225, 226, 228, 229, 230, 233, 237, 247, 367, 375, 391a, 404, 405, 526p, 672a, 1132, 50 U. S. C. 1275, sec. 101, Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875, and Public Law 525, 80th Congress, approved May 12, 1948; the regulations in this part are prescribed to provide a comprehensive and adequate means of determining the qualifications an applicant must possess in order to be eligible for a license as deck or engineer or radio officer on merchant vessels, for a license to operate motorboats, or for a certificate of registry as staff officer, in accordance with the intent of the statutes and to obtain their correct and uniform administration. (R. S. 4405, 4417a, 4426, 4427, 4438, 4438a, 4439, 4440, 4441, 4442, 4443, 4447, sec. 2, 29 Stat. 188, sec. 1, 34 Stat. 1411, 49 Stat. 1544, 1935, 1992, 53 Stat. 1147, sec. 17, 54 Stat. 166, and sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 214, 224, 224a, 225, 226, 228, 229, 230, 233, 237, 247, 367, 375, 391a, 404, 405, 526p, 672a, 1132, 50 U. S. C. 1275, sec. 101, Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875, and Pub. Law 525, 80th Cong., 2d Sess.)

SUBPART 10.05—PROFESSIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR DECK OFFICERS' LICENSES (INSPECTED VESSELS)

3. Section 10.05–11 is amended by changing paragraphs (a) and (g) and adding paragraph (h), reading as follows:

§ 10.05–11 Master, mate, or pilot of steam or motor vessels operating under special conditions. (a) This section shall apply to every applicant for a license as master, mate, or pilot of steam pilot boats or seagoing motor pilot boats of 300 gross tons or over; or of steam vessels navigating the waters of the whaling grounds in the Alaskan Seas; or of steam vessels engaged exclusively in the business of whale fishing; or of steam vessels engaged in the Atlantic, Pacific, or Gulf Coast fisheries; or of steam or sail vessels navigating exclusively between ports in the Hawaiian Islands; or of steam or sail vessels or seagoing motor vessels of 300 gross tons or over navigating exclusively between ports of the Island of Puerto Rico.

* * * * * *

(g) An applicant for a master's license of seagoing vessels propelled by internal combustion engines, navigating exclusively between ports in the Hawaiian Islands, shall submit with his application statements duly executed and certified by reputable citizens qualified to judge the character, trustworthiness, and ability of the applicant.

(h) The Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, shall make a diligent inquiry as to the applicant's character and merits, and if satisfied by the oral examination or practical demonstration and the proof of requisite knowledge and skill offered, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, shall issue the license. No certificate from the United States Public Health Service based upon the subject of ship sanitation and first aid shall be required of such an applicant. (R. S. 4405, 4417a, 4426, 4427, 4438, 4438a, 4439, 4440, 4441, 4442, sec. 2, 29 Stat. 188, 49 Stat. 1544, and sec. 5 (e), 55 Stat. 244, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 214, 224, 224a, 225, 226, 228, 229, 367, 375, 391a, 404, 405, 50 U. S. C. 1275, and sec. 101, Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875)

SUBPART 10.10—PROFESSIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ENGINEER OFFICERS' LICENSES (INSPECTED VESSELS)

4. Section 10.10–25 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 10.10–25 Engineers of motor vessels operating in Puerto Rican and Hawaiian waters. (a) An applicant for an engineer's license of seagoing vessels propelled by internal combustion engines navigating exclusively between ports in the Hawaiian Islands, or navigating exclusively between ports of the Island of Puerto Rico and/or the Virgin Islands, shall submit with his application statements duly executed and certified by reputable citizens qualified to judge the character and ability of the applicant. The Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, shall make a diligent inquiry as to the applicant's character and merits and, if satisfied by the oral examination or practical demonstration, and the proof of requisite knowledge and skill offered, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, shall issue the license. No certificate from the United States Public Health Service based upon the subject of ship sanitation and first aid shall be required of such applicant.

(R. S. 4405, 4417a, 4426, 4427, 4438, 4438a, 4439, 4440, 4441, 4442, sec. 2, 29 Stat. 188, 49 Stat. 1544, and sec. 5 (e), 55 Stat. 244, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 214, 224, 224a, 225, 226, 228, 229, 367, 375, 391a, 404, 405, 50 U. S. C. 1275, and sec. 101, Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875)

5. Part 10 is amended by adding a new subpart 10.13 reading as follows:

SUBPART 10.13—LICENSING OF RADIO OFFICERS

Sec.
10.13-1 Applicability of laws.
10.13-3 Definitions.
10.13-5 General provisions respecting all licenses issued.
10.13-7 Citizenship and age requirements for all licenses issued.
10.13-9 Evidence of professional competence for all licenses issued.
10.13-13 General requirements for original licenses.
10.13-15 Physical examinations for original licenses.
10.13-17 Character check and references required for original licenses.
10.13-21 General requirements for renewal of license.
10.13-23 Physical requirements for renewal.
10.13-25 Issuance of duplicate license.
10.13-27 Parting with or altering license.
10.13-29 Suspension and revocation of licenses.
10.13-33 Right of appeal.

AUTHORITY: §§ 10.13-1 to 10.13-33, issued under Public Law 525, 80th Congress, 2d Session, and section 101, Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875.

§ 10.13-1 Applicability of laws. Public Law 525, 80th Congress, approved May 12, 1948, under which the regulations in this subpart are promulgated, reads as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That whenever the complement of any vessel prescribed pursuant to section 4463 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (46 U. S. C., sec. 222), includes one or more radiotelegraph operators such operators shall be required to be licensed officers.

SEC. 2. The boards of local inspectors authorized under section 4414 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., 1940 edition, title 46, sec. 382) shall license radiotelegraph operators, and it shall be unlawful to employ any person or for any person to serve as a radiotelegraph operator of any steamer or of any other vessel of over one hundred gross tons carrying passengers for hire who is not licensed by the inspectors; and anyone violating this section shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each offense.

SEC. 3. Whenever any person applies for authority to perform the duties of radiotelegraph operator of any vessel, the inspectors shall require possession of a valid first- or second-class radiotelegraph operator license issued by the Federal Communications Commission; and if, upon full consideration, they are satisfied that his character, habits of life, and physical condition are such as to authorize the belief that he is a suitable and safe person to be entrusted with the powers and duties of such a station, they shall grant him a license, authorizing him to be employed in such duties for the term of five years, provided he continues to hold a valid first- or second-class radiotelegraph operator license issued by the Federal Communications Commission.

All licenses issued under this section shall be subject to suspension or revocation on the same grounds and in the same manner and with like procedure as is provided in the case of suspension or revocation of license of officers under the provisions of section 4450 of the Revised Statutes, as amended.

SEC. 4. (a) Section 2 of the Act of March 4, 1915, as amended (U. S. C., 1940 edition, title 46, sec. 673), is amended by striking out the period after the words "management of the vessel" and inserting a colon and the following words: "Provided, That in the case of radiotelegraph operators this requirement shall be applicable only when three or more radio officers are employed."

(b) Nothing in this Act shall be presumed to repeal the provisions of section 2 of the Act of March 4, 1915, as amended (U. S. C., 1940 edition, title 46, sec. 673), limiting the work of radiotelegraph operators to eight hours in one day.

SEC. 5. Every radiotelegraph operator who receives a license shall, before entering upon his duties, make oath before one of the inspectors herein provided for, to be recorded with the certificate, that he will faithfully and honestly, according to his best skill and judgment, without concealment or reservation, perform all the duties required of him by law.

Every applicant for license as radiotelegraph operator under the provisions of this Act shall make and subscribe to an oath or affirmation, before one of the inspectors referred to in this Act, to the truth of all the statements set forth in his application for such license.

Any person who shall make or subscribe to any oath or affirmation authorized in this Act and knowing the same to be false shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

Every radiotelegraph operator, who shall change, by addition, interpolation, or erasure of any kind, any certificate or license issued by an inspector or inspectors referred to in this Act shall, for every such offense, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment at hard labor for a term not exceeding three years.

SEC. 6. Every radiotelegraph operator who shall receive a license shall, when employed upon any vessel, within forty-eight hours after going on duty, place his certificate of license, which shall be framed under glass, in some conspicuous place in such vessel, where it can be seen by passengers and others at all times: Provided, That in case of emergency such radiotelegraph operator may be transferred to another vessel of the same owners for a period not exceeding forty-eight hours without the transfer of his license; and for every neglect to comply with this provision by any such radiotelegraph operator, he shall be subject to a fine of $100 or to the revocation of his license.

SEC. 7. Nothing in this Act shall affect the status of radiotelegraph operators while serving aboard vessels operating solely on the Great Lakes.

SEC. 8. Nothing in this Act shall increase the number of radiotelegraph operators at present required by law to be carried on vessels, or the type of vessels on which radiotelegraph operators are required to be carried, or to alter, repeal, modify, or affect any other statute of the United States, it being the only intent of this Act to give to radiotelegraph operators the status of licensed officers as herein provided without affecting in any way any statute of the United States except as specifically hereinbefore authorized.

SEC. 9. The provisions of this Act will become effective on April 1, 1949.

§ 10.13-3 Definitions — (a) License. Where the word "license" appears throughout the regulations in this subpart it shall be construed as meaning a license issued by the Coast Guard, unless indicated otherwise.

(b) Original license. The first license issued to a radiotelegraph operator by the Coast Guard shall be considered an original license, when the records of the Coast Guard show no previous issue to such person.

§ 10.13-5 General provisions respecting all licenses issued. (a) Applicants for licenses, issued in accordance with the regulations in this subpart, are charged with the duty of establishing to the satisfaction of the Coast Guard that they possess all of the qualifications necessary, such as, age, experience, character and citizenship, before they shall be entitled to be issued licenses. Until an applicant meets this mandatory requirement, he is not entitled to be licensed to serve as an officer on a vessel of the United States. No person who has been convicted by court-martial of desertion or treason in time of war, or has lost his nationality for any of the other reasons listed in 8 U. S. C. 801, is eligible for a license.

(b) After application to an Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, any person who is found qualified under the requirements set forth in this subpart shall be issued an appropriate license valid for a term of five (5) years, provided he continues to hold a valid first- or second-class radiotelegraph operator's license issued by the Federal Communications Commission.

(c) Every person to whom a license is issued shall place his signature and left thumbprint thereon.

(d) Every person who receives a license shall make oath before an Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, to be recorded upon his official file, that he will faithfully and honestly, according to his best skill and judgment, without concealment or reservation, perform all the duties required of him by law.

§ 10.13-7 Citizenship and age requirements for all licenses issued. (a) No license shall be issued to any person who is not a United States citizen. An applicant claiming to be a citizen of the United States shall furnish documentary evidence of his citizenship. Acceptable evidence of citizenship is described in § 10.02-5.

(b) Any citizen who has attained the age of 19 years and is qualified in all other respects shall be eligible for a license: Provided, That an applicant who has attained the age of 18 years and who can show 6 months' service as a radio operator at sea prior to April 1, 1949, will be considered eligible insofar as age is concerned.

§ 10.13-9 Evidence of professional competence for all licenses issued. Each applicant for a license must present to the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, at the time of making application his currently valid first- or second-class radiotelegraph operator's license issued by the Federal Communications Commission.

§ 10.13-13 General requirements for original licenses—(a) First aid certificate. No candidate for original license shall be qualified until he presents a certificate from the United States Public Health Service that he has passed a satisfactory examination based on the contents of "The Ship's Medicine Chest and First Aid at Sea," or other manual arranged for the purpose and having the approval of the United States Public Health Service.

(b) Written application. (1) The Officers in Charge, Marine Inspection, shall require all applicants for original licenses to make written applications upon Coast Guard Form CG 866.

(2) This application shall be submitted in duplicate. The applicant shall also furnish two unmounted, dull finish photographs, 2 inches by 1½ inches, of passport type taken within 1 year of the date of application. Photographs shall show the full face, at least 1 inch in height, with the head uncovered, and shall be a satisfactory likeness of the applicant. The issuing officer shall affix a photograph to each of the applications and impress his official seal partly over the photograph, after the applicant has in his presence signed the applications.

(3) The applicant shall place his left thumbprint on each of the applications.

(4) The applicant shall enter on the application form the number, class, and date of issuance of his currently valid Federal Communications Commission license.

(5) The applicant shall make and subscribe to an oath or affirmation, before the issuing officer, to the truth of all the statements set forth in his application. Any applicant who shall make or subscribe to any oath or affirmation on the application form and knowing the same to be false shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

(c) Evidence of employment. Applicants for licenses must present to the Officers in Charge, Marine Inspection, at the time of making application evidence that they are going to sea or expect to go to sea. This evidence shall be in the form of one of the following and shall be entered on the application form:

(1) A currently valid certificate of service as radio operator or merchant mariner's document indorsed as radio operator.

(2) One or more certificates of discharge showing service as radio operator on a merchant vessel. Evidence of service on United States Government vessels or foreign vessels is acceptable.

(3) An applicant for a license who has not served as radio operator aboard a vessel must present satisfactory proof that he has a commitment of employment as a radio operator on a United States merchant vessel. This proof shall be in the form of a letter and shall be signed by a responsible official of the vessel, agent, owner, operator, or organization concerned with manning vessels.

(d) Surrender of certificate of service. Upon the issuance of a license the certificate of service as radio operator or merchant mariner's document indorsed as radio operator held by the licensee shall be surrendered to the issuing officer.

§ 10.13-15 Physical examinations for original licenses. (a) All applicants for original licenses shall be required to pass physical examinations given by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service and present certificates executed by this Public Health Service Officer to the Officers in Charge, Marine Inspection. This certificate shall attest to the applicant's acuity of vision and general physical condition.

(b) Epilepsy, insanity, senility, acute venereal disease or neurosyphilis, badly impaired hearing, or other defect that would render the applicant incompetent to perform the ordinary duties of a radio officer at sea are causes for certification as incompetent.

(c) For original license the applicant must have, either with or without glasses, at least 20/30 vision in one eye and at least 20/50 in the other. The applicant who wears glasses, however, must also be able to pass a test without glasses of at least 20/50 in one eye and at least 20/70 in the other. Any applicant for original license who is possessed of monocular vision and who has served as a radio operator on merchant vessels of the United States while possessed of such vision may be issued a license if eligible in all other respects. Vision of at least 20/30 without glasses in the remaining eye shall be required in all such cases.

(d) Where an applicant is not possessed of the vision, hearing, and general physical condition considered necessary, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, after consultation with the Public Health Service physician, shall make a recommendation to the Commandant for an exception to these requirements if, in their opinion, extenuating circumstances warrant special consideration. Any request for a decision by the Commandant must be accompanied by all pertinent correspondence, records, and reports. Special consideration will be given to an applicant who has served satisfactorily at sea as a radio operator even though he is possessed of physical defects which would be cause for rejection of an applicant with no sea service. Recommendations from interested parties having knowledge of the applicant's qualifications will be given full consideration in arriving at a decision.

§ 10.13-17 Character check and references required for original licenses. (a) In those cases where an applicant for an original license has served at sea as a radio operator, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, shall require such applicant to have written indorsements of a master of a vessel on which he has served, together with those of two other licensed officers. Upon a showing that the written indorsements required above cannot be obtained without undue delay or hardship, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, may accept in lieu of these indorsements those from officials of the steamship company or other employers of the applicant. Letters of recommendation attesting to the applicant's character, etc., from former employers of the applicant may be accepted in lieu of the indorsements, but such letters must be filed with the application. Where no sea service has been obtained, the applicant shall have the written indorsements of three reputable persons to whom he is well-known.

(b) Fingerprint records of each applicant shall be made on Form CG 2515B. This record shall be submitted to the Commandant together with the application for license.

(c) Every application for an original license shall be approved by the Commandant. No license shall be issued or temporary permit granted pending the Commandant's authorization.

(d) (1) The application of any person may be rejected by the Commandant when derogatory information has been brought to his attention which indicates that the applicant's character and habits of life are such as to authorize the belief that he is not a suitable and safe person to be entrusted with the duties of radiotelegraph operator on any vessel.

(2) Applications will be rejected and the issuance of licenses refused to persons in the following categories:

(i) Those who have been convicted in the courts of offenses such as: Crimes of violence on shipboard and in certain instances ashore; sabotage; possession, use, or sale of narcotics; smuggling of aliens into the United States; malicious destruction of ship's property; serious cases of theft of ship's property or stores; and offenses of an infamous character.

(ii) Those who have been disapproved for service as radio operator aboard merchant vessels of the United States in time of war.

(iii) Those who have been issued a dishonorable discharge from any of the armed services of the United States.

(3) Where an application for a license is rejected by the Commandant under the provisions of this section, the application will be reconsidered upon written request of the applicant, provided he can produce additional evidence of satisfactory character and habits over a reasonable period of time immediately prior to the date of request for reconsideration. This evidence may consist of certificates showing satisfactory service in any of the armed forces of the United States; or letters from employers, from persons having direct and personal knowledge of the applicant, or from reputable institutions. The letters should indicate familiarity of the writer with the applicant, approximate dates of employment (if any), and other pertinent statements indicating the writer's belief about the applicant's character and habits.

(4) The fact that an applicant for an original license is on probation as a result of action under R. S. 4450, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 239, does not itself make such an applicant ineligible, provided he meets all the requirements for such original license. However, any original license issued under those circumstances will be subject to the same probationary conditions as were imposed against the seaman's certificates or licenses in proceedings under R. S. 4450, as amended. Any such applicant must file an application for license in the usual manner, and the offense for which he was placed on probation will be considered on the merits of the case in determining his fitness to hold the license applied for.

(5) Nothing in the regulations in this subpart shall be construed to permit the issuance of an original license during any period when a suspension without probation or a revocation imposed pursuant to R. S. 4450, as amended, is effective against any document held by him.

§ 10.13–21 General requirements for renewal of license—(a) Establishing eligibility. Applicants for renewals of licenses are charged with the duty of establishing to the satisfaction of the Coast Guard that they possess all of the qualifications necessary before they shall be issued a renewal of license.

(b) Application for renewal. The applicant for renewal shall appear in person before an Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, except where the applicant would be put to great inconvenience or expense to appear in person or is engaged in a service that necessitates his continuous absence from the United States. In such cases the license may be renewed by forwarding the following documents to the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, of the office which issued the license to be renewed:

(1) A letter of transmittal indicating reasons for not appearing in person and stating that to the best of his knowledge no physical incapacity exists.

(2) The oath of office on the form prescribed by the Coast Guard which has been duly executed before a person authorized to administer oaths.

(3) The license to be renewed.

(4) The currently valid license as first- or second-class radiotelegraph operator issued by the Federal Communications Commission. (This license will be sighted and returned to the applicant).

(c) Fitness. No license shall be renewed if title has been permanently relinquished or facts which would render a renewal improper have come to the attention of the Coast Guard.

(d) Period of grace. (1) Licenses shall be renewed within 12 months after the date of expiration as shown on the license held. During this 12-month period of grace, the license is not valid.

(2) No license shall be renewed more than 30 days in advance of the date of expiration thereof, unless there are extraordinary circumstances that justify a renewal beforehand, in which case the reasons therefor must appear in detail upon the records of the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, renewing the license.

(e) Surrender of expiring license. An applicant for renewal shall surrender his license which is being renewed upon issuance of the new license.

§ 10.13–23 Physical requirements for renewal. (a) In the event it is found that an applicant for renewal of license obviously suffers from some physical or mental infirmity to a degree that, in the opinion of the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, would render him incompetent to perform the ordinary duties of a radio officer at sea, the applicant shall be required to undergo an examination by a medical officer of the Public Health Service to determine his competency. If the applicant subsequently produces a certificate from the Public Health Service to the effect that his condition has improved to a satisfactory degree, or is normal, he shall be qualified in this respect.

(b) Nothing herein contained shall debar an applicant who has lost the sight of one eye since obtaining his original license from securing a renewal of his license, provided he is qualified in all other respects, and the vision in his one eye passes the test required for the better eye of an applicant possessed of both eyes.

(c) In exceptional cases where an applicant would be put to great inconvenience or expense to appear before a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, the physical examination or certification may be made by another reputable physician.

(d) Whenever an applicant shall apply for renewal of his license after 12 months after the date of its expiration, he shall be required to pass the physical examination required of an applicant for an original license.

§ 10.13–25 Issuance of duplicate license. (a) Whenever a person to whom a license has been issued loses his license, he shall report such loss to an Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, who shall issue a duplicate license after receiving from such person a properly executed affidavit giving satisfactory evidence of such loss, and a record of the license from the Marine Inspection Office where it was issued. Such license shall be issued as a duplicate by the addition of the following typewritten indorsement, "This license replaces License No. ------ issued at ------ on the above date," as well as the port and date of the duplicate issue.

(b) The duplicate license, issued for the unexpired term, shall have the same force and effect as the lost license.

(c) When a person reports the loss of his license, or when it is discovered that any license or license form has been stolen from a Marine Inspection Office or when such lost or stolen licenses are recovered, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, shall immediately report the loss, theft, or recovery to the Commandant giving a description of the license and all facts incident to its loss, theft, or recovery.

§ 10.13–27 Parting with or altering license. (a) If the holder of any license voluntarily parts with it or places it beyond his personal control by pledging or depositing it with any other person for any purpose, he may be proceeded against in accordance with the provisions of R. S. 4450, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 239, looking to a suspension or revocation of his license.

(b) The holder of any license issued pursuant to the regulations in this subpart who shall change, by addition, interpolation, or erasure of any kind any license shall be subject to all the penalties provided by law; and any license so changed is null and void and without force and effect.

§ 10.13–29 Suspension and revocation of licenses. (a) Licenses issued pursuant to the regulations in this subpart shall be subject to suspension or revocation on the same ground and in the same manner and with like procedure as is provided in the case of suspension or revocation of licenses under the provisions of R. S. 4450, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 239.

(b) Whenever a license is revoked such license expires with such revocation and any license subsequently granted to such person shall be considered in the light of an original license except as to number of issue.

(c) No person whose license has been suspended or revoked shall be issued another license except upon approval of the Commandant.

(d) When a license which is about to expire is suspended, the renewal of such license may be withheld until the expiration of the period of suspension.

(e) When the license issued by the Federal Communications Commission upon which the license issued pursuant to the regulations in this subpart is predicated is suspended or revoked, such suspension or revocation shall operate as a suspension or revocation of the license issued under the regulations in this subpart. No formal proceedings shall be required in such cases.

§ 10.13–33 Right of appeal. When ever any person directly interested in or affected by any decision or action of any Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, shall feel aggrieved by such decision or action with respect to the issuance of a license, he may appeal therefrom to the District Coast Guard Commander having jurisdiction. A like appeal shall be allowed from any decision or action of the District Coast Guard Commander to the Commandant, whose action shall be final. Such appeals shall be made in writing within 30 days after the date of decision or action appealed from. Pending the determination of the appeal, the decision of the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, shall remain in effect.

PART 12—CERTIFICATION OF SEAMEN

SUBPART 12.02 — GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR CERTIFICATION

Section 12.02–11 (d) is amended by adding a new subparagraph (3), reading as follows:

§ 12.02–11 General provisions respecting merchant mariner's documents.

(d) * * *

(3) A merchant mariner's document issued to a licensed radio officer will be indorsed as follows: "See License as Radio Officer." If a licensed radio officer qualifies as lifeboatman, the further indorsement, "Lifeboatman," will be placed on the merchant mariner's document. Qualifications for other ratings for which a radio officer is eligible may also be indorsed on the document. (R. S. 4405, 4417a, 4488, and 4551, as amended; Sec. 13, 38 Stat. 1169, as amended by sec. 1, 49 Stat. 1930, secs. 1, 2, 50 Stat. 199, sec. 1, 52 Stat. 753, 55 Stat. 579, 732, sec. 1, 49 Stat. 1544, sec. 7, 49 Stat. 1936, and sec. 5 (e), 55 Stat. 244, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 367, 375, 391a, 481, 643, 672, 672–1, 672–2, 672b, 689, 50 U. S. C. 1275; sec. 101, Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875 and Pub. Law 525, 80th Cong., 2d Sess.)

2. Section 12.02–13 is amended to read as follows:

§ 12.02–13 Citizenship requirements. (a) Any person making application for a continuous discharge book or a certificate of identification or a merchant mariner's document representing a certificate of identification and claiming to be a citizen of the United States shall present acceptable evidence of such citizenship at the time of making application. No original document shall be issued to any person claiming to be a citizen of the United States until such citizenship is established by acceptable evidence.

(b) Any person who has been issued a continuous discharge book or certificate of identification or merchant mariner's document showing question marks prior to the effective date of this section may at any time produce additional evidence of citizenship to a shipping commissioner or Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection. If the additional evidence produced satisfies the shipping commissioner or the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, to whom it is presented that the same is acceptable evidence of the citizenship of the person, such official may draw lines through the question marks and note the citizenship of the person in the space provided therefor, attesting the change, or reissue the certificate or document. Whenever such changes are made the official making the change shall immediately thereafter notify the Commandant.

(c) Acceptable evidence of citizenship is set forth in § 10.02–5 of this subchapter. (Secs. 5, 7, and 302, 49 Stat. 1935, 1936, 1992, 46 U. S. C. 672a, 689, 1132, and sec. 101, Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875)

3. Part 12 is amended by adding a new § 12.02–14, to follow § 12.02–13, reading as follows:

§ 12.02–14 Nationality of aliens. (a) Any alien making application for a continuous discharge book or certificate of identification or merchant mariner's document representing a certificate of identification shall present acceptable evidence of nationality at the time of making application. No original document shall be issued to any alien until nationality is established by acceptable evidence.

(b) Any document of an official character showing the country of which the alien is a citizen or subject may be accepted as acceptable evidence of an alien's nationality. The following are examples of such a document:

(1) Declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States made by the alien after 1929.

(2) A travel document in the nature of a passport issued by the government of the country of which the alien is a citizen or subject.

(3) A certificate issued by the consular representative of the country of which the alien is a citizen or subject.

(c) Should any doubt arise as to whether or not the document presented may be considered as acceptable evidence of the alien's nationality, the matter shall be referred to the Commandant for decision.

(d) (1) No documents shall be issued to any enemy alien. The term "enemy alien" shall include the following:

(i) All aliens of the age of 14 years or older who were or are citizens or subjects of Germany or Japan.

(ii) All aliens of the age of 14 years or older who at present are stateless but who at the time at which they became stateless were citizens or subjects of Germany or Japan.

(2) The term "enemy alien" shall not include the following:

(i) Former German or Japanese citizens or subjects who, before December 7, 1941, in the case of former Japanese citizens or subjects, and before December 8, 1941, in the case of former German citizens or subjects, became and are citizens or subjects of any nation other than Germany or Japan.

(ii) Austrians or Austrian-Hungarians (Austro-Hungarians) or Koreans who registered as such under the Alien Registration Act of 1940: Provided, That such persons have not at any time voluntarily become German or Japanese citizens or subjects.

(iii) All citizens or subjects of Italy, and all aliens who at present are stateless but who at the time at which they became stateless were citizens or subjects of Italy.

(iv) Aliens of enemy nationalities during their term of military service in the armed forces of the United States.

(3) Should any difficulties arise as to whether or not any person is an enemy alien, such case will be referred to the Commandant together with the date and place of birth and statements regarding the citizenship of the person whose status is in doubt. (Secs. 5, 7, and 302, 49 Stat. 1935, 1936, 1992, 46 U. S. C. 672a, 689, 1132, and sec. 101, Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875)

1. Section 37.6–4 Specifications for standard type block-cork life preserver and Figure 1 are deleted.

2. Section 37.6–5 Specifications for standard type balsa-wood life preserver is deleted.

3. Section 37.6–7 Factory inspection is deleted.

4. Section 37.7–1 Manufacturer's affidavit is deleted.

Subchapter F—Marine Engineering

PART 54—UNFIRED PRESSURE VESSELS

Section 54.01–40 is amended to read as follows:

§ 54.01–40 Tests—(a) New pressure vessels. Upon completion of a new pressure vessel one of the following applicable hydrostatic tests shall be made in the presence of an inspector:

(1) Riveted construction: 1½ times the maximum allowable pressure.

(2) Brazed construction: 2 times the maximum allowable pressure. (See § 56.05–10 of this subchapter.)

(3) Welded construction: 2 times the maximum allowable pressure. (See § 56.05–10 of this subchapter.)

(4) Cast construction: 2 times the maximum allowable pressure.

(b) Pressure vessels in service. (1) Pressure vessels which have manholes or access openings permitting internal examination are not required to be hydrostatically tested. Pressure vessels, other than tubular heat exchangers and those used in refrigeration service, which cannot be examined internally, shall be tested hydrostatically to 1¼ times the maximum allowable pressure biennially at the annual inspection.

(2) Tubular heat exchangers shall be examined under operating conditions at the annual inspection.

(3) Refrigeration units, gas condensers, receivers, evaporators, and direct expansion cooling coils shall be leak tested to their design pressure as indicated in Table 54.01–40 (b) (3). These tests shall be made every fourth year at the annual inspection.

TABLE 54.01–40 (b) (3)—REFRIGERATION LEAK TESTS

Refrigerant		Design pressure, (leak test—gas)
		High side p. s. i.	Low side p. s. i.
Ammonia	NH_3	300	150
Carbon Dioxide	CO_2	1,500	1,000
Freon-11	CCl_3F	40	40
Freon-12	CCl_2F_2	225	150
Freon-21	$CHCl_2F$	75	40
Freon-22	$CHClF_2$	375	225
Freon-113	$C_2Cl_3F_3$	50	50
Freon-114	$C_2Cl_2F_4$	80	45

(4) No gas tests shall be made aboard ship higher than the design pressure of the part of the system being tested. The refrigerant in the system may be used for this test. If the refrigerant has been removed, oil pumped dry nitrogen or bone dry carbon dioxide with a detectable amount of the refrigerant added, should be used as a testing medium. (Carbon dioxide should not be used to leak test an existing ammonia system.) In no case should air, oxygen, any flammable gas or any flammable mixture of gases be used for testing.

PART 55—PIPING SYSTEMS

SUBPART 55.07—DETAIL REQUIREMENTS

1. Section 55.07–1 (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 55.07–1 Material. • • •

(c) Lap-welded steel or iron pipe without diameter limitation may be used where the pressure does not exceed 350 pounds per square inch, or the temperature does not exceed 450° F. Furnace butt-welded steel or iron pipe without diameter limitation may be used where the pressure does not exceed 150 pounds per square inch, or the temperature does not exceed 450° F. Electric resistance-welded steel pipe may be used where the pressure does not exceed 350 pounds per square inch or the temperature does not exceed 650° F.

(R. S. 4405, 4417a, 4418, 4426, 4429–4434, 49 Stat. 1544, 54 Stat. 346, 1028, and sec. 5 (e), 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 367, 375, 391a, 392, 404, 407–412, 463a, 1333, 50 U. S. C. 1275; and sec. 101, Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875)

2. Section 55.07–15 is amended by changing the descriptions of Figures 55.07–15 (f12), 55.07–15 (f13), and 55.07–15 (f17) to read as follows:

§ 55.07–15 Joints and flange connections. • • •

Figure 55.07–15(f12). The flange of the type described and illustrated by Figure 55.07–15 (f11), except with the fillet weld omitted, may be used for class II piping for pressures not exceeding 150 pounds per square inch and temperatures not exceeding 450° F.

Figure 55.07–15 (f13). Flanges may be attached by expanding the pipe into the grooves machined in the hub of the flange and flaring the end of the pipe to an angle of not less than 20°. This type of flange is limited to a maximum pressure of 250 pounds per square inch at a temperature not exceeding 500° F. For class II piping and where the temperature does not exceed 450° F. it is not required that the ends of the pipe be flared.

• • • • •

Figure 55.07–15 (f17). The flange of the type described and illustrated by Figure 55.07–15 (f16), except with the brazing omitted, may be used for class II piping and where the temperature does not exceed 406° F.

PART 94—BOATS, RAFTS, BULKHEADS, AND LIFESAVING APPLIANCES

Section 94.52 Life preservers is amended by deleting paragraph (f) Specifications for standard type block-cork life preserver and Figure 1, paragraph (g) Specifications for standard type balsa-wood life preserver, paragraph (i) Factory inspection, and paragraph (k) Manufacturer's affidavit, and by redesignating paragraph (j) Shipboard inspections as paragraph (c).

Subchapter J—Rivers: General Rules and Regulations

PART 113—BOATS, RAFTS, BULKHEADS, AND LIFESAVING APPLIANCES

Section 113.44 Life preservers is amended by deleting paragraph (f) Specifications for standard type block-cork life preserver and Figure 1, paragraph (g) Specifications for standard type balsa-wood life preserver, paragraph (i) Factory inspection, and paragraph (k) Manufacturer's affidavit, and by redesignating paragraph (j) Shipboard inspections as paragraph (c).

Subchapter K—Seamen

PART 131—HOURS OF LABOR ON SHIPBOARD

Section 131.2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 131.2 Division into three watches. On vessels to which all of the provisions of section 2 of the Seamen's Act of 1915, as amended (49 Stat. 1933; 46 U. S. C. 673), apply, the licensed officers, sailors, coal passers, firemen, oilers, and water tenders shall, while at sea, be divided into at least 3 watches, the number in each watch to be as nearly equal as the division of the total number in each class will permit. The watches shall be kept on duty successively. The requirement for division into watches applies only to those classes of the crew specifically named in the aforesaid section 2: Provided, That in the case of radiotelegraph operators this requirement shall be applicable only when three or more radio officers are employed. (49 Stat. 1936, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 689, sec. 101, Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875, Pub. Law 525, 80th Cong., 2d Sess.)

Section 131.4 is amended by changing the first sentence to read as follows:

§ 131.4 Officers in Charge, Marine Inspection, to note three-watch system in fixing complement of licensed officers and crew; licensed officers and crew of tugs and the barges engaged in voyages of less than 600 miles. Officers in Charge, Marine Inspection, will note that the 3-watch system extends to all licensed officers and to the sailors, coal passers, firemen, oilers and water tenders of all vessels to which all of the provisions of section 2 of the Seamen's Act of 1915, as amended (49 Stat. 1933; 46 U. S. C. 673), apply and will be governed accordingly in fixing the complement of licensed officers and crew, as authorized by R. S. 4463, as amended (46 U. S. C. 222): Provided, That in the case of radio telegraph operators this requirement shall be applicable only when three or more radio officers are employed. • • •

(49 Stat. 1936, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 689, sec. 101, Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875, Pub. Law 525, 80th Cong., 2d Sess.)

Subchapter N—Explosives or Other Dangerous Articles or Substances, and Combustible Liquids on Board Vessels

PART 146—TRANSPORTATION OR STORAGE OF EXPLOSIVES OR OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES OR SUBSTANCES, AND COMBUSTIBLE LIQUIDS ON BOARD VESSELS

SUBPART—DETAILED REGULATIONS GOVERNING HAZARDOUS ARTICLES

Section 146.27–100 is amended by changing the description in column 1 under "burlap cloth (Hessian)" as follows:

§ 146.27–100 Table K—Classification: Hazardous Articles. • • •

Burlap cloth (Hessian):
Burlap bags, new.
Burlap bags, used and washed.
Burlap bags, vacuum cleaned, wheel cleaned, or otherwise mechanically brushed.	The originating bill of lading or other shipping paper covering used bags shall bear the shipper's certifying statement that the bags have been thoroughly washed or cleaned and all traces of the previous lading removed therefrom. Bags showing stains from oil, grease, or organic oxidizing materials shall not be shipped. Washed bags shall not be baled or shipped unless thoroughly dry.
Burlap bags, used and unwashed or uncleaned.

NOTE: See also "Bags, nitrate of soda, empty and unwashed" in the inflammable solids table.

Subchapter Q—Specifications

PART 160—LIFESAVING EQUIPMENT

SUBPART 160.002—LIFE PRESERVERS, KAPOK, ADULT AND CHILD (JACKET TYPE), MODELS 2, 3, 5 AND 6

1. Section 160.002–1 (a) is amended by changing subparagraph (4) and adding a new subparagraph (5), reading as follows:

§ 160.002–1 Applicable specifications and plans—(a) Specifications. • • •

(4) Coast Guard Specification. 164.003—Kapok, processed.

(5) Joint Army-Navy specification. JAN–C–496—Clips, End.

2. Section 160.002–3 is amended by changing paragraphs (a), (b), (f), (g), (h), and (i) to read as follows:

§ 160.002–3 Materials. • • •

(a) Kapok. The kapok shall comply with subpart 164.003 of this subchapter and shall be properly processed.

(b) Envelope. The life preserver envelope, or cover, shall be made of cotton drill without sizing, thread count approximately 74 x 60, having a minimum breaking strength of 100 pounds in the warp and 80 pounds in the filling when tested in accordance with Federal Specification CCC–T–191, and may be treated with a clear, uncolored, fire-resistive substance of an approved type. Cotton drills conforming to Navy Department Specification 27D1 (except as to color) or those meeting the requirements for Type A drill contained in Federal Specification CCC-D-651, are acceptable. The color shall be Indian Orange, Cable No. 70072, Standard Color Card of America, Ninth Edition, issued by the Textile Color Association of the United States, Inc., 200 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y. Samples of fabric conforming to this color requirement may be obtained upon request. The fastness of the color shall be rated "good" when tested in accordance with Federal Specification CCC–T–191, Section XIII, paragraph 2C, Test No. 2 for light, paragraph 4 for laundering, and paragraph 6 for water.

• • • • •

(f) Tie tapes and drawstrings. The tie tapes at the neck and the lower drawstrings shall be made of 1¼ inch cotton tape weighing not less than 0.3 ounce per linear yard, and having a minimum breaking strength of 200 pounds. The tie tapes and drawstrings shall not be treated with a fire-resistive substance.

(g) Body strap. The body strap shall be made of one-inch cotton webbing having a minimum breaking strength of 400 pounds. Types IIb, III, IV, V, or VI, 1" webbing meeting the requirements of U. S. Army Specifications 6–185, listed in § 160.002–1 are satisfactory.

(h) Dee rings and tip. The Dee rings and tip shall be made of brass or bronze. The Dee ring ends shall be welded together to form a complete ring. They shall be of the approximate size indicated by Dwg. No. F–49–6–1, Sheet 1, or by Dwg. No. F–49–6–5, Sheet 1, and the tip shall be a ball type end clip as described in Joint Army-Navy Specification JAN–C–496. When assembled, the complete body strap with Dee ring fastening arrangement shall have a breaking strength of not less than 360 pounds.

(i) Reinforcing tape. The reinforcing tape shall be made of ¾ inch cotton tape weighing not less than 0.18 ounce per linear yard and having a minimum breaking strength of 120 pounds. This cotton tape may be treated with an approved fire-resistive substance.

SUBPART 160.003—LIFE PRESERVERS, CORK (JACKET TYPE), MODELS 31 AND 35

Part 160 is amended by adding a new subpart 160.003 reading as follows:

Sec.

160.003–1	Applicable specifications and plans.
160.003–2	Types and models.
160.003–3	Materials.
160.003–4	Construction.
160.003–5	Inspections and tests.
160.003–6	Marking.
160.003–7	Procedure for approval.

AUTHORITY: §§ 160.003–1 to 160.003–7, issued under R. S. 4405, 4417a, 4426, 4482, 4488, 4491, 4492, section 11 35 Stat. 428, 49 Stat. 1544, 54 Stat. 163–167, 346, and section 5 (e), 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 367, 375, 391a, 396, 404, 475, 481, 489, 490, 526–526t, 1333, 50 U. S. C. 1275, and section 101, Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946, F. R. 7875.

§ 160.003–1 Applicable specifications and plans—(a) Specifications. The following specifications, of the issue in effect on the date life preservers are manufactured, form a part of this subpart:

(1) Navy Department specification.

27D1	Drill, cotton, fire and weather-resistant.

(2) Federal specifications.

V–T–276	Thread; cotton.
V–T–291	Thread; linen.
CCC–D–651	Drill, unbleached.
CCC–T–191	Textiles; general specifications; test methods.
DDD–S–751	Stitches; seams; and stitching.

(3) Coast Guard specification.

164.001	Cork, sheet.

(b) Plan. The following plan of the issue in effect on the date life preservers are manufactured, forms a part of this subpart:

Dwg. No. 160.003–1 (b) Cork and balsa wood life preserver (adult).

§ 160.003–2 Types and models. (a) Life preservers specified by this subpart shall be of the following types and models:

Type A—Adult: Model 31—Adult cork life preserver (jacket type).

Type B—Child: Model 35—Child cork life preserver (jacket type).

§ 160.003–3 Materials—(a) Cork. The cork blocks shall comply with subpart 164.001 of this subchapter. Cork blocks from life preservers may be re-used if in good condition and in compliance with subpart 164.001 of this subchapter.

(b) Envelope. The life preserver envelope, or cover, shall be made of cotton drill without sizing, thread count approximately 74 x 60, having a minimum breaking strength of 100 pounds in the warp and 80 pounds in the filling when tested in accordance with Federal Specification CCC–T–191, and may be treated with a clear, uncolored, fire-resistive substance of an approved type. Cotton drills conforming to Navy Department Specification 27D1 (except as to color) or those meeting the requirements for Type A drill contained in Federal Specification CCC–D–651, are acceptable. The color shall be Indian Orange, Cable No. 70072, Standard Color Card of America, Ninth Edition, issued by The Textile Color Association of the United States, Inc., 200 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y. Samples of fabric conforming to this color requirement may be obtained upon request. The fastness of the color shall be rated "good" when tested in accordance with Federal Specification CCC–T–191, section XIII, paragraph 2C, Test No. 2 for light, paragraph 4 for laundering, and paragraph 6 for water.

(c) Tie tapes and body straps. The tie tapes at the neck and the lower body straps shall be 1¼ inch cotton tape, weighing not less than 0.3 ounce per linear yard, and having a minimum breaking strength of 200 pounds. The tie tapes and body straps shall not be treated with a fire-resistive substance.

(d) Thread. The thread shall be No. 25, three-cord linen complying with Table I of Federal Specification V–T–291, or heavy cotton thread, Type IIIB, designation 10/4, complying with Table IV of Federal Specification V–T–276. Alternate threads will be given special consideration.

§ 160.003–4 Construction—(a) General. This specification covers life preservers which essentially consist of a vest-cut envelope containing pockets in which are enclosed blocks of buoyant material, the life preserver being secured with tapes to provide reversibility and adjustment for fitting it to the body. The type shall conform to Dwg. No. 160.003–1 (b). Child size life preservers are to be of the same general form and construction and conform in every respect, as regard material and design, to the adult size with the exception that the size is to be reduced approximately one-third.

(b) Envelope. The envelope shall be of not more than two pieces, one piece for either side, cut to the pattern shown on Dwg. No. 160.003–1 (b) for adult size, and joined by seams and stitching as shown on the drawing.

(c) Buoyant material — (1) Dimensions. The dimensions of the buoyant material for Type A, Adult size life preservers shall be as follows:

4 blocks—11" x 5" x 1⅞"
4 blocks— 6" x 5" x 1⅞"

(2) Forming. The corners and edges of the blocks shall be slightly rounded or beveled. The surface, edges, and corners of the buoyant material shall be of such smoothness as will prevent undue destruction of the covering and present a smooth surface to provide a suitable backing for legible stenciling or stamping on the cover of the required marking. If blocks are of more than one piece of buoyant material, the pieces shall be neatly fitted and secured together by waterproof glue or by dowel pins or skewers, or by a combination of waterproof glue and dowel pins or skewers.

(d) Tie tapes and body straps. The tie tapes at the neck and the two body straps (one body strap is located on each side of the life preserver) shall be secured by stitching through both thicknesses of the envelope as indicated by Dwg. 160.003–1 (b), and the free ends, which shall extend approximately 12 inches from the edges of the life preserver, shall be doubled over and stitched.

(e) Stitching. All machine stitching shall be short lock stitch, conforming to Stitch Type 301 of Federal Specification DDD–S–751, with not less than 7 nor more than 9 stitches to the inch. The lower longitudinal edge of the jacket shall be turned to a roll and rope stitched with double thread, not less than 2½ stitches to the inch, or it may be machine sewn.

(f) Workmanship. Life preservers shall be of first-class workmanship and shall be free from any defects materially affecting their appearance or serviceability.

§ 160.003–5 Inspections and tests—(a) General. An inspector shall examine all life preservers at the place of manufacture for compliance with this specification. Samples of materials entering into the construction may be taken at random by the inspector and tests made for compliance with the applicable requirements. After satisfying himself that the life preservers have been manufactured according to this specification, he shall select indiscriminately from each lot of 250 or less, at least one life preserver to be tested for buoyancy as specified by paragraph (b) of this section. If the specimen life preserver passes the buoyancy test, the lot shall be acceptable as to buoyancy. If the specimen life preserver fails the buoyancy test, ten additional specimen life preservers shall be selected at random from the lot and tested for buoyancy. If all the ten additional specimen life preservers pass the test, the lot shall be acceptable as to buoyancy. If any one of the ten additional specimen life preservers fails the buoyancy test, the lot shall be rejected. Rejected lots may be tested 100% by the manufacturer and all non-conforming units eliminated, whereupon the remainder of the lot may be re-submitted for official inspection. When any specimen life preserver shall fail the buoyancy test, ten specimen life preservers shall be selected at random and tested from the next succeeding lot submitted for official inspection. When the inspector has satisfied himself that the life preservers submitted for inspection are of a type officially approved in the name of the company, and that such life preservers meet the requirements of this specification, they shall be plainly marked in waterproof ink with the words, "Approved, U. S. Coast Guard, (Inspection date), (Inspector's initials), (Port)." The manufacturer shall provide a suitable place and the necessary apparatus for the use of the inspector in conducting tests at the place of manufacture.

(b) Buoyancy test. Place the life preserver in a weighted wire cage and submerge for forty-eight hours in a tank of fresh water so the top is approximately two inches below the surface. The weights shall be more than sufficient to submerge the cage with the enclosed life preserver. The buoyancy shall be determined to equal the weight of the weighted cage in the water less the weight of the cage in water while the life preserver is inside. The Type A Adult life preserver shall provide not less than 16½ pounds buoyancy, and the Type B Child life preserver shall provide not less than 11 pounds buoyancy.

§ 160.003–6 Marking—(a) General. Each life preserver shall be plainly marked in waterproof ink on a front compartment with the word, "Adult" or "Child" as the case may be, with the model number, the kind of buoyant material, the name and address of the manufacturer, and the official approval number assigned to the life preserver.

§ 160.003–7 Procedure for approval—(a) General. Life preservers are approved only by the Commandant, U. S. Coast Guard, Washington, D. C. Each model life preserver is considered separately. Correspondence pertaining to the subject matter of this specification shall be addressed to the Commander of the Coast Guard District in which the factory is located. The Commander of the district will detail a marine inspector to the factory to observe the production facilities and manufacturing methods and to select at random, from not less than ten life preservers already manufactured, not less than three life preservers for test in accordance with § 160.003–5 (b). A copy of the inspector's report, together with one specimen life preserver, will be forwarded to the Commandant for assignment of an official approval number.

SUBPART 160.004—LIFE PRESERVERS, BALSA WOOD (JACKET TYPE), MODELS 41 AND 45

Part 160 is amended by adding a new subpart 160.004 reading as follows:

Sec.
160.004–1 Applicable specifications and plans.
160.004–2 Types and models.
160.004–3 Materials.
160.004–4 Construction.
160.004–5 Inspections and tests.
160.004–6 Marking.
160.004–7 Procedure for approval.

AUTHORITY: §§ 160.004–1 to 160.004–7 issued under R. S. 4405, 4417a, 4426, 4482, 4488, 4491, 4492, section 11, 35 Stat. 428, 49 Stat. 1544, 54 Stat. 163–167, 346, and section 5 (e), 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 367, 375, 391a, 396, 404, 475, 481, 489, 490, 526–526t, 1333, 50 U. S. C. 1275, and section 101, Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875.

§ 160.004–1 Applicable specifications and plan—(a) Specifications. The following specifications, of the issue in effect on the date life preservers are manufactured, form a part of this subpart:

(1) Coast Guard Specifications.

160.003—Life preservers, cork (jacket type) models 31 and 35.
164.002—Balsa Wood.

(b) Plan. This shall be the same as § 160.003–1 (b).

§ 160.004–2 Types and models. (a) Life preservers specified by this subpart shall be of the following types and models:

Type A — Adult: Model 41 — Adult balsa wood life preserver (jacket type).

Type B — Child: Model 45 — Child balsa wood life preserver (jacket type).

§ 160.004–3 Materials — (a) Balsa wood. Balsa wood blocks shall be new wood complying with subpart 164.002 of this subchapter of a density to meet the requirements for "Density B". Re-use of balsa wood blocks from old life preservers or other devices is not permitted.

(b) Envelope. This shall be the same as § 160.003–3 (b).

(c) Tie tapes and body straps. This shall be the same as § 160.003–3 (c).

(d) Thread. This shall be the same as § 160.003–3 (d).

(e) Coating. Coating for the balsa wood blocks shall be a suitable waterproofing substance, such as "Hydrotuf", "Synthetic Plasoleum," "Balsa Wood Coating," or other substance of equal quality and effectiveness.

NOTE: "Hydrotuf", "Synthetic Plasoleum", and "Balsa Wood Coating" are trade names for waterproof substances for covering balsa wood, and are furnished by the Atlantic-Pacific Mfg. Corp., 124 Atlantic Ave., Brooklyn 2, N. Y.; Revertex Corp. of America, 3708 Northern Blvd., Long Island City, N. Y.; and Akron Paint & Varnish Co., Akron, Ohio; respectively.

§ 160.004–4 Construction—(a) General. This shall be the same as § 160.003–4 (a).

(b) Envelope. This shall be the same as § 160.003–4 (b).

(c) Buoyant material—(1) Dimensions.—This shall be the same as § 160.003–4 (c) (1).

(2) Forming. This shall be the same as § 160.003–4 (c) (2).

(3) Coating. The balsa wood blocks shall be given a copious coating with a waterproof coating material which is in accordance with § 160.004–3 (e), and be allowed to dry thoroughly before being inserted in the pockets of the envelope.

(d) Tie tapes and body straps. This shall be the same as § 160.003–4 (d).

(e) Stitching. This shall be the same as § 160.003–4 (e).

(f) Workmanship. This shall be the same as § 160.003–4 (f).

§ 160.004–5 Inspections and tests—(a) General. This shall be the same as § 160.003–5 (a).

(b) Buoyancy test. This shall be the same as § 160.003–5 (b).

§ 160.004–6 Marking — (a) General. This shall be the same as § 160.003–6 (a).

§ 160.004–7 Procedure for approval—(a) General. This shall be the same as § 160.003–7 (a).

PART 162—ENGINEERING EQUIPMENT

Part 162 is amended by adding a new subpart 162.015 reading as follows:

SUBPART 162.015—FLAME ARRESTERS, BACKFIRE (FOR CARBURETORS), FOR MERCHANT VESSELS AND MOTORBOATS

Sec.
162.015–1 Applicable specifications.
162.015–2 Type.
162.015–3 Materials, construction, and workmanship.
162.015–4 Inspections and testing.
162.015–5 Marking.
162.015–6 Procedure for approval.

AUTHORITY: §§ 162.015–1 to 162.015–6 issued under R. S. 4405, and 54 Stat. 163–167, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 526–526t, and section 101, Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946.

§ 162.015–1 Applicable specifications. (a) There are no other specifications applicable to this subpart.

§ 162.015–2 Type. (a) This specification covers the design and construction of backfire flame arresters of the type intended for installation on carburetor air intakes of internal combustion engines. The term "backfire flame arrester" means any device or assembly of a cellular, tubular, or baffle arrangement, or such other type as may be approved by the Commandant, which is suitable for arresting the propagation of backfire flame to the surrounding atmosphere through the air intakes.

§ 162.015–3 Materials, construction, and workmanship. (a) The device shall be of first class workmanship and shall be free from imperfections of manufacture which may affect its serviceability.

(b) The device or assembly shall be of substantial construction and shall be capable of withstanding internal pressures resulting from explosions without distortion or damage.

(c) The flame arrester housing and grid element shall be of such corrosion-resistant material as may be accepted by the Commandant.

(d) The design and construction of the flame arrester shall permit easy inspection and cleaning of the grid or arrester element.

(e) Non-metallic materials shall not be permitted in the construction of the backfire flame arrester.

(f) The arrester grid element shall be fitted on or in the arrester body in such a manner as to prevent the flame from by-passing the element. All joints in the flame arrester, which are subjected to explosive pressures, shall be of the metal-to-metal type. Gasketed joints will not be permitted.

(g) Arrester element shall be so designed as to permit minimum restriction to the flow of air through the intake.

(h) The flame arrester assembly shall be so constructed that its effectiveness will not be impaired by vibrations encountered under actual service conditions.

(i) Means shall be provided to securely fasten the device to the air intake by pipe threaded connection, clamp, or clamp screws, or by such means as may be accepted by the Commandant.

(j) The housing of the arrester shall be designed to withstand the internal pressures resulting from explosions without distortion or damage.

§ 162.015–4 Inspections and testing—(a) General. Backfire flame arresters for carburetors may be subject to inspection and tests at the plant of the manufacturer. The inspector may conduct such tests and examinations as may be necessary to determine compliance with this specification.

§ 162.015–5 Marking. (a) Each backfire flame arrester shall be permanently and legibly marked with the style, type, or other designation of the manufacturer, the size, and the name or registered trademark of the manufacturer.

§ 162.015–6 Procedure for approval—(a) General. Backfire flame arresters installed on carburetors of internal combustion engines shall be approved for such use on merchant vessels and motorboats only by the Commandant, U. S. Coast Guard, Washington 25, D. C. Correspondence pertaining to the subject matter of this specification shall be addressed to the Commander of the Coast Guard District in which the factory is located.

(b) Drawings and specifications. Manufacturers desiring approval of a new design or type of backfire flame arrester shall submit drawings in quadruplicate showing the design of the device, the sizes and material specifications of component parts, and the detail construction of the arrester element.

(c) Pre-approval tests. Before approval is granted, manufacturers may have tests conducted, or submit evidence that such tests have been conducted, and the backfire flame arrester has been found acceptable by the U. S. Navy, Underwriters' Laboratories, Factory Mutual Laboratories, or by a properly supervised and inspected test laboratory acceptable to the Commandant, relative to determining the vapor-air explosion resistance of representative samples of the device in the size for which approval is desired. The explosion resistance tests shall conclusively indicate that, (1) the device can withstand the maximum explosive pressures of vapor-air test mixtures, and (2) the device can resist the propagating effects of the vapor-air test mixture, without distortion or damage.

Dated: October 27, 1948.

[SEAL] J. F. FARLEY,
Admiral, U. S. Coast Guard,
Commandant.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[Rev. S. O. 776, Amdt. 5]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

CAR DEMURRAGE ON STATE BELT RAILROAD OF CALIFORNIA

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of October A. D. 1948.

Upon further consideration of Revised Service Order No. 776 (13 F. R. 2380), as amended (13 F. R. 2570, 2679, 3763, 5571), and good cause appearing therefor: It is ordered, that:

Section 95.776 Car demurrage on State Belt Railroad of California of Revised Service Order 776, as amended, be further amended by cancelling the exception to paragraph (a) (2) thereto originally established in Amendment No. 2.

Application. Demurrage charges provided in the original order shall apply on cars described in current official Railway Equipment Register under headings, Class G—Gondola Car Type, Class H—Hopper Car Type, and Class LO—Special Car Type on and after the effective date hereof.

It is further ordered, that this amendment shall become effective at 7:00 a. m., November 1, 1948, and shall vacate Amendment No. 2 on the effective date hereof; and a copy be served upon the California State Railroad Commission and upon the State Belt Railroad of California; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

(40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901; 49 U. S. C. 1 (10)–(17))

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

DEMURRAGE ON RAILROAD FREIGHT CARS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of October A. D. 1948.

Upon further consideration of Revised Service Order No. 775 (13 F. R. 2379) as amended (13 F. R. 2679, 3763, 5238, 5571), and good cause appearing therefor: It is ordered, that:

Section 95.775 Demurrage on railroad freight cars of Revised Service Order 775, as amended be further amended by cancelling the exception to paragraphs (a) and (b) thereof, originally established in Amendment No. 2.

Application. Demurrage charges provided in the original order shall apply on cars described in current official Railway Equipment Register under headings, Class G—Gondola Car Type, Class H—Hopper Car Type, and Class LO—Special Car Type on and after the effective date hereof.

It is further ordered, that this amendment shall become effective at 7:00 a. m., November 1, 1948, and shall vacate Amendment No. 2 on the effective date hereof; and a copy be served upon the State railroad regulatory bodies of each State, and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 930]

[Docket No. AO-72-A13]

HANDLING OF MILK IN TOLEDO, OHIO, MILK MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT, AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended (7 CFR, Supps. 900.1 et seq.; 12 F. R. 1159, 4904), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held at Rooms A, B and C, Y. M. C. A., 1110 Jefferson Avenue, Toledo, Ohio, beginning at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., November 4, 1948, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, milk marketing area (7 CFR, Supps. 930.0 et seq.; 12 F. R. 2067, 6945, 13 F. R. 2327, 4275). These proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the economic and emergency conditions which relate to the establishment of Class I and Class II prices for a limited period of time, in 1948 and 1949.

The following amendments have been proposed:

1. Amend § 930.5 (a) (1) and (2) to provide that the prices for Class I and Class II milk for a limited period in 1948 and 1949 but not beyond February, 1949, shall not be less than the prices in effect for such classes of milk in September, 1948.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the tentative marketing agreement, and the order, as amended, now in effect, may be procured from the Market Administrator, Room 19, Old Federal Building, Toledo, Ohio, or from the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 1844, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: October 27, 1948.

HANDLING OF MILK IN LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, MILK MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT, AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended (7 CFR, Supps. 900.1 et seq.; 12 F. R. 1159, 4904), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held at Seelback Hotel, Louisville, Kentucky, beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t., November 5, 1948, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Louisville, Kentucky, milk marketing area (7 CFR, Supps. 946.0 et seq.; 13 F. R. 5112). These proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the economic and emergency conditions which relate to the establishment of Class I and Class II prices for a limited period of time in 1948 and 1949.

The following amendment has been proposed:

1. Amend § 946.4 (b) (1) and (b) (2) by adding a proviso to provide that the prices for Class I and Class II milk for a limited period in 1948 and 1949, but not beyond March 1949, shall not be less than the prices in effect for such classes of milk in September 1948.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the tentative marketing agreement, and the order, as amended, now in effect, may be procured from the market administrator, 1235 Starks Building, Louisville, Kentucky, or from the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 1844, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

HANDLING OF MILK IN NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, MILK MARKETING AREA

[Docket No. AO 184-A2]

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended (7 CFR, Supps. 900.1 et seq.; 12 F. R. 1159, 4904), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in the County Court Room, 4th Floor, County Court House, Nashville, Tennessee, beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t., on November 4, 1948, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to a proposed amendment hereinafter set forth to the tentative marketing agreement, as heretofore approved (13 F. R. 5281) by the Secretary of Agriculture, and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Nashville, Tennessee, milk marketing area (13 F. R. 5526). This proposed amendment has not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

The following amendment has been proposed by Nashville Milk Producers, Inc:

Delete § 978.5 (b) (1) and substitute therefor the following:

(1) Class I milk. The price for Class I milk is the basic formula price plus $1.25: Provided, That for the months of October, November, and December, 1948, and January and February, 1949, the price for Class I milk shall not be less than $5.665.

(2) Class II milk. The price for Class II milk shall be the basic formula price plus 75 cents: Provided, That for the months of October, November, and December, 1948, and for the months of January and February, 1949, the price for Class II milk shall not be less than $5.165.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the tentative marketing agreement, and the order now in effect, may be procured from the market administrator, 402 Presbyterian Building, Nashville 3, Tennessee, or from the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 1844, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR, Part 3]

[Docket Nos. 8975, 8736, 9175]

TELEVISION AND FREQUENCY MODULATION BROADCASTING SERVICES

NOTICE OF ISSUANCE OF PROPAGATION STUDIES

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606 of the Commission's rules and regulations, Docket Nos. 8975 and 8736. In the matter of amendment of the Commission's rules, regulations and standards concerning the television and frequency modulation broadcasting services, Docket No. 9175.

I. In accordance with section IV (A) of the Commission's notice of further proposed rule making in the above-entitled matters, issued on October 15, 1948, notice is hereby given of the issuance of the following technical reports by the Commission:

(A) T. I. D. Report 2.4.5. "Summary of tropospheric propagation measurements and the development of empirical VHF propagation charts", October 20, 1948.

(B) T. I. D. Report 4.2.1. "The log-normal distribution", October 19, 1948.

(C) T. I. D. Report 2.4.4. "East Coast Tropospheric and sporadic "E" field intensity measurements on 47.1, 106.5 and 700 Mc.", September 24, 1948.

(D) T. I. D. Report 2.1.3. "Terrain effects evidenced by three sets of data in the very high frequency band." October 15, 1948.

II. The above reports are highly technical in nature and are somewhat voluminous. They have been reproduced in sufficient quantity to permit distribution to all interested persons and in particular to those who expect to participate in the engineering conferences scheduled tentatively for November 30, December 1, and December 2, 1948. Copies of these reports may be obtained at the Commission's Office of Information or by addressing a request therefor to the attention of the Commission's Technical Information Division, Washington, D. C.

III. The following summaries of the above reports have been prepared in order to apprise persons not requesting copies thereof of the significance of the reports in the present proceedings. The numbers in parentheses refer to the corresponding items in the Commission's notice of October 15, 1948.

(A) T. I. D. Report 2.4.5. (IV A 1). This report contains a tabulation of the results of 36 series of measurements of tropospheric fields, on frequencies between 40 and 700 megacycles, over distances between 33 and 337 miles and over periods from one month to about one year. These data are analyzed to develop empirical laws governing the range of variation of the fields and the absolute field intensities, as affected by transmitting antenna height, distance and frequency. Application of the laws permits the development of four families of tropospheric propagation curves at frequencies of 63, 82, 98, and 195 megacycles, from which it is possible to predict the intensities of tropospheric fields which will be exceeded for various percentages of time at various distances from the transmitter. Nominal transmitting and receiving antenna heights of 500 feet and 30 feet are used for these curves. The report also includes a study of the simultaneous fading of two signals over similar paths, from which it is concluded that the fading is random. This means, that from an interference standpoint, the variation of the desired signal from tropospheric effects cannot be relied upon to compensate even in part for an increase in the undesired signal from tropospheric effects. To the contrary, the variation of both the desired and the undesired signals contributes to the degradation of service. Reference is made in the report to a method of evaluating these effects, which is developed in the following report.

(B) T. I. D. Report 4.2.1. (IV A 2). As indicated above, this report comprises a study of the effects on service of the simultaneous fading of both the desired and the undesired signals. For cochannel interference, where the undesired field intensities vary much more than the desired, the use of groundwave (median) fields against percentage time tropospheric fields will give a closely approximate answer. For the adjacent channel case, where both the desired and undesired fields vary in comparable amounts, percentage fields should be used for both, if a nearly correct answer is to be had.

(C) T. I. D. Report 2.4.4. (IV A 3). This is a report on measurements made at Princeton, N. J., Southampton, Pa., and Laurel, Md., on frequencies of 47.1, 106.5, and 700 megacycles, radiated from transmitters in New York City. Results are given in terms of instantaneous time vs field intensity distributions, and in the diurnal and seasonal variations in field intensities. The results of the measurements described in this report are included in the tabulation referred to in T. I. D. Report 2.4.5.

(D) T. I. D. Report 2.1.3 (IV A 4). When this study was begun, it was supposed that terrain effects might be distinguishable into two general classes, gross effects and detailed effects. That is, it was supposed that measurements along a radial might show that various sectors of the radial would evidence individually an overall shadowing, while within a sector the terrain effect might appear as a random variation of field intensity, perhaps independently of the extent of the general shadowing. The analyses reported here, based on three coverage surveys, tend to support the supposition that the random variation within a sector is independent of the shadowing, and falls principally into two categories depending upon whether the relatively near terrain is smooth or rough. It has not been possible however, to arrive at any quantitative correlation between shadowing by gross features of the terrain and average signal levels in shadowed areas. The attack on this problem is being continued and an answer is hoped for in time for consideration at the first conference. As indicated during the Industry-Commission conference of September 13, 1948, in this proceeding, the problem of shadowing by gross features of terrain is not felt to be of great importance in the overall allocation plan, but may affect specific allocations, with some of which experience has been had to date.

IV. All interested parties are invited to submit written data, views or arguments with respect to the subject matter treated in the above reports on or before the date of commencement of said engineering conferences. An original and 14 copies of all written material filed shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: October 21, 1948.

Released: October 22, 1948.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Wage and Hour Division

EMPLOYMENT OF HANDICAPPED CLIENTS BY SHELTERED WORKSHOPS

NOTICE OF ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL CERTIFICATES

Notice is hereby given that special certificates authorizing the employment of handicapped clients at hourly wage rates lower than the minimum wage rates applicable under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and section 1 (b) of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act have been issued to the sheltered workshops hereinafter mentioned, under section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (sec. 14, 52 Stat. 1068; 29 U. S. C. 214) and Part 525 of the regulations issued thereunder (29 CFR, Cum. Supp., Part 525, amended 11 F. R. 9556), and under sections 4 and 6 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (secs. 4, 6, 49 Stat. 2038; 41 U. S. C. 38, 40) and Article 1102 of the regulations issued pursuant thereto (41 CFR, Cum. Supp., 201.1102).

The names and addresses of the sheltered workshops to which certificates were issued, wage rates, and the effective and expiration dates of the certificates are as follows:

Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S., care of Veterans' Hospital, Tuskegee, Alabama; at a wage rate of not less than the piece rate paid non-handicapped employees engaged in the same occupation in regular commercial industry maintaining approved labor standards, or not less than 10 cents per hour, whichever is higher, and a rate of not less than 10 cents for each new client during his initial 4-week evaluation period in the workshop; certificate is effective October 25, 1948, and expires October 15, 1949.

Goodwill Industries of Wilmington, Inc., 214–216 Walnut Street, Wilmington, Delaware; at a wage rate of not less than the piece rate paid non-handicapped employees engaged in the same occupation in regular commercial industry maintaining approved labor standards, or not less than 25 cents per hour, whichever is higher, and a rate of not less than 25 cents for each new client during his initial 4-week evaluation period in the workshop; certificate is effective November 1, 1948, and expires October 31, 1949.

Maryland League for Crippled Children, 827 St. Paul Street, Baltimore, Maryland; at a wage rate of not less than the piece rate paid non-handicapped employees engaged in the same occupation in regular commercial industry maintaining approved labor standards, or not less than 30 cents per hour, whichever is higher, and a rate of not less than 30 cents for each new client during his initial 4-week evaluation period in the workshop; certificate is effective November 1, 1948, and expires October 31, 1949.

The employment of handicapped clients in the above-mentioned sheltered workshops under these certificates is limited to the terms and conditions therein contained and is subject to the provisions of Part 525 of the regulations. These certificates have been issued on the applicants' representations that they are sheltered workshops as defined in the regulations and that special services are provided their handicapped clients. A sheltered workshop is defined as, "A charitable organization or institution conducted not for profit, but for the purpose of carrying out a recognized program of rehabilitation for individuals whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury, and to provide such individuals with remunerative employment or other occupational rehabilitating activity of an educational or therapeutic nature."

The certificates may be cancelled in the manner provided by the regulations. Any person aggrieved by the issuance of any of these certificates may seek a review or reconsideration thereof within fifteen days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 22d day of October 1948.

PUBLIC NOTICE CONCERNING PROPOSED ASSIGNMENT OF LICENSE [1]

The Commission hereby gives notice that on August 26, 1948 there was filed with it an application (BAPL-40) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act to the proposed assignment of license for station WBBZ, Ponca City, Oklahoma, from Adelaide Lillian Carrell to The Ponca City Publishing Company. The proposal to assign the license arises out of a contract of June 16, 1948 pursuant to which the assignor will transfer station facilities, properties and certain contracts for $115,000 payable as follows: $10,000 to be deposited in escrow, $24,000 in cash to be paid within 10 days after Commission consent to the assignment, and three notes to be delivered to the assignee, one note for $38,000 due one year after Commission consent, another note for $38,000 due one year later, and a third for $5,000 due three years after such Commission consent. Further information as to the arrangements may be found with the application and associated papers which are on file at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

Pursuant to § 1.321 which sets out the procedure to be followed in such cases including the requirement for public notice concerning the filing of the application, the Commission was advised by applicant on September 7, 1948 that starting on September 1, 1948 notice of the filing of the application would be inserted in The Ponca City News, a newspaper of general circulation at Ponca City, Oklahoma in conformity with the above section.

In accordance with the procedure set out in said section, no action will be had upon the application for a period of 60 days from September 1, 1948 within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above described contract.

BLUEGRASS BROADCASTING CO., INC.

PUBLIC NOTICE CONCERNING PROPOSED TRANSFER OF CONTROL [1]

The Commission hereby gives notice that on September 27, 1948, there was filed with it an application (BTC-688) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act to the proposed transfer of control of Bluegrass Broadcasting Company, Inc., licensee of station WVLK, Versailles, Kentucky, from the licensee's current stockholders to Scripps-Howard Radio, Inc. The proposal to transfer control arises out of a contract of September 13, 1948, pursuant to which the transferee will buy 1,000 shares (100%) of common stock and 380 shares (100%) of preferred stock of the licensee for $185.86 per share of common and $103 per share of preferred. The transferee also agrees to reimburse the licensee corporation for 50% of any net losses sustained by it during the period from September 13, 1948, to the date of consummation of the transfer: Provided, That the total amount of such reimbursement shall not exceed $25,000. The transferors warrant that the licensee will be free and clear of liabilities as of the closing date. The proposal to transfer control of the licensee is contingent upon Commission approval of a pending application to relocate station WVLK at Cincinnati, Ohio. Further information as to the arrangements may be found with the application and associated papers which are on file at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

Pursuant to § 1.321 which sets out the procedure to be followed in such cases including the requirement for public notice concerning the filing of the application, the Commission was advised by applicant on September 27, 1948, that starting on October 1, 1948, notice of the filing of the application would be inserted in the Lexington Leader, a newspaper of general circulation at Lexington, Kentucky, and in the Woodford Sun at Versailles, Kentucky, in conformity with the above section.

In accordance with the procedure set out in said section, no action will be had upon the application for a period of 60 days from October 1, 1948, within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions set forth in the above described contract.

WHAS, INC.

PUBLIC NOTICE CONCERNING THE PROPOSED TRANSFER OF CONTROL [1]

The Commission hereby gives notice that on October 11, 1948 there was filed with it an application (BTC-690) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act to the proposed transfer of control of WHAS, Inc., permittee and/or licensee of WHAS, WHAS-FM, WHAS-TV, W9XEK, W9XWT, WHAE, WAUV, WAUJ, WAIC, WALM, WALN and WFJJ from the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times Company to Crosley Broadcasting Corporation. The proposal to transfer control arises out a contract of September 27, 1948 pursuant to which Crosley Broadcasting Corporation agrees (1) to purchase all the common stock of WHAS, Inc., consisting of 1,500 shares, for the sum of $1,925,000, subject to certain credits and adjustments and (2) to guarantee compliance by WHAS, Inc., with a certain ten-year lease of portions of a building now under construction at Sixth and Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky, for rental of $75,000 per annum. Said purchase price to be paid as follows: $75,000 paid as a down payment upon execution of contract and the balance to be paid in cash upon transfer of said stock. Further information as to the arrangements may be found with the application and associated papers which are on file at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

Pursuant to § 1.321 which sets out the procedure to be followed in such cases including the requirement for public notice concerning the filing of the application, the Commission was advised by applicant on October 11, 1948 that starting on October 12, 1948 notice of the filing of the application would be inserted in the Courier-Journal a newspaper of general circulation at Louisville, Kentucky in conformity with the above section.

COUNCIL BLUFFS GAS CO. ET AL.

ORDER PROVIDING FOR OMISSION OF INTERMEDIATE PROCEDURE AND FIXING DATE FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

OCTOBER 25, 1948.

Council Bluffs Gas Company, Docket No. G-1107; Central Electric & Gas Company, Docket No. G-1041; Minnesota Valley Natural Gas Company, Docket No. G-1046; Minneapolis Gas Light Company, Docket No. G-1049; Hastings Gas Company, Docket No. G-1050; Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric Company v. Northern Natural Gas Company, Docket No. G-1101; in the matter of Northern Natural Gas Company, Docket No. G-1108.

It appears to the Commission that:

(a) A public hearing in the above-docketed proceedings was held in Omaha, Nebraska, before a Trial Examiner of the Commission during the period from September 28, 1948, to October 7, 1948.

(b) The issues presented at such hearing pertain to the establishment of an equitable, just and reasonable method of apportionment of additional volumes of natural gas which, from time to time, will become available as Northern Natural Gas Company ("Northern") makes additions to, and increases the capacity of, its pipeline system.

(c) On or about October 27, 1948, Northern, by reason of the installation of additional facilities will have increased its system capacity from 390,000 Mcf to 425,000 Mcf with a salable increase in deliverability from 372,060 Mcf to 398,877 Mcf. The method of apportionment approved or established by the Commission as a result of the above-docketed proceedings will be applicable to such increased deliverability.

(d) At the hearing there were presented in evidence four proposed plans for the "Apportionment of Limited Increases in Contract Demand." These plans may be referred to as the "March 3d Proposal"; the "June 9th Proposal"; the "Iowa-Illinois, or Straight-line Proposal"; and the "Combined Method."

(e) Subsequent to the conclusion of the hearing, Northern, by letter dated October 15, 1948, advised the Commission that it was on that day transmitting to each of its gas utility customers a general letter and a form of temporary supplemental contract by the terms of which Northern proposes to make "effective for the period from October 27, 1948, until the beginning of the first billing month following receipt of an order in Docket No. G–1108" an interim plan of allocation. Copies of Northern's letter to its gas utility customers, and its proposed temporary supplement to standard form of town border contract were enclosed with the letter to the Commission dated October 15, 1948.

(f) In the letter to its gas utility customers, dated October 15, 1948, Northern advised such customers that on or about October 27, 1948, Northern's system capacity would reach 425,000 Mcf per day, and to permit the use of the salable portion of this capacity on a firm basis, Northern was offering a temporary allocation of additional contract demand up to the volume shown in the so-called "June 9th Proposal," which has been received in evidence at the public hearing in the above-docketed proceedings. Northern further advised such gas utility customers as follows:

> In the event we do not receive your signed temporary contract or an expression of your desire for a lesser temporary Contract Demand to enable us to complete and send this Temporary Supplemental Contract to Federal Power Commission before October 27, 1948, we will assume that we are then at liberty to reallocate among the remaining Gas Utilities the amount of the temporary increase which has been offered and not accepted by you.

(g) Thereafter numerous protests were received by the Commission from Northern's gas utility customers, who had participated in the hearing in the above-docketed proceedings, concerning Northern's proposal to enter into contracts providing for an interim allocation of increased capacity which will become available on or about October 27, 1948. In such protests, it is alleged, among other things, that if the temporary allocation were to become effective, many new customers would be furnished service in cities where a later withdrawal of such allocation would create hardships and make it very difficult for the Commission to render a fair decision; that it would cause some utilities to pay a higher demand charge than the actual demand they might eventually receive; and that the interim plan would prejudice the rights of Northern's utility customers.

(h) On October 20, 1948, Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric Company, a complainant in the above-docketed proceedings, filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Iowa, Central Division, Action No. 409-Civil, a complaint for injunction, praying that "a temporary writ of injunction issue against the defendant, Northern Natural Gas Company, restraining said defendant from entering into or signing any contract as proposed by the letter of October 15, 1948, and restraining said defendant company from in any wise allocating the thirty-five million cubic feet per day of gas of its increased capacity on the basis of its proposal of June 9th of the letter of October 15th, and that the said defendant company be restrained from in any wise changing the present method of allocation existing between its customers throughout the States of Nebraska, South Dakota, Iowa and Minnesota until final decision of the Federal Power Commission as provided by Law." On the same day, October 20, 1948, a temporary restraining order was issued against Northern restraining the doing of the acts specified in the prayer of the complaint. The hearing before the District Court with respect to the application of Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric Company for a temporary injunction which had been set for October 23, 1948, was on that date continued to October 29, 1948, which is subsequent to the date upon which the increased capacity of Northern's system could be made available to ultimate consumers of natural gas by Northern's gas utility customers. Until such hearing is held the temporary restraining order is to remain in full force and effect.

(i) That until such time as a method or plan of apportionment of limited increases in Northern's system capacity is approved or prescribed by the Commission natural gas which could be made available to domestic consumers of natural gas, particularly for housecheating, will be resold by Northern's utility customers for industrial use under arrangements provided only for an interruptible supply.

(j) The Commission's Trial Examiner has fixed November 1, 1948 as the date for filing initial briefs in these proceedings, and November 10, 1948, as the date for filing reply briefs.

Wherefore, in view of the foregoing, the Commission finds that:

(1) The due and timely execution of its functions imperatively and unavoidably requires that the Commission omit the intermediate decision procedure and render the final decision in these proceedings.

(2) Good cause exists for providing opportunity for oral argument before the Commission and for advancing the date for the filing of reply briefs as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders that:

(A) The intermediate decision procedure in these proceedings be omitted in accordance with the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Oral argument be had before the Commission on November 5, 1948, at 10:00 a. m. (e. s. t.) in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

(C) The reply briefs, if any, be filed by the parties on or before the date fixed for oral argument herein.

Date of issuance: October 26, 1948.

SOUTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

OCTOBER 26, 1948.

Upon consideration of the application filed October 8, 1948, by Southern Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at Birmingham, Alabama, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as fully described in such application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection;

It appears to the Commission that: Applicant has requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure for non-contested proceedings, and that this proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of the aforesaid rule, provided no request to be heard, protest or petition raising an issue of substance is filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 20, 1948 (13 F. R. 6128).

The Commission, therefore, orders that:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on November 10, 1948, at 9:30 a. m. (e. s. t.), in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: October 26, 1948.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G-1147]

PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE CO.

ORDER INSTITUTING INVESTIGATION

OCTOBER 26, 1948.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company (Panhandle Eastern), a natural-gas company subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission, operates a natural-gas pipe line from the Panhandle, Texas, and Hugoton, Kansas, and Oklahoma fields into the State of Michigan. The pipe line indirectly serves a population of 6,000,000 people in 309 communities. The natural gas which it transports and sells in interstate commerce is partly produced by Panhandle and partly purchased.

(b) Panhandle Eastern has caused the formation of the Hugoton Production Company, to which it has transferred, in exchange for the Company's stock, approximately 97,000 acres in Grant and Stevens Counties, Kansas, in the Hugoton field. The natural gas reserves underlying such acreage have been estimated by Panhandle Eastern to be approximately 700 billion cubic feet. It is planned to distribute the stock of Hugoton Production Company to Panhandle Eastern stockholders as a dividend.

(c) Hugoton Production Company has entered into or is negotiating contracts for the sale of natural-gas produced from such acreage in Grant and Stevens Counties, Kansas, to a party or parties other than Panhandle Eastern.

(d) Panhandle Eastern in support of its numerous and several applications to this Commission for certificates of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, has represented to the Commission the continuing availability to it of certain natural-gas reserves, and the issuance of such certificates has been justified, in part, by such representations.

The Commission orders that: An investigation be and it hereby is instituted, pursuant to the provisions of section 14 of the Natural Gas Act, of the facts and circumstances involved in the formation and proposed operation of the Hugoton Production Company and the transfer to said company by Panhandle Eastern of the natural-gas reserves referred to above.

Date of issuance: October 26, 1948.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[No. 30081]

ALABAMA INTRASTATE EXPRESS RATES AND CHARGES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of October A. D. 1948.

It appearing, that a petition has been filed on behalf of Railway Express Agency, Incorporated, a common carrier of express, principally by railroad, operating to, from and between points in the State of Alabama, averring that in Ex Parte No. 163, "Increased Express Rates and Charges," 1946, 266 I. C. C. 369 and 269 I. C. C. 161, this Commission authorized certain increases in interstate express rates and charges throughout the United States, which were established December 13, 1946, and October 25, 1947, respectively, and by order dated December 16, 1947, in said proceeding, authorized the publication, subject to protest and possible suspension, of certain additional increases in interstate express rates and charges, which became effective January 22, 1948; and that the Public Service Commission of the State of Alabama has refused to authorize or permit said petitioner to apply to the transportation of express, moving intrastate by railroad in Alabama, increases in rates and charges corresponding to those approved for interstate application in the proceeding above cited:

It further appearing, that said petitioner alleges that the intrastate express rates and charges which it is required to maintain for the transportation of property as aforesaid, moving intrastate by railroad in Alabama as a result of such refusal by the Public Service Commission of the State of Alabama, cause undue and unreasonable advantage, preference, and prejudice as between persons and localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate commerce, on the other hand, and undue, unreasonable, and unjust discrimination, against interstate and foreign commerce;

And it further appearing, that the said petition brings in issue express rates and charges made or imposed by authority of the State of Alabama:

It is ordered, That in response to the said petition, an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted, and that a hearing be held therein for the purpose of receiving evidence from the respondent hereinafter designated and any other persons interested, to determine whether the express rates and charges of the Railway Express Agency, Incorporated, between points in Alabama made or imposed by authority of the State of Alabama cause undue or unreasonable advantage, preference, or prejudice between persons or localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate or foreign commerce, on the other hand, or any undue, unreasonable, or unjust discrimination against interstate or foreign commerce, and to determine what express rates and charges, if any, or what maximum or minimum or maximum and minimum express rates and charges shall be prescribed to remove the unlawful advantage, preference, or discrimination, if any, as may be found to exist.

It is further ordered, That the Railway Express Agency, Incorporated, be, and it is hereby, made respondent to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be served upon said respondent; and that the State of Alabama be notified of this proceeding by sending copies of this order and of said petition by registered mail to the Governor of the said State and to the Public Service Commission of the State of Alabama at Montgomery, Ala.

It is further ordered, That notice of this proceeding be given to the public by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, Washington, D. C.:

And it is further ordered, That this proceeding be, and the same is hereby, assigned for hearing December 6, 1948, 9:30 o'clock a. m., U. S. standard time, at the rooms of the Public Service Commission of the State of Alabama, Montgomery, Ala., before Examiner Chester E. Stiles.

MISSISSIPPI INTRASTATE EXPRESS RATES AND CHARGES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of October A. D. 1948.

It appearing, that a petition has been filed on behalf of Railway Express Agency, Incorporated, a common carrier of express, principally by railroad, operating to, from, and between points in the State of Mississippi, averring that in Ex Parte No. 163, "Increased Express Rates and Charges, 1946," 269 I. C. C. 161, this Commission authorized certain increases in interstate express rates and charges throughout the United States, which were established October 25, 1947, and by order dated December 16, 1947, in said proceeding, authorized the publication, subject to protest and possible suspension, of certain additional increases in interstate express rates and charges, which became effective January 22, 1948; and that the Mississippi Public Service Commission, by orders dated March 4, 1948, and June 3, 1948, respectively, has refused to authorize or permit said petitioner to apply to the transportation of express, moving intrastate by railroad in Mississippi, increases in rates and charges corresponding to those approved for interstate application in the proceeding above cited:

It further appearing, that said petitioner alleges that the intrastate express rates and charges which it is required to maintain for the transportation of property as aforesaid, moving intrastate by railroad in Mississippi as a result of such refusals by the Mississippi Public Service Commission, cause undue and unreasonable advantage, preference, and prejudice as between persons and localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate commerce, on the other hand, and undue, unreasonable, and unjust discrimination, against interstate and foreign commerce;

And it further appearing, that the said petition brings in issue express rates and charges made or imposed by authority of the State of Mississippi:

It is ordered, That in response to the said petition, an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted, and that a hearing be held therein for the purpose of receiving evidence from the respondent hereinafter designated and any other persons interested, to determine whether the express rates and charges of the Railway Express Agency, Incorporated, between points in Mississippi made or imposed by authority of the State of Mississippi cause undue or unreasonable advantage, preference, or prejudice as between persons or localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate or foreign commerce, on the other hand, or any undue, unreasonable, or unjust discrimination against interstate or foreign commerce, and to determine what express rates and charges, if any, or what maximum or minimum or maximum and minimum express rates and charges shall be prescribed to remove the unlawful advantage, preference, or discrimination, if any, as may be found to exist.

It is further ordered, That the Railway Express Agency, Incorporated, be, and it is hereby, made respondent to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be served upon said respondent; and that the State of Mississippi be notified of this proceeding by sending copies of this order and of said petition by registered mail to the Governor of the said State and to the Mississippi Public Service Commission at Jackson, Miss.

It is further ordered, That notice of this proceeding be given to the public by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, Washington, D. C.:

And it is further ordered, That this proceeding be, and the same is hereby, assigned for hearing December 9, 1948, 9:30 o'clock a. m., U. S. standard time, at the Robert E. Lee Hotel, Jackson, Miss., before Examiner Chester E. Stiles.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 7-1088]

PEPPERELL MANUFACTURING CO.

ORDER DETERMINING VALUE OF STOCK

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of October A. D. 1948.

The New York Curb Exchange has made application under Rule X-12F-2 (b) for a determination that the Capital Stock, Par Value $20.00, of Pepperell Manufacturing Company, a Massachusetts corporation, is substantially equivalent to the Capital Stock, Par Value $20.00, of Pepperell Manufacturing Company, a voluntary association organized under a Declaration of Trust executed in the State of Maine on March 15, 1915. The Capital Stock of this association has heretofore been admitted to unlisted trading privileges on the applicant exchange.

The Commission having duly considered the matter, and having due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors;

It is ordered, Pursuant to sections 12 (f) and 23 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12F-2 (b) thereunder, that the Capital Stock, Par Value $20.00, of Pepperell Manufacturing Company, a Massachusetts corporation, is hereby determined to be substantially equivalent to the Capital Stock, Par Value $20.00, of Pepperell Manufacturing Company, a voluntary association organized under Declaration of Trust, heretofore admitted to unlisted trading privileges on the applicant exchange.

By the Commission.

[File Nos. 54-66, 59-35, 59-61]

FEDERAL WATER AND GAS CORP. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING OF PLAN AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C. on the 22d day of October A. D. 1948.

In the matter of Federal Water and Gas Corporation and subsidiary companies, File No. 54-66; Federal Water and Gas Corporation and subsidiary companies, Respondents, File No. 59-61; New York Water Service Corporation, Federal Water and Gas Corporation, File No. 59-35.

I. Notice is hereby given that Federal Water and Gas Corporation ("Federal"), a registered holding company, filed a plan on October 11, 1948, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, proposing the distribution of certain of its assets to its security holders. The plan is stated to be in further compliance with the Commission's opinions and orders dated February 10, 1943, July 2, 1948, and July 27, 1948. In connection with this plan Federal requests this Commission to find that certain claims, as more fully described below, asserted by New York Water Service Corporation ("New York"), a former subsidiary of Federal, are not enforceable against Federal. All interested persons are referred to said plan, which is on file in the office of the Commission, for a full statement of the transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

Federal proposes to distribute to its stockholders of record on a date to be fixed by the Board of Directors .5 of a share of common stock of Federal's subsidiary, Scranton-Spring Brook Water Service Company ("Scranton"), for each share of Federal stock owned. Scrip will be issued in lieu of fractional shares of Scranton. Federal will deliver to The New York Trust Company, as agent in making said distribution, 483,213 shares of common stock of Scranton. Federal now owns a total of 794,054 shares of Scranton. The balance of such shares has been reserved by Federal to meet certain claims asserted by Chenery Corporation and associates ("Chenery et al.") as they may eventually be adjudicated and to discharge all other liabilities of Federal.

Holders of certificates of stock of Federal Water Service Corporation and Utility Operators Company (companies in the merger through which the present Federal Water and Gas Corporation was created), who were authorized, pursuant to the merger agreement dated October 31, 1941, to exchange their stock certificates for stock of Federal but have failed to present such certificates for exchange, will be entitled to participate in the said distribution upon exchanging said stock certificates for common stock of Federal before the record date. After the record date and until December 29, 1950, said stockholders of Federal Water Service Corporation and Utility Operators Company may participate in the distribution upon first surrendering their certificates to The New York Trust Company, as distributing agent, in exchange for certificates of common stock of Federal.

As soon as practicable after December 29, 1950, The New York Trust Company will sell at public or private sale any stock of Scranton which it shall not have theretofore delivered to stockholders and thereafter will hold the net proceeds of said sale, together with any dividends which may have been received by The New York Trust Company on such undistributed stock, for the benefit of the persons who had been entitled to such undistributed stock.

Scrip which will be issued in lieu of fractional shares, when combined with other scrip aggregating one or more full shares of Scranton's common stock, may be exchanged for full shares of Scranton at any time on or before December 29, 1950. Thereafter the holders of any scrip may receive their proportionate interest in the cash proceeds of sale of such stock and in any dividends that may have been received by The New York Trust Company upon such stock.

Federal requests that any order of the Commission approving the plan shall contain the provisions and recitals necessary or appropriate to entitle the stockholders of Federal to the benefits of Supplement R and section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code and section 270-c of the Tax Law of the State of New York.

The effectuation of the plan is dependent upon the satisfaction of the following conditions:

1. The Commission shall have found that the New York claims are not enforceable against Federal and shall have approved this plan of distribution as fair and equitable to the parties affected by the plan;

2. The Commission shall have instituted a proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and such court shall have entered a decree or order in the usual form enforcing the plan and directing the consummation of the transactions set forth in the plan;

3. In the event that proceedings to review such order of Court are taken, such order shall be finally affirmed on judicial review, or if no review proceedings are taken, the time for bringing such review proceedings shall have expired.

II. On May 27, 1948, New York, in connection with Federal's plan of liquidation then pending before the Commission, filed a petition with the Commission requesting that distribution of Federal's assets be deferred until New York had been given an opportunity to present evidence in support of certain claims in favor of New York against Federal based on asserted improper intercompany profits and charges made over a period of years beginning in 1926. Subsequently, Federal's plan was amended to provide for the payment of $313,190 to Chenery et al., and to leave Federal with assets deemed sufficient for the payment of the maximum claims of New York and Chenery et al., referred to previously, in the event of the successful prosecution of these claims. As amended, said plan was approved by the Commission on July 27, 1948, and (except for the proposed payments to Chenery et al., as to which jurisdiction was reserved) was enforced by the United States District Court for the District of Delaware by order dated August 19, 1948.

On August 25, 1948, Percival E. Jackson, John Vanneck, Vanneck & Company, and M. & C. Holding Corporation ("Jackson et al."), common stockholders of Federal, filed an answer to the petition of New York stating (1) that the claims of New York have never been reduced to judgment, (2) that the Commission has no jurisdiction to adjudicate the claims on their merits but should leave New York to its remedy, if any, in an appropriate Federal or State court, (3) that any such claims are barred by statutes of limitation and principles of laches since the Commission has heretofore denied Federal the right to participate in the reorganization of New York by according no recognition to the common stock of New York held by Federal, (4) that the alleged acts of which New York complains relate to times during which Federal was under the domination and control of C. T. Chenery, his personal holding company, Chenery Corporation, members of his family, and those associated with him, and (5) that in the event the Commission entertains jurisdiction and determines that the petition of New York constitutes a valid claim against Federal in favor of New York, Federal should have judgment-over in like amount against the Chenery interests.

On September 10, 1948, a committee formed to represent common stockholders of Federal filed an answer to New York's petition requesting the Commission, for reasons set forth in said answer, to apply the principles of res adjudicata, estoppel, statutes of limitation, and laches and filed a motion to dismiss and deny said petition and claims of New York.

On September 13, 1948, Federal filed an answer and cross-petition to the petition of New York alleging, among other things, that the claims of New York are barred by the principles of res adjudicata, estoppel, laches, and statutes of limitation. Federal further states that it is entitled to a summary order determining that New York has no causes of action against Federal, that New York is not entitled to participate in the distribution of the assets of Federal, and that further distribution of Federal's assets to its stockholders should be approved pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act. The plan of Federal, filed October 11, 1948, is designed to effect such a distribution and to secure a ruling that the New York claims are not enforceable.

On September 15, 1948, New York requested the Commission to (1) extend the time until November 30, 1948, in which to reply to the motion of Federal's Common Stockholders Committee, or, in the alternative, (2) deny the Committee's motion to dismiss without prejudice to a renewal thereof pending the filing by New York of its claim.

III. The Commission having considered the said plan of Federal filed on October 11, 1948, the petition asserting certain claims against Federal filed by New York, and the various answers, cross-petitions, and motions filed by Federal, Jackson et al., the Common Stockholders Committee of Federal, and New York, and it appearing that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held in this consolidated proceeding for the purposes hereinafter set forth: It is ordered, That:

1. A hearing shall be held, for the limited purposes hereinafter provided, on the 1st day of December 1948, at 10:00 a. m. e. s. t., at the offices of this Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 101 will advise as to the room in which such hearing shall be held;

2. The evidence to be adduced at such hearing shall be limited to matters bearing upon:

(a) The defenses raised in the answer of Jackson et al., the answer and motion of the Common Stockholders Committee of Federal, and the answer and cross-petition of Federal to the petition of New York filed May 27, 1948;

(b) Whether, in the event the Commission determines that New York is barred from asserting claims against Federal by application of any of the defenses raised, or otherwise, the Commission shall concurrently enter an order approving the plan of Federal filed on October 11, 1948, as being necessary to effectuate compliance with section 11 (b) and fair and equitable to the persons affected.

3. In the event the Commission determines that New York is not barred from asserting claims against Federal, the Commission will, by subsequent action, order the hearing to be reconvened for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the merits of any such claims.

Any persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in these proceedings and who have not previously been granted leave therefor should notify the Commission to that effect in the manner provided in Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice on or before November 24, 1948;

It is further ordered, That Allen MacCullen or any other officer or officers of this Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice;

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the matters contained herein by mailing forthwith a copy of this notice and order by registered mail to Federal, Jackson et al., the Common Stockholders Committee of Federal, and New York, or to their respective counsel of record herein, that Federal shall give notice of said hearing by mailing a copy of this notice and order to each of its common stockholders of record, at his last known address, at least fifteen days prior to the date of said hearing, that notice shall be given to all other persons by general release of this Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to persons on the mailing list for releases under the act, and that further notice shall be given to all persons by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

ELECTRIC BOND & SHARE CO. ET AL.

INTERIM ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of October A. D. 1948

In the matter of Electric Bond and Share Company, File No. 54-127; Electric Bond and Share Company and its subsidiary companies, respondents, File No. 59–3; Electric Bond and Share Company, American Power & Light Company, National Power & Light Company, Electric Power & Light Corporation, et al., respondents, File No. 59–12.

Electric Bond and Share Company ("Bond and Share"), a registered holding company, having filed an application-declaration proposing to sell to underwriters 350,000 shares of its holdings of the common stock of Carolina Power & Light Company ("Carolina") plus not in excess of 17,500 additional shares of such stock which Bond and Share may purchase in order to stabilize the market; and

Bond and Share in connection with its proposed stabilizing operations, having requested permission to acquire not more than 17,500 shares of the common stock of Carolina by purchases on the New York Stock Exchange at any time from the date of the Commission's order authorizing such purchases until the time of the execution of a purchase contract between Bond and Share and the underwriters, but in no event for a period in excess of fourteen days; such purchases to commence at a price (exclusive of commissions) not higher than the last preceding price of Carolina's common stock on such exchange; and

Bond and Share having requested that the Commission enter an interim order at this time relating solely to the proposed acquisition of not in excess of 17,500 shares of the common stock of Carolina as heretofore described for the purpose of stabilizing the market; and

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice on said application-declaration and the Commission having considered the record:

It is ordered, That pursuant to the applicable provisions of the act, the aforesaid application, solely in regard to the acquisition by Bond and Share of not in excess of 17,500 shares of the common stock of Carolina for the purpose of stabilizing the market, be, and the same hereby is granted, effective as of the opening of the New York Stock Exchange on Saturday, October 23, 1948, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C. on the 25th day of October 1948.

Pennsylvania Gas & Electric Corporation ("Penn Corp"), a registered holding company, and North Shore Gas Company ("North Shore"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Penn Corp, having filed a joint application-declaration pursuant to sections 9, 10, 12 (c) and 12 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the "act") and Rules U-42, U-44 and U-46 thereunder regarding (a) the proposed sale by North Shore to Haverhill Gas Light Company ("Haverhill"), a non-affiliated public utility company, of all of North Shore's properties and business, exclusive of cash, insurance contracts and claims for refund of taxes, for a base price of $145,000 subject to closing adjustments (b) the proposed use of $87,500 of the proceeds of the sale to retire all of North Shore's outstanding long-term debt consisting of a like principal amount of notes held by Penn Corp, (c) the proposed distribution by North Shore, after provision for other debts, of the balance of such proceeds and all additional cash in the company's treasury to Penn Corp as a liquidating dividend and (d) the proposed retirement of all of North Shore's capital stock, and thereafter, the dissolution of North Shore; and

It appearing from the filing that the expenses and legal fees in connection with the proposed transactions are estimated not to exceed $2,500; and

The said application-declaration having been filed on September 29, 1948, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said application-declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

Penn Corp and North Shore having requested that the effective date of the application-declaration be accelerated; and

The Commission finding with respect to said application-declaration, as amended, that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder are satisfied, that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that said application-declaration, as amended, be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 and to the further condition that North Shore, prior to the consummation of the proposed transactions, obtain from the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities an order authorizing those aspects of the proposed transactions which are within its jurisdiction.

By the Commission.

PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of October A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, by Pacific Power & Light Company ("Pacific"), an electric utility subsidiary of American Power & Light Company, a registered holding company subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share Company, also a registered holding company. The declarant has designated sections 6 (a) and 7 of the act as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any person may not later than November 4, 1948 at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest, and the issues of law or fact raised by said declaration which he desires to controvert or request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 4, 1948 said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

Pacific proposes to borrow $3,500,000 from Mellon National Bank & Trust Company of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and to use the proceeds to finance, in part, its present program for the construction of new facilities and for the expansion and improvement of its present facilities. It is stated in the declaration that the loans which mature on August 15, 1949 will be repaid from cash to be derived from permanent financing at a later date.

Under the proposed loan agreement Pacific would borrow $1,000,000 on November 15, 1948, $1,500,000 on January 15, 1949, and $1,000,000 on April 15, 1949. The loans would be evidenced by Pacific's unsecured promissory notes bearing interest at the rate of 2⅜% per annum. The loan agreement provides for the prepayment in amounts of $500,000 or a multiple thereof without premium or penalty. The loan agreement also provides for the payment of a commitment fee computed at the rate of ⅜ of 1% per annum on the unused amount of the commitment from the date when the loan agreement is permitted to become effective until the loans are made. The loan agreement further provides that the company may at any time surrender its right to borrow all or any part of the amounts to be loaned, the amount represented by such surrender to be $500,000 or any multiple thereof.

Pacific has requested that an order permitting the declaration to become effective issue as promptly as may be possible and that any such order become effective upon issuance.

By the Commission.

DELAWARE POWER & LIGHT CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF PROPOSALS FOR DISPOSITION OF ADJUSTMENTS RELATING TO GAS PLANT

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of October 1948.

Notice is hereby given that Delaware Power & Light Company ("Delaware"), a registered holding company and a public-utility company, has filed studies, and amendments thereto, relative to the original cost and reclassification of its gas plant accounts as at December 31, 1943, including proposals for the disposition of adjustments relating to gas plant, pursuant to Rule U-27 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

Notice is further given that any person may, not later than November 15, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said proposals intended to be controverted, or may request that he be notified should the Commission order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed as follows: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 15, 1948, the Commission may take such action as may be deemed appropriate with respect to the matters herein concerned.

All interested persons are referred to said studies which are on file in the offices of the Commission for a statement of the adjustments therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

In accordance with Plant Instruction 2–D of the Uniform System of Accounts recommended by the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners for gas companies (which system of accounts has been made applicable by Rule U-27), Delaware filed with this Commission its original cost and reclassification studies of its gas plant. Thereafter, the staff of the Commission filed its report in connection therewith, copies of which report were submitted to the company. Delaware has amended its studies so as to give effect to the recommendations contained in the Staff's report and now proposes to classify the amount of $64,402 in Account 107, Gas Plant Adjustments, and $1,520,243 in Account 100.5, Gas Plant Acquisition Adjustments.

Delaware proposes to dispose of the amount of $64,402 in Account 107, representing improper items remaining in plant account, by an immediate charge to Account 271, Earned Surplus.

Delaware further proposes that a reserve be created in Account 252, Reserve for Amortization of Gas Plant Acquisition Adjustments. The amount in such a reserve will ultimately equal the $1,520,243 in Account 100.5 and is proposed to be accumulated in the following manner:

(1) By an immediate credit of $440,243 to Account 252, Reserve for Amortization of Gas Plant Acquisition Adjustments, and a contra charge to Account 250, Reserve for Depreciation of Utility Plant, said amount representing the company's determination of previous accruals applicable to Gas Plant Acquisition Adjustments.

(2) By monthly charges of $6,000 or $72,000 annually, to Account 537, Miscellaneous Amortization, over a period of 15 years beginning on either January 1 or July 1, whichever date is nearer to the issuance of the Commission's order; Provided, however, The company may accelerate the amount of the amortization either by increased annual charges to Account 537 or by charges to Account 271, earned surplus.

By the Commission.

BANKERS SECURITIES CORP. AND ALBERT M. GREENFIELD & CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of October A. D. 1948

Notice is hereby given that Bankers Securities Corporation ("Bankers"), a registered investment company, 121 North Broad Corporation ("City Centre"), a real estate operating company, and Albert M. Greenfield & Co. ("Greenfield Company"), a real estate brokerage company, all of which are located at No. 1315 Walnut Street, Philadelphia 7, Pennsylvania, have jointly filed an application pursuant to section 6 (c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 17 (e) (1) of the act, the receipt by Greenfield Company of a real estate sales commission in connection with the sale by City Centre of certain real estate located at Nos. 117–121 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Bankers is a closed-end, non-diversified, management investment company and is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940. Bankers owns 1,315 shares of the 1,700 shares of the common stock of City Centre now issued and outstanding, constituting 77.3% of the issue, so that City Centre is a controlled person of Bankers within the meaning of section 2 (a) (9) of the act.

Greenfield Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Albert M. Greenfield & Co. Inc. located at No. 521 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York are duly licensed real estate brokers under the laws of the State in which they operate and are engaged in the real estate management and brokerage business. Greenfield Company is an affiliated person of Albert M. Greenfield, who in turn, is an affiliated person of Bankers.

On September 22, 1948, Greenfield Company and Albert M. Greenfield & Co., Inc. with the cooperation of Peter Miller, a non-affiliated real estate broker, negotiated an agreement for the sale by City Centre of the real estate referred to above for the sum of $1,150,000 payable $345,000 in cash and the balance to be secured by a Purchase Money Bond and Mortgage. For its services in negotiating the sale of the said real estate, City Centre has agreed to pay Greenfield Company a real estate commission of $57,500 being five per cent of the sale price. Of such commission, Greenfield Company has agreed to pay Peter Miller the sum of $13,000. The purchaser and Greenfield Company have entered into a management contract whereby Greenfield Company has agreed to operate, supervise and manage the real estate purchased for a period of three years and the purchaser has agreed to pay Greenfield Company a management fee of five per cent of the rentals collected each month.

The receipt by an affiliated person (Greenfield Company) of an affiliated person (Albert M. Greenfield) of a registered investment company (Bankers) of compensation for the sale of such property for a controlled company (City Centre) of such investment company (Bankers) is prohibited by section 17 (e) (1) of the act unless an exemption therefrom is granted by the Commission pursuant to section 6 (c) of the act.

All interested persons are referred to the said application which is on file at the Washington, D. C. office of this Commission for a more detailed statement of the matters of fact and law therein stated.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application may be issued by the Commission at any time after November 12, 1948 unless prior thereto a hearing on the application is ordered by the Commission as provided in Rule N–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act. Any interested person may, not later than November 10, 1948 at 5:30 p. m. eastern standard time, submit in writing to the Commission, his views or any additional fact bearing upon the application or the desirability of a hearing thereon or request the Commission, in writing, that a hearing be held thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., and should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert.

By the Commission.

is property within the United States owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, held on behalf of or on account of, or owing to, or which is evidence of ownership or control by, M. Elked, also known as Mitsu Fukutani Elked, Marie Margarete Elked and as Fukutani Mitsu, the aforesaid national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

and it is hereby determined:

3. That to the extent that the person named in subparagraph 1. hereof is not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country (Japan).

All determinations and all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, having been made and taken, and, it being deemed necessary in the national interest,

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order 9193, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on October 20, 1948.

For the Attorney General.

[SEAL] DAVID L. BAZELON,
Assistant Attorney General,
Director, Office of Alien Property.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The regular subject index covering the entire calendar year will not be published for 1948. Because of the number of documents reflecting editorial changes incident to the publication of the 1949 Edition of the Code of Federal Regulations, the last quarter of calendar 1948 will be separately indexed. Such separate treatment is considered advantageous to users primarily interested in substantive changes. The regular annual codification guide will be distributed with this quarterly subject index.

Subscribers are requested to retain the quarterly subject indexes for calendar 1948 for use in lieu of an annual index.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 2820

ARMISTICE DAY, 1948

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS November 11, 1948, marks the thirtieth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice which terminated hostilities between lawless aggressors on one side and defenders of freedom and peace on the other; and

WHEREAS less than a generation after the first World War the peace of the earth was shattered by the same aggressive forces, so that peace-loving men were once again compelled to defend themselves and their ideals by force of arms; and

WHEREAS it is fitting that on this anniversary we rededicate ourselves as unflagging and perpetual advocates of those principles for which we fought; and

WHEREAS the Congress passed a concurrent resolution on June 4, 1926 (44 Stat. 1962), calling for the observance of November 11 with appropriate ceremonies, in schools or churches, or other suitable places, and later provided in an act approved May 13, 1938 (52 Stat. 351), that this date should be celebrated and known as Armistice Day:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby call upon the people of the United States to observe November 11, 1948, as Armistice Day by renewing their devotion to the cause of enduring peace; and I direct that the flag of the United States be displayed on all Government buildings on that day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 28th day of October in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] forty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-third.

HARRY S. TRUMAN

By the President:

ROBERT A. LOVETT,
Acting Secretary of State.

Chapter I—Civil Service Commission

PART 6—EXCEPTIONS FROM THE COMPETITIVE SERVICE

LISTS OF POSITIONS EXCEPTED

Under authority of § 6.1 (a) and (d) of Executive Order No. 9830, and with the concurrence of the agencies concerned, § 6.4 (a) is amended as set out below. These amendments shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Section 6.4 (a) (1) (iv) is amended to read as follows:

§ 6.4 Lists of positions excepted from the competitive service—(a) Schedule A. * * *

(1) Entire Executive Civil Service. * * *

(iv) (a) NC/PD. Attorneys.

(b) NC/PD. Law clerk-trainee positions. Appointments under this subdivision shall be confined to graduates of recognized law schools or persons having equivalent experience and shall be for periods not to exceed nine months pending admission to the bar. No person shall be given more than one appointment under this subdivision.

2. Section 6.4 (a) (4) (xiv) is revoked. The exception formerly appearing under this subdivision has been transferred to § 6.4 (a) (46) (iv) as indicated below.

TITLE 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

PART 210—FORM AND CONTENT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934 AND INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Act of 1933, particularly sections 6, 7, 8, 10 and 19 (a) thereof, and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 12, 13, 15 (d) and 23 (a) thereof, the Securities and Exchange Commission hereby amends Part 210 (Regulation S-X) as follows:

1. Paragraph (a) of § 210.1-01 (Rule 1-01) of Article 1 is amended by deleting the reference to Forms A-2, and C-1 (17 CFR 239.2 and 239.3) which have been rescinded by the Commission and by including therein a reference to Form S-11 (17 CFR 239.18). As amended paragraph (a) of the section reads as follows:

§ 210.1-01 Application of this part. • • •

(a) Registration statements under the Securities Act of 1933, filed on Form S-1, S-2, S-3, S-4, S-5, S-6, or S-11 (17 CFR 239.11, 239.12, 239.13, 239.14, 239.15, 239.16, 239.18), except as otherwise specifically provided in such forms;

2. Article 4 is amended by adding a new section designated as § 210.4-14 (Rule 4-14).[1] The new section reads as follows:

§ 210.4-14 Special requirements as to commercial, industrial and mining companies in the promotional, exploratory or development stage subject to §§ 210.5a-01 to 210.5a-07. The financial statements required by §§ 210.5a-01 to 210.5a-07, shall not be prepared on a consolidated basis but shall, insofar as practicable, be prepared so as to show the information for the registrant and each of its subsidiaries in parallel columns.

3. Paragraph (a) of § 210.5-01 (Rule 5-01 of Article 5) is amended by adding a new subparagraph, designated (5)[2] as follows: • • •

(5) Commercial, industrial and mining companies in the promotional, exploratory or development stage (see §§ 210.5a-01 to 210.5a-07).

4. Section 210.12-06 (Rule 12-06 of Article 12) is amended by adding a new paragraph to the instructions set forth in footnote 2 to such section[3] to read as follows:

(c) Mining companies using §§ 210.5a-01 to 210.5a-07. Such mining companies shall include herein only depreciable mine plant and equipment at the dollar amounts required by the instructions set forth under Caption 13, property, plant, and equipment of §§ 210.5a-01 to 210.5a-07. A mining company falling into this category shall also, to the extent practicable, observe the other instructions set forth under this section.

5. Section 210.12-07 (Rule 12-07 of Article 12) is amended by adding a new

[1] The purpose of this section is to require commercial, industrial, and mining companies in the promotional, exploratory or development stage, having subsidiaries to show the financial information for the registrant and each of its subsidiaries in parallel columns.

[2] The purpose of this amendment is to prescribe §§ 210.5a-01 to 210.5a-07 (Article 5A) as the article governing the form and content of financial statements required to be filed by commercial, industrial, and mining companies in the promotional, exploratory or development stage.

[3] The purpose of the amendment is to make uniform the information required to be shown with respect to mine property, plant, and equipment in the Statement of Assets and Unrecovered Promotional, Exploratory, and Development Costs and in this section by certain mining companies using Form 10, Form 10-K or Form 1-MD.

paragraph to the instructions set forth in footnote 1 to this section,[4] as follows:

(c) Mining companies using §§ 210.5a–01 to 210.5a–07. Such mining companies shall include herein only the amount of the reserve for depreciation, depletion, and amortization of mine property, plant, and equipment and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs applicable to the amounts set forth in the schedule filed pursuant to § 210.12–06 (Rule 12–06) and § 210.12–06a (Rule 12–06A). A mining company falling into this category shall also, to the extent practicable, observe the other instructions set forth under this section.

6. Regulation S–X is amended by adding a new article, designated as Article 5A (§§ 210.5a–01 to 210.5a–07)[5] as follows:

COMMERCIAL, INDUSTRIAL AND MINING COMPANIES IN THE PROMOTIONAL, EXPLORATORY OR DEVELOPMENT STAGE

§ 210.5a–01 Application of §§ 210.5a–01 to 210.5a–07. Sections 210.5a–01 to 210.5a–07 shall be applicable to the financial statements filed as a part of:

(a) Registration statements on Form S–2, Form S–3 or Form S–11, except as otherwise specifically provided in such forms, under the Securities Act of 1933;

(b) Applications for registration and annual reports pursuant to sections 12, 13 and 15 (d) respectively of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 filed by commercial and industrial companies in the promotional or development stage which, if registering under the Securities Act of 1933, would be required to use Form S–2.

(c) Applications for registration and annual reports pursuant to sections 12, 13 and 15 (d) respectively of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 filed by mining companies not in the production stage[6] but engaged primarily in the exploration for or the development of mineral deposits other than oil, gas or coal, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The registrant has not been in production during the period of the report or the two years immediately prior thereto; except that being in production for an aggregate period of no more than eight months over the three-year period shall not affect the use of the form.

(2) Receipts from the sale of mineral products or from the operation of mineral producing properties by the registrant and its subsidiaries combined have not exceeded $500,000 in any of the most recent six fiscal years and have not aggregated more than $1,500,000 in the most recent six fiscal years.

§ 210.5a–02 Statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs. The statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs filed for persons to whom §§ 210.5a–01 to 210.5a–07 are applicable shall comply with the following provisions:

CURRENT ASSETS

1. Cash and cash items.

2. Marketable securities. Include only securities having a ready market. Securities of affiliates shall not be included here. State here the basis of determining the amount at which carried. The aggregate cost and aggregate amount on the basis of current market quotations shall be stated parenthetically or otherwise.

3. Accounts and notes receivable.

4. Reserve for doubtful accounts and notes receivable.

5. Inventories. State separately each major class of inventory and the basis of determining the amounts shown. Any classification that is reasonably informative may be used.

6. Amounts due from underwriters, promoters, directors, officers, employees, and principal holders of equity securities other than affiliates. State separately the total amount, if significant, due from each class of persons named in the caption to this paragraph. Exclude from the amounts set forth hereunder trade accounts subject to the usual trade terms.

7. Other current assets. (a) State separately (1) total of current amounts due from parents and subsidiaries; and (2) any other amounts in excess of five percent of total current assets, indicating when any such amount is due from affiliates other than parents and subsidiaries; (b) indebtedness of a parent or subsidiary, or an affiliate designated under paragraph (a) (2) shall not be considered current unless the net current asset position of such person justifies such treatment.

8. Total current assets.

OTHER ASSETS AND UNRECOVERED PROMOTIONAL, EXPLORATORY, AND DEVELOPMENT COSTS

9. Securities of affiliates.

10. Indebtedness of affiliates; not current.

11. Other security investments. In a note herein referred to state the basis of determining the amount. If available, state parenthetically or otherwise the aggregate amount on the basis of market quotations.

12. Amounts due (not current) from underwriters, promoters, directors, officers, employees, and principal holders of equity securities other than affiliates. The instruction to caption (6) shall apply here.

13. Property, plant, and equipment.[7] (a) Identify separately intangible property and property held under lease, option, and lease and option agreements. Identify items acquired from persons having a material relationship to the registrant. Extend only the total number of units of each class of securities, the amount of cash, and/or an indication of anything else, given by the registrant therefor. Except as stated in footnote (1), dollar amounts shall be extended only for cash transactions.

(b) In a note state as to property held under lease, option, or lease and option agreements or purchase contracts (1) the nature and amount of future payments to be made, (2) whether the property on default will revert to the seller, and (3) whether any assets constructed on or attached to the property will become the property of the seller on default.

13A. Mine property. Set forth hereunder property usually extinguished by depletion such as mines, mining claims, water rights, land for waste dumps, and similar property. The instructions set forth under caption 13, including footnote if applicable, shall also apply to this caption.

14. Unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development cost. Set forth under this caption unrecovered costs incurred in promotion, exploration and development.

State separately (a) development expenses, (b) plant and equipment maintenance expenses, (c) rehabilitation expenses, (d) general administrative expenses incurred in a period when there was little or no actual mining and (e) other expenses. Do not include securities selling costs under this caption but include them under captions (17) or (18). General administrative expenses incurred in connection with subcaptions (a), (b) and (c) should be included therein. Any other general administrative expenses not chargeable to those subcaptions nor written off as costs or other operating charges (including taxes, protection and conservation of property when inactive) shall be included under subcaption (d). Extend only the total number of units of each class of securities, the amount of cash and/or an indication of anything else, given by the registrant. Dollar amounts shall be extended only for cash transactions, including, when appropriate, depreciation, depletion, and amortization of assets extended at dollar amounts under captions 13 and 13A. The instructions set forth under caption 13, footnote (1) to caption 13 and caption 13A, if appropriate, should be applied also to any unrecovered promotion, exploratory, and development costs incurred by predecessors of the registrant.

15. Reserves for depreciation, depletion, and amortization of property, plant, and equipment and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs (or reserves in lieu thereof). Set forth hereunder only the amount of the reserve for depreciation, depletion, and amortization of property, plant, and equipment and unrecovered costs incurred in promotion, exploration, and development applicable to the dollar amounts extended under captions 13, 13A and 14 above.

16. Prepaid expenses and other deferred items. State separately any significant items not shown elsewhere. Prepayments of services to be received within one year may, however, be included under caption 7.

17. Debt discount and expense. State in a note referred to in the statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs the method used in amortizing such debt discount and expense.

[4] The purpose of the amendment is to make uniform the information with respect to depreciation, depletion, and amortization of mine property, plant, and equipment and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs, shown in the Statement of Assets and Unrecovered Promotional, Exploratory, and Development Costs and in this section by certain mining companies using Form 10, Form 10–K or Form 1–MD.

[5] The purpose of §§ 210.5a–01 to 210.5a–07 is to require commercial, industrial, and mining companies in the promotional, exploratory or development stage to prepare financial statements, except as otherwise specified in the applicable form, in accordance with the sections regarding form and content set forth therein.

[6] For the purpose of financial statements prepared pursuant to the instructions contained in this article a mine will be considered to have passed from a development to a production stage when the major portion of the mineral production is obtained from workings other than those opened for the purpose of exploration or development or when the principal activity of the mine becomes the production of developed ore rather than the development of additional ores for mining.

[7] Special instructions regarding this caption for mining companies using §§ 210.5a–01 to 210.5a–07. Include hereunder only depreciable mine plant and equipment. See caption 13A or the disposition of mine property subject to depletion. In those situations where depletable mine property and depreciable mine plant and equipment and other assets were acquired in one transaction in exchange for capital stock of the registrant or for cash, capital stock, or other securities of the registrant and any other consideration, the assets acquired such as accounts receivable, supplies, buildings, mining and mill equipment, which have a fixed or objectively determinable value should be valued on those bases. The dollar amounts assigned to these properties shall be extended.

18. Commissions and expense on capital shares. Explain in a note referred to in the statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs what provisions have been made for writing off these items.

19. Other assets. State separately any other item in excess of five percent of the amount of all assets other than fixed and intangible ones.

§ 210.5a–03 Statement of liabilities. The statement of liabilities filed for the persons to whom §§ 210.5a–01 to 210.5a–07 are applicable shall comply with the following provisions:

CURRENT LIABILITIES

1. Notes payable. State separately amounts payable (a) to banks; (b) for merchandise, materials, supplies, and expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business; and (c) to others.

2. Accounts payable. State separately amounts payable (a) for merchandise, materials, supplies, and expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business; and (b) to others.

3. Accrued liabilities. State separately (a) accrued payrolls; (b) tax liability; (c) interest; (d) rents and royalties; and (e) any other significant items. If the total under this caption is not significant it may be stated as one amount.

4. Amounts due to underwriters, promoters, directors, officers, employees, and principal holders of equity securities other than affiliates. State separately the total amount, if significant, due to each class of persons named in the caption to this paragraph. Exclude from the amounts set forth hereunder trade accounts subject to the usual trade terms.

5. Other current liabilities. State separately (a) dividends declared; (b) notes and mortgage instalments, mortgages due within one year, and payments on other long-term debt due within one year; (c) total of current amounts due to parents and subsidiaries; and (d) any other item in excess of five percent of total current liabilities indicating any such liability due to affiliates other than parents and subsidiaries. Remaining items may be shown in one amount.

6. Total current liabilities.

DEFERRED INCOME

7. Deferred income.

LONG TERM DEBT AND OTHER LIABILITIES

8. Bonds, notes, and other liabilities represented by securities. Show for each class (a) title of the class; (b) the amount authorized; (c) the amount issued; and (d) the amount reacquired and held in the treasury (show such amount as a deduction). As to issued securities, show separately in a note the amount issued for (1) cash, (2) property, and (3) services. The facts and amounts with respect to any defaults in principal, interest, sinking fund, or redemption provisions shall be stated.

9. Indebtedness to affiliates; not current.

10. Amounts due (not current) to underwriters, promoters, directors, officers, employees, and principal holders of equity securities other than affiliates. The instruction to caption 4 above shall apply here.

11. Other liabilities; not current. State separately any significant items. State whether accrued, and the interest rate if any.

12. Total liabilities.

§ 210.5a–04 Statement of capital shares. The statement of capital shares filed for the persons to whom §§ 210.5a–01 to 210.5a–07 are applicable shall comply with the following provisions:

(a) State for each class of capital shares the title and number of shares (1) authorized, (2) issued, (3) reacquired and held in the treasury, (4) outstanding, and (5) reserved for option, warrant, conversion, and other rights to acquire such shares.

(b) As to each class of issued shares state the number of shares issued for (1) cash, (2) services, and (3) property.

(c) If there are any shares subscribed for but unissued, state the number of shares of each class subscribed for, the subscription price, the total amount receivable thereon, and the approximate due dates. If payable otherwise than in cash, explain. If any unpaid amounts on such shares are past due, state the number of shares and amounts involved.

(d) If any shares are assessable, state the aggregate and per-share amounts of assessments levied. If any such assessments have not been paid, state the number of shares and amounts involved, indicating separately any amounts past due.

(e) If any shares have been issued subject to a liability for further calls, state the number of shares so issued and the aggregate and per-share amounts of such liability. State also the aggregate amount of any past due calls.

(f) If any shares have been forfeited for non-payment of assessments or calls thereon, state the number of shares involved and the present status of such shares.

(g) State the total amount of underwriting discounts and commissions incurred on sale of capital shares.

(h) As to any arrears in cumulative dividends, the amount per share and in total shall be stated.

(i) If preferred shares are callable, the date or dates and the amount per share and in total at which such shares are callable shall be stated. Preferences on involuntary liquidation, if other than par or stated value, shall be shown. A statement shall be made as to the existence, or absence, of any restrictions upon surplus growing out of the fact that upon involuntary liquidation the preference of the preferred shares exceeds its par or stated value.

§ 210.5a–05 Statement of other securities. If the persons to whom §§ 210.5a–01 to 210.5a–07 are applicable have any securities with respect to which information is not called for in the statement of liabilities or in the statement of capital shares, furnish as to such securities information corresponding to that required in those statements.

§ 210.5a–06 Statement of cash receipts and disbursements.[8] The statement of cash receipts and disbursements filed for persons to whom §§ 210.5a–01 to 210.5a–07 are applicable shall comply with the following provisions:

[8] If the registrant maintains its books on the accrual basis items of income and expense reported in the statement of cash receipts and disbursements may be presented on such basis, provided entries are introduced in the statement to reconcile the figures in total to the cash receipts and cash disbursements respectively.

§ 210.5a–07 What schedules are to be filed. The following schedules are required to be filed as a part of an application for registration on form 10 and as part of an annual report on forr. 10–K and on form 1–MD by companies to whom §§ 210.5a–01 to 210.5a–07 are applicable.

(a) The schedules specified below in this section as schedules I, II, and III shall be filed as of the date of the statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs and statement of liabilities filed for each person.

Such schedules shall be certified.

(b) The information required in schedules for the registrant and for its subsidiaries may be presented in the form of a single schedule, provided that items pertaining to the registrant and those pertaining to each subsidiary are separately shown and that such single schedule affords a properly summarized presentation of the facts.

(c) References to the schedules shall be made against the appropriate captions of the statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs.

(d) If the information required by any schedule (including the footnotes thereto) may be shown in the related statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs, without making such statement unclear or confusing, that procedure may be followed and the schedule omitted.

(e) If schedules, other than those specifically called for by paragraph (a) of this section, are required to make clear and not confusing certain material items appearing in the financial statements, the registrant may use the appropriate schedule set forth in §§ 210.12–01 to 210.12–34 to present the additional information required by § 210.3–06.

Schedule I. Property, plant, and equipment. The schedule prescribed by § 210.12–06 shall be filed in support of caption 13 and caption 13A of each statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs.

Schedule II. Unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs. The schedule prescribed by § 210.12–06a shall be filed in support of caption 14 of each statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs.

Schedule III. Reserves for depreciation, depletion, and amortization of property, plant, and equipment and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs (or reserves in lieu thereof). The schedule prescribed by § 210.12–07 shall be filed in support of caption 15 of each statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs.

7. Article 12 is amended by adding a new section, designated as § 210.12–06a (Rule 12–06A), Unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs.[9]

§ 210.12–06a Unrecovered cost incurred in the promotional, exploratory, and development stage.[10]

[For commercial, industrial, and mining companies specified in paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 210.5a–01 when filing applications for registration on form 10 and annual reports on form 10–K and form 1–MD, pursuant to the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934]

Column A	Column B	Column C	Column D	Column E
Classification [1]	Balance at beginning of period.[2]	Additions at cost [3]	Deductions [4]	Balance at close of period.[5]

[1] Show by major classifications under (1) development expenses, (2) plant and equipment maintenance expenses, (3) rehabilitation expenses, (4) general administrative expenses incurred in a period when there was little or no actual mining, and (5) other expenses. If unrecovered cost incurred in exploration and development work abandoned is carried at other than a nominal amount indicate, if practicable, the amount thereof and state the reason for such treatment. Items of minor importance may be included under a miscellaneous caption.

[2] The balance at the beginning of the period of report may be as per the accounts. If neither the total additions nor the total deductions during the period amount to more than 10 percent of the closing balance and a statement to that effect is made, the information required by columns B, C, and D may be omitted provided that the totals of columns C and D are given in a footnote and provided further that any information required by notes 4, 5, and 6 shall be given and may be in summary form.

[3] If the changes in unrecovered cost incurred in promotional, exploratory, and development work in column C represent anything other than additions from acquisitions, state clearly the nature of the changes and the other accounts affected. If acquired from an affiliate at other than cost to the affiliate, show such cost, provided the acquisition by the affiliate was within two years prior to the acquisition by the person for which the statement is filed.

[4] (a) Include in this column unrecovered cost incurred in development and exploratory work abandoned and written off. If such abandonments are stated at other than cash cost, explain if practicable.

(b) Include in this column proceeds from ore sales and other income if so credited on the books; state separately and describe.

(c) If provisions for amortization of unrecovered cost incurred in promotional, exploratory, and development work are credited in the books directly to such deferred expense accounts, the amounts shall be stated in column D with explanations, including the accounts to which charged.

[5] The balance at the close of the period for each major classification set forth in this schedule shall be subdivided and presented in three additional columns, if practicable, to show the amount of unrecovered cost incurred in promotional, exploratory, and development work accumulated and added during (a) the five years prior to the date of the related statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs, (b) the period of the sixth to fifteenth year inclusive prior to the date of the related statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs, and (c) the period from the inception of the registrant and its predecessors to the fifteenth year prior to the date of the related statement of assets and unrecovered promotional, exploratory, and development costs. If it is impracticable to subdivide the total of each major classification set forth in column E, the grand total of such column shall nevertheless be subdivided in the manner indicated in the immediately preceding sentence in which case the information may be furnished in a footnote to this schedule.

The foregoing action shall be effective October 29, 1948, except that financial statements filed as a part of any registration statement, application for registration or annual report, to which the foregoing action applies, filed with the Commission prior to December 31, 1948, may be prepared in accordance with the applicable requirements as in effect immediately prior to October 29, 1948.

PART 249—FORMS PRESCRIBED UNDER THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 12, 13, 15 (d) and 23 (a) thereof, the Securities and Exchange Commission hereby amends the Instruction Book for Form 10 (17 CFR 249.210) and Form 10K (17 CFR 249.310) as follows:

[9] The purpose of this section is to require the classification and aging of these unrecovered costs which were paid for in cash or which are to be paid for in cash.

[10] Include in this schedule only unrecovered cost incurred in promotional, exploratory, and development work paid for in cash, or to be paid for in cash, and, when appropriate, depreciation, depletion, and amortization of assets extended at dollar amounts under captions 13 and 13A of § 210.5a–02.

1. The Instruction Book for Form 10 is amended by adding at the end of the instructions to Item 36, Financial Statements, the following additional paragraphs:

Item 36. Financial statements. • • •

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the registrant falls within the terms of paragraph (b) or (c) of § 210.5a–01 (Rule 5A–01) of Regulation S–X (17 CFR, Part 210), the following statements and schedules, all of which shall be certified, shall be filed for the registrant and each of its significant subsidiaries, if any:

(a) The statements specified in §§ 210.5a–02, 210.5a–03, 210.5a–04, and 210.5a–05 (Rules 5A–02, 5A–03, 5A–04, and 5A–05) and the schedules specified in § 210.5a–07 (Rule 5A–07) shall be filed as of the end of the latest fiscal year, except that if such fiscal year has ended within 90 days prior to the date of filing the application with the exchange, such statements and schedules may be filed as of the end of the preceding fiscal year.

(b) The statement of cash receipts and disbursements specified in § 210.5a–06 (Rule 5A–06) shall be filed for each of the three fiscal years preceding the date of the statements and schedules required by paragraph (a).

(c) If the statements and schedules required by paragraph (a) are filed as of the end of the preceding fiscal year, corresponding statements and schedules as of the end of the latest fiscal year, and a statement of cash receipts and disbursements for such fiscal year, shall be filed as an amendment to the application within 120 days after the date of filing.

2. The Instruction Book for Form 10K (§ 249.310) is amended by adding at the end of the instructions to Item 8, Financial Statements, two new instructions reading as follows:

Item 8. Financial Statements. • • •

5. Registrants not in the production stage. Notwithstanding the foregoing instructions, if the registrant falls within the terms of paragraph (b) or (c) of § 210.5a–01 (Rule 5A–01) of Regulation S–X (17 CFR, Part 210), the following statements and schedules, all of which shall be certified, shall be filed for the registrant and each of its significant subsidiaries, if any:

(a) The statement specified in §§ 210.5a–02, 210.5a–03, 210.5a–04, and 210.5a–05 (Rules 5A–02, 5A–03, 5A–04, and 5A–05) and the schedules specified in § 210.5a–07 (Rule 5A–07) shall be filed as of the end of the fiscal year.

(b) The statement of cash receipts and disbursements specified in § 210.5a–06 (Rule 5A–06) shall be filed for the fiscal year.

6. Filing of other statements in certain cases. If, in any case, the statements herein required are inadequate or inappropriate, the Commission may, upon the informal written request of the registrant, permit the omission of one or more of the statements herein required and the filing in substitution therefor of appropriate statements of comparable character. The Commission may also by informal written notice require the filing of other statements in addition to, or in substitution for, the statements herein required in any case where such statements are necessary for a proper presentation of the financial condition of any person for which financial statements are required, or for which such statements are otherwise necessary for the protection of investors.

The foregoing action shall be effective October 29, 1948, except that financial statements filed as part of any registration statement, application for registration or annual report, to which the foregoing action applies, filed with the Commission prior to December 31, 1948, may be prepared in accordance with the applicable requirements as in effect immediately prior to October 29, 1948.

(Secs. 12, 13, 23 (a), 48 Stat. 892, 894, 901, sec. 15 (d), 49 Stat. 1379; 15 U. S. C. 78*l*, m, o, w)

By the Commission.

Chapter VI—Public Housing Administration

PART 601—CENTRAL OFFICE ORGANIZATION AND FINAL DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO CENTRAL OFFICE OFFICIALS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Section 601.1 (c) through (j), is amended as of September 22, 1948 to read as follows:

§ 601.1 Central Office organization and delegation of authority to Central Office officials. • • •

(c) Fiscal Division. The Fiscal Division is headed by a Comptroller who is delegated the powers set forth in subparagraphs (1) (i) (ii) and (iii) of this paragraph. These powers may also be exercised by the Deputy Comptroller.

(1) The Fiscal Division is composed of the Finance and Accounts Branch, the Audit Branch and the Budget and Fiscal Analysis Branch, each headed by a Director. The Director of the Finance and Accounts Branch, his Administrative Assistant, and the Chief of the Financing Section of that Branch are delegated the power:

(i) To approve banks proposed or selected by local authorities as depositaries or fiscal agents in compliance with the local authorities' contracts for loans and annual contributions, to approve fees payable to the fiscal agents and to approve the use of banks or depositaries for PHA directly-operated, leased, or conversion-management projects;

(ii) To accept the service of process pursuant to attachment or garnishment proceedings served upon the Public Housing Administration with regard to any debtor-employee, to execute all necessary and proper documents required in connection therewith and appear to testify for the PHA when so ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction and upon proper legal notice; and

(iii) To execute Requisition Agreements pursuant to the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended, and Public Law No. 671, approved June 28, 1940.

(iv) The powers delegated in subparagraphs (i) and (iii) of this paragraph may also be exercised by the Securities Examiner of the Finance and Accounts Branch.

(d) Administrative Division. The Administrative Division is headed by an Executive Officer who is delegated the powers set forth in subparagraphs (1) (i) (ii) (iii) and (iv) and (2) of this paragraph. The Administrative Division is composed of the Personnel and Planning Branch, the Office Services Branch, the Personal Property Branch, and the Document Control Branch, each headed by a Director.

(1) The Director of the Office Services Branch is responsible for procurement, control, and accountability, in connection with administrative (non-project) activities. The Director of the Personal Property Branch is responsible for the acquisition (except acquisition by the Office Services Branch), accountability, utilization, storekeeping, warehousing, and transportation of personal property, and for the disposition of all personal property. In carrying out their respective functions each of these Directors is delegated the power:

(i) To execute contracts for the purchase, leasing, and rental of equipment, supplies and space, and for the procurement of services other than personal services;

(ii) To execute contracts up to $100 for the temporary or intermittent employment of persons or organizations as experts or consultants; and

(iii) To order in (accordance with the provisions of General Accounting Office Gen. Reg. No. 109) the publication of advertisements.

(iv) The Director of the Personal Property Branch is delegated the power to dispose of personal property including the power to execute Certificates of Release (Standard Form 97) in connection with the disposal of motor vehicles.

(e) Attesting Officer. The Executive Officer is designated as the Attesting Officer for the Public Housing Administration in the Central Office. The Attesting Officer shall affix the official seal to such documents as may require its application, and is authorized to certify that copies of documents, leases, contracts and other papers duly approved, are identical with the originals on file in the Central Office. The Director, Office Services Branch, and the Administrative Assistant of the Legal Division are designated as alternate Attesting Officers in the Central Office and shall have the same duties, functions, and authority vested in the Attesting Officer.

(f) Acting Commissioner. Such person as the Commissioner shall designate from time to time to serve as Acting Commissioner during periods when he is absent from duty, is authorized to exercise all the powers, duties, and functions, while so acting, that are vested in the Commissioner.

(g) Acting officials. Such persons as are designated from time to time to serve in an acting capacity for any officials of PHA, as provided in Parts 601 or 602, during periods when such officials are absent from duty, are authorized to exercise all the powers, duties, and functions, while so acting, that are vested by these Parts in the officials for whom they act.

(h) Central Office address. The address of the Central Office is Public Housing Administration, Longfellow Building, Washington 25, D. C. (Sec. 3, 60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1002)

MINIMUM REDUCED ON COAL IN CERTAIN N. & W. CARS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of October A. D. 1948.

It appearing, that certain large capacity coal cars owned by the Norfolk and Western Railway Company are suitable for carrying coal only when they can be unloaded by a mechanical car dumper, and that such cars are not now being used; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency requiring immediate action exists in the section of the country shown below. It is ordered, that:

§ 95.786 Minimum on coal in highside N. & W. gondola cars. (a) The minimum weight on coal loaded in Norfolk and Western Railway flat bottom highside gondola cars of 180,000-pound capacity, series 100,000 to 101,749, at or near Gary, West Virginia, destined to Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation, Gary, Indiana, shall be 60 net tons.

(b) Application. The provisions of this order shall apply only to such carload shipments of coal billed on or after the effective date hereof.

(c) Tariff provisions suspended—announcement required. The operation of Rule I of Norfolk and Western Railway Company tariff I. C. C. 3214-B and supplements thereto and reissues thereof, insofar as it conflicts with the provisions of this order is hereby suspended and the Norfolk and Western Railway Company, or its agent, shall publish, file, and post a supplement to its tariff affected hereby, on not less than 5 days' notice announcing such suspension.

(d) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., November 16, 1948.

(e) Expiration date. This order shall expire at 11:59 p. m., May 31, 1949, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled by order of this Commission.

It is further ordered, that copies of this order and direction be served upon the Norfolk and Western Railway Company, and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 972]

HANDLING OF MILK IN THE TRI-STATE MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS THERETO WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO THE ORDER

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq.; 12 F. R. 1159, 4904), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed amendment to the order, as amended, and to the tentative marketing agreement, regulating the handling of milk in the Tri-State marketing area, to be effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

Interested parties may file exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1844, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 15th day after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Preliminary statement. A public hearing was called by the Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, on a proposal filed jointly by The Scioto County Cooperative Milk Producers Association, The Athens Milk Sales, Inc., The Marietta Cooperative Milk Producers Association, and The Huntington Interstate Milk Producers Association (hereinafter referred to as "the proponents"). The public hearing was held at Huntington, West Virginia, on May 12 and 13, 1948, pursuant to notice duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 1308, 1941, 2232).

The present order provides that the effective basic formula price, used for the computation of class prices, shall be the highest price resulting for the delivery period (calendar month) from three separate formulas: one based on the current market prices of butter and nonfat dry milk solids; the second on the current market prices of butter and cheese; and the third on the average of prices paid by 18 specified manufacturing plants.

The material issued presented on the record of the hearing and covered by this decision is whether the butter-cheese price and butter-nonfat dry milk solids price formulas, referred to above, should be replaced in the order with a new alternate price formula, the price produced by the new formula to be the effective basic formula price in any delivery period when such price is higher than the average pay-price of the 18 manufacturing plants.

The formula proposed provides for "adjustment" of the average condensery price for the current month by a factor designed to reflect changes from a base level in certain economic factors (prices of feeds, farm wages, the wholesale price level, retail store sales, and prices of alternate users of feed, such as beef cattle, hogs, sheep, and poultry) in relation to changes in the average price for condensery milk. The specific procedure for calculating the proposed formula price may be outlined in the following manner:

1. (a) Compute a weighted average price relative for Ohio dairy feeds by averaging the combined (weighted) monthly prices of the following feeds for the previous 60 months and dividing into the combined (weighted) prices for the current month, using the following weights: corn, 50 percent; oats, 20 percent; soybean meal, 15 percent; linseed meal, 5 percent; bran, 5 percent; and middlings, 5 percent.

(b) Compute a price relative for hay by averaging the prices per ton received by Ohio farmers for all hay for the previous 60 months and dividing into the price for the current month.

(c) Compute a wage rate relative by averaging Ohio farm wage rates for the previous 60 months and dividing into the wage rate for the current month.

(d) Combine the dairy feed, hay, and farm wage relatives into an index by multiplying the dairy feeds relative by 40, hay by 27, and wages by 33, and adding the three results.

2. Compute a price relative for each of the following livestock products by dividing the average price for the previous 60 months into the current month's price. Combine these relatives into an index of alternate feed uses by using the following weights: hogs, 44 percent; eggs, 20 percent; beef cattle, 20 percent, chickens, 10 percent; lambs, 3 percent, veal calves, 2 percent; and wool, 1 percent.

3. Compute an index of wholesale prices of all commodities, as reported for the United States by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, by averaging the indexes of the previous 60 months and dividing this average into the index of the current month.

4. Compute an index of retail store sales in Ohio by averaging the indexes of the previous 60 months, as quoted by the Bureau of Business Research of the Ohio State University, and dividing this average into the index for the current month.

5. Calculate a "composite index" by weighting the foregoing four indexes as follows: feed and labor costs, 40 percent; alternate feed uses, 10 percent; wholesale prices of all commodities, 25 percent, and retail store sales, 25 percent.

6. Calculate an index of prices paid producers for milk at the 18 specified milk manufacturing plants (same as referred to above) by dividing the current month's average price by the average of prices paid during the previous 60 months.

7. Obtain a "correlation factor" by dividing the "composite index" of the four economic factors for the current month by the index of prices paid producers at the 18 plants for the current month.

8. Compute a price (unadjusted for seasonality) by multiplying the current month's average price paid producers at the 18 plants by the "correlation factor" of the current month.

9. Compute the formula price for the current month by multiplying the unadjusted price (8 above) by a specified seasonal factor for the respective month (based on the seasonal patterns of periods 1925–29 and 1935–39).

In the establishment of a "base" period for the computation of the indexes previously mentioned, proponents have proposed the use of either a moving average for the corresponding months of the preceding 5 years (no seasonal adjustment required) or a moving average for the immediately preceding 60-month period. It appears from the record that the proponents favor the 60-month moving average plan of adjustment, outlined above, and therefore in the following paragraphs particular attention is given to the latter plan. The moving average adjustment based upon the corresponding months of the preceding 5 years also has received study and is commented upon at a later point in this decision.

Although mentioned in the testimony, the proponents stated that application of an index adjustment computed from a fixed base period (1935–39) is not considered desirable. No testimony was directed to it and for all practical purposes the plant was abandoned by the proponents. It is determined, therefore, that such plan of adjustment has not been submitted for consideration.

Findings and conclusion. The following findings and conclusion on the material issue decided herein are hereby made upon the basis of the record of the hearing:

The particular significance of the proposed formula is in the fact that it attempts to "correct" automatically the current level of condensery prices in line with the relative changes of (a) condensery prices and (b) the specified economic factors, from the average of the most recent 60-month period. This adjustment of the condensery price for the current month results in a price bearing the same relationship currently to the specified economic factors as existed, on the average, between condensery prices and these economic factors during such 60-month period. Emphasis was placed in the testimony on the concept that the maintenance of such relationship is essential to the satisfactory pricing of market milk in the Tri-State marketing area.

The stated objectives sought by the proponents in proposing the new formula may be indicated as follows:

(a) To bring about and to maintain an adequate supply of milk by keeping the market price for milk in "proper" relationship to wages paid workers, wholesale prices, and feed prices; to assure both producers and consumers that such a relationship of milk prices to the other specified economic factors will be maintained;

(b) To prevent price upsets and to eliminate the necessity of having public hearings on price changes as often as in the past;

(c) To insure handlers a method of predicting with reasonable accuracy the price they will be required to pay for milk in any given month; and

(d) To eliminate the influence of any "manipulation" of condensery prices in the determination of the price for market milk.

Much of the testimony offered in support of the proposed formula, including the statement of objectives, appears to assume that it would be used as the sole basis for the establishment of class prices. Although the proposal calls for its use as an alternate formula only, to be effective when its resulting price is higher than the current average payprice of the 18 specified manufacturing plants, the case presented suggests the pertinency of examining individual characteristics of the formula as well as giving consideration to its application as an alternate.

The first objective stated is to bring about and to maintain an adequate supply of milk by keeping the market price for milk in "proper" relationship to wages paid workers, wholesale prices, and feed prices. The theory advanced is that adequate milk supplies may be obtained for the indefinite future by keeping the "basic" price for market milk in the same relationship to the specified economic factors included in the formula as existed during the most recent 60-month period. The basis for this contention, however, is not revealed. The record discloses that use of the proposed formula as the determining base for milk prices from August 1945, the first delivery period under the order, to January 1947 would have returned to producers much less money than actually was paid to them, assuming use of the same class price differentials. On the other hand during this 17-month period, qualified producer milk supplies were insufficient under the prevailing price schedule to cover Class I and Class II milk uses in 13 months at Huntington District plants and in 12 months at other plants. Supplementary, or emergency, milk supplies were necessary during most of the 17-month period. Since the proposed formula would have brought less money to producers, it is difficult to conclude that maintenance of the basic formula price in the proposed relationship to wages, wholesale prices, and feed prices, during such period would have resulted in a price plan as well fitted to the objective of inducing the production of adequate milk supplies as the plan in effect during the period.

The prevention of price upsets was indicated as another important objective. In this connection it was contended that "sharp fluctuation in prices during certain periods have caused dissatisfaction among producers and handlers in the Ohio markets and some serious dislocation of supplies" and that a need had arisen "for resort to premiums by agreement between handlers and producers, the establishment of price floors and suspension of certain price provisions in orders." It may be inferred from this testimony that such price changes, and the related matters referred to, are considered by the proponents to be market problems. No evidence was submitted, however, to show that "sharp fluctuations" in prices are wholly undesirable for the Tri-State marketing area. Condensery prices vary seasonally and may vary markedly over the short-run period inversely from the general pattern of movement of the economic factors included in the proposed formula. Since the record discloses no testimony in support of minimizing the seasonal movement of milk prices in the market, it appears that the stability of prices sought is the prevention of short-run aberrations of prices contrary to the movement of the prices of feeds, farm wages, wholesale prices, retail store sales, and the prices of the competing users of feeds.

It would be difficult to conclude from the price data in the record that the proposed formula would aid significantly in achieving the latter objective. Similarly, the evidence does not show that sharp changes in price would be eliminated. The calculated price from the proposed formula shows an increase from the low to the high month in 1946 of $1.24 per hundredweight as compared with a low to high month increase in the condensery average of $1.182. In 1947 the low to high month increase was $1.20 per hundredweight for the calculated price and $1.169 for the condensery average. The only sharp decrease in condensery prices occurring since the original date of the order was a decrease from $4.54 per hundredweight in November 1946 to $2.97 per hundredweight in June 1947. Although the fluctuations resulting in increases were greater for the calculated price than for the condensery price average in both 1946 and 1947, the above-mentioned decrease in price occurring in early 1947 is the only price change referred to by the proponents as having been a "sharp fluctuation" in price. If this decrease in the condensery price is to be considered "sharp" or "abnormal" then the immediately preceding increase in such price from $2.91 in June 1946 to $4.54 in the following November, enjoyed by producers, must be considered as an offsetting factor. It may be noted that the condensery price level in June 1947 was within 6 cents per hundredweight of the level of June 1946 just prior to the rapid rise during the fall months of that year. Fluctuations occurring since June 1947 are shown by the record to have been relatively small and suggest an unusual situation in the latter part of 1946 and early 1947 brought about by postwar adjustment.

The record also lacks evidence to show any dislocation of supplies for the marketing area of the kind that the proposed formula conceivably might correct. It discloses, on the other hand, that premiums have not been resorted to between handlers and producers in the Tri-State marketing area during the life of the order to supplement the minimum prices established by regulation. Although price "floors" were placed in the order for a temporary period as a guarantee of certain minimum price levels, such action later proved unnecessary as the class prices resulting from the order formulas remained above the floor levels. No suspension orders affecting price were employed in this market during any of the period referred to in the testimony.

The objectives of developing a basic price formula which would tend to reduce the number of hearings necessary for the proper adjustment of market prices and which would assure handlers a method of predicting with reasonable accuracy the minimum prices required to be paid also were expressed. The evidence does not disclose, however, that the formula presented for consideration here warrants adoption as a means of meeting these objectives. Handlers could not know, of course, the price resulting from the proposed formula until the condensery price average for the current month became available since it is the latter price that would be subject to adjustment under the formula. The possibility that some hearings might be eliminated in the adjustment of market prices is not of itself a sufficient basis for adoption of the formula in light of the other important considerations.

The proposed formula was supported by the additional argument that it would eliminate the influence of manipulation in condensery prices in arriving at the price of market milk. On this point proponents contended that condensaries had manipulated the decline in price which took place between November 1946 and June 1947. Any effect of the proposed formula in eliminating actual price manipulation would at best only be minor in view of the fact that the proposed formula would employ as one of its principal components the same series of condensery prices that is alleged to have been subject to manipulation from time to time.

Proposed as an alternative to the average condensery price for the current month, the proposed formula requires further appraisal since it is based upon an entirely different concept of pricing from that on which the present alternative formulas (butter-cheese, butter-nonfat dry milk solids, and condensery price average) were adopted. The formulas currently operative as alternates to each other reflect, of course, changes in the value of milk for the three principal categories of manufacturing use. They reflect also basic changes in conditions affecting nationally the supply and demand for manufacturing milk promptly as they occur. It is appropriate to employ them in the alternative because milk may be diverted readily from one of these categories to another. The proposed formula, on the other hand, goes beyond the function assigned to the formulas now in effect by introducing adjustments which would establish a fixed relationship between the condensery price for the current month and certain economic factors (some of which are local cost factors) according to their relationship during a past period, and therefore constitutes a completely new and different pricing base.

The basic formula price is only one component of the Class I and Class II price. In computing appropriate Class I and Class II prices for the Tri-State marketing area under the present pricing plan, it is necessary to add to the basic formula price, resulting from the application of the above formulas, certain dollar and cent differentials in recognition of the extra costs of producing milk of market quality. The Class I and Class II price differentials were established originally, and have been increased from time to time, upon review in hearing of the price level of feeds, the available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions affecting the supply and demand for milk. Local factors or conditions affecting the production and marketing of milk of the required quality have been reflected in such differentials. Since the proposed formula would provide a different price base, it would not be appropriate to use the proposed formula in conjunction with the same class price differentials as are used in connection with the condensery price average. The use of the proposed formula as an alternative would place the specified class price differentials in the anomalous position of being used to reflect certain economic factors when used in conjunction with the condensery price for the current month as the basic formula price, but to reflect some other set of factors, or conditions, when used with the proposed formula. It may be noted that the record does not define the factors the class price differentials should reflect when used with the proposed formula price.

The actual effects of using the proposed formula as an alternate may be observed in terms of two main periods for which data are given in the evidence, the period from the original date of the order of January 1947 and the year 1947. The monthly average price of the 18 manufacturing plants has been the effective basic formula price under the order in nearly all months for the period the order has been in effect. Comparison of this price for such period with the proposed formula price shows that the "18 plant price" would have exceeded the proposed fomula price in all months until January 1947, with the exception of four months in the winter of 1945–46 when the latter would have been higher by 8.6, 2.1, 3.8, and 1.2 cents, respectively. In many months of this period, the 18-condensery price was substantially higher than the price computed under the proposed formula. It is clear that the relationship of milk prices to the other factors, stated to be essential, would not have been maintained during most of such period.

In 1947 the Class I and Class II prices, based on the effective class price differentials, would have averaged 76 cents per hundredweight higher than the level which prevailed. Although the relationship advocated would have been maintained during this period, the record does not reveal the propriety of a 76-cent per hundredweight increase in price. This result for 1947 appears to have been caused by the fact that it is mainly the war years on which the moving average was computed. Data in the record indicate that unusual relationships between the movement of condensery prices and the movement of the specified economic factors occurred during the latter period. The various types of regulatory controls in effect during the period obviously were in a large degree responsible for this situation.

It is observed also that under the proposed formula plan the unusual relationships which obtained during the wartime period would affect in varying degrees the establishment of market milk prices during a large portion of the next 60-month period. In view of the influence shown on 1947 prices and in the absence of a compelling reason for disregarding this circumstance, it is concluded that a base period involving the wartime period and affected by many artificial and widespread controls would not be a suitable period to use at the start of such a price plan.

If there is merit to the theory of maintaining a certain relationship between the basic formula price and the specified economic factors, such relationship should obtain whether the current condensery price is higher or lower than the price calculated from the formula. It appears inconsistent to argue on the one hand for an "adjusted" condensery price as the basic formula price and to argue further on the other hand that an "unadjusted" condensery price should be used in lieu thereof if the latter is higher. It seems pertinent to indicate in this connection that an adequate case made for the formula on individual merit would of necessity resist strongly its adoption as an alternate.

The relationship of the proposed formula to the pricing of Class III milk and to the two formulas it would replace should be mentioned briefly. The order provides that the price of Class III milk shall be the same as the basic formula price. Because of the importance of current competitive conditions in the determination of manufacturing milk prices, it is difficult to see how a price problem could be avoided if the price resulting from the proposed formula were used as the Class III price. It would be very unlikely that such price in any given month would either reflect closely the level of prices manufacturing plants in or near the Tri-State milkshed would pay for Class III (surplus) milk or provide handlers using surplus milk a price for such milk reasonably in line with the prices paid for milk by other manufacturers using milk in similar products. Producers could hardly be expected, on the other hand, to take substantially less than the prevailing condensary price for all their Class III milk. No attempt was made in the record to support a revision of present method of computing the Class III price.

The proposed formula has been offered as a substitute for the present formulas based on butter-nonfat dry milk solids prices and butter-cheese prices. The record, however, contains insufficient evidence to appraise the proposed formula in relation to the formulas it would replace. In view of the above considerations it is not sufficient to dismiss such two formulas on the ground that they seldom have produced prices higher than the monthly average condensery price.

The preliminary statement of this decision points out that the moving average adjustment based upon the corresponding months of the preceding 5 years has received study. Fundamentally, the differences between a moving average base computed on the corresponding months over a 5-year period and a 60-month moving average do not appear significant. The price levels produced by the two bases do not coincide, of course, and the 60-month moving average has the advantage of removing "lag" between the period used as a base and the current month in applying the formula. The considerations with respect to the 60-month moving average set forth in this decision apply in the main to the moving average adjustment based upon the corresponding months of the preceding 5 years.

Briefs were filed on behalf of both the proponents and the handlers who would be subject to the proposed marketing agreement and order. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered, along with the evidence in the record, in making the findings and reaching the conclusions hereinbefore set forth. To the extent that findings and conclusions proposed in the briefs are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the requests to make such findings or to reach such conclusions are denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions in this decision.

It is concluded, therefore, from the foregoing discussion of general considerations underlying the proposed formula, that such formula should not be adopted.

Filed at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of October 1948.

HANDLING OF HOPS GROWN IN OREGON, CALIFORNIA, WASHINGTON, AND IDAHO, AND OF HOP PRODUCTS PRODUCED THEREFROM IN THESE STATES

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601, et seq.; 61 Stat. 208, 707), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq.; 12 F. R. 1159, 4904), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed marketing order regulating the handling of hops grown in Oregon, California, Washington, and Idaho, and of hop products produced therefrom in these States. Such hearing will be held at Chamber of Commerce, 27½ North Third Street, Yakima, Washington, beginning at 9:30 a. m., P. s. t., November 29, 1948, at Chamber of Commerce, 147 North Liberty Street, Salem, Oregon, beginning 9:30 a. m., P. s. t., December 2, 1948; and at Native Sons Hall, Mendocino Avenue near Fifth Street, Santa Rosa, California, beginning at 9:30 a. m., P. s. t., December 6, 1948. The proposed marketing agreement and order have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

This public hearing will be held for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the economic and marketing conditions relating to the provisions of the proposed marketing agreement and order which is hereinafter set forth, and any appropriate modifications thereof. The United States Hop Growers Association, Mills Building, San Francisco, California, has proposed the following marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of hops grown in Oregon, California, Washington, and Idaho, and of hop products produced therefrom in those States and has requested a hearing thereon (the provisions identified with an asterisk (*) apply only to the proposed marketing agreement and not to the proposed marketing order):

§ 986.1 Definitions. As used herein, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any other officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is, or who may hereafter be, authorized to perform the duties of the Secretary under the act.

(b) "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 208, 707).

(c) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

(d) "Hops" means, except as otherwise specifically indicated herein, the pistillate cones, either in the green or the dried state, of the vine Humulus lupulus or Humulus americanus grown in the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho.

(e) "Hop product" means any substance which is (1) derived, either in whole or in part, from hops, including, but not limited to, any form of lupulin, lupulin sweepings, hop oil, or hop extracts or concentrates, and (2) capable of being used for a purpose for which hops are used.

(f) "Grower" is synonymous with "producer" and means any person who is engaged in the production of hops.

(g) "Dealer" means any person, other than a grower or producer, who handles hops or hop products for his or its own account.

(h) "Grower-dealer" means any grower, other than a brewer, who handles for his or its own account any hops or hop products other than those of his or its own production: Provided, That handling transactions pursuant to § 986.6 (f) shall not be within this definition.

(i) "Brewer" means any person who uses hops or any hop product in manufacturing any malt beverage for commercial purposes.

(j) "Handler" means any person who, either personally or through another person, handles hops or any hop product.

(k) "Handle" means (1) to market, ship, or transport (except as a common carrier) to or for market, or for use any hops or hop product, or (2) to purchase, take consignment of, accept delivery of (except as a common carrier) in connection with a purchase or sale or otherwise acquire, within the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho, hops or any hop product from a grower or any other person, except as provided in § 986.6 (f).

(l) "Consumptive demand" means that quantity of hops and hop products (expressed in terms of dried hops) which it is anticipated will be required in all trade outlets, both domestic and foreign, during the marketing season.

(m) "Marketing season" means the 12 months from August 1 to the following July 31, both dates inclusive.

(n) "Federal-State inspection service" means that inspection service on hops or hop products which is performed within the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho under a cooperative arrangement between the United States Department of Agriculture and any of such States pursuant to authority contained in any act of Congress.

§ 986.2 Control Board—(a) Establishment. A Control Board consisting of eighteen members, with an alternate member for each such member, is hereby established to administer the terms and provisions hereof, of whom, with their respective alternates, nine shall represent growers of hops, two shall represent grower-dealers, three shall represent dealers, and four shall represent brewers. The grower members of the Control Board shall be growers of hops who are not grower-dealers, of whom three shall be growers of hops in and residents of the States of Oregon or Idaho, three shall be growers of hops in and residents of the State of California, and three shall be growers of hops in and residents of the State of Washington. One of the grower-dealer members of the Control Board shall be a grower-dealer having his or its principal office in that regard in the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho, and the other grower-dealer member shall be a grower-dealer having his or its principal office in that regard outside of such States. Each of the four brewer members of the Control Board shall be a brewer. Each of the three dealer members of the Control Board shall be a dealer in hops. An officer, agent, or employee of a business unit other than an individual person shall be eligible for membership or alternate membership on the Control Board in the category in which such business unit belongs pursuant to the provisions hereof. No person shall be selected as a member or alternate member of the Control Board who is not actively engaged, as his principal business occupation, in the business of the group which he represents, and may be an officer, agent, or employee of a business unit engaged in such business.

(b) Designation of original members and alternates. The original members of the Control Board, and their respective alternates, shall be selected by the Secretary, subject to the requirements as to district representation, occupation, and residence which are set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, and shall serve for a term ending on March 31, 1950, except that, if the respective successor to such original member or alternate member has not been selected and qualified by March 31, 1950, such original member or alternate member shall serve until his respective successor has been selected and has qualified. For the consideration of the Secretary in making such selection, nominations for original members and alternate members of the Control Board may be submitted to him not later than the date on which this order is issued by the Secretary, but may be submitted prior thereto. Nominations for the original nine grower members and their alternates may be made by any grower, or by any association or other group of growers. Nominations for the original two grower-dealer members and their alternates may be made by any grower-dealer, or by any group of grower-dealers. Nominations for the original four brewer members and their alternates may be made by any brewer, or by any organization of brewers. Nominations for the original three dealer members and their alternates may be made by any dealer, or by any group of dealers. However, the Secretary, in making his selection of the original members and their alternates shall not be bound to make such selections from nominations thus received, but he shall make such selections in his discretion.

(c) Nomination and selection of successor members and alternates — (1) General. Members and alternates of the Control Board selected for terms commencing April 1, 1950, and thereafter, shall serve for terms of two years ending March 31 or until such time thereafter as their successors have been selected and have qualified. Selection of successor members of the Control Board and their alternates shall be made by the Secretary for each of the aforementioned groups from the nominations submitted for that purpose by the respective groups and/or from among other qualified persons. Such nominations for each respective group shall be made to the Secretary on or before March 1 of each election year in the manner hereinafter described.

(2) Grower members. Each of the growers Advisory Committees, established pursuant to § 986.4, shall nominate to the Secretary the names of three qualified persons as grower members, and three qualified persons as their alternates, from the State or States represented by the respective committee. The persons receiving in consecutive order the highest number of votes for members shall be the nominees for members of the respective committees, and a corresponding provision shall apply to nominees for alternate members.

(3) Grower-dealer member, Western. The grower-dealers whose principal offices are within the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho, shall nominate to the Secretary, by means of an election in which all (and only) such grower-dealers shall be entitled to participate on the basis of one vote for each full bale of hops (including hop products expressed in terms of dried hops) handled by the particular grower-dealer during the next preceding marketing season, one qualified person as the grower-dealer member, and one qualified person as his alternate.

(4) Grower-dealer member, Eastern. The grower-dealers whose principal offices are outside the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho, shall nominate to the Secretary, by means of an election in which all (and only) such grower-dealers shall be entitled to participate on the basis of one vote for each full bale of hops (including hop products expressed in terms of dried hops) handled by the particular grower-dealer during the next preceding marketing season, one qualified person as grower-dealer member, and one qualified person as his alternate.

(5) Dealer members. The dealers shall nominate to the Secretary by means of elections in which all (and only) dealers shall be entitled to participate on the basis of one vote for each full bale of hops (including hop products expressed in terms of dried hops) handled by the particular dealer during the next preceding marketing season, three qualified persons as dealer members and three qualified persons as their alternates. Nominations for one of such members and his alternate shall be made by each of the following categories of dealers: (i) Those handling less than 10,000 bales of hops (including hop products expressed in terms of dried hops) during the next preceding marketing season; (ii) those handling between 10,000 and 25,000 bales of hops (including hop products expressed in terms of dried hops) during the next preceding marketing season; and (iii) those handling over 25,000 bales of hops (including hop products expressed in terms of dried hops) during the next preceding marketing season.

(6) Brewer members. Of the four qualified persons to be nominated by the brewers for selection as brewer members of the Control Board, and their respective alternates, two of such nominations for members and their respective alternates may be made to the Secretary by The United States Brewers Foundation, Inc., whose present office address is 21 East Fortieth Street, New York, N. Y., and two such nominations for members, and their respective alternates, may be made by the Small Brewers' Committee, whose present office address is 188 West Randolph Street, Chicago, Ill. However, nominations may also be made by any individual brewer or by any other associations or groups of brewers.

(7) Elections of nominees for membership. Each election for the purpose of nominating grower, grower-dealer and dealer members or alternates of the Control Board to succeed those whose terms of office expire on March 31 of any year, shall be held on or before the preceding February 15, and shall be conducted and supervised by the Control Board. Regulations prescribing the method or methods for, and the rules governing the election of nominees as hereinbefore provided, and which shall assure to all persons eligible to take part in such elections reasonable opportunity to select candidates and to vote for nominees, shall be adopted by the Control Board and submitted to the Secretary on or before November 1, 1949; and such regulations as shall be approved by the Secretary shall govern each such election. Reports of the results of elections of nominees shall be submitted to the Secretary by the Control Board.

(8) Time limitation on nominations. In the event any of the group nominations are not submitted to the Secretary within twenty days after the time hereinbefore specified, the Secretary may select each such member or alternate without waiting for the nomination or nominations to be made.

(9) Qualifications of members and alternates. Each person selected as a member or alternate of the Control Board, including original members and alternates, shall promptly qualify by filing with the Secretary a written acceptance of the appointment. The failure of an appointee to qualify within twenty days after the appointment of such person shall be cause for the Secretary to appoint another person in his stead.

(10) Qualifications for alternates. Each alternate shall meet the same qualifications, be nominated and selected in the same manner, and hold office for the same term, as the member for whom he is alternate. An alternate for a member of the Control Board shall, in the event of that member's absence, act in the place and stead of that member; and, in the event of such member's removal, resignation, disqualification, or death, the alternate for such member shall act in the place and stead of said member until a successor for the unexpired term of said member has been selected.

(11) Substitutes for members or alternates. In the event any member of the Control Board and his alternate are both unable or fail to attend a meeting of the Control Board, any alternate for any other member of the same group as that represented by the absent member may be designated by the absent member to serve in the stead of the absent member; and in the event such other alternate cannot attend, or there is no such other alternate, then the absent member, or in the event of his disability or a vacancy, his alternate, may designate a temporary substitute to attend such meeting with the power to act in the place and stead of that member, or pending such designation the Secretary may designate such temporary substitute.

(d) Vacancies. To fill any vacancy which occurs by reason of the failure of any person, selected as a member of the Control Board or as an alternate member thereof, to qualify, or the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any qualified member or alternate member of the Control Board, a successor for his unexpired term of office shall be nominated and selected (insofar as is appropriate) in the manner herein specified, for the nomination and selection of successors to the initial members and alternate members of the Control Board representing the same industry group as was represented by the respective member or alternate member thus to be succeeded. In the event such nomination for vacancy is not made within twenty days after the beginning of the vacancy, the Secretary may select a person to fill such vacancy without waiting for the nomination to be made.

(e) Compensation. The members of the Control Board, and their respective alternates, shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties hereunder.

(f) Powers. The Control Board shall have the following powers:

(1) To administer the provisions hereof in accordance with their terms;

(2) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions hereof;

(3) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations hereof; and

(4) To recommend to the Secretary amendments hereto.

(g) Duties. The duties of the Control Board shall be, among others, as follows:

(1) Intermediary. To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any grower, handler, dealer, grower-dealer, or brewer;

(2) Minutes, books and records. To keep minutes, books, and other records which will clearly reflect all of its acts and transactions, and which shall be subject at any time to examination by the Secretary or his designated representative;

(3) Scientific studies and research. To provide, subject to prior approval by the Secretary, for the making of scientific and other studies and for the conducting of research appropriate in connection with the performance of its official duties;

(4) Assembling data. To gather and assemble data on the growing, handling, shipping and marketing conditions relative to hop and hop products, appropriate or desirable in connection with the performance of its official duties;

(5) Information. To furnish to the Secretary, at his request, such information as may be available to the Control Board;

(6) Audit. To cause the books and other records of the Control Board to be audited by one or more competent accountants at least once each marketing season and at such times as the Control Board may deem necessary, or as the Secretary may request, and to file with the Secretary a copy of each audit report made;

(7) Managing agent. To employ a Managing Agent who, during his employment as such, shall not be a grower, dealer, grower-dealer, or brewer, nor in the employment thereof or financially interested in the production of, dealing in, or use of hops or hop products, and who shall serve as the Secretary of the Control Board and the secretary of the Growers Allocation Committee, and shall have such other duties as are specified for him herein or by the Control Board; and to employ or retain such other employees, agents, and representatives as the Control Board may deem necessary; and to determine the salaries and define the duties of such Managing Agent, employees, agents and representatives;

(8) Notice to Secretary of meetings. To give to the Secretary, or to his designated representative, the same notice of meetings of the Control Board as is given to the members of the Control Board; and

(9) Issuance of necessary regulations. To issue, with the approval of the Secretary, any regulations which are necessary and appropriate for the carrying out of the provisions hereof in accordance with their terms.

(h) Procedure—(1) Rules and officers. The Control Board shall adopt rules governing the performance of its powers and duties hereunder, and shall select a chairman and such other officers as it may deem advisable.

(2) Quorum. A quorum shall consist of twelve members, or alternate members or substitutes then serving in the place and stead of any members, in attendance at the meeting, and all decisions of the Control Board shall be made by not less than ten affirmative votes.

(3) Permissive methods of voting. The Control Board may permit voting by mail or telegraph.

(i) Funds and other property—(1) Uses. All funds received by the Control Board pursuant hereto shall be used solely for the purposes specified herein; and the Secretary may require the Control Board and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

(2) Accountability of members. Whenever any person ceases to be a member or alternate member of the Control Board, such person shall account for all receipts and disbursements hereunder and deliver all property, funds, books, and other records (in his possession or control) of the Control Board, to his successor in office or to such person as the Secretary may designate, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor or in such designated person the right to all of the property, funds or claims vested in such member.

(3) Legal action for collection of assessments. The Control Board, with the approval of the Secretary, may maintain in its own name, or in the names of its members, legal action against any handler for the collection of the assessment imposed upon him pursuant to the provisions hereof.

§ 986.3 Growers Allocation Committee—(a) Members. The grower-members and the grower-dealer members of the Control Board shall constitute the "Growers Allocation Committee". Said committee shall have such duties and powers as are expressly specified herein for that committee and such other duties and powers as may be incident thereto. The Growers Allocation Committee may incur only such expenses as from time to time are authorized by the Control Board.

(b) Procedure. The Growers Allocation Committee shall select one of its members as its chairman and such other officers as it may deem advisable. It shall keep proper records of all its proceedings, and shall adopt regulations governing its procedure. It may provide for voting by mail or telegraph upon due notice to all members.

(c) Alternates. The alternate of each grower member or grower-dealer member of the Control Board shall have the same right to serve in lieu of a member of the Growers Allocation Committee as such alternate has to serve in lieu of a member of the Control Board.

§ 986.4 Growers Advisory Committees—(a) Establishment and membership. A Growers Advisory Committee of twelve members is hereby established for each of the States of Washington and California, and of thirteen members for the combined States of Oregon and Idaho. Each of the said committees shall consist of members who shall be growers or grower-dealers, or officers or employees of growers or grower-dealers, engaged in growing hops in and shall be residents of the State or States for which the respective committee is established; one of the members of the Advisory Committee for the States of Oregon and Idaho shall be a grower, or an officer or employee thereof, engaged in growing hops in and a resident of the State of Idaho.

(b) Original members. The original members of the Growers Advisory Committees shall be the members of the existing advisory committees organized by the United States Hop Growers Association, an association of hop growers whose present address is Mills Building, San Francisco, California. Each of the original members shall serve for a term ending on January 31, 1950, and in the event that the respective person's successor has not been selected by February 1, 1950, such person shall serve until his successor has been selected.

(c) Election of successor members. Successor members of Growers Advisory Committees, beginning with those elected for terms beginning on and after February 1, 1950, shall serve a two year term ending January 31. Election shall be at meetings held, under the supervision of the Managing Agent or his designated representative, by the growers and grower-dealers in each of the hereafter designated districts. In such election each grower and each grower-dealer residing or producing hops in the district shall have an opportunity to participate, and at such election shall, on behalf of himself, his agents, partners, affiliates, subsidiaries, and representatives, cast only one vote to fill the vacancy or vacancies occurring in his district. No grower or grower-dealer shall vote in more than one district in any one state. Voting shall be by ballot; there shall be no voting by proxy. The nominee having the highest number of votes shall be the member for the district or, in the districts electing more than one member, the nominees receiving in consecutive order the highest number of votes shall be the members for that district. In the case of a tie vote, where vacancies are insufficient to give membership to each, a run-off election shall be held on the vacancy in question.

(d) Washington Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee for the State of Washington shall delimit that State into four election districts, as follows:

District No. 1: That portion of Yakima County lying east of the Yakima River and north of Parker Ridge, and all counties of the State of Washington not delineated in other districts.

District No. 2: Benton County, Klickitat County, and that portion of Yakima County lying south of Parker and Ahtanum Ridges.

District No. 3: That portion of Yakima County lying north of Ahtanum Ridge and west of the Yakima River.

District No. 4: All counties of the State of Washington lying west of Districts 2 and 3, or lying west of the Cascade Mountains.

Growers and grower-dealers who reside or produce hops in any such district shall be entitled to vote for and select for that district three members of the Advisory Committee.

(e) California Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee of the State of California shall delimit that state into three election districts, as follows:

District No. 1: Sacramento County and all other counties of the State of California not delineated in other districts.

District No. 2: Sonoma, Napa and Marin Counties.

District No. 3: Mendocino and Lake Counties.

Growers and grower-dealers who reside or produce hops in any such district shall be entitled to vote for and select for that district four members of the Advisory Committee.

(f) Oregon-Idaho Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee for the States of Oregon and Idaho shall delimit those States into twelve election districts, as follows:

District No. 1 (Grants Pass): Douglas, Jackson and Josephine Counties.

District No. 2 (Eugene, etc.): Lane County and that portion of Linn County not delineated in District 3.

District No. 3 (Albany, Corvallis, etc.): Benton County and those areas of Marion and Linn Counties described as follows: Beginning at Jefferson, Oregon, thence north along Pacific Highway 99 to a point east of Tice Island in the Willamette River, thence due west along an imaginary line to Tice Island, thence south along the meanderings of the Willamette River to the confluence of the Luckiamute and Willamette Rivers, thence due southwest to the northwest corner of Benton County, thence south along the boundary of Benton and Linn Counties to a point due west of Brownsville, Oregon, thence due east along an imaginary line to Brownsville to include all growers operating hop yards in the Brownsville area, thence continuing to the eastern boundary of Linn County to include all growers operating yards in Linn County north of the line as described.

Growers and grower-dealers who reside or produce hops in the district which includes the State of Idaho shall be entitled to vote for and select for that district two members of the Advisory Committee, one of whom shall be a grower of hops in the State of Idaho; and growers and grower-dealers who reside or produce hops in any of the other districts shall be entitled to vote for and select for that district one member of the Advisory Committee.

(g) Changes in districts. The number of districts or the area covered by each in any state or states may be changed in any equitable manner upon recommendation of the Control Board or of the Advisory Committee for such state or states, with the approval of the Secretary.

(h) Alternates. Each member of an Advisory Committee may designate, in writing addressed to the Managing Agent, an alternate having the same membership qualifications as are applicable to the member. Such alternate may act at any meeting of the Advisory Committee at which the member is not present.

(i) Vacancies. A vacancy in the membership of an Advisory Committee shall be filled, for the balance of the term of the member whose place is vacant, by a person of the membership qualifications of the former member, selected by majority vote of the remaining members of that committee.

(j) Expenses. The members of each Advisory Committee may be reimbursed by the Control Board for all travel and other expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties.

(k) Functions—(1) Nomination of successor Control Board members. Each Advisory Committee shall promptly nominate to the Secretary a successor to any grower from that State whose term on the Control Board as a member or alternate shall expire or whose place on the Control Board for any reason may become vacant. Grower members of an Advisory Committee, as well as other growers, shall be eligible for nomination by that Advisory Committee to serve on the Control Board.

(2) Officers and other functions. Each Advisory Committee shall select from its membership a chairman and such other officers as the respective committee may deem advisable, and shall keep proper records of all of its proceedings. It shall hold meetings after notice to its members, upon the call of four members, or upon the call of its chairman, or the Control Board, or the Managing Agent. Each Advisory Committee shall serve the Control Board in an advisory capacity concerning the administration hereof in the State or States for which such committee is established, and in general shall perform such ministerial functions as the Control Board may, from time to time, specify. Each Advisory Committee may incur only such expenses as are authorized by the Control Board.

§ 986.5 Control of quality—(a) Minimum standards of quality and grading and inspection requirements—(1) Establishment. In order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, the Secretary shall, after consideration of the Control Board's recommendations, prescribe minimum standards of quality for hops with respect to their leaf and stem content, or other factors of quality and maturity for which grading and inspection procedure has been developed by the Grain Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture and is in general use; and shall prescribe grading and inspection requirements therefor. "Leaf and stem content" shall have the meaning for "leaves and stems" as defined in "Instructions and Procedure for the Inspection of Hops"[1] issued by the Grain Branch, in which "extraneous matter" is included in "leaves and stems," and in which it is provided that those hop seeds which are naturally within the hops under inspection shall not be considered as extraneous matter. To aid the Secretary in prescribing minimum standards and requirements, the Control Board shall furnish to the Secretary the information upon which it acted in recommending such standards and requirements, and shall furnish such other available data pertaining thereto as the Secretary shall request.

(2) Initial standards and requirements. Until such time as other standards and requirements for leaf and stem content are prescribed under this section, no hops shall be deemed merchantable or entitled to certification which contain over fifteen percent by weight, of leaves and stems as defined in "Instructions and Procedure for the Inspection of Hops" issued by the Grain Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, and as determined by the Federal-State Inspection Service.

[1] Copies of such document may be obtained from the Grain Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., or from its field office at 345 U. S. Courthouse, Portland, Oreg.

(3) Operation irrespective of price. The provisions hereof relating to minimum standards of quality and maturity, and to grading and inspection requirements, within the meaning of section 2 (3) of the act, and any other provisions pertaining to the administration and enforcement thereof, shall continue in effect irrespective of whether the season average price for hops is in excess of the parity level specified in section 2 (1) of the act.

(b) Inspection and certification. Each grower shall be entitled, upon application to the Control Board or its representative, and subject to the meeting by him of any applicable provisions of § 986.5 and § 986.6, to the certification of hops harvested after the effective date hereof. Provided, That such hops have been inspected by the Federal-State Inspection Service within the States of Oregon, California, Washington, or Idaho, and their official certificate presented by such grower showing such hops to meet said standards and requirements. No person shall handle any hops harvested after the effective date hereof unless such hops have been so certificated by the Control Board.

(c) Regulations. Such certification as to minimum quality shall be based on information on a Federal-State Inspection Certificate and shall include substantially the following wording: "Hops or hop products covered by this certificate are of the ____ crop and are covered (year) by Federal-State Inspection Certificate No. ------ as meeting minimum standards of quality prescribed pursuant to applicable Federal-Marketing Agreement and Order." Such certification shall be executed by authorized representatives of the Control Board, the grower and the handler. The bale or other container shall also be marked or tagged to furnish proper identification as to producer and lot.

§ 986.6 Control of surplus—(a) Application. The provisions of this section shall apply only during marketing seasons in which the estimated season average price of hops to growers is below the parity level specified in section 2 (1) of the act.

(b) Determination of salable quantity—(1) Total carryover. As early in the respective year as it shall find it to be feasible, but not later than August 1, the Control Board shall ascertain or estimate the total carryover, within the United States, of hops and hop products expressed in terms of dry hops, produced in or outside the area covered hereby prior to that year and which, if produced within such area, are eligible for handling pursuant to the terms hereof.

(2) Consumptive demand. At the same time, the Control Board shall estimate the total consumptive demand for hops produced during the respective year. In estimating such consumptive demand, there shall be included the quantity of such hops estimated to be used as hops and the quantity estimated to be used in the form of hop products.

(3) Recommendation by Control Board. Immediately thereafter, and based upon its aforesaid estimates and findings, the Control Board shall make and transmit to the Secretary its recommendation of the maximum quantity of hops (net dry weight), produced during that respective year which should, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, be handled in the form of hops or in the form of any hop product, and, with such recommendation, shall transmit to the Secretary its estimates and findings on which its recommendation is based.

(4) Determination by Secretary of salable quantity. On the basis of the aforesaid estimates, data, and recommendations of the Control Board submitted pursuant to § 986.6 (b), and such other pertinent information as the Secretary may have, the Secretary shall determine, fix, and announce such maximum quantity of hops produced during that respective year which may be handled in the form of hops or in the form of any hop product. Such maximum quantity of hops which shall be fixed by the Secretary as aforesaid shall be known, and is referred to hereinafter, as the salable quantity of that respective year's crop of hops.

(5) Increase of salable quantity. The Secretary may at any time increase the salable quantity for the crop of any year in which the continued withholding of surplus would result in a season average price to growers in excess of the parity level specified in section 2 (1) of the act, or upon due consideration of either the needs of brewers or a recommendation of the Control Board that the salable quantity be increased. The Secretary may not decrease said salable quantity.

(6) Conversion ratios. In computing the hops equivalent of hop products, and unless changed as hereinafter provided, one pound of lupulin shall be considered equivalent to 20 pounds of dry hops and one pound of hop oil to 400 pounds of dry hops. In the case of hop extracts or concentrates for which conversion ratios are not established pursuant hereto, the Control Board, or its authorized representative may specify the conversion ratio to be used until such ratio can be established pursuant to the provisions hereof. Said conversion factors may be changed by regulation of the Control Board, subject to approval of the Secretary.

(c) Apportionment of salable quantity among growers—(1) Determination of quantity available for market—(i) Determination by Growers Allocation Committee. As the basis for apportioning equitably among growers the salable quantity of each year's crop, the Growers Allocation Committee each year as early as practicable during or after harvest, shall determine, or cause to be determined under its supervision, the total quantity of hops (net dry weight), meeting the requirements of § 986.5, available for market by each grower from his production of hops during that year. Such determination shall include the quantity, if any, of such hops found to have been converted into hop products, except lupulin sweepings shall be included, in the computation, only to the extent of the pounds of lupulin found to be in such quantity of lupulin sweepings. Unharvested hops shall be included only if grown to maturity and remaining unharvested on living vines which remain strung or trained and from which hops have not been picked, and which have not been removed from the wires or poles. In the event any grower does not permit the Growers Allocation Committee, or its representatives, access to any hops grown by that grower, or to any product thereof, or shall fail or refuse to make available to said committee, or its representatives, information relative to such hops or hop products which the Growers Allocation Committee finds to be desirable in order properly to make such determination in accordance with the provisions hereof, the Growers Allocation Committee shall determine or cause to be determined, on the basis of an estimate of the grower's acreage, the average crop conditions in the area, and the probable yield per acre on the grower's acreage, the respective grower's total production as aforesaid. After completing its determination of production by each individual grower, the Growers Allocation Committee shall, by means of addition, compute the production by all growers.

(ii) Preliminary estimates. The Growers Allocation Committee each year, prior to the start of harvest, or as soon thereafter as practicable, shall determine, or cause to be determined under its supervision, a preliminary estimate of said total quantity of hops which will become available for market by each such grower and by all growers, during that year. Said preliminary estimate shall be based upon physical examination of the hop yards, upon the historical production thereof, upon official crop estimates or upon such other relevant data as is available.

(iii) Determinations for and protests by members of committee. The determinations pursuant to § 986.6 (c) (1) (i) and § 986.6 (c) (1) (ii) for each member or alternate member of the Growers Allocation Committee shall not be made by any member or alternate member of such committee, but shall be made, and reported in writing to the Secretary and to the Growers Allocation Committee, by such other qualified person or persons as the Control Board or its authorized representative shall designate for that purpose. Any protest by a member or alternate member of the Growers Allocation Committee concerning such determination shall be made directly to, and be determined by, the Secretary.

(iv) Notice to growers. The Growers Allocation Committee shall cause to be mailed to each grower notice of the determination pursuant to § 986.6 (c) (1) (i) and § 986.6 (c) (1) (ii) of the respective grower's production for the respective year, and also, the computation of the total quantity determined pursuant to § 986.6 (c) (1) (i) and § 986.6 (c) (1) (ii), respectively, produced by all growers during that year. The committee shall also publicly announce said computations of said total quantity, both estimated and final.

(v) Protests by growers. Any grower who may be dissatisfied with the determinations pursuant to § 986.6 (c) (1) (i) or § 986.6 (c) (1) (ii) or pursuant to § 986.6 (c) (2), may protest in writing to the Growers Allocation Committee within ten (10) days of the date of mailing of the notice and if dissatisfied with the decision in regard to such protest may appeal in writing to the Secretary.

(vi) Determination by Secretary. Upon expiration of the time for protest specified in § 986.6 (c) (1) (v), and after completion of action by that committee upon all protests, the Growers Allocation Committee shall report to the Secretary all findings, determinations, and computations made by or for it pursuant to § 986.6 (c) (1) (i), together with the data on which the same were based. On the basis of such findings, determinations, computations, data, and other pertinent information which the Secretary may have, the Secretary shall determine and notify the Growers Allocation Committee of the total quantity of hops (net dry weight) meeting the requirements of § 986.5 available for market by each grower from his production of hops during that year: Provided, That such determinations shall include the quantity, if any, of such hops converted into hop products except that insofar as lupulin sweepings are concerned there shall be included, in the computation, only the pounds of lupulin in such quantity of lupulin sweepings, and insofar as unharvested hops are concerned, shall include (net dry weight) only hops of that respective year's crop grown to maturity and remaining unharvested on the living vines. The Secretary, after having determined each grower's production, as aforesaid, shall, by means of addition, determine the production by all growers; such production by all growers is hereinafter referred to as the "aggregate production" for that respective year. Immediately upon receipt of notice thereof from the Secretary, the Growers Allocation Committee shall publicly announce the aforesaid determination by the Secretary.

(2) Computation of growers' allotments—(i) Salable percentage. The "salable percentage" of the aggregate production, determined pursuant to § 986.6 (c) (1), shall be computed by dividing the salable quantity of that year's crop, determined pursuant to § 986.6 (b), by the aforesaid aggregate production, and multiplying the quotient by 100. After computing the growers' salable percentage on this basis, the percentage shall be adjusted to the nearest tenth of a percent. Each grower's allotment of the salable quantity of that year's crop shall be that same salable percentage applied to that grower's production as determined pursuant to § 986.6 (c) (1): Provided, however, That in any year in which the salable percentage, determined pursuant to this section, exceeds ninety-eight percent, each grower's allotment shall be the total quantity, produced by such grower, determined pursuant to § 986.6 (c) (1). Each allotment determined hereunder shall be expressed in pounds, net dry weight, of hops and shall be known as the respective grower's "salable allotment" of that respective year's crop.

(ii) Preliminary and supplementary allotments—(a) Preliminary. In order to assist growers to avoid delays in their individual harvesting and marketing, the Control Board shall compute an "estimated salable percentage" of estimated aggregate production and shall compute for each grower a preliminary allotment. The estimated salable percentage shall be computed by dividing the salable quantity of that year's crop, determined pursuant to § 986.6 (b), by the estimated aggregate production, as determined pursuant to § 986.6 (c) (1) (ii), and multiplying the quotient by 100. Each grower's preliminary allotment of the salable quantity of that year's crop shall be fifty percent (50%), or such lower percentage as the Control Board may establish with the approval of the Secretary, of that same estimated salable percentage applied to that grower's estimated production as determined pursuant to § 986.6 (c) (1) (ii).

(b) Supplementary. The Control Board shall each year issue or cause to be issued, prior to the issuance of final allotments applicable to that year's crop, to any grower who may apply therefor to the Growers Allocation Committee, a supplementary allotment representing such proportion of that grower's total production of hops during that year as the Growers Allocation Committee shall determine will not be in excess of eighty percent (or such higher percentage as the Control Board, with the approval of the Secretary, may specify for the computation of supplementary allotments) of that grower's probable salable allotment for that year's crop.

(c) Eligibility for certification. After issuance to a grower of such preliminary or supplemental allotment, the hops covered thereby, and any hop product derived from such hops, shall be eligible for certification, marking, and handling as though the final allotment had been issued, and subject to the same terms, conditions, and regulations as are applicable to such certification, marking, and handling of hops and hop products under a final salable allotment.

(iii) Notice to growers. The Growers Allocation Committee shall mail to each grower notice of his preliminary, of his supplementary and of his final salable allotment computed by that committee as herein provided. A list of the salable allotments of all growers for each year's crop shall be compiled and maintained by the Growers Allocation Committee at each of its officers, where the same shall be available during all reasonable hours for inspection by any interested person.

(3) Joint allotment—(i) Joint ownership. In the event that more than one grower shall participate jointly in the production of hops, whether as landlord and tenant, as partners, or otherwise, and said growers report that fact to the Growers Allocation Committee, then a single salable allotment shall cover such joint production. In the event that thereafter the interests of those growers in the crop produced or being produced are segregated, the Growers Allocation Committee, upon written application signed by all of said interested growers shall segregate and distribute said salable allotment among said growers in accordance with their respective segregated interests in the crop.

(ii) Associations. Upon application of any bona fide incorporated cooperative association of growers which is authorized to market hops or hop products included within the salable allotments those of its members who have authorized the Association to sell hops for them, the individual salable allotments shall be pooled and thereafter hops produced by those members of that association during that year, and hop products derived from such hops, may be certificated and handled by that association without regard to the limits of the individual allotments of the members. Any application for such pooling shall be made in writing signed by the duly authorized officers of such association, and shall be accompanied by proper evidence of approval of such application by the membership of the association, and shall be accompanied by proper evidence of approval of such application by the membership of the association, by official action at a membership meeting or otherwise during the calendar year in which the application is made. Such application shall be filed with the Growers Allocation Committee prior to determination of the salable allotments to which it is to apply.

(4) Revision of allotments—(i) Revisions and new allotments. In the event that at the normal time, no determination, pursuant to § 986.6 (c) (1), has been made as to a particular grower entitled thereto pursuant to the provisions hereof, or a previous determination as to a particular grower is substantially in error, the Growers Allocation Committee shall make the determination or correct the erroneous determination. The same requirements of determination and approval by the Secretary, notice to the grower and rights of protest and appeal, shall be effective with respect to such determination, as in the case of a timely or original determination.

(ii) Correction of clerical errors. In the event that the Growers Allocation Committee or the Control Board shall find, at any time, that the salable allotment previously issued to a grower was incorrectly computed or is erroneous by reason of mathematical or clerical error, the Growers Allocation Committee or the Control Board shall correct and revise said allotment to the extent found to be proper, and shall notify the respective grower and the Secretary of such correction.

(d) Certification—(1) Hops harvested during effective period of order. Each grower for whom a salable quantity is determined may, upon application to the Control Board or its representative and subject to the limitations of § 986.5, have the eligible quantity of hops or hop products certified for handling. Such certification shall consist of the indelible marking of each bale or other container of such hops or hop products by an authorized representative of the Control Board and the issuance and delivery of a "handling certificate." Such marking shall be placed on the bale cover or other container or on a tag securely attached to such other container, and shall show the year of production, the handling certificate number, and the words "Certificated, Hop Control Board." This method of marking may be changed by the Control Board, subject to the approval of the Secretary. Such handling certificate shall certify that pursuant to the provisions hereof a specified quantity of hops or hop products has been duly certificated, for the grower and handler named in said certificate, as being eligible for handling pursuant to the terms hereof. Such certification may exceed any grower's salable quantity by not over 100 pounds, provided such excess quantity is included entirely within the weight of the last bale or container certificated for said quantity.

(2) Hops harvested prior to effective date of order. Any person who owns or is in the possession of, hops harvested or hop products from hops harvested prior to the effective date of this order, is entitled upon application, within 30 days after the effective date hereof, to the Control Board or its representatives, to have such hops or hop products certificated free of charge without regard to any salable quantity. The Control Board may extend such time for good cause.

(e) Limitation of handling to certificated hops or hop products. No person, as principal, agent, broker, legal representative, or otherwise, shall handle any hops harvested or hop products from hops harvested subsequent to the effective date hereof, unless: (1) Prior to such handling, the Control Board shall have issued a "handling certificate" pursuant to § 986.6 (d) applicable to such hops or hop products; (2) each bale or other container of said hops or hop products shall have been duly marked or tagged as prescribed herein, for the purpose of identifying such hops or hop products as being covered by a duly issued salable allotment or as being properly certificated. However, hops harvested prior to the effective date hereof and hop products produced from such hops may be certificated for handling without regard to the salable allotment or the quality restriction.

(f) Diversion privileges. In the event hops produced subsequent to the effective date hereof, whether harvested or unharvested, in the control of the respective grower thereof, are destroyed, or are so damaged or deteriorated as in the judgment of the grower to be unmarketable, or if because of quality or type such hops are unsatisfactory to the grower, the grower thereof may, if the lupulin has not been removed from such hops, replace such hops, within the limits of his salable allotment for that respective years, by acquiring uncertificated hops of that year's crop from the growers thereof: Provided, That such purchasing grower shall first submit a written statement to the Growers Allocation Committee setting forth the year of production, location, and the quantity of hops which such grower desires so to replace (and, if the hops to be replaced have been destroyed, the time, place, and cause of such destruction, together with proof of such destruction satisfactory to the Growers Allocation Committee, and the name and address of each grower from whom he proposes to acquire uncertificated hops for that purpose, and makes arrangements with the Growers Allocation Committee whereby the unmarketable or unsatisfactory hops which are thus to be replaced will be effectively diverted from or disposed of out of the normal channels of trade, and such disposal or diversion shall be in such manner as may be prescribed by the Control Board: And provided further, That such hops shall not be diverted or disposed of into hop products, as defined in § 986.1 (e). The selling grower as herein defined shall not be regarded as handling hops within the meaning of this order nor shall the hops sold be considered a part of the selling growers' salable allotment. The Growers Allocation Committee shall prepare, and from time to time shall revise, a list of the names and addresses of growers known to have uncertificated hops for sale pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph; and a list of the names and addresses of growers who report to the Growers Allocation Committee that they desire to purchase or acquire uncertificated hops pursuant to this paragraph. The Growers Allocation Committee shall make such lists available to any grower of hops at each office of the Control Board.

§ 986.7 Expenses and assessments—(a) Expenses. The Control Board (including, but not limited to, the Growers Allocation Committee and the several Growers Advisory Committees) is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary may find are reasonable and likely to be incurred by it during each marketing season for the maintenance and functioning by it and for such purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the provisions hereof, determine to be appropriate. The recommendation of the Control Board as to its expenses for each such marketing season, together with all data supporting such recommendation, shall be submitted to the Secretary within 45 days from the effective date hereof and in succeeding marketing seasons on or before September 15 of the marketing season for which such recommendation is made. The funds to cover such assessments shall be acquired by levying assessments as hereinafter provided.

(b) Assessments—(1) Requirement for payment. Each handler shall pay to the Control Board the assessment provided hereinafter with respect to all hops and hop products which are handler or to be handled by that handler as the first handler thereof, except (i) such hops or hop products as are duly certificated pursuant to § 986.6 (d) (2), and (ii) such hop products as have been derived from duly certificated hops with respect to which such assessment previously had been paid: Provided, however, That any grower who markets or transports to market within the state of production hops produced by that grower, or any hop product produced by that grower from hops produced by that grower, shall not be deemed to be the first handler thereof insofar only as payment of assessments pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph may be concerned. Said assessment shall be paid to the Control Board prior to or at the time of such handling, or at such subsequent time as the Control Board may specify.

(2) Rate of assessment. Beginning with the effective date hereof, the aforesaid assessment shall be at the rate of one-fourth of one cent per pound, net dry weight, of hops handled, and said rate shall continue in effect until changed by the Control Board with the approval of the Secretary; and the assessment rate on any hop product shall be based upon the assessment rate for hops, and shall be computed at such conversion ratio or ratios between hops and the respective hop product as determined pursuant to § 986.6 (b) (6): Provided, however, That the Secretary shall not approve any assessment rate for hops exceeding three-fifths of one cent per pound unless he shall have held, prior thereto and subsequent to such notice as he may deem proper, a meeting or meetings within the production area covered hereby for the specific purpose of obtaining information with respect to such assessment rate. The Secretary shall reduce the assessment rate if the Secretary finds that the assessment rate when thus reduced will provide an amount of money sufficient to enable the Control Board and other committees properly to perform their respective functions hereunder. Any increase in the assessment rate shall not apply retroactively to hops produced in a previous marketing season. A grower who pursuant to § 986.6 (f) acquires uncertificated hops from the grower thereof shall not, by reason of each acquisition, or the marketing or transportation of said hops within the State of production, be deemed to be the first handler of those hops within the provisions of this paragraph. In the event any grower who handles hops or any hop product is not covered by this section as the first handler thereof, then the person who handles any of such hops or any hop product next following such handling thereof by said grower shall constitute the first handler thereof within the provisions of this section.

(c) Liquidation of net assets. Upon the termination hereof the net assets of the Control Board shall be liquidated and disbursed pursuant to § 986.12.

(d) Funds to be used to pay expenses. From the funds acquired pursuant to this section, the Control Board shall pay the salaries of the employees, agents, and representatives thereof; and, also, pay the other expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of the functions or duties or exercise of the powers of the Control Board, Growers Allocation Committee, and Advisory Committees respectively.

§ 986.8 Compliance. Each handler shall comply strictly with all provisions hereof and all regulations duly effective hereunder. No handler shall handle any hops or any hop product in violation of any of the provisions hereof or in violation of any regulation effective pursuant hereto.

§ 986.9 Reports, books, and records—(a) Books and records. Each handler and each subsidiary or affiliate thereof shall keep books and other records which will clearly show the details of its handling of hops and hop products.

(b) Reports by handlers. To enable the Control Board, the Growers Allocation Committee, and each Advisory Committee to perform its functions hereunder, each handler shall furnish to the Managing Agent complete information on June 1, or as of that date and within 15 days thereafter, or on any other date or dates which the Control Board, with the approval of the Secretary, may specify, relating to (1) The volume of and the price paid for hops and hop products handled during the next preceding marketing season, and the volume of and prices to be paid for hops and hop products of future crops by the respective handlers (2) the names and addresses of the growers and other persons from whom hops or hop products were acquired; (3) quantities of hops grown by that handler; and (4) the total quantity of hops and hop products owned by the respective handler. Such information furnished to the Managing Agent shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person (including members of the Control Board as well as other persons) except to the Secretary at his request, or to such person as the Secretary may specify: Provided, That the Managing Agent may compile such information in such form as will not reveal the identity of individual informants and may make such compilations available to the Control Board, Growers Allocation Committee, any Advisory Committee, or to the public. The Managing Agent shall not disclose any information acquired under this section, except as herein expressly authorized.

§ 986.10 Amendments. Amendment hereof may from time to time be proposed by the Control Board or by the Secretary.

§ 986.11 Agents. The Secretary may, by a designation in writing, name any person, including but not being limited to, any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture, or any Division thereof, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

§ 986.12 Effective time and termination—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, or of any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare, and shall continue in force unless terminated in one of the ways hereinafter specified, so long as the provisions of the act authorizing the same are in effect.

(b) Termination. (1) The Secretary may, at any time, terminate the provisions hereof whenever he finds that the provisions hereof obstruct or do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and such notice of the termination shall be given as the Secretary deems proper.

(2) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions hereof whenever he finds that such termination is favored by the majority of the growers of hops who, during such representative period as may be determined by the Secretary, have been engaged in the production of hops within said states for market: Provided, That such majority have, during such period, produced for market more than fifty percent of the total volume of hops produced for market in said area during such period. Such termination shall become and be effective on and after the first day of July subsequent to the announcement thereof by the Secretary.

(3) The provisions hereof shall terminate in any event whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

(c) Proceedings after termination. Upon the termination of the provisions hereof, the members of the Control Board then functioning shall continue as trustees (for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of said Control Board) of all funds and property then in the possession or under the control of the Control Board, including but not being limited to claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination; but the procedural rules governing the activities of said trustees; including, but not limited to, the determination as to whether action may be taken by only a majority vote of the trustees, shall be prescribed by the Secretary. Said trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary, and from time to time shall account for all receipts and disbursements, and deliver all funds and property on hand, together with all books and records of the Control Board and the trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct, and shall, upon the request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person the right to all of the funds or claims vested in the Control Board or the trustees pursuant hereto. Any funds collected for expenses pursuant to § 986.7 and held by such trustees or such person over and above amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the trustees or such other person, in the performance of their duties hereunder, shall, as soon as practicable after the termination of the provisions hereof, be disbursed among the handlers pro rata in proportion to their contributions pursuant hereto. Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been delivered by the Control Board or its members, upon direction of the Secretary as herein provided, shall be subject to the same obligations and duties with respect to said funds, property, or claims as are hereinabove imposed upon the members of said Board or upon said trustees.

§ 986.13 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by virtue hereof shall cease upon termination hereof except with respect to acts done under and during the existence hereof; and the benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred hereby upon any party signatory hereto shall cease upon the termination hereof as to such party except with respect to acts done under and during the existence hereof.

§ 986.14 Separability. If any provision hereof is declared invalid or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder hereof or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing shall not be affected thereby.

§ 986.15 Derogation. Nothing contained herein is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States (a) to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or (b) in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 986.16 Right of the Secretary. Each member of the Control Board, Growers Allocation Committee, and Growers Advisory Committee, including successors and alternates, and any agent, representative or employee appointed or employed by the Control Board, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each regulation, decision, determination, or other act of the Control Board, Growers Allocation Committee, or any Growers Advisory Committee, shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time and, upon such disapproval, shall be deemed null and void except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

§ 986.17 Liability of Control Board Members. No member of the Control Board, Growers Allocation Committee, or any Advisory Committee, nor any agent, representative, or employee, shall be held liable individually in any way whatsoever to any other person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts either of commission or omission as such member, employee, representative, except for acts of dishonesty. The liability of the parties hereunder is several and not joint, and no party shall be liable for the default of any other party.

§ 986.18 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination hereof or of any regulation issued pursuant hereto, or the issuance of any amendment to either thereof, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen prior thereto, or (b) release or extinguish any violation hereof or of any regulation issued hereunder, or (c) affect or impair any right or remedy of the United States, or of the Secretary, or of any other person with respect to any such violation.

§ 986.19 Counterparts.[1] This agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, and, when one counterpart is signed by the Secretary, all such counterparts shall constitute when taken together one and the same instrument as if all such signatures were contained in one original.

§ 986.20 Additional parties.[1] After this agreement first takes effect, any handler or dealer may become a party to this agreement if a counterpart thereof is executed by him and delivered to the Secretary. This agreement shall take effect as to such new contracting party at the time such counterpart is delivered to the Secretary, and the benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by this agreement shall then be effective as to such new contracting party.

§ 986.21 Request for order.[1] Each signatory handler and dealer hereto requests the Secretary to issue an order pursuant to the act regulating the handling of hops and hop products in the same manner as provided in this agreement.

Copies of this notice of hearing may be obtained from or inspected, prior to the hearing, at any of the following offices of the Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture: Eastern Building, 515 Southwest 10th Avenue, Portland, Oreg.; Farm Credit Building, 2180 Milvia Street, Berkeley, Calif.; and 100 Plaza Building, 921 Tenth Street, Sacramento, Calif. FEDERAL SECURITY AGENCY

Food and Drug Administration

[21 CFR, Part 15]

[Docket No. FDC 21 (c)]

WHEAT FLOUR AND RELATED PRODUCTS; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING.

It is proposed that, by virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701; 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371), and upon the basis of substantial evidence received at the public hearing held pursuant to the notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 26, 1948 (13 F. R. 4964), the following order be made:

Finding of fact.[1a] By order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER May 27, 1941 (6 F. R. 2579; 21 CFR, Cum. Supp. 15.00, 15.10, 15.20, 15.30, 15.50, 15.60, 15.70, 15.80, 15.90, and 15.100, as amended in 13 F. R. 4231), the standards of identity for flour, enriched flour, bromated flour, enriched bromated flour, self-rising flour, enriched self-rising flour, phosphated flour, whole wheat flour, bromated whole wheat flour, and whole durum wheat flour provided for the use of nitrogen trichloride as an optional bleaching ingredient, under prescribed conditions.

2. Since the promulgation of these standards it has been found that flour treated with nitrogen trichloride has caused in dogs certain toxic manifestations known as canine hysteria. Experiments by qualified investigators have shown that flour treated with large quantities of nitrogen trichloride is toxic to some animals in addition to dogs. Although the experimental work on humans is limited, no adverse effect as a result of foods prepared from flours treated with nitrogen trichloride has been found. (R. 13–16, 37–39, 41–44, 47–48, 63, 70–71, 83–86, 90, 103–105, 107–109, 112–115, 130–136, 160–161, 165–167, 208–210, 217–218, 283–290, 297–298, 323–327, 350–376, 479; Ex. 2, 3, 5, 10, 16, 18)

3. Chlorine dioxide has a bleaching and artificial aging effect on flour similar to that of nitrogen trichloride. The mechanism of its action has not been established, but it appears that the chlorine dioxide releases oxygen when in contact with flour and that the oxygen is the bleaching agent. Experiments by qualified investigators have shown that flours treated with chlorine dioxide, or products baked from flours treated with chlorine dioxide, do not cause canine hysteria, and no symptoms of any toxicity have been detected in the several other species, including man, that have been studied. (R. 44–48, 53–64, 67–82, 86–90, 92, 110–111, 118–125, 130–136, 139–143, 152, 153, 157–160, 165–175, 177–183, 199, 207–222, 231, 235–236, 238–240, 243–244, 246, 248, 250–252, 255, 257–258, 261, 267–272, 283–285, 290–291, 299–301, 350–376, 386–392, 398, 405–410, 430–436, 482; Ex. 6, 10, 11, 13, 14, 15, 16, 18, 20, 21, 23)

4. Only enough chlorine dioxide is used to accomplish the purposes of bleaching and artificial aging, as excessive quantities impair the baking quality of the flour. (R. 235–240, 242–244, 247–250, 254, 379–384, 387–394, 397–398, 405–410; Ex. 14, 19, 20, 21)

5. When used under the controls now prescribed for bleaching and artificially aging flour, chlorine dioxide is suitable for the purpose of bleaching and artificially aging flour, enriched flour, bromated flour, enriched bromated flour, self-rising flour, enriched self-rising flour, phosphated flour, whole wheat flour, bromated whole wheat flour, and whole durum wheat flour. (R. 195–198, 200, 254–257, 267–277, 386–398, 420–427; Ex. 22)

6. In addition to the carriers or diluents prescribed for use with the optional bleaching ingredient benzoyl peroxide, it has been found that other substances or mixtures of these substances with each other or with those now prescribed are also suitable for such use. Such substances are dicalcium phosphate, tricalcium phosphate, starch, sodium aluminum sulfate, and calcium carbonate. The total amount of the diluent or carrier used should not exceed six parts by weight for one part by weight of benzoyl peroxide. (R. 496–500, 503–505, 524–525, 527–531, 535, 537, 548, 554, 558)

7. Consumers generally recognize that the word "bleached" when applied to flour distinguishes between bleached and unbleached flour. The term "bleached" describes the ingredient or ingredients added to flour through the bleaching process, including chlorine dioxide, or products resulting from the use of chlorine dioxide, and benzoyl peroxide with its carriers. (R. 232–233, 277, 396–400, 412–413, 484–485, 496–497, 514)

Conclusions. Upon consideration of the whole record and the foregoing findings of fact, it is concluded that it will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to amend the definitions and standards of identity for flour (§ 15.00), enriched flour (§ 15.10), bromated flour (§ 15.20), enriched bromated flour (§ 15.30), self-rising flour (§ 15.50), enriched self-rising flour (§ 15.60), and phosphated flour (§ 15.70) by deleting nitrogen trichloride as an optional ingredient and substituting therefor chlorine dioxide, and by amending the requirements as to the ingredients which may be used with benzoyl peroxide as indicated in finding 6; and to amend the definitions and standards of identity for whole wheat flour (§ 15.80), bromated whole wheat flour (§ 15.90), and whole durum wheat flour (§ 15.100) by deleting nitrogen trichloride as an optional ingredient and substituting therefor chlorine dioxide.

It is therefore proposed that the amendments be made so that the definitions and standards of identity read as follows:

§ 15.00 Flour, white flour, wheat flour, plain flour, identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Flour, white flour, wheat flour, plain flour, is the food prepared by grinding and bolting cleaned wheat other than durum wheat and red durum wheat; to compensate for any natural deficiency of enzymes, malted wheat, malted wheat flour, malted barley flour, or any combination of two or more of these, may be used; but the quantity of malted barley flour so used is not more than 0.25 percent. One of the cloths through which the flour is bolted has openings not larger than those of woven wire cloth designated "149 micron (No. 100)" in table I of "Standard Specifications for Sieves," published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the U. S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards. The flour is freed from bran coat, or bran coat and germ, to such extent that the percent of ash therein, calculated to a moisture-free basis is not more than the sum of $\frac{1}{20}$ of the percent of protein therein, calculated to a moisture-free basis, and 0.35. Its moisture content is not more than 15 percent. Unless such addition conceals damage or inferiority of the flour or makes it appear better or of greater value than it is, one or any combination of two or more of the following optional bleaching ingredients may be added in a quantity not more than sufficient for bleaching or, in case such ingredient has an artificial aging effect, in a quantity not more than sufficient for bleaching and such artificial aging effect:

(1) Oxides of nitrogen.
(2) Chlorine.
(3) Nitrosyl chloride.
(4) Chlorine dioxide.[2]
(5) One part by weight of benzoyl peroxide mixed with not more than six parts by weight of one or any mixture of two or more of the following: potassium alum, calcium sulfate, magnesium carbonate, sodium aluminum sulfate, dicalcium phosphate, tricalcium phosphate, starch, calcium carbonate.

(b) When any optional bleaching ingredient is used, the label shall bear the word "Bleached." Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the word "Bleached" shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter; except that where such name is a part of a trade-mark or brand, other written, printed, or graphic matter, which is also a part of such trade-mark or brand, may so intervene if the word "Bleached" is in such juxtaposition with such trade-mark or brand as to be conspicuously related to such name.

(c) For the purposes of this section: (1) Ash is determined by the method prescribed in the book "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," 5th Edition, 1940, page 212, under "Method I—Official."[3] Ash is calculated to a moisture-free basis by subtracting the percent of moisture in the flour from 100, dividing the remainder into the percent of ash, and multiplying the quotient by 100.

(2) Protein is 5.7 times the nitrogen as determined by the method prescribed in such book on page 26, under "Kjeldahl-Gunning-Arnold Method — Official."[4] Protein is calculated to a moisture-free basis by subtracting the percent of moisture in the flour from 100, dividing the remainder into the persent of protein, and multiplying the quotient by 100.

(3) Moisture is determined by the method prescribed in such book on page 211, under "Vacuum Oven Method—Official."[5]

§ 15.10 Enriched flour. (No change in wording is necessary since the bleaching ingredients are fixed by § 15.00.)

§ 15.20 Bromated flour. (No change in wording is necessary since the bleaching ingredients are fixed by § 15.00.)

§ 15.30 Enriched bromated flour. (No change in wording is necessary since the bleaching ingredients are fixed by § 15.00.)

§ 15.50 Self-rising flour. (No change in wording is necessary since the bleaching ingredients are fixed by § 15.00.)

§ 15.60 Enriched self-rising flour. (No change in wording is necessary since the bleaching ingredients are fixed by § 15.00.)

§ 15.70 Phosphated flour. (No change in wording is necessary since the bleaching ingredients are fixed by § 15.00.)

§ 15.80 Whole wheat flour, graham flour, entire wheat flour; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Whole wheat flour, graham flour, entire wheat flour, is the food prepared by so grinding cleaned wheat other than durum wheat and red durum wheat that, when tested by the method prescribed in paragraph (c) (2) of this section, not less than 90 percent passes through a No. 8 sieve and not less than 50 percent passes through a No. 20 sieve. The proportions of the natural constituents of such wheat, other than moisture, remain unaltered. To compensate for any natural deficiency of enzymes, malted wheat, malted wheat flour, malted barley flour, or any combination of two or more of these, may be used; but the quantity of malted wheat flour so used is not more than 0.5 percent, and the quantity of malted barley flour so used is not more than 0.25 percent. The moisture content of whole wheat flour is not more than 15 percent. Unless such addition conceals damage or inferiority of the whole wheat flour or makes it appear better or of greater value than it is, the optional bleaching ingredient chlorine dioxide,[6] chlorine, or a mixture of nitrosyl chloride and chlorine, may be added in a quantity not more than sufficient for bleaching and artificial aging effects.

(b) When any optional bleaching ingredient is used, the label shall bear the word "Bleached." Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the word "Bleached" shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter; except that where such name is a part of a trade-mark or brand, other written, printed, or graphic matter, which is also a part of such trade-mark or brand, may so intervene if the word "Bleached" is in such juxtaposition with such trade-mark or brand as to be conspicuously related to such name.

(c) For the purpose of this section: (1) Moisture is determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," 5th Edition, 1940, page 211, under "Vacuum Oven Method—Official."[7]

(2) The method referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is as follows: Use No. 8 and No. 20 sieves, having standard 8-inch full height frames, complying with the specifications for wire cloth and sieve frames in "Standard Specifications for Sieves," published March 1, 1940, in L. C. 584 of the U. S. Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards. Fit a No. 8 sieve into a No. 20 sieve. Attach bottom pan to the No. 20 sieve. Pour 100 gm. of the sample into the No. 8 sieve. Attach cover and hold the assembly in a slightly inclined position with one hand. Shake the sieves by striking the sides against the other hand with an upward stroke, at the rate of about 150 times per minute. Turn the sieves about ⅙ of a revolution each time in the same direction, after each 25 strokes. Continue shaking for 2 minutes. Weigh the material which fails to pass through the No. 8 sieve and the material which passes through the No. 20 sieve.

§ 15.90 Bromated whole wheat flour. (No change in wording is necessary since the bleaching ingredients are fixed by § 15.80 Whole wheat flour.)

§ 15.100 Whole durum wheat flour. (No change in wording is necessary since the bleaching ingredients are fixed by § 15.80 Whole wheat flour.)

Proposed effective dates. Chlorine dioxide is a gaseous substance whose practical use as a bleaching ingredient is made possible by the employment of certain machines for generating the chlorine dioxide gas, mixing it with air, and bringing measured amounts of the gaseous mixture in contact with the flour to be treated. The manufacture and installation of suitable machines to replace those used for bleaching with nitrogen trichloride will be time-consuming. Such change-over must be started immediately, in order to make possible the elimination of nitrogen trichloride as a bleaching agent for the various flours at the earliest practicable time. The necessity for beginning the change-over immediately creates an emergency condition which requires that the recognition of chlorine dioxide as an optional ingredient be made effective on the date of publication of the final order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The time required fully to effect the change-over necessitates that a somewhat longer period be allowed before deleting nitrogen trichloride from the standard as an optional ingredient. No unusual conditions exist with respect to the use of additional diluting agents in conjunction with benzoyl peroxide.

It is therefore proposed that the amendments to the definitions and standards of identity of flour (§15.00), enriched flour (§ 15.10), bromated flour (§ 15.20), enriched bromated flour (§ 15.30), self-rising flour (§15.50), enriched self-rising flour (§ 15.60), phosphated flour (§ 15.70), adding chlorine dioxide as an optional bleaching ingredient, become effective immediately upon publication of the final order in the FEDERAL REGISTER; that the amendment with respect to benzoyl peroxide become effective 90 days after the publication of the final order in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and that the amendment deleting nitrogen trichloride from the list of optional bleaching ingredients become effective August 1, 1949.

It is further proposed that the amendment adding chlorine dioxide as an optional bleaching ingredient in whole wheat flour (§ 15.80), bromated whole wheat flour (§ 15.90), and whole durum wheat flour (§15.100) shall become effective immediately upon publication of the final order in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and that the removal of nitrogen trichloride as an optional ingredient in such flours shall become effective August 1, 1949.

Any interested person whose appearance was filed at the hearing may, within 10 days from the date of publication of this tentative order in the FEDERAL REGISTER, file with the Hearing Clerk, Federal Security Agency, Room 5109, Federal Security Building, Fourth Street and Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D. C., written exceptions thereto. Exceptions shall point out with particularity the alleged errors in this tentative order and shall contain specific references to the pages of the transcript of the testimony or to the exhibits on which such exceptions are based. Such exceptions may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. Exceptions and accompanying memoranda or briefs shall be submitted in quintuplicate.

Dated: October 27, 1948.

UNLOADING OF MACHINERY AT GRAND PRAIRIE, TEX.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October A. D. 1948.

It appearing, that 15 cars of machinery at Grand Prairie, Texas, are on hand on The Texas and Pacific Railway Company, for an unreasonable length of time and that this delay in unloading such cars impedes their use; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action. It is ordered, that:

(a) Machinery at Grand Prairie, Tex., be unloaded. The Texas and Pacific Railway Company, its agents or employees, shall unload immediately CBQ 32643, C&O 2637 and 13 other box cars loaded with machinery now on hand at Grand Prairie, Texas, consigned order-notify Southwest Company.

(b) Demurrage. No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall charge or demand or collect or receive any demurrage or storage charges for the detention under load of any car specified in paragraph (a) of this order for the detention period commencing at 7:00 a. m., October 29, 1948, and continuing until the actual unloading of said car or cars is completed.

(c) Provisions suspended. The operation of any or all rules, regulations, or practices, insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order, is hereby suspended.

(d) Notice and expiration. Said carrier shall notify the Director, Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., when it has completed the unloading required by paragraph (a) hereof, and such notice shall specify when, where, and by whom such unloading was performed. Upon receipt of that notice this order shall expire.

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective immediately; that a copy of this order and direction be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

FREIGHT FORWARDERS—MOTOR COMMON CARRIERS, AGREEMENTS

NOTICE OF FILING OF AGREEMENTS

OCTOBER 28, 1948.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has assigned the administrative work in connection with the filing of agreements between freight forwarders and common carriers by motor vehicle, under section 409 (a) of the Interstate Commerce Act to its Bureau of Traffic. The filing of such agreements was authorized by report and order of September 24, 1948, in docket No. 29493, Freight Forwarders—Motor Common Carriers, Agreements, wherein the Commission prescribed terms and conditions, including those governing the determination and fixing of the compensation to be paid or observed, under which freight forwarders subject to Part IV of the act may utilize the services and instrumentalities of common carriers by motor vehicle subject to Part II of the act.

CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October A. D. 1948.

In the matter of Czechoslovak Government 8% Secured External Sinking Fund Gold Bonds of the Czechoslovak State Loan of 1922 (first series) due April 1, 1951 and Series B due October 1, 1952 "Unstamped".

The New York Stock Exchange, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to strike from registration and listing the Czechoslovak Government 8% Secured External Sinking Fund Gold Bonds of the Czechoslovak State Loan of 1922 (first series) due April 1, 1951, and Series B due October 1, 1952, "Unstamped".

The application alleges:

(1) The Czechoslovak Government on September 30, 1946, extended an offer to resume service and to pay interest arrears on the outstanding dollar bonds of the Czechoslovak State Loan of 1922. This offer among other things provided for payment at the full rate of 8% per annum of interest coupons maturing from April 1, 1940, to and including April 1, 1946; for the payment of interest commencing October 1, 1946, at the reduced rate of 6% per anum; and for the extension of the maturity date of the bonds to October 1, 1960.

(2) Bondholders accepting the offer of the Czechoslovak Government were instructed to present their dollar bonds for stamping to indicate acceptance of the modifications in the terms of the bonds.

(3) The paying agents have reported to the exchange that the outstanding dollar bonds of these issues that have not been stamped to show acceptance of the offer of the Czechoslovak Government have been reduced through acceptance of the offer to $211,000 principal amount of the First Series Dollar Bonds and $198,600 principal amount of the Series B Dollar Bonds.

(4) The reason for the proposed striking of these securities from registration and listing is that the outstanding amounts therein have been so reduced as to make further dealings therein upon the exchange inadvisable.

(5) These securities were suspended from trading on the applicant exchange on September 10, 1948.

(6) The rules of the New York Stock Exchange with respect to the striking of a security from registration and listing have been complied with.

Upon receipt of a request, prior to November 16, 1948, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms or conditions. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D. C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application, and other information contained in the official file of the Commission pertaining to this matter.

By the Commision.

ORDER POSTPONING HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October A. D. 1948.

Brager-Eisenberg, Inc., pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, having made application to the Commission to withdraw its capital stock, $1.00 par value, from registration and listing on the Baltimore Stock Exchange;

The Commission on October 6, 1948 having ordered that a hearing be held in this matter on November 8, 1948, at Baltimore, Maryland; and

It being found necessary to postpone said hearing from 11:00 a. m. November 8, 1948 until 11:00 a. m. January 10, 1949;

It is ordered, That this hearing be postponed until 11:00 a. m. January 10, 1949, to be held before the same hearing officer previously designated, James G. INTERNATIONAL HYDRO-ELECTRIC SYSTEM

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM INTERIM COMPENSATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of October A. D. 1948.

Oliver R. Waite of Brickley, Sears and Cole, 1 Federal Street, Boston, Massachusetts, having filed with this Commission an application and an amendment thereto pursuant to Rule U-63 promulgated under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("the act") for approval of $10,000 as the maximum amount for which application may be made to the District Court of the United States for the District of Massachusetts as compensation for his services rendered as counsel to Bartholomew A. Brickley, Trustee of International Hydro-Electric System, a registered holding company, for the period from May 19, 1947 to July 31, 1948 inclusive, under circumstances as follows:

On August 12, 1943, this Commission filed an application in the aforesaid Court, Civil Action 2430, to enforce compliance with an order of the Commission entered on July 21, 1942, under Section 11 (b) of the Act that International Hydro-Electric System liquidate and dissolve. On November 13, 1944, the Court appointed Bartholomew A. Brickley as Trustee of said System; and on July 29, 1947, the Court authorized said Trustee to employ the applicant as counsel to assist in connection with the preparation, filing, approval and consummation of a plan for the liquidation and dissolution of said System. Applicant states that he has been continuously so employed since May 19, 1947; that up to July 31, 1948 he devoted 859 hours to the work, plus a considerable amount of time in office conferences with said Trustee, estimated at an additional 100 hours. Applicant's detailed statement of recorded time indicates work in drafting plan and amendment thereof, numerous conferences with respect thereto, examination of law, preparation for and attendance upon hearings on the plan, and the preparation of numerous court papers, letters and other documents. The amount requested is the maximum amount to be paid to applicant for all legal services performed by him in this matter to July 31, 1948.

Such application as amended having been duly filed, and notice thereof having been duly published stating that any interested person might not later than October 20, 1948, request a hearing thereon; and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect thereto within the period specified in said notice or otherwise and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

It appearing to the Commission that $10,000 is reasonable as the maximum amount for which application may be made to the District Court as an allowance for the aforesaid services;

It is therefore ordered, That the application of Oliver R. Waite pursuant to Rule U-63 be and the same hereby is granted, effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

NEW ORLEANS PUBLIC SERVICE INC.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION AND GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October A. D. 1948.

New Orleans Public Service Inc. ("New Orleans"), a utility subsidiary of Electric Power & Light Corporation, a registered holding company subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share Company, also a registered holding company, having filed an application and an amendment thereto pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 6 (b) and 7 thereof and Rule U-50 thereunder, regarding the issue and sale at competitive bidding of $10,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, --% Series, due 1978 ("bonds"); and

The Commission having by order dated October 14, 1948 granted said application, as amended, subject to the condition that the proposed issue and sale of bonds not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50 had been made a matter of record in this proceeding, and a further order entered by the Commission in light of the record as so completed and subject to a further reservation of jurisdiction with respect to the payment of all fees and expenses in connection with the proposed transactions; and

New Orleans having filed a further amendment to its application setting forth the action taken to comply with the requirements of Rule U-50 and stating that pursuant to an invitation for competitive bids, four bids for said bonds by four groups of underwriters headed by the firms set forth below were received:

Underwriting group	Coupon rate	Price to company	Cost to company
	Per cent
Lehman Bros	3¼	101.5621	3.1688
Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc	3¼	100.2746	3.2356
Kidder, Peabody & Co	3¼	100.179	3.2406
Union Securities Corp. and Harriman Ripley & Co., Inc	3¼	100.16	3.2416

Said amendment to the application containing a statement that New Orleans has accepted the bid of the group headed by Lehman Brothers, as set out above, and that the Bonds will be offered for sale to the Public at a price of 102.125% of the principal amount thereof resulting in an underwriter's spread of 0.55987% per unit; and

The Commission finding that the proposed payment of counsel fees in the amount of $9,000 to Reid & Priest, New York counsel for New Orleans, and $4,000 and $2,000, respectively, to Rosen, Kammer, Wolff, Hopkins & Burke, and L. J. Darrah, Esquire, local counsel for New Orleans, and $7500 to Beekman & Bogue, counsel for the successful bidder for said Bonds, whose fee is to be paid by the successful bidder, are not unreasonable; and

The Commission having examined said amendment and having considered the record herein and finding no reason for imposing terms and conditions with respect to said matters:

It is ordered, That jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to the matters to be determined as a result of competitive bidding for said Bonds under Rule U-50 be, and the same hereby is, released, and that the amendment filed on October 27, 1948 to the application be, and the same hereby is, granted forthwith, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to fees and expenses of counsel in connection with the issue and sale of said bonds, including fees payable to counsel for the successful bidder, be, and the same hereby is, released.

By the Commission.

KITTERY ELECTRIC LIGHT CO.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of October 1948.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Kittery Electric Light Company ("Kittery"), a subsidiary of New England Gas and Electric Association a registered holding company. Applicant has designated section 6 (b) of the act as applicable to the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than October 28, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after October 28, 1948, said application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized as follows:

Kittery proposes to issue and sell to the Maine Savings Bank of Portland, Maine, $50,000 principal amount of unsecured 3½% serial notes to be dated September 1, 1948, and to mature September 1, 1973. Proceeds from the proposed issue of notes will be used to pay existing six month's notes in the principal amount of $10,500 maturing February 21, 1949, held by The First National Bank of Boston, and to provide cash for the construction, completion, extension and improvement of the company's facilities and for other lawful corporate purposes. The application states that the notes were placed through H. M. Payson & Co. of Portland, Maine, which company will receive a finder's fee of $500. Other expenses are estimated at $280.

Kittery is subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission of the State of Maine, which Commission approved the issue and sale of the said notes by order dated September 10, 1948.

By the Commission.

ALABAMA POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C. on the 26th day of October 1948.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the "act") by Alabama Power Company ("Alabama"), a public utility subsidiary of The Southern Company, a registered holding company and a wholly owned subsidiary of The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation, also a registered holding company. The applicant has designated section 6 (b) of the act and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 18, 1948 at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said application, which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 18, 1948, said application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized as follows:

Alabama proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, $12,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, --% Series, due 1978, to be issued under and secured by Alabama's present indenture dated as of January 1, 1942, as supplemented by indentures dated as of October 1, 1947, and to be dated as of December 1, 1948.

The application states that Alabama has made and contemplates making expenditures of approximately $57,000,000 during the years 1948, 1949 and 1950 for property additions. The proceeds from the sale of the new bonds and funds on hand and to be generated through operations will be used toward such construction program. The Company estimates that approximately $12,000,000 of its cash requirements for such program will have to be provided from the sale, before the end of 1950, of additional securities, of a type not yet determined.

The application indicates that the Alabama Public Service Commission, the State Commission of the State in which Alabama is organized and doing business, has expressly authorized the proposed issuance and sale of the bonds.

Alabama has requested that the Commission's order be issued as soon as possible and that it become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

AMALGAMATED INVESTMENT FUND

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C. on the 27th day of October A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that Amalgamated Investment Fund, a registered, management, open-end, non-diversified investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, through its depositor, Amalgamated Investors, Inc., of 11-15 Union Square, New York, New York, has filed an application pursuant to section 8 (f) of the act for an order declaring that the Applicant as an issuer which is not making and does not presently propose to make a public offering of its securities and whose outstanding securities (other than short-term paper) are now beneficially owned by not more than one hundred persons, has under the provisions of section 3 (c) (1) ceased to be an investment company within the meaning of the Act.

It appears from the application that Amalgamated Investment Fund was organized in 1926 by its sponsor, Amalgamated Investors, Inc. of New York, New York; that the applicant is a registered, management, open-end, nondiversified investment company, having filed with the Commission a registration statement on Form N-8B-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940 on August 15, 1941; that since such registration it has had outstanding only participation certificates having no voting power; that the applicant is not making and does not presently propose to make a public offering of its securities; that the number of persons owning such certificates from the time of registration under the act in 1941 to the present has continually declined from 123 persons to 43 persons; and, that each of the persons holding participation certificates of the applicant is the beneficial owner.

For a more detailed statement of matters of fact and law asserted, all interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application upon such conditions as the Commission may deem necessary for the protection of investors may be issued by the Commission at any time on or after November 15, 1948, unless prior thereto a hearing upon the application is ordered by the Commission as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act. Any interested persons may, not later than November 12, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing his views or any additional facts bearing upon this application or the desirability of a hearing thereon, or request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., and should state briefly the nature of the interest of the persons submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert.

By the Commission.

COMMONWEALTH & SOUTHERN CORP. (DEL.) ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of October 1948.

In the matter of the Commonwealth & Southern Corporation, (Delaware), Southern Indiana Gas and Electric Company, the Commonwealth & Southern Corporation, (New York), File No. 70-1902.

The Commission having on August 1, 1947, issued an order pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the "act") directing, among other things, that the Commonwealth & Southern Corporation (of Delaware), a registered holding company, hereinafter referred to as "Commonwealth," divest itself of its interest in Southern Indiana Gas and Electric Company ("Southern Indiana"), a direct public utility subsidiary of Commonwealth; and

The Commission having, by its order dated September 9, 1948 in these proceedings, granted Commonwealth an exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 with respect to the proposed sale by Commonwealth of all of its holdings of the common stock of Southern Indiana and having deferred consideration and reserved jurisdiction with respect to all other aspects of the proposed sale;

Notice is hereby given that Commonwealth & Southern Corporation (of New York), a mutual service company subsidiary of Commonwealth, hereinafter referred to as "service company", and Southern Indiana, have filed amendments to the joint applications-declarations hereto filed in this matter pursuant to the act, regarding, among other things, the sale of common stock of Southern Indiana and the divestment of Commonwealth of its interest in such company. Applicants-declarants have designated sections 6 (a), 7, 9 (a), 10, 12 (c), 12 (d) and 12 (f) of the act and Rules U-42, U-43 and U-44 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

All interested persons are referred to said amended applications-declarations which are on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

(1) Southern Indiana proposes to amend its Articles of Reorganization so as to increase the authorized number of its shares of no par common stock from 500,000 to 1,500,000 shares and thereupon to change the number of shares now outstanding, all of, which are presently owned by Commonwealth, from 400,000 shares to 600,000 shares, without any change, however, in the amount of capital represented thereby.

(2) Commonwealth proposes to sell its holdings of the common stock of Southern Indiana to a group of underwriters represented by Smith, Barney & Co. for resale to the public at the best price (which shall be not less than the then book value) and on the most favorable terms obtainable. The price to Commonwealth and the proposed initial public offering price are to be filed by amendment.

(3) Southern Indiana also proposes, concurrently with the sale of its outstanding common stock by Commonwealth to issue and sell to the same underwriters (or to Commonwealth for resale to said underwriters at its cost and Commonwealth will resell to said underwriters), under the same contract and at the same price, the least number of additional shares of its no par common stock which will be sufficient to realize proceeds to Southern Indiana of approximately $1,500,000 but not more than $1,750,000.

(4) Southern Indiana further proposes, concurrently with the sale of its common stock, to sell to service company, at $100 per share (the approximate book value thereof), the 162 shares of the $100 par value capital stock of service company owned by Southern Indiana. Service company states that it may dispose of the aforesaid 162 shares of its capital stock, at $100 a share, to its remaining stockholders.

(5) In the event that Commonwealth divests itself of its interest in Southern Indiana, service company proposes, so long as it shall be a mutual service company and be authorized to do so, to render to Southern Indiana such services (other than services of a general managerial and supervisory character) as Southern Indiana may from time to time request at the cost thereof, determined in accordance with the usual procedures of the service company with respect thereto, plus 10% of such cost.

Commonwealth states that it will apply the proceeds from the sale of the common stock of Southern Indiana to the payment and retirement of the indebtedness incurred by it through the issuance of notes to banks, as authorized by this Commission's order of September 9, 1948. Southern Indiana states that it will apply the proceeds from the sale of its common stock to finance its current construction program.

Commonwealth requests that the Commission's order herein authorizing the proposed transactions contain the findings, recitals and provisions with respect thereto required by sections 371 (f) and 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Notice is hereby given that any interested person may, not later than November 10, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on any or all of the above matters, other than the proposed sale to underwriters (as to which a hearing, as hereinafter indicated, will be held), stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said filings which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 10, 1948, said applications-declarations, as filed or as amended, except as to proposed sales to underwriters, may be granted or permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

Notice is further given that, if and when a contract is entered into with underwriters for the proposed sale of Southern Indiana common stock, the record herein will be reopened and a hearing will be held on the issues remaining as to such proposed sale at the offices of this Commission after short telegraphic notice to those persons who, not later than November 10, 1948 at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., shall file with the Secretary of the Commission a request in writing that they receive such notice. On the date for hearing the hearing room clerk in Room 101 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held.

It is ordered, That a copy of this notice shall be mailed by registered mail to the Federal Power Commission, the Public Service Commission of Indiana, to Commonwealth, Southern Indiana, the service company and all persons who have participated in the above-entitled proceedings; that notice shall be given to all other persons by general release of this Commission, which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases under the act; and that further notice shall be given to all persons by publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Acting Secretary of the Interior has adopted and has submitted to me for approval the following amendment of the regulations relating to migratory birds and game mammals included in the terms of the Convention between the United States and Great Britain for the protection of migratory birds concluded August 16, 1916, and the Convention between the United States and the United Mexican States for the protection of migratory birds and certain game mammals concluded February 7, 1936:

AMENDMENT OF MIGRATORY BIRD TREATY ACT REGULATIONS ADOPTED BY THE ACTING SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

By virtue of and pursuant to the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918 (40 Stat. 755), and Reorganization Plan II (53 Stat. 1431), and in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act of June 11, 1946 (60 Stat. 238), I, WILLIAM E. WARNE, Acting Secretary of the Interior, having due regard to the zones of temperature and to the distribution, abundance, economic value, breeding habits, and times and lines of migratory flight of scoters and eider ducks, which are migratory birds included in the terms of the Convention between the United States and Great Britain for the protection of migratory birds, concluded August 16, 1916, and the Convention between the United States and the United Mexican States for the protection of migratory birds and game mammals, concluded February 7, 1936, have determined when, to what extent, and by what means it is compatible with the terms of the said Act and conventions to allow the hunting, taking, capture, killing, possession, sale, purchase, shipment, transportation, carriage, exportation, and importation of scoters and eider ducks, and in accordance with such determination, do hereby amend the regulations approved by Proclamation 2801 of July 29, 1948 (13 F. R. 4414), by deleting from the second sentence of footnote 9 under schedule (a) Atlantic Flyway States in § 1.4 (50 CFR 1.4) relating to the taking of scoters and eider ducks in open coastal waters only, beyond outer harbor lines, the words "in New Hampshire from September 1 to October 7;" and by adopting in lieu of such deleted portion the following:

in New Hampshire from November 1 to November 25;

This amendment is a correction of an error appearing in the said regulations approved July 29, 1948, and is in accordance with the recommendation of the State Fish and Game Department. In view of the fact that in respect to hunting in New Hampshire this amendment extends the season for hunting scoters and eider ducks in open coastal waters only, beyond outer harbor lines, from November 1 to November 25, and in view of the further fact that it imposes no new obligation upon the general public with respect to the taking of scoters and eider ducks, it is determined that this amendment shall become effective immediately, and it is found unnecessary to issue said amended regulation subject to the general notice provision and the effective date limitation of sections 4 (a) and 4 (c), respectively, of the Administrative Procedure Act.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the seal of the Department of the Interior to be affixed, this 26th day of October, 1948.

[SEAL] WILLIAM E. WARNE,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

AND WHEREAS upon consideration it appears that approval of the foregoing amendment will effectuate the purposes

Chapter IV—Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, Department of Agriculture

PART 416—CORN CROP INSURANCE

SUBPART—REGULATIONS FOR CONTINUOUS CONTRACTS FOR THE 1949 AND SUCCEEDING CROP YEARS

The Federal Crop Insurance Program is part of the general program of the United States Department of Agriculture administered for the benefit of agriculture.

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation by the Federal Crop Insurance Act, as amended, these regulations are hereby published and prescribed to be in force and effect with respect to continuous corn crop insurance contracts for 1949 and succeeding crop years, until amended or superseded by regulations hereafter made.

Sec.
416.1 Availability of corn crop insurance.
416.2 Coverages per acre.
416.3 Premium rates.
416.4 Application for insurance.
416.5 The contract.
416.6 Person to whom indemnity shall be paid.
416.7 Public notice of indemnities paid.
416.8 Death, incompetence, or disappearance of insured.
416.9 Fiduciaries.
416.10 Assignment or transfer of claims for refunds of excess note payments not permitted.
416.11 Refund of excess note payments in case of death, incompetence or disappearance.
416.12 Creditors.
416.13 Rounding of fractional units.
416.14 The commodity coverage policy.
416.15 The monetary coverage policy.

AUTHORITY: §§ 416.1 to 416.15 issued under secs. 506 (e), 507 (c), 508, 509, 516 (b), 52 Stat. 73-75, 77, 61 Stat. 718; 7 U. S. C. 1506 (e), 1507 (c), 1508, 1509, 1516 (b).

§ 416.1 Availability of corn crop insurance. (a) Corn crop insurance under continuous contracts for the 1949 and succeeding crop years will be provided only in accordance with this subpart in not to exceed 50 counties. A list of these counties will be published by amendment to this section.

(b) Insurance on either a commodity coverage basis or a monetary coverage basis may be offered under this subpart. However, insurance on only one such basis will be provided in a county. The type of coverage applicable to each county will be designated (1) by the Corporation and shown on the county actuarial table and (2) by amendment to this section.

(c) Insurance will not be provided with respect to applications for corn insurance filed in a county in accordance with this subpart unless such written applications, together with corn crop insurance contracts in force for the ensuing crop year, cover at least 200 farms in the county or one-third of the farms normally producing corn. For this purpose an insurance unit shall be counted as one farm.

§ 416.2 Coverages per acre. The Corportation shall establish coverages per acre by areas which shall not be in excess of the maximum limitations prescribed in the Federal Crop Insurance Act. Coverages so established shall be shown on the county actuarial table and shall be on file in the county office and may be revised from year to year as the Corportation may elect. The coverage per acre for any specific acreage shall be the coverage approved by the Corporation for the coverage and rate area in which the acreage is located.

§ 416.3 Premium rates. The Corporation shall establish premium rates per acre by areas for all acreage for which coverages are established and such rates shall be those deemed adequate to cover claims for corn crop losses and to provide a reasonable reserve against unforeseen losses. Premium rates so established shall be shown on the county actuarial table and shall be on file in the county office and may be revised from year to year as the Corporation may elect. The premium rate per acre for any specific acreage shall be the premium rate approved by the Corporation for the coverage and rate area in which the acreage is located.

§ 416.4 Application for insurance. Application for insurance on a form entitled "Application for Corn Crop Insurance" may be made by any person to cover his interest as landlord, owner-operator, or tenant in a corn crop. The application for insurance shall be submitted to the county office on or before April 30 preceding the crop year with respect to which insurance is first to become effective.

§ 416.5 The contract. Upon acceptance of an application for insurance by a duly authorized representative of the Corporation, the contract, which will consist of the application and the policy issued by the Corporation, shall be in effect beginning with the first crop year following the submission of the application in accordance with § 416.4. The provisions of the commodity coverage policy are shown in § 416.14 and the provisions of the monetary coverage policy are shown in § 416.15.

§ 416.6 Person to whom indemnity shall be paid. (a) Any indemnity payable under a contract shall be paid to the insured or such other person as may be entitled to the benefits of the contract under the provisions of this subpart, notwithstanding any attachment, garnishment, receivership, trustee process, judgment, levy, equity, or bankruptcy directed against the insured or such other person, or against any indemnity alleged to be due to such person; nor shall the Corporation or any officer, employee, or representative thereof, be a proper party to any suit or action with reference to such indemnity, nor be bound by any judgment, order, or decree rendered, or entered therein. No officer, agent, or employee of the Corporation shall, because of any such process, order, or decree, pay or cause to be paid to any person other than the insured or other person entitled to the benefits of the contract, any indemnity payable in accordance with the provisions of the contract. Nothing herein contained shall excuse any person entitled to the benefits of the contract from full compliance with, or performance of, any lawful judgment, order, or decree with respect to the disposition of any sums paid thereunder as an indemnity.

(b) The determination of the Corporation as to the existence or nonexistence of a circumstance in the event of which indemnity payment may be made and of the person(s) to whom such payment will be made shall be final and conclusive and payment of an indemnity to such person(s) shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligation with respect to the loss for which such indemnity is paid and settled and shall be a bar to recovery by any other person.

§ 416.7 Public notice of indemnities paid. The Corporation shall provide for the posting annually in each county at the county courthouse of a list of indemnities paid for losses on farms in such county.

§ 416.8 Death, incompetence, or disappearance of insured. (a) If the insured dies, is judicially declared incompetent, or disappears after planting the corn crop in any year but before the time of loss, and his insured interest in the corn crop is a part of his estate at such time, or if the insured dies, is judicially declared incompetent, or disappears subsequent to such time, the indemnity, if any, shall be paid to the legal representative of his estate, if one is appointed or is duly qualified. If no such representative is or will be so qualified the indemnity shall be paid to the persons beneficially entitled to share in the insured interest in the crop or to any one or more of such persons on behalf of all such persons: Provided, however, That if the indemnity exceeds $500, the Corporation may withhold the payment of the indemnity until a legal representative of the insured's estate is duly qualified to receive such payment.

(b) If the insured dies, is judicially declared incompetent or disappears after the planting of the corn crop in any year but before the time of loss, and his interest in the crop is not a part of his estate at such time, the indemnity, if any, shall be paid to the person(s) who succeeded to his interest in the crop in the manner provided for in the corn crop insurance policy.

(c) If an applicant for insurance or the insured, as the case may be, dies, is judicially declared incompetent, or disappears less than 15 days before the closing date for the filing of applications for insurance in any year, and before the beginning of planting of the corn crop in such year, whoever succeeds him on the farm with the right to plant the corn crop as his heir or heirs, administrator, executor, guardian, committee, or conservator, shall be substituted for the original applicant or the insured upon filing with the county office, within 15 days (unless such period is extended by the Corporation) after the date of such death, judicial declaration, or termination of the period which establishes disappearance within the meaning of this subpart, or before the date of the beginning of planting, whichever is earlier, a statement in writing in the form and manner prescribed by the Corpporation, requesting such substitution and agreeing to assume the obligations of the original applicant or the insured arising out of such application or the contract: Provided, however, That any substitution made pursuant to this paragraph shall be effective only with respect to the corn crop to be planted in the ensuing crop year, and the contract shall terminate at the end of such year. If no such statement is filed, as required by this paragraph, the original application shall be void or the contract shall terminate, as the case may be.

(d) In case of death of the insured after the planting of the corn crop is begun for any crop year, any additional acreage of corn which is planted for the insured's estate for that crop year shall be covered by the contract.

(e) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section, the contract shall terminate upon death, judicial declaration of incompetence, or disappearance of the insured, except that if such death, judicial declaration of incompetence, or disappearance occurs after the planting of the corn crop in any crop year but before the end of the insurance period for such year, the contract shall terminate at the end of such insurance period.

(f) The insured shall be deemed to have disappeared within the meaning of this subpart if he fails to file with the county office written notice of his new mailing address within 180 calendar days after any communication by or on behalf of the Corporation is returned undeliverable at the last known address of the insured.

§ 416.9 Fiduciaries. Any indemnity payable under a contract entered into in the name of a fiduciary who is no longer acting in such capacity at the time for the payment of indemnity will be made to the succeeding fiduciary upon appropriate application and proof satisfactory to the Corporation of his incumbency. If there is no succeeding fiduciary, payment of the indemnity shall be made to the persons beneficially entitled under this subpart to the insured interest in the crop, to the extent of their respective interests, upon proper application and proof of the facts: Provided, however, That the settlement may be made with any one or more of the persons in behalf of all the persons so entitled, whether or not the person to whom payment is made has been authorized by the other interested persons to receive such payment.

§ 416.10 Assignment or transfer of claims for refunds of excess note payments not permitted. No claim for a refund of an excess note payment or any part thereof, or any interest therein, shall be assignable or transferable, notwithstanding any assignment of the contract or any transfer of interest in any corn crop covered by the contract. Refund of any excess note payment will be made only to the person who made such payment, except as provided in § 416.11.

§ 416.11 Refund of excess note payments in case of death, incompetence, or disappearance. In any case where a person who is entitled to a refund of an excess note payment has died, has been judicially declared incompetent, or has disappeared, the provisions of § 416.8 with reference to the payment of indemnities in any such case shall be applicable with respect to the making of any such refund.

§ 416.12 Creditors. An interest (including an involuntary transfer) in an insured corn crop because of the existence of a debt, lien, mortgage, garnishment, levy, execution, bankruptcy, or other process shall not entitle any holder of any such interest to any benefits under the contract.

§ 416.13 Rounding of fractional units. The total coverage shall be rounded to the nearest bushel for commodity coverage insurance and to the nearest cent for monetary coverage insurance. In any case, the premium and the value of production shall be rounded to the nearest cent and the total production shall be rounded to the nearest bushel. Fractions of acres shall be rounded to tenths of acres. Computations shall be carried one digit beyond the digit that is to be rounded. If the last digit is 1, 2, 3, or 4, the rounding shall be downward. If the last digit is 5, 6, 7, 8, or 9, the rounding shall be upward.

§ 416.14 The commodity coverage policy. The provisions of the commodity coverage policy are as follows:

In consideration of the representations and provisions in the application upon which this policy is issued, which application is made a part of the contract, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth or referred to herein, the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (hereinafter designated as the Corporation) does hereby insure (hereinafter designated as the insured) against loss of production on his corn crop while in the field, due to unavoidable causes including drought, flood, hail, wind, frost, freeze, lightning, fire, excessive rain, snow, wildlife, hurricane, tornado, insect infestation, plant disease, and such other unavoidable causes as may be determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. In witness whereof, the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation has caused this policy to be issued this ____ day of _____ ____, 19__.

FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE CORPORATION,

By _____,
State Crop Insurance Director.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Kind of corn insured. The corn to be insured shall be corn planted for harvest as grain and shall include only corn which is normally regarded as field corn. The contract shall not provide insurance for true type silage corn or thick-planted corn for silage or fodder purposes, sweet corn, popcorn, broom corn, corn planted for the development of hybrid seed corn, or any type of corn other than that normally regarded as field corn.

2. Insurable acreage. For each crop year of the contract, any acreage is insurable only if a coverage therefor is shown on the county actuarial table (including maps and related forms) by not later than April 30 preceding that crop year.

3. Responsibility of insured to report acreage and interest. (a) Promptly after planting the corn crop each year, the insured shall submit to the Corporation, on a form entitled "Corn Crop Insurance Acreage Report," a report over his signature of all acreage in the county planted to corn in which he has an interest at the time of planting. This report shall show the acreage of corn for each insurance unit and his interest in each at the time of planting. If the insured does not have an insurable interest in corn planted in any year, the acreage report shall nevertheless be submitted promptly after the planting of corn is generally completed in the county. Any acreage report submitted by the insured shall be considered final and not subject to change by the insured.

(b) The Corporation may elect to determine that the insured acreage is "zero" if the insured fails to file an acreage report within 30 days after planting of corn is generally completed in the county, as determined by the Corporation.

(c) Failure of the county office to request submission of such report or to send a personal representative to obtain the report shall not relieve the insured of the responsibility to make such report.

4. Insured acreage. The insured acreage with respect to each insurance unit shall be the acreage of corn planted as reported by the insured or as determined by the Corporation, whichever the Corporation shall elect, except that insurance shall not attach with respect to (a) any acreage planted to corn which is destroyed or substantially destroyed (as defined in section 15(a)) and on which it is practical to replant to corn, as determined by the Corporation, and such acreage is not replanted to corn, or (b) and acreage initially planted to corn too late to expect a normal crop to be produced, as determined by the Corporation.

5. Insured interest. The insured interest in the corn crop covered by the contract shall be the interest of the insured at the time of planting as reported by the insured or as determined by the Corporation, whichever the Corporation shall elect. For the purpose of determining the amount of loss the insured interest shall not exceed the insured's actual interest at the time of loss or the beginning of harvest whichever occurs first.

6. Coverage per acre. The coverage per acre shall be the applicable number of bushels of corn established for the area in which the insured acreage is located, and shall be shown on the county actuarial table on file in the county office. The coverage per acre is progressive depending upon whether the acreage is (a) released and planted to a substitute crop, (b) not harvested and not seeded to a substitute crop, or released and fed to livestock in the field, or (c) harvested or to be harvested.

7. Fixed price for valuing amount of loss. For such crop year of the contract the amount of any indemnity shall be determined by multiplying the number of bushels of corn approved as the amount of loss for the insured by the fixed price per bushel for such year. The fixed price per bushel for the 1949 crop year shall be the applicable 1948 county corn loan rate per bushel established by the United States Department of Agriculture. For any subsequent crop year, notice of any change in the fixed price from the prior crop year shall be mailed by the Corporation to the insured not later than March 15 preceding the crop year for which the new price applies. Each year the fixed price shall be on file in the county office.

8. Insurance period. Insurance with respect to any insured acreage shall attach at the time the corn is planted. Insurance shall cease with respect to any portion of the corn crop covered by the contract upon harvesting or removal from the field, and with respect to any insurance unit upon submission of a claim for indemnity, but in no event shall the insurance remain in effect later than December 10 of each year, unless such time is extended in writing by the Corporation.

9. Life of contract, cancelation thereof. (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section, the contract shall be in effect with respect to the first crop year following the submission of the application and shall continue in effect for each succeeding crop year until canceled by either the insured or the Corporation. Cancelation for any year may be made by either party giving written notice to the other party on or before March 31 of the year for which cancelation is to become effective. Any notice of concelation given by the insured to the Corporation shall be submitted in writing to the county office.

(b) If the insured cancels the contract he shall not be eligible for corn crop insurance in the county for the next succeeding crop year unless he subsequently files an application for insurance on or before March 31 preceding such year.

(c) If for two consecutive crop years no corn in which the insured has an insurable interest is planted in the county, the contract shall terminate.

(d) If the minimum participation requirement as established by the Corporation is not met for any year the contract shall continue in force only to the end of the crop year for which such requirement is not met, except that if the minimum participation requirement is met on or before the next succeeding April 30, the contract shall continue to be in force.

10. Changes in contract. The Corporation reserves the right to change the premium rate(s), insurance coverage(s) and other terms and provisions of the contract from year to year. Notice of such changes shall be mailed to the insured on or before March 15 preceding the crop year for which such changes are to become effective. Failure of the insured to cancel the contract as provided in section 9 shall constitute his acceptance of any such changes. If no notice is mailed to the insured, the terms and provisions of the contract for the prior year shall continue in force.

11. Causes of loss not insured against. The contract shall not cover loss of production caused by: (a) failure to follow recognized good farming practices; (b) poor farming practices, including but not limited to the use of defective or unadapted seed, overplanting or underplanting, failure properly to prepare the land for planting or properly to plant, care for or harvest the insured crop (including unreasonable delay thereof); (c) following different fertilizer or farming practices than those considered in establishing the coverage per acre; (d) planting corn on land which is generally not considered capable of producing a corn crop comparable to that produced on the land considered in establishing the coverage per acre; (e) planting a variety of corn which differs materially in yield from the variety considered in establishing the coverage per acre; (f) planting corn under conditions of immediate hazard; (g) inability to obtain labor, seed, fertilizer, machinery, repairs or insect poison; (h) breakdown of machinery, or failure of equipment due to mechanical defects; (i) neglect or malfeasance of the insured or of any person in his household or employment or connected with the farm as tenant or wage hand; (j) domestic animals or poultry; (k) action of any person, or state, county, or municipal government in the use of chemicals for the controls of weeds; or (l) theft.

12. Amount of annual premium. The premium rate per acre will be the applicable number of dollars established by the Corporation for the coverage and rate area in which the insured acreage is located and will be shown on the county actuarial table on file in the county office. The annual premium for each insurance unit under the contract will be based upon (1) the insured acreage of corn, (2) the applicable premium rate(s), and (3) the insured interest in the crop at the time of planting. There will be a reduction in the annual premium for each insurance unit of two percent in cases where the insured acreage on the insurance unit is as much as 50 acres and does not exceed 99.9 acres, and an additional two percent reduction for each additional 50 acres or fraction thereof on the insurance unit. However, the total reduction shall not exceed 20 percent. The annual premium for the contract shall be the total of the premiums computed for the insured for all insurance units covered by the contract. The annual premium with respect to any insured acreage shall be regarded as earned when the corn crop on such acreage is planted.

13. Manner of payment of premium. (a) The applicant executes a premium note by signing the application for corn crop insurance. This note represents a promise to pay to the Corporation annually during the life of the contract, on or before August 15 (the maturity date) of each year, the premium for all insurance units covered by the contract during the current year.

(b) A discount of five percent shall be allowed on any earned annual premium which is paid in full on or before June 30 if the insured has submitted to the Corporation at the county office his corn acreage report promptly after planting but not later than June 30 of such crop year.

(c) Any premium note not paid at maturity shall bear interest computed not on a per annum basis but as follows: Three percent on the principal amount not paid on or before December 31 following the maturity date, and an additional three percent on the principal amount owing at the end of each six-month period thereafter.

(d) Payment on any annual premium shall be made by means of cash or by check, money order, postal note, or bank draft payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States. All checks and drafts will be accepted subject to collection and payments tendered shall not be regarded as paid unless collection is made.

(e) Any unpaid amount of any annual premium plus any interest due may be deducted (either before or after the date of maturity) from any indemnity payable by the Corporation, from the proceeds of any commodity loan to the insured, and from any payment made to the insured under the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, or any other act of Congress or program administered by the United States Department of Agriculture. There shall be no refund of any annual premium overpayment of less than $1.00 unless written request for such refund is received by the Corporation within one year after the payment thereof.

14. Notice of loss or damage. (a) If a loss under the contract is probable, notice in writing (unless otherwise provided by the Corporation) shall be given the Corporation at the county office immediately after any material damage to the insured crop. The crop shall not be harvested (except as provided in Section 15 (b)), removed, or any other use made of it until it has been inspected by the Corporation.

(b) If, at the completion of harvesting of the insured corn crop, a loss under the contract has been sustained, notice in writing (unless otherwise provided by the Corporation) shall be given immediately to the Corporation at the county office. If such notice is not given within 15 days after harvest is completed, the Corporation reserves the right to reject any claim for indemnity. This notice is in addition to any notice required by paragraph (a) of this section.

15. Released acreage and released crop. (a) Any insured acreage on which the corn crop has been destroyed or substantially destroyed may be released by the Corporation for planting to a substitute crop or to be put to another use. The corn crop shall be deemed to have been substantially destroyed if the Corporation determines that it has been so badly damaged that farmers generally in the area, where the land is located and on whose farms similar damage occurred, would not further care for the crop or harvest any portion thereof. No insured acreage may be planted to a substitute crop or put to another use until the Corporation releases such acreage. On any acreage where the corn has been partially destroyed but not released by the Corporation, proper measures shall be taken to protect the crop from further damage. There shall be no abandonment of any crop or portion thereof to the Corporation.

(b) The corn crop on any insured acreage may be released by the Corporation subject to an appraisal by the Corporation of the yield that would be realized if the crop were harvested, except that such corn crop may be used for ensilage or fodder without a release by the Corporation provided the insured leaves a number of rows considered by the Corporation to be an adequate representative sample for appraising the yield.

16. Time of loss. Any loss shall be deemed to have occurred at the end of the insurance period, unless the entire corn crop on the insurance unit was destroyed or substantially destroyed earlier, in which event the loss shall be deemed to have occurred on the date of such damage, as determined by the Corporation.

17. Proof of loss. If a loss is claimed, the insured shall submit to the Corporation a form entitled "Statement in Proof of Loss," containing such information regarding the manner and extent of the loss as may be required by the Corporation. The statement in proof of loss shall be submitted not later than sixty days after the time of loss, unless the time for submitting the claim is extended in writing by the Corporation. It shall be a condition precedent to any liability under the contract that the insured establish the amount of any loss for which claim is made, and that such loss has been directly caused by one or more of the hazards insured against by the contract during the insurance period for the crop year for which the loss is claimed, and that the insured further establish that the loss has not arisen from or been caused by, either directly or indirectly, any of the causes of loss not insured against by the contract.

18. Insurance unit. Losses shall be determined separately for each insurance unit except as provided in section 19(b). An insurance unit consists of (a) all the insurable acreage of corn in the county in which the insured has 100 percent interest in the crop at the time of planting, or (b) all the insurable acreage of corn in the county owned by one person which is operated by the insured as a share tenant at the time of planting, or (c) all the insurable acreage of corn in the county which is owned by the insured and is rented to one share tenant at the time of planting. Land rented for cash or for a fixed commodity payment shall be considered as owned by the lessee. For any crop year of the contract acreage shall be considered to be located in the county if a coverage therefor is shown on the county actuarial table.

19. Amount of loss. (a) The amount of loss with respect to any insurance unit shall be determined by multiplying the planted acreage (exclusive of any acreage to which insurance did not attach) by the applicable coverage per acre and subtracting therefrom the total production for the planted acreage and multiplying the remainder by the insured interest. However, if the planted acreage on the insurance unit exceeds the insured acreage on the insurance unit, the amount of loss so determined shall be reduced on the basis of the ratio of the insured acreage to the planted acreage, or if the premium computed for the acreage and interest shown on the acreage report is less than the premium computed for the planted acreage, the amount of loss determined for the planted acreage may be reduced on the basis of the ratio of the premium computed for the acreage and interest shown on the acreage report to the premium computed for the planted acreage, if the Corporation so elects. The total production for an insurance unit shall include all production determined in accordance with the schedule below. The Corporation reserves the right to determine the amount of production on the basis of appraisal of unharvested corn standing in the field.

SCHEDULE

Acreage classification	Total production in bushels
1. Acreage of corn harvested (exclusive of any acreage shown in item 3 below).	1. Actual production of harvested corn plus appraised production of any corn left in the field after harvest.
2. Acreage of corn to be harvested.	2. The appraised production of unharvested corn at the time of submission of a statement in proof of loss or the appraised production of any corn remaining unharvested December 10.
3. Acreage on which corn has a value, as determined by the Corporation, of less than 50 percent of the local market value or 50 percent of the fixed price, whichever is the lesser.	3. A number of bushels of corn which the Corporation determines will result in indemnifying the insured for the amount that the production from any corn acreage lacks of having a value of 50 percent of the fixed price multiplied by a number of bushels of corn equal to the smaller of (i) the number of bushels of such production harvested, or (ii) the coverage for the insurance unit, minus all production of corn counted for other reasons.
4. Acreage of corn used for ensilage or fodder.	4. Appraised production.
5. Acreage of corn released by the Corporation and planted to a substitute crop.	5. That portion of the appraised production which is in excess of the coverage for such acreage.
6. Acreage of corn released for feeding to livestock in the field and any other acreage not harvested (and not to be harvested) and not planted to a substitute crop.	6. That portion of the appraised production which is in excess of the number of bushels determined by subtracting (i) the coverage for such acreage from (ii) the coverage for such acreage if it were harvested.
7. Acreage of corn put to another use without being released by the Corporation except corn used for ensilage or fodder as provided in Section 15 (b).	7. Appraised production but not less than the product of (i) such acreage and (ii) the coverage per acre for harvested acreage.
8. Acreage of corn with reduced yield due solely to any cause(s) not insured against.	8. Appraised number of bushels by which production has been reduced but not less than the product of (i) such acreage and (ii) the coverage per acre, minus any corn harvested.
9. Acreage of corn with reduced yield due partially to a cause(s) not insured against and partially to a cause(s) insured against.	9. Appraised number of bushels by which production has been reduced because of any cause(s) not insured against.

(b) If the production from two or more insurance units is commingled and the insured fails to establish and maintain records satisfactory to the Corporation of acreage or the production from each, the insurance with respect to such units may be voided by the Corporation for the crop year and the premium forfeited by the insured. However, if all the component parts are insured the total coverage for the component parts may be considered as the total coverage for the combination, if the Corporation so elects, in which case any loss for such combination shall be determined as outlined in paragraph (a) of this section. Where the insured fails to establish and maintain separate records, satisfactory to the Corporation, of uninsured acreage and production therefrom and for one or more insurance units or portions thereof, any production from such acreage which is commingled with production from the insured acreage shall be considered to have been produced on the insured acreage, or the insurance with respect to such unit(s) under the contract may be voided by the Corporation for the crop year and the premium forfeited by the insured.

(c) The cash amount of the indemnity shall be determined by multiplying the amount of the loss in bushels by the fixed price.

20. Payment of indemnity. (a) Indemnities shall be paid only by check. The amount of indemnity for which the Corporation may be liable will be payable within thirty days after satisfactory proof of loss is approved by the Corporation, but if payment is delayed for any reason, the Corporation shall not be liable for interest or damages on account of such delay.

(b) Indemnities shall be subject to all provisions of the contract, including the right of the Corporation to deduct from any indemnity the unpaid amount of any earned premium plus any interest due or any other obligation of the insured to the Corporation.

(c) Any indemnity payable under a contract shall be paid to the insured or such other person as may be entitled to the benefits under the provisions of the contract, notwithstanding any attachment, garnishment, receivership, trustee process, judgment, levy, equity, or bankruptcy, directed against the insured or such other person, or against any indemnity alleged to be due to such person; nor shall the Corporation or any officer, employee, or representative thereof, be a proper party to any suit or action with reference to such indemnity, nor be bound by any judgment, order, or decree rendered or entered therein. Nothing herein contained shall excuse any person entitled to the benefits of the contract from full compliance with, or performance of, any lawful judgment, order, or decree with respect to the disposition of any sums paid thereunder as an indemnity.

(d) If a check issued in payment of an indemnity is returned undeliverable at the last known address of the payee, and if such payee or other person entitled to the indemnity makes no claim for payment within two years after the issuance of the check, such claim shall not thereafter be payable, except with the consent of the Corporation.

21. Payment to transferee. (a) If the insured transfers all or a part of his insured interest in a corn crop before the beginning of harvest or at the time of loss, whichever occurs first, he shall immediately notify the Corporation thereof in writing at the county office. The transferee under such a transfer will be entitled to the benefits of the contract with respect to the interest so transferred, provided the transferee immediately following the transfer makes suitable arrangements with the Corporation for the payment of any premium with respect to the interest so transferred, whereupon the transferee and the transferor shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of such premium. Any transfer shall be subject to any collateral assignment made by the original insured in accordance with section 25. However, the Corporation shall not be liable for a greater amount of indemnity in connection with the insured crop than would have been paid if the transfer had not taken place.

(b) An involuntary transfer of an insured interest in a corn crop solely because of the existence of a debt, lien, mortgage, garnishment, levy, execution, bankruptcy, or other process shall not entitle any holder of any such interest to any benefits under the contract.

(c) Any deduction to be made from an indemnity payable to the transferee shall not exceed the annual premium plus any interest due on the land involved in the transfer for the crop year in which the transfer is made, plus the unpaid amount of any other obligation of the transferee to the Corporation.

(d) If, as a result of any transfer, diverse interests appear with respect to any insurance unit, any indemnity payable with respect to such unit may be paid jointly to all persons having the insured interest in the crop at the time harvest is commenced or the time of loss, whichever occurs first, or to one of such persons on behalf of all such persons, and payment in any such manner shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's liability with respect to such unit under the contract.

(e) If a transfer is effected in accordance with paragraph (a) above, the contract of the transferor shall cover the interest so transferred only to the end of the insurance period for the crop year during which the transfer is made.

22. Determination of person to whom indemnity shall be paid. In any case where the insured has transferred his interest in all or a part of the corn crop on any insurance unit, or has ceased to act as a fiduciary, or has died, has been judicially declared incompetent or has disappeared, payment in accordance with the provisions of the contract will be made only after the facts have been established to the satisfaction of the Corporation. The determination of the Corporation as to the existence or nonexistence of a circumstance in the event of which payment may be made and of the person(s) to whom such payment will be made shall be final and conclusive. Payment of an indemnity under this section shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligation with respect to the loss for which such indemnity is paid and settled and shall be a bar to recovery by any other person.

23. Other insurance. (a) If the insured has or acquires any other insurance against substantially all the risks that are insured against by the Corporation under the contract, regardless of whether such other insurance is valid or collectible, the liability of the Corporation shall not be greater than its share would be if the amount of its obligations were divided equally between the Corporation and such other insurer.

(b) In any case where an indemnity is paid to the insured by another Government agency because of damage to the corn crop, the Corporation reserves the right to determine its liability under the contract taking into consideration the amount paid by such other agency.

24. Subrogation. The Corporation may require from the insured an assignment of all rights of recovery against any person(s) for loss or damage to the extent that payment therefor is made by the Corporation, and the insured shall execute all papers required and shall do everything that may be necessary to secure such rights.

25. Collateral assignment. The original insured may assign his right to an indemnity under the contract by executing a form entitled "Collateral Assignment" and upon approval thereof by the Corporation the interest of the assignee will be recognized, including the right of the assignee to submit a "Statement in Proof of Loss" if the insured refuses to submit or disappears without having submitted such statement.

26. Records and access to farm. For the purpose of enabling the Corporation to determine any loss that may have occurred under the contract, the insured shall keep, or cause to be kept, for one year after the time of loss, records of the harvesting, storage, shipment, sale, or other disposition, of all corn produced on each insurance unit covered by the contract, and on any uninsured acreage in the county in which he has an interest. Such records shall be made available for examination by the Corporation, and as often as may be reasonably required, any person(s) designated by the Corporation shall have access to the farm(s).

27. Voidance of contract. The contract may be voided and the premium forfeited to the Corporation without the Corporation waiving any right or remedy, including its right to collect the amount of the note executed by the insured, whether before or after maturity, if (a) at any time the insured has concealed any material fact or made any false or fraudulent statements relating to the contract, the subject thereof, or his interests in the corn crop covered thereby, or (b) the insured shall neglect to use all reasonable means to produce, care for or save the corn crop covered thereby, whether before or after damage has occurred, or (c) the insured fails to give any notice, or otherwise fails to comply with the terms of the contract, including the note, at the time and in the manner prescribed.

28. Modification of contract. No notice to any representative of the Corporation or knowledge possessed by any such representative or by any other person shall be held to effect a waiver of or change in any part of the contract, or to estop the Corporation from asserting any right or power under such contract; nor shall the terms of such contract be waived or changed except as authorized in writing by a duly authorized officer or representative of the Corporation; nor shall any provision or condition of the contract or any forfeiture be held to be waived by any delay or omission by the Corporation in exercising its rights and powers thereunder or by any requirement, act, or proceeding on the part of the Corporation or of its representatives relating to appraisal or to any examination herein provided for.

29. General. (a) In addition to the terms and provisions in the application and policy, the Corn Crop Insurance Regulations for Continuous Contracts for the 1949 and Succeeding Crop Years (§§ 416.1 to 416.15) shall govern with respect to (1) death, incompetence, or disappearance of the insured, (2) fiduciaries, (3) prohibition against assignment or transfer of claims for refunds, (4) rounding of fractional units, (5) creditors, and (6) minimum participation requirements.

(b) Copies of the regulations and forms referred to in this policy are available at the county office.

30. Meaning of terms. For the purpose of the corn crop insurance program, the terms:

(a) "Contract" means the accepted application for insurance and this policy.

(b) "County Actuarial Table" means the form and related material (including the crop insurance maps) approved by the Corporation for listing the coverages per acre and the premium rates per acre applicable in the county.

(c) "County office" means the office of the county Agricultural Conservation Association in the county or other office specified by the Corporation.

(d) "Crop year" means the period from May 1 to December 10, inclusive, and for any year shall be designated by reference to the applicable calendar year.

(e) "Harvest" means picking the corn from the stalk either by hand or machine, or cutting the corn for fodder or ensilage.

(f) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, or other business enterprise or other legal entity and, wherever applicable, a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency thereof.

(g) "Substitute crop" means any crop other than corn planted on released acreage for harvest in the same crop year.

(h) "Tenant" means a person who rents land from another person for a share of the corn crop or proceeds therefrom produced on such land.

§ 416.15 The monetary coverage policy. The provisions of the monetary coverage policy are as follows:

In consideration of the representations and provisions in the application upon which this policy is issued, which application is made a part of the contract, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth or referred to herein, the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (hereinafter designated as the Corporation) does hereby insure (hereinafter designated as the insured) against loss on his corn crop while in the field, due to unavoidable causes including drought, flood, hail, wind, frost, freeze, lightning, fire, excessive rain, snow, wildlife, hurricane, tornado, insect infestation, plant disease, and such other unavoidable causes as may be determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. In witness whereof, the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation has caused this policy to be issued this ____ day of ----------, 19--.

FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE CORPORATION,

By ----------
State Crop Insurance Director.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Kind of corn insured. The corn to be insured shall be corn planted for harvest as grain and shall include only corn which is normally regarded as field corn. The contract shall not provide insurance for true type silage corn or thick-planted corn planted for silage or fodder purposes, sweet corn, popcorn, broom corn, corn planted for the development of hybrid seed corn, or any type of corn other than that normally regarded as field corn.

2. Insurable acreage. For each crop year of the contract, any acreage is insurable only if a coverage therefor is shown on the county actuarial table (including maps and related forms) by not later than April 30 preceding that crop year.

3. Responsibility of insured to report acreage and interest. (a) Promptly after planting the corn crop each year, the insured shall submit to the Corporation, on a form entitled "Corn Crop Insurance Acreage Report," a report over his signature of all acreage in the county planted to corn in which he has an interest at the time of planting. This report shall show the acreage of corn for each insurance unit and his interest in each at the time of planting. If the insured does not have an insurable interest in corn planted in any year, the acreage report shall nevertheless be submitted promptly after the planting of corn is generally completed in the county. Any acreage report submitted by the insured shall be considered final and not subject to change by the insured.

(b) The Corporation may elect to determine that the insured acreage is "zero" if the insured fails to file an acreage report within 30 days after planting of corn is generally completed in the county, as determined by the Corporation.

(c) Failure of the county office to request submission of such report or to send a personal representative to obtain the report shall not relieve the insured of the responsibility to make such report.

4. Insured acreage. The insured acreage with respect to each insurance unit shall be the acreage of corn planted as reported by the insured or as determined by the Corporation, whichever the Corporation shall elect, except that insurance shall not attach with respect to (a) any acreage planted to corn which is destroyed or substantially destroyed (as defined in section 15(a)) and on which it is practical to replant to corn, as determined by the Corporation, and such acreage is not replanted to corn, or (b) any acreage initially planted to corn too late to expect a normal crop to be produced, as determined by the Corporation.

5. Insured interest. The insured interest in the corn crop covered by the contract shall be the interest of the insured at the time of planting as reported by the insured or as determined by the Corporation, whichever the Corporation shall elect. For the purpose of determining the amount of loss the insured interest shall not exceed the insured's actual interest at the time of loss or the beginning of harvest whichever occurs first.

6. Coverage per acre. The coverage per acre shall be the applicable number of dollars established for the area in which the insured acreage is located, and shall be shown on the county actuarial table on file in the county office. The coverage per acre is progressive depending upon whether the acreage is (a) released and planted to a substitute crop, (b) not harvested and not seeded to a substitute crop, or released and fed to livestock in the field, or (c) harvested or to be harvested.

7. Predetermined price for valuing production. In determining any loss under the contract, production shall be evaluated on the basis of a predetermined price per bushel established annually by the Corporation, except that if the Corporation determines in any year that any of the insured's corn is not eligible for a Commodity Credit Corporation loan for that year and would not meet loan requirements if properly handled, such corn shall be evaluated at the highest price obtainable (but not in excess of the predetermined price) as determined by the Corporation. The predetermined price for the 1949 crop year shall be the 1948 loan rate established by the United States Department of Agriculture for the county. For any subsequent crop year, notice of any change in the predetermined price from the prior crop year shall be mailed by the Corporation to the insured not later than March 15 preceding the crop year for which it applies. Each year the predetermined price shall be on file in the county office.

8. Insurance period. Insurance with respect to any insured acreage shall attach at the time the corn is planted. Insurance shall cease with respect to any portion of the corn crop upon harvesting or removal from the field, and with respect to any insurance unit upon submission of a claim for indemnity, but in no event shall the insurance remain in effect later than December 10 of each year, unless such time is extended in writing by the Corporation.

9. Life of contract, cancelation thereof. (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section, the contract shall be in effect with respect to the first crop year following the submission of the application and shall continue in effect for each succeeding crop year until canceled by either the insured or the Corporation. Cancelation for any year may be made by either party giving written notice to the other party on or before March 31 of the year for which cancelation is to become effective. Any notice of cancelation given by the insured to the Corporation shall be submitted in writing to the county office.

(b) If the insured cancels the contract he shall not be eligible for corn crop insurance in the county for the next succeeding crop year unless he subsequently files an application for insurance on or before March 31 preceding such year.

(c) If for two consecutive crop years no corn in which the insured has an insurable interest is planted in the county, the contract shall terminate.

(d) If the minimum participation requirement as established by the Corporation is not met for any year the contract shall continue in force only to the end of the crop year for which such requirement is not met, except that if the minimum participation requirement is met on or before the next succeeding April 30, the contract shall continue to be in force.

10. Changes in contract. The Corporation reserves the right to change the premium rate(s), insurance coverage(s) and other terms and provisions of the contract from year to year. Notice of such changes shall be mailed to the insured on or before March 15 preceding the crop year for which such changes are to become effective. Failure of the insured to cancel the contract is provided in section 9 shall constitute his acceptance of any such changes. If no notice is mailed to the insured, the terms and provisions of the contract for the prior year shall continue in force.

11. Causes of loss not insured against. The contract shall not cover loss of production caused by: (a) failure to follow recognized good farming practices; (b) poor farming practices, including but not limited to the use of defective or unadapted seed, overplanting or underplanting, failure properly to prepare the land for planting or properly to plant, care for or harvest the insured crop (including unreasonable delay thereof); (c) following different fertilizer or farming practices than those considered in establishing the coverage per acre; (d) planting corn on land which is generally not considered capable of producing a corn crop comparable to that produced on the land considered in establishing the coverage per acre; (e) planting a variety of corn which differs materially in yield from the variety considered in establishing the coverage per acre; (f) planting corn under conditions of immediate hazard; (g) inability to obtain labor, seed, fertilizer, machinery, repairs or insect poison; (h) breakdown of machinery, or failure of equipment due to mechanical defects; (i) neglect or malfeasance of the insured or of any person in his household or employment or connected with the farm as tenant or wage hand; (j) domestic animals or poultry; (k) action of any person, or state, county, or municipal government in the use of chemicals for the control of weeds; or (l) theft.

12. Amount of annual premium. The premium rate per acre will be the applicable number of dollars established by the Corporation for the coverage and rate area in which the insured acreage is located and will be shown on the county actuarial table on file in the county office. The annual premium for each insurance unit under the contract will be based upon (1) the insured acreage of corn, (2) the applicable premium rate(s), and (3) the insured interest in the crop at the time of planting. There will be a reduction in the annual premium for each insurance unit of two percent in cases where the insured acreage on the insurance unit is as much as 50 acres and does not exceed 99.9 acres, and an additional two percent reduction for each additional 50 acres or fraction thereof on the insurance unit. However, the total reduction shall not exceed 20 percent. The annual premium for the contract shall be the total of the premiums computed for the insured for all insurance units covered by the contract. The annual premium with respect to any insured acreage shall be regarded as earned when the corn crop on such acreage is planted.

13. Manner of payment of premium. (a) The applicant executes a premium note by signing the application for corn crop insurance. This note represents a promise to pay to the Corporation annually during the life of the contract, on or before August 15 (the maturity date) of each year, the premium for all insurance units covered by the contract during the current year.

(b) A discount of five percent shall be allowed on any earned annual premium which is paid in full on or before June 30 if the insured has submitted to the Corporation at the county office his corn acreage report promptly after planting but not later than June 30 of such crop year.

(c) Any premium note not paid at maturity shall bear interest computed not on a per annum basis but as follows: Three percent on the principal amount not paid on or before December 31 following the maturity date, and an additional three percent on the principal amount owing at the end of each six-month period thereafter.

(d) Payment on any annual premium shall be made by means of cash or by check, money order, postal note, or bank draft payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States. All checks and drafts will be accepted subject to collection and payments tendered shall not be regarded as paid unless collection is made.

(e) Any unpaid amount of any annual premium plus any interest due may be deducted (either before or after the date of maturity) from any indemnity payable by the Corporation, from the proceeds of any commodity loan to the insured, and from any payments made to the insured under the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, or any other act of Congress or program administered by the United States Department of Agriculture. There shall be no refund of any annual premium overpayment of less than $1.00 unless written request for such refund is received by the Corporation within one year after the payment thereof.

14. Notice of loss or damage. (a) If a loss under the contract is probable, notice in writing (unless otherwise provided by the Corporation) shall be given the Corporation at the county office immediately after any material damage to the insured crop. The crop shall not be harvested, (except as provided in section 15 (b)) removed, or any other use made of it until it has been inspected by the Corporation.

(b) If, at the completion of harvesting of the insured corn crop, a loss under the contract has been sustained, notice in writing (unless otherwise provided by the Corporation) shall be given immediately to the Corporation at the county office. If such notice is not given within 15 days after harvest is completed, the Corporation reserves the right to reject any claim for indemnity. This notice is in addition to any notice required by paragraph (a) of this section.

15. Released acreage and released crop. (a) Any insured acreage on which the corn crop has been destroyed or substantially destroyed may be released by the Corporation for planting to a substitute crop or to be put to another use. The corn crop shall be deemed to have been substantially destroyed if the Corporation determines that it has been so badly damaged that farmers generally in the area, where the land is located and on whose farms similar damage occurred, would not further care for the crop or harvest any portion thereof. No insured acreage may be planted to a substitute crop or put to another use until the Corporation releases such acreage. On any acreage where the corn has been partially destroyed but not released by the Corporation, proper measures shall be taken to protect the crop from further damage. There shall be no abandonment of any crop or portion thereof to the Corporation.

(b) The corn crop on any insured acreage may be released by the Corporation subject to an appraisal by the Corporation of the yield that would be realized if the crop were harvested, except that such corn crop may be used for ensilage or fodder without a release by the Corporation provided the insured leaves a number of rows considered by the Corporation to be an adequate representative sample for appraising the yield.

16. Time of loss. Any loss shall be deemed to have occurred at the end of the insurance period, unless the entire corn crop on the insurance unit was destroyed or substantially destroyed earlier, in which event the loss shall be deemed to have occurred on the date of such damage, as determined by the Corporation.

17. Proof of loss. If a loss is claimed, the insured shall submit to the Corporation a form entitled "Statement in Proof of Loss," containing such information regarding the manner and extent of the loss as may be required by the Corporation. The statement in proof of loss shall be submitted not later than sixty days after the time of loss, unless the time for submitting the claim is extended in writing by the Corporation. It shall be a condition precedent to any liability under the contract that the insured establish the amount of any loss for which claim is made, and that such loss has been directly caused by one or more of the hazards insured against by the contract during the insurance period for the crop year for which the loss is claimed, and that the insured further establish that the loss has not arisen from or been caused by, either directly or indirectly, any of the causes of loss not insured against by the contract.

18. Insurance unit. Losses shall be determined separately for each insurance unit except as provided in section 19 (b). An insurance unit consists of (a) all the insurable acreage of corn in the county in which the insured has 100 percent interest in the crop at the time of planting, or (b) all the insurable acreage of corn in the county owned by one person which is operated by the insured as a share tenant at the time of planting, or (c) all the insurable acreage of corn in the county which is owned by the insured and is rented to one share tenant at the time of planting. Land rented for cash or for a fixed commodity payment shall be considered as owned by the lessee. For any crop year of the contract acreage shall be considered to be located in the county if a coverage therefor is shown on the county actuarial table.

19. Amount of loss. (a) The amount of loss with respect to any insurance unit shall be determined by multiplying the planted acreage (exclusive of any acreage to which insurance did not attach) by the applicable coverage per acre and subtracting therefrom the value (determined in accordance with section 7) of the total production for the planted acreage and multiplying the remainder by the insured interest. However, if the planted acreage on the insurance unit exceeds the insured acreage on the insurance unit, the amount of loss so determined shall be reduced on the basis of the ratio of the insured acreage to the planted acreage, or if the premium computed for the acreage and interest shown on the acreage report is less than the premium computed for the planted acreage, the amount of loss determined for the planted acreage may be reduced on the basis of the ratio of the premium computed for the acreage and interest shown on the acreage report to the premium computed for the planted acreage, if the Corporation so elects. The total production for an insurance unit shall include all production determined in accordance with the schedule below. The Corporation reserves the right to determine the amount of production on the basis of appraisal of unharvested corn standing in the field.

SCHEDULE

Acreage classification	Total production in bushels
1. Acreage of corn harvested.	1. Actual production of harvested corn plus appraised production of any corn left in the field after harvest.
2. Acreage of corn to be harvested.	2. The appraised production of unharvested corn at the time of submission of a statement in proof of loss or the appraised production of any corn remaining unharvested on December 10.
3. Acreage of corn used for ensilage or fodder.	3. Appraised production.
4. Acreage of corn released by the Corporation and planted to a substitute crop.	4. That portion of the appraised production which is in excess of the number of bushels determined by dividing (i) the amount of coverage for such acreage by (ii) the predetermined price.
5. Acreage of corn released for feeding to livestock in the field and any other acreage not harvested (and not to be harvested) and not planted to a substitute crop.	5. That portion of the appraised production which is in excess of the number of bushels determined by (i) subtracting the coverage for such acreage from what the coverage for such acreage would be if it were harvested and (ii) dividing the result thus obtained by the predetermined price.
6. Acreage of corn put to another use without being released by the Corporation, except corn used for ensilage or fodder, as provided in section 15 (b).	6. Appraised production but not less than the product of (i) such acreage and (ii) the coverage per acre (for harvested acreage) divided by the predetermined price.
7. Acreage of corn with reduced yield due solely to any cause(s) not insured against.	7. Appraised number of bushels by which production has been reduced but not less than the product of (i) such acreage and (ii) the coverage per acre (for harvested acreage) divided by the predetermined price, minus any corn harvested.
8. Acreage of corn with reduced yield due partially to a cause(s) not insured against and partially to a cause(s) insured against.	8. Appraised number of bushels by which production has been reduced because of any cause(s) not insured against.

(b) If the production from two or more insurance units is commingled and the insured fails to establish and maintain records satisfactory to the Corporation of acreage or the production from each, the insurance with respect to such units may be voided by the Corporation for the crop year and the premium forfeited by the insured. However, if all the component parts are insured the total coverage for the component parts may be considered as the total coverage for the combination, if the Corporation so elects, in which case any loss for such combination shall be determined as outlined in paragraph (a) of this section. Where the insured fails to establish and maintain separate records, satisfactory to the Corporation, of uninsured acreage and production therefrom and for one or more insurance units or portions thereof, any production from such acreage which is commingled with production from the insured acreage shall be considered to have been produced on the insured acreage, or the insurance with respect to such unit(s) under the contract may be voided by the Corporation for the crop year and the premium forfeited by the insured.

20. Payment of indemnity. (a) Indemnities shall be paid only by check. The amount of indemnity for which the Corporation may be liable will be payable within thirty days after satisfactory proof of loss is approved by the Corporation, but if payment is delayed for any reason, the Corporation shall not be liable for interest or damages on account of such delay.

(b) Indemnities shall be subject to all provisions of the contract, including the right of the Corporation to deduct from any indemnity the unpaid amount of any earned premium plus any interest due or any other obligation of the insured to the Corporation.

(c) Any indemnity payable under a contract shall be paid to the insured or such other person as may be entitled to the benefits under the provisions of the contract, notwithstanding any attachment, garnishment, receivership, trustee process, judgment, levy, equity, or bankruptcy, directed against the insured or such other person, or against any indemnity alleged to be due to such person; nor shall the Corporation or any officer, employee, or representative thereof, be a proper party to any suit or action with reference to such indemnity, nor be bound by any judgment, order, or decree rendered or entered therein. Nothing herein contained shall excuse any person entitled to the benefits of the contract from full compliance with, or performance of, any lawful judgment, order, or decree with respect to the disposition of any sums paid thereunder as an indemnity.

(d) If a check issued in payment of an indemnity is returned undeliverable at the last known address of the payee, and if such payee or other person entitled to the indemnity makes no claim for payment within two years after the issuance of the check, such claim shall not thereafter be payable, except with the consent of the Corporation.

21. Payment to transferee. (a) If the insured transfers all or a part of his insured interest in a corn crop before the beginning of harvest or the time of loss, whichever occurs first, he shall immediately notify the Corporation thereof in writing at the county office. The transferee under such a transfer will be entitled to the benefits of the contract with respect to the interest so transferred, provided the transferee immediately following the transfer makes suitable arrangements with the Corporation for the payment of any premium with respect to the interest so transferred, whereupon the transferee and the transferor shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of such premium. Any transfer shall be subject to any collateral assignment made by the original insured in accordance with section 25. However, the Corporation shall not be liable for a greater amount of indemnity in connection with the insured crop than would have been paid if the transfer had not taken place.

(b) An involuntary transfer of an insured interest in a corn crop solely because of the existence of a debt, lien, mortgage, garnishment, levy, execution, bankruptcy, or other process shall not entitle any holder of any such interest to any benefits under the contract.

(c) Any deduction to be made from an indemnity payable to the transferee shall not exceed the annual premium plus any interest due on the land involved in the transfer for the crop year in which the transfer is made, plus the unpaid amount of any other obligation of the transferee to the Corporation.

(d) If, as a result of any transfer, diverse interests appear with respect to any insurance unit, any indemnity payable with respect to such unit may be paid jointly to all persons having the insured interest in the crop at the time harvest is commenced or the time of loss, whichever occurs first, or to one of such persons on behalf of all such persons, and payment in any such manner shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's liability with respect to such unit under the contract.

(e) If a transfer is effected in accordance with paragraph (a) above, the contract of the transferor shall cover the interest so transferred only to the end of the insurance period for the crop year during which the transfer is made.
